TEMPERA BEATEN AT NAD AL SHEBA

Eclipse Award-winner Tempera (A.P. Indy), making her three-year-old debut in the UAE 1000 Guineas yesterday, could not keep pace with Godolphin stablemate Infinite Spirit (Maria's Mon) and had to settle for second, beaten five lengths. "Tempera was very disappointing," Simon Crisford, Godolphin's racing manager, said. "She came into it having worked nicely and she seemed fine after the race. We expected her to run well. We will now wait and reassess matters." Infinite Spirit, on the other hand, pleased connections with her handy front-running victory. The chestnut, runner-up while facing colts in the Listed Silver Tankard S. at Pontefract last October, came back in the Jan. 31 Moonshell Mile Prep at Nad Al Sheba and posted a 3 3/4-length score. "Infinite Spirit has a high cruising speed," winning jockey John Carroll said. "When [jockey Frankie Dettori, aboard Tempera] came at me at the 300-metre mark, I knew how well I was going and I knew my filly would respond and she did so impressively. Whether she can measure up to the Classics later remains to be seen, but she is going the right way. She is improving and she is definitely a Group filly."

BELTERRA RETURNS IN BONNIE MISS

One of last year's top two-year-old fillies, unbeaten Belterra (Unbridled) will make her 2002 debut in the nine-furlong GII Bonnie Miss S. this afternoon at Gulfstream Park. The Triple Crown nominee rallied to break her maiden in her debut going seven furlongs at Keeneland in October, then demolished Churchill allowance rivals by 10 1/4 lengths in a mile test on Halloween. The bay filly then collected the GII Golden Rod S. by 4 1/2 lengths Nov. 24, with Take Charge Lady finishing second. Off since then, she has progressed nicely through a series of workouts. "I worked Belterra on Monday [five furlongs in 1:00] and it was an easy work for her," trainer Carl Nafzger said. "I worked her hard in her previous work [six furlongs from the gate in 1:12 3/5]. She hasn't been out since she won the Golden Rod at Churchill Downs last November, but she's been training well and is in great shape." Stretch-running Ms Brookski (Montbrook) bounced back from a poor run in the GIII Herecomesthebride S. on turf to take the GII Davona Dale S. Feb. 24. Making their stakes debuts are Dust Me Off (With Approval) and Nonsuch Bay (Mr. Greeley). A debut winner at Calder, Dust Me Off bled when sixth in a turf allowance at Gulfstream Jan. 16, but got Lasix for the first time Feb. 20 and responded with a wire-to-wire victory in a tough two-turn allowance over this surface. "She's a young and improving filly," said trainer Allen Jerkens. "I think she deserves a chance to run in there and it's time to see what she's made of. We found she bled in her second start. She won very nicely when she raced with Lasix in her last start and she's been training well."

☆ TRIPLE THREATS ☆

Sunday, Santa Anita

SAN FELIPE S.-GII, $250,000, 3yo, 1 1/16m

U S S Tinoso (Foxhound) blew out three furlongs in :36.60 at Santa Anita Thursday. "It's just a little blow-out," said trainer Jerry Hollendorfer. "I just want him to get a feel for the track."

Stephentown Injured:

Stephentown (Wild Again) was not entered in tomorrow's GI Florida Derby after injuring his shoulder during a morning workout Tuesday. Trainer Tony Reinstedler said the injury was not serious, however. "Stephentown is doing well," he said. "If the race was on Monday, then maybe he could run it. But he's too nice a horse to take a chance with, so I had to go to the bench." Reinstedler will instead saddle Peekskill (Meadowlake) in the $1-million event. The colt comes off a fifth-place finish in the GIII Palm Beach S. on the grass Feb. 22. "Peekskill will be my [Florida] Derby horse," he said. "He has run good over this track and I don't think he liked the turf in his last start. I know we're taking a shot...but this is a crazy game and crazy things happen. Maybe it can happen again on Saturday."

Scan for Came Home:

Came Home (Gone West) will undergo a precautionary nuclear scan on Friday. The colt was found cast in his stall on Tuesday. He returned to the track for a 1 1/2-mile gallop yesterday. "So far, he looks okay," said trainer Paco Gonzalez. "He galloped real good today. There's no heat or anything wrong with him that we found, but we just want to make sure [with the diagnostic test]."

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters. Post times are listed in local times.

Easy Grades Works:

Easy Grades (Honor Grades), runner-up to Came Home in the GII San Rafael, worked four furlongs Monday at Santa Anita in :47. The colt starts next in the Apr. 6 GI Santa Anita Derby. "He came out of [the San Rafael] surprisingly well," said trainer Ted West. "I thought that race might have taken something out of him, he ran hard and was four wide all the way around, but he hasn't missed an oat since. That's what you want to see [from a three-year-old] this time of year."

Request for Parole Breezes for Spiral:

Top Turfway-based three-year-old Request for Parole (Judge T C) had his final major tune-up for the Mar. 23 GII Lane's End Spiral S., breezing three-quarters in 1:14 3/5 Thursday morning. "It was just what I wanted," said trainer Steve Margolis. "I wanted a long, slow work. He has plenty of tactical speed, so I didn't need to put any speed into him." The colt's connections announced earlier this week that Pat Day would replace Brian Peck for the Spiral. "The owners had said that if we make it this far, they wanted the best rider available," explained Margolis. "We are very excited to have Pat. We're hoping he can get him to sit back a little more and have a little more finish going 1 1/8 miles." Second to Repent in the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. last fall, Request for Parole has won back-to-back stakes at Turfway this year, the WEBN Frog S. Feb. 2 and the John Battaglia Memorial S. one month later. Others expected for the Spiral include Benny the Hawk (Benny the Dip), Gold Dollar (Seattle Slew), Holdthehelm (Helmsman), Perfect Drift (Dynaformer), Saratoga Blues (Twining) and Straight Gin (Go for Gin), with My Man Ryan (Mutakddim) listed as possible.

Oaklawn Purse Increase:

Officials at Oaklawn announced yesterday that purses will be raised for the third time this season. The increase, to take effect Saturday, will boost the value of claiming races by $500, with allowance and maiden special weight contests seeing a jump of $1,000.

Yesterday's Results:

7th-FGX, $30,000, Alw, 3yo, a1mT, 1:42, fm. NO MORE CHADS (c, 3, Atticus--Crossing Over, by Kris S.) made his bow on the turf at Aqueduct Nov. 1, settling for sixth after a wide trip. Following a three-month respite, he came back to break his maiden against $20,000 claimers at Fair Grounds Feb. 16. Bettors looked skeptically at the brown colt in his first allowance test here, letting him go to post as a 17-1 longshot, a decision they may now regret as he came from off the pace in the last furlong to get up to score by a neck over Emberglow (Afternoon Deelites). Trying a route for the first time in her sophomore debut, the 7-2 shot settled in second behind favored Distinctive Code (Lost Code), challenged wide on the far turn and drew off in the last sixteenth to score over that foe by two lengths. The winner is a half to Daimon (Strike Gold), MSW, $222,912; Penny's Reshoot (Turkey Shoot), MGSW & GISP, $249,491; and Twin Propeller (Known Fact), MSW, $195,861. The even-money favorite in his first try against winners, the chestnut colt put up a nearly identical effort by stalking the pace early before seizing command en route to a five-length triumph. He returned to the main track for the GI Hollywood Futurity Dec. 15, but finished a lackluster seventh and went back to the grass for the Jan. 6 Hill Rise S., which he captured by three lengths. The Florida-bred chased the pace early, swung three wide into the stretch and pulled away from National Park. The latter came in sharply inside the eighth pole, bumping Greenhills, and was disqualified to third after a steward's inquiry.

Barretts May Sale to Include Two Dispersals:

Barretts May Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training has been expanded to two days, May 13 and 14, to include two dispersals. Over 400 horses have been catalogued in total. "This year's May two-year-olds include many March Sale-type pedigrees, and the dispersals should add some spice to the book as well," said Barretts president Jerry McMahon. Fifty horses from the Estate of Bart D. Heller and a 26-head entry from the Cavanaugh Family Trust will go under the hammer. Among the Heller dispersal are 15 yearlings, 14 two-year-olds in training and 21 horses of racing age, including stakes winners Sea to See (Al Mamoon), Spinelessjellyfish (Skywalker) and Mellow Fellow (Belek). A complete list of dispersal horses will be available on www.barretts.com.

NTRA Directors Meeting:

During its first quarter, 2002 meeting yesterday at Gulfstream Park, the National Thoroughbred Racing Association Board of Directors welcomed new board member John Roark. Roark is the National HBPA president and replaces Bill Walmsley who held the HBPA's seat on the board since 1998. The board also authorized a final $59.3 million operating budget for 2002, approved a group purchasing and marketing alliance with the American Quarter Horse Association and reviewed plans for the 2002 co-op advertising campaign. Also during the meeting, the board approved formal affiliation with the National Council on Problem Gaming and reviewed legislative progress. The next scheduled board meeting is June 7 at Belmont Park.

Horse of the Year
Champion at 3, 4, and 5

THE "PERFECT HORSE" WINS GOLD Trainer Henrietta Knight's Best Mate (Ire) (Un Desperado {Fr}), off at 7-1, captured the G1 Cheltenham Gold Cup yesterday under a professional ride by Jim Culloty. Knight, who calls Best Mate the "the perfect racehorse," had earlier in the season stated that the horse "thinks he's Arkle." She said yesterday, "I knew he'd stay three miles plus. Jim gave him a super ride, always in the right place. He made a mistake at the same fence twice, but otherwise it was a magic round." Best Mate got the better of Commanche Court (Ire) (Commanche Run {GB}), trained by Ted Walsh, to win by 1 3/4 lengths. "I hope I'll get my turn, but it was a privilege to be second to such a good horse and beat a Gold Cup winner," Walsh said. "But I must say I'm heartbroken at the moment." Also on the card, Charlie Swan steered Scolardy (Ire) (Turtle Island {Ire}) to an impressive success in the G1 Triumph Hurdle. It looked like Swan had secured the Festival jockeys' championship in the process, but he was denied in a dramatic finish to the day as Richard Johnson scored in the last race on Rooster Booster (GB) (Riverwise {USA}) to take the title.

BEST MATE (IRE) (g, 7, Un Desperado {Fr}--Katday {Fr}, by Miller's Mate {GB}), sent off at odds of 7-1, raced in mid-division early as the defending champion Looks Like Trouble (Ire) (Zaffaran {USA}) led. Always travelling impressively, he arrived to challenge still on the bridle as they turned into the straight. Taking command from Commanche Court (Ire) (Commanche Run {GB}) approaching the last fence, he was pushed out to score by 1 3/4 lengths, with eight lengths back to the 1999 hero See More Business (Ire) (Seymour Hicks {Fr}) in third. Prix Ronde de Nuit cont.

Prudence Royale was still a maiden going into this race, but she had smart form, having ended last season with a fine second behind Summertime Legacy (GB) in the G3 Prix des Reservoirs at Deauville in October. Here she was ridden with supreme confidence for her first stakes success. Settled in third early by Christophe Soumillon as Sue Generoos was taken to the front, she moved up smoothly into the leader's slipstream before being angled out at the quarter pole. Hitting the front on the bridle with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, she was pushed out with hands and heels for a comfortable win.

KNOCK OUT (FR) (c, 3, Kaldounevees {Fr}--Victoria Dee {Fr}, by Rex Magna {Fr}), sent off at odds of nearly 4-1, raced in fifth early as Prince Benjamin (Fr) (Funambule {USA}) pulled his way to the front. Making smooth progress to challenge the game frontrunner in the straight, he quickened past in the final 75 yards before being driven out to score by 3/4 lengths. The winner is a half to Turbotiere (Fr) (Turgeon {USA}), MSW & MGSP-Fr, $220,876. Lifetime Record: 3 starts, 1 win, 1 place, €13,241.

BANYU DEWI SOLD

Dieter Meinke's homebred three-year-old Banyu Dewi (Ger) (Poliglote {GB}) has been sold to U.S. interests for an undisclosed, but reportedly substantial, sum. Roger Alles' German International Bloodstock organised the deal which should see the Classic hopeful move to the States. Trained by Mario Hofer at two, the half-sister to the MGSW Banyumanik (Ire) broke her maiden first time out before being awarded the Listed Kronimus-Rennen at Baden Baden in August. She followed that with a fast-finishing second to Narooma (Ger) in the G3 Preis der Winterkonigin at Mulheim in October before ending the season with a solid fourth placing in the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud the following month, beaten only by three Aidan O'Brien-trained colts.
