A KING'S TRIBUTE

Just five days after the death of his owner Lord Weinstock, Golan (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}) responded to jockey Kieren Fallon's drive to deny Nayef (Gulch) by a head in a thrilling climax to yesterday's G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot. "You need the horse and you need the team and we've had a tremendous team behind this horse," said trainer Sir Michael Stoute. "I'm thrilled, but it is also a very sad moment--Lord Weinstock would have loved this occasion because he fell in love with this horse. He was looking forward to seeing this horse in training as a four-year-old. This is a tribute to him as this is what they stood for--breeding top-class horses for the great European races." King George cont., p2

YOU BEST IN TEST

Edmund Gann's You (You and I) put up a brave performance along the rail to deny previously unbeaten Carson Hollow (Carson City) by the slimmest of margins in the GI Test S. at Saratoga Saturday afternoon. "We had to get lucky to get through, and that's what happened," commented winning trainer Bobby Frankel, who also teamed up with jockey Jerry Bailey to take the $500,000 GII Diana H. earlier on the card with Tates Creek. "I'm a lucky guy. I'm blessed right now." For You, it was a mirror image of her victory in last year's GII Adirondack S., a win which vaulted her onto the national stage. The dark bay has since added triumphs in the GI Frizette S., the GI Las Virgenes and the GI Santa Anita Oaks, but could only manage fourth in the GI Kentucky Oaks going nine furlongs May 3. Cutting back to a mile for the GI Acorn S. June 7, You responded with a stakes-record setting, 7 1/4-length success while covering the distance in 1:34. She broke a step slowly in the Test and found herself at the back of the pack for the first time in her career as Carson Hollow ripped through fractions of :21.60 and :44.27. You was able to come up the rail and hugged the fence entering the stretch. Carson Hollow had the favorite pinned down inside as the pair raced in tandem, but You battled tenaciously and got the nod at the wire. "It was so close," said Frankel. "She had her head at the right place and Carson Hollow didn't." Frankel has yet to determine You's next start, but indicated that it would come at the Spa. The 10-furlong GI Alabama S. Aug. 17 is one option, as is the GI Ballerina H. over seven-eighths Aug. 25 against her elders. As for the runner-up, who had taken the GI Prioress S. last out, trainer Richard Dutrow Jr. said, "I never felt so good losing a race. She ran so big. I thought You was going to go by on the inside, but our filly dug in so tough." Chart, p3 Click here to view the replay.

WAR EMBLEM BACK IN HASKELL The connections of War Emblem (Our Emblem) have had yet another change of heart. The Kentucky Derby winner will run in the GI Haskell Invitational H. at Monmouth Park Aug. 4...at least that was the plan as of yesterday afternoon. The three-year-old was originally pointing for the Grade I event, but his handlers started to hedge when the weights came out last Saturday and it was learned that War Emblem would be asked to carry top weight of 124 pounds, from two to 10 pounds more than his rivals in the race. After the colt's owner, Prince Ahmed Salman, died suddenly Monday, the decision was made to keep War Emblem in California for the GI Pacific Classic at Del Mar Aug. 25. The latest 180 came about when Came Home (Gone West), the second highweight at 122 pounds, was declared out of the race on Friday. The decision has been approved by the Prince's family. "I just received the final go-ahead from the royal family," Baffert said yesterday. As for the reasoning behind the most recent Haskell decision, Richard Mulhall, racing manager for the estate of Prince Ahmed Salman, quipped, "I went to bed the other night and had a dream that we won the race, so I woke up and said, 'we'd better run in it.' Seriously, the race kind of fell apart, with Came Home out and Neil Drysdale's horse [Sunday Break] out, so we decided we needed to come out there and support Monmouth Park. We are great supporters of Monmouth...plus we'd like to get that million dollars." The Prince and trainer Bob Baffert teamed up to win the 2001 Haskell with Point Given. That colt was Baffert's fourth Haskell starter in the last five years. War Emblem will have his final work before the Haskell Monday morning at Del Mar. He ships to Monmouth Wednesday. Baffert, who will wed fiancée Jill Moss next Saturday evening, and the rest of War Emblem's connections will board a plane bound for the East Coast early Sunday morning.

The winner of last year's G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket in May, Golan (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}) failed to land a blow on the 3 ½-length winner Galileo (Ire) when second in the G1 Epsom Derby the following month. He ran third from a wide draw in the Irish version at The Curragh in July before being freshened up for a preparation geared towards the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in October. He produced a smooth display when taking the G2 Prix Niel at Longchamp in September before finishing fourth behind Sakhee in that championship contest, run on unsuitably testing ground. Subsequently sixth behind Jungle Pocket (Jpn) in the G1 Japan Cup in November, he overcame a 244-day absence to reward the decision of Coolmore Stud, who purchased a share after his Guineas success, to keep him in training at four. Stoute is planning another crack at the Arc at Longchamp Oct. 6. Golan's intended comeback had been the G1 Coral-Eclipse S., but he was forced to miss that July 6 event with an infection in his hind leg. This time, he settled in last early as Sir Effendi (Ire) (Nashwan) led for stablemate Nayef. As the pace wound up gradually from the front, Golan raced patiently and waited for the gaps to appear on the inner. As Zindabad (Fr) (Shirley Heights {GB}) forged ahead with half a mile remaining, Golan moved closer, making ground on the inner of Grandera (Ire) (Grand Lodge), who raced wide throughout. Quickening off the final turn, Golan was driven along as Nayef moved past Zindabad at the distance and responded to his jockey's urgings to wrench the lead from that colt in the final strides. "He's a very, very relaxed individual--I think he's effective from a mile to a mile and a half, but we'll stop and think as there are plenty of options--he'll certainly want to go before the Arc," added Sir Michael Stoute. Trainer Marcus Tregoning was pleased with Nayef's effort. "The race lived up to its billing and it was a great performance by both of the first two," he said. "I'm thrilled as he is right back to his best again now and I am looking forward to the rest of the season. I can't say quite where we will go yet, but I am very keen to go to Chicago as I think the track will suit him. It just might be that he goes for the Classic as he was very effective on dirt in Dubai." The 13-8 favorite, Grandera was a well-beaten fifth. The Godolphin runner's rider, Frankie Dettori, said, "We've ended up running the wrong horse. If we'd known it was going to be like this, we should have run Sakhee. They were just strung out like jumpers today. Grandera slipped, stumbled and just didn't like this ground."

SAKHEE FOR DEAUVILLE WARM-UP As expected, Sakhee (Bahri) was ruled out of the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot due to the prevailing fast ground. The five-year-old may now head to Deauville Aug. 10 for the G3 Prix Gontaut-Biron to prepare for a high-profile autumn campaign. "We just can't risk him," said racing manager Simon Crisford. "When we walked the track on Wednesday, it was definitely fast ground and although that is what you expect at this time of year, funny things have happened. Plan B are races like the Irish Champion S. and the Juddmonte International and it all depends how these races slot into his program. The thing is, right now this horse needs to race because he has not run since the Dubai World Cup in March. So we are looking for an immediate target and maybe the most suitable immediate target comes up on the 10th of August at Deauville. It's a similar type of race to what he ran in at Newbury last year. The point is we have to get him on the track because if we wait too much longer then we could miss the moment. He needs to get on the track to get some momentum to push him into these big autumn races. We can't sit on him until September time and not race him."

The versatile Affluent was caught late by Golden Apples in the 2001 GI Del Mar Oaks, but the chestnut filly was able to fend off her rival's late charge this time for her third career Grade I success. After reversing the placings with Golden Apples in the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup going nine panels on the Keeneland turf Oct. 13, Affluent came flying to take the GI La Brea S., a seven-furlong sprint on the main track Dec. 29. A hard-fought victory in the GII El Encino S. sapped her for the GII La Canada S., where she finished fourth to Summer Colony Feb. 9. The granddaughter of Bayakoa (Arg) has been the runner-up to divisional leader Azeri in her last three outings--the GI Apple Blossom H., the GI Milady Breeders' Cup H. and the GI Vanity H.--and trainer Ron McAnally felt that a surface switch was in order. Janet went up to set a soft pace, with Affluent just in behind her and 8-5 favorite Surya (Unbridled) tugging her way along in tight quarters. Turning for home, Janet opened up a three-length advantage, but Affluent came after her and put her head in front passing the sixteenth pole, staving off the late charge of Golden Apples down the center of the track.

The lightly raced Tates Creek prevailed in a head-bobbing finish with favored Voodoo Dancer. Juddmonte's homebred had earned her first graded-stakes victory under similar circumstances in defeating Snow Dance by a head in the Apr. 11 GIII Jenny Wiley at Keeneland, but missed by a neck to Babae (Chi) (Barkerville) in the GIII Just a Game Breeders' Cup H. June 8 at Belmont. The chestnut tuned up for Saratoga with an easy success at 2-5 in a Belmont allowance July 6 and was sent off as the second choice. Never far from the front, Tates Creek settled into a ground-saving position as Babae and Snow Dance alternated up front. She angled out turning for home, put her head in front at the eighth pole amid a cavalry charge towards the wire and just got the better of Voodoo Dancer to her outside. It was the second straight Diana victory for trainer Bobby Frankel, whose Starine won last year. "Until I saw the '1' up, I wasn't that confident," said Frankel. "The other filly [Voodoo Dancer] got a head in front of her. For $500,000, I don't know if the word is 'anxious' or 'nervous.'"

Disturbingthepeace pulled a 16-1 upset in winning the GII Triple Bend Breeders' Cup H. July 6, his fourth straight victory, but proved that effort was no fluke by following up with yesterday's GII Bing Crosby H. The blaze-faced bay stepped out of Cal-bred company for the first time Apr. 13, winning a Santa Anita allowance, and added an optional claiming tally at Hollywood May 19. The Triple Bend marked his stakes debut and Disturbingthepeace was up to the challenge, wiring by three lengths a strong field which included champion Kona Gold (Java Gold). A close-third in the early going this time, Disturbingthepeace challenged Freespool from the outside turning for home and outfinished that rival in the final furlong. "I think he's just a developing horse and he's just starting to figure out things," said winning conditioner Darrell Vienna. "His whole attitude since his last race has been that of a big horse." Kona Gold had finished sixth in the Triple Bend, but the two-time defending titlist of the Bing Crosby was denied a chance to three-peat when he was scratched Saturday morning. "We got beat six lengths by a horse [Disturbingthepeace] and we're still giving him eight pounds," explained trainer Bruce Headley. "He's only won one race in his last six starts, so he's definitely on the decline." Headley said that the eight-year-old could go next in the GII Pat O'Brien H. Aug. 18 at Del Mar.

Falcon Flight's maiden voyage over the Arlington turf course came in last year's GIII Stars and Stripes Breeders' Cup H., where the dark bay posted an easy victory. He shipped back to his California base afterwards, finishing fourth in the GII Del Mar H. Aug. 25, and concluded the year with a sixth in the GI Canadian International at Woodbine Sept. 20. Training well for his return to action, the French-bred broke from the rail and secured a spot on the inside through a soft pace. He angled out to make his run turning for home and had to wait for room at the top of the stretch, but finished willingly on the outside to get up in the shadow of the wire. "Nothing was going to surprise me today because he is really fit," said winning trainer Donald Burke II. "If he comes out of this race good and thrives, and underscore thrives, I'll consider the Million [Aug. 17]." The 9-5 favorite, Strut the Stage (Theatrical {Ire}) was up close early, but could only manage sixth, beaten a half-length and four necks.

England's Legend cruised to a 7 3/4-length triumph in the GI Beverly D. S. over a yielding Arlington turf last August and was second by 3/4 of a length in the GI Flower Bowl Invitational H. last September, but faded badly in the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf and finished 11th. Unseen since, the bay came back to the site of her most impressive score to date. Sent off the odds-on choice despite the nine-month layoff, she grabbed the lead during the opening quarter, cruised along through moderate fractions and was not threatened late, winning handily. "She's an unbelievable filly," winning jockey Rene Douglas said. "I was able to get her to relax on the front end and she did everything from there." Added Nicholas Bachalard, assistant to trainer Christophe Clement, "She likes this course and this was a good place to get her ready for the Beverly D." England's Legend will ship back to her home base at Saratoga Race Course this morning, returning to Arlington to defend her title in the Beverly D. Aug. 17.

Sea of Tranquility picked up his second straight victory in the Salvator Mile, but he needed the help of the stewards to do it. The six-year-old crossed the finish line second, 1 1/2 lengths behind First Lieutenant, but was moved up to first when the original winner was disqualified for causing interference at the top of the stretch. Sea of Tranquility, looking for his third stakes score of the Monmouth meet, raced side-by-side with First Lieutenant as first longshot Firm Believer (Unbridled) and then favored Express Tour (Tour d'Or) set the early pace. Sea of Tranquility raced wide into the stretch, but First Lieutenant was caught behind horses. Jockey Carlos Cruz wheeled him to the right looking for running room, broadsiding Free of Love before striding to the front to win handily. Jockey Chuck Lopez, aboard Free of Love, claimed foul, and First Lieutenant was taken down and placed third. It was an obvious call, but Lopez was not sure the incident cost him at the finish. "I feel bad for Carlos-I genuinely think he rode the best horse," Lopez said.

On the board in her first four starts of the season, Martha's Music broke through with her first victory in a May 7 allowance at Delaware Park, romping home by 8 1/4 lengths. The bay tried turf in her next outing, running fifth in the May 25 Revidere S. at Monmouth, then returned to the main track and was fifth again in the June 29 Susan's Girl Breeders' Cup S. at Delaware. Taking advantage when this race was switched off the grass, the Kentucky-bred stumbled at the start, then fought her rider as she trailed the short field of four through six furlongs in a pedestrian 1:14 3/5. Racing wide around the final bend, she rallied strongly, sweeping to the front at the head of the lane and galloping away from her overmatched foes for another daylight victory.

Quotes of as low as 20-1 were being bandied about regarding Russian Rhythm for next year's G1 1000 Guineas before this contest, but she was considerably shorter for that Classic just over a minute later. She had impressed when beating the smart Fancy Lady (GB) by a neck in a Newmarket maiden June 28, doing her best work at the finish, and that form was boosted when three of the rivals subsequently scored. Coming into this with a considerable reputation, she was ridden with suitable confidence by jockey Kieren Fallon, who held her up in last place early as Ellidore (GB) (Danetime {Ire}) carved out the fractions in front. Looking for room mid-pack as they picked up passing the halfway, Fallon found a gap between Nasij and Luvah Girl and grabbed the lead with 250 yards remaining. Pushed out to assert over the latter from there, the winner needed only to be kept up to her work to comfortably contain the game rally of the runner-up as the pair pulled clear of the remainder. "She's big and very well-developed and powerful, with a great middle and strong behind the saddle," said trainer Sir Michael Stoute. "She always looked a very nice filly--we bought her for Cheveley Park Stud, Chris Richardson, the team and myself--so she had always looked the part, but she had to go and show she was a good athlete. From very early on in her work she was finding things very comfortable and always pleased us. She quickened very decisively and we like her a lot--she's progressed very well." Russian Rhythm is now the 10-1 favourite with William Hill for next year's mile Classic at Newmarket.

Jockey Chris Catlin has an understanding of how Imperial Dancer needs to be ridden and delivered the colt with another storming late run here for his third stakes success in just over two months. Having finished third in last year's G3 Greenham S. at Newbury, he subsequently proved disappointing, but has been invigorated by a busy and fruitful campaign so far this year. Having taken the Listed Festival S. at Goodwood May 23, he stepped up from two fair efforts in stakes company to finish fourth behind Hawk Wing in the G1 Eclipse S. at Sandown July 6. Taken to Ayr just 11 days later, he beat Sohaib by a length in the G3 Scottish Classic under a fine ride from Catlin, who produced him as late as he dared on that occasion. This time, he was held up in fourth early off the pace set by Bach (Ire) (Caerleon) and Chancellor, who took command with 2 1/2 furlongs remaining. Sent after that colt in the straight, Imperial Dancer delivered a strong run on the outside and collared him with 25 yards remaining. "You always have to come late on him, but he quickened well when I asked him," said Catlin.

Mr Dinos and jockey Gerald Mosse were gifted this contest by all bar Thierry Thulliez, who attempted to make a race of it on Ivy League. Proven as a strong and resolute galloper and a certain stayer, he was left to his own devices by three of his rivals, including the favourite Loxias, who was never in contention. Only Thulliez had the wherewithal to keep the leader in his sights and moved Ivy League to within two lengths in the early stages, but he was soon spent as the front-runner turned the screws in the straight, powering away to outclass his struggling rivals. Mr Dinos was enjoying his first stakes success here, having been outbattled by Mamool (Ire) when a half-length second in the G3 Queen's Vase at Royal Ascot June 21 and finishing a highly creditable runner-up in the competitive Northumberland Plate H. at Newcastle June 29.

6	Casey Griffin	Gate Dancer	Cerin	15-1

The well-travelled Beat Hollow makes his fifth start of the season at the fifth track he has visited this year. A Group 1 winner in France at three, the bay missed his entire four-year-old campaign, but has come back strong in 2002. A Santa Anita allowance winner in January, he was second by a neck behind Sarafan in the Mar. 24 GII Explosive Bid H. at Fair Grounds before earning back-to-back victories in the May 4 GI Woodford Reserve S. at Churchill Downs and the June 8 GI Manhattan H. at Belmont Park. He picks up four pounds off his latest score. Sarafan, who defeated Beat Hollow while giving him a pound in March, gets a six-pound weight shift in his favor here. Fourth in both the Apr. 27 GII San Francisco Breeders' Cup H. and the June 15 GI Charlie Whittingham H., he was most recently third, beaten less than a length, in the GI United Nations H. at Monmouth Park July 6. The five-year-old gelding won his lone prior start at Del Mar, taking the restricted Harry F. Brubaker S. last August. Redattore is also a perfect one-for-one on the Del Mar grass, scoring a two-length victory in this event last year. After capturing the GII San Antonio H. on the Santa Anita main track in his first start this term, the seven-year-old was second by a half-length behind Night Patrol in the May 5 GIII Inglewood H. and a three-length runner-up behind Ladies Din in the May 27 GI Shoemaker Breeders' Cup Mile. He switched to the dirt again for his latest and finished a lackluster fifth, but should improve off that effort with a return to his preferred surface. Night Patrol followed his Inglewood score with a second-place finish in the Charlie Whittingham and he has been first or second in four of his five starts at this trip.

A stakes winner going five furlongs at two, With Ability missed most of 2001 after getting hit in the eye with a clod during the GI Acorn S. "It got infected and was a mess," trainer Mark Hennig said. "Thankfully, we were able to save her eye, and we think she has most of her vision in it." Fully recovered, she has been first or second in five of her six starts this year, taking the GIII Next Move H. in March and the GIII Sixty Sails H. in April. Last time out, she set the pace before finishing second to Spain in the June 15 GI Fleur de Lis H. "She's doing wonderful," Hennig said. "She's quick and she loves two turns...I can tell you, she's going to run big." An allowance winner at the Spa last season, Miss Linda went on to win the GI Spinster S. at Keeneland. She tired to be sixth in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff and fourth in the GIII Falls City H. to end the season, but came back to win the GIII Sabin H. at Gulfstream in February. The five-year-old mare has started just once since, running third behind Azeri and Affluent in the Apr. 6 GI Apple Blossom H. at Oaklawn. Will she fire after nearly four months on the shelf? "It's different with every horse, but she puts a lot into her breezes," trainer John Kimmel said. "She's fresh and she's fit." Canadian champion Dancethruthedawn, fourth in last year's GI Alabama S. in her only other try over this track, comes off a third-place finish in the Fleur de Lis. "I was disappointed with her race at Churchill, but she didn't handle the track," trainer Mark Frostad said. "She'll run better on Sunday." The brilliantly bred filly took the Woodbine Oaks last season, then beat the boys in the Queen's Plate, but went to the shelf after the Alabama. She captured the Apr. 18 Doubledogdare S. at Keeneland in her return and was second by a nose to Summer Colony in the May 17 GIII Pimlico Breeders' Cup Distaff H. before her third-place effort last time.

7	3	Midnight Angel (Ger)	Acatenango (Ger)	H Remmert	114

Trainer Andreas Wohler captured this contest with Lomitas (GB) in 1991 and has a fine chance of repeating this year with Sabiango. He may be best on a faster surface than that he encountered when runner-up to Anzillero (Ger) in this last year. Consistent at three, he beat Boreal (Ger) in the G1 Credit Suisse Private Banking Pokal at Cologne in August and was a fine third behind Morshdi (GB) in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden the following month. The four-year-old has had 12 months to mature and finished fifth in his comeback in the G1 Gran Premio de Milano June 16, which will have put him right for this. Godolphin took this in 2000 with the consistent Mutafaweq and this year's contender Marienbard boasts the same reliability as that stalwart. He produced a career-best performance when winning the competitive G2 Jockey Club S. at Newmarket May 3, having finished only 2 1/4 lengths behind Nayef when fourth in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Nad al Sheba Mar. 23. Last time, he was all at sea on the soft ground when fourth in the G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom June 7 and he can be forgiven that effort. Samum, Germany's champion of 2000, was a fine second to Simoun (Ire) in the G2 Grosser Mercedes-Benz-Preis at Baden Baden June 2, when Well Made was fourth, on his first outing for a year. His disappointing run when subsequently fifth in the G2 Idee Hansa-Preis at Hamburg June 30, when Simoun and Well Made fought out the finish, could be attributed to the heavy ground prevalent there as he has a history of respiratory problems. Yavana's Pace deserves a Group 1 prize, but the ground may not be soft enough here, while stablemate Sir George Turner has it to prove after his dismal effort when seventh in the G2 Dante S. at York May 15.

Although this contest has been dominated by overseas raiders, who have taken seven of the last eight renewals, a strong domestic defence awaits the foreign contingent this time. It is 10 years since trainer Criquette Head-Maarek sent out Didyme to take this for Wertheimer et Frere and those connections will be looking to Acago for a belated follow-up. Despite her relative inexperience in this field, the evidence of her impressive winning debut in a Fontainebleau debutantes event June 27 suggests she is the right material. She will need to be every bit as good as she appeared that day to contain the unbeaten Ela Merici, who beat Zinziberine and On Line by a length and 3/4 of a length, respectively, in the G3 Prix du Bois at Chantilly June 28. Despite the winner's progressive profile, she has only won at that track thus far and may have to improve again to confirm that form with the runner-up. Deportivo, supplemented for this earlier in the week, is also unbeaten in three starts and showed fine pillar-to-post speed when winning the Listed Rose Bowl S. at Newbury July 19. Never a Doubt will appreciate this drop back in trip, having failed to settle when fourth in the G2 Cherry Hinton S. at Newmarket July 9, but has had some hard races in a short space of time and needs a true pace here.

Fourth in the nine-furlong GIII Stymie H. at Aqueduct in March, Wild Summer was freshened after that effort, returning to run second in a Belmont allowance at a mile May 30. The bay was given another short break after finishing fifth in an off-the-turf allowance going a mile and a sixteenth at Belmont June 8. Shortening up to a sprint this time, the four-year-old colt settled in fifth off fast fractions, moved up along the inside as they raced into the stretch and just got up to catch Dayton Flyer at the wire.

BLAZING FURY (c, 4, Dynaformer--Blazing Kadie {GSP, $253,735}, by Our Native) showed an affinity for this course when he romped in the GIII Saranac H. last September, but hadn't won since in five consecutive Grade I efforts. After closing out his sophomore campaign with a third in the GI Hollywood Turf Cup Dec. 1, the bay returned from a six-month break to be fifth in the GI Manhattan H. at Belmont June 8, then was a flat seventh in the GI United Nations H. at Monmouth July 6. Off as the prohibitive 3-5 choice in his return to allowance company, Blazing Fury was relaxed off the pace by jockey Jose Santos, ranged into contention with a wide move on the far turn and powered clear in the stretch to win by 2 1/2 lengths. FOLKESTONE PARK (c, 3, Dixieland Band--Call Me Fleet, by Afleet), a 1/2 to Warrior Queen (Quiet American), Co-Hwt. 3yo-lre at 5-6f, Hwt. 3yo Filly-lre at 5-7f, SW-lre & GSP-Eng, broke his maiden in his second start at Aqueduct in April and added an allowance tally at Belmont May 18. He was coming off a troubled fourth-place finish in the Northern Dancer S. at Churchill Downs June 15. The 9-5 favorite here, the $1,150,000 KEESep yearling went right to the front, set a pressured pace for a half and powered clear late to take it by 7 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: 5-3-0-1, $90,315. O-Melnyk Eugene & Laura. B-Frank Justice (KY). T-Todd A Pletcher.

+ CONGRATS (c, 2, A.P. Indy--Praise, by Mr. Prospector), whose third dam is the blue hen mare Glowing Tribute, had been training in Saratoga since June and got his first taste of the main track in his final work before his debut, a half-mile move in :48 2/5 out of the gate July 20. Sent off as the 2-1 second choice as part of the Shug McGaughey entry, the bay was slow to get into stride, but started rolling as they raced out of the turn, taking the lead in deep stretch and pulling clear late to win it by 1 1/4 lengths over slight 2-1 favorite Outer Reef (Pulpit). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $27,000. O/B-Claiborne Farm & Dilschneider Adele B (KY). T-Claude McGaughey III.

+ TWO POINT TAKEDOWN (c, 3, Pulpit--Sudden Death {MSW, $181,490}, by Northern Jove), a $150,000 KEESep yearling, hadn't shown much in a series of works coming into this one, but connections alone would ensure attention from bettors as the colt went off at odds of 9-2. Gunned for the lead under jockey Jerry Bailey, the chestnut set honest early fractions before getting loose in the stretch to prevail by five widening lengths. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $27,000. O-Bethlehem Stables. B-Raymond Terry Jr (KY). T-William I Mott.

Macho Uno Preps for Whitney:

Champion Macho Uno (Holy Bull), third in the July 6 GI Suburban H. last time out, worked an easy half in :51 3/5 over a fast Saratoga main track yesterday morning. He goes next in the GI Whitney S. next Saturday. "I sent him out there to do an open gallop for a mile and pick it up in the last half," trainer Joe Orseno said. "I wanted him to go :55 for the last half. That's all I needed for him to do leading up to the Whitney; otherwise, he's doing really great and we're ready to go."

Boldest of All led by three lengths, but faltered in deep stretch to be second in her debut June 8. Never in contention in her latest, she finished sixth by 10 lengths in the Shady Well S. July 7. Off as the bettors' second choice here, she dueled with Dressed for Action from the break and outgamed that foe through the stretch to get the open-length win.

8th-WOX, $74,400, Alw, Opt. Clm. ($62,500-57,500), 3yo/up, 1 3/8mT, 2:16 1/5, gd.

PERFECT SOUL (IRE) (c, 4, Sadler's Wells--Ball Chairman, by Secretariat), a half to Dimontina (Dixieland Band), MSP, $184,606, came flying from 10th to score by three lengths going seven furlongs in his debut June 6. Stretching to 1 1/4 miles in his next, he won going away at odds of 3-5 versus entry-level allowance foes June 22. Preserving his spotless record, the 4-5 chalk was kept just of the pacesetting Mellowes (Unbridled) through honest fractions, moved boldly to take the lead leaving the far turn and opened up on that rival through the lane to get the easy 4 1/4-length victory. SAINTLY SLUMBER (f, 3, Saint Ballado--Anesthesiologist, by Damascus), a $165,000 KEESEP yearling, showed nice form in her first turf effort at Belmont June 1, finishing second by a half-length after setting the pace. She tired badly in her latest, though, and finished eighth over that trip July 3. Shipping in for this one, the even-money choice made the early lead, turned for home in front by 1 1/2 lengths and held off the late challenge of With the Works (With Approval) for the head win despite drifting out approaching the line. A stewards' inquiry resulted in no change in the order of finish. The winner is a half-sister to Phone Doctor (Phone Trick), MSW & MGSP, $306,406. Lifetime Record: 7-1-2-0, $37,660.

McCarron to Monmouth for Haskell Weekend:

Jockey Chris McCarron, who retired after riding Came Home to victory in the June 23 Gill Affirmed S., will be Monmouth Park's special guest during Haskell weekend. McCarron, the leading money-winning rider of all time with career earnings of $264,351,579 will be at the track for a two-hour autograph session Saturday, Aug. 3. There will be a $5 fee for a photo and autograph. The Hall of Famer, who won the Haskell with King Glorious in 1989 and with Touch Gold in 1997, will be the guest handicapper at Monmouth's paddock handicapping seminar on Sunday, Aug. 4.

Cowboy Stuff, a winner in four of his five starts coming into this event, had earned three of those victories vs. state-bred stakes foes at Prairie Meadows. The gray was coming off a 3/4-length tally in the Cyclone S. at the Iowa track June 29. Trying open company at Arlington for the first time, he shot to the lead right out of the gate, set an uncontested pace and held sway to the finish under jockey Pat Valenzuela.

8th-APX, $37,000, Alw, 3yo/up, 1m, 1:35 4/5, gd. CITY FEAR (c, 3, Carson City--Elkin, by Sovereign Dancer) romped by 8 1/2 lengths in a May 18 Hawthorne maiden, then showed two starts later he was just as effective going long when he prevailed against Arlington allowance rivals at 1 1/8 miles. Scaling back a panel in this one, the 6-5 bettors' pick was never far back and showed a nice turn of foot as he got the lead on the far turn. He quickly opened up on the field under moderate urging and galloped home confidently for the 3 1/4-length success. Lifetime Record: 5-3-1-0, $63,500.

Trainer Jim Chapman debuted Humorous Lady versus state-breds at Hollywood Park June 5, where the $27,000 BESOCT yearling finished a solid third after racing wide on the turn. Dropped into a $40,000 maiden-claiming contest last time, she was all out to win it by a neck June 19. Dismissed by handicappers trying stakes company here, the dark bay blazed through early fractions of :21 4/5 and :45, was under an all-out drive in the closing stages and gamely held the hard-charging Golden K K at bay in the shadow of the wire. It was the second win on the day for jockey Corey Nakatani, who returned Wednesday from an injury sustained at Hollywood May 2. "She is extremely quick," Nakatani said. "She got tired at the end, but that figured, as fast as she was running. It feels good to be back." Favored Little Bit a Swiss, who was rank in the gate, caused interference when swerving to the outside at the break and was subsequently disqualified from third and placed ninth.

Coming into this one, Kela had been the favorite in all but one of his seven starts. That exception came two races back, when he finished a non-threatening second at Hollywood June 5. Rebounding from that effort, he blasted non-winners of two in his latest June 27 as the 6-5 chalk. Off as the second choice in this talented field, the dark bay was kept in a stalking position in third as Hot Market cut out the running, with Malabar Gold in pursuit. Gary Stevens asked for Kela's run leaving the turn and his mount surged to the lead with a powerful three-wide move, clearing those two rivals and prevailing under a steady drive.

O'BRIEN OUTLINES PLANS Trainer Aidan O'Brien outlined his plans for stable stars High Chaparral (Ire) (Sadler's Wells {USA}) and Hawk Wing (USA) (Woodman {USA}). Speaking at The Curragh yesterday, the scene of the former's G1 Irish Derby win June 30, he said: "High Chaparral is on a break and could come back for either the G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown [Sept. 7] or G2 Prix Niel at Longchamp [Sept. 15] before he goes for the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe there [Oct. 6]." Hawk Wing, beaten two lengths by High Chaparral in the G1 Epsom Derby June 8 before winning the G1 Eclipse S. at Sandown July 6, was confirmed on target for York's G1 Juddmonte International S. Aug. 20. O'Brien also revealed that G1 Coronation S. winner Sophisticat (USA) (Storm Cat {USA}) will run in the G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood Saturday, while Newfoundland (USA) (Storm Cat {USA}) would be his sole juvenile representative in Wednesday's G3 Vintage S. at that venue. O'Brien is also looking to run the G3 Coventry S. winner Statue of Liberty (USA) (Storm Cat {USA}) and G3 Anglesey S. winner Ontario (USA) (Storm Cat {USA}) in the G1 Phoenix S. at The Curragh Aug. 11.

With an incredibly slow pace conspiring against Van Nistelrooy here, the $6.4 million colt overcame adversity to maintain his unbeaten record. Held up in fifth early as first Chappel Crescent and then Rapid Ransom (USA) (Red Ransom {USA}) took them along at a crawl, Michael Kinane's mount was keen and required cover. As the latter picked up the pace notably at the halfway, Van Nistelrooy was asked to quicken in pursuit and responded instantly. Denied a run between horses, he was switched wide at the furlong-marker, where he had a two-length deficit to make up on new leader Etruscan King. Showing a fine burst of acceleration from there, he cut down that rival in the final stride. "I knew after a furlong that I should have run something else to make it a proper gallop," said Aidan O'Brien, who was dismayed by the falsely-run race. "Van Nistelrooy had a couple of lengths to make up on them and, to be fair, the horse did well in the circumstances. This horse is a lovely mover which appreciated the better ground since he won here earlier in the month. He'll probably come back here for the G2 Futurity S. [Aug. 24]."

As had happened in last Saturday's Weatherbys Super Sprint at Newbury, the majority chose the wrong side of the track here, leaving Crystal Castle and Ghannam to battle out the spoils on the stands' rail. Settled in mid-pack of that group early as Mister Cosmi (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}) set a furious tempo, he travelled well before being asked to lengthen passing the three-furlong marker. Edging away from Ghannam with 300 yards to race, the American-bred proved his strength from there and fought off that rival all the way to the line. "He's built like a sprinter, but he's got the trip today," said winning trainer John Hammond. Crystal Castle, whose only previous success came in the G3 Prix De Cabourg at Deauville as a two-year-old, was a creditable fourth in the Wokingham H. over a furlong shorter at Royal Ascot last time June 22.

+ SALCOMBE (GB) (c, 2, Elmaamul {USA}--West Devon {USA}, by Gone West {USA}) settled in last of the three runners as Jay Gee's Choice (GB) (Barathea {Ire}) led from 1-2 choice Montana (GB) (Puissance {GB}), but moved to the outside of his rivals approaching the final quarter mile. The 5-2 second choice was ridden to challenge with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, quickened to the lead at the distance and lengthened clear thereafter to defeat Jay Gee's Choice by an impressive 2 1/2 lengths. SNUGFIT DUBARRY (GB) (f, 2, Ali-Royal {Ire}--Spanish Serenade {GB}, by Nashwan {USA}) tracked the leaders along the rail in fourth as Supergrass (GB) (Groom Dancer {USA}) led, but was switched outside to challenge at the quarter-mile marker. The 14-1 chance was ridden to the front approaching the final furlong and was driven out in the closing stages to hold off the strong finish of Skehana (Ire) (Mukaddamah {USA}) by a neck. TAKES TWO TO TANGO (GB) (f, 2, Groom Dancer {USA}--Peggy Spencer {GB}, by Formidable {USA}), sent off the 2-1 favourite, raced in fifth early as Jade Star (USA) (Jade Hunter {USA}) cut out the running. Pushed along at the halfway, she continued to respond and lengthened to lead with 250 yards remaining before battling to a game neck success from the fast-finishing Notanother (GB) (Inchiner {GB}). Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, £5,993. O/B-Guy Reed; T-Bary Hills; J-Darryll Holland.

ABSOLUTE CHARMER (IRE) (f, 3, Entrepreneur {GB}--Diabolina {USA}, by Lear Fan {USA}), sent off at odds of 7-2, disputed the early lead with Titian Lass (GB) (Bijou d'Inde {GB}) and Misk (Ire) (Desert King {Ire}). Taking overall command with quarter of a mile remaining, he had to battle to ward off the attentions of Tanaji (GB) (Marju {Ire}) from there but was equal to the task, asserting by a short head at the line. Lifetime Record: 6-1-1-0, £7,069. O-Marston Stud; B-Lady Richard Wellesley and Grange Nominees; T-Roger Charlton; J-Steve Drowne.

MALAPROPISM (GB) (g, 2, Compton Place {GB}--Mrs Malaprop {GB}, by Night Shift {USA}) broke smartly to dispute the early running with Cesare Borgia (Ire) (Dr Devious {Ire}) and went to the outright lead at the halfway marker. The 5-4 market choice was ridden along approaching the final furlong and was pushed out in the latter stages to defeat Little Malvern (GB) (Piccolo {GB}) by 1 1/2 lengths. The gelding becomes the seventh winner for his freshman sire (by Indian Ridge {USA}). Lifetime Record: 7-1-2-3, £8,267. O/B-Michael Foy; T-Mick Channon; J-Dean Corby.

AJC ZEROS IN ON YOUNG RACEGOERS

The Australian Jockey Club recently launched a new marketing campaign particularly targeting young women. Sydney racing administrators have come under fire in recent times for failing to appeal to younger racegoers. A "Diamond Dozen" theme days concept, aimed at broadening the appeal of racing and enhancing its value as an entertainment vehicle, kicks off on August 10 with "Winter Wonderland" featuring Olympic speed skating gold medallist Stephen Bradbury. The club has secured two new sponsors with National Telecoms Group (NTG) and well-known label Orotan. "We've identified women in the 18-35 age bracket as the people we most want to attract to the races," said AJC marketing manager Steve Reid. Other events will include a Big Brother Day, Endless Summer party and the second Derby Day Lawn party, after the 2002 edition proved popular. "These events will complement the races and help draw a young vibrant crowd to Randwick throughout the year," Reid said. "We're looking forward to creating a classy party atmosphere for those who want to let their hair down in style."
