DERBY WRAP-UP Derby victor Go For Gin (Cormorant) will ship to Pimlico Tuesday, trying to become racing's 12th Triple Crown winner. "He's the Kentucky Derby champion and he's legitimate," said trainer Nick Zito. "He never runs a bad race--and he won the greatest race." Favorite Holy Bull (Great Above), 12th, will try to make amends in Maryland. "He came back fine, he just had a little nick on his right hind. I think he's a little mad," said his owner/trainer Jimmy Croll. Runner-up Strodes Creek (Halo) will also travel to Baltimore, but he will not run in the Preakness. Trainer Charlie Whittingham will saddle stablemate Numerous (Mr. Prospector) for the second leg of the Crown. Blumin Affair (Dynaformer), third, and Brocco (Kris S.), fourth, are also expected for the Preakness. "We think he deserves another shot with these horses," said Brocco's trainer, Randy Winick. "He had a little bit of an adverse trip--I thought he showed a lot of courage to make up the ground he did." Tabasco Cat (Storm Cat), sixth, Powis Castle (Rare Brick), eighth and Kandaly (Alydar), who scratched from the Derby due to the off track, are listed as definite for the race; Soul of the Matter (Private Terms), fifth, is possible.

DERBY DAY BREAKS RECORDS AROUND THE COUNTRY A Hollywood Park record handle of $17,534,970 was wagered on Saturday's 17-race card, which included the simulcast of the Kentucky Derby. The previous mark of $14,352,515 was set during the '87 Breeders' Cup at Hollywood. A crowd of 66,625 at the California track and its satellite sites also set a single-race record, wagering $3,570,779 on the Derby. Ohio's Thistledown established three records Derby Day. With an offering of 11 live races and the simulcast of the "Run for the Roses", handle totalled a record $1,591,299 on track, with an all-time high 11,029 in attendance. Wagering on the Derby was a single-race record $499,745.
