PEACE RULES IN NEW ORLEANS

War may be looming in the Middle East, but it was all about peace at the Fair Grounds yesterday afternoon.

Peace Rules (Jules), sent off a 9-1 outsider, tracked pacesetter Funny Cide (Distorted Humor) through six furlongs in 1:10.60, drove inside 6-5 choice Badge of Silver (Silver Deputy) as they raced down the lane and drew off to win the GII Louisiana Derby by 2 1/4 lengths.

Kafwain (Cherokee Run) was hard-ridden from the top of the stretch, but had to settle for second, a length in front of Funny Cide. The win was as much a surprise to trainer Bobby Frankel as it was to the crowd. "I told [owner Edmund Gann] this horse had no chance," Frankel admitted. "He wanted to come, but I told him this is a tough race and I don't think we can win it." (La. Derby cont. p2)

Also Ran: Lone Star Sky, Defrere's Vixen, Badge of Silver, Winning Fans, Prince Alphie, Gohalo, Commander's Affair.

STARRER STREAKS TO SANTA ANITA SCORE

Bidding for her third straight stakes win, Starrer (Dynaformer) was sent off the 8-5 favorite in yesterday's GI Santa Margarita H. and did not let her backers down, outfinishing front-running Sightseek (Distant View) to take it by two lengths. The dark bay ended 2002 with a victory in the Dec. 15 GII Bayakoa H. and added a tally in the Feb. 16 GI Santa Maria H. last time out. Allowed to track Sightseek from second yesterday, Starrer went after the pacesetter as they turned for home, collared her at midstretch and pulled clear, becoming racing's newest millionaire in the process. "She's getting better and better," said winning jockey Pat Valenzuela. "When she switched to her right lead, she really took off for me." Will the five-year-old take on Horse of the Year Azeri next time out in the Apr. 5 GI Apple Blossom H. at Oaklawn Park? Trainer John Shirreffs would not commit to that race. "We'll just wait a few days, or a week or so, and go from there, but we'll at least give it a thought down the road," he said. Starrer was fourth behind Azeri in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff the last time the two met. Going Turf To Dirt...

Winless in two prior tries on the main track, Peace Rules (Jules) had made his last four starts on the grass, winning the Nov. 30 GIII Generous S. at Hollywood Park and the Dec. 28 Hill Rise S. at Santa Anita. But, after a series of solid works on the main track at Hollywood Park, trainer Bobby Frankel decided the chestnut deserved another shot on the dirt in his 2003 debut. "He's trained so beautifully on the dirt, and that's why we brought him out here," Frankel said. "I really didn't think I'd win the race, to be honest with you, but I just wanted to see. We found out he could handle the dirt." Jockey Edgar Prado, aboard the colt for the first time, was thrilled with his performance. "My horse showed a lot of courage," Prado said. "When Badge of Silver came to me on the turn, he really dug in and got after it." Will Peace Rules handle more ground? "I really liked the way he galloped out," the jockey said. "He wasn't blowing really hard and that's a good indication he could go further." The final time of the race, 1:42.67, was the fastest time for a mile and a sixteenth at the meet and just .07 off the stakes record set by Crypto Star in 1997. Runner-up Kafwain (Cherokee Run) never threatened the winner, but trainer Bob Baffert was satisfied with the effort. "I wanted him to be a lot closer because speed was playing well today," he said. "I thought he fell a little far behind--I would have loved to see him closer early on. He ran second on heart and guts." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree for Peace Rules.

The Favorite Falters...

Previously undefeated Badge of Silver (Silver Deputy), coming off a 10-length romp in the Feb. 16 GIII Risen Star S., prompted the early pace and was under wraps as he took a short lead at the head of the lane, but the dark bay quickly lost steam in the stretch and faded to finish sixth. "I really thought I put [Peace Rules] away when we came up on the outside," jockey Robby Albarado said. "But I wouldn't give up on this horse yet. We just have to go back to the drawing board and figure out what happened. I am still very high on this horse."

Margins: HF, 1, 2. Odds: 9.20, 1.10, 4.90.

Also Ran: Sardaukar (GB), French Charmer, First Lieutenant, Rakoon. Scratched: Saint Verre, Regency Park.

It had been more than a year since Polical Attack last visited the winner's circle, but the bay put it all together to hold off even-money Miesque's Approval at Gulfstream yesterday afternoon. The colt's most recent victory was a wire-to-wire effort in the GIII Tropical Park Derby at Calder on Jan. 1, 2002, but he had managed to hit the board in four of his next eight starts. Fourth in the Dec. 21 Pete Axthelm S. at Calder to end his 2002 season, he was coming off a third-place finish in an optional-claiming event at Gulfstream Jan. 24. The four-year-old sat a stalking second to the far turn, took command as they straightened for home and turned back the late bid of the runner-up to post the upset. "He was a little unprepared at the start and kind of jumped in the air a little bit, but then he got himself together and settled in just fine," winning jockey Mark Guidry said. "He relaxed real nice for me and when I asked him, he gave me everything he had. They came to me in the lane, but whenever I asked him for a little bit more, he responded." The win was the first of the meet for trainer Michael Matz, who was 0-for-26 coming into the race. "We really needed that one," Matz said. "Hopefully this will get us going." He added, "We've just been trying to get this colt to relax. Last time, he wore full blinkers and Mark suggested we open them up. We did and today he saw [Miesque's Approval] coming and didn't want to give up the lead." Click here for the brisnet.com chart.

DERBY DREAMS FOR SPIELBERG?

A partnership including silver-screen titan Steven Spielberg and Gary Ross, director of the movie Seabiscuit, has purchased an interest in Classic contender Atswhatimtalknabout (A. P. Indy) from owner B. Wayne Hughes, according to trainer Ron Ellis. The partnership, formed by Hall of Famer Chris McCarron, also includes Dreamworks' associates Frank Marshall and Kathy Kennedy. The colt was on the worktab at Santa Anita Sunday, breezing six furlongs in 1:13 with McCarron in the irons. He is pointing for the GII San Felipe S. Mar. 16. "I can't believe McCarron's still got a clock in his head, but he hit it right on the number," Ellis said. "This horse is fit enough, it's just a matter of keeping him in shape, so it was a perfect work." Added McCarron, "The acceleration this colt has is amazing. He's right where he needs to be this time of year and I anticipate big things for him." The $900,000 FTFEB purchase has won two of three lifetime starts, including a three-quarter length allowance score at Santa Anita Feb. 20.

OCEAN TERRACE TO SANTA ANITA DERBY

Ocean Terrace (Saint Ballado), who ran his record to three-for-three with his win in Saturday's GII El Camino Real Derby, will likely make his next start in the GI Santa Anita Derby Apr. 5. "We'll sit down and talk with [trainer Bob Hess Jr.] about our next race, but we're leaning toward the Santa Anita Derby," co-owner David Shimmon said. Shimmon was more than pleased with the performance of his $700,000 KESEP purchase at Golden Gate Fields. "This race was incredibly important to us and he ran bigger than I could have thought," he said. "Knowing the history of the race, with its connection to the Triple Crown races, it fits perfectly into our dreams of going to the Kentucky Derby." The colt will need a new rider for the Santa Anita Derby, as Mike Smith, in the saddle at Golden Gate, is committed to riding reigning Horse of the Year Azeri in the GI Apple Blossom H. at Oaklawn Park Apr. 5.

WILD CAT LOOKING FOR A REMATCH

Ocean Terrace will meet El Camino Real runner-up Ministers Wild Cat (Deputy Minister) again at Santa Anita. The royally bred three-year-old, out of champion Hollywood Wildcat (Kris S.), is also pointing for the $1 million Santa Anita Derby. "He's still a little green and tried to lug in a couple of times in the lane, but I think he learned more from this race," trainer Neil Drysdale said of the colt, who was beaten a length and a half as the 13-10 favorite. "He had a tough go with the outside post and was forced to go five wide on the first turn. [Jockey Kent Desormeaux] was able to give him a breather on the second turn and he finished really well, but the winner had too much left. We'll look for a rematch in the Santa Anita Derby." Desormeaux added, "In the last race [a win in the Golden State Mile at Golden Gate Feb. 9], he was keen early and I had to tell him what to do. Today I only had to ask him. I was able to ride him with my fingertips. I thought it was a tremendous effort."

TWO MORE FORCED OFF TRIPLE CROWN TRAIL

Crackup (Distorted Humor), sixth in Saturday's GII El Camino Real Derby; and Southern Image (Halo's Image), third in the Feb. 1 GII San Vicente S. last time out, are out of consideration for the Triple Crown. Crackup bled "pretty badly" in his race, according to trainer Rafael Becerra, and is likely to get some time off. "I'm pretty sure he's going to the farm," Becerra said. "It's the second time [he's bled in a race], and yesterday was worse [than the first time], so he deserves a little break." Southern Image, who had been under consideration for the Mar. 15 GIII Swale S. at Gulfstream Park, is also going to get a vacation. "He came up a little sore behind the other day, so we're going to back off on him for 30 days," trainer Mike Machowsky said. "It's nothing major, but I want to get him right. It's a long, long year and I want a good horse for later this year and for next year. But he's off the Triple Crown trail."

COMPOSURE CAMPAIGN UP IN THE AIR

Will she or won't she? Trainer Bob Baffert still isn't prepared to answer the question of whether or not GI Santa Anita Oaks winner Composure (Touch Gold) will head to the Kentucky Derby, or where she will make her next start. Coming off Saturday's win, the filly could be headed in several different directions, Baffert said prior to saddling Kafwain to a second-place finish in the GII Louisiana Derby. "I have no idea what I'm going to do with her," Baffert said. "I won't make that call until we get close. It will depend how things look. I will leave that option wide open just in case. I know one thing, she can go a mile and a quarter. But it will depend on what happens with the colts and the three-year-old picture. We'll know more in three weeks."

DARLEY UNVEIL SHUTTLE TEAM Darley yesterday named nine stallions who will shuttle to their Hunter Valley base in Australia to join resident sire Carnegie (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) in 2003. Heading the team is Elusive Quality (Gone West), sired of eight stakes winners from his first crop, highlighted by G1 Prix Morny winner Elusive City. Also on the roster are new bloods Street Cry (Ire) (Machiavellian), Noverre (Rahy), Tobougg (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}) and E Dubai (Mr. Prospector), as well as King's Best (Kingmambo), Fantastic Light (Rahy), Xaar (GB) (Zafonic) and Lujain (Seeking the Gold). "We've selected an exceptional roster of horses to join Carnegie at Darley this season," Oliver Tait, who manages Darley, commented. "We have several who are noted for their excellence at two, others who have set records, and numerous champions. All are extremely well bred." He added, "We are particularly pleased to be able to introduce to Australia a proven stallion as exciting and as brilliant as Elusive Quality. He's already produced two stakes winners to Danzig-line mares, which bodes well for a big future here in Australia."

WAR WON'T AFFECT WORLD CUP MEET Dubai World Cup Chairman Les Benton yesterday moved to deny claims that the threat of war in the Middle East would mean the postponement of the $16.25 million Dubai World Cup meet at Nad al Sheba Mar. 29. There was a report in a British newspaper Saturday that indicated the meeting was in the process of being abandoned as U.S. and British military action against Iraq loomed large, but Benton told Gulf News, "The Dubai World Cup race meeting will go ahead as scheduled and we continue to have a huge interest from horses from all over the world. A lot of the horses have arrived and others are on schedule to come over in the next week or so."

AFFLUENT SIDELINED BY FEVER Affluent (Affirmed) was scratched from yesterday's GI Santa Margarita Invitational H. due to a fever. "Two days ago she didn't eat up and it turned out she had a 102 fever," trainer Ron McAnally said. "[Saturday] her blood count was up and we gave her antibiotics. She's fine today, but her condition is day-to-day." McAnally said he hoped to have the five-year-old mare ready for the GI Apple Blossom H. at Oaklawn Park Apr. 5. "We're trying to get Jerry Bailey," he added.

JULIE KRONE INJURED Hall of Fame jockey Julie Krone fractured two small bones in her back during a spill at Santa Anita Saturday. Krone was aboard Sublet, who fell right after the start of the fifth race. She injured two small bones of the transverse process at the lumbar vertebrae on the left side and will be fitted with a brace to facilitate the healing process. While a complete recovery is expected, it has not yet been determined how long the 39-year-old horsewoman will be sidelined.

PINCAY RESTING COMFORTABLY Jockey Laffit Pincay Jr., released from the hospital Friday, is "resting comfortably" at home, according to his son, Laffit Pincay III. The winningest rider of all time, Pincay, 56, is recovering from two fractured cervical vertebrae suffered in a spill Mar. 1. "The doctors have advised bed rest at this time and it will be a while before he begins any sort of exercise program," the younger Pincay said. He added, "The doctors are in disbelief at his physical shape and it should make his recovery that much easier."

CORRECTION: The Al Bastikiya, held Saturday at Nad al Sheba, offered a total purse of $200,000, not Dh200,000, as reported in yesterday's TDN. The earnings of the winner, undefeated Inamorato (Tale of the Cat), now stand at $145,800.

Showing a heretofore unseen will to win, the 3-1 second choice pressed favored Hidden Ransom (Silver Ghost) through blazing fractions of :21 1/5 and :43 4/5. Owner of Rockingham Park Passes Away:

Jospeh E. Carney, Jr., the president and owner of New Hampshire's Rockingham Park, died Sunday at Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston after a long illness. He was 70. Carney, a prominent owner and breeder in New England, and his partners purchased Rockingham in 1983, three years after a fire closed the track. The partnership rebuilt the clubhouse and made improvements to the facility, reopening during the summer of 1984. Carney is survived by his wife, Jill, three daughters, two sons and five grandchildren. Funeral arrangements have not been finalized.

The five-year-old Saskya, whose honest but unspectacular past-performance line meant she'd go to post as a 19-1 outsider, displayed gritty determination to earn her first stakes win. The bay ran through her allowance conditions in 2002, but failed to make an impact in two stakes attempts, including a dull sixth in the GII Gallant Bloom H. in early October. She stumbled and lost her rider in an open allowance test two starts back and ran an even fourth over trip and track in the Correction H. Feb. 1. Smartly ridden by jockey Mike Luzzi here, Saskya was hustled up behind the pacesetter Vesta along the inside, came calling in mid-stretch and was up in time to eclipse that foe in the final sixteenth. "She wasn't crazy about being down inside, but once she got clear she leveled off nice," said Luzzi. Winning trainer Tom Bush indicated the seven-furlong GII Distaff Breeders' Cup H. Mar. 29 could be next for his charge. That could possibly be her last start before she is retired and bred to Cozzene.

A leading freshman sire last year, Tale of the Cat really has started to heat up of late--his promising In-amorato won impressively in Dubai Saturday--and his offspring's talent was again on show later in the day as Catalissa ran away with this one. A neck winner at Arlington in his mid-September bow, Catalissa won the Groovy S. for state-breds at Sam Houston Nov. 16, but lacked the needed punch when seventh to Crackup in the Great State Challenge Juvenile S. Dec. 7. Stretched to two turns in his next, he finished sixth by four lengths to Sainly Look in the GIII LeComte S. at Fair Grounds Jan. 25. The dark bay was hammered down to favoritism status adding blinkers here and proved he deserved the respect, rating just off the pacesetters up the backstretch before blowing past the leaders leaving the turn and cruising home an easy winner.

AUDEMARS PIGUET QE II CUP

Bare Necessities, winner of the GIII Indiana Breeders' Cup Oaks last October, had been keeping impressive company in two starts this year and took advantage against mere mortals here to get the easy win. Third to the impressive Got Koko in the GII El Encino S. at Santa Anita Jan. 19, she ran fourth to that rival in the nine-furlong GII La Canada S. Feb. 8. The grey scaled back a panel for this one and took the lion's share of the public's money as the prohibitive favorite. Unhurried early, she began advancing from fifth after four furlongs, made the lead turning for home and romped under the wire an open-lengths victress. "She was nervous in the paddock, and that made me nervous," said winning conditioner Wally Dollase. "But she was able to relax out of the gate and then ran her eyeballs out. She seems to be getting better with every start. Her next race may be at Keeneland. She's a good shipper, and we should find many good spots for her."

Vienna Rules Out Trip to Dubai:

Trainer Darrell Vienna, who saddled Echo Eddie (Restless Con) to a second-place finish in last year's G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen, will not be sending any horses to the race this year due to the threat of war in the Middle East. Vienna, who was also considering Nuclear Debate (Geiger Counter) and Disturbingthepeace (Bold Badgett) for the Golden Shaheen, has made alternate plans. "One of them will go to Japan [for the Japan Cup Sprint Mar. 30]," Vienna said.

Sligo Bay Out Indefinitely:

G1SW Sligo Bay (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), who was scratched from the Mar. 1 GI Santa Anita H., will be sidelined indefinitely, trainer Beau Greely said yesterday. "He had a bruise on the bar of his right front foot," Greely said. "He's got some heat in it...so we're going to try to suck that out. It's not major, but it's going to be a little time consuming. I don't know how much time he'll miss. He walks sound as could be right now and, if you want, you could train him, but then it would come right back, so we're just going to get everything cleared up."
