ARE WE HAVING FUN YET?

It would be understandable if Barclay Tagg was starting to lose his sense of humor. Since living the dream with Funny Cide (Distorted Humor) on the first Saturday in May, the trainer has had to deal not only with the expected attention attached to a Kentucky Derby victory, but also the added pressure of the media frenzy surrounding a UFO (utterly fictional object). When asked exactly when Funny Cide would be arriving at Pimlico for today's GI Preakness S., Tagg said it would be early Saturday morning, adding, "I wouldn't tell you if I had any other plans."

Funny Cide Horsephotos

The pair, in fact, arrived yesterday afternoon. Luckily, the Derby-winning gelding is blissfully unaware of all the fuss. He worked a bullet half at Belmont Tuesday and it's all systems go as he heads to the second leg of a Triple Crown that is his to win. "He's doing very, very well," Tagg said earlier this week. "We're pleased with him. He's just a marvelous horse and everything's going well, thanks to the Lord." Heavy rains in Maryland yesterday morning turned the Pimlico strip into a sea of mud, but Funny Cide took to a wet track when second in the GI Wood Memorial.

"He seems to have handled these kind of tracks in the morning," Tagg told The Blood-Horse. "He doesn't seem to mind it. I'm sure it will be muddy or drying out --he'll just have to like it."

Peace Rules Horsephotos

Although Preakness second choice Peace Rules (Jules) was fifth while a maiden in his only try on a sloppy surface, trainer Bobby Frankel seemed equally unconcerned about the track conditions. "He has handled every other kind of track," Frankel told TVG. "He's out of a Hold Your Peace mare, and he's by a Forty Niner stud, and they're supposed to like it. He has a good foot for it. I think he'll be all right." Peace Rules was third in the Derby last time out.

SOMETHING SPECIAL

Mineshaft (A.P. Indy), who has accounted for two of the four best Beyer figures this year at more than a mile, added to his reputation as one to watch with a 3 3/4-length score in yesterday's GI Pimlico Special. The dark bay has been beaten only once since shipping across the Atlantic last fall, running second to Balto Star (Glitterman) in the Feb. 9 Gill Whirlaway H. at Fair Grounds, but bounced back to take the Mar. 2 Gill New Orleans H. He was coming off a nine-length victory in the Apr. 25 Gill Ben Ali S. at Keeneland. Settled in fourth as Balto Star, dogged by Western Pride (Way West {Fr}), dashed through solid splits, Mineshaft moved up as the frontrunner faded, put away Western Pride at the top of the lane and drew clear. "He's a model of consistency and today was hit best race yet," said trainer Neil Howard, who added that the June 14 GI Stephen Foster H. at Churchill Downs would likely be next. Preakness cont.

The Local Hopeful...

Cherokee's Boy (Citidancer) puts his perfect record at Pimlico on the line this afternoon for owners Foard Wilgis and Dave Picarello of ZWP Stables. The two purchased their first horse--Cherokee Wonder, the dam of their Preakness hopeful--for just $5,500 in 1992. "It wasn't that long ago that we were just racing fans that got excited to watch the Preakness, and now we have a horse running in the Preakness," said Picarello. Cherokee's Boy showed a fondness for off going last October, winning the Tri-State Futurity at Charles Town by a resounding 21 3/4 lengths.

Rain, Rain Go Away...

The National Weather Service has predicted that the rain will taper off in Maryland this morning. If the NWS is wrong and the skies clear early, Pimlico Senior Vice President John Passero said he would guarantee a fast track "as long as it stops tonight." The Pimlico track crew was expected to be working throughout the night.

A 10-length maiden winner at first asking at Belmont Sept. 22, Roar Emotion stumbled just after the start of her allowance bow Oct. 18 before finishing second behind Xtra Heart (Favorite Trick). The dark bay more than made up for that defeat with a wire-to-wire success in the GII Demoiselle S. at Aqueduct Nov. 30 in her two-year-old finale, but was upset as the 4-5 favorite when second in the GIII Cicada S. in her return to the races Mar. 22. The third choice in the wagering was sent immediately for the lead by jockey John Velazquez and cut out reasonable fractions in advance of Ivanavinalot (West Acre). Favored Santa Catarina, wide throughout beneath Gary Stevens, was asked to take closer order rounding the far turn and loomed a threat turning for home, but Roar Emotion turned back that bid and withstood a furious late run from Fircroft for the win. "She's a big filly and needed time to mature, and we needed patience getting her to the races," trainer Carlos Martin said of his charge. "The owners are really good about these things." Of yesterday's effort, Martin said, "She has the speed and we had the right horse, the right distance and the best jockey in the world [in John Velazquez]. We were getting tired at the end, but she really held on and got the job done." Also Ran: Dance the Slew. Scratched: You'll Be Happy, Kiss a Miss, Smok'n Frolic.

Only four went to the post after a morning monsoon produced a track best labelled soupy, but Mandy's Gold battled the conditions and a game Summer Colony to get the win. The gallant little chestnut, who earned Grade I status with her victory in last year's Ruffian H., was off the board in her last two starts of 2002, but returned to win a Gulfstream allowance test going six furlongs Feb. 24. Third in the Mar. 15 GIII Oaklawn Park Breeders' Cup S. next time out, she came into this off a third behind Horse of the Year Azeri and Take Charge Lady as a 17-1 outsider in the Apr. 5 GI Apple Blossom H. The odds-on choice here, she appeared somewhat uncomfortable on the sloppy surface as longshot Dance the Slew skipped along in front. Mandy's Gold had dropped back to last after six furlongs, but swung wide into the stretch as Summer Colony drove past Stormy Frolic to take the lead. The Virginia-bred drifted out near the eighth pole, but kicked it into gear once straightened out and just got up for the narrow score. "She had a hard year last year and bled a touch," trainer Michael Gorham said. "She really needed some time off and we gave it to her. She came back strong and this race proved it." Runner-up Summer Colony, making her first start since finishing last in the the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, held well for second. "She's a hard filly to get fit," trainer Mark Hennig said. "I thought we had her as fit as possible, but it was obvious she ran out of air a little bit the final sixteenth." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Thierry Thulliez will be keen to banish his demons as he takes the ride on Domedriver in this strong renewal of the Lockinge. Although he was castigated for his performance on the luckless Six Perfections (Fr) in the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket, Thulliez had two masterful rides aboard this horse last October that catapulted the Niarchos homebred to instant fame. Having steered him from last to first to take the G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein at Longchamp, he found all the gaps at Arlington to beat no less than Rock of Gibraltar (Ire) by 3/4 of a length in the G1 Breeders' Cup Mile. He shaped impressively when failing by a short neck to give seven pounds to Dandoun (GB) on his return in the G2 Prix du Muguet at Saint-Cloud May 1, where last year's Lockinge winner Keltos (Fr) prepped successfully. Apart from his impressive closing run when second in last year's G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket, Hawk Wing has yet to prove he is as effective over a mile as he is with a distance of ground. Unraced since finishing worse than second for the first time when a well-beaten seventh trying the dirt in the G1 Breeders' Cup Classic, the four-year-old is questionable to run due to the rains that have fallen at the Berkshire course. Where or When was nothing short of spectacular in his two-length defeat of Hawk Wing in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot in September, but has not run since.

Del Mar Show, winner of last summer's GII Bernard Baruch H., tired to seventh in the G1 Breeders' Cup Mile. The six-year-old returns to the graded-stakes fray after a two-length score in an Apr. 19 allowance at Keeneland. Perfect Soul began his career with three straight wins at Woodbine last summer before a runner-up finish in the G1 Niagara Breeders' Cup H. and a fourth-place finish in the G1 Canadian International. Eighth in the G1 Breeders' Cup Turf Classic and again in the GIII Tropical Turf H., the five-year-old was a 5 1/4-length winner of a nine-furlong Keeneland turf allowance in his 2003 bow Apr. 13. G1 Eddie Read H. winner Sarafan missed by just a nose to Falbrav in the G1 Japan Cup last November. The six-year-old gelding has not started since finishing fourth in the G1 Hong Kong Cup last December.

MGISW Raging Fever began 2003 with a runner-up finish behind Carson Hollow in the GII Distaff Breeders' Cup H., but she returned to the winner's circle last time out with a half-length victory over Smok'n Frolic in the GIII Bed o' Roses Breeders' Cup H. From eight starts at the Belmont oval, Raging Fever has five wins and two seconds and her versatility could help her improve on her second-place effort in last year's Shuvee. "She's very versatile," Hennig said. "You can rate her, but if there's not a whole lot of speed in the race, that's advantageous for her." You, a surprise entrant here, is a seven-time graded stakes winner. After winning the GI Acorn and GI Test S. last summer, the Bobby Frankel trainee ended her sophomore campaign with four straight losses. In just two starts this year, You ran second behind Starrer in the GI Santa Maria H. before a dominating 7 3/4-length triumph in the May 2 GII Louisville Breeders' Cup H. "It's hard to judge if You is really back on her game because she beat a real easy bunch in [the Louisville Breeders' Cup] last time," said Frankel, who will also saddle Wild Spirit, a three-time Group 1 winner in her native Chile last year. The four-year-old will be making her first U.S. start here in her first race since Dec. 14. "She's training really well and she looks very good," Frankel said of the filly. "Hopefully she runs like she trains."

Ten Most Wanted AOK after Work

Aimee Dollase, assistant to her father, trainer Wally Dollase, said yesterday that Gil Illinois Derby hero Ten Most Wanted (Deputy Commander) came out of Thursday's half-mile workout at Hollywood Park in good order. He remains under consideration for the June 7 GI Belmont S. "He will work here twice more before we decide," she said, adding, "He got hit hard coming out of the gate in the Kentucky Derby [where he finished ninth] and threw his back out, but a chiropractor worked on it in Kentucky before he came back."

AZERI SIZZLES AT SAN LUIS REY Reigning Horse of the Year Azeri (Jade Hunter) worked five furlongs in a sizzling :57.60 at San Luis Rey Downs Friday. The five-year-old mare is pointing for the May 24 GI Milady Breeders' Cup H. "She has been working fast lately," trainer Laura de Seroux said. "She went the first eighth in :12 1/5 and clicked off :11s the rest of the way." Azeri will defend her title in this 1 1/16-mile test, but de Seroux said, "She's a bigger, stronger version of what she was coming into the Milady last year." The chestnut looks to become the first repeat winner of the race since Paseana (Arg) in 1992-93. She is a perfect three-for-three at Hollywood Park.

Two-for-four at Belmont, Abreeze was last seen at this track running a solid fifth after setting the pace in the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup last September. The bay ended 2002 with a 12th-place finish in the Nov. 23 G1 Japan Cup Dirt, then started three times in Dubai over the winter, but failed to hit the board, most recently running sixth in the Mar. 29 G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen. After prepping for his return to "Big Sandy" at Saratoga, he went right to the front, shook loose from Ground Storm after six furlongs and drew clear.

FIRST BLUSH (c, 3, French Deputy--Blushing Princess, by Crafty Prospector) registered an 11-1 upset in the GIII Spectacular Bid S. at Gulfstream Park Jan. 3, but was no factor in three subsequent stakes tries, finishing fifth in the GII Hutcheson S. Feb. 15, sixth in the Mar. 15 GIII Swale S. and third most recently in the Francis LaBelle S. at Delaware Park May 3. Even-money on the return to allowance company, the homebred disputed the pace four wide, poked a head in front with a furlong to run and inched away to take it by 1 1/2 lengths over Mighty Gulch (Gulch). A forward factor while racing along the inside, the Claiborne homebred was given her cue approaching the quarter pole, found room at the rail and drew clear to best Victory's Sister (Cryptoclearance) by 1 1/4 lengths. Jockey Castillo Jr. 'Roars' For 2,000th:

Jockey Heberto Castillo Jr. rode his 2,000th career winner Thursday in the third race at Belmont Park aboard 17-1 longshot Letthefreedomroar (Roar). "It has been a tough road," the 33-year-old said. "There are a lot of ups and downs in the business. I had some injuries earlier in my career, or this might have come sooner. But I'm still young and I now can shoot for 3,000."

Heavy rain forced the Very One S. off the grass, but that was just what Forest Heiress' connections were hoping for. Sent off as the odds-on choice, the Forest Wildcat filly rolled to an easy seven-length win over five foes after stalking the early pace while racing off the rail. The speedy filly was as far back as four lengths at one point, unfamiliar territory for this frontrunner, but responded nicely to the new tactics drawing off impressively in the stretch. She appears to be back on track after running off the board in two graded stakes at Gulfstream this winter and has now won two in a row. Bill Mott's trainee also romped by 7 1/4 lengths in her last start, a Keeneland allowance in the mud Apr. 18.

Unraced since that effort, the $6,200 FTKOCT yearling purchase dueled for the lead three wide, took over with a little more than three furlongs to go and splashed clear late to win by 2 3/4 lengths as the 7-2 third choice. Quickest into stride from the inside gate, he set a pressured pace for the opening four furlongs, began to edge clear in upper stretch and reported home a 1 1/4-length winner. Returning to the infield for this, the homebred rated kindly off the early pace, circled four wide into the stretch and kicked clear late to win by 2 1/2 lengths as the even-money favorite. Wild Rush Filly Tops CTHS Sale:

An unnamed two-year-old filly by Wild Rush out of Attraction Fatale (Dauphin Fabuleux) brought a final bid of C$100,000 to top the Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society's 2003 Two-Year-Olds in Training Sale, held Thursday in Ontario. Consigned by Cameron Training Centre, agent, the dark bay was purchased by Arosa Farms. Out of a multiple-stakes winner of $204,979, the two-year-old is a 1/2 to Saratoga Prince (Saratoga Six), a graded-stakes placed earner of $366,080. A total of 46 lots went through the ring, with 25 selling for an aggregate of $628,000. The average of $25,120 was down 2.8 percent from last year.

Sportsman's Challenge Set for Sunday:

The High Hope Steeplechase, which raises funds for the Central Kentucky Riding for the Handicapped and the Kentucky Horse Park Foundation, will hold its annual event Sunday afternoon, May 18. The Blood-Horse Sportsman's Challenge, a two-mile race, has drawn a field of 15 runners, which are sponsored by Central Kentucky farms and businesses. Favored at 2-1 on the morning line is Ken Ramsey's Will Step (Geri), with Tony Hedges in the irons. The 5-2 second choice on the morning line is Fair Trade (Red Ransom), a Red Ransom four-year-old who will be piloted by Bradley Thoroughbred Brokerage's Tom Ryan. "It will be like a bumper [flat race] in Tipperary," Ryan said of the undulating course. "To be honest, I'm just hoping to get around. I'm giving 20 pounds to the rest, and they're expecting me to win." Horses must carry a minimum of 165 pounds. The race was won by Hall of Fame jockey Julie Krone in 2001. But the consolation prize isn't bad: the rider of the last-place finisher gets a bottle of whiskey. For ticket information, go to www.highhopesteeplechase.com.

'Eugene' Recovering Well According to Byrne:

Eugene's Third Son (Indian Charlie), runner-up in the GII Lane's End S. and GII Arkansas Derby this spring, is recovering well from a fractured splint bone that required surgery following the Arkansas Derby, according to trainer Patrick Byrne. "He should come back good," Byrne said. "We'll shedrow [walk] him for a week and he'll be back jogging in early June." If the speedy colt stays on schedule, Byrne said he could return to action by late summer.

GRAND REWARD DEBUTS

Aidan O'Brien has entered the unraced two-year-old Grand Reward (Storm Cat) in the 4.10 maiden at Newbury this afternoon. The six-furlong event has drawn 14 runners. Owned by the partnership Michael Tabor, Mrs. John Magnier and Beverly Lewis, the juvenile is the latest produce of the remarkable racemare Serena's Song and is a full brother to G1 Coronation S. heroine Sophisticat. Robert and Beverly Lewis, who raced Serena's Song in their green and yellow colors, bred the bay colt in Kentucky.

CHAPPLE-HYAM RETURNS

Peter Chapple-Hyam will not apply for a renewal of his trainer's licence for Hong Kong's 2003/2004 season and will return to Britain, it was announced yesterday. Famed for his handling of Classic winners Spectrum (Ire), Dr Devious (Ire) and Rodrigo de Triano from his father-in-law Robert Sangster's Manton base, Chapple-Hyam has decided to end his 3 1/2-year spell in the Chinese territory. Since leaving in August 1999, he has endured a disappointing run, failing to saddle the 12 winners in each season stipulated by the Hong Kong Jockey Club. In a statement to PA Sport yesterday, he said, "I've enjoyed Hong Kong, but a number of offers have arisen and I'm pleased to accept these and return home to resume my training career." The Jockey Club also issued a statement which read, "Mr Chapple-Hyam explained that he would be returning to England at the completion of the current Hong Kong racing season to resume his training career in that country, as he has been offered the opportunity to train racehorses for owners that were previously attached to his stable prior to him commencing training in Hong Kong."

With its inaugural Listed status, this race was a fitting opportunity for Compton Bolter to add to his three career successes at this level. He is certainly brave, having battled it out with Asian Heights (GB) before going down by 1 1/4 lengths in the G3 Ormonde S. at Chester last time May 8. He also has the heart of a lion, keeping the flag flying for the Gerard Butler stable wherever he goes, including venues in five different countries. Here he benefitted from the enterprising tactics employed by Eddie Ahern, making all and kicking into a decisive advantage early in the straight. "He had a bad knee problem and was nearly put down at one stage," Gerard Butler told PA Sport. "But he had a quite serious operation and fortunately it worked. We also had him castrated and gave him a long time off, and he has come back good. He is in the G2 Henry II S. [at Sandown May 26], but we will see."

Striking Ambition, who showed a liking for testing conditions when winning the Listed Prix Saraca at Saint-Cloud in November, proved he could handle faster ground when besting Avonbridge in the Listed Pavilion S. at Ascot Apr. 30. Heavy morning rain preceded their rematch in this competitive contest and it was tight again between the pair, but the determination of Darryll Holland and Striking Ambition forged the same result. Holland, who had taken the dark bay to the front in the early stages, was awaiting the arrival of Avonbridge and jockeys' title rival Kieren Fallon and when that partnership loomed alongside it was the ultimate spur. Not to be denied, he toughed it out in the drive to the line. "When he went down to the start I knew he'd win as he gave me that feel I haven't had for a while," Holland explained. "He doesn't necessarily have to make it, there's just been no pace so instead of pulling him about I've just let him enjoy himself in front. I'd love to know what he can do when he gets soft ground as he's got tons of speed and natural ability. That combined makes him a nice horse." Trainer Giles Bravery will now send the colt to Royal Ascot for the G1 Golden Jubilee S. June 21 if the ground is soft.

Newbury was treated to another fine display of riding from the front by Frankie Dettori, who maximised the indecision of his rival jockeys as well as the stamina of Sun on the Sea to land the spoils. Still a maiden entering this contest, she had shaped with promise when fourth in a mile maiden at this track before filling the same spot behind Nasij (Elusive Quality) in the Listed Masaka S. at Kempton Apr. 19. Allowed a soft lead, Dettori stoked up the engine at the top of the straight and was not made to fight by Waldmark, the only closer to emerge from the pack. "Brian [trainer Meehan] said with a bit of luck somebody will give us a lead because she's a bit green, but everyone took a pull and I found myself in front," Dettori commented. "We know she stays, so I made sure from three out it was going to be a good gallop to the line and she's done it really well. She should stay a mile and a half good and she'll be a nice staying filly." Sun on the Sea will now head to the G2 Ribblesdale S. at Royal Ascot June 19.

Humilis must have picked up a dose of what stable companion Refuse to Bend (Ire) has, if this exhibition of toughness is anything to go by. She has come up the hard way, winning a Clonmel maiden Apr. 2 before defying her inexperience to take a Naas handicap May 5. Taken to the front in the early stages by Pat Smullen, she was harried by Jakarta Jade all the way up the straight, but battled tooth and nail to ward off that threat. Her efforts were enough to ensure her first stakes success despite the desperate late lunge of Queen Astrid under Helen Keohane. Dermot Weld is ready to step Humilis up in class. "She is progressing into a very nice filly and will go for the G2 Ribblesdale S. [at Royal Ascot June 19], and then maybe for the G1 Irish Oaks [at The Curragh July 13]," the conditioner told Irish Racing online.

ZABEEL'S FEE LOWERED

Cambridge Stud has announced that it will be lowering all of the stud fees for their stallions for the upcoming breeding season, including champion sire Zabeel (NZ) (*Sir Tristram). The 17-year-old stallion stood for NZ$110,000 last season, but will be available for NZ$85,000 this year. "The economic conditions at present are not exactly buoyant and the returns at this year's yearling sales throughout Australasia demonstrated that," said Cambridge's Sir Patrick Hogan. "It is important for studs to give breeders the opportunity to make a profit margin from their investment on stallion services and that is why we have dropped the fees for every stallion that stood at Cambridge Stud last year." Cambridge also stands shuttle stallions Stravinsky (Nureyev) and Cape Cross (Ire) (Green Desert), whose fees will be NZ$18,000 and NZ$10,000, respectively, in 2003. Standing his first season at the nursery this year is Viking Ruler (Aus) (Danehill), who will enter stud for a fee of NZ$20,000. Viking Ruler, who topped the Easter Sale at A$1.5 million, developed into a Group 1 winner in Australia. The bay is out of Tristalove (NZ) (*Sir Tristram), a Group 1-winning 3/4 sister to Zabeel. For more information, go to www.cambridgestud.co.nz.

BRAMBLE ROSE INJURED

New Zealand Oaks heroine Bramble Rose (NZ) (Shinko King {Ire}) has undergone surgery to repair an injured tendon, leaving her racing future in doubt. The bay strained her tendon when third in the G1 Australian Oaks at Randwick Apr. 26. "She faces a long recovery, so we'll just have to wait and see," co-owner and trainer Mark Todd told NZ Racing Online. "We'll scan the leg in the spring and make some sort of decision then. If there's significant improvement, we'll set her a program for later in the season. Otherwise, it's likely that she will go to stud."
