EASY RHYTHM

Russian Rhythm (Kingmambo) bids to become the first filly since One in a Million (GB) in 1979 to follow up success in the G1 1000 Guineas with Royal Ascot glory in today's G1 Coronation S. That daunting statistic is the only thing to dent enthusiasm, but it is hard to imagine anything but the Cheveley Park livery being carried to victory in this contest. Russian Rhythm made an immediate impact at two, winning a Newmarket maiden in smooth fashion before beating subsequent G2 Rockfel S. winner Luvah Girl (GB) in the G3 Princess Margaret S. at Ascot a month later. Sent off a warm order in the G2 Lowther S. at York in August, she met heavy traffic, but managed to pull herself out of trouble with her excellent acceleration to win. Only the flying filly Airwave (GB) has had her measure so far and the initial disappointment over her 1 1/2-length second to that filly in the G1 Cheveley Park S. at Newmarket in October was misplaced judged on the winner's remarkable reappearance this term. Despite a distinct lack of sparkle in her work before the Newmarket Classic May 4, Russian Rhythm showed her trademark turn of foot to beat Six Perfections (Fr) by 1 1/2 lengths, with Soviet Song (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) over four lengths back in fourth. It is not impossible that the latter has improved off that run as connections had been wracked with the equine flu and felt she needed more time. She had looked smart when winning the Listed Sweet Solera S. at Newmarket in August and underlined that impression when beating subsequent G1 Epsom Oaks winner Casual Look by 1 1/2 lengths in the G1 Fillies' Mile at Ascot in September. Nevertheless, Sir Michael Stoute's charge has reportedly thrived since her last run and should provide her conditioner with his fourth renewal after the exploits of Sonic Lady, Milligram (GB) and Cheveley Park's Exclusive (GB). Opposition from elsewhere seems weak, with Godolphin's Gonfilia (Ger) (Big Shuffle) on a recovery mission having finished 15 lengths adrift of Russian Rhythm in the 1000 Guineas.

GOLD CUP VICTORY FOR MR DINOS

Kieren Fallon, riding 3-1 second favorite Mr Dinos (Ire) (Desert King {Ire}), made yesterday's G1 Gold Cup at Royal Ascot a war of attrition and duly annihilated a class field to win the 2 1/2-mile event by six lengths. Stalking the veteran Persian Punch (Ire) (Persian Heights {GB}) throughout the contest, the champion jockey asked his mount to stretch inside the final mile and he responded to catch the old-timer on the turn into the straight. Pulling further clear with distance, he was never in danger as Persian Punch gamely clutched to the runner's-up honors on his seventh attempt at this marathon.

Mr Dinos Getty Images

"It just felt to me as if we weren't going very quick, so I thought I'd better use his stamina and head off," Fallon commented. "He's traveled well all the way, even though he's lazy, and when I switched him on in the straight he found another gear which is the sign of a good horse." Cont. p. 2

Mr Dinos (Ire) (Desert King {Ire}) built up to yesterday's 2 1/2-mile extreme test gradually with a progressive sophomore campaign, which began to blossom with a half-length second to Mamool (Ire) (In the Wings {GB}) in the G3 Queen's Vase here 12 months ago. He was fifth in the G1 St Leger at Doncaster in September, but relished the extra trip of the G1 Prix Royal-Oak (French St Leger) to win that Classic at Longchamp in October. Returning to win the G2 Bonusprint Henry II S. at Sandown in impressive fashion last time May 26, he had answered every question, but ground fears remained for the trainer.

But What About the Ground?

"You get very wound up about the ground and you're worried you might write the horse off," trainer Paul Cole said. "He could easily have not gone on it and then you'd have felt dreadful. I've never had a runner in the Gold Cup, but it's always been a race I wanted to win. We've had a terrible six weeks with the virus and we isolated him and have taken every single move to stop him getting it. I knew he'd stay and my only worry was the ground, but you look for problems, really." Jeff Smith, proud owner and breeder of Persian Punch (Ire) (Persian Heights {GB}), said of the gallant runner-up, "The longevity of a horse like this is astonishing and I'm enormously proud. I'm pretty certain that this is his 90th mile of racing." Click here for the brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. For the racingpost.co.uk chart, click here.

 Spanish Sun had missed the Classics due to a setback, but bounced back to take this contest after a 269-day absence from the track. With just a Kempton maiden score in September to her name, she belied her inexperience to deny Ocean Silk in a pulsating finish. Held up towards the rear by jockey Richard Hughes off the sensible early gallop, she was asked to quicken up the inside in the straight and delivered the necessary acceleration to challenge Mezzo Soprano and jockey Frankie Dettori inside the final quarter. Heading that rival with 100 yards remaining, she had enough in reserve to hold the late thrust of Ocean Silk and jockey Jimmy Fortune in a frantic finish. "The ground was quick enough for her and she changed her legs very abruptly at the furlong marker," commented trainer Sir Michael Stoute, who took this in 1990 with Hellenic (GB) and with Sally Brown (GB) in 1985. "The plan was to ride her more handy, but she didn't jump well, and, as she is a big, long-striding filly, she wasn't comfortable back there at that pace. She's had a few niggles and the Epsom Oaks had been the original plan, but we walk a bit of a tightrope with this filly. She's got a lot of talent." Hughes added, "When I really got stuck into her she hit one or two of those ridges wrong and she just came back on to me a little bit. When I went past Frankie I nearly put my stick down because she had done enough, but just as I got by she blew up on me, so I just needed to keep going and keep the revs up."

Russian Valour continued the remarkable run of Mark Johnston-trained juveniles at the Royal meeting as he made all to scoop the third consecutive contest for the Middleham-based conditioner. Stepping up off errant displays when runner-up in a Windsor conditions event May 19 and when successful in the Listed National S. at Sandown last time May 19, his tendency to hang was absent as he ran "straight as a gun barrel," according to jockey Kevin Darley. Breaking best of all, the imposing colt grabbed the rail advantage just as stable companion Attraction (GB) had in Wednesday's G3 Queen Mary S. Challenged by Old Deuteronomy (Storm Cat) past halfway, he had that rival struggling before the 8-13 favorite Kheleyf was delivered wide by Frankie Dettori. That colt's threat proved fleeting, however, as Russian Valour quickened again to assert. "He has so much early pace and we got the rail, which really helped him," Darley said. "He hasn't got there yet and keeps a bit up his sleeve--he's a typical Mark Johnston horse in that you wouldn't know what's left in the tank, but he's done everything right." Johnston added, "This fellow looked today that he'll get six even though he's got so much speed." For the racingpost.co.uk chart, click here.

Johnny Murtagh was forced to miss Wednesday's action after a fall on opening day, but came back in style to guide Persian Majesty to success in a thrilling finale to this contest. Held up in last place off the fast early tempo, that proved the best place to be as the front-runners battled each other into submission. Sweeping widest of all in the straight, he struck the front passing the quarter-mile marker before quickening into a decisive advantage over Foodbroker Founder. "It was great to get back today and this horse was quite green," Murtagh explained. "I probably hit the front too soon and he's looking at the crowd and ducking away from my whip, but he's done it well. I'd say he's a horse that's going to improve quite a bit and he's got a big future. I'm feeling great now!" Like the G2 Ribblesdale S. winner Spanish Sun earlier in the afternoon, Persian Majesty was overcoming a lengthy absence and relative inexperience, having had the one outing when winning a Newmarket maiden 244 days previously. Fantastic Love continued the rich vein of form of the Mark Johnston team at the Royal meeting with an impressive burst of acceleration to come from last to first here. Dwelling at the back under Keith Dalglish throughout the furious opening exchanges, the chestnut was forced wide in the straight as the field packed up behind the tiring front-runners. Quickening brilliantly down the outside, he was in front at the furlong marker and battled gamely to hold Salsalino in the drive to the line. "I can only think that they've gone really, really fast," Johnston commented. "I've been telling Keith to stick to the inside rail and try and be in a good spot coming round the last turn and it couldn't have gone more wrong, but he's won. He's a nice, progressive horse by a class sire who is really going places--his horses should be progressive and get better with time." Fantastic Love broke his maiden at Hamilton Apr. 28 before meeting serious trouble in running when runner-up behind Highland Games (Ire) (Singspiel {Ire}) in a conditions event at Windsor May 31. For the racingpost.co.uk chart, click here

New Seeker showed wayward tendencies in a handicap at Newmarket May 2, but still had the raw ability to come home first. He hung badly and was reportedly unridable in the straight when third in a similar event at York last time May 13, but was straight and direct in this contest. Left with only a company of four on the far side as the majority of those drawn high led an exodus across to the stands' rail, jockey Jamie Spencer used New Seeker's speed to grab the rail advantage and the colt quickened clear inside the final quarter. Despite the late rattle of Helm Bank and Court Masterpiece on the stands' rail, he had done enough to hold on to a fast-diminishing advantage in the final strides. For the racingpost.co.uk chart, click here.

John Dunlop has endured a barren spell in this contest since Love the Groom landed the spoils for Arundel in 1987, but holds the aces this time with Big Bad Bob. Having won four on the bounce at two, concluding with an impressive performance in the Listed Autumn S. at Ascot in October, he was a short-priced favorite to continue that run on his return in the Listed Dee S. at Chester May 8. He looked booked to do so when leaving Private Charter for dead only to witness Kris Kin sweeping past in the straight and on to a two-length success. While connections were downhearted afterwards, the winner's subsequent Epsom Derby victory brought some cheer and expectation that Big Bad Bob will take all the beating here. High Accolade was supplemented to this contest last week after missing the Epsom Classic. He had previously beaten Epsom also-ran Unigold in the Listed Predominate S. at Goodwood May 20 and possesses a smart turn of acceleration. Delsarte is a lightly raced and progressive type for a stable that is firing at present. He overcame a disadvantageous draw to win a Leicester maiden Apr. 26 before powering to success in the Listed Newmarket S. May 3 and could be anything. Aidan O'Brien is represented by Epsom Derby disappointment Alberto Giacometti, who has claims if returning to the form of his third-placing behind subsequent G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby) first and second Dalakhani (Ire) and Super Celebre (Fr) in the G1 Prix Lupin at Longchamp May 11.

Arundel caught the eye when finishing runner-up in a Leopardstown maiden at the end of October and beat several subsequent winners in a 10-furlong Curragh maiden on his return Apr. 6. His sister Luna Sacra (Fr) improved with extra distance and this colt from a Jean-Luc Lagardere family should relish the two miles of this contest. Sir Michael Stoute collected this prize three years ago with Dalampour (Ire) and saddles that colt's half brother Dalaram in a bid to follow up. He took a while to break his maiden, but after doing so at Brighton May 23 put up an improved performance to take a competitive handicap at Haydock last time June 7. Godolphin won this 12 months ago with Mamool (Ire) and are represented by New South Wales this time. Touted as the operation's Epsom Derby hope in the spring, he did not show the requisite pace when sixth behind Dalakhani (Ire) in the G1 Prix Lupin at Longchamp May 11 and will be suited by this step up in trip.

KING EDWARD VII S.
First Run: 1834

Formerly known as the Ascot Derby Stakes, this race regularly featured horses of both sexes that had competed in the middle-distance Classics. First run as the King Edward VII Stakes in 1926 and restricted to three-year-old colts and geldings only, this race still continues to attract horses that have competed in the Derby at Epsom.

ROYAL ASCOT

QUEEN'S VASE
First Run: 1838

Venue: Ascot, Berkshire, England
Distance: 2 miles
Status: Group 3 for 3 year olds

Named after Queen Victoria, this race became the King's Vase in 1903 and reverted to its original name of the Queen's Vase on the succession of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II. Run over two miles, this Group Three contest provides a thorough test of stamina for three year olds and winners of this race often go on to compete in the Gold Cup in future years.

Tolzey was beaten 2½ lengths by Wednesday's G3 Queen Mary S. winner Attraction (GB) in the Listed Hilary Needler Trophy at Beverley last time June 4, but it is interesting that stable jockey Steve Drowne has opted for Silca's Gift. She opened her account at the first time of asking in a Windsor maiden May 19 and her family has Royal Ascot in its blood as her granddam On Tiptoes (GB) took the Queen Mary in 1990. Lucayan Beauty was beaten ¾ of a length by the smart Enford Princess (GB) in a conditions event at Windsor last time May 31 and that form was boosted by the subsequent win of the third-placed Firebelly (GB).

GRADED STAKES NOTE...Saturday's Oceanport H. at Monmouth Park, originally scheduled as a Grade III event, was automatically downgraded when the race came off the turf. The American Graded Stakes Committee has reinstated its Grade III status. The Sands Point S., run Sunday at Belmont, also automatically lost its Grade III status when the race came off the turf. The American Graded Stakes Committee has chosen not to reinstate its graded status.

Connections of Akshar decided to forego a crack at Wednesday's Royal Hunt Cup, but the evidence of that race suggests he would have won. He beat the Hunt Cup winner Macademia (Ire) by a neck in a Goodwood conditions race May 29 before stepping up successfully to 10 furlongs to take an Epsom handicap last time June 6. He is a certain stakes performer off a low weight in a handicap here and will take the world of beating. Last year's Listed Strensall S. winner Binary File was attempting to give subsequent G1 Queen Anne S. winner Dubai Destination 10 pounds and, not surprisingly, came off second-best in a conditions event at Nottingham last time June 4. He has to give a stone to Akshar here and that may prove beyond him.

Carnival Dancer was transferred to Amanda Perrett's Pulborough base at the suggestion of Sir Michael Stoute, who felt that a change of scene might revitalise the talented horse. That transition seems to have sparked some of the old enthusiasm that saw him win the G3 Scottish Classic at Ayr two years ago. He started off his five-year-old campaign by finishing fifth in the G3 Gordon Richards S. at Sandown Apr. 26, but relished the softer conditions when registering a fluent Newmarket conditions score May 3. Last time he finished third behind Falbrav (Ire) in the G1 Prix d'Ispahan at this track May 18 and again displayed his liking for the track and ground conditions under Olivier Peslier here. Stalking the early pacesetter Victorian Order, he needed racing room in the straight as Christophe Soumillon brought Naheef to the fore, but when the gap came he quickened impressively to head that rival with 75 yards remaining and asserted under a hand ride. "I told Olivier to get as much cover as he could and leave it late as he tends to pull himself up in front," the trainer's husband Mark explained. "It was perfectly timed. He loves soft ground, but today it was nice good, safe ground so he was okay. He could return to France to get those conditions." Click here for the racingpost.co.uk chart.

SKY MESA WILL STAND AT THREE CHIMNEYS

Sky Mesa (Pulpit--Caress, by Storm Cat), unbeaten in three starts, will stand at Three Chimneys Farm upon his retirement from racing. The Midway, Kentucky Farm will also acquire an interest in the John Oxley-owned bay. "We don't plan to retire him until at least the end of this year," Oxley said. "This is a really special colt, and there has been tremendous interest in him, so I wanted to go ahead and make the commitment to [Three Chimneys owner] Robert [Clay] and insure that Sky Mesa will stand at an outstanding farm." Sky Mesa won last year's GI Hopeful S. and GII Lane's End Breeders' Futurity. He was scratched the day before last fall's Breeders' Cup with a wrenched ankle. The three-year-old colt is currently training towards his sophomore debut in the GII Dwyer S. at Belmont Park on July 6, with Monmouth Park's GI Haskell Invitational and Saratoga's GI Travers S. as potential summer targets. "Sky Mesa has all the ingredients to make a very important sire," Clay said. "We feel he can influence the breed and he has been our pick of the crop since his win in the Hopeful last August. The question of whether or not we syndicate the horse and his stud fee will be decided down the road."

BAZE FAVORED IN JOCKEY CHAMPIONSHIP

Russell Baze has been installed the 4-1 morning-line favorite for Friday night's seventh annual National Thoroughbred Racing Association's All-Star Jockey Championship at Lone Star Park. Post positions and riding assignments for the four-race championship were drawn randomly on Wednesday, with horses divided into four classes of contenders, designated A, B, C, or D, according to track handicappers' rankings. Each rider gets one mount from each group during the competition. The 9-2 second choice on the morning line set by Lone Star Park Racing Information Specialist Rick Lee is 22-year-old Ryan Fogelsonger. Of the first two favorites in the 12-jockey field, Lee explained, "They were the only two with three horses that are really live. Others have two, but these guys have three that are major players, so that's why they got the edge." Completing the field is Robby Albarado (15-1), Jorge Chavez (15-1), Eddie Martin, Jr (8-1), Richard Migliore (8-1), Edgar Prado (5-1), Jose Santos (15-1), Shane Sellers (12-1), Mike Smith (10-1), Alex Solis (15-1) and Pat Valenzuela (8-1). First post for the 10-race card is at 6:35 p.m. CDT and the jockeys' championship begins with race four with an approximate post time of 8:15 p.m.

★ NEW YORK ★

Danuta Returns to Action:

Godolphin's Danuta (Sunday Silence), winner of a pair of valuable prestige races over the winter in Dubai, resurfaces in this afternoon's eighth race at Belmont Park. One of only six runners for her sire in this country, the three-year-old filly was second to this year's GIII La Troienne S. winner Final Round in a Saratoga maiden last August before graduating by three lengths at Belmont Sept. 15. Rested off that effort, she came back to defeat stablemate Ashraaf in the Feb. 20 Moonshell Mile and followed up with a 4 3/4-length score in the Apr. 3 UAE Oaks. Now in the care of trainer Tom Albertrani, the bay gets the services of Jerry Bailey in the one-mile allowance test.

Ghostzapper Looks To Get Back on Track:

Ghostzapper (Awesome Again), an eye-catching nine-length maiden winner at Hollywood Park last November, makes his three-year-old debut in this afternoon's seventh race at Belmont Park. A half brother to crack sprinter City Zip, the Stronach-homebred colt is making his first start since finishing a distant fourth as the odds-on favorite at Santa Anita Dec. 26. The winner of that entry-level allowance was subsequent graded stakes winner Scrimshaw. Eye of the Tiger, three lengths ahead of Ghostzapper in third at Santa Anita, was second in the Lexington before finishing a good fifth in the Kentucky Derby. Conditioned by Bobby Frankel, the colt has trained well since his arrival in mid-May and will be ridden today by Javier Castellano.

Riding Center Receives Grant:

The New York Therapeutic Riding Center recently received a grant of $5,000 from the Thoroughbred Charities of America. The money will be used to further develop the center's six-year-old Equestria program, which provides therapeutic horseback riding for people with disabilities in New York City. The Advisory Board of the New York Therapeutic Riding Center includes Jerry Bailey, Angel Cordero, Jr., Julie Krone, Mary Tyler Moore, Itzhak Perlman, Martin Sheen, and Ron Turcotte.

Margins: 2 3/4, 1HF, 1. Odds: 2.20, 2.60, 17.60.

Mike's Classic has really turned the corner since the addition of Lasix and blinkers four starts back. A 1 1/4-length winner at Gulfstream Mar. 16, the chestnut was third in Hallandale Apr. 3 before celebrating his return to New York with a 1 3/4-length tally at Aqueduct Apr. 23. The gelding, most recently a head second in Delaware allowance company May 7, was the slight favorite to score his first Belmont victory. The Florida-bred pressed the early pace of GSW Sunray Spirit from the outside, put that one away at the head of the stretch, opened daylight and then held sway late.

8th-BEL, $47,000, Alw, NW2X, 3yo/up, f/m, 7f, 1:22 2/5, sy.

DANCEINTHESTREETS (f, 3, Citidancer--Twenty Second Ave, by Meadowlake), claimed for $35,000 out of a 5 1/4-length score at Aqueduct Mar. 27, was haltered for $50,000 out of a 3 1/2-length victory at the Big A Apr. 16 and was coming into this off a gate-to-wire score versus first-level allowance company at Belmont May 18. Gunning for the four-bagger, the $13,000 KEEJAN yearling and $40,000 FTMMAY juvenile purchase cut out a fast pace while well in hand, kicked clear turning for home and charged under the wire a four-length victor as the 2-1 second choice. Lifetime Record: 10-6-1-1, $145,880.

The stats are in on the first 6 horses we purchased for John & Susan Moore:

Iron Deputy (GSW, $313,900)..Regal Sanction (GSW, $388,223)...Voodoo (G1SP, $348,646).. Madame X Ski (SW, $165,410)...Pocus Hocus (GSP, $142,230)..Colette (winner, $25,800)...

That's 6 winners, 5 stakes horses, 3 SWs, 2 GSWs, and, with $1,384,199 earned from a group purchase price of $670,000, an ROI of 206%.

POINTS WEST (f, 3, West By West--Megaroux {GSP, $117,797}, by Megaturn) finished off the board in a pair of maiden claiming events over the winter and early spring at Gulfstream Park, but showed improvement in her next start, finishing a good second versus maiden special weight company with blinkers added at this track May 17. The bay completed the exacta for a second straight time in an off-the-turf maiden June 8, but was dismissed at 7-1 despite the recent consistency. Outrun early, the homebred filly advanced on the far turn, came wide for the drive and pulled away in the final furlong to win by 2 1/2 lengths from Luminance (Deputy Minister). The $35,000 KEESEP yearling and $60,000 FTFEB juvenile purchase most recently set the pace before settling for third in the May 26 USA S. over a soft Lone Star turf and was the 3-5 chalk on the drop into much softer competition. Returning to the dirt for this, the dark bay settled within easy striking distance for the opening half mile, went up after Golden Spur (Touch Gold) midway on the turn and sped away from that rival to win by an impressive 6 1/2 lengths. Ten Most Wanted Works, Headed For Swaps:

Ten Most Wanted (Deputy Commander) breezed an easy half mile yesterday morning in :48 3/5 at Hollywood Park, his first work since his runner-up finish in the GI Belmont S. June 7. "We wanted him to go in about :49," trainer Wally Dollase commented. "He's doing really well. He hasn't missed a beat since the Belmont." The conditioner confirmed that the colt would make his next appearance in the GII Swaps S. at Hollywood July 13, effectively ruling out a possible rematch with Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner Funny Cide in the GI Haskell Invitational H. in early August. "His main goal is the [GI] Travers S. [at Saratoga Aug. 23] and we think that running in the Swaps is in his best interests."

Giuliani to Deliver Saratoga Report:

Giuliani Partners, led by former New York City mayor Rudolph Giuliani, will present a report on the integrity of electronic wagering in the racing industry on Aug. 17 at The Jockey Club's 51st annual Round Table Conference on Matters Pertaining to Racing in Saratoga Springs, NY. Giuliani Partners and Ernst & Young were retained last fall by the Wagering Integrity Alliance, which was formed by the National Thoroughbred Racing Association in the wake of last year's Breeders' Cup Pick 6 scandal. Giuliani Partners works with major corporations to enhance and secure their knowledge, financial and physical assets, their people and their brand. "I am encouraged by the proactive approach the industry and the NTRA is taking to ensure that wagering in the Thoroughbred industry is state of the art and secure," Giuliani said. "Under the direction of the NTRA, the industry has spent months reviewing all aspects of electronic wagering in America. The commitment to develop concrete safeguards will instill confidence that wagers are handled in a secure manner." The Round Table Conference will be held at the Gideon Putnam Hotel and Conference Center.
