A WILD CARD FOR THE DERBY?

Eight three-year-olds are each hoping to earn a last-minute trip to the May 3 GI Kentucky Derby with a big performance in today's GII Coolmore Lexington S. at Keeneland. Ministers Wild Cat

Ministers Wild Cat
Horsephotos

(Deputy Minister) certainly looks to have Classic credentials. The bay, out of champion Hollywood Wildcat (Kris S.), has been first or second in all four career starts, winning the Feb. 9 Golden Gate Mile and running second to Ocean Terrace (Saint Ballado) in the Mar. 8 GIII El Camino Real Derby. But while Ocean Terrace was eased after cutting out the early fractions in the Apr. 5 GI Santa Anita Derby, Ministers Wild Cat had to be scratched after bruising a hind foot the day before the race. "This is a talented colt," trainer Neil Drysdale told Daily Racing Form. "He wasn't as focused as he should have been in his first few races, so we're going to try blinkers in the Lexington. He has been coming on strong in recent weeks and a good effort in the Lexington may be all he needs." Ocean Terrace gets another chance after reportedly bleeding in the Santa Anita Derby, while GI Fountain Of Youth hero Trust N Luck (Montbrook) looks to get back on the Triple Crown trail after running a distant second to Empire Maker in the Mar. 15 GI Florida Derby last time out.

CYBER SECRET SPRINGS COMELY SURPRISE

It wasn't such a good Friday for champion Storm Flag Flying (Storm Cat) as she checked in a soundly defeated second to Cyber Secret (Cyberspace) in yesterday's GIII Comely S. at Aqueduct. Winner of the Busanda S. in her two-turn bow Jan. 26, Cyber Secret was fourth in the Mar. 1 Busher S., but got back on the beam with a 4 1/2-length score in the GIII Cicada S. Mar. 22. The Florida-bred filly sped to the front and set fast early fractions of :23 1/5 and :45 1/5 as Storm Flag Flying chased from close range. The latter came under a heavy ride at the three-eighths pole, but had no answer for the winner, who kicked away to lead by seven with a furlong to run and remained well clear. "Our filly ran a huge race today and things went our way," said winning trainer Richard Dutrow Jr. "I think a mile might be her limit; we don't really want to experiment any farther than that. Maybe we'll look at the [June 7 GI] Acorn S. I would like to keep an eye on the [GI] Test S. [at Saratoga July 26]." Megahertz was first in her first four American starts, then missed by a half length, but was awarded the win by the stewards after getting hit by a rival's whip in the 10-furlong American Oaks last July at Hollywood Park. The chestnut was then second by a nose in the GI Del Mar Oaks, but ended the season with a disappointing sixth-place finish in the Oct. 12 GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup at Keeneland. The four-year-old has started twice this term, running a close-up second in the Jan. 11 GII San Gorgonio H. and finishing third, beaten less than a length after getting checked at the three-eighths pole, in the Mar. 22 GII Santa Ana H. She looks ready to get back to the winner's circle. Garden in the Rain has tried 10 furlongs once before, winning an optional claimer at Santa Anita last October by seven lengths. First or second in all four starts this year, she was flying at the finish of the nine-furlong Santa Ana, but had to settle for second, a half length behind Noches de Rosa. The extra eighth of a mile could make the difference here. Noches de Rosa, going for her third stakes win in a row, was handed an easy lead last time out, but will have the company of Trekking on the front end this time. Megahertz' stablemate comes off a front-running Santa Anita allowance win Mar. 1. Notting Hill makes her U.S. bow. The bay beat fellow distaffers in two group races before ending her Brazilian campaign with a second-place finish against colts in the Oct. 13 G1 GP Linneo de Paula Machado.

Indian Express Works

Indian Express (Indian Charlie), who came within a head of defeating Buddy Gil (Eastern Echo) in the GI Santa Anita Derby Apr. 5, turned in his first work since arriving at Churchill Downs, going an easy five furlongs beneath exercise rider Dana Barnes in 1:01 2/5 over a track listed as "good" despite persistent rains Thursday. "Dana said he was looking around a bit," trainer Bob Baffert commented. "He's the kind of horse that actually won't impress in the morning--but he's a totally different horse in the afternoon. He really surprised us in his last two outs." Bred in Utah, the colt was undefeated in two starts in Panama before being purchased by Baffert, who sold him to Phil Chess. "Laffit Pincay is the one who put the heavy press on me to buy him," the white-haired conditioner explained. "It's too bad Laffit got hurt because it would be his mount in the Derby and it would be fun."

As Many As Four for Baffert?

Depending on the results of today's GI Coolmore Lexington S. at Keeneland and how his horses train over the track, Baffert could have as many as four starters in the Derby. In addition to Indian Express, Domestic Dispute (Unbridled's Song) will try to earn his way into the race with a strong performance in the Lexington. "Domestic Dispute would have to win it and then come back here and look well," Baffert said. "He likes this track and looks great here." Kafwain (Cherokee Run) galloped 1 3/8 miles yesterday and has recovered from a brief illness following his third-place finish in the Santa Anita Derby. "He looks great now," Baffert commented. "He looked great out there today, so we're just going to let him get his feet under him a little bit. I don't want to knock him out right away, so he'll probably work twice before the race." The last of the Baffert brigade is Senor Swinger (El Prado {Ire}), fifth to Empire Maker in the GI Wood Memorial last weekend, whose Derby status will depend on how he trains at Churchill.

Albarado Tabbed to Ride Offlee Wild

Trainer T. V. Smith has named jockey Robby Albarado to ride Azalea Stables and Lansdon Robbins III's Offlee Wild (Wild Again) in the Run for the Roses. Pat Day guided the colt to a third-place finish in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. last Saturday, but he has committed to riding GI Illinois Derby winner Ten Most Wanted (Deputy Commander).

There's Always The Next Time...

Storm Flag Flying had not been out since her stirring victory in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies last October, and trainer Shug McGaughey brought the Phipps homebred along slowly over the winter. The Lexingtonian was not totally dismayed by the result. "We've got something to work with now," he said. "This was the race I was really nervous about because it had been a while since she had run and she was catching a filly that has been running good over this track. We just weren't good enough today, but she will be later on. I'm not entirely shocked." Added jockey John Velazquez, "I thought she ran well. I just was never comfortable with her. I was asking her on the turn from the three-eighths pole. She was steady, steady, steady, but she just didn't have the explosive kick. She hadn't been out in so long, but she will improve off of this." McGaughey will pass on the GI Kentucky Oaks in favor of local spots. "We'll see how she comes out of this," he said. "We've got a little time, if we point to the Acorn. The [GII] Nassau County [Breeders' Cup] is coming up, too [Belmont, May 10]. We might have to change our directions a little bit."

Show Me The Money...

There was a whopping $1,370,849 wagered to show on the Comely, of that $1,306,144 on the favorite, accounting for a minus show pool of over $236,000. There was also a minus place pool of just over $2,600.

☆ CLASSIC CORNER ☆

Trade Fair Out of Guineas

Trade Fair (GB) (Zafonic) was described as "very unlikely" to run in the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket May 3 by his conditioner yesterday. Roger Charlton bypassed Thursday's G3 Craven S. at the track, opting to take the colt straight to the Classic. However, in a statement to PA Sport yesterday, the Lambourn trainer revealed that all was not well with last year's G1 Dewhurst S. third. "Trade Fair worked disappointingly this morning, but on return to the yard he was found to have suffered from a setback," it read. "Further investigation will take place before making future plans. It is now very unlikely that he will run in the 2000 Guineas." The colt was widely regarded as the second favorite in ante-post wagering behind Hold That Tiger (Storm Cat).

Intercontinental Sparkles

Intercontinental (GB) (Danehill) made a most successful return to the races yesterday, taking a conditions event at Maisons-Laffitte by 2 1/2 easy lengths as the 1-10 favorite. A full sister to GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf winner Banks Hill (GB) and Breeders' Cup Mile third Dansili (GB), the Juddmonte Farms homebred tracked the early pace from fourth, took over with just less than a quarter mile to race and was never asked a serious question en route to the victory. Making her first start since finishing a close third to Hold That Tiger in the G1 Grand Criterium last October, Intercontinental is likely to make her next appearance in the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket May 4. For additional information, see Around the World--France, p6.

KELLEY'S DAY, DAM OF BRIAN'S TIME, DIES
 Darby Dan Farm has announced the passing of Kelley's Day (Graustark--Golden Trail, by Hasty Road) as a result of health problems related to her age. She was 26 years old. Retired following her three-year-old campaign, her fourth foal was Brian's Time (Roberto), who went on to win over $1 million, including wins in the GI Florida Derby and GI Pegasus H. as a sophomore. Exported to stand stud in Japan, he remains to this date one of the world's leading sires. She also produced Platinum Empire (Nijinsky II) in 1990, who brought $1.7 million at the 1991 Keeneland July Sale, as well as of GSP and current sire Storm Day (Storm Cat); and SW & GSP Ellie's Moment (Kris S.), who is scheduled to make her next start in the Apr. 26 GIII Sixty Sails H. at Hawthorne. "Kelley's Day was a blue-hen mare for the Phillips family," said Darby Dan's John Phillips. "Our family has been blessed with her production, longevity and, most of all, quality." Her final foal is Day's Sunset (Kris S.), a maiden three-year-old filly in training with James Toner. The mare was buried on the farm next to her "best pal" Wings of Grace, who died two months ago.

Ocean Drive opened her career with three straight wins, culminating with a 4 3/4-length victory over the Keeneland turf in the Oct. 24 Green River S., but the dark bay had not started since losing her perfect record with a fourth-place finish behind Atlantic Ocean in the Nov. 29 GIII Miesque at Hollywood Park. Slightly favored in her return, the filly stepped out to the early lead, setting fractions of :22.99, :46.65, and 1:12.06 over the yielding turf course. She opened a 1 1/2-length lead in upper stretch and held sway late despite drifting out. "Her style is to lay close up, so I just wanted to hold my position and if she found herself on the lead that was fine," winning jockey Jerry Bailey said. "When Tangle came up, I asked my filly to run and she did."

 A perfect two-for-two at Pimlico, Cherokee's Boy captured the Mar. 1 Deputed Testimony S. at Laurel by 7 1/4 lengths, but broke awkwardly in the Apr. 5 GII Illinois Derby and could do no better than fifth. He looks to rebound with a return to Maryland. Gimmeawink also needs to atone for a subpar effort in his latest, a sixth-place finish in the Mar. 16 GIII Gotham S. But the dark bay has established a pattern of winning every other start since breaking his maiden in his debut at Delaware Park last October. His most recent success came in the Feb. 3 Miracle Wood S. at Laurel, where he beat Penobscot Bay by 1 1/4 lengths.

LILAH (m, 6, Defrere--Dixie Rouge {MSP}, by Dixieland Band) had carried 10-pound apprentice Shannon Uske to her first career win in a $16,000 claimer at Calder Jan. 2. The teenager has ridden Lilah since then, finishing second in a pair of Gulfstream allowances, third once and most recently running fourth in a Mar. 7 test at the Hallandale oval. Favored at 7-5, the pair came after pacesetter Boundandddetermined (Boundary) in the stretch and prevailed by 3/4 of a length. Lilah was $58,000 KEENOV weanling and a $130,000 KEESEP yearling. MUKHTASER (c, 3, Kris S.--Aurora {SW & GSP, $285,236}, by Danzig), a $1,200,000 KEESEP yearling, was the even-money chalk in his Mar. 22 career opener at Gulfstream Park. He got off slowly in that six-furlong test, but finished well to be third. Adding Lasix and stretching out to a mile, the 5-2 second choice raced in fifth down the backstretch and advanced along the rail on the turn. The Shadwell colorbearer shifted to the outside for the drive, collared 7-5 Savoy Special (Grand Slam) in midstretch and drove clear to defeat the pacesetter by 3 1/2 lengths, with another 8 1/2 lengths back to the third. The winner is a full to Arch, GISW, $480,990; and Alisios, MSW, $265,432; as well as a half to Festival of Light (A.P. Indy), Horse of the Year-UAE, GSW-UAE, $632,291. Ladies Din To Race Without Prep:

Trainer Frank Monteleone hoped to run Ladies Din (Din's Dancer) in a Thursday allowance race at Santa Anita, but the event failed to draw sufficient entries, meaning the eight-year-old will go in the Apr. 26 GII San Francisco Breeders' Cup Mile without the benefit of a prep race. The winner of the 2000 renewal of that event, the gelding, who worked five furlongs yesterday at Santa Anita in :59 1/5, is unraced since winning the GI Shoemaker Breeders' Cup Mile last May.

BALLYDOYLE WIN INCINERATOR WAR

Aidan O'Brien's battle to stop the building of a meat and bonemeal incinerator close to his Ballydoyle base has been won, it was revealed yesterday. Backed by Coolmore and the local community, the protest against Ronan Industries' plans is believed to have resulted in an agreement which involves O'Brien withdrawing his action in the Irish courts. While Ronan Industries declared it was shelving its proposal because of "serious divisions locally," O'Brien responded by praising the move which he said "should restore harmony in the community." He continued, "We are sorry if the family personally felt targeted during a campaign which was intense and at times heated."
