TRAINER ALEX SCOTT FOUND DEAD

Alex Scott, who saddled Sheikh Albadou to win the 1991 Breeders' Cup Sprint at Churchill Downs, was found dead at his home near Newmarket Friday. Exact details concerning the 34-year-old trainer's death have not yet been released, but it is believed he was involved in a shooting incident. Scott's body was taken to Addenbrooke's Hospital in Cambridge, England where a post mortem examination was being carried out yesterday. A spokesman for the local police said, "It is true to say that an initial examination shows gunshot wounds. We are treating the death as suspicious." Scott, who took out his trainer's license in 1989, had earlier served as assistant to Dick Hern, trainer of Dayjur and Nashwan. He leaves a wife, Julia, and three children.

BREEDERS' CUP PREVIEW NOTES Woodward runner-up Devil His Due (Devil's Bag) worked a mile at Belmont yesterday, going in 1:41.08 over the training track in preparation for next Saturday's GI Jockey Club Gold Cup on Belmont Park's Breeders' Cup Preview Day card. "We hope he's ready for it," said trainer Allen Jerkens. Jerkens confirmed that jockey Jerry Bailey will be aboard for the Gold Cup. Other Gold Cup hopefuls breezing at Belmont yesterday: Kentucky Derby winner Go for Gin (Cormorant), fourth in the Woodward, went five furlongs in 1:00.32, and Colonial Affair (Pleasant Colony), third in the Woodward, went the same distance in 1:01.42. Trainer D. Wayne Lukas reported that Kentucky Cup Classic winner Tabasco Cat (Storm Cat) will arrive for the race Tuesday. Trainer Ron McAnally will be sending three runners from California for Belmont's Breeders' Cup Preview Day. GI Del Mar Futurity winner On Target (Forty Niner) will come in for the Champagne, Comstock Queen (Silver Hawk), winner of her only start, will run in the Frizette and Potridee (Arg) (Potrillazo {Arg}), victorious in the GI Vanity H. this year and champion two-year-old filly in Argentina, will run in the Beldame. The likely favorite for the Beldame, three-year-old Heavenly Prize (Seeking the Gold), went five-eighths Saturday in 1:01.03, breezing. Royal Mountain Inn (Vigors), winner of the Man o'War, went five furlongs yesterday in 1:02.07 on the main track; he will make his next start in Saturday's Turf Classic.

Soul Of The Matter sat behind early leader Bay Street Star for a mile, then forged his way to the front and held on gamely through the stretch to best the late-running Concern in the photo. "The best thing I did was to quit on him after the Derby," said winning trainer Richard Mandella. "He gained weight; he filled out. His feet grew out and they're sounder than they were before...with a little luck, he can get better next year. I've always thought he was best going further. He has speed and a nice length of stride...I thought if we could get him to rate and settle back and make a late run, we'd really make a good horse out of him. He has just responded to what we've asked of him." As for his next start, Mandella said, "As long as he's healthy, we're going to go to the Breeders' Cup."
