Cox Orange will make her first start at Belmont today; her seven U.S. races have been at seven different tracks. Her entymates are Dayflower, who makes her American stakes debut off a pair of impressive Belmont allowance wins, and Statuette, on the board in 10 of 12 turf tries.

Winner of the My Juliet S. in the slop at Pimlico in her latest effort and on the board in all seven starts at six furlongs, Ann Dear bided her time at the back of the pack for a half, then made a run at the leaders to get up in the final strides and take the three-way photo. Said jockey Mike Smith. "They were moving right along up front, but I had so much horse. When I swung out at the head of the lane, she really kicked in." The 3-5 favorite Classy Mirage, second in the GI Ballerina last time out, also rallied from off the pace but could not outgame the top two while giving eight pounds to the winner and 11 to the runner-up.
