SUMMER MAKES FALL DEBUT

Azeri has done her part on the left coast, ambushing one graded-stakes field after the next. This afternoon at Belmont Park, Edward Evans' Summer Colony (Summer Squall) can cement her role as the East's main protagonist with a victory in the GI Beldame S. First or second in each of her half dozen

Summer Colony wins the Personal Ensign

Adam Coglianese

starts this season, the four-year-old carries a two-race winning streak into today's event, including a 4 1/2-length score in the GI Personal Ensign H. at Saratoga Aug. 23. She cuts back in distance and will be asked to negotiate the sometimes quirky one-turn mile and an eighth. "Obviously it's a lot different than two turns," trainer Mark Hennig said during a Tuesday teleconference. "Unfortunately they turn into sprint races sometimes. I know Summer Colony's not a sprinter. But we're about prepared for anything that gets thrown at us." Six of the last 10 runnings have gone to sophomore fillies, including the victory by the late Exogenous a year ago. Imperial Gesture (Langfuhr) has won two straight, including a 2 1/2-length victory over Take Charge Lady in the GI Gazelle H. Sept. 7, while GIII Delaware Oaks winner Allamerican Bertie (Quiet American) comes into this off a heart-breaking neck loss to Farda Amiga in the GI Alabama S. at Saratoga Aug. 17. Mandy's Gold (Gilded Time) rallied from off the pace to upset the GI Ruffian H. Sept. 14 and could earn a trip to the Breeders' Cup with a solid performance.

HIGH HOPES FOR THE CHAPARRAL

Aidan O'Brien yesterday gave the all-clear for High Chaparral (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) to contest Sunday's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe Lucien Barriere at Longchamp. Having won the G1 Epsom Derby June 8, High Chaparral followed up in the Irish version at The Curragh June 30 before being sidelined with a bout of coughing. Adverse blood tests forced O'Brien to withdraw him from the G2 Prix Niel at Longchamp Sept. 15, but the Ballydoyle conditioner is happy that the dual Derby hero will be ready for Sunday's mile-and-a-half test, in which he will be accompanied by Black Sam Bellamy (Ire) (Sadler's Wells). "High Chaparral is as ready as we could have him without a prep run, which we would obviously have preferred," O'Brien told PA Sport yesterday. "He's a clear-winded horse and his work has been exceptional this year. We are just happy to go there and are hoping he runs a nice race. Black Sam Bellamy is running on his merits. There is a pacemaker in for Sulamani, so I don't think that will be a worry." High Chaparral yesterday drew a favourable inside draw in stall five, while G1 Prix du Jockey Club hero Sulamani (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}) was drawn on the outside in the 13 hole yesterday and the Geoff Wragg-trained Asian Heights (GB) (Hernando {Fr}) was drawn widest of all in 16. His jockey Darryll Holland told PA Sport yesterday, "No one wants to be drawn 16 of 16 in the Arc, but at least I'm on a hold-up horse--it would be much harder if I had to be up with the pace. I'll just drop in behind from my berth and see what we can do as we've got a mile and a half to sort things out." The four-year-old, who would be aided by soft ground, is four-for-five in his career, with a win in the G3 September S. at Kempton Sept. 7. The ground at Longchamp is expected to be good to soft for today's opening day of the Arc meeting, with the penetrometer reading at 3.4 yesterday. (Field p8)

She was supposed to play second fiddle to Russian Rhythm, but Airwave turned that logic on its head with a devastating burst of speed here. Airwave advertised her ability when impressing in the Listed Firth of Clyde S. at Ayr last time Sept. 21. Having been dropped out at the back early as Wimple set a true tempo this time, she was coaxed forward to join Russian Rhythm with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining before sprinting away from that rival as she met the rising ground for a comfortable score. "I was very confident and to be quite honest, I thought when Kieren [Fallon, aboard Russian Rhythm] kicked, he would have gone a bit further and given us something to chase," said her animated jockey Chris Rutter. "I've ended up getting him in about three or four strides...before I know where I am I've gone past him." Henry Candy, who has already enjoyed Group 1 success this year with Kyllachy (GB) in the Nunthorpe S., has no pretensions for the G1 1000 Guineas next May. "It'll be sprinting next year," he said. Rutter added, "She had worked with some nice sprinters and she was phenomenal--she took Kyllachy off the bridle and I thought, 'this is something serious.' She's fantastic." Russian Rhythm was eased to 5-1 by Coral Eurobet for the Classic, but connections were far from disappointed. "I'm still looking forward to riding her next year because we were beaten by a specialist sprinter and my filly already wants a mile," Fallon said. Just a nice allowance horse prior to this season, Owsley has turned the corner and registered her third stakes score of the year in the Galaxy. Fourth, beaten just 1/2 a length in the 1 3/8-mile GII Sheepshead Bay H. at Belmont June 1, the Arthur Hancock homebred atoned for that defeat with a 1/2-length success in the GII New York H. in New York on Independence Day. Seventh in the July 27 GII Diana H. at Saratoga, the dark bay stretched back out to 11 furlongs for the GIII Glens Falls H. at the Spa Aug. 26, charging from just off the pace to score by a length in yielding conditions. Getting a similarly soft surface for this, she was the third choice in a field of six. Content to trail while three and four wide down the backstretch, Owsley took closer order to race just in behind the leaders turning for home, took advantage of a wide-open space along the inside and powered clear. Favored Affluent (Strawberry Road {Aus}), winner of the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup last fall at Keeneland, flattened out in the stretch and finished fifth. "She broke a step slow today which was the best thing that could have happened to her," commented winning rider Edgar Prado. "Even though she was pulling me down the backside, she was rating nicely. I just sat there and it opened up and she kicked it in. She finished very strong." Winning trainer Randy Schulhofer indicated that the Oct. 26 GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf is definitely on the agenda for the winner. With the remnants of Hurricane Isadore streaking across Central Kentucky yesterday, perhaps Westerly Breeze was the hunch play of hunch plays. Trained by Carl Nafzger, who had his fair share of Keeneland success with another Breeze (Banshee), the dark bay broke slowly in her July 13 bow at Arlington before finding her best stride late for a fourth-place finish. Having bled in that effort, the $145,000 Keeneland September yearling registered a five-length score in Chicago Aug. 16 and was coming into this off a solid fourth behind Atlantic Ocean (Stormy Atlantic) in the Kentucky Cup Juvenile Fillies up I-75 Sept. 14. Alertly away from the gate, Westerly Breeze was content to lay just off the early pace of Atlantic Ocean, with Ruby's Reception another few lengths back in third. Asked for more run at the six-furlong marker, assumed command at will, carried a daylight lead into the lane and held off Ruby's Reception for the win. Midnight Cry (Smart Strike), favored at 2-1 off her third-place finish in the GI Spinaway S. Aug. 30, was never a factor while finishing seventh. "I really think she needed that two-turn race at Turfway last time," commented winning rider Robby Albarado. "Today she knew what was expected of her and she went about her business." 8	Brancusi	Deputy Commander	Biancone	10-1
9	Pretty Wild	Wild Again	Hough	3-1

Pretty Wild broke his maiden by five lengths over the Belmont main July 13, but lost some time following that event, causing him to miss the first two races in Saratoga's juvenile series. The bay resurfaced to be an excellent second to Sky Mesa in the GI Hopeful S. upstate Aug. 31 and returned on 15 days' rest to finish runner-up behind Whywhywhy in the GI Futurity S. at Belmont Sept. 15. Win or lose, the homebred is most likely to be kept out of the Breeders' Cup. "It would be ambitious to run back in another three weeks," said trainer Stan Hough. "His future is ahead of him. We don't want to overrace him right now." California shipper Icecoldbeeratreds is three for four in his brief career and upset stablemate Kafwain to win the GII Del Mar Futurity at the seaside Sept. 11. He stretches out in distance, as does Erinsouthernman, an impressive 4 3/4-length maiden winner at Saratoga Sept. 1.

Trainer Shug McGaughey, who already has four victories in this race to his credit, has an excellent chance at a fifth with undefeated Storm Flag Flying. The granddaughter of 1986 Frizette winner Personal Ensign registered a one-length maiden victory at first asking at Saratoga Aug. 18 before walloping the GI Matron S. field by 12 3/4 lengths Sept. 15. Her dam is My Flag, who came from well off the pace to win the 1995 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, but the two have different running styles, according to the trainer. "Storm Flag Flying will show more speed than My Flag because of the Storm Cat factor," he commented. "Putting the Storm Cat into My Flag gave [Storm Flag Flying] some speed." Santa Catarina graduated by eight lengths at Del Mar Aug. 11 and enters this off a neck defeat in the GI Del Mar Debutante Aug. 31.

4	Voodoo Dancer	Kingmambo	Clement	3-1
5	Banks Hill (GB)	Danehill	Fabre	6-5
6	Viernes (Brz)	Roy	Lobo	30-1

After missing out on last weekend's GI Flower Bowl due to the soft going, Banks Hill preps here for a title defense in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf. Third to Grandera (Ire) in the G1 Prince of Wales' S. over 10 furlongs at Royal Ascot June 19, the Juddmonte homebred registered her sole victory of the season with a 1 1/2-length success in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois at Deauville Aug. 18. Most recently a half-length second to Rock of Gibraltar (Ire) in the G1 Prix du Moulin Sept. 8, the bay stretches back out the Filly and Mare Turf distance for this. Second to Affluent in the GI Ramona H. at Del Mar July 27, Golden Apples showed determination to take home top honors in the GI Beverly D. at Arlington Aug. 17. Not nominated to the Breeders' Cup, she would need to be supplemented for $90,000.

5	Mellow Fellow	Belek	Spawr	10-1
6	Kalookan Queen	Lost Code	Headley	3-1

Swept Overboard looked like a great gray tsunami leaving Belmont's far turn in the GI Metropolitan H., easily clearing the field and storming home a 4 3/4-length victor in his first-ever go at a route. That was back in May, however, and the Craig Dollase trainee hasn't raced since. The five-year-old--who won the Ancient Title last year--will use this as a springboard for the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint before heading over to Japan, where he'll begin his career at stud. Also in the fray is the lightly raced Crafty C.T., who finished third in the Met Mile and comes off a gate-to-wire score versus $80,000 optional claimers at Del Mar Aug. 30. A strong showing here may mean a shot at the B.C. Sprint, a standard of evaluation which may also apply to the always tough Kalookan Queen. Trained by Bruce Headley, the six-year-old mare has beaten the boys before and has finished off the board only once in 23 career starts. Last time out, she manhandled the ladies with a driving score in the GIII Rancho Bernardo H. at Del Mar. Aug. 25.

Sky Mesa looks to stamp himself the favorite for the Breeders' Cup Juvenile with a victory in a race which has produced four previous winners on championship day. The $750,000 Keeneland September yearling purchase took his first step towards repaying that investment with an impressive 7 3/4-length maiden victory at Saratoga Aug. 3. Bet down to 7-2 against the likes of Zavata in the GI Hopeful S. at the Spa Aug. 31, the son of MGSW Caress stalked the early pace and charged past subsequent GI Futurity S. runner-up Pretty Wild for a 1 3/4-length score. Lone Star Sky, a distant second to Zavata in the GII Saratoga Special Aug. 14, overcame trouble in his two-turn debut to annex the Miller Genuine Draft Cradle S. at River Downs by 2 3/4 widening lengths Sept. 2.

7	Saint Verre	Saint Ballado	H Jerkens	20-1
8	Green Fee	Green Dancer	Peitz	15-1
9	Lunar Leo (GB)	Muhtarram	Williams	20-1

Forbidden Apple is seeking his third straight Kelso win. The veteran runner missed by just a neck when third behind Del Mar Show in the July 26 GII Bernard Baruch H. and was another neck short when again behind Beat Hollow (GB) in the Aug. 17 GI Arlington Million. Baptize, a two-time graded stakes winner last year, began the season with three off-the-board finishes against graded-stakes company. After a fifth-place effort in the Bernard Baruch, the four-year-old colt dropped to the allowance ranks to win by two lengths over this course and distance Sept. 6. The front-running Patrol has won four of five starts this year, including a 2 3/4-length victory in the Sept. 13 Rushing Man S. at the Meadowlands. He tired to third in his only graded-stakes outing in the Aug. 5 GII National Museum of Racing Hall of Fame S.

6	Spinlessjellyfish	Skywalker	Sahadi	12-1
7	D'Wildcat	Forest Wildcat	Hess	9-2
8	Night Patrol	Storm Boot	N Canani	4-1

A new era may begin today in the career of Bob Baffert's Congaree, who'll switch to the grass for the first time in his career after a series of inconsistent efforts this year on the dirt. Last year's classic contender won the GIII Lone Star Park H. in his 2002 bow in late May, but floundered as the beaten favorite when sixth in the GI Stephen Foster H. and third in the GII San Diego H. In his latest, he scaled back to a mile for the first time since breaking his maiden and responded by wiring the field in the GII Del Mar Breeders' Cup H. Sept. 2. His pop Arazi was a multiple Group 1 stakes winner on the lawn, so the change in surface may be welcomed by the four-year-old. Trainer Nick Canani's Night Patrol, a game second in the 1 1/4 mile GI Charlie Whittingham H. in June, will likely join Congaree on the front end. He'll try to rebound from his latest, where he was a disappointing eighth in the 1 1/8-mile Caeser Rodney H. at Delaware Park Aug. 24, but is zero-for-seven at this distance and will need an extra gear to go with these.

Godolphin's Jilbab stormed to a 13 1/4-length victory in a June 16 allowance at Belmont before moving on to conquer Grade I company in the 1 1/2-mile Coaching Club American Oaks July 20. She has not raced since finishing a non-threatening fourth in the Aug. 17 GI Alabama. Since winning the Go for Wand S. at Delaware in May, Alternate has been runner-up in three straight outings. Most recently, the gray filly was second in the Aug. 17 GII Monmouth Breeders' Cup Oaks. Smok'n Frolic, twice a graded-stakes winner as a juvenile, has yet to get on track this year. The roan filly pressed the pace before tiring to sixth in the Alabama.

Kafwain, winner of the GIII Best Pal S. in August, was runner-up behind stablemate Icecoldbeeratreds in the Sept. 11 GII Del Mar Futurity. Bull Market turned heads with an impressive maiden score in his July 24 debut, but ran into trouble in the Futurity and wound up sixth. With blinkers off today, the dark bay colt comes into his route debut off a pair of strong works at this track. He and Kafwain have worked nearly identically since the Futurity, both going one mile Sept. 23 in 1:39.3, then going six furlongs Sept. 29 in 1:11.1 and 1:11.2, respectively. Listen Indy was second behind Vindication in his July 27 Del Mar debut and third behind Truckle Feature Aug. 17, both sprints. Trying one mile for the first time last out, the bay colt graduated by one length at Del Mar Sept. 9.

Sophomores have dominated this contest, with only two older fillies having won since 1986. That trend suggests Fallen Star and Zuleika Dobson, emanating from stables that have enjoyed success in this race in the past 10 years, will struggle to contain the younger generation. Fallen Star's form is strong, however, having finished third, beaten three lengths by Dress to Thrill, in the G3 Matron S. at Leopardstown Sept. 7. But Fallen Star is worse off at the weights with that impressive winner here, and Dress to Thrill holds outstanding claims of emulating last year's winner Independence (GB) in completing the Matron--Sun Chariot double. Second to Quarter Moon (Ire) in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. at The Curragh last September, she was most recently the winner of the G3 Desmond S. at that track Aug. 18. Chorist, beaten a half-length by Irresistible Jewel (Ire) in the G3 Blandford S. at The Curragh Sept. 15, previously got the better of subsequent GI E. P. Taylor S. winner Fraulein (GB) by 1 3/4 lengths in the Upavon Fillies' S. at Salisbury Aug. 14.

Overseas raiders have done particularly well in this event in recent years and it is interesting that Ian Balding, who won with Trans Island (GB) in 1999, puts forward Ratio. He is closely matched with Domedriver on last year's form, having been beaten a length by that rival in the Listed Prix de Tourgeville at Deauville in August. The chestnut has started just twice since, however, finishing off the board at York in at the end of August and returning after a year's layoff to be fourth in a conditions race at Chepstow Aug. 26. Domedriver has improved out of all recognition this term, beating Altieri (GB) by 1 1/2 lengths in the G3 Prix du Chemin De Fer du Nord at Chantilly June 9 before finishing runner-up to that rival in the G3 Prix Messidor at Deauville July 6. He produced a career-best last time when finishing runner-up to Banks Hill (GB) in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois at Deauville Aug. 18. Proudswings, who was third in the Prix Messidor, filled the same spot behind Turtle Bow (Fr) in the G2 Prix d'Astarte at Deauville Aug. 4. She was fourth behind Rock of Gibraltar (Ire) last time in the G1 Prix du Moulin here Sept. 8 and on that form she warrants respect.

10	11	Bernebeau (Fr)	Green Tune	Fabre	121
11	10	Tau Ceti (GB)	Hernando (Fr)	Hammond	121

The domestic contingent have struggled in recent years to keep this prize at home, but they appear particularly strong this year. Wellbeing claimed the notable scalp of Sakhee when comfortably beating that rival by a length in a competitive renewal of the G3 Prix Gontaut-Biron at Deauville Aug. 10. The merit of that performance was lost in the post-race examination of the runner's-up defeat, but he is a high-class individual in his own right. At three, he was fifth behind Sinndar (Ire) in one of the strongest Epsom Derbies run in recent years and at four he was beaten a short head by Mutafweq in the G1 Coronation Cup. Provided the ground has been watered sufficiently, he should take all the beating here and book his place in the line-up for the G1 Emirates Airlines Champion S. at Newmarket Oct. 19. John Gosden, who has won this three times since 1993, relies on Binary File, who took the competitive Listed Strensall S. at York Sept. 4 before finding the seven furlongs of the G3 Dubai Duty Free Cup too sharp when fourth behind Meshaaheer at Newbury Sept. 20. Old-stager Jim and Tonic was unsuited by the rain-softened conditions when runner-up in the G2 Prix du Rond-Point on this card last year. He showed up well on his comeback last time when runner-up to the smart Fair Mix (Ire) in the G3 La Coupe de Maisons-Laffitte Sept. 17 and will appreciate this faster ground and step back up in trip. Execute had smart form at this track in the spring, winning the G2 Prix d'Harcourt Mar. 31 and finishing a half-length runner-up to Aquarelliste (Fr) in the G1 Prix Ganay Apr. 28, but faces a stiff task here under a penalty.

Andre Fabre, who has farmed this contest in recent years, is represented by Morozov and Martaline. Having won the G3 Prix du Lys on this course June 23, Morozov was a fine third behind Cut Quartz (Fr) in the G2 Prix Kergolay at Deauville Aug. 18. He came in for a poor ride last time when last of three behind Sulamani (Ire) in the G2 Prix Niel Sept. 15 and will be seen to much better effect here. Martaline was last of four in the G3 Prix de Lutece Sept. 8 and that form holds vital clues here. Savannah Bay had Swing Wing a half-length back in second that day, but the runner-up can reverse those placings at level weights this time. Previously, Swing Wing had Martaline a short neck back in second in the Listed Prix Michel Houyvet at Deauville Aug. 15, but he is held by Morozov on his third placing in the Prix du Lys. Pascal Bary took this in 1993 with Epaphos (Ger) and he saddles Thompson Rouge, who has chances on the form of his fourth-placing in the G1 Derby Italiano in Rome May 26.

8	2	Trumbaka (Ire)	In The Wings (GB)	Head-Maarek	119

Godolphin took this contest in 1997 with Tulipa and in 1999 with Fairy Queen (Ire); they rely on Spring Oak this time. Having finished third in the G1 Breeders' Cup F/M Turf at Belmont Park last October, she returned to finish a close runner-up in the Listed Dahlia S. at Newmarket May 3. She was a disappointing sixth in the G2 Pretty Polly S. at The Curragh June 29, but has been shaping well for this on the Newmarket gallops. Three-year-olds have enjoyed a slight edge on the elders in this race in recent times and the best appears to be Shadow Dancing here. Having won the Listed Cheshire Oaks at Chester May 8, she was a distant third on testing ground in the G1 Epsom Derby June 7. She returned to finish 3/4 of a length runner-up to Irresistible Jewel (Ire) in the G2 Ribblesdale S. at Royal Ascot June 20 before finishing running behind Mellow Park (Ire) in the G3 Lancashire Oaks at Haydock July 6. The filly was given a well-earned rest after finishing runner-up to the smart Bernimixa (Fr) in the G2 Prix De Pomone at Deauville Aug. 4 and returns here fresh. Dance Routine, runner-up in the G1 Prix de Diane Hermes at Chantilly June 9, was disappointing last time when eighth in the G1 Prix Vermeille here Sept. 15, but has been working well.

Kentucky Derby third-place finisher Perfect Drift makes his return to the races this evening, facing multiple Grade III winner Wiseman's Ferry and GII Louisiana Derby runner-up Easyfromthegitgo in the Indiana Derby, graded for the first time this year. The winner of the GII Lane's End Spiral S. in March, Perfect Drift skipped the Preakness S. in favor of the Belmont S., but turned in an uncharacteristically poor performance and finished 10th.

ARC SALE COMPLEMENTS BIG WEEKEND On the eve of Sunday's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at neighboring Longchamp, Goffs France will host their one-day Arc Sale at Saint-Cloud. Urban Sea, who collected the showpiece herself in 1993 and went on to produce champion Galileo (Ire), remains the highest-profile graduate of the sale. GI American Oaks winner Megahertz (GB) further advertised the quality of this year's sale, to be held after the racing at Longchamp this afternoon. The catalog, featuring 66 horses in training, includes hip 2, Cayoake (Fr) (Always Fair), who took the Listed Prix du Pin at Longchamp Sept. 22 for trainer Sylvain Guillot. Jean-Marie Beguigne consigns hip 10, Il Barone (Ire) (Perugino), the runner-up in the G3 Prix la Rochette at Longchamp Sept. 15, while Jean-Claude Rouget offers hip 24, Kane Ore (GB) (Green Desert), winner of the G3 Prix de la Cochere at Saint-Cloud Sept. 9. But the highlight of the sale may prove to be hip 53, the broodmare prospect Tropezina (Ire) (Entrepreneur {GB}) from the stable of Philippe Van de Poele. She is out of Bordighera, making her a half-sister to Grandera (Ire). Trading begins at approximately 6:30 p.m. Results can be viewed on www.goffs.fr.

MIZZEN MAST TO JUDDMONTE KENTUCKY

Juddmonte Farms has announced that their homebred colt Mizzen Mast (Cozzene--Kinema, by Graustark) will enter stud and will stand the 2003 breeding season at Juddmonte in Lexington, Kentucky. The winner of the G3 Prix de Guiche and second to Chichicastenango () in the G1 Grand Prix de Paris in 2001, the gray was sent to the U.S., where he transferred his solid form to the main track. He demonstrated an outstanding turn of foot to win the GI Malibu S. over seven furlongs last December and stamped himself a force in the handicap division with a 4 1/2-length victory in the GII Strub S. in February. Mizzen Mast's dam was a $2.2 million yearling and is a half sister to Kentucky Oaks winner Sweet Alliance. "This is a really good horse," commented Bobby Frankel, who took over the colt's training in the U.S. "With the depth of talent he showed me, I think he could have won the Breeders' Cup Juvenile and the Kentucky Derby. Mizzen Mast has won five of his 11 starts for career earnings of $553,621.

ARCHERS BAY DEAD Canadian champion Archers Bay (Silver Deputy--Adorned, by Val de L'Orne {Fr}) was euthanized Thursday after suffering complications from colic surgery. Running in the colors of Eugene and Laura Melnyk and Bill and Iris Bristow, Archers Bay captured the first two legs of the Canadian Triple Crown and earned the Sovereign Award as Canada's champion three-year-old colt in 1998. The seven-year-old stallion retired to Windfields' Oshawa, Ontario farm and covered 176 mares over the past three breeding seasons. He will be buried at Windfields near the grave of his great-great grandsire Northern Dancer. "This is a sad day not only for Windfields, but for the Ontario breeding industry," said Windfields General Manager Bernard McCormack. "Eugene Melnyk and the Bristows have devoted considerable enthusiasm and resources to this game and Archers Bay was their first classic winner, as well as being the last Queen's Plate winner bred by Windfields. His first two crops show tremendous promise and we had expected him to develop into a very significant sire." In addition to his wins in the Queen's Plate and Prince of Wales S., Archers Bay was second in the 1999 GI Gulfstream Park H. On the board in nine of 13 starts, he won four races and earned $666,200.

Perfect Story Finally Debuts:

Perfect Story (Tale of the Cat), a half sister to 2001 Horse of the Year Point Given, makes her belated debut in this afternoon's fifth race at Keeneland. Purchased by John Oxley as a weanling for $975,000 at the 2000 Keeneland November Sale, the chestnut filly was scheduled to make her initial racetrack appearance in a Saratoga maiden Aug. 3, but was scratched with a fever. Coincidentally, stablemate and subsequent GI Hopeful S. winner Sky Mesa broke his maiden on the same card. Perfect Story has drawn post position number eight in a field of 11 for the seven-furlong test.

Awesome Humor Undergoes Surgery:

Undefeated Awesome Humor (Distorted Humor), winner in her most recent start of the GI Spinaway S. at Saratoga Aug. 30, underwent surgery on Wednesday to remove bone chips from both of her front ankles. "Everything went well," trainer Elliott Walden told Daily Racing Form. "The plan is for her to come back in about eight weeks, which will be right about the first of December."

Returning from an eight-month absence, Manofglory was fourth in the Wolf Hill S. at Monmouth in early June, then finished third by 3 3/4 lengths in the John McSorley S. a month later. In his latest, he closed to be third by a diminishing neck in the Pennsylvania Governor's Cup H. at Penn National Aug. 3. Off in fourth, he moved four wide around the turn and was under a spirited drive to get past entry mates Mighty Beau and Brown Eyed Major.

Adding a panel here, the bay filly patiently stalked the pacesetting duo of Blu Spur (Northern Spur {Ire}) and Ms Isadorable (Royal Academy) through sensible fractions. Jockey Robby Albarado found daylight along the rail in the final furlong and steered his charge through, allowing for a driving neck victory over Blu Spur, with a nose back to Ms Isadorable. OUTATHECHUTE (c, 3, Conte Di Savoya--Damastar, by Claim), a $2,700 FTKOCT yearling, ripped off four consecutive second-place finishes before finally breaking his maiden at Monmouth back in August of 2001. Shelved off that one, the three-year-old colt returned from a 13-month holiday as a 17-1 lonshot and proceeded to light up the board under a dreary Kentucky sky. The bay broke on top, set sharp fractions and drew clear in the lane to win by 4 1/4 lengths. Lifetime Record: 8-2-4-1, $85,749. O/T-Carlos E Paez. B-Mr & Mrs Henry R Waits (KY).

Taking advantage of a better-timed ride in this one, the dark bay filly saved ground while racing off the pace, angled out for the drive and ran down entymate Valid Pulpit (Pulpit) in the final strides to prevail by a head at odds of 3-1. The bay debuted Sept. 1 at Saratoga, running seventh to Champagne hopeful Erinsoutherman. With that effort under his belt, the 2-1 favorite swerved in at the start, but quickly recovered to contest the pace before drawing off to a 5 3/4-length success. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $31,225. Castillo Injured In Spill:

Jockey Heberto Castillo Jr. was injured during a nasty spill in yesterday's ninth race at Belmont Park. The jockey and his mount, A Moment In Dixie, were on the lead passing the midstretch marker when the horse suddenly veered left, crashing through the rail. Castillo was then subsequently brushed by another horse after he rolled back onto the course. He was taken to North Shore University Hospital to be treated for a laceration to his forehead. A Moment In Dixie, who ran off after the incident, suffered extensive trauma to the left side of her neck and was later euthanized.

Pari-Mutuel Wagering, Purses Up in 2002:

The National Thoroughbred Racing Association and Equibase have released a new Thoroughbred industry barometer they have named "Thoroughbred Racing Economic Indicators." The figures compare wagering figures, purse distribution and total number of race days to previous-year numbers. Through the opening nine months of 2002, wagering was ahead by 4.17 percent and purses were up by 1.11 percent while the number of race days were substantially the same. "This new report will help us monitor our industry's bellweather statistics and augments our research in the areas of fan interest, television ratings and consumer attitudes towards racing," commented Keith Chamblin, NTRA senior vice president.

Also ran: Sunny Glenn (GB).

Storming Home turned this weak contest into a procession to return to the winner's enclosure for the first time since taking the G2 King Edward VII S. at Royal Ascot last year. A disappointing last of seven behind Golan (Ire) in the G2 Prix Niel at Longchamp in September, he returned to finish third behind Marienbard (Ire) under a three-pound penalty in the G2 Jockey Club S. at Newmarket May 3. The runner-up in the G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom June 7 and the G2 Hardwicke S. at Royal Ascot June 22, he put in a sixth-placed effort in the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot July 27 two starts back and was dropped in class for the Listed Troy S. at Doncaster Sept. 13. He found the task of conceding nine pounds to Systematic (GB) there too much, however, and finished third. Here he was taken to the front in the early stages by regular jockey Michael Hills and needed no more than hand riding to lengthen clear of his struggling rivals for an effortless success. "It's nice to win an easy confidence-builder for him," his jockey said. "He hasn't had an easy race for a long time. I was riding the best horse in the race. He was enjoying it with the new sheepskin cheek-pieces on and was bowling along really happy. I just sat and squeezed him up to make him feel good." Storming Home will now head to the U.S., joining Neil Drysdale in California.

3--Autumnal (Ire), 118, f, 4, Indian Ridge (Ire)--Please Believe Me (GB), by Try My Best (USA). £3,300.

Margins: HD, 2HF, 1HF. Odds: 7-1, 4-9, 12-1.
Also ran: Absent Friends (GB), Massarra (GB).
Scratched: Funny Valentine (Ire).

Proud Boast was delivered with a late flourish by Tony Culhane to deny the 4-9 favourite Smokin Beau and garner a first stakes success. Having been held up in rear early, she travelled strongly and was asked to quicken as Ian Mongan took Smokin Beau to the front approaching the furlong marker. She accelerated impressively from there to cut down that rival in the final strides for the score. Having won handicaps at York and Newcastle in June, she had run with credit in competitive sprints before finishing seventh behind Bishop's Court (GB) in the Listed Scarborough S. at Doncaster Sept. 12. The filly finished ninth in an Ascot handicap Sept. 29 and the temptation was to call it a year, but trainer Geraldine Rees was keen for another outing. "After her run at Ascot, we thought we had better stop for the season," Rees explained, "but I said to [owner] Mr Gittins, 'we'll take our chance at Newmarket and then give her a holiday.' Thank goodness we did. She's not very big, but seems to have thickened out and improved this year."

BBC TO AIR RACING EXPOSÉ

"The Corruption of Racing," an exposé on the sport of horse racing, will air on BBC television Sunday. The program focuses on the allegations of former Jockey Club head of security Roger Buffham and contains claims of links to organized crime and doping.

SHAKE-UP IN GUINEAS MARKETS

After the eclipse of Russian Rhythm (USA) (Kingmambo {USA}) in yesterday's G1 Cheveley Park S. at Newmarket, bookmakers William Hill reacted by lengthening the Sir Michael Stoute-trained filly to 5-1 from 5-2. Favouritism was assumed by impressive G1 Fillies' Mile winner Soviet Song (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) for the first time, with her odds slashed to 7-2 from 6-1. Tomorrow's racing at Longchamp should provide clues for next year's Classic as Intercontinental (GB) (Danehill {USA}) takes on the colts in the G1 Grand Criterium and Six Perfections (Fr) (Celtic Swing {GB}) runs in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac.

William Hill odds for the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket in May (correct as of 10-4):

7-2 Soviet Song (from 6-1), 5-1 Russian Rhythm (from 5-2), 12-1 Six Perfections (from 14-1), 20-1 Geminiani, Nayzak, 25-1 Reach for the Moon, 25-1 Intercontinental, 33-1 bar.

William Hill odds for the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket in May (correct as of 10-4):

8-1 Trade Fair, 10-1 Almushahar, 14-1 Maghanim, 14-1 Statue of Liberty, 16-1 Desert Star, 16-1 Oasis Dream, 16-1 Refuse To Bend, 16-1 Van Nistelrooy, 20-1 Muqbil, 25-1 Al Jadeed, 25-1 Governor Brown, 25-1 Hold That Tiger, 25-1 Ontario, 25-1 Tomahawk, 25-1 Western Diplomat, 33-1 bar.
