

WHO'LL BE NUMBER ONE IN MASS 'CAP?

A field of nine lines up for the 63rd running of the GII Massachusetts H. at Suffolk Downs this afternoon, including millionaires Macho Uno (Holy Bull) and Include

(Broad Brush). Four-year-old Macho Uno, the champion two-year-old of 2000 after winning the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile by a nose over Point Given, started just four times last season, capturing the GIII Pennsylvania Derby and ending the campaign with a fourth-place finish in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic. He has been out just once since, posting a half-length victory in a Gulfstream Park allowance test Mar. 23. "After his allowance win, I called Mr. [Frank] Stronach in Austria and told him that we could be looking at a Horse of the Year," said trainer Joe Orseno. "I think he's as good a horse that is out there in the handicap division. He's mentally grown up and physically filled out. I've told all my friends and anyone who would listen, 'watch what my horse does this year.'" Include cruised to a four-length victory in last year's Mass 'Cap, but was held winless in his last four outings of 2001. Third in the GII Suburban H. and GII Meadowlands Cup, the bay was a lackluster seventh in the Classic, but rebounded to end the year with a second in the Nov. 23 GII Clark H. In his one appearance this term, the five-year-old romped home nine lengths to the good in the Apr. 20 Jennings H. at Pimlico. Click here for the brisnet.com pps.

ACT SIX?

Unbeaten Act One (GB) (In The Wings {GB}), bidding to go six-for-six, faces 14 rivals in tomorrow's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby) at Chantilly. Owned and bred by Gerald Leigh, the two-time Group 1 winner drew post 13. Aidan O'Brien yesterday declared all four of his charges, headed by Diaghilev (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), who gets jockey Michael Kinane and post 8. Castle Gandolfo (Gone West), who breaks from post 1, will be ridden by Jamie Spencer, while Johnny Murtagh rides Black Sam Bellamy (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Colm O'Donoghue will partner pacemaker Temple of Artemis (GB) (Spinning World). Coral Eurobet make Act One their 5-6 favourite, with Khalkevi (Ire) (Kahyasi {Ire}), who is also yet to taste defeat, quoted at 11-2, Simeon (GB) (Lammtarra) at 9-1 and Diaghilev and Sulamani (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}) at 10-1. Chantilly are expecting a drying out run-up to the race, with the official reading as soft, or 3.4 on the penetrometer yesterday. (French Derby field, p2)

Wiseman's Ferry Tunes Up for Belmont:

After watching Wiseman's Ferry (Hennessy) work five furlongs in 1:01.20 at Churchill Downs yesterday morning, trainer Niall O'Callaghan said he was strongly considering a run at the June 8 GI Belmont S. "Right now, we're leaning in that direction," said O'Callaghan. "We'll know Sunday. That was a very positive effort. Obviously, God only knows who'll go a mile and a half. Even if their pedigrees suggest they'll go a mile and a half--which this one doesn't necessarily--they have to relax and he does that." Wiseman's Ferry started his career in Ireland, where he finished second to Johannesburg in the G3 Anglesey S. Two-for-three in the U.S., the chestnut won the Gill Lone Star Derby last time out.

The ultra-consistent Sweetest Thing, on the board in nine of her 11 turf starts, comes off a decisive score in the 1 1/2-mile GIII Bewitch S. at Keeneland Apr. 25. The bay missed by a neck in her previous start, the Mar. 24 GII Orchid H. "She's run well all her life, but those were two excellent efforts," trainer Roger Attfield said. "She's got a high cruising speed with a great kick." The four-year-old captured an allowance race at the Sheepshead Bay distance last season, and was third in the Feb. 17 GIII The Very One H. at the route this year. The only other filly in the field with a win at 11 furlongs is Kentucky Rose. A Listed stakes winner at Chantilly last year, the chestnut was second by a head in her European finale, the Oct. 29 G3 Prix de la Flore at Saint-Cloud. The French-bred made her 2002 and U.S. debut in an optional claimer at Pimlico May 12 and closed well after a wide trip to be second. "It was a good prep," trainer Graham Motion said. "She moved at the three-eighths pole and was closing steadily when she got clear. She made a tremendous run, but just ran out of ground at the end." Refugee won back-to-back allowance races at Gulfstream Park this winter. In her most recent trip to the post, the bay stepped into the stakes ranks and stretched out to a mile and a half to run a close-up third after setting the pace in the Orchid.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races. Purses for Canadian races are in Canadian dollars.

The chestnut stretched out to two turns for the first time in her latest and tired after setting the pace, finishing second in a Churchill allowance May 2. Bravo Sidelined after Monmouth Spill:

Jockey Joe Bravo is expected to miss the remainder of the Monmouth Park meeting after breaking his left wrist in a spill Thursday afternoon. Bravo underwent emergency surgery at Monmouth Medical Center Thursday night. "When he arrived, he had lost the sensation in his hand, which is always a cause for concern," said Dr. Brian Torpey, who performed the surgery. "It turned out that he had broken the lunate bone, which is located in the wrist, causing the blood circulation to the bone to stop and for the nerves to become desensitized. I inserted five pins into his wrist. The entire surgery took 2 1/2 hours." Bravo was aboard Oh My Pretty Halo in the seventh race at Monmouth Thursday when Mato, the 4-5 favorite, stumbled and fell as the field headed into the first turn. Bravo's mount swerved to avoid the fallen horse and rider and sent Bravo to the turf as well. Mato's rider, Eibar Coa, and the two horses involved escaped serious injury. Bravo was recovering well from the operation yesterday, but could be out of the saddle until the fall. "The prognosis is good," Torpey said. "He'll have one additional surgery to remove the pins and that should be it. He's got rehab ahead of him and healing time should be about three to four months, but he's a really strong guy, so I wouldn't be surprised if he healed a little faster." The Jersey native was out of action for eight months after breaking his left leg in a spill at Monmouth last July. Already an eight-time Monmouth riding champ, Bravo was atop the standings once again with 21 victories when he broke his wrist.

Del Mar Opposed to Dates Transfer:

In a special session held Thursday, the Board of Directors of the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club unanimously agreed to oppose the proposed transfer of this year's 17-day meet from Fairplex Park to Santa Anita, citing the "potential negative impact" the move might have. Robert Strauss, DMTC chairman, said, "The Fairplex meet has been historically the only break for many Southern California horses and horsemen and the vast differences between racing at Del Mar and Fairplex have been a significant benefit for both race meets. In Del Mar's view, the proposed transfer of dates has serious potential negatives relating to field size, which must be considered judiciously and not in the haste inherent in the request by the Los Angeles County Fair submitted on May 22, 2002." Hollywood Park and the Oak Tree Racing Association have already voiced their opposition.

Margins: NK, 4, HF. Odds: 6.30, 0.40, 4.00.

Gold Taker was a handy winner in his second career start versus $25,000 maiden claimers at Fair Grounds in mid-January, then had little trouble with Sportsman's non-winners of one Mar. 1. After finishing a well-beaten second against $50,000 optional claimers Apr. 15, he moved to Hawthorne and found his way back to the winner's circle. The chestnut broke alertly and led gate-to-wire, gamely holding off Medlin Road in the final strides for his first stakes win.

STRONG JAPANESE PRESENCE IN SUSSEX

Goodwood was looking forward to welcoming a prospective Japanese team of horses as three horses are featured amongst the 69 entries for the £265,000 G1 Sussex S. July 31. Trainer Kazuo Fujisawa has entered Zenno El Cid (Ire) (Caerleon {USA}), winner of the Grade 1 Mile Championship at Kyoto in November, Diamond Biko (Jpn) (Sunday Silence {USA}) and Magnaten (USA) (Danzig {USA}). The chosen representative(s) could face the Carlos Laffon-Parias-trained Keltos (Fr) (Kendor {Fr}), winner of the G1 Juddmonte Lockinge S. at Newbury May 18, one of four French entries for the mile contest, alongside Medecis (GB) (Machiavellian {USA}) and Bowman (USA) (Irish River {Fr}). That pair was second and third, respectively, in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2000 Guineas) at Longchamp May 12 behind Landseer (GB) (Danehill {USA}), one of 23 Aidan O'Brien-trained entries. The Ballydoyle trainer has also entered Rock Of Gibraltar (Ire) (Danehill {USA}) and Hawk Wing (USA) (Woodman {USA}), as well as Johannesburg (USA) (Hennessy {USA}). Godolphin have left in 19, headed by last year's winner Noverre (USA) (Rahy {USA}), G1 1000 Guineas hero Kazzia (Ger) (Zinaaad {GB}) and Dubai Destination (USA) (Kingmambo {USA}). Luca Cumani's G1 Irish 1000 Guineas winner Gossamer (GB) (Sadler's Wells {USA}) is included, as is Mick Channon's Queen's Logic (Ire) (Grand Lodge {USA}).

★ CLASSIC CORNER ★

WELD OUT OF TIME

Dermot Weld looks set to rule In Time's Eye (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) out of Saturday's G1 Vodafone Derby at Epsom. Having finished a length second to High Chaparral (Ire) in the G3 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial at Leopardstown May 12, he was quoted at odds of 33-1 by Coral Eurobet for the Epsom Classic, but Weld said yesterday, "I have made my mind up that the horse is still a little immature and we will be waiting now for the G1 Irish Derby (at The Curragh June 30). We will look at the G3 Gallinule Stakes (at Leopardstown June 12) for him in the meantime." In Time's Eye's absence for the Classic may result in the smallest field going to post since Nijinsky (Can) beat just 10 opponents in 1970.
