JOCKEY CRITICAL AFTER SPILL AT CHARLES TOWN

Jockey James Thornton, 54, suffered severe head injuries after being unseated during a spill in the first race at Charles Town Friday night. The Baltimore native fell from his mount, Shifty Four, soon after the start while in tight quarters; jockey Glenn Reeder, aboard Sales Book, was also thrown. Flown by helicopter to Fairfax Hospital in Virginia, Thornton underwent surgery Friday night to relieve pressure on the brain; he was listed as critical Saturday. Reeder and the two horses were uninjured.

TURFWAY ANNOUNCES PURSE INCREASE

Turfway Park President Mark Simendinger yesterday announced an across-the-board, 10 percent raise in the track's overnight purses, effective Wednesday, December 14. The increase will bring the daily purse distribution to a record $200,000. "Business is strong now, and our horsemen are the beneficiaries," said Simendinger. "The advent of full-card simulcasting in Kentucky has contributed to larger purse accruals...plus, we are sending our simulcast signals to over 30 primary outlets in the United States, Canada and Trinidad and 10 outlets here in Kentucky."

SANTA ANITA H. WINNER STUKA RETIRED

Allen Paulson's Stuka (Jade Hunter), who earned the victory in the GI Santa Anita H. earlier this year on the disqualification of The Wicked North, has been retired and will stand the '95 breeding season at The Vinery in Midway, Kentucky. The four-year-old ended his career with five wins and earnings of $915,675; he captured the Skywalker S. at Santa Anita in his last start.

SHEIKH MOHAMMED'S QUEST FOR THE DERBY

Sheikh Mohammed, the world's largest owner of racehorses, has entered no fewer than 106 yearlings for the 1996 Epsom Derby. The Sheikh has still to win the Classic, despite sending out 14 runners over the past 12 years. King's Theatre, second to Erhaab in this year's edition of the race, gave the Sheikh his best result to date. His two-year-old Pennekamp, trained in France by Andre Fabre, is currently second-favorite for the 1995 Derby.

Star Of Manila ends his year on a high note with three straight wins after a season fraught with minor injuries and setbacks. Off from May to Oct. this year after having a bone chip removed from his ankle, he returned to the races Oct. 8 in the Hawthorne Derby, finishing 10th, and came down with a skin rash after the race. A winner of his last two starts at Churchill, he got cast in his stall after the second victory and was only able to squeeze in one work before this effort. "I'll back off a little now and then get him ready for three races at Gulfstream--the Canadian, one at 1 3/8th miles and the Pan American," said trainer Burk Kessinger. Second favorite Kissin Kris was beaten less than a length while encountering traffic troubles. "We probably had the best horse today," said rider Dave Penna. "We got caught on the rail and I had to wait there until I could work my way out in the stretch. I saved ground the whole way around, but never got any running room until it was too late."
