ROCK STEADY

Trainer Bob Baffert has Composure (Touch Gold) under consideration for the GI Kentucky Derby and the Lewis colorbearer did her part yesterday, getting by a game Elloluv (Gilded Time) to win the GI Santa Anita Oaks. The Triple Crown nominee had a troubled trip last out, but still managed to deny Elloluv by a neck in the GI Las Virgenes S. Feb. 9 and was odds-on to repeat that effort. Off a step slowly, the big bay ranged up three wide on the backstretch as Elloluv dictated the pace, drew even on the far turn and outslugged her rival down the lane. "This wasn't particularly her kind of race, having to come from off a very slow pace," explained winning rider Jerry Bailey. "But when the other filly picked it up, my horse found another gear."

ANOTHER CIDE TO THE STORY?

This afternoon's $750,000 GII Louisiana Derby will feature the nation's top two Kentucky Derby contenders in Kafwain (Cherokee Run) and Badge of Silver (Cherokee Run), but there are eight other challengers for the big pot, including Funny Cide (Distorted Humor). The chestnut ships in to Fair Grounds to determine his status as a Classics contender. "He's been training very well and we're very pleased with him," said trainer Barclay Tagg. "Everything's on go. I feel that he's a very good horse. Whether he's good enough to beat these kind of horses or not, I don't know." After trouncing New York-breds in his first two starts, Funny Cide added a victory in the Sleepy Hollow S. going a mile at Belmont Oct. 19. He didn't run again until Jan. 18, when he finished fifth in the GI Fountain of Youth S. at Gulfstream, a decent effort considering he was forced to have a wide trip after drawing the outside post. Funny Cide has been training smartly since that race and has drawn the two hole this time. Another one to watch is Peace Rules (Jules), who ships in for trainer Bobby Frankel. The chestnut has built his reputation on the turf, but he has been working brilliantly on the main track since winning the Hill Rise S. Dec. 28.

Making the final start of a successful career, Belle du Jour was the horse of the hour yesterday, taking the G1 Newmarket H. by three-parts of a length over three-year-old Bel Esprit. The winner of the G1 Golden Slipper in 2000, the five-year-old mare was coming into her racetrack finale off a second-place finish behind Lonhro (Aus) in the G2 Expressway S. at Randwick Feb. 22. Contested over Flemington's intimidating "straight six" course, Belle du Jour had only four horses behind her in the opening stages of the race, but accelerated approaching the quarter-mile marker. Bel Esprit burst through along the inside to poke a head in front, but Belle du Jour was just winding up, hit the front with 300 meters to run and edged clear. Owned by vet Gerry Rose, former prime minister Bob Hawkes and John Singleton, the winner will be sent to Ireland for a date in the breeding shed with Danehill.

You might not think that the Tampa Bay Breeders' Cup H., a race contested at 1 1/16 miles on the grass, would be a key race for this seven-furlong sprint on the main track, but Tour of the Cat was able to turn the tables on Burning Roma here, earning his first graded-stakes victory in the process. The Florida-bred defeated subsequent GSW My Cousin Matt at Calder Nov. 16, then finished second at the same track Dec. 7 before flattening out to be fifth in the Pelican H. up at Tampa Dec. 28. He returned Feb. 15 at Tampa Bay and chased Burning Roma the whole way around the oval, checking in second by five lengths. A ground-saving fourth in the early stages, Tour of the Cat came up the rail, put a head in front at the top of the stretch and maintained that margin at the wire. "This is my biggest win ever," said trainer Myra Mora. "I've been training for five years and this is the first graded stakes I've won. I claimed this horse from his first start for $25,000 because I liked his bloodlines." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Call her My Fair Lady. Lady Tak maintained her unbeaten record in style, posting her first graded-stakes victory over some accomplished performers. The chestnut aired by 11 3/4 lengths at first asking Oct. 29 and added a Churchill allowance victory a month later before trying stakes company. She won the Thelma S. over this strip by five lengths Jan. 4, then successfully handled two turns in the one-mile Tiffany Lass S. Jan. 26 and was pointed towards this showcase race. Despite the presence of MGSW Atlantic Ocean from California and the impressive GII Silverbulletday heroine Belle of Perintown in the line-up, Lady Tak was sent off at even-money. Previously a front-runner, she was content to race in fourth as Rebridled Dreams showed the way, but quickly reached contention three wide on the far turn as Atlantic Ocean hit the front. Jockey Donnie Meche shook the reins and Lady Tak responded, pulling away to win by 3 1/2 lengths under a hand ride. "She deserves all the credit," said trainer Steve Asmussen. "Donnie rode a great race and everything fit. For this filly to be that intelligent to change her style at this level of competition, she is more than one in a million." Bob Baffert, who trains Atlantic Ocean, agreed. "The winner was pretty impressive," he said. "I thought we had it at the top of the stretch, but she [Atlantic Ocean] couldn't quicken with her."

Ocean Terrace continued his rapid career progression, handling his initial try at two turns with aplomb while rising up the class ladder. The $700,000 Keeneland September yearling dead-headed with Nation Wide News--a winner at Santa Anita yesterday (see ATW, p4)--in his Dec. 26 debut, then came back to post a front-running allowance win Feb. 16 going seven-eighths. He was sent off as the third choice to Ministers Wild Cat, winner of the Golden State Mile earlier in the meeting. Hustled up by jockey Mike Smith, Ocean Terrace was forwardly placed as longshot Onebadshark (Diligence) cut out the fractions, then took closer order on the far turn. He grabbed the lead in midstretch and had enough left to withstand the favorite, with Ten Most Wanted finishing strongly up the rail.

Last year's World Series Racing champion Grandera made his first start in nearly three months a winning one, but had to work to stave off a late challenge from Grundlefoot. A Group 1 winner in England, Ireland and Singapore during his four-year-old campaign, the flashy chestnut gave an excellent account of himself when he finished third, beaten 1 1/4 lengths by Northerly (Aus) in the G1 Cox Plate in Melbourne Oct. 26. In his most recent racetrack appearance, the Irish-bred was buried behind slow fractions in the G1 Hong Kong Cup at Sha Tin Dec. 15 and rallied late, but could do no better than seventh, beaten two lengths. Settled in fifth beneath jockey Frankie Dettori, Grandera was asked to take closer order five wide approaching the entry to the long Nad al Sheba stretch. He traveled smoothly shortly after straightening for home, quickened clear and held off the late bid of the runner-up, who was nearly savaged by State Shinto (Pleasant Colony), but continued on gamely to the wire. The final time was better than a full second slower than the two previous runnings of this race, won last year by eventual Dubai World Cup hero Street Cry (Ire). "Grandera's win was very pleasing as it was his first run on sand," said Simon Crisford, Godolphin's racing manager. "We now have the option of going to the Dubai World Cup [Mar. 29], which is the likely next race for him."

Aquarelliste turned Europe's first Group race of 2003 into a lap of honour as she geared up for her first try at the dirt in the G1 Dubai World Cup. Casting aside the memory of her last outing here, when a disappointing third behind Ange Gabriel (Fr) in the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud in July, she took up the running under a confident Dominique Boeuf before halfway and quickened clear inside the final quarter. "She was in a class of her own here and although she didn't work seriously beforehand, she was fit enough for this company," said winning trainer Elie Lellouche. "She should come on a lot for that." Owner Alec Wildenstein sees the World Cup at Nad al Sheba Mar. 29 as an "interesting challenge," adding, "You always have to try for the best and it is quite exciting." Wildenstein did not rule out a return to the races after Aquarelliste is bred to Sadler's Wells following her run in Dubai.

Off the board in his two prior outings this year, the 2002 Jebel Ali Sprint hero Conroy turned his season around with a second consecutive victory in this race. The chestnut had dominated the UAE sprint scene early last year, but could do no better than ninth behind Caller One in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen and was looking for his first triumph since taking this event 12 months ago. He was coming off a fifth-place finish in the Feb. 21 Jebel Ali Sprint. Sent right to the front, he had enough left in the tank to hold off Conflict at the wire. Owner Mohammed Al Jamali was pleased by his change of fortune. "I have had the worst luck this year," he said. "I have invested a lot of money in horses, but until now have only had one winner this season. I hope my bad luck is gone." Conroy is likely to try and better his 2002 result in the Dubai Golden Shaheen Mar. 29. State City (Carson City), winner of this year's Jebel Ali Sprint, was hard ridden to the wire, but appeared to be struggling and could do no better than sixth.

Never out of the exacta in her 11 previous trips to the post, Ipi Tombe stamped herself one of the top contenders for the G1 Dubai Duty Free over course and distance Mar. 29 with yet another comprehensive success, setting a new stakes record in the process. Last year's champion three-year-old filly in South Africa, the bay won the G1 South African Fillies Guineas by 2 3/4 lengths May 4, added a 2 1/4-length score in the G2 Woodlavington S. June 1 and completed that portion of her career with a narrow success in the G1 Durban July H. against older horses July 6. Given ample time to acclimate to the Northern Hemisphere after a 75-percent interest in the filly was purchased by WinStar Farm and Team Valor, she bested Royal Tryst (Kingmambo) by 2 1/4 lengths in the Feb. 6 Al Fahidi Fort. Allowed to race in midpack through the early stages of the race, Ipi Tombe was guided to the inside for the stretch drive, galloped to the front with 300 meters to race and won easily. Trainer Mike de Kock confirmed that the winner is on target for the Duty Free and not the big race. "There was a time when we thought about the Dubai World Cup," he explained. "I think she'll act on dirt, but the partners were a little hesitant and you can't blame them. She handles the turf so well so why start experimenting now?" Ipi Tombe is expected to be transferred to the barn of trainer Elliott Walden in April.

Even though defending champ and Horse of the Year Azeri isn't in the line-up, this year's Santa Margarita features an excellent field, despite the fact that some of luster was lost when Affluent was scratched with a fever Saturday afternoon. Five-year-old Starrer is coming off her first Grade I victory and will meet up with the surging Got Koko, who swept the La Canada series. The consistent Starrer bounded clear in winning the GI Santa Maria H. Feb. 16. Texas-bred Got Koko surprised many in winning the GI La Brea S. in December, but the big bay proceeded to employ the same late move in winning the GII El Encino S. and the GII La Canada S., becoming just the third filly in history to win all three races. Sightseek has incurred narrow losses in her last two outings, running second to Affluent in the GI Santa Monica H. Jan. 25 and in the La Canada, but just might be the lone speed in this race. "They've got to run to beat her," said jockey Jose Valdivia Jr. "Anything can happen [when the gates open], but I hope she gets a clean break and they have to come and catch me."

NEW CONDITIONS FOR GOTHAM New York Racing Association officials announced yesterday that the opening of Aqueduct's main track has been delayed indefinitely due to the bad weather in recent weeks, forcing the Gill Gotham S. to be run as a two-turn race on the inner track next Sunday. The $200,000 event, usually a one-turn mile on the main track, will now be contested at a mile and 70 yards Mar. 16. Yesterday's card was cancelled due to poor track conditions, but the feature, the $75,000 Stymie H. at 1 1/8 miles, has been rescheduled for the Gotham undercard. First post at Aqueduct will revert to 1 p.m. Wednesday, Mar. 12.

With Mark Guidry aboard for his first attempt at a route, the Florida-bred was bet down to even money. He stalked the pace from the outside, came three wide on the far turn and forged clear for a 1 3/4-length tally. Dubai Sheikh (Kayrawan) came from well out of it for second. On the road again and adding blinkers for her second start of the season, she kept the leaders in her sights until the far turn, then cruised to the front and opened up on her rivals impressively.

RISK SEEKER (GB) (c, 3, Elmaamul-Robertet {GSW & G1SP-Fr, $239,887}, by Roberto), third in a debutant contest at Longchamp in October, got loose at the start and ran down the course here, but those antics did not prevent him from making all. After enjoying a soft lead, he comfortably turned down the challenge of Bouthan (Fr) (Sadler's Wells) in the closing stages to win by a length. Lifetime Record: 2 starts, 1 win, 1 place. O-Ecurie Wildenstein; B-Dayton Investments Ltd; T-Elie Lellouche.

Kept to the inner by Dominique Boeuf throughout, the 1/2 to Smadoun (Fr) (Kaldoun {Fr}), MSW & GSP-Fr, $447,819; and Kalmoss (Fr) (Kaldoun {Fr}), MSW & GSP-Fr, $281,449, quickened impressively through gaps to lead with 300 yards remaining before holding Advaline (Fr) (Highest Honor {Fr}) by 3/4 of a length. The word was out on Inamorato when he made his lone appearance to date, a half-length maiden victory at odds of 7-2 over subsequent SW & MGSP Outta Here at Hollywood Park July 6. Godolphin Racing Manager Simon Crisford explained the reason for the colt's inactivity following his graduation. "He only raced once last year because he had a tickly shin and he was given plenty of time to develop and mature," Crisford said. "Hopefully the fruits of that patience will be seen in future months." One of Godolphin's 19 Triple Crown nominees, the dark bay colt was sent immediately to the front by jockey Frankie Dettori and sprinted clear in the stretch to easily account for the talented Victory Moon while in receipt of 14 pounds from that rival. "We were very confident that he could win tonight and he will go to the [G2] UAE Derby [Mar. 29]," Crisford confirmed. "Inamorato has been showing so much speed at home and he has plenty of potential."
