STRODES CREEK GIVES WHITTINGHAM A SCARE Kentucky Derby runner-up Strodes Creek (Halo) gave trainer Charlie Whittingham cause for alarm yesterday when he was pulled up and vanned off the Belmont main track after his morning gallop. But the colt appeared to be o.k. when he returned to the barn. "Nothing happened that we could see," said Whittingham. "He must have stepped on something or took a bad step. The exercise girl jumped right off. The pony boy figured it wouldn't be a bad idea to have him go in the ambulance. He walked in fine and came out fine. He may have stepped on a rock. A couple of veterinarians looked at him and couldn't find anything wrong." The three-year-old is expected to start in Saturday's Belmont S.

CHRIS MCCARRON NEARS 6,000 Hall of Fame jockey Chris McCarron captured three races at Churchill Downs Saturday but was winless at Hollywood Sunday; he now needs only 10 victories to become the 11th rider in history to ride 6,000 winners. McCarron would join all-time leader Bill Shoemaker (8,833 wins), Laffit Pincay Jr., Angel Cordero Jr., Jorge Velasquez, David Gall, Larry Snyder, Carl Gambardella, Pat Day, Sandy Hawley and Johnny Longden at that impressive plateau.

STAR OF COZZENE TO CAESAR'S INTERNATIONAL Top grass runner Star Of Cozzene (Cozzene), third in his seasonal debut a week ago, will ship to Atlantic City to defend his title in the $500,000 Caesar's International June 26. "That's kind of been the plan all along," said trainer Mark Hennig. "He likes the turf course there. It's a nice course, and it has a little give to it. It's the kind of course he can do his best on." The six-year-old defeated Lure in the '93 edition of the race.
