VINDICATION OUT OF DERBY

Padua Stables' juvenile champion Vindication (Seattle Slew) will be forced to miss the Kentucky Derby after suffering a suspected upper suspensory injury during a gallop at Santa Anita this week. In a press release issued yesterday, Padua General Manager Nadia Sanan said the three-year-old will be out of training for at least 60 days, adding, "We are not yet sure the extent of the injury until we ultrasound in 60 days. Unfortunately, this derails his training for the Derby. This is obviously a devastating blow to my family and Padua Stables, but we remain hopeful that we will soon know what the problem is and he will be able to resume training as soon as possible." Vindication capped his undefeated two-year-old campaign with a decisive win in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. The colt is slated to stand stud at Hill 'n' Dale Farms in Lexington at the conclusion of his racing career; Hill 'n' Dale purchased a percentage of the breeding rights to the Eclipse winner in December.

FREDDY ARRIVES IN U.S.

Freddy (Arg) (Roy), a three-time Group 1 winner in his native country, has been purchased by Gary Tanaka and will continue his career in the U.S., the Thoroughbred Times reports. The chestnut arrived at trainer Donald Burke II's barn at Hollywood Park Jan. 22, but is not expected to make his Northern Hemisphere debut until the summer. He has won five stakes, including the G1 Estrellas Juvenile at two. Beaten by Peasant (Arg) when fourth in the G1 Polla de Potrillos in September, the colt turned the tables on that rival in his two most recent races, the Nov. 16 G1 Argentine Derby and Dec. 14 G1 Carlos Pellegrini.

GOT KOKO GOES FOR THE SWEEP

Got Koko (Signal Tap), who captured the first leg of the La Canada triple in her 2002 finale and picked up a 1 1/2-length victory in the second event last time out, looks to become the third filly to sweep the series when she faces four rivals in Saturday's GII La Canada S. The Texas-bred filly was sent off a 17-1 outsider in the Dec. 28 GI La Brea S., but belied her odds to win by 3 1/4 lengths, then got it done at 3-1 in the Jan. 19 GII El Encino S. She will attempt to follow in the hoofsteps of Taisez Vous, who completed the triple in 1978, and Mitterand, the La Canada series winner in 1985. "She's a great filly and hopefully we'll get it," said her regular jockey, Alex Solis. "We always thought she was a nice filly, ever since she was a baby. She's kept improving and improving." A winner in five of her nine starts, and five-for-six on the main track, Got Koko tries nine furlongs for the first time tomorrow. "I think a mile and an eighth is really going to help her, because she has such a long stride," Solis said. "She keeps going and keeps going. She got that last quarter of a mile [in the El Encino] very strong, so the [1 1/8 miles] should really help her." Bare Necessities (Silver Deputy) blew out for the race Wednesday, going three furlongs in a bullet :35.60 at Hollywood Park. The gray filly, an eight-length winner of the GIII Indiana Breeders' Cup Oaks in October, was second by a neck in her sophomore finale, the Nov. 9 GII Churchill Downs Distaff H., and finished third in the El Encino last time out.

THUNDERELLO TO WALMAC Thunderello (Montbrook--On the Square, by In Reality) will begin his stud career this season at Walmac International in Lexington. The four-year-old won last year's Gallant Bob H. at Philadelphia Park before a gallant runner-up finish in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint. On the board in six of seven starts, he retired with three wins and earnings of $388,400. "Thunderello offers breeders a complete outcross to Northern Dancer and Mr. Prospector," remarked Walmac's John T. L. Jones, Jr. "We are very pleased to stand this crack sprinter from the family of leading young sires Awesome Again and Storm Creek." Thunderello, currently recovering from a career-ending injury suffered in the GI Frank De Francis Memorial Dash, is expected to arrive at Walmac in late February. He will stand for $7,500 live foal, due Sept. 1.

SILK CONCORDE (m, 5, Concorde's Tune--Silk Appeal, by Valid Appeal) returned from a year-long layoff to run fifth in a Saratoga allowance last August and was on the shelf again after a runner-up finish at Belmont Oct. 10. She made her five-year-old bow with a third-place effort against optional claimers Jan. 17. The 5-1 shot took the lead with a three-wide move turning for home and outfinished Forum Search (Open Forum) for a 1 3/4-length victory. Even-money favorite And Thats My Story (Silver Ghost) duelled for the early lead before tiring to seventh. Lifetime Record: MSW, 12-4-2-3, $226,092.

She ended the season with a third behind Randaroo and House Party in the GIII Valley Stream S. Off since that Nov. 24 effort, the bay filly prompted the pace, gained the lead in upper stretch and drew off to win by four lengths as the 4-5 favorite. Lifetime Record: MGSP, 8-2-3-1, $111,723.

The 7-5 favorite was bumped at the start, rallied three wide into the stretch and took the lead late en route to a 1 1/2-length score. The winner was a $125,000 KEESEP yearling. Most recently, the chestnut was seventh going 1 1/16 miles at Churchill Nov. 24. He settled off the pace after getting bumped soon after the break, but split foes to take the lead in the final furlong and scored by half-length at 2-1. Nakayama Kun (Known Fact) was second. Oaklawn Cancels Racing Thursday:

Oaklawn Park cancelled its live race card on Thursday after winter weather made the track unsafe. "We'd love to be open for live racing today," said General Manager Eric Jackson. "But we have a situation where the combination of all the moisture from two to three inches of snow, plus the prediction for sub-freezing temperatures over the next couple of nights, puts us at risk for losing a number of days of racing should we push to race today."

After lunging at the break, the dark bay mare settled at the back of the pack. She closed powerfully down the stretch and won going away by two lengths. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $16,800. O-Logan N Foreman III. B-Russell S Davis(KY). T-Henry S Cochran.

5th-TPX, $22,700, Msw, 4yo/up, f/m, 6f, 1:12 4/5, ft. ALIENATED (f, 4, Gone West--Extraterrestrial, by Storm Bird), a $275,000 KEESEP yearling, started twice in the spring, improving off a lackluster May debut to be third at Churchill Downs June 9. Sidelined after that outing, the dark bay returned here as the 6-5 chalk and did not disappoint. With the pace from the starting bell, she took over without feeling the sting of the whip and drew off under a hand ride to take it by 3 1/2 lengths. The winner is a full to Machikane Isaribi, SP-Jpn, $400,738. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-1, $18,290. O-Winstar Farm. B-Singer Craig (KY). T-W E Walden.

TATTERSALLS ENJOYS SOLID RETURNS

Tattersalls' 2003 season kicked off in Newmarket yesterday with one of the company's lower-key events, the February Sale. The highest price of 50,000gns came for Miss Meltemi (Ire) (Miswaki Tern), a five-year-old who finished third in the 2001 G1 Oaks d'Italia. She was bought by Tim Lock of Hedsor Stud in Buckinghamshire on behalf of Geoff Russell, who boards mares at the farm. "I thought she was one of the best lots here, and the next thing we must decide on is which stallion she should go to," Lock said. "We'll probably sell her foal next year." The day's second-highest priced lot, the Listed-placed three-year-old Black Belt Shopper (Ire) (Desert Prince {Ire}), was bought for 38,000gns by Jill Lamb, with Gay O'Callaghan the underbidder. "I bought her for an English breeder, and we are going to cover her and are looking for a nice nomination," said Lamb. "She may well be retired, although we might run her after she has been covered." The end results showed a good advance on a disappointing sale 12 months ago and Edmond Mahony, the Tattersalls chairman, commented, "It is always good to start any year on a positive note, and bearing in mind the prevailing global uncertainties, we would have to be pleased with today's sale. The catalogue was larger than last year and had greater strength in depth, which has attracted solid domestic demand as well as buyers from throughout Europe and further afield. As ever, the quality lots have had no shortage of admirers, but most importantly for a sale of this nature, we have seen realistic reserves rewarded by a good clearance rate. There have been more than double the number of five-figure transactions than at this sale last year, and the top price of 50,000gns was also a record for a mare at the February Sale, which bodes well for the long-term future of the fixture." (Stats, p5)

CHAMPIONSHIP GETS GREEN LIGHT Officials at Cagnes-sur-Mer, Neuss, Lingfield and Jagersro yesterday confirmed that their initiative known as the European All-Weather Championship would be inaugurated this year. The four Listed events--the Grand Prix de la Riviera Cote d'Azur at Cagnes-sur-Mer Feb. 11, Neusser Sandbahn Grand Prix at Neuss Feb. 23, Winter Derby at Lingfield Mar. 15 and Pramms Memorial at Jagersro May 8--boast combined purses of over £180,000.

Ipi Tombe, a champion filly and MG1SW in South Africa, solidified her standing as a favorite in the Mar. 29 G1 Dubai Duty Free with a dominating performance while giving weight to all of her male rivals. THINGS I'D LIKE TO SEE IN 2003

By Bill Finley...special to ESPN.com

I hope these things happen in horse racing in 2003.

That the good people at Magna, who now own Pimlico and Laurel, correct an injustice that's about to hit its 30th anniversary. There is no doubt that Secretariat's actual time in the '73 Preakness was a record 1:53 2/5, but, due to a teletimer malfunction, the official time has always been in dispute and Pimlico has gone with 1:54 2/5. The evidence is indisputable that he ran the race a second faster. Let's give this great horse his due.

That Chris Harn, the mastermind behind the Breeders' Cup Pick Six scandal, gets a harsh sentence. There's no reason to have an ounce of sympathy for this guy. He tried to steal more than $3 million from people like you and me who bet on horses. Remember, his loot wasn't coming from the tracks, but right out of the pockets of people who legitimately hit five of the six winners.

That the NTRA establishes a national fan appreciation day. Pick a big Saturday afternoon in the summer and don't charge a penny to get in to any track in the country. Have jockeys sign autographs (for free) all day long, sell food at reduced prices, give away something fabulous to one lucky fan who wins a drawing, etc. Just do something to show the fans how valued they are.

That Gulfstream is the old Gulfstream again. The poor meet there in 2002 was one of the biggest disappointments in racing in a long time, especially for those of us in the North who hunger for a quality winter product to bet on through the magic of simulcasting. Instead, we got Calder East. The addition, this year of the Palm Meadows Training Center should help as it will provide for a larger horse population. And hopefully Gulfstream management will understand that less can be more and will schedule fewer races, which will improve the quality of the racing and the quantity in the fields.

That no one removes a good horse from the Ken McPeck barn.

The guy had a fabulous year, yet separate owners saw fit to take away first Harlan's Holiday and then Belmont S. winner Sarava. Never has a trainer received more unfair treatment from his owners.

That the New York Racing Association reduces its takeout rates again. NYRA has been the fans' best friend since its courageous decision to lower takeout in 2001 and the results have been a home run for everyone involved. Handle is up at the NYRA tracks and tens of millions of additional dollars have been returned to the bettors. Since the lowering of the takeout worked so well the first time around, doesn't it make perfect sense to trim the rates even further?

That the New Jersey racing industry gets off the mat and starts to regroup after a bad 2002 that ended with a disastrous meet at the Meadowlands. Monmouth Park is one of the true jewels of the sport in American and it deserves to have great racing, great purses and a short, seasonal meet that doesn't wear the fans and the horses thin. Let's not ruin one of the last real racetracks left to us.

That racing guarantees that all retired racehorses find a home when their racing days are done. Why not establish a pension fund for every campaigner through a percentage of his earnings; the money put aside for those who don't need it, such as multimillion earners going off to stud, would be pooled to support those in need.

That With Anticipation, denied a much-deserved Eclipse Award as champion turf horse of 2002, goes on to have a fabulous 2003 at age eight. There's nothing more charismatic than one of those tough old geldings that seem to defy age, especially one who's as white as freshly fallen snow.

That Soto is a major player on the Triple Crown scene because it would be fascinating to see what the Mad Genius Michael Dickinson will do with a Kentucky Derby horse. He'll probably work him two miles on the morning of the race--and it will work.
