NEW YORK STATE OF MIND

Funny Cide (Distorted Humor) had come up short to both Empire Maker (Unbridled) and Peace Rules (Jules) in his last two starts, but the chestnut struck a blow for his native state yesterday afternoon at Churchill

Downs, becoming the first New York-bred in history to win the GI Kentucky Derby. "Get with the program," jockey Jose Santos said on his way to the winner's circle. "This is a New York horse." This was second major recent upset for Santos, who had piloted Volponi to victory in the GI Breeders' Cup

Classic Oct. 26, but it was a new feeling for the owners of Sackatoga Stables. "We're the little guys," said co-owner Jackson Knowlton. "We've got a three-horse stable, all New York-breds. Barclay [Tagg] has just done a spectacular job training this horse."

From the Gangs of New York

Funny Cide began his career with three sharp scores against state-bred competition, winning the Bertram F. Bongard S. by nine lengths while earning a Beyer of 103. He was given a break following his victory in the Sleepy Hollow S. Oct. 19, then resurfaced at Gulfstream in the GIII Holy Bull S. Jan. 18. Forced into a wide trip after drawing the outside post, he did a good job to be fifth to Offlee Wild (Wild Again). Tagg decided that his charge deserved another chance on the Triple Crown trail and elected the GII Louisiana Derby Mar. 9 as his next stop. Funny Cide set the pace and began to tire, but came on again along the inside to be third to Peace Rules. After that, Tagg took him home to New York to face Empire Maker in the GI Wood Memorial Apr. 12. The chestnut was dead-game on the rail, but couldn't quite get by the green Frankel runner to his outside. That was the effort which convinced Tagg to take Funny Cide to Louisville. "If he hadn't run as well as he did, it would have taken the pressure off of going to the Kentucky Derby," Tagg said immediately after the Wood. "Now we have to go. At a mile and a quarter, he just might beat that other horse." Those words proved prophetic on the First Saturday in May.

The Perfect Trip

Hours are spent every year trying to predict which horse will get a good, clean trip in a big Derby field, but few would have predicted that Funny Cide would be the one this year. Breaking cleanly from post six, the chestnut was able to cruise up into third as most of his rivals to his outside began to play bumper cars. Brancusi (Deputy Commander) showed the way early, but began to back out of it heading into the far turn, leaving Peace Rules in front. Funny Cide began to move forward and drew even approaching the stretch as Empire Maker came up on the outside. The favorite looked like he might get by, but the New York-bred showed his grit, battling back and drawing off in the final sixteenth. Derby cont. p2

Laughter is the Best Medicine

"I have been living a dream here for three weeks," said Jackson Knowlton, who started Sacketoga Stables with five high school friends. "For me, it's just so rewarding that everybody who dreams of owning a horse or owns [a few] horses can look at what we have accomplished. But it's like winning the lottery: it is a dollar and a dream." Knowlton kept his fingers crossed as Funny Cide trained up to the Derby in New York. "I have seen so many horses get so close, then something happens along the way," he said. "Fortunately, Barclay and Robin [assistant trainer Smullen] just did a fabulous job getting him here, and obviously ready to run." Purchased as a yearling for $22,000 at Fasig-Tipton's Preferred Sale in Saratoga, Funny Cide caught Tagg's eye several times in Florida, leading the conditioner to purchase him privately for $75,000 last spring. "We liked him every time, and we didn't think the price was outlandish," said Tagg. "The price went up every time we saw him. One testicle hadn't descended, so they decided to castrate the horse. Which is probably the best thing in those cases."

Funny Cide is the first gelding since Clyde Van Dusen in 1929 to wear the blanket of roses. He will ship back to New York this morning and will likely head to Baltimore. "I guess we have got to go down," Tagg added. "I don't know how I will train him for it. We'll see how he is day by day."

Blinkers On Bring Late Rush

Wearing blinkers for the first time, Atswhatimtalknbout (A.P. Indy) endured traffic problems early, but put in a strong run in the final furlong to be fourth, beaten a pair of heads for second at odds of 8-1. "He ran a good race," said trainer Ron Ellis. "He got stuck down on the inside longer than we wanted and when we got clear, it was too late. He gave us a thrill for a little while, anyway." As for the Preakness, Ellis said, "We'll see how he comes out of the race. I think he ran good enough to take a look at it."

Topped Empire

Poor Bobby Frankel. The Hall of Fame trainer had won three graded stakes on the Derby undercard and ran second in another Grade I, but wound up running second and third in the big one. Frankel had stated that Empire Maker had fully recovered from the foot bruise which he'd sustained earlier in the week, but the handsome colt didn't finish up as well as could be expected after looming boldly at the top of the stretch. "We got parked a little wide on the far turn," said jockey Jerry Bailey, "but I thought he was good enough to overcome that. He didn't respond the way he did in his last two races." When asked about the colt's foot, Bailey responded, "He switched leads fine, and didn't favor anything." A disappointed Frankel said, "I still think he is a better horse than that other horse [Funny Cide]. But that doesn't change what happened." Frankel's immediate reaction was to take Empire Maker out of consideration for the GI Preakness S. in two weeks. "I don't know what I'll do with him next," he said. "I think I'll run Peace Rules in the Preakness."

Lonesome Buddy

Jockey Gary Stevens said that Buddy Gil (Eastern Echo) "didn't break very well and all I could do was save ground. I really only got him to run an eighth of a mile. My trip was over after the second stride out of the gate, so we'll wait for the Preakness."

A Top Ten Disappointment

Illinois Derby hero Ten Most Wanted (Deputy Commander), sent off as the 6-1 third choice, looked like he might do some running on the far turn, but flattened out to be ninth. "I can't believe it," said trainer Wally Dollase. "I just don't know why he didn't run his race." Jockey Pat Day said the colt came up empty. "I got pinched back a little bit at the break, but moving down the backside I was about two lengths off Empire Maker and I thought I was all right," he said. "When I asked him, there was no response. He didn't drop down and accelerate like I thought he would."

☆ 2000 GUINEAS ☆

STRAIGHT AS AN ARROW

Dermot Weld proclaimed Moyglare Stud's unbeaten Refuse to Bend (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) a "very well-named horse" after his battling 3/4 of a length score over Zafeen (Fr) (Zafonic) as the 9-2 second favourite in yesterday's G1 Sagitta 2000 Guineas at Newmarket. Despite receiving no cover wide as the early action took place on the stands' side, he swooped from mid-division under Pat Smullen to hit the front with 200 yards remaining before gamely turning down the challenge of the closers Zafeen and 100-1 outsider Norse Dancer (Ire) (Halling). "That was absolutely brilliant," Smullen explained. "We've always held this horse in high regard and it was a hard call whether to keep the Derby route or come here, but he worked so well on Tuesday we had to come. He showed so much pace and he's a very exciting colt, but there's no doubt the horse needs a little juice in the ground and, thankfully, we got it." Refuse to Bend earned an official rating of 115 pounds in the 2002 International Classifications by virtue of his defeat of Van Nistelrooy in the G1 National S. at The Curragh in September. Trainer Dermot Weld had been undecided whether to chance the Moyglare homebred colt in this mile Classic, considering him more of a Derby prospect after his half-length score in the Listed Leopardstown 2000 Guineas Trial Apr. 13. However, the signs earlier in the week all pointed to Newmarket according to the conditioner. "I was pleased with his work Tuesday morning and the ground had come perfect for him," Weld explained. "His blood was right, he scoped good and worked super, so that was the final decision. This is a special day, to get the opportunity of a good horse like this, as although my team is large by some standards, it is small compared to Godolphin and Ballydoyle. He got a great ride from Pat Smullen and did it like a professional racehorse." Now the Rosewell House star can keep his original date in the G1 Epsom Derby June 7, for which he is quoted the 5-2 favourite by William Hill. "I will speak to [Moyglare Stud owner] Walter Haefner and [manager] Stan Cosgrove, but I would have to say the Epsom Derby is a very distinct possibility," Weld added.

Family Calling

Refuse to Bend is the latest star performer from the Moyglare family founded by Grenzen (Grenfall), an $11,000 Keeneland September yearling purchase in 1976 who developed into a multiple graded-stakes winner of $346,490 while racing in California. The chestnut mare's first foal was Irish Edition (Alleged), who produced Belmont hero Go and Go (Ire) (Be My Guest) for Moyglare. Grenzen later foaled Twilight Agenda (Devil's Bag), a Grade I winner of over $2.1 million. Market Slide, her 1991 filly by Gulch, ran third in the GIII First Lady H. at Gulfstream before heading to the breeding shed. Her first foal was Media Puzzle (Theatrical {Ire}), conqueror of the 2002 Melbourne Cup.

Held Up

Hold That Tiger (Storm Cat), sent off the 4-1 favourite, missed the break with Lateen Sails (GB) (Elmaamul) and both failed to get competitive, fading inside the final quarter and finishing 17th and 20th, respectively.

ALLEZ FRANCE!

Six Perfections (Fr) (Celtic Swing {GB}) has a date with destiny at Newmarket this afternoon as she bids to justify favouritism in the G1 Sagitta 1000 Guineas. At least history is on her side, as her dam is a half sister to the brilliant Miesque, who avenged the disqualification of her sire Nureyev in the 2000 Guineas by winning this event in 1987. Six

Six Perfections

Perfections herself has genetic scores to settle as her sire Celtic Swing (GB) was knocked off his pedestal in the colts' Classic here in 1995. Like that former champion, the Niarchos homebred filly was brilliant as a juvenile, winning the Listed Prix Roland de Chambure and G3 Prix du Calvados at Deauville in July and August, respectively, by a combined margin of 10 lengths. Stepping up to Group 1 competition in the Prix Marcel Boussac at Longchamp on Arc day, she recorded a comfortable two-length victory over Etoile Montante, with Yesterday (Ire)

(Sadler's Wells) a distant sixth. Dropped back to seven furlongs on her seasonal debut in the Listed Prix Imprudence at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 7, she danced to a facile score over subsequent G3 Prix Vanteaux winner Campsie Fells (UAE). French-based Intercontinental (GB) (Danehill) joins the Gallic offensive, boosting her country's claims of winning the 1000 Guineas for the 12th time since the war. Connections opted for the seven furlongs and mixed competition of the G1 Grand Criterium on the Arc undercard rather than taking on Six Perfections over the mile and she raced keenly when beaten just a length by Hold That Tiger. She also showed speed when winning a six-furlong conditions race on her return at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 18, so the recent rain may have shifted the balance away from her.

The Boys in Blue

Godolphin have won this Classic twice since 1998 and they are represented by Mezzo Soprano (Darshaan {GB}) and Gonfilia (Ger) (Big Shuffle). They filled the first two places of the UAE 1000 Guineas Mar. 13, with the former an impressive three-length winner. Gonfilia subsequently battled it out with Hi Dubai (GB) in the private trial last month and trainer Saeed bin Suroor was making bullish noises about her earlier in the week.

The Home Team

Soviet Song (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) handled soft conditions with aplomb when thrashing Summitville (GB) (Grand Lodge) by three lengths in the Listed Sweet Solera S. on the July course in August. She was impressive again when beating Casual Look (Red Ransom) by 1 1/2 lengths in the G1 Fillies' Mile at Ascot Sept. 29 on faster going and has reportedly been flying on the Newmarket gallops. That has not been the case for Russian Rhythm (Kingmambo), who looked a world-beater when taking the G2 Lowther S. at York in August before finishing runner-up to Airwave (GB) in the G1 Cheveley Park S. at this track in October.

Honor In War was making his graded-stakes debut after winning an allowance race over a yielding Keeneland course Apr. 17. Given little chance by the overflow crowd at Churchill Downs, he was tucked between horses as Patrol cut out the early running. The chestnut colt lost a bit of ground as they came around the final bend, but switched to an outside lane in the stretch and motored to the front at the three-sixteenths pole, holding Requete at bay to earn his first stakes score at the highest level while running just two ticks off the course record. "It just made sense to run here, with as good as he's been doing," trainer Paul McGee said. "His last race was so impressive. He was behind a slow pace and closed for the win. We took a shot, but it was really this race or nothing." The race marked the return of multi-millionaire With Anticipation (Relaunch), who was making his first start since running second in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf. Last after six furlongs, the crowd's 2-1 choice closed some ground late to be fifth. "I think it was a good race to move forward from," trainer Jonathan Sheppard said.

Sightseek reeled off three straight wins to end her 2002 campaign, taking a Belmont allowance in September, the GIII Raven Run S. in October and the GII Top Flight S. in November, but had been beaten in all three previous attempts this year. The Juddmonte homebred was a half length behind Affluent in the Jan. 25 GI Santa Monica H., 3/4 of a length in arrears of Got Koko in the Feb. 8 GII La Canada S. and two lengths in back of Starrer after setting the pace in the Mar. 9 GI Santa Margarita H. Shortening up following two straight nine-furlong races, the chestnut travelled in the middle of the pack through honest early fractions, squeezed through an opening between horses as they raced down the stretch and proved much the best in the drive to the wire. "I studied the Form last night and then again today," jockey Jerry Bailey said. "I knew I was going to be in behind horses and I knew was going to have to be patient. On the turn I had a lot of filly and I knew I just had to wait for a seam to open...when I saw the hole, I had plenty of filly to go through there. She had lots in the tank." Trainer Bobby Frankel, who was picking up his third graded-stakes win on the program, added, "Jerry rode a great race--that's why you hire a guy like him." With no Congarees or Orientates entered in this race, Aldebaran was bet down to 6-5 by the Derby Day crowd, but made his backers nervous in the early stages. The five-year-old broke slowly and caboosed the field as they raced down the backstretch, then began to pick it up and moved into contention while seven wide on the turn. He came in slightly on Pass Rush in midstretch, but straightened himself out and won by daylight. "I liked him in this spot today," admitted winning trainer Bobby Frankel. "I took a look at the field and realized this is the easiest bunch he's seen in two years." Aldebaran had epitomized the word bridesmaid in 2002, finishing second in no less than four Grade I races, including a runner-up finish to Congaree in the GI Cigar Mile Nov. 30 to close out the year. But he turned things around to kick off 2003, though, thumping his rivals by five in the GI San Carlos H., much to the delight of his shareholders. He then shipped to New York, where he ran second to Congaree over a muddy Aqueduct strip in the GI Carter H. Apr. 12. Aldebaran will get another crack at the Baffert trainee in the GI Met Mile May 26 at Belmont.

Heat Haze continued Bobby Frankel's big day, coming from last to first to remain perfect in three U.S. starts to date. A 3/4-sister to 1000 Guineas hopeful Intercontinental, Heat Haze tried a pair of European Classics last year with little fanfare, running fifth in the French equivalent May 12 before finishing 13th in the Irish version two weeks later. She concluded her tenure under Andre Fabre with a victory in the Listed Prix Coronation Oct. 13, then headed to Bobby Frankel's shedrow at Hollywood Park. After kicking things off with a win down the hill Dec. 27, the dark filly came rolling in the stretch to annex the GIII Las Cienegas H. Apr. 5 and was sent off as the second choice here. Forced to wait in the gate when Love Talkin (Talkin Man) was a late scratch, Heat Haze broke tardily and found herself at the back of the pack. She bided her time there until the far turn, where she circled the field eight wide, then grabbed the lead late before forging clear. "I was happy when she broke so slow," Frankel admitted. "I wanted him [jockey Jose Valdivia] to take her back anyway. She's got a terrific turn of foot and the kid did right when he took her wide."

Spite The Devil had run second to yesterday's GI Kentucky Derby winner Funny Cide twice last year, including a neck loss in the restricted Sleepy Hollow S., and ended the year with a state-bred allowance score Nov. 8. The dark bay came back to be 10th in the Jan. 18 GIII Holy Bull S. at Gulfstream Park, but improved to be second in an allowance race at the Florida oval and followed that effort with a third in the Mar. 16 GIII Gotham S. The New York-bred was overmatched in his latest, finishing eighth behind Empire Maker and Funny Cide in the Apr. 12 GI Wood Memorial S. Adding blinkers this time, he bobbed at the break and found himself far back early, but moved up while saving ground on the turn, then angled outside and ran past Gotham winner Alysweep for his first graded score. But trainer Allen Jerkens has no intention of taking on Funny Cide again any time soon. "He won't be going in any of the Triple Crown races," he said. "Maybe he'll run in the Peter Pan [GII, May 24] or the New York-bred races."

Delta Princess showed a great deal of determination here, bulling her way through a tight spot on the fence to earn her first stakes victory. After winning her first two career starts, the dark bay lost her next pair, finishing the year with a head loss to She's Vested (Boundary) over a yielding Aqueduct course Nov. 11. She returned to action at Gulfstream this winter and posted a pair of late-closing victories, including one by a nose Mar. 14, and was the fourth choice in her graded-company bow. Jockey Mike Luzzi elected to save ground and Delta Princess complied, but was crying out for room as they turned for home. She got through inside tiring pacesetter Cozzy Corner (Cozzene) in midstretch, came after Wonder Again and edged ahead in the final strides. "This was a typical Mott filly," said Luzzi. "She's very professional--she saved ground early, I had plenty of horse on the far turn, and she was real game at the end."

A Group 1 winner in his native country, Gondolieri took advantage of a short field to register his first win in this country. The bay made his U.S. bow this past March, finishing third in the Tokyo City H. at Santa Anita after setting the pace, and he used those same front-running tactics in the Apr. 6 GII Arcadia H., but was caught in the shadow of the wire and settled for second. Truly A Judge made the lead, but was hounded by Gondolieri as the duo drew well clear of Freefourinternet and Leprechaun Kid (Alphabet Soup). The Chilean-bred turned up the pressure rounding the far turn, took a short lead into the stretch and edged clear. "They told me not to try to go head-to-head with the other horse [Truly A Judge], to let him take the lead and just relax behind him" said winning rider Frank Alvarado. "They told me that I had the best horse and not to get into trouble. Everything worked out great."

New Zealand kicked a late goal in the Sydney autumn carnival courtesy of bargain purchase Honor Babe. Initially bought by co-owner Amy Ingham for NZ$5,000, the bay was sent off the 3-1 choice after running second in her latest, the Apr. 19 G2 Chairman's H. over this course. The four-year-old sprinted from midfield to take the lead, then held off County Tyrone to take it by a half length. "Amy broke her and sent her to me as a two-year-old," trainer Katrina Alexander said. "She was very frail...not robust. She's taken a while to educate, so we waited until she showed us she was ready to do it. But she has gone from strength to strength since we've been [in Sydney]." The winner will be pointed for the G1 Melbourne Cup in November.

Co-owner Jack Ingham, battling a serious illness, was unable to attend the races, but Lonhro brought tears to the eyes of his connections with this handy victory. "These sort of horses get to you," stable foreman Peter Snowden said. The dark bay capped a five-race winning streak with a two-length tally in the Apr. 5 G1 George Ryder S., but had to bounce back from a fourth-place finish in the Apr. 19 G1 Doncaster H. to pick up the fifth Group 1 score of his career. The four-year-old settled in third early, moved up on the turn and opened up a little daylight late to redeem himself for his previous loss. "They all wanted to can him [after his last race] and say there was this and that wrong with him, but he is just a great horse," Snowden said. Added jockey Darren Beadman, "He is just a super horse and this is a good tonic for Mr. Ingham. I've ridden some great horses like Sainly (Aus) and [Lonhro's sire] Octagonal (NZ), and he's right up there with them." Lonhro has now won 18 of his 25 starts and A$3,421,420.

The durable Hasna virtually secured champion juvenile filly honors with this decisive success. Placed in the G1 Golden Slipper S., the bay was coming off a win over colts in the Apr. 21 G1 Sires' Produce S. She was always prominent this time, dashing to the front at the top of the stretch and edging clear. "She is a fine filly, a fabulous filly, too good for them," said Gai Waterhouse, who is fighting John Hawkes in quest of a fourth Sydney training title. Waterhouse has won 10 Group 1 races this season, matching her total during the 1996-97 campaign.

The crowd's choice after winning five of her first six starts, the winner was making her stakes debut and did so with style, bursting from the pack to win going away. She goes next in the G1 South Australian Oaks going an extra 2 1/2 furlongs in a fortnight. "There's no reason she won't run the extra trip," Maguire told Australian Associated Press. "She settles really well, but has amazing acceleration. All she needs is a bit of luck in running."

He may be more comfortable over six based on this evidence as he was being ridden from an early stage by Seb Sanders as trailblazers Aramus (Chi) (Royal Danzig) and Repertory (GB) (Anshan {GB}) lit up the contest. Well Made has to defy a penalty as he bids to win back-to-back renewals of this contest. He is admirably tough and consistent, ending his campaign by taking the G1 Preis von Europa at this track from Salve Regina (Ger) and Yavana's Pace (Ire). He was outclassed last time when 12th behind Sulamani (Ire) in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Nad al Sheba Mar. 29, but that run should have put him straight for this. Aolus may offer the sternest opposition, having won the G3 Grosser Preis der Bremer Wirtschaft at this track Apr. 6, won last year by Well Made.

Limehouse broke his maiden at Keeneland Apr. 16, posting a determined neck victory going 4 1/2 furlongs. The third choice trying stakes company in his second start, he tucked in behind the leaders as first-time starter El Sysco Kid took them through a half in :45.41, slipped through along the rail in the stretch and edged clear, with the runner-up staying on well for second in an impressive debut effort. Heckle (Hennessy), the 1-2 favorite after posting a 12 1/2-length maiden win in a track-record tying :51 for 4 1/2 furlongs, broke awkwardly, then ranged up alongside the pacesetter as they straightened into the stretch. Brushed by that rival during the drive, he faded to be fourth. Todd Pletcher, who trained both the winner and the beaten favorite, said, "I was a little surprised [that Limehouse was the winner], but Heckle broke poorly and, in five-furlong races, the break makes all the difference." Both of the Pletcher colts will be pointed for the GIII Flash S. at Belmont Park June 6. The runner-up will look to break his maiden, then head to the GIII Bashford Manor S. at Churchill July 6. His trainer, Ernest Retamoza, Sr., said, "He's a runner, that's for sure. I've turned down quite a bit of money for him, but I've been a gambler my whole life. That's why I took a shot here. They won't beat him next time." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

3--Chindi, 116, h, 9, El Prado (Ire)--Rousing, by Alydar. Margins: (NK), 5, 2. Odds: 3.90, 3.60, 2.60.

Trion Georgia returned from a 13-month absence to finish third in a $62,500 optional claimer at this track last November, but was sidelined again off a 4 1/4-length success in Turfway allowance company Dec. 22. Private Horde, 12th in the GIII Indiana Derby last October, resurfaced to take a Turfway allowance by 5 1/4 lengths Jan. 5, won right back 20 days later and was also making his comeback. Trion Georgia came out at the start, bumping with Chindi, before settling towards the back of the pack. Private Horde, a forward factor throughout, struck the front outside the eighth pole and drew clear, but was caught on the wire. Trion Georgia rallied seven wide and was fully extended to earn a share of the win.

The $475,000 FTSAUG yearling suffered through a rough start in his latest, but still managed to close for second in a Keeneland allowance test Apr. 6. The 2-1 choice this time, the dark bay took up a stalking position for six furlongs, drove to the front in the stretch, was overtaken by Battler Bob (Shuailaan) inside the eighth pole, but fought back to beat that rival by a head. OMINOUS (c, 3, Capote--Im Out First {MSW & GSP, $438,628}, by Allen's Prospect), a $130,000 KEESEP yearling, had picked up a check in nearly every previous start, completing the trifecta at Gulfstream Mar. 22 and again at Keeneland Apr. 13. The 7-2 shot settled just off the pace, came after early leader Book Note (Notebook) in the stretch and fought hard to defeat that favored rival by a nose. They were 8 1/2 lengths clear of the others. Lifetime Record: 7-1-1-3, $48,695.

Margins: 1, 3, 2. Odds: 1.50, 1.00, 8.65.
 Gustav Schickedanz, who enjoyed a victory in the Woodstock S. two weeks ago with another Langfuhr colt in Wando, witnessed fellow Canadian classics hopeful Mobil outgame the favored Quiet Dare to earn his first victory of the year. The bay rode a three-race winning streak into the restricted Coronation Futurity last November, a contest in which he crossed the line 5 3/4 lengths in front of Arco's Gold. The stewards disqualified him to second, however, and he had gone unraced since that disappointing outcome. Sent off the second choice by the public in his 2003 debut, Mobil tracked the pace from a wide position, then took control late to win by a measured length.

2--Polar Ben (GB), 129, g, 4, Polar Falcon--Woodbeck (GB), by Terimon (GB). £7,040.

3--Welsh Emperor (Ire), 133, g, 4, Emperor Jones--Simply Times, by Dodge. £3,520.

Margins: HF, 3HF, 2HF. Odds: 9-1, 5-1, 20-1.

Also Ran: Millennium Force (GB), Granny's Pet (GB), Love Regardless, Membership. Scratched: Glenviews Purchase (Ire).

Patsy's Double was runner-up to Reel Buddy in this event last year but went one better this time under a strong ride from Franny Norton. In doing so, he added further substance to the form of the conditions race in which he was third behind Frenchman's Bay (Fr) and Friday's Listed Dahlia S. winner Aldora (GB) on Lingfield's polytrack last time Apr. 5. Despite stumbling from the gate, he showed early dash to sit second as Welsh Emperor set a searching pace in the testing conditions. Joining battle with that rival and Polar Ben inside the final quarter, he won the war of attrition inside the final 50 yards to record a belated first stakes score. "He's got through the ground real well," explained Norton. "He's tough and fell on his head coming out of the stalls but I got a nice lead off Welsh Emperor and every time I dug in on him he dug deep for me."

CARNIVAL DANCER (GB) (h, 5, Sadler's Wells--Red Carnival {GSW-Eng}, by Mr Prospector), who took the G3 Scottish Classic at Ayr in July 2001, was sent off the 2-1 favourite to win for the first time since that day. Held up in rear by Pat Eddery in the early stages, he quickened inside the final quarter to pass Sensible (Fr) (Sadler's Wells) with 150 yards remaining and assert for a 1 3/4-length score. Lifetime Record: GSW-Eng, 11-3-1-0, £78,847.

O/B-Cheveley Park Stud Ltd; T-Amanda Perrett.

Haydock, 3.20, Cond, £15,400, 3/up, 6fT, 1:17.15, sf. RESPLENDENT CEE (IRE) (c, 4, Polar Falcon--Western Friend, by Gone West), second to subsequent G3 Palace House S. winner Needwood Blade (GB) in the Listed Abernant S. at Newmarket Apr. 15, benefitted from enterprising gate-to-wire tactics here. The 4-1 second choice was sent to the far rail from flagfall, was clear approaching the final furlong and ran on strongly to beat Orientor (GB) (Inchiner {GB}) by a deserved 2 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: SW-Eng, 16-5-4-1, £68,323. O-Resplendent Racing Limited; B-B Burrough; T-Peter Harris.

4.10 Newmarket, Cond, £14,270, 3yo, 1 1/2mT, 2:34.06, gd.

WESTMORELAND ROAD (c, 3, Diesis {GB}--Tia Gigi {2x Ch. Older Mare-Pan, Mare of the Year-Pan, Ch. 3yo Filly-Per, MG1SW-Per}, by Assert {Ire}), successful in a Newbury maiden Apr. 11, stalked the early leader Calibre (Lear Fan) before being taken to the centre of the track by Pat Eddery to challenge with 2 1/2 furlongs remaining. From there it proved a non-contest as the half to Avowed (Farma Way), SP, $157,184, lengthened clear to beat that rival by an emphatic seven-length margin as the 3-1 second favourite. Lifetime Record: 3-2-1-0, £15,877.

O-Miss Belinda Bauer; B-Mill Ridge Farm, Ltd., Jamm, Ltd & Dr. John A Chandler; T-Amanda Perrett.

4.45 Newmarket, Mdn, £10,425, 2yo, 5fT, 1:01.74, gd. + LORD LINKS (IRE) (c, 2, Dagers Drawn--Lady From Limerick {Ire}, by Rainbows For Life), sent off the 9-4 second favourite to emulate the stable's Tizzy May (Fr), who won this last year, dwelt exiting the stalls as market-leader Savitsky (Stravinsky) sprinted to the front. Recovering to stalk the early pace-setter, he showed a turn of acceleration up the stands' rail to lead with 2 1/2 remaining. Pressed strongly by that rallying rival in the closing stages, he had enough to hold an and win by a neck. He is the third winner for his freshman sire (by Diesis {GB}). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £6,776.

O-Coriolan Links Partnership III; B-Thomas Doherty; T-Richard Hannon.

Thirsk, 4.35, Mdn, £8,840, 3yo, 7fT, 1:28.43, gd. HOME FLEET (c, 3, Gone West--All At Sea {G1SW-Fr, GSW & MG1SP-Eng, $551,765}, by Riverman), sixth on his only racecourse appearance on Lingfield's polytrack last November, disputed a keen lead with Penny Cross (GB) (Efisio {GB}) until taking a slight advantage into the home straight. The 3-1 second choice was ridden along at the quarter-mile marker, then jockey Richard Quinn needed to be at his forceful best late to shrug off the persistent challenge of Penny Cross by 1 1/2 lengths. The winner is a half to Imroz (Nureyev), GSP-US. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £5,746. O-Khalid Abdullah; B-Juddmonte Farms Inc; T-H Cecil.

ALMIZAN (IRE) (c, 3, Darshaan {GB}--Bint Albaadiya {SW-Eng}, by Woodman), fourth on his debut in a Newbury maiden Apr. 11, was settled in third from the outset and moved into a stalking second at the top of the stretch run. The 7-2 second choice was ridden along with three furlongs remaining, challenged at the eighth pole and ran on strongly thereafter to assert a 1 3/4 lengths superiority over Silver City (GB) (Unfuwain). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £6,098.
 O/B-Sheikh Ahmed bin Rashid al Maktoum; T-Mick Channon.

Haydock, 2.45, Mdn, £7,350, 2yo, 5fT, 1:04.55, sf.
NEEDLES AND PINS (IRE) (f, 2, Fasliyev--Fairy Contessa {Ire}, by Fairy King), eighth on her debut in a Thirsk maiden Apr. 11, was positioned in a close second until making a smooth challenge approaching the final furlong. The 7-1 chance soon seized the initiative and was pushed clear in the latter stages to defeat Dress Pearl (GB) (Atraf {GB}) by an easy three lengths. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £4,778.

NEWMARKET ATTENDANCE SHOWS GAINS

Officials at Newmarket racecourse were celebrating an increased attendance of 18,037 on 2000 Guineas day, representing the best crowd for three years and an increase of 8.5 percent on 12 months ago. "It's been the best Guineas crowd for three years and the racecourse improvements have worked extremely well with such a good crowd," Lisa Hancock, Newmarket's managing director, said yesterday. "We saw a great winner in Refuse To Bend (Ire), who is going on to Epsom which is just what a Guineas winner should do."

Hi Dubai, second in a hot maiden on the July Course in August on her only start, bids to provide Godolphin with their fourth renewal of this since 1996. She emulated the battling qualities of her illustrious brother Fantastic Light when getting the better of this afternoon's 1000 Guineas contender Gonfilia (Ger) in the private trial over a mile at Nad al Sheba last month, recording a faster time than the colts' equivalent won by Lateen Sails (GB), and will relish this extra distance. "Right now she is still a maiden, but that has not stopped us before and she belongs in high-class races," Godolphin's Simon Crisford said. "She is a filly with stacks of potential for the summer and she will stay well." Ed Dunlop, who took this two years ago with Mot Juste (GB), saddles Hold To Ransom. She found the seven furlongs of the G3 Nell Gwyn S. insufficient when fourth behind Khulood at this track Apr. 15, and is another who promises to improve with more ground.

CAN'T TOUCH THIS

Untouchable (Aus) (Danehill), a A$950,000 yearling, may chase Brisbane carnival riches after a game win in Saturday's San Miguel H. going 1200 meters at Randwick. The colt is a full brother to G1 Queensland Derby-winning filly Camarena (Aus). Coming off a disappointing fifth-place finish in the Apr. 21 G1 Sires' Produce S., he stalked the lead to the stretch before driving to the front to post the narrow score. "He's still very green and there's a ton of improvement in him," winning jockey Jim Cassidy said.
