Mineshaft (A.P. Indy) gave it his all, but Perfect Drift (Dynaformer) proved narrowly better, winning the GI

Perfect Drift (#9) Takes Foster
Four Footed Fotos

Stephen Foster H. at Churchill Downs yesterday by a head. The winner was getting eight pounds from the gallant runner-up, but trainer Murray Johnson felt that was only part of the story. "He did get...weight off Mineshaft, which was in our favor, but it was only our third race of the year and I haven't leaned on him that hard," Johnson said. "I knew he was ready for this race." Third in last year's GI Kentucky Derby, Perfect Drift was given a break after running 10th, beaten 5 1/4 lengths, in the GI Belmont S. He returned to take the Oct. 5 GIII Indiana Derby, but was distanced again in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic and took another 5 1/2-month vacation. He returned in April and found himself trying the turf. Stephen Foster H. cont. p2

STRIKING WHILE THE "IRON" IS HOT

The skies opened up 30 minutes before the race, turning the Belmont Park surface into a sea of slop, but Iron Deputy (Silver Deputy) was not fazed. The front-running winner of an Aqueduct allowance test May 4, he once again used his speed to good advantage yesterday, leading nearly every step to post a mild upset in the GII Brooklyn H. "He had never faced these kinds of horses before, but I had a lot of confidence with him stepping up," winning jockey Richie Migliore said. Indeed, the four-year-old had faced graded-stakes company just once before, but stumbled and dropped Migliore in the GII Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga last summer. He would not run again until this March, returning to be a close-up fourth in a seven-furlong allowance at the Big A Mar. 22. He followed up with his runaway allowance score six weeks later. "This is the soundest he has been," trainer Jimmy Jerkens explained. "We've never been able to keep him sound for any extended period of time." Brooklyn H. cont. 2

We've got winning ways

Fond of the Lawn...

Perfect Drift took an immediate liking to his new surface, taking a Keeneland allowance Apr. 11 and running a solid fourth in the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic on the Kentucky Derby undercard. Returning to the dirt for the Stephen Foster, he rated along in fourth as Crafty Shaw (Crafty Prospector) cut out solid fractions, kicked it into gear three furlongs from home and got to the front at the sixteenth pole. Mineshaft was behind Perfect Drift for a half mile, but moved early, grabbing the lead after six furlongs. He battled bravely when joined by Perfect Drift, but came up a head short. "This horse is never going to win by five," Murray Johnson said. "He just does enough to get by 'em and that's it and that's great. We'll keep him around for a long time." As for what's next, the Australian-born horseman said the four-year-old would be back on the grass. "The Arlington Million [Aug. 16] will be our next objective," he remarked.

Undaunted in Defeat...

Mineshaft, with six wins from his eight U.S. starts including the GI Pimlico Special last time out, was not disgraced in his second-place finish. "When he turned for home and I called on him, he gave me what he had," jockey Robby Albarado said. "He went on and he never really slowed down any--Perfect Drift just ran a big race." Trainer Neil Howard said, "You know, Perfect Drift is not the worst horse in the world. He finished third in the Derby last year, he's been training good and Murray did a great job with him." But, he added, "I still think Mineshaft is the horse that we think he is."

Off Day for Aldebaran...

Aldebaran (Mr. Prospector), the 3-1 second choice, was never far from the leaders and tracked Perfect Drift into the stretch, but couldn't match strides late and had to settle for third. "At about the five-eighths pole, he came out of the bridle and started struggling and I couldn't keep up," jockey Jerry Bailey said.

Finally Getting Him Right...

Richie Migliore has seen big things for Iron Deputy since his juvenile campaign. "Every since his two-year-old season, I thought he was a very nice horse," Migliore said. "Unfortunately, it's been one setback after another. But, thanks to their patience, I think [owners John and Susan Moore] and Jimmy Jerkens will be rewarded this year. He's just a good horse. He does everything so easily." The colt will try to make it three in a row in the July 5 GI Suburban H. going 10 furlongs at Belmont. "I think a mile and a quarter is within his range, as long as he rates kind," Jerkens said. "All the dam's foals have excelled going long." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. For the video race replay, select: broadband or modem.

No Holiday for the Favorite...

Harlan's Holiday (Harlan), the 2-1 favorite, was slow to start and showed little, finishing fifth and last. "He hesitated at the break and then ducked in," jockey John Velazquez said. "I don't think he handled the track. He was never really comfortable." Added trainer Todd Pletcher, "Obviously, the whole complexion of the race changed when it started to downpour. Both races after the rain went wire to wire. This is one of those races you have to draw a line through and try again." But Phil Johnson, trainer of Volponi (Cryptoclearance), was pleased with the performance of his runner-up. "I thought he ran great, no excuses," he said. "He got a good trip out there. He was in contention the whole way around. If he comes out well, we'll go in the Suburban." Added jockey Jose Santos, "He handled the track and he ran good. He was pretty game through the lane. We were just beaten by a better horse today." Evening Attire (Black Tie Affair {Ire}), making his first start since winning the off-the-turf GIII Red Smith H. by eight lengths last November, was outrun early, came with a mild bid on the far turn and flattened out late to finish fourth.

The two-length winner of the May 10 Jim Murray H. going 12 furlongs on the Hollywood turf, Storming Home handled this cut back in distance to run his American record to a perfect two-for-two. The bay had always evidenced talent, numbering the 2001 G2 King Edward VII S. at Royal Ascot among his sophomore successes. He was second in both the G2 Hardwicke S. and G1 Coronation S. last season, then ended his European experience with wins in the Oct. 4 Listed Godolphin S. and the Oct. 19 G1 Champion S., both at Newmarket. The Gainsborough homebred did not fire in the Nov. 24 G1 Japan Cup, running 15th, and went to the bench to prepare for his U.S. foray. Off at a generous 5-2 in the Jim Murray, he was bet down to odds-on yesterday and rewarded his backers with a game effort. Storming Home was fifth through the opening mile, but swept four wide into the stretch, drove past Mister Acpen inside the eighth pole and outran that one to the wire. "He didn't have the best of trips today... but it didn't matter because my horse was much the best," winning jockey Gary Stevens said. "The announcer called me five wide, but it was more like nine wide. But he got it done. He's the real deal, this horse." Added trainer Neil Drysdale, getting his fourth Whittingham win, "This horse is so talented... he's got tremendous acceleration. He had to wait going around the turn, but he got salvation in the stretch." The winner could start next in the July 5 GI United Nations H. at Monmouth Park. A consistent performer, Kudos accounted for his biggest victory when taking the GI Oaklawn H. by 4 3/4 lengths last April, but disappeared after that effort. The bay made his return following a nine-month layoff and finished second, six lengths behind Congaree, in the Jan. 5 GII San Pasqual H. Third in the Mar. 1 GI Santa Anita H. two starts back, he was freshened after failing to defend his Oaklawn title, running third in Hot Springs Apr. 5. The second choice after the 2 1/2-month break, the six-year-old trailed the field through six furlongs, angled wide for the stretch drive and caught Piensa Sonando late for the narrow decision. Western Pride (Way West {Fr}), the 6-5 favorite, set the pace and was between horses on the far turn when he had to steady sharply. He dropped back after that to finish sixth. You had scored big over the Churchill Downs surface May 2, winning the GII Louisville Breeders' Cup H. by 7 3/4 lengths, but couldn't get the job done in her latest. Sent off the 7-5 favorite in the May 17 GII Shuvee H. at Belmont Park, the dark bay set the early pace, but tired to be third in that one-mile event. Bet down to 1-2 to make amends, she pressed So Much More (Chimes Band) through moderate splits, moved to challenge a quarter mile from home and opened it up late, easily holding off the late bid of Printemps.

"[Trainer Bobby Frankel] thought she was training well and this would be one of her better races this year," winning jockey Jerry Bailey said. "I thought I would be on the lead, but that would be depending on what Pat [Day] was going to do with [So Much More]. When he went to the lead, it was easy enough to hold back off of her." Frankel has now compiled a record of seven wins from 13 starts at the current Churchill meet. "All I can say is that they are in the right spots and they are getting great rides from Jerry Bailey," the Hall of Famer said. An easy winner of a Santa Anita allowance test Mar. 12, Santa Catarina gave an excellent account of herself when second in the GI Kentucky Oaks May 2, looming a threat to deep stretch before being swallowed up by Bird Town late. Returned on just two weeks' rest, the Lewis colorbearer caught an off track and a loose-on-the-lead Roar Emotion in the May 16 GII Black-Eyed Susan S., ultimately finishing third, but was hammered down to odds-on favoritism in her return to Southern California. Santa Catarina was allowed to amble along towards the back of the pack before being asked to take up the running with fully five furlongs to go. Despite making good ground into a fast second quarter mile, she was able to sustain her run, collaring Buffythecenterfold turning home before pulling clear. "It really wasn't the plan to be back so far like that," admitted winning jockey Gary Stevens. "She left the gate and didn't even pick the bridle up. Past the three-eighths I called on her and she picked it up nice for me. She went ahead, opened up and won nice." The second longest shot in this field of eight, Awesome Time was forwardly placed just behind quick early fractions of :22 3/5 and :46, took a short lead leaving the backstretch, was engaged from between horses at the eighth pole by GII Arkansas Derby third Christine's Outlaw and just held on for the win. Sand Springs provided her sire with the first of two graded-stakes winners Saturday at Churchill. Third in the grassy GIII Natalma S. last September, she was second in the Green River S. over the Keeneland turf the following month before being pulled up in a Churchill turf allowance Nov. 17. Sidelined off that effort, the dark bay filly had been spectacular in a pair of starts this term, wiring an entry-level turf allowance by 7 1/4 lengths on the opening day of the meet Apr. 26 and adding a 1 3/4-length score over Keiai Sakura (Petionville) and Achnasheen May 21. A generous 9-2 chance to make it three straight, Sand Springs stumbled a bit at the start, but recovered quickly to dictate the pace under a rating hold from jockey Mark Guidry. She raced four wide while opening up on the lead down the backstretch and kicked clear gamely in the stretch to win handily. Favored Personal Legend closed nicely from the back of the pack to complete the exacta. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

The winner of the Real Delight S. over track and distance last season, For Rubies was second in the GIII Duchess S. in Canada and the GIII Safely Kept S. at Pimlico before ending her campaign with a disappointing seventh-place effort behind Sightseek in the GIII Raven Run S. at Keeneland Oct. 9. The bay returned to action with a 4 3/4-length allowance victory at Oaklawn Apr. 11 and was a no-excuses sixth in the Prairie Rose S. in Iowa 15 days later, but bounced back in style with a 5 1/2-length romp through the Keeneland slop May 15. Content to chase pacesetter Raging Fever from second, For Rubies turned up the pressure on the favorite at the three-eighths marker, assumed command for good with a furlong to run and pulled clear. "[Trainer] Lynn [Whiting] had this filly ready," commented winning rider Craig Perret. "We just wanted to keep that filly of Mark Hennig's [Raging Fever] honest. He told me this filly was right, and he was right about that. By keeping Raging Fever honest, and I didn't have to use my filly to do it, I knew my filly would kick in when I asked her." Happy Trails, who became a graded-stakes winner in a weak renewal of the GIII Jersey Derby on Memorial Day, doubled his stakes tally with a solid effort from off the pace. After breaking his maiden for a $30,000 tag, the dark bay won at the $50,000 level at Aqueduct in his first try at a mile Mar. 15, then ran fourth against $75,000 foes May 1 at the Big A. He was entered at Monmouth when the Jersey Derby came off the turf and earned the biggest victory of his career, winning by 2 1/4 lengths in the slop. When the rains washed the Hill Prince to the main track, it was good news for the connections of Happy Trails. The 11-1 shot settled into stride while trailing the field, then began to pick it up on the inside. Jockey Shaun Bridgmohan moved the colt to the outside and he wore down the favorite, previously unbeaten Traffic Chief, on his way to victory. "He didn't get away that great, but Shaun didn't get rattled," said winning trainer Steve Klesaris. "He's what you refer to as a 'one-paced' horse. He doesn't have that brilliant speed, but he will grind you down." Click for the brisnet.com chart. For the video race replay, select: broadband or modem.

 Runspastum lived up to his name, dashing past the early leaders to take the Oceanport H. The race set up perfectly for him. First, it was switched from the turf to the dirt, the surface preferred by the late-running bay. Then the leaders turned the early part of the proceedings into a speed duel, with Balto Star and Saint Verre fighting it out through fractions of :22.80, :45.32 and 1:09.76. Jockey Julian Pimental was biding his time at the back of the pack, finally asking Runspastum for his best as they raced out of the turn. The bay responded, reeling in the front-runners at the sixteenth pole before drawing clear. "[Trainer Alan Goldberg] told me to sit back and wait for our move," Pimental said. "There was a lot of speed in the race and that was good for us. When I asked him, he really took off. He was fighting the whole way down the lane, really game." But while the winner was at his best yesterday afternoon, 3-2 favorite Burning Roma (Rubiano) had an off day. With lightning splitting the clouds in the distance, the dark bay was difficult to load and delayed the start of the race for a couple of minutes. After the break, he settled in fourth down the backstretch and looked poised to make his bid on the final turn, but had nothing left for the final drive and finished fifth, beaten 11 lengths. "He's always a little bad at the gate, but he was a little worse than usual today," trainer Heather Giglio said. "Then he was just flat--he ran a dull race. That didn't look like him at all. We'll just have to go back and see how he is." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

He suffered his only loss to date in the Ascot Graduation Breeders' Cup Oct. 27, but in two starts this year had won the May 11 Presidents H. and the May 25 Hoofprint H. The odds-on favorite for the seventh consecutive time, the Washington-bred colt broke alertly and set a good pace, widened on the lead approaching the stretch and drew off to yet another easy victory. A sextet of Canadian-based rivals take their chances against a talented trio from south of the border this afternoon. The home defense is headed up by Sam-Son homebred Strut The Stage, who makes his first start since winning the GIII Sky Classic H. over a soft Woodbine turf last Oct. 27. In scoring three wins from eight starts a year ago, the chestnut, out of a half sister to Canadian and U.S. champion Chief Bearhart, accounted for Del Mar Show by 2 1/2 lengths in last year's GII Dixie H. The latter will try to exact his revenge today, but struggled home fourth in this year's renewal of the Dixie contested on a soft Pimlico turf course May 17. Recent rains in Toronto could result in an off turf this afternoon. Canada's other hope, Perfect Soul, is still in search of a graded-stakes score, but was an excellent runner-up in the Dixie and is one who would appreciate some cut in the ground.

After impressing on his debut in a Dortmund maiden May 7, he took the step up to stakes company in his stride last time when winning the Listed Grosser Preis der Sparkasse Dortmund May 29. North Lodge, purchased by Baron Helmut von Finck's Gestut Park Wiedingen this week, offers stern opposition. He followed up a Krefeld maiden score May 4 with a fluid success in the Listed Preis der Firma Jungheinrich Gabelstapler at Hannover May 4. Darlan beat Dai Jin by a head in the Listed Jean Harzheim-Rennen at this track last time May 18 and it should be close between that pair again.

DOUBTS OVER SONG

Soviet Song (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) may miss the clash with Russian Rhythm (Kingmambo) in Friday's G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot, for which 14 fillies stood their ground yesterday. The James Fanshawe-trained filly, who trailed the latter when fourth in the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket May 4, reportedly failed to fire in a gallop on Friday. Last year's G1 Fillies' Mile winner was left in the mile contest at yesterday's stage, but may wait for the G2 Falmouth S. at Newmarket July 9. Sir Michael Stoute has left in Chic (GB) (Machiavellian) and Fantasize (GB) (Groom Dancer) as well as Russian Rhythm, while Mick Channon has confirmed last year's G1 Moyglare Stud S. winner Mail The Desert (Ire) (Desert Prince {Ire}).

MAMOOL GOES FOR GOLD

Godolphin will be double-handed in Thursday's G1 Ascot Gold Cup with Mamool (Ire) (In the Wings {GB}) and Fight Your Corner (GB) (Muhtarram). That duo headed an entry of 13 remaining in the 2 1/2-mile showcase, which also included the Aidan O'Brien-trained Black Sam Bellamy (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Paul Cole-trained Mr Dinos (Ire) (Desert King {Ire}). Godolphin have won the marathon four times since 1996. Jockey Frankie Dettori will partner Mamool, who took the G2 Yorkshire Cup at York last time May 15. "I have a feeling the best trip for Mamool is two miles," trainer Saeed bin Suroor commented. "If he relaxes in the race and the pace is not too fast he has a great chance. On pedigree, Fight Your Corner should stay and he is working well."

★ NEW YORK ★

SCHWARTZ RETORTS Responding to a blistering report issued by New York State Attorney General Eliot Spitzer that concluded the state should consider eliminating the New York Racing Association's control of Aqueduct, Belmont and Saratoga, NYRA Chairman Barry Schwartz fired back yesterday, contending that the Attorney General's report was "slanderous" and "short on the truth and long on fiction." In Saturday's editions, the New York Times revealed the contents of a 64-page report by Spitzer that examined "the practices and culture of the nonprofit corporation." Much of the report dealt with previously released charges that mutuel clerks were guilty of money laundering, tax evasion and cheating inexperienced bettors, but blamed NYRA management for turning a blind eye to the problems. "What is appalling about the NYRA is that repeated and overwhelming evidence of criminal activity did not spur this management to fundamentally change its behavior," Spitzer told the Times. "It is now time to begin anew and put in place an entirely different structure to oversee racetracks in New York." In a prepared statement, Schwartz took the offensive, claiming that NYRA cooperated with the investigation of the rogue mutuel clerks and was "diligent in its operations and consistently one step ahead of would-be criminals who attempted to use the Association for their own illicit profit." Schwartz also stated that Spitzer's report was a waste of taxpayer money. "Unfortunately, the real victims of the report are the taxpayers and citizens of New York, who have to foot the bill for this three-year debacle and who will now suffer the likely residual injury of less pari-mutuel taxes from a racing industry that has been so needlessly maligned. It appears to me that, after spending an outrageous amount of time and resources for little or no return, the Attorney General tried to salvage his debacle by using his bully pulpit to attack the credibility and integrity of NYRA's President and COO, Terence Meyocks," he said. Spitzer's report was critical of Meyocks expense account practices, claiming that he charged more than $140,000 annually to his NYRA-issued credit card. The Attorney General's office has no authority to revoke NYRA's charter to run its three racetracks, but has recommended that the Governor and the state legislature take action.

The bay colt lost his unbeaten record following the Iroquois when fifth in the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S., the lone off-the-board finish of his career. He rebounded to take three straight stakes at Turfway, including the John Battaglia Memorial S. Mar. 1, before running third in the GII Lane's End S. Mar. 22. After chasing Midas Eyes all the way around the track when second in the GIII Derby Trial S. Making his first career start, Third Day was led into the winner's circle of the Victoria S. following the disqualification of Gemini Dream (Ameri Valay). That colt jumped out to set the pace, but came in at the 3/8-pole and clipped heels with 3-5 Stormthebarricade (Kiridashi), causing that colt to fall. Gemini Dream opened up a sizeable advantage and crossed the line first. Third Day avoided the fallen favorite and finished well up the inside to be a clear second. The stewards ruled that Gemini Dream would be disqualified and placed last. Stormthebarricade walked back to the barn under his own power, while his jockey, Emile Ramsammy, was taken to the hospital for observation.

McCOY AWARDED MBE

Tony McCoy has been awarded an MBE in the Queen's Birthday Honours List. The multiple record-breaking national hunt jockey reached a landmark during the 2001-2 season when partnering 289 winners, surpassing Sir Gordon Richards' long-standing record of 269. Last August he became the winningmost jumps jockey of all time as he rode his 1,699th winner at Uttoxeter. "Obviously it's a great honour to be recognised in this way," McCoy told PA Sport yesterday. "But I feel it's not just an honour for me, but an honour for the whole of jump racing."

505 CATALOGUED FOR TATTERSALLS JULY

Tattersalls has announced that 505 lots have been catalogued for the July Sale, which will take place July 8-10. Both Flat and National Hunt horses in training will be offered in addition to breeding stock. There will be consignments from Ballydoyle, Cheveley Park Stud, Darley, Gainsborough Stud Management, Juddmonte Farms and Shadwell Estates. "Last year's record-breaking July Sale demonstrated how much this Sale has grown in stature in recent years, and this is another very solid commercial catalogue," said Edmond Mahony, Tattersalls chairman. "Significant consignments from the major owner/breeders have given the catalogue great strength in depth, and enormous global appeal."

ACCOLADE EARNS ENTRY

Marcus Tregoning yesterday supplemented High Accolade (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}) to next Friday's G2 King Edward VII S. Connections were prompted to pay the £12,000 fee after the colt's impressive success in the Listed Predominate S. at Goodwood last time May 20. "He is stepping up in class, but I think he's coming on and progressing and he worked extremely well this morning," Tregoning said Friday. "He's still learning with each race and I think he's still got a bit left, so I think he'll run very well."

AUSTRALASIA

HENNESSY BACK ON THE SHUTTLE Coolmore Australia has announced that Hennessy (Storm Cat) will return for the 2003 breeding season and will stand for A$30,250 (GST included). The news comes on the heels of Australian Group 1 victories by Half Hennessy (Aus) and Grand Armee (Aus). From his foals of 2000, the chestnut has sired Group 3 winners Diamond Dash (Aus) and Living Spirit (Aus). Hennessy did not make the trip to Australia last year.

RNA FOR LOVELY JUBLY Multiple Group 1-winning Lovely Jubly (Aus) (Lion Hunter {Aus}) was the star attraction at Friday's Magic Millions June Monthly Sale, but the three-year-old, whose reserve price was A$1,000,000, was passed in at A$720,000. That wasn't indicative of the rest of the sale, however, as the clearance rate was 86.81 percent. In total, 125 of the 144 lots offered sold for an aggregate of A$888,455 and an average of A$7,108. "The clearance was terrific today," said David Chester, managing director of Magic Millions. "We had a tremendous crowd on hand and the horses presented were well received."
