SAN DIEGO SETBACK FOR SILVER CHARM

Sent off at 3-10 in yesterday's GIII San Diego H., last year's champion three-year-old Silver Charm (Silver Buck) looked the part of the favorite early, stalking Mud Route (Strawberry Road {Aus}) through the early going, but came up empty in the stretch and finished last, 27 lengths behind that rival at the wire. It was the first time in his career the colt, winner of the Kentucky Derby, Preakness and Dubai World Cup, finished worse than second. Said jockey Gary Stevens. "I've been with this horse for a year now, and I'd bet as much money as I had that he bled today. I know the feeling. He was wobbling under me. He lost his equilibrium. He was exhausted. From what I felt, he probably bled significantly." Trainer Bob Baffert added, "I don't know what to say. Physically he's fine, so I guess you've got to say bleeding is a real possibility. He's been known to bleed, and down here, this heavy air can't help." As for the future, Baffert said, "The Pacific Classic? I can't even think about that race right now." (San Diego chart, p7)

SWAIN REIGNS IN KING GEORGE The gallant Swain (Ire) (Nashwan), who missed by a nose to Silver Charm in the $4 million Dubai World Cup in March and was a disappointing third in the June 5 G1 Coronation Cup last out, became only the second back-to-back winner of the King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. with his one-length victory in the Group 1 event at Ascot yesterday. The six-year-old follows the champion filly Dahlia, who achieved the feat in 1973 and 1974, and also gives jockey Frankie Dettori his second victory in the race after Lammtarra in 1995. Third in the early going as stablemate Happy Valentine (GB) (Rainbow Quest) set a strong pace, Swain came with his challenge as they swung into the straight and firmly put the two unbeaten three-year-olds in their place, outfinishing Epsom Derby winner High-Rise (Ire) (High Estate {Ire}) for the victory, with Royal Anthem (Theatrical {Ire}) another 1 1/2 lengths back in third. "Swain needs no introduction," said Dettori. "I know he has run a couple of bad races, but he is six and as we get older we all take a bit of time to go to work in the morning...I guess he is the same. He is as good as last year." Added Sheikh Mohammed, who set up the Godolphin operation: "Once Swain hit the front I thought he would stay there, as when horses come to him he gives a little bit more. If the horse is still happy and wants to race at the end of the year we might keep him in training." (King George chart, p2)

Banshee Breeze, winner of the GII Bonnie Miss S. in her stakes debut March 16, went on to finish second by a neck in the GI Kentucky Oaks and third in both the GI Ashland S. and the GI Mother Goose in her latest June 27. Paired with Kentucky Oaks rider Jerry Bailey once again here, the homebred bay was sent off the second choice. Never far off the pace, she drove to the lead after a mile and a quarter and outgamed 1-2 Keeper Hill, the winner of the Kentucky Oaks, to take the photo. "I thought Jerry rode a splendid race," said winning trainer Carl Nafzger. "In her past races, especially in the Kentucky Oaks, whenever she made the lead she seemed to start to ease up because she thought she was the winner, and that may have cost us. But..when she seemed like she was going to hang (this time), Jerry got into her and she responded." Bailey agreed with the assessment, saying, "Today she made the lead at about the same time as in the Kentucky Oaks, but this time she didn't ease, she finished strong." The winner will point for the GI Alabama S. at Saratoga August 22, while Keeper Hill will head back to California. "We'll just freshen her up now for the fall, because we've been shipping her around a lot lately," said her trainer, Bobby Frankel. The race was marred when SWEET AND LOVELY (Chief's Crown) broke her left front ankle and fell near the top of the stretch; the runner-up had to swerve to get around the fallen horse and rider, while both STARRY LAKE (Meadowlake) and HANSEL'S GIRL (Hansel) had to be steadied sharply to avoid the spill. Sweet and Lovely had to be euthanized; her jockey, Jorge Chavez, was uninjured in the accident.

SHARP CAT RETURNS MONDAY Out since winning the GII Bayakoa H. in a walkover for trainer D. Wayne Lukas last December 7, four-year-old Sharp Cat (Storm Cat) will make her return in Monday's Bayakoa H. at Del Mar. The filly, facing only two rivals in her comeback, will be saddled by trainer Wally Dollase for the first time in the race. She was injured when she hit herself on the shin during the walkover, and reinjured the area earlier this year, but Dollase said, "She's really not bothered by it now. It's a wound on the shin that doesn't affect her action. She has been training very well, and she has shown she can relax. She seems a little more mellow than before." A winner in 10 of her 17 career starts, Sharp Cat has five Grade I victories and more than $1.3 million in earnings.

Black Amber (Ire) led home Bertolini to land a British one-two punch. BROOKLYN'S STORM (Storm Cat) led for the first half of the race, but was joined and passed by Black Amber at the quarter-mile pole. Bertolini, winner of the G3 July S. at Newmarket July 8, set off in vain pursuit, but Black Amber held on well to score in good style. Bertolini comfortably held second place from Imperfect World. Black Amber was winning for the second time from three lifetime starts and reversed the July S. form with Bertolini, having finished third to that rival in his previous race.

Earning his first victory of the season, Godolphin's Swain (Ire) took his race record to seven wins from 18 lifetime starts and his career earnings to $3,003,309. The stable's intended pacemaker HAPPY VALENTINE (GB) (Rainbow Quest) completely missed the break, but was kicked to the lead in the first furlong and set a strong pace, with Royal Anthem two lengths adrift in second and jockey Frankie Dettori bidding his time with Swain in third. Epsom Derby winner High-Rise (GB) was restrained in midfield by jockey Olivier Peslier. As they swung into the straight Royal Anthem made his bid and Dettori asked Swain to follow. High-Rise, put into a challenging position at the quarter-mile pole, looked to be boxed in; Peslier found running room at the eighth pole, but Swain was not to be denied. Said Dettori: "I had a quick look under my legs four out and I saw everybody was strung out, so I thought I should kick early. My horse takes a bit of time to get going--I always had Royal Anthem covered, but I did not want to set the race up for someone else coming from behind. I saw High-Rise's head all of a sudden and I said it was time to go now." Luca Cumani, trainer of the runner-up, commented: "In the straight, (High-Rise) had to change legs twice and that might have made half a length's difference. High-Rise will now go on holiday--like all good Italians he will have August off...and then we will prepare him for an autumn campaign. The Arc (Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe) would have to enter calculations." Trainer Henry Cecil said of Royal Anthem: "He's just a baby and remember that is only his fourth race. He just didn't quite have the strength or the experience. He'll be some horse in time. Time will tell what we will do, but we are really thinking about this horse for next year."

Pozarica (GB), fresh from victory in the G3 Prix Berteux at Chantilly, won again in good style despite idling in front, and headed a 1-2-3 finish for the Maktoum family. British challenger Kahtan (GB) held the lead until the quarter pole, where Pozarica took up the running. Ocean Of Storms (Ire) became the only serious challenger and, despite pushing the winner all the way to the wire, just couldn't manage to get to the front. Kahtan kept on at the one pace and held on to get third place. Pozarica's win gave owner Sheikh Maktoum al Maktoum a French Group race double on the day after Kabool (GB)'s earlier victory.

Relaxing Rhythm (Easy Goer) is unbeaten in eight career starts. The four-year-old filly was off for nine months after a perfect 1997 campaign; she came back to take a seven-furlong allowance at Churchill June 10 and added the 1 1/16-mile GII Molly Pitcher Breeders' Cup H. in her latest July 4, but stretches out beyond that route for the first time. Last year's champion three-year-old filly Ajina (Strawberry Road {Aus}) has been off the board in two of her three starts since taking the '97 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, most recently running fourth, beaten 13 lengths, in the GI Hempstead H. at 1 1/16 miles June 20. She has, however, shown an affinity for this distance in the past, winning the GI Coaching Club American Oaks and finishing second in the GI Alabama last season.

Both horse and trainer added to their win tally with this photo-finish victory over March 14 GIII Fair Grounds Oaks winner Lu Ravi. After settling in second just off the pace, Nickel Classic came on in midstretch to open a clear lead and had just enough left to hold off the closing rush of the runner-up. "She was really struggling with the track today," said Danner, who has only three other horses and had to hurry back to the spit box after this race, as he is also the winner's groom. "It was a hard-earned victory." Previously undefeated 2-1 favorite MEMORIES OF GOLD (Time for a Change) tracked the pacesetters, but faded to last.

Although Memories of Silver, the winner of last year's GIII Just A Game Breeders' Cup at Belmont and GI Beverly D. at Arlington, was coming off a nine-month layoff, her presence was enough to scare away 11 of the 16 horses that were entered in this race. That proved to be a wise strategy. After tracking the leader through a slow first quarter, Pat Day sent the odds-on favorite to the lead and she galloped from there. "We are very satisfied with today's outcome," said trainer James Toner, who speculated that her next race will be the GIII Ballston Spa H. at Saratoga August 16.

Soviet Line (Ire) had registered two seconds against graded-stakes foes this year, just missing in the GIII Maker's Mark Mile at Keeneland April 10 and losing the photo in his most recent start, the June 28 GIII Firecracker Breeders' Cup at Churchill. The 3-2 favorite, despite being in tight quarters inside around the second turn, found enough racing room to catch the pacesetting runner-up in midstretch and set a new course record.

Claimed for $50,000 coming off a four-month layoff June 6, Composer came right back under new management to win a turf allowance by a neck at Churchill June 25. The third choice in his second start off the claim, Composer sat off the pace in last while favorites YAQTHAN (Kris {GB}) and Burbank dueled for the lead. After moving three wide on the far turn, Composer passed the game runner-up in midstretch and drew off to his first stakes win since taking the 1995 GII Jim Dandy at Saratoga.

Mining Missharriet lit up the board in her debut at Churchill May 23, registering a win in the mud at odds of 25-1. She came back off that win at similar odds to run fourth in the GIII Debutante at Churchill June 27. Outrun to the stretch, the third choice came five wide off the turn and finished full of run to get her first stakes victory. "We thought she'd get better with distance," said trainer Charles Dickey. "The Ellis Park Debutante (August 15) is certainly what we'll look to next."

Handicappers didn't know much about Sicy d'Alsace (Fr) and neither did her trainer Nick Canani, who got her off the plane from France only two days ago. Winless since taking an allowance at the minor French track Angers last November, she was coming off a second in an allowance at Maisons-Laffitte June 30. Said trainer Canani, who was getting his first career stakes win, "She ran from behind in France behind slow paces, so we thought she'd run much better behind a faster pace here and she'd have a bigger, stronger kick." With Miss Hot Salsa and MOM'S DAY (Din's Dancer) setting quick early fractions, Sicy d'Alsace loped along in last going into the far turn, then came wide into the stretch and closed gamely to just get up at the wire.

Coming off a fourth-place finish in the June 28 GI Hollywood Gold Cup, Mud Route was the second choice in this field behind 3-10 favorite SILVER CHARM (Silver Buck). The chestnut sprinted right to the lead, set an honest pace and opened it up down the lane to win easily. "For the past two weeks this horse has been screaming at us, 'Run me, run me,'" said winning jockey Chris McCarron. "If body language means anything, you had to know that this horse was just begging to run. He was a runner today. At the 5/16th I had to go--I knew Gary (Stevens, aboard Silver Charm) was there, but I had a length on him and I figured I'd have to make him work to win it. So I got busy and when I got into the stretch I heard (announcer Trevor Denman) say something, and it sounded like I was way in front. I took a look back and I was. It felt good." Trainer Ron McAnally said, "He's nominated to the Pacific Classic (August 15) and we'll surely be looking at that." Eclipse champ Silver Charm pressed the pace through a half in :46 4/5, but had nothing left for the drive and finished last.

The Barking Shark came back from over a year off April 30 to run third by a half length to subsequent Grade I-placed Puerto Madero (Chi) going seven furlongs at Hollywood. After three consecutive unplaced stakes efforts, the five-year-old, known for second-place finishes in both the GI Super Derby and GI Strub S., finally found his spot, taking an early lead and never relinquishing it en route to his first victory since an allowance win at Turf Paradise in May of 1996.

Mythical Girl initiated a Group race double for jockey Frankie Dettori by comfortably taking this fillies-only event. The punters' favorite, she kept up with the pace as Rustic (Ire) led early, then went up after the lead at the quarter-mile pole and ran on too strongly for her opponents. Gipsy Rose Lee (Ire) closed for second, with Rustic holding on to third. Mythical Girl is now two-for-two after scoring on her debut at Newmarket July 10. Trainer David Loder, who had won this race with Blue Duster (1995) and Embassy (GB) (1997), said: "They were both exceptional fillies and after that she has certainly taken the first two steps towards following in their footsteps. The Lowther and the Cheveley Park are the obvious races to have penciled in for her now, but I shall have to have discussions with Sheikh Maktoum about plans. The first time this filly ran we rode her from behind, but it was quite hard work for her and so this time, with the number one draw, we decided to let her roll and see what happened. She was staying on very well at the end and maybe she is also a little bit special." Added Dettori: "We liked her a lot a month ago, but then when David asked me to ride her in her last bit of work before she ran for the first time at Newmarket she went badly. We had been very hopeful, but after that we did not know what to expect. Then she won at Newmarket and when I rode her work again after that, the way she had come on from the race was unbelievable. She stays the six furlongs really well and has a lovely long stride. I am sure she will be able to go further in due course." Bookmakers were sufficiently impressed to quote her as the 12-1 favorite (down from 25-1) for next year's English 1000 Guineas.
