TRIVERS WRAP-UP Travers victor Holy Bull (Great Above) left Saratoga yesterday morning, bound for his home base at Monmouth Park. "He left about a quart of feed, but that's normal after running so hard," said his Hall of Fame trainer, Jimmy Croll. "He was bouncing around getting on the van." The colt is scheduled to return to New York for the GI Woodward September 17. "I would certainly think he'd have to win the Woodward to be Horse of the Year," said Croll. "But if I don't think it's there, I won't run him. He's done enough for me already. It's great to get the Eclipse Award, but I won't sacrifice my horse to do it." Travers runner-up Concern (Broad Brush) shipped back to Maryland Saturday night. "He got here at about quarter after four (Sunday morning)," said Brenda Johnson, assistant to trainer Richard Small. "We fed him, and he ate up. Then he crashed and went to sleep. He's tired." Tabasco Cat (Storm Cat) was none the worse for the wear after his disappointing third-place finish. "He's fine," said trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "He struggled with the racetrack (Saturday), but he actually came out of the race very well."

BERTRANDO TO DEFEND WOODWARD TITLE; BEST PAL LOOKS AT KENTUCKY CUP Bertrando (Skywalker), who finished eighth in the GI Pacific Classic last time out after contesting fast early fractions, is now being pointed for a try at his second straight GI Woodward S. at Belmont September 17. The five-year-old was scheduled to breeze at Del Mar this morning; he will head to New York "if everything goes right," according to co-owner Ed Nahem. Plans for the Pacific Classic runner-up Best Pal (Habitony) are not definite, but trainer Richard Mandella may ship the leading active money earner to Kentucky for the Kentucky Cup Classic at Turfway Park September 24.

STORM TOWER (Irish Tower) was sent to the front through opening fractions of :22 1/5 and :45; he shook off NORTHERN TREND (Sunny North) after a quarter and held a six-length advantage after three-quarters but stopped badly, giving way to Taking Risks on the far turn and dropping back to finish eighth. The winner, a $20,000 claim last November who earned his first graded stakes last time out, made his way from third to take command and gallop home as much the best. Last year's Iselin winner Valley Crossing made up some ground to be second, but was no match for the top one.

Second to Sky Beauty in the GI Go for Wand S. at equal weights last time out, Link River dropped nine pounds and picked up her fourth win in five starts since shipping to NA after beginning her career in England. The four-year-old forged to the front with three-eighths remaining and drew clear to earn stakes brackets for the first time in this GI event. "I wasn't sure how she'd handle the mud, but she is bred for it," said trainer Bill Mott. "I think the mud made the difference with my filly. I'm not sure where she'll run next." The 6-5 chalk, You'd Be Surprised gained ground gradually but could not threaten the winner.

The race was delayed 10 minutes, the result of a malfunctioning starting gate which caused a false start when several of the stalls did not open properly.

Soviet Problem, who had taken the measure of the colt Lazor in a match race at Golden Gate in May, again proved too much in head-to-head competition, blazing through the first quarter in :21 3/5 while clear of her rival and pulling away through the final 3/8's to win as she pleased in course-record time (it was the first time a race had been run at the distance over this course). "That was fun," said winning jockey Chris McCarron. "I couldn't believe all of the people on the backstretch for this. I wish it could have been more of a match, but what are you going to do?"
