SECRETARIAT EXHIBIT AT '94 KENTUCKY HORSE FAIR

The 1994 Kentucky Horse Fair, the annual equine trade show held at Lexington's Kentucky Horse Park and scheduled for July 29-31, will host a special exhibit dedicated exclusively to Secretariat. The exhibit will display and sell mementos tracking the life of the great horse from private collections, including original artwork, privately published and rare books, tapes, and trophies and awards won by Secretariat during his racing career. In addition, Secretariat's owner, Penny Chenery, will be on hand to sign autographs. A percentage of the proceeds of sales of Secretariat art and other memorabilia will go to the Secretariat Laminitis Fund managed by Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation, Inc.

ORIENT CORPORATION TO TRANSFER SHARE IN GULFSTREAM

Orient Corporation, the owner of Gulfstream Park, has announced it is seeking approval from the Florida Division of Pari-Mutuel Wagering to transfer 50 percent ownership of the track to Higashi Nihon House, a Japan-based home developments corporation. HNH will be a passive partner and the proposed transfer will not affect the day-to-day operations, according to Takeshi Doden, chairman of the board at Gulfstream. The stock transfer "represents the completion of a series of debt and capital restructuring steps undertaken by Orient Corp. that have resulted in Gulfstream being in a substantially stronger financial position," said Doug Donn, president and CEO of Gulfstream.

HOLLYWOOD WORK TAB

A pair of contenders for the July 2 Hollywood Gold Cup worked six furlongs Friday morning at Hollywood; Bien Bien (Manila) and Del Mar Dennis (Dixieland Band), both owned by Trudy McCaffery and John Toffan and trained by Paco Gonzalez, breezed six furlongs, in 1:13 and 1:13 2/5, respectively. While Del Mar Dennis is a definite starter, whether Bien Bien runs or not will depend on the weights. Also on the Hollywood work tab for Friday was Bertrando (Skywalker), who worked three-quarters in 1:14 2/5 with Chris Antley aboard. Trainer Ed Nahem reported that the Eclipse Award winner is "50-50" to make his return to competition in the Belair H. July 17.

Claiborne Farm's Lure (Danzig), who finished second in last year's edition of the Caesar's, worked over the Belmont Park turf Thursday; with Mike Smith in the saddle, the five-year-old was clocked going five furlongs in :59 4/5. Lure will try for a return to the winner's circle after finishing second to Paradise Creek in his last two starts; the Kentucky-bred won his '94 debut, taking the GI Elkhorn H. at Keeneland. He will take on the '93 winner of this race, Star Of Cozzene (Cozzene), making his second start of the year. The six-year-old was a rallying third in his seasonal debut, a Hollywood allowance May 29.

Last year's runner-up in the voting for Champion Sprinter, Birdonthewire (Proud Birdie) made his '94 debut in the Roseben H. and finished third. "He raced extremely wide, but he finished well," said trainer Phil Serpe. "I'm very happy with him now." The five-year-old tied the stakes record winning this event last year. Cherokee Run (Runaway Groom) was second to Holy Bull in the Met Mile last time out. "It was an excellent race for him," said his conditioner, Frank Alexander. "He made a valiant effort to catch a good horse...he doesn't run against any slouches." The four-year-old drops back to seven furlongs, which his trainer feels is his best distance.
