NATIONAL BEST SEVEN LINEUP SET The lineup for the inaugural National Best Seven was announced Thursday night by the Thoroughbred Racing Associations. The races included in Monday's Best Seven will be (all times Eastern Daylight): Metropolitan H. (Belmont Park, 5:01), Hilltop S. (Pimlico, 5:15), Great Lakes H. (Thistledown, 5:20), Washington Park H. (Arlington, 5:25), Barksdale H. (Louisiana Downs, 5:30), Memorial Day S. (Calder, 5:36), AKsarben H. (AKsarben, 5:50).

KRONE RETURNS TO WINNING WAYS Jockey Julie Krone won her first race at Belmont yesterday aboard Consider The Lily (Fappiano) since both were sidelined by injuries in separate incidents at Saratoga last August 30. Coincidentally, it was 'Lily's' first race since that day. Krone was aboard the filly when she broke her maiden in her first start August 8, 1993 at Saratoga, making this a triumphant reunion.

D-DAY INTERNATIONAL CHALLENGE Tonight, Garden State Park will host the 50th anniversary of D-Day International Challenge, a four-race series featuring amateur jockeys from the U. S., Canada, France and Great Britain. The French lead after one event. Representing the U.S. are Christine and Kim Boniface, daughters of Maryland trainer Billy Boniface, and Katherine Neilson of Pennsylvania.

BIEN BIEN ON EDGE FOR TURF H. Bien Bien (Manila) completed his major preparation for Monday's Hollywood Turf H. yesterday, working a half-mile over the firm Hollywood turf course in :48 2/5. Regular rider Chris McCarron was in the irons.

FELICIANO DIES IN CAR CRASH Jockey Paul Feliciano, who rode Secretariat in his first two career starts and was aboard the colt for his first victory, was killed in a two-car accident Saturday in Leslie, Missouri. According to the State Highway Patrol, Feliciano, 42, lost control of the car and collided with another car on Highway 50. Two people in the second automobile were also injured. Feliciano had ridden at nearby Fairmount Park from 1981-'93.

TOBA APRIL OWNER OF THE MONTH Three Texas-based partners, L. William (Bill) Heiligbrodt, R. E. (Ted) Keefer and Walter L. (Buddy) New, have been selected as the TOBA Owner of the Month for April. In April, the partners started four horses. On April 24 at Keeneland, Southern Rhythm, who races in partnership with a group headed by John T. L. Jones, captured the Grade II Lexington S. Five days later, Prize Fight, a five-year-old gelding by Fight Over, won the Governor's Day H. on the inaugural program at Sam Houston. Also, two maiden starters at Keeneland finished second and fifth. The three have been in partnership for over six years. Currently, they own 23 horses; 20 two-year-olds and three older horses.

BELMONT • BEAT

Last year, trainer Shug McGaughey had a pair of talented three-year-old fillies in Dispute and Educated Risk, but they had to run against Sky Beauty all year. This year, he appears to have the dominant sophomore filly in the east as evidenced by Inside Information's eleven length win in the Acorn. "She'll probably breeze in the middle of the week," said McGaughey. "She doesn't have to run for the next month." Inside Information will try to get the second leg of the Triple Tiara in the Mother Goose Sunday, June 12. Heavenly Prize, winner of the Frizette last fall, is another talented three-year-old filly in McGaughey's barn, but she was set back a bit by illness. "She got sick in Florida," McGaughey explained. "She breezed the other day (Tuesday, three furlongs in :39.45) for the first time. I'll probably run her in an allowance race in a month or so."

Eleven horses are currently expected to contest this Saturday's Preakness Stakes at Pimlico. The probable starters are: Blumin Affair (Dynaformer), Concern (Broad Brush), Go for Gin (Cormorant), Kandaly (Alydar), Numerous (Mr. Prospector), Polar Expedition (Kodiack), Powis Castle (Rare Brick), Shiprock (Ga Hai), Silver Goblin (Silver Ghost), Tabasco Cat (Storm Cat) and Ulises (Temperence Hill). Go For Gin worked 5/8ths of a mile in 1:02 over a muddy track at Pimlico Monday morning to the delight of trainer Nick Zito. "That's just what we wanted," said Zito. "Perfect. The good thing was how strong he was at the end. His fractions were :12 4/5, :26, :38 3/5, and :50 3/5. Zito said that the Derby winner may blow out through the lane Friday morning, but would otherwise gallop up to the Preakness. Concern and Looming worked a half-mile company in :51. Trainer Dick Small has named Concern a definite starter, while Looming remains on the list of possibles. Kandaly is scheduled to work five furlongs Tuesday morning. "My horse is gonna run his eyeballs out," said co-owner/trainer Louie Roussel. "My friends, sheets people, tell me he's not good enough. I can't help that if he's not. But I know he's gonna run the race of his life." Smilin Singin Sam entered the Preakness picture over the weekend, and exited it just as quickly. Dogwood Stable owner Cot Campbell announced Monday that the colt needs more time between races, and that shipping from Churchill to Pimlico "is, regrettably, not the wise thing to do." Tabasco Cat is also at Churchill. Trainer Wayne Lukas hopes to work the colt Tuesday morning and ship to Pimlico Wednesday. Polar Expedition had a quick six-furlong breeze in 1:12 1/5 Sunday morning. The colt was still feeling so good Monday morning, that during his walk in the stakes barn shedrow, he threw his head back and gave trainer Hugh Robertson a bloody nose. Blumin Affair will work a half-mile Wednesday or Thursday.
