

WELCOME, SOPHS, TO YOUR FINAL EXAM

"It has been an interesting sophomore year, class. Unfortunately, Repent and Siphonic and Buddha (see p8) are on sabbatical, but to the rest of you, good luck in your final exam. Your mission--win the 128th GI Kentucky Derby." Those were the words of Professor Louis Ville, who is having a difficult time evaluating exactly who might pass his exam. There is Harlan's Holiday (Harlan), the valedictorian of the bunch and race favorite based on his victories back-to-back in the

Harlan's Holiday in the Churchill paddock Horsephotos

GI Florida Derby in March and the GI Toyota Blue Grass last month. Trained by Kenny McPeck, second in the 1995 Derby with Tejano Run, the Ohio-bred comes into this race having never finished out of the top two in 10 career trips to the post. "Everything has been going great. We just have to get a good trip," the conditioner said. Is there a fellow classmate that McPeck fears more than another? "Came Home (Gone West)," he said without a moment's thought. "When I saw him at the Breeders' Cup Juvenile last year, I thought when I saw him in the paddock, 'now there's a horse I can beat.' I saw him in the paddock here and he is a different horse. Bigger, stronger, better looking, healthier." The salutatorian of the class, Came Home has a lifetime batting average of .857, with six wins in seven starts, including a much-the-best win in the GI Santa Anita Derby Apr. 6. Professor Ville tells us, though, that the handsome dark bay is one of many in the field who will be asked an extra question on the exam--which among you will handle 10 furlongs? A son of Nice Assay (Clever Trick), the Trudy McCaffery and John Toffan-bred colt is a half brother to A.P. Assay, a Grade II-winning sprinter, but has already outrun his pedigree.

1000, 2000 GUINEAS FIELDS...p3 & 5

Also On The Honor Roll...

One of today's top competitors even transferred schools earlier this year. Medaglia d'Oro (El Prado {Ire}), an obscure maiden winner at Oaklawn U. Feb. 9, was purchased privately by trainer Bobby Frankel for his client Edmund Gann and graduated to the ranks of Grade II winner in one fell swoop. The dark bay turned in arguably the best performance of the year by a three-year-old when rerallying to win the GII San Felipe S. at Santa Anita Mar. 17 and was a game runner-up to Buddha in the GI Wood Memorial in New York Apr. 13. He looks to give his trainer a Derby 'gold medal' following his second-place finish with Aptitude in the 2000 Derby. Every class has its "wiseguys." By all accounts, Stonecrest Farm's Perfect Drift (Dynaformer) and Cynthia Phipps' Saarland (Unbridled) fit the bill. Also never worse than second in his six career starts, Perfect Drift has improved from race to race and stamped his Derby ticket with a neck success in the GII Lane's End Spiral S. at Turfway Park under a perfect ride from jockey Eddie Delahoussaye. But the bay, trained by Australian native Murray Johnson, is not a big fan of history and, in fact, will be trying to debunk a few trends. Perfect Drift will be trying to become the first gelding to win the Derby since Clyde Van Dusen in 1929 and the first since Needles in 1956 to win off a six-week layoff. Saarland has not won a race since the GII Remsen S. last year and was most recently fourth in Buddha's Wood Memorial. The professor also extends a warm welcome to a trio of foreign students. Essence Of Dubai (Pulpit), winner of the G2 UAE Derby over 10 furlongs, looks to give Godolphin its first Derby success. Eclipse Award and Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner Johannesburg (Hennessy) will try to become the first two-year-old champ to add a Kentucky Derby win, while his lesser-known stablemate Castle Gandolfo (Gone West) looms an interesting longshot.

A WING AND A PRAYER

Hawk Wing (Woodman) heads a field of 22 in today's G1 Sagitta 2000 Guineas at Newmarket, but this is a vintage renewal, with nine colts rated above 110 pounds in the 2001 International Classifications in the line-up. The one-mile Classic is dominated by the stables of Aidan O'Brien, Michael Stoute and Saeed bin Suroor, who are responsible for the last six winners between them, and for five of the first six in the betting this time. Stoute, whose five Guineas successes have spanned the last 17 years, is represented by the unbeaten King of Happiness (Spinning World), due to be ridden by Kieren Fallon, successful in the last two years on the handler's King's Best and Golan (Ire). The colt belied inexperience with a smooth success in the G3 Craven S. at Newmarket Apr. 18, a race that has thrown up the winner of this Classic five times since 1986. Hawk Wing earned the highest rating, 122 pounds, as a two-year-old. That mark was achieved by his brilliant performance in the G1 National S. in September, lowering the all-age seven furlong course record at The Curragh in the process. O'Brien has been unyielding in his praise for the imposing colt, saying last month, "It's totally dreaming, but it's possible if we have a horse that can win the Triple Crown he could be it." Hawk Wing has suffered one defeat, when second to Rock of Gibraltar (Ire) (Danehill) in the G3 Railway S. last July, but his evident progression from midsummer strongly suggests he has left that form behind. The "Rock" was a model of consistency last term, following his defeat of Hawk Wing with a fluent score in the G2 Gimcrack S. under a penalty at York in August. Beaten a length by Dubai Destination in the G2 Champagne S. the following month, he bounced back to take the G1 Grand Criterium in brilliant fashion at Longchamp on Arc day before outbattling stable companions Landseer (Ire) and Tendulkar (Spinning World) in a three-way photo finish to the G1 Dewhurst S.

☆ KENTUCKY OAKS ☆

FARDA AMIGA TAKES CHARGE Farda Amiga (Broad Brush) spotted all but one of her eight rivals experience, but overcame that disadvantage to score yesterday's GI Kentucky Oaks by 1 1/4 lengths from favored Take Charge Lady (Dehere). A maiden winner at first asking over the Del Mar turf course last Sept. 1, the bay made her only other start at two in the GIII Miesque S. at Hollywood Park Nov. 23, rallying late to be fifth by three lengths. Seventh in Santa Anita's Blue Norther S. on the grass Jan. 9, the $45,000 Keeneland September yearling steal recorded a head victory in Arcadia Feb. 9 with jockey Chris McCarron at the helm for the first time. Switched to the main track for the first time in her career last out, she charged from off the pace to finish fourth in the GI Santa Anita Oaks, beaten two lengths by You (You and I).

Que Pasa, Amiga?

Take Charge Lady was away quickly from the nine hole, but the complexion of the race changed at the break when third choice Imperial Gesture (Langfuhr) was slammed from her inside by Ms Brookski (Montbrook) and from the outside by Art Fair (Air Forbes Won), negating any chance to engage the front-runner early on. The favorite edged to a clear lead down the backstretch, accelerating away from longshot Ile de France (Storm Cat) as You stalked three wide. Farda Amiga, last out of the clubhouse turn, raced in hand along the inside before jockey Chris McCarron eased her out four wide on the far turn. You drew alongside Take Charge Lady under a drive turning for home, but Farda Amiga was gathering momentum with a four-wide sweep. The favorite repulsed the challenge of You, but was joined at midstretch by the eventual winner, who leaned in and caused Habibti (Tabasco Cat) to alter course slightly. Farda Amiga collared Take Charge Lady with a sixteenth to run and edged clear to register the upset. A claim of foul by Victor Espinoza against the winner was disallowed by the stewards and the results were allowed to stand.

The Aftermath

Brazilian native Paulo Lobo trains the winner for Julio Camargo, Marcos Simon and Jose de Camargo. Lobo explained the reasoning for shipping to Churchill for this event. "We had a meeting with the owners to find her next race and we looked at Churchill and we liked the long stretch," Lobo said. "She's an amazing filly." The winning jockey was also full of praise for his mount. "She's gotten progressively better...that's a pattern you like to see," McCarron commented. "Turning for home I felt a lot of power, a good turn of speed. I felt confident we'd pick up a nice check. By the eighth pole I thought we had a good chance of overhauling [Take Charge Lady]." Despite the loss, jockey Tony D'Amico was proud of his filly. "At the head of the lane, I asked her and she responded with everything she had. She ran a gritty, gritty race, but the winner was just too much." Click here for the brisnet.com chart.

☆ 1000 GUINEAS ☆

LOGIC DRAWS WIDE Queen's Logic (Ire) (Grand Lodge) was drawn widest of all in stall 18 for tomorrow's G1 Sagitta 1000 Guineas at Newmarket. Chief market rival Gossamer (GB) (Sadler's Wells) has been handed the five hole, while Aidan O'Brien's Quarter Moon (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), the choice of Michael Kinane, is drawn in 11. Irish bookmakers Paddy Power yesterday reported that O'Brien's fillies are friendless in the market, with spokesman Kieren Burke telling the Sporting Life website, "Just two horses have been backed here in Queen's Logic and Gossamer with little money of note for anything else." Trainer Luca Cumani, who handles Gossamer, told the website yesterday, "Preparations have gone very well. The weather has been quite kind to us and, touch wood, she has not missed a single day's work. I am not confident at all--I am hopeful she will run a good race and hopeful her class may get her to win the race, but I am very fearful of Queen's Logic and one or two others." There were no surprises yesterday as Pascal Bary withdrew Glia (A.P. Indy) and O'Brien took out Kournakova (Ire) (Sadler's Wells). Olivier Peslier has been booked to ride John Gosden's Sulk (Ire) (Selkirk), the winner of last year's G1 Prix Marcel Boussac. Godolphin have declared Kazzia (Ger) (Zinaad {GB}), while Sir Michael Stoute's Alasha (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}) has drawn 10, the stall of last two winners, Ameerat (GB) in 2001 and Lahan (GB) in 2000.

Favored Forest Secrets (Forest Wildcat) set the pace along the rail from Maltese Superb (With Approval) three abreast and Spain in between. The Thoroughbred Corporation colorbearer surged to the front approaching the quarter pole, turned back a bid from Mystic Lady with a sixteenth of a mile to run and edged clear. "I didn't like being so close but I would have been concerned if it was anyone but Jerry Bailey," winning trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "Jerry was very confident and put away everyone, including the closer." Asked about training both distaff earnings leaders, Lukas added, "These records are always up for grabs. Marienbard struck for Godolphin here at the huge odds of 9-1 to get the "boys in blue" off the mark for the 2002 European season, landing the operation their first renewal of this contest. Although he was considered the second string behind Kutub (Ire) (In The Wings {GB}) here, he showed fine acceleration to swoop by his stable companion in the closing stages before collaring last year's winner Millenary in the final strides. Last time he had put up an improved effort when a fast-finishing fourth behind Nayef in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Nad al Sheba Mar. 23, quickening dramatically from the rear under Jamie Spencer. Last year he plied his trade in staying contests, taking the G2 Yorkshire Cup at York in May before failing to stay the trip of the G1 Ascot Gold Cup when fifth the following month. He was second to Holding Court (GB) in the G2 Grand Prix de Deauville in August before finishing third behind Vinnie Roe (Ire) and Millenary in the G1 Irish St Leger at The Curragh in September but reversed placings with the latter here under a fine waiting ride from Spencer. Slowly away, he lost little ground at the start and his jockey upped anchor at the back of the pack as Maniatis (GB) (Slip Anchor {GB}) took up the running. Making stealthy progress from there inside the final three furlongs, he was switched wide for his run and quickened when in the clear. Hampering Kutub slightly as he was delivered with his challenge inside the final furlong, he passed Millenary and Pat Eddery in the final 25 yards to score as the penalised Storming Home stayed on at one pace under Michael Hills.

Testify finished second, a length behind Morluc (Housebuster), in this race last year, then was sent to the sidelines for six months. The bay captured a Fair Grounds turf allowance in his second start back, but was off the board in a pair of main-track stakes to end the season. He came back to finish fifth to Morluc in the Apr. 13 Shakertown S. at Keeneland and was sent off a longshot in his second start back. Allowed to settle near the back of the pack as they frontrunners ripped off a half in :45.18 over a course labeled "good," the five-year-old angled to the far outside for his stretch run and finished well to catch Texas Glitter in the final strides. Jockey Eddie Delahoussaye, who picked up the mount at the last minute, said, "Jerry asked me if I would pick up a ride for him because he didn't want to ride 10 today, and I had ridden this horse at Keeneland three weeks ago, so it worked out perfect." Orientate (Mt. Livermore), the 2-1 favorite, dueled for the early lead, but tired late to be ninth.

Legislator came from just off the pace to earn his first career stakes victory in fine style. A half-brother to the dam of multi-millionaire Behrens, he won at first asking over the Gulfstream turf in January and came back to run third on the dirt Feb. 16. He switched back to the grass Mar. 24 and responded with a front-running, 4 1/4-length success before trying the main track again in the Aventura S. Apr. 6, finishing third to Marasca and Equality. Back on the turf, he settled kindly in a ground-saving position under jockey Edgar Prado. He had to wait for room with a quarter-mile to go, but angled out five wide, found a seam and wore down the favorite to remain unbeaten on the grass. "It was tightly packed going into the first turn, and I just stayed behind the speed," Prado explained. "When I swung him out in the open, he responded positively. He did a lot of looking around, so there is still room for improvement." The victory brightened the day somewhat for trainer H. James Bond, who was forced to scratch Buddha out of the Kentucky Derby. "This softens it a little, but it is still hollow," he said. "This is a nice colt, and hopefully we can have a little fun with him the rest of the year." As for Legislator's next start, Bond added, "I promised Mr. Clifton [owner William Clifton, Jr.], who lives in Texas, that I would bring him to Lone Star for the Dallas Turf Cup. It looks like we will be there May 27."

BUDDHA INJURED, OUT OF DERBY Gary and Mary West's GI Wood Memorial winner Buddha (Unbridled's Song) was declared out of the Kentucky Derby yesterday morning with an injury to his left foreleg. "The horse came out of his stall this morning right before 5 a.m. and he was off in his left front leg," said trainer H. James Bond. "We're going to do what's in the best interests of the horse and wait for another day. It's very disappointing for my clients and myself, but Buddha will have another day." Dr. Larry Bramlage, the on-call veterinarian for the Derby, explained late yesterday morning that upon examination, the problem appeared to be a "soft-tissue" injury and not a fracture. The doctor went on to say that a more complete diagnosis could be reached following a bone scan scheduled for Monday. In a related matter, jockey Pat Day, who was slated to ride Buddha, was named to pilot Blue Burner (French Deputy) in the Derby. Jockey Corey Nakatani, injured in a spill at Hollywood Park Thursday afternoon, will remain on the West Coast after being diagnosed with "low-grade" concussion, according to his agent Bob Meldahl. "He won't ride again until Wednesday," Meldahl said. "He's in good shape, but not 100 percent." The jockey will also miss a pair of mounts for trainer Bob Hess Jr. on the undercard.

FIELD REPORTS SUPPORT MRLS RESEARCH RESULTS Field reports from farm managers and equine practitioners attending the Equine Industry Task Force meeting Thursday night support preliminary research results released Wednesday by the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture regarding the mare reproductive loss syndrome from a year ago. The research indicates that there was an elevated loss of foals in mares exposed to the eastern tent caterpillars (ETC). The Task Force is confident in reporting that where the concentration of caterpillars in fields is low, fetal loss is within the normal range. The Task Force continues to recommend that farms manage and minimize the exposure of pregnant mares to ETC and their frass.

JIM INJURED; OUT OF CUP Jim And Tonic (Fr) (Double Bed {Fr}) will miss the Singapore Airlines International Cup at Kranji May 11 due to a back injury, it was announced yesterday. Francois Doumen's seven-year-old, runner-up in the last two renewals, slipped his lumbar vertebrae during trackwork and has been withdrawn. Atlantis Prince (GB) (Tagula {Ire}), trained by Saeed bin Suroor, will take his place in the line-up alongside stablemate Grandera (Ire) (Grand Lodge).

SAKHEE TO IRELAND? Sakhee (Bahri) may run next in the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup at The Curragh May 26, the Racing Post revealed yesterday. Sakhee, who was third last time in the G1 Dubai World Cup at Nad al Sheba Mar. 23, could be set for a quick return to European racing according to trainer Saeed bin Suroor, who told the Post: "He's looking very relaxed and happy and has been pleasing us with the way he has been exercising since his return. I think he is better suited to turf than he was to dirt and expect him to be showing what a good horse he is very soon. He could run next in the Tattersalls Gold Cup, as long as all continues to go well, and we are looking forward to another great season for him."

Beat Hollow, winner of the G1 Grand Prix de Paris in 2000, made his American debut after a seven-month absence and captured a Santa Anita allowance test Jan. 31. The lightly raced five-year-old, with four wins from his six career starts, has started just once since, missing by a neck in the GII Explosive Bid H. at Fair Grounds Mar. 24. Front-running six-year-old Climate took a Santa Anita allowance test on New Year's Eve, 2000, came back to win an optional-claiming event over that course two weeks later, then disappeared for 14 months. The dark bay finally made it back to the races for a one-mile Santa Anita allowance Mar. 22 and once again led every step, winning by a length. He adds blinkers, which he wore before going to the sidelines.

White Heart returned from a 7 1/2-month vacation to take this race last year. The seven-year-old has been off the board in four of five starts since and has his first outing since running seventh in the Dec. 16 G1 Hong Kong Vase, but obviously can win off a layoff.

Nasty Storm capped a three-race winning streak with a front-running score in the Nov. 3 GII Churchill Downs Distaff H. The four-year-old returned after a five-month layoff and tired to be fifth in the Apr. 10 Madison S. at Keeneland. She should be fitter in her second start back, but will have to overcome post 13. Gold Mover makes her first start since handing Celtic Melody a one-length defeat in the Mar. 17 Hurricane Bertie S. at Gulfstream Park. First or second in four of her five tries at seven furlongs, the chestnut filly faced champion Xtra Heat in her latest attempt at the distance and, after pressing the pace, tired to be fourth in the Feb. 16 GII Barbara Fritchie H. As a two-year-old, the Edward Evans homebred won the GIII Kentucky Breeders' Cup S. over colts and the GIII Debutante S. over fellow fillies over the Churchill strip. Speedball Spanish Glitter, on the board in 20 of her 22 career starts, has won three of five Churchill appearances and is a perfect two-for-two at seven panels. The four-year-old set the pace before settling for second in the Apr. 7 Carousel S. last time out.

Accelerant won five of six starts last year, ending the season with back-to-back Churchill Downs allowance victories in October and November. The four-year-old makes his graded-stakes debut in his first start this season. Dream Run has been successful in four of six tries at seven furlongs, including the Mar. 9 GII Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. two starts back. The four-year-old was bumped at the start of the Apr. 13 GI Carter H. last time out and suffered through an inside trip before finishing fifth, but could rebound with clear sailing this time. Snow Ridge won three straight graded stakes, capping the streak with a victory in the Mar. 3 GI San Carlos H., but was steadied while tiring in the Carter and ended up ninth. The Team Lukas four-year-old has visited the winner's circle after his last two Churchill outings, an allowance race last June and another in November.

Ellie's Moment rattled off three straight wins to start her career, but couldn't get the job done in stakes company, finishing seventh in the Sept. 9 GI Garden City Breeders' Cup H. on turf and fourth in the GII Cotillion H. on the main track Oct. 6. The homebred bay returned to the races Apr. 5 at Keeneland and missed by a neck as the 5-2 favorite. Hammered down to 1-10 for this outing, she lived up to her odds as she seized command after a half and strode out to an 11 1/4-length triumph under a hand ride.

Margins: 1HF, NO, 1 1/4. Odds: 5.40, 2.50, 11.40.

Maliziosa broke her maiden in her second start and was victorious at odds-on in her most recent outing, a Keeneland allowance Apr. 5. The third choice in her stakes bow, she saved ground in midfield, angled out five wide in the stretch and kicked on for home, crossing the lane safely in front of favored Cellars Shiraz. "She impressed me," said winning trainer Bill Mott. "She's a turf filly all the way. We'll probably look at the race out at Hollywood for her next [$500,000 American Oaks, July 6]."

3rd-CDX, $43,400, Alw, 3yo/up, f/m, 7f, 1:24 2/5, ft. DRIPPINGINDIAMONDS (f, 3, Pembroke--Chelsea's Joke, by Verbatim) captured her career opener Feb. 3 at Turfway, then romped by 10 lengths over allowance foes at the same track Mar. 23. The 4-5 favorite to continue the streak, she broke a bit sluggishly, but recovered to grab the lead after a half in :46.16 and kept on going to post a 4 1/2-length tally. Lifetime Record: 3-3-0-0, $59,160. O-James Greg. B-West Wind Farm (KY). T-Jason Cook.

1st-CDX, $42,405, Alw, 3yo, 6 1/2f, 1:17, ft. MATANZAS CREEK (c, 3, Pine Bluff--Five Corners, by Miswaki) never figured in his debut over this surface last July, but successfully returned from a six-month hiatus to take an Oaklawn maiden Jan. 25. Forwardly placed from the start, the 8-1 shot came three wide into the stretch, collared Relentless Seller (Golden Gear) passing the eighth pole and pulled away by 1 3/4 lengths. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $42,495. O-Kerry & Linda Ozment. B-Fletcher Gray & John F Youngblood (KY). T-Robert E Holthus.

10th-CDX, $41,600, Msw, 3yo/up, 1 1/16m, 1:44 4/5, ft. SUGAR BABE (c, 3, Quiet American--Embracing {SW & GSP, $207,863}, by Regal Embrace), a $210,000 KEESEP yearling, had missed the board in his first five starts dating back to last summer at Del Mar, but ran second to California Derby winner Tracemark two back at Santa Anita Mar. 3 and was a game third in his last outing Mar. 24. The 2-1 second choice took an inside route down the backstretch before moving four wide entering the far turn. He made the lead turning for home and had the tenacity to rebuff a challenge through the stretch by Maestro (Grindstone) and prevail over that foe by a half-length. Lifetime Record: 8-1-1-1, $50,524. O-Michael E Pegram. B-Barry Weisbord (KY). T-Bob Baffert.

2nd-CDX, $41,120, Msw, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/16m, 1:47, ft. DIXIE VELVET (f, 4, Dixieland Band--Double Smooth {GSP, $157,192}, by Overskate), a 1/2 to Play the Corners (Clever Trick), MSW, $128,578; and full to Knockadoon, GSW, $357,016, had finished second in both of her previous tries going long on the main track, at Fair Grounds Feb. 17 and Keeneland Apr. 18. The 2-1 favorite stalked the pace from the inside and had to check near the 3/16-pole, but split rivals at the top of the stretch and came home 2 1/2 lengths clear. Lifetime Record: 7-1-2-0, $44,950. O-William S Farish & Bayard Sharp. B-W S Farish & Bayard Sharp (KY). T-Neil J Howard.

5th-CDX, $34,255, Msw, 3yo/up, f/m, 7f, 1:23 4/5, ft. + SONG OF THE WILD (f, 4, Gone West--Wilderness Song {Ch. Older Mare-Can, GISW, $1,482,005}, by Wild Again) posted a bullet half-mile work two breezes back and made her belated debut with the benefit of Lasix. The 5-2 second choice went to the front after bobbling slightly at the start, turned back a challenge after the half and drew clear down the lane for a 3 3/4-length victory. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $19,220. O-Sam-Son Farms. B-Sam-Son Farm (ON). T-Mark Frostad.

Margins: 4 1/4, 2, 2HF. Odds: 0.55, 19.65, 8.90.

A grandson of Sam-Son's star mare No Class, Ford Every Stream had been let go at 13-1 in his Apr. 11 debut at Keeneland, but battled gamely on the front end to prevail by a nose in that seven-furlong test. Trying two turns this time, the dark bay raced in second early, made his move as they straightened into the stretch and went on to post an easy victory.

7th-WOX, $75,300, Alw, 4yo/up, f/m, 6.5f, 1:16 1/5, ft.

3--Devastating, 116, f, 4, Bold n' Flashy--Tyendenega, by Regal Classic.

Margins: 2 1/4, NK, 4 3/4. Odds: 1.35, 3.75, 3.55.

After posting a 9 1/4-length romp in the La Lorgnette S. last October, Madame Red concluded her three-year-old season with a solid effort in the GIII Maple Leaf H. Nov. 3, finishing third in that 10-furlong test. The chestnut got the winter off and returned to run fourth in the Whimsical S. Apr. 13. The crowd's choice stalked the pace, came four wide with her run and asserted herself in the final furlong.

4th-PIM, $25,000, Msw, 3yo/up, f/m, 6f, 1:12 2/5, ft. + BRACING BEAUTY (f, 3, Tom Cobbley--Teaison, by Alleged), a $2,600 FTMOCT yearling, was overlooked at the windows as well, going off a 21-1 outsider in her career opener. The dark bay broke well, sprinted to the lead and was never headed, winning by a comfortable 2 3/4 lengths. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $14,250. O-Sally M Gibson. B-Sutton Linda (VA). T-R W Small.

4th-CRC, $23,000, Msw, 3&4yo, f, 5 1/2f, 1:07 3/5, ft. + MADAME GLAMOUR (f, 3, Wild Gold--Fly Me Dumplin', by Cutlass) earned a bullet for her :47.2 half-mile breeze at Calder Apr. 24 and was sent off the 9-5 choice. Close up from the start, the 1/2 to Fly Me Crazy (Wheaton), SW, $135,421, took charge turning for home and cruised in a three-length winner. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $15,000. O-Alaraca USA Inc. Margins: 1, HD, NK. Odds: 3.80, 3.30, 10.90.

Investor's Dream overcame a wide trip to take his Northern Hemisphere debut. After defeating Keith Richard in the G1 G P Juliano Martins last June, the dark bay finished second in the G P Ipiranga Sept. 9 before concluding his Brazilian campaign with a 10th in the G1 GP Jockey Club de Sao Paolo Oct. 7. He was given some time to acclimate and was sent off as the bettors' fourth choice. Settling into stride under Jason Lumpkins, Investor's Dream took the overland route on the far turn and wore down pacesetter I've Decided in the final strides.

SAVILL CITES "BETRAYAL"

Peter Savill, chairman of the British Horseracing Board (BHB), has branded the Racecourse Association's deal to sell picture rights to bookmakers "a betrayal of racing's interests." Savill criticised the acceptance of the bookmakers' offer, believed to be £3,700 per fixture, stating: "The agreement reached is a betrayal of racing's interests and racecourses should not ratify it. The deal grossly undersells the value of the picture rights and is also on terms which will cause huge damage to racing in the longer term. The racecourse negotiating team has caved in to the bookmakers and reached an agreement without consulting all of the courses they purport to represent and without gaining the support of the wider racing industry. The price the RCA has negotiated is almost half of what they were asking for two days ago. That alone tells you how weakly they have negotiated. They were urged to roll over the existing SIS contract for 30 days but instead hit the panic button."

FRESH GROUND FOR GUINEAS

Newmarket's Clerk of the Course Michael Prosser yesterday announced that fresh ground will be used for Guineas weekend. He told PA Sport: "For tomorrow and Sunday the rail which dolled off the 20 metres of the track nearest the stands at the Craven meeting is not there and, as the stalls will be on the stands side for those two days, the horses will be racing on fresh ground. The far side of the track will have a temporary rail 15 meters out from the permanent rail for the Guineas meeting."

Highdown was delivered late here in a thrilling dive to the line with Moon Ballad to deny Godolphin the perfect return to Europe. Last year he was campaigned ambitiously by Mick Channon, finishing eighth behind Johannesburg (USA) in the G1 Phoenix S. at Leopardstown in August before notching a fifth behind Captain Rio (GB) in the G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte in October. Now with Marcus Tregoning, Highdown was pitched in against Derby hopefuls here and proved up the task, settling in fourth early as Moon Ballad was taken to the front by Jamie Spencer before lengthening well inside the final furlong to catch that rival in the closing strides. Martin Dwyer said: "He really dug deep when it mattered—he's a tough little horse. I was always traveling well and I was glad when Spencer went up and forced the pace as he was a bit keen and fresh and he really lengthens and keeps going." Highdown, who is not entered in the G1 Epsom Derby June 8, is now on target for the Listed Predominate S. at Goodwood May 21.

Tarfshi made all under a well-judged ride from Philip Robinson here to deny the odds-on favourite Spring Oak. Last year she was beaten a short head by Mot Juste (GB) in the Listed Pretty Polly S. here at this meeting before running seventh in the G1 Epsom Oaks the following month. She bounced back to win the Listed Hoppings S. at Newcastle later that month before finishing third in the G3 Blandford S. at The Curragh in September. She was last in the G1 Prix de l'Opera at Longchamp the following month on very testing ground but found the conditions more in her favour here, setting an even gallop before quickening from the front to deny Godolphin's filly, who hung fire under Jamie Spencer's drive inside the final furlong.
