FILLY WINS IRISH CLASSIC Balanchine (Storm Bird) collected her second Classic win of the season yesterday, cruising to a clear-cut victory in the Budweiser Irish Derby at The Curragh. The only filly in the field took up the running turning for home and never looked in the slightest danger of defeat, crossing the line four-and-a-half lengths in front of the even-money favorite King's Theatre (Sadler's Wells). Winner of the English Oaks in her most recent start, she was sent to Dubai last autumn and returned to England only days before finishing a close second in her seasonal debut, the English 1,000 Guineas. Said owner Sheikh Maktoum al Maktoum, "I saw her nearly every day in Dubai and watched her progress carefully. I would say it helped her physically." As for the future, he added, "She will now be given a rest before being prepared for the Arc. It is ambitious to aim for such big races--but if we fail, we fail."

MCCARRON REACHES 6,000 Hall of Fame jockey Chris McCarron reached another milestone in his career yesterday, booting home Andestine in the GI Milady H. at Hollywood for his 6,000th win. He is the 11th rider to reach this plateau. "It feels good to get it over with, because I was getting a little anxious at the end," said McCarron. "It was nice to do it in a Grade I--if you're going to do it, you might as well do it with style."

GOLD CUP NOTES Arcangues (Sagace) worked seven furlongs in a bullet 1:25 4/5 Sunday, prepping for next Saturday's $750,000 Hollywood Gold Cup. Said trainer Richard Mandella, "He's really doing good. He was doing well all along, but his last couple of works were really fantastic. I like the way he's coming up to the race." In other news, turf specialist Bien Bien (Manila) will stay on the grass and skip the Gold Cup. The GI event will be televised on ESPN, with post time scheduled for 1:03 PDT.

Fourth on the grass in the GIII Jaipur S. last time out, Virginia Rapids returned to the main track and came from last to rally for a head victory over 9-5 favorite CHEROKEE RUN (Runaway Groom). "He had some bad luck last time," said trainer Allen Jerkens, who took both of New York's feature races last weekend. "He has always been a hard horse because he is so full of himself. Jean-Luc (Samyn) has worked hard on him." The Hall of Famer added, "If we want him to be good in the fall, we may have to back off of him for awhile. It is obvious that seven furlongs and a mile are his best distances." Trainer Frank Alexander said of the place horse, "My horse ran his eyeballs out. It was a super race; I really can't ask for anything more from him. I'll probably run him at Pimlico next time out." The winner is 1/2 to Virgin Michael (Green Dancer), MSW, $348,572.
