THE RHYTHM IS GOING TO GET YOU

Russian Rhythm (Kingmambo) was sent off at the remarkable odds of 12-1 due to the negative vibes leading up to yesterday's G1 Sagitta 1000 Guineas at Newmarket, but Cheveley Park Stud's chestnut came good in time to ward off the strong French challenge of Six Perfections (Fr) (Celtic Swing {GB}) and Intercontinental (GB) (Danehill), taking the fillies' Classic by 1 1/2 lengths. In a race that was all about breaks, jockey Kieren Fallon proved he has one of the best noses for opportunity in the business, urging Russian Rhythm from the rear through a gap in the wall of horses inside the final quarter. Passing Intercontinental and Christophe Soumillon at the furlong marker, the longshot quickened all the way to the line to win decisively.

At Odds With Her Record...

Russian Rhythm's starting odds for the 1000 Guineas would have been unimaginable following her juvenile campaign. After taking the G3 Princess Margaret S. at Ascot in July, she overcame serious trouble in running to add the G2 Lowther S. at York to her portfolio the following month. Even after her runner-up placing behind Airwave (GB) in the G1 Cheveley Park S. at this track in October, when the six furlongs proved too short, she appeared sure to be one of the favorites on the first Sunday in May. But the rumour mill had been in full operation this spring as connections relayed fears that the Classic would come too soon. "I really had not been pleased with her preparation," trainer Sir Michael Stoute admitted. "She wasn't really blooming and wasn't eating as well as she can, as she's a very good doer. She had got a little bit better lately with the advent of some good weather. We had just tried to be patient and not ask her to go too fast too soon. The team have been great and a lot of care and attention has gone into the filly. I felt in her last bit of work that she had shown a little bit more sparkle than she had before, but it's not easy with these Guineas fillies, quite frankly. Kieren was more confident than I was, but fortunately she has just come right on the day." Tough Trip for the Favorite...

Favored Six Perfections had the entire field in front of her two furlongs from home. She ran up onto the heels of a rival and had to steady sharply, but came flying once clear to be second. "It's hard to take," jockey Thierry Thulliez told Racing Post. "There were two horses in front of me and we galloped into one of their heels and reared up. I don't know how I stayed in the saddle. She was the best filly, but second best in the race." While plans for the winner are undecided, the runner-up could go for the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas at The Curragh May 25.

Funny Cide Back in the Big Apple

GI Kentucky Derby winner Funny Cide (Distorted Humor) left Churchill Downs at 9 a.m. yesterday, arriving at Belmont Park in time for lunch after an uneventful flight. "He seems to be fine," trainer Barclay Tagg said. "I haven't had much time to go over him thoroughly, but I looked at him and he looks fine. There was no puffiness or swelling or cuts or bruises on him and he seemed like he was sound." The gelding will try for the second leg of the Triple Crown in two weeks. "If he's all right, we'll certainly go [to the Preakness]," Tagg said. "You can't do anything else." Funny Cide did not arrive in Louisville until three days before the Derby, and his conditioner had considered sending him to Pimlico on the morning of the Preakness, but has now decided against that plan. The chestnut was stirred up by the paddock scene at Churchill, and his connections will likely school him in Maryland. "I'd really prefer to [ship him the morning of the race], but [assistant trainer Robin Smullen] said last night that we might want to go down there and paddock him a couple of times and she's probably right," Tagg said. The former steeplechase rider, who has been training since 1972, was saddling his first runner in the Derby. "It makes me feel like the last 30 years were worth all the grind, I'll tell you that," he said. "This is the biggest thing there is in the game, so how can you not like it? Everybody thinks about winning the Derby. A lot of people who are very, very successful never have. You need a lot of luck for something like this."

Frankel Ponders the Preakness

Immediately after the Derby, trainer Bobby Frankel seemed likely to keep runner-up Empire Maker (Unbridled) out of the May 17 Preakness, sending only third-place finisher Peace Rules (Jules). But he may change his mind and saddle both. He said yesterday that he would see how the two horses train in the coming days before making a decision, adding, "Empire Maker is a little immature still. He still hasn't developed. You can see his body--he's gangly, a little light. This was only his sixth start...hopefully, now that he's had this race, he'll just keep improving as the year goes along." There is also a slight chance that Frankel could add Midas Eyes (Touch Gold) into the Preakness mix, but the colt is more likely for the GI Met Mile May 26.

On to Pimlico

Several Derby also-rans are considering a tilt at the second jewel in the Crown, including Eye of the Tiger (American Chance), 5th; Buddy Gil (Eastern Echo), 6th; Domestic Dispute (Unbridled's Song), 10th; Scrimshaw (Gulch), 11th; and Indian Express (Indian Charlie), who was 14th after a rough trip. The Utah-bred broke poorly and was steadied while in traffic as they raced to the first turn. He moved up to sixth, but faded badly. "If you miss the break on a speed horse like that, you can forget about it," trainer Bob Baffert said. He added that his colt would have a new rider if he goes on to the Preakness, as he will replace 20-year-old Tyler Baze aboard Indian Express. Baze was riding in the Derby for the first time Saturday. Baffert also said that Senor Swinger (El Prado {Ire}) could return to the main track for the Preakness after winning Friday's GIII Crown Royal American Turf S. "That option is open," he said. "He came out of the race great. If I could get Pat Day, then I'd go and take a shot." Day, who rode Senor Swinger Friday, has won the Preakness five times.

Talk'n 'Bout the Belmont

Trainer Ron Ellis was pleased with the fast-closing fourth-place effort of Atswhatimtalknabout (A.P. Indy), but likely will skip the Preakness in favor of the June 7 GI Belmont S. "My gut feeling is the Belmont," Ellis said. "We pushed hard to make this race and I don't think to come back in two weeks and then another three weeks would be best. I am leaning toward spacing his races and giving him a chance to develop." Trainer D. Wayne Lukas said that eighth-place finisher Ten Cents A Shine (Devil His Due) is also Belmont-bound, with seventh-placed Outta Here (Dehere) possible for the 1 1/2-mile test.

Minor Post-Derby Problems for Deputy Duo

Brancusi (Deputy Commander), who set the pace before fading to 16th, exited the race with a small quarter crack. "It is a shame that it had to happen in the Derby, but it is fortunate that it is not a knee or an ankle," trainer Patrick Biancone said, adding that the colt would ship to New York next week. Trainer Wally Dollase said that Ten Most Wanted (Deputy Commander) may have come back from his ninth-place finish with a slight illness. "I think he might have a low-grade virus," Dollase said. "He'll be fine. He's just stressed, like me."

Bend Fine after Guineas Effort

Conditioner Dermot Weld yesterday reported Saturday's G1 2000 Guineas winner Refuse to Bend (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) to be none the worse for his exertions. After beating Zafeen (Fr) (Zafonic) by 3/4 of a length in the Newmarket Classic, the unbeaten colt will head for the G1 Epsom Derby June 7, for which is quoted as 7-2 favourite. "He's come out the race well," Weld told PA Sport yesterday. "He flew back last night and travelled well. I'm quite happy with the horse in every way."

DERBY WAGERING BREAKS RECORDS The turnover on the 129th running of the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs Saturday established new records for total and on-track wagering. The total handle on the 12-race card was $140,250,590, up 13.8 percent over the old mark of $123,233,111, which was set on the 11-race program a year ago. The Derby attracted record total betting of $87,663,663, highest handle ever for a single race in North America and up 10.8 percent from the mark set by War Emblem's "Run for the Roses." The on-track attendance of 148,530, fifth-largest in Derby history, bet $20,583,143 on the card, eclipsing the old record of $19,400,818 by 6.1 percent.

Stakes-placed against fellow New York-breds and three times a winner at three, Lord Ofthe Thunder kicked off his 2003 campaign in an Aqueduct allowance Mar. 23 and came home a winner after a 3 1/2-month layoff. The dark bay couldn't beat Saarland in his next start, pressing the pace before running on well to be second by 2 1/4 lengths in that Apr. 11 one-mile affair. He dropped back to seven furlongs two weeks later, but raced wide throughout and had to settle for third. Stretching out with the return to stakes competition, the well-bred colt was last after a moderate opening half, but motored down the lane to catch front-running Mr. Determined, then pulled away to win handily. "I knew the pace was slow, but I had so much horse it didn't matter," jockey Javier Castellano said. "He was just the best horse in the race."

GODOLPHIN OFF THE BLOCKS

Godolphin was able to make up in part for a disappointing weekend with the success of Hi Dubai (GB) (Rahy) in yesterday's Listed R L Davison Pretty Polly S. at Newmarket. Simon Crisford, Godolphin's racing manager, expressed relief after the full sister to Fantastic Light provided Godolphin with the first winner of its 2003 European campaign. "It's our 23rd winner this year, but it's always a relief to have our first winner here in England and we like to get it at Newmarket rather than waiting for York," he said. Crisford also reported that Echoes In Eternity (Ire) (Spinning World) will run in the G3 Tattersalls Musidora at York May 13, while plans for Lateen Sails (GB) (Elmaamul), who finished last in Saturday's G1 2000 Guineas, are on hold. "We're going to give Lateen Sails a bit of a break and start again with him," he explained. "He is a good horse, we know that, and he'll probably come back in a conditions race somewhere during the summer."

RECORD WEEKEND AT NEWMARKET

Officials at Newmarket racecourse yesterday witnessed a record Sunday crowd of 17,089, securing a total attendance for the Sagitta Guineas Festival of over 40,000 for the first time. "It has been a fantastic day at the Home of Racing, with a record Sunday crowd basking in glorious sunshine," commented Lisa Hancock, managing director of Newmarket. "The attendance, which was boosted by over 1500 members of the Elite Racing Club, was up 17 percent on last year. To have passed 40,000 for the meeting is tremendous."

Hi Dubai provided Godolphin with its first success in Europe in 2003 and its fourth renewal of this Epsom Oaks trial since 1996 to add further lustre to her outstanding family. As her earlier efforts indicated, she appears to have inherited the speed and courage of her full brother Fantastic Light, battling to the head of the pecking order by winning the operation's private trial at Nad al Sheba last month. She confirmed that impression here, breaking well under jockey Frankie Dettori before being reined back into a stalking third. Quickening approaching the final quarter, she seized the initiative to gain a decisive advantage going into the dip before holding the late challenge of Hold to Ransom, who had pulled outrageously in the early stages. "This is a filly we have always thought a lot of," Dettori explained. "She won the trial, but just lacks a bit of experience. I wanted to see if she really stayed and when I got to the front she was waiting for the others to chase her up. She fought really well and should improve a lot. After a couple of nice works, she should be heading to Epsom." Hi Dubai, who had only contested a July Course maiden in August before getting her first win in this event, was quoted as the 5-1 favourite by William Hill for the June 6 G1 Epsom Oaks.

Yesterday's Magic Millions Winter Yearling Sale on the Gold Coast was deemed a success by sale officials after new records were set for the sale's top price and for overall gross. Representing the sale's highest-priced yearling ever, lot 80 was hammered down to Sydney-based trainer Paul Sutherland, who went to A$300,000 for the handsome grey son of Danehill. Out of the unraced High Top (Ire) mare Gibraltar Heights (GB), lot 80 was consigned by Oaklands Stud, Darling Downs, as agent. "The better horses in the catalogue were well sought out by good judges, and they all sold very well," said Magic Millions Managing Director David Chester. "This sale really does have something for everyone." The National Broodmare and Weanling sales kicks off today and will run through Wednesday.
