USER FRIENDLY BREEDERS' CUP BOUND

Trainer Rodney Rash reported yesterday that User Friendly (GB) (Slip Anchor {GB}), a GISW in England, Ireland and France who was third in Saturday's Live The Dream S. at Del Mar, will start once more before heading to the Breeders' Cup. Rash said that the five-year-old mare, who was difficult to rate and tired to eighth in the GI Beverly D two starts back, was much more manageable in her most recent outing. Rash will also send double Del Mar H. winner Navarone (Irish River {Fr}) to the Breeders' Cup; the six-year-old will now point to the Oak Tree Invitational Oct. 9.

STROLLING ALONG TO ASHFORD STUD

GISW Strolling Along (Danzig), who was retired earlier this year after winning graded stakes at two, three and four, will stand at Ashford Stud in Versailles, Kentucky next year. The four-year-old was successful in the seven-furlong GI Futurity, the 12-furlong GII Lawrence Realization on the turf, and the 10-furlong GII Gulfstream Park Budweiser Breeders' Cup H.

ROCKING CHAIR DERBY RESULTS

Jockey Danny Velasquez rallied his mount Zee Bee from fourth to win Saturday's Rocking Chair Derby at Del Mar, an exhibition event restricted to retired riders, by three-quarters of a length. "I ran out of air, more from the excitement than from the physical aspects of the race," said Velasquez. "It was just like we never left. I would love to do it again--once a year is just right."

CORRECTION: Bruce's Mill (Steady Growth) was mistakenly credited with winning the Queen's Plate in yesterday's "News Today" column of the Thoroughbred Daily News. The three-year-old was second to Basqueian (Bounding Basque) in that race, but came back to turn the tables in the second leg of Canada's Triple Crown, the Prince of Wales S.

BELMONT • BEAT

Looking to take her first New York riding title since the 1992 Belmont Spring meet, jockey Julie Krone is making her presence felt, leading all riders with a total of 11 wins through Sunday. Eclipse Award winner Mike Smith is just behind her with 10, followed by Saratoga champ Jerry Bailey with nine.
