TWENTY-SIX DECLARED FOR EPSOM

DERBY A total of 26 colts have been declared for Wed.'s £800,000 Ever Ready-sponsored Derby at Epsom. Sheikh Mohammed, Europe's leading owner, has three for the 1 1/2-mile Classic. They are Foyer (Sadler's Wells), King's Theatre (Sadler's Wells) and Linney Head (Lyphard). Khalid Abdullah, successful with Commander In Chief 12 months ago, is relying on just one this year--Sunshack (Rainbow Quest). Other contenders are Broadway Flyer (Theatrical {IRE}), Colonel Collins (El Gran Senor) and Erhaab (Chief's Crown). If all 26 five-day entries go to post, it will equal the biggest Derby field since Psidium beat 25 others in 1961.

MARKETING MANAGER FOR TATTERSALLS

Jimmy George, the editor of Pacemaker and Thoroughbred Breeder, will join bloodstock auctioneers Tattersalls as their new marketing manager. George, 30, began with Pacemaker as advertisement manager in 1989; he became editor in August, 1993.

GOVERNOR ATTENDS OPENING DAY AT

MONMOUTH New Jersey Governor Christine Todd Whitman will make the first trophy presentation of Monmouth Park's 1994 season Sunday. Whitman will be on hand for the first race at 1:00 p.m., and will present the trophy for the traditional opening day feature, the $35,000 John J. Reilly S. An added attraction Sunday will be the return of Bob Weems, Monmouth's racecaller for two decades. Weems will be honored following the Spend A Buck S., and will put the horses on the track for the first race before turning the mike over to new announcer Larry Collmus. Gates open at 11:30 a.m. for opening day with free grandstand admission.

Heavily favored Twining (Forty Niner) blew out three furlongs in :36.88 yesterday morning. The colt has been impressive winning all four career starts, but another big race tomorrow will not convince trainer Scotty Schulhofer to try the last leg of the Triple Crown. "He was a very immature horse, and because of that I had no intention of running him in the Triple Crown. He developed...and then we ran him." The three-year-old will point for the Dwyer (July 3) or the Haskell (July 31) after the Peter Pan.
