FEEL THE BEAT

Russian Rhythm (Kingmambo) used her "raw power" to break the hoodoo of 1000 Guineas winners in the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot, beating arch-rival Soviet Song (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) by 1 1/2 lengths as the 4-7 market leader yesterday. Always traveling strongly under Kieren Fallon as the partnership stalked the reasonable tempo set by Mail the Desert (Ire) (Desert Prince {Ire}), she was pulled out to launch her challenge at the top the straight.

Quickening to the front at the quarter-mile marker, she was chased all the way to the line by Soviet Song and Oscar Urbina but was always holding that duo as they pulled away from the game third. "This is the one I've been looking forward to riding all week," Fallon explained. (Coronation S. cont. p2)

SHORT, BUT SWEET FIELD FOR PHIPPS

They say that good things come in small packages. This afternoon's G1 Ogden Phipps H. at Belmont Park is short on quantity, but high on quality, as Take Charge Lady (Dehere), Sightseek (Distant View) and Mandy's Gold (Gilded Time) each sports Grade I-winning credentials. The former, owned by the Select Stable of Jerry and Faye Bach, has made just one appearance this term, but it was a doozy. The attractive bay gave Horse of the Year Azeri all she could handle in the G1 Apple Blossom H. at Oaklawn Park Apr. 5, leading every step before being run down by the champ in the final jump. A foot injury has kept last year's G1 Spinster S. winner away since then, but trainer Ken McPeek hopes the ship has been righted. "It has been a long process," the conditioner commented. "It was a bad bruise and then it abscessed so we had to wait." He added, "She runs good off the layoff and she likes the mud." Juddmonte Farms' Sightseek got her Grade I in the seven-furlong Humana Distaff H. on Derby Day. The half to Tates Creek finished runner-up in three California stakes over the winter prior her Churchill venture. The threat of an off track this afternoon throws trainer Bobby Frankel a curve ball. "Rain until Sunday," he said. "I think she likes the tracks out here better, at least when they're dry anyway." Mandy's Gold, winner of the G1 Ruffian S. over track and trip last Sept. 14, was third in the Apple Blossom and comes in off a victory over Summer Colony in the GIII Pimlico BC Distaff H. May 16.

Don't Know Much About...

Russian Rhythm had history against her; One in a Million (GB) was the last to add this race to Newmarket Classic glory in 1979, but connections had little to fear in yesterday's race. "We didn't go very quick--just a nice, sensible gallop--and a stronger gallop will suit her," winning jockey Kieren Fallon explained. "She's come good and picked up when Soviet Song has come to me. I'd have no doubt she'll stay further." Russian Rhythm's preparation before the 1000 Guineas last time May 4 was the subject of intense scrutiny and she was allowed to drift up to 12-1, despite her outstanding juvenile record, which included successes in the G3 Princess Margaret S. at Ascot in July, the G2 Lowther S. at York the following month and a runner-up placing behind Airwave (GB) in the G1 Cheveley Park S. at Newmarket in October. Her 1 1/2-length defeat of Six Perfections (Fr) at Newmarket, with Soviet Song back in fourth, silenced her doubters there. "She's a very special filly, as a physical specimen," commented Sir Michael Stoute, collecting his fourth renewal. "It is a relief to have got today over because the record of Guineas winners in this race isn't very good. It's gone very smoothly since Newmarket and the second is a very good filly. I would be tempted not to go further than a mile."

No Disgrace in Finishing Second...

Trainer James Fanshawe said of Soviet Song, "You never like to get beaten, but I am absolutely thrilled that she has run so well. Hopefully she has a good season ahead of her and we have the added advantage of knowing she handles soft ground, so we can look forward to the autumn."

BULKY FIELD SEEKING ASCOT JUBILATION

With a huge field of 22 assembled for today's G1 Golden Jubilee S. at Royal Ascot, jockey Dane O'Neill faces the task of threading Airwave (GB) (Air Express {Ire}) through the eye of a needle. The three-year-old filly is a brilliant sprinter, as she proved when beating Russian Rhythm in the G1 Cheveley Park S. at Newmarket in October and when defying a penalty to win the G2 Tripleprint Temple S. on her return at Sandown May 26. Nevertheless, she betrayed a tendency to dwell in the stalls there before proceeding to pick up her rivals with ease. That generosity gives cause for concern as her rivals will not be stopping up the Ascot straight and her usually favorable low draw may cause O'Neill to pray for gaps or come wide around the wall in front. Choisir (Aus) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) blazed the trail to beat Acclamation (GB) by a comfortable one-length margin in Tuesday's G2 King's Stand S. at this meeting but faces a hard task from the 20 hole. On form he may struggle to contain Airwave, who thrashed Acclamation on worse terms than weight for age at Sandown last time. Defending champ Malhub (Kingmambo) was done no favors by the draw last year, but breaks from stall two on the stands' rail this time. After beating Danehurst (GB) (Danehill) and Three Points (GB) (Bering {GB}) in this 12 months ago, he finished runner-up in both the G1 Nunthorpe S. at York in August and the G1 Haydock Sprint Cup the following month. Morluc (Housebuster) has the advantage of the one hole and Gary Stevens, who has already scored a winner at this meeting. Choisir demonstrated the ability of an international performer to get first run on the slower-starting Europeans and it may be that Stevens can get to the front early and use his mount's speed to stay there. (Golden Jubilee field p5)

High Accolade justified the £12,000 supplementary paid by connections last week to register his second stakes score in impressive fashion. Having won a conditions race at Bath May 6, conditioner Marcus Tregoning made the decision to step the colt up in class and he duly won the Listed Predominate S. at Goodwood May 20. Showing fine acceleration that day, he was considered too inexperienced for the extreme test of the Epsom Derby and was kept back for this contest. Settled towards the rear off the suicidal early pace set by Big Bad Bob (Ire) (Bob Back), he had to be kept up to his work to keep in contention on the run to the final turn but he continued to respond to close in deep stretch. Quickening emphatically to pass Delsarte with 200 yards remaining, he used his finest weapon to secure the victory in the closing stages. "I think he's still a bit green," Tregoning commented. "He's come on so much for each race that you wonder how far he might go. To get the mile and a half here you have to stay seriously and he was going away at the finish so I wouldn't rule out putting him in a race like the G1 St Leger [at Doncaster Sept. 13]." Shanty Star made it number five this week for trainer Mark Johnston, overcoming trouble in running to take this competitive marathon. Having beaten subsequent G1 Epsom Oaks fourth Inchberry (GB) in a conditions event at Catterick Apr. 23, the imposing grey finished third behind Franklins Gardens (GB) in the G3 Lingfield Derby Trial May 10. Here he raced in third throughout the early stages but was short of room in the straight as Singleton and Richard Quinn attempted to keep him penned in. Not to be denied, the powerhouse was extracted and when in the clear lengthened to wear down that rival with 250 yards remaining before showing the grit that characterises the Johnston clan. "It was horrible to watch," the trainer's wife Dierdre commented. "He's a big-striding horse who takes time to get going and he sat there with nowhere to go. As ever, Kevin [Darley] was fantastic and gave him the time to manoeuvre out." Connections are considering a campaign geared towards the G1 Ascot Gold Cup back at this meeting next June.

Silca's Gift led home a Mick Channon one-two as she manhandled this field to remain unbeaten. Having taken a Windsor maiden on her debut May 19, she emulated her granddam On Tiptoes (GB), who took the Queen Mary in 1990, by winning at this prestigious meeting. Held up in mid-division by Steve Drowne throughout the early stages, she found the split inside the final quarter and quickened past her stablemate for the easy win. "She's done it very nicely and she'll be a nice filly for the future," Drowne commented. "They had worked together at home and there wasn't a lot in it, but Silca's Gift is a fast-improving filly and there's a lot to come from her yet." Click here for the racingpost.co.uk chart.

In Time's Eye landed a huge gamble from 16-1 to 5-1 to provide the first Irish winner at the Royal meeting. His portfolio boasted form far above the average handicapper, having finished runner-up to High Chaparral (Ire) in the G3 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial last May and was most recently fourth in the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup at The Curragh May 25. Settled in a stalking position by Pat Smullen throughout the early stages, he responded to grab the lead with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining before being driven out to hold the late thrust of Persian Lightning in the closing stages. "I thought if I was to have a winner this week it was going to be him," Smullen explained. "We have big plans for him for the rest of the year and he had to win today to justify those. He's a nice horse with a big future."

Attache is developing into a top-class handicapper and he came of age by defying top weight and a high draw in this cavalry charge. After taking a competitive seven-furlong handicap at Newmarket Apr. 16, he finished fifth in a similar event dropped to six back at the track May 4, before filling the same spot in the Listed John of Gaunt S. at Haydock June 7. Settled in a stalking role by Philip Robinson, he hit the front with 400 yards remaining and maintained the relentless gallop to pull clear of his rivals on that side as Gary Stevens galvanised Hurricane Floyd on the stands' rail. Highest escapes a penalty after finishing a half-length runner-up to Warrsan (Ire) in the G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom June 6. That may prove decisive as the improving four-year-old bids to provide Godolphin with their second renewal of this contest. Previously Highest had finished third behind his Epsom conqueror in the G2 Jockey Club S. at Newmarket May 3 on testing ground and he relishes the fast conditions he gets here. Last term Highest was beaten by Bandari in the G2 Great Voltigeur S. at York in August but reversed that form when runner-up behind Bollin Eric in the G1 St Leger at Doncaster in September. While the latter will suffer under a penalty for that success this season, Bandari, who was third at Doncaster, has the ideal conditions to shine this year. He ran better than the bare form suggests when fourth in both the Jockey Club S. and Coronation Cup and hails from a stable in flying form this week. That stable, which has saddled three of the last four winners of this race, is also represented by Zindabad, who beat Storming Home (GB) by a length 12 months ago but has to step up on this year's form. Parasol was denied a four-timer in a tactical affair in the G3 Brigadier Gerard S. at Sandown last time May 27 but will relish the inevitable fast pace here.

 ROYAL ASCOT
GOLDEN JUBILEE S.
First Run: 1868
Group 1 for 3yo/up going 6 furlongs

Formerly known as the Cork and Orrery S., Royal Ascot's most prestigious sprint was given a new name and elevated to Group 1 status to celebrate Her Majesty The Queen's Golden Jubilee in 2002. It was originally named after Lord Cork, another Master of the Buckhounds. The most successful trainer in the history of this race is the legendary Vincent O'Brien, who was victorious on five occasions between 1970 and 1993.

 ROYAL ASCOT
HARDWICKE S.
First Run: 1879
Group 2 for 4yo/up going 1 mile, 4 furlongs

Named after the 5th Earl of Hardwick, Master of the Royal Buckhounds from 1874 to 1879. This race usually attracts a quality field of older middle distance performers, preparing for the forthcoming King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S., run over the same course and distance.

Chic was engaged in Friday's G1 Coronation S. until being taken out at the final stage. She would inevitably have lined up in any other year but for the presence of stable star Russian Rhythm in that contest. Her racecourse performances this term have been breathtaking both in style and substance, graduating from a facile maiden score at Chester May 7 to beat older handicappers at Kempton June 4.

Londonnetdotcom returned to form last time when chasing home the tough Aldora (GB) in the Listed Princess Elizabeth S. at Epsom June 6 and rates a threat.

NAYEF PLANS ON HOLD Nayef (Gulch) was reported to be "very well" by trainer Marcus Tregoning yesterday as he plans the five-year-old's next start. Although the Lambourn conditioner suggested that Wednesday's G1 Prince of Wales's S. success would initiate a bid to win the inaugural £1 million British Horseracing Board Summer Triple Crown, he may miss the G1 Eclipse S. at Sandown July 5, which is the next leg. "He is very well and he cantered this morning because we are thinking about the Eclipse which is not too far away," he commented. "What we won't do is run him back before we think he can do his best because the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. [at Ascot July 26] is the main aim, I feel. I hope Sheikh Hamdan feels the same because I'm desperate to come back here and win the King George this time. Of all the horses we've seen, he must have a reasonable chance of doing so."

Azeri, the reigning Horse of the Year, looks to make it 10 in a row versus this overmatched group. Last out, she easily defeated a field of six in the GI Milady Breeders' Cup H. May 24 over this course. The chestnut moved forward off her first race of the season, a narrow victory over Take Charge Lady in the GI Apple Blossom H. at Oaklawn Apr. 5. "She just had her gallop and it was a very, very, nice one," said trainer Laura de Seroux Thursday after watching Azeri prepare for today's contest. "There is a little more Zen-like Azeri now, but she still breathes fire. When she saw another horse while she was galloping, she got tough." Azeri seeks to become the first Vanity H. repeater since It's In The Air in 1980. The best shot to defeat the odds-on favorite will come from Bare Necessities. She returns from a victory in the GIII Sixty Sails H. at Hawthorne Apr. 26. The daughter of Silver Deputy shows a couple of bullets on the worktab and has won three in a row.

 ROYAL ASCOT NEWS

O'BRIEN STAYS AT HOME Aidan O'Brien yesterday withdrew his two scheduled runners from the Royal Ascot card because of concerns about the state of the ground at the Berkshire track. The Ballydoyle conditioner decided not to travel G2 King Edward VII S. contender Alberto Giacometti (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and G3 Queen's Vase S. hope Arundel (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) as the ground had become too fast. Alberto Giacometti was yesterday declared in tomorrow's G1 Juddmonte Grand Prix de Paris at Longchamp. "I withdrew them because I don't consider the ground to be safe," O'Brien told PA Sport yesterday. "I am looking forward to trying Alberto Giacometti at a mile and a quarter as I think the trip will suit him." O'Brien has no runners at the Berkshire venue today.

Preakness S. runner-up Midway Road could kick off a memorable afternoon for his sire should he register his first stakes success in Ohio's lone graded event. Third in a second-level allowance at the Fair Grounds in March, the Lane's End colorbearer took a two-turn event at Keeneland by 11 3/4 lengths Apr. 24 before his solid Pimlico performance. Connections thought carefully about a rematch with Funny Cide in the Belmont S. two weeks ago, but opted instead for a more conservative approach. Also briefly under consideration for the Belmont was Wild And Wicked, who has sparkled in his two career starts. A 9 1/2-length winner of a Keeneland maiden Apr. 25, the half brother to champion older horse The Wicked North passed his two-turn debut with flying colors last out, winning by 2 3/4-lengths in gate-to-wire fashion at Churchill May 25. With other speed signed on, Private City should be rolling late. The Bohemia homebred defeated his elders in a Belmont allowance May 30 and worked extremely well over the Elmont training oval ahead of this test.

Cherokee Lite needed nine starts to graduate from the maiden ranks, but, by george, it looks like she's got it figured out. Since scoring that first victory by 8 1/4 lengths at Aqueduct Apr. 4, the dark bay has added a half-length allowance victory at the Big A May 3 and more recently came from just off the pace to register a 1 1/4-length success in the Belmont slop May 23. The second choice to make it four straight was dogged on the front end by SW Kitty Knight, put that stubborn rival away with a furlong to run and edged clear. Odds-on Danuta, winner in Dubai of the UAE Oaks in her most recent start Apr. 3, raced keenly in and among a tight pack down the backstretch, loomed large outside the front-runners turning for home, but had no winning bid and was along very late for the place.

GHOSTZAPPER (c, 3, Awesome Again--Baby Zip {SW}, by Relaunch) started his career with an eye-catching nine-length victory at Hollywood last November, then finished a troubled fourth behind Scrimshaw in a Santa Anita allowance test Dec. 26 before going to the bench. Returning here as the 9-10 chalk, the bay was last and appeared to be struggling over the off going after the opening quarter. The half to City Zip (Carson City), GISW, $818,225 kicked it into high gear in the stretch, powering past the field and opening it up late for a 3 1/4-length triumph over As Wicked (Anjiz). A $1.25 million FTSAUG yearling, the chestnut had tried state-breds just once in her career and was most recently fourth in Keeneland allowance company Apr. 16. The half to Farmonthefreeway (Talc), GSW, $486,929; and Secret Rage (Scarlet Ibis), SW, $126,618, set the pace along the inside, drew clear when asked and reported home a 2 1/2-length winner. Lexington Loses Leading Lady:

Jessica Cavitt Bradley, a much-admired member of the Lexington community, passed away Thursday after a lengthy illness. She was 74. The descendant of a pioneer family that crossed the country by wagon train in 1867, Bradley was born May 18, 1929 in Sacramento, California, and grew up on a cattle ranch in the Golden State. She left school to pursue an acting career and, while under contract to Universal Studios, starred in several feature films. Returning to Sacramento County in the '50s, she turned her attention to raising Thoroughbreds and establishing the equestrian center Potomac West, which later became a training ground for Olympic show-jumping hopefuls. Bradley moved to Lexington five years ago. She was described by friends as a "remarkable, beautiful, intelligent woman" whose "flamboyance, elegance, humor and biting wit were legendary." Bradley leaves behind her mother, Eleanor Marie Cavitt; sisters Betty Jean Cavitt and Dorothee Cavitt Mull; three children--bloodstock agent Peter Bradley III, veterinarian Dr. Samuel Bradley and Jessica Elizabeth Bradley--and five grandchildren. Services will be held today at 11 a.m. at Kerr Brothers Funeral Home, 463 E. Main St. in Lexington. There will be a memorial mass at St. John the Baptist Catholic Church in Folsom, California on Tuesday, June 24 at 11 a.m. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Jesuit High School and the American Cancer Society.

Perfect Drift Heading to Hollywood:

GI Stephen Foster H. hero Perfect Drift (Dynaformer) is likely to make his next start in the GI Hollywood Gold Cup July 13, trainer Murray Johnson said yesterday. The four-year-old is currently taking a break on Johnson's Kentucky farm, but is expected back at the track in the next few days. "He's doing great out there," his Australian-born conditioner said, adding, "Timing-wise, the Gold Cup is good. We just like the way it's unfolding." Plans call for the gelding to fly to California a few days before the race. "The race runs on Sunday, and all I'd really want to do there is school [in the paddock] on Saturday," Johnson said. "If we got in there Friday night it wouldn't worry me." The conditioner would like to secure the services of Pat Day, who guided the gelding to his Foster score. The veteran reinsman is also the regular rider of Ten Most Wanted, who will make his next start in the GII Swaps S. on the Gold Cup undercard. Perfect Drift's major summer objective is the Aug. 16 GI Arlington Million.

Ipi Tombe Nearing U.S. Debut:

Ipi Tombe (Zim) (Manshood), who defeated males in the G1 Dubai Duty Free S. at Nad al Sheba Mar. 29, took one step closer to making her American bow, breezing five furlongs over the Churchill turf course around the dogs Thursday in 1:00 3/5 in company with a stablemate. Jockey Pat Day was in the irons for the move and will have the mount aboard the filly when she debuts. "We broke off head-and-head and [trainer] Elliott [Walden] wants me to take her back and put her in behind horses," Day commented. "Last time she was a little more willing to do that than today, but she did come back to me and she eased around the turn nicely and then finished up running. She's got another gear when you set her down." Ipi Tombe, who races for Team Valor, WinStar Farm and Sunmark Partners, could make her first U.S. appearance in the GIII Locust Grove S. at Churchill June 28.

Queen's Plate Hopeful Euthanized:

Knob Hill Stable's Rockfield (Alphabet Soup), listed as a 30-1 chance for Sunday's Queen's Plate at Woodbine, was euthanized yesterday morning after sustaining a fatal injury during morning training hours. The colt got loose shortly after heading to the track for a light jog and ran into a rail, causing damage to his right hind leg. "There appears to be a fracture and massive ligament damage," attending veterinarian Robert McMartin told Thoroughbred Times. Added a distraught trainer Alec Fehr, "He bucked a couple of times, dropped his rider and ran away. He got his bridle caught up, hit the rail and broke his leg. It's tragic. It's really tough to take."

True Direction Heads Moseley:

True Direction (French Deputy), a winner of six of nine career starts including last year's GII Fall Highweight H. in New York, heads a field of 12 for this afternoon's James B. Moseley Breeders' Cup H. at Suffolk Downs. The four-year-old colt, trained by Carlos Morales for Morton and Marisol Binn, will vie for favoritism with GII General George H. winner My Cousin Matt (Matty G) and Grade I winner Peeping Tom (Eagle Eyed). Post time for the Moseley is approximately 5:52 p.m. EDT. In the absence of the Massachusetts H. this year, the Moseley is New England's richest race.

+ HAWKSBILL (c, 3, Silver Hawk--Binary {GB} {SW & GSP-Fr}, by Rainbow Quest), sent off the 13-8 favorite, stalked the early pace in a close-up fourth. Arriving upsides Curlew River (Ire) (Alhaarth {Ire}) traveling on the bridle with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, he was allowed an inch of rein by Richard Hughes and promptly settled the result in a matter of strides, easing to the line to win by 2 1/2 lengths. The winner is a half brother to Binary File (Nureyev, SW-Eng & GSP-Fr). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £5,551.

+ BYRON (GB) (c, 2, Green Desert--Gay Gallanta {G1SW-Eng, $209,799}, by Woodman), from a distinguished Cheveley Park family, was sent off the 4-7 favourite on account of sparkling homework on the Newmarket gallops. Breaking well, he was taken to the front by Frankie Dettori and enjoyed the stands' rail advantage. Challenged by fellow newcomer Balmont (Stravinsky) inside the final quarter-mile, he quickened under pressure to draw clear of that rival and record a comfortable 1 1/2-length score. BETFAIR BETS BIG ON QUEEN ANNE

Betfair recorded its biggest ever betting race Tuesday on the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot, with £2,687,486 matched in the win market alone. Hawk Wing, the beaten favorite in the race, became the most traded horse in Betfair's history when £2,231,166 was matched on his fate at Ascot Tuesday. Betfair, launched in June 2000, was the first person-to-person betting exchange. It allows punters to bet on prices set by punters themselves, rather than by a bookmaker. During peak times, the exchange matches up to 12,000 bets a minute. The company will be presented with the Queen's Award for Enterprise on June 23. The award is given by the Queen, on the recommendation of the Prime Minister, and follows a full assessment by the Department of Trade and Industry. "After a year in which some have sought to question the integrity and legality of our system for their own reasons, it is a huge pleasure and a massive endorsement of the success of our business to be recognised in this manner by Her Majesty and her government," said Mark Davies, Betfair's Director of Communications. "Betfair was founded with a view to making betting fairer and safer for everyone. We use cutting-edge technology to ensure at source that crime is kept out, the punter is always paid and the vulnerable are protected."

Derby Clash in Balance

Kris Kin (Kris S.) may be supplemented to next Sunday's G1 Irish Derby at The Curragh, connections revealed yesterday. Trainer Sir Michael Stoute has yet to commit the winner of the G1 Epsom Derby June 7 to a clash with Dalakhani (Ire), and his participation hinges on a vital workout today. "We are going to work him [today] and Kieren [Fallon] will ride him," the trainer said yesterday. "We'll see how he comes out of that and speak to The Curragh about their predictions about the ground and decide on Monday." If Kris Kin takes his chance, Fallon will have to defer a one-day ban picked up for careless riding in the first race at Royal Ascot yesterday. Meanwhile, John Oxx has confirmed Alamshar (Ire) (Key of Luck) as a starter for the Classic. With the ground currently described as good to firm at the track, Oxx is expecting the Epsom Derby third to run. "He's very fit and well and I hope the weather stays dry," he commented yesterday. "He hasn't had good to firm yet. Epsom doesn't suit any horse and they all prefer a different track. It was only his fifth run and the winner was having only his fourth run and here we are asking them to deal with Epsom very well. I think he'll improve for the experience and he should be on the upgrade."

Dermot Weld yesterday gave an update on Refuse to Bend (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and confirmed the G1 Breeders' Cup Mile at Santa Anita as his end-of-season target. After winning the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket May 3, the Moyglare Stud homebred disappointed when only 13th in the G1 Epsom Derby June 7 and is on a break, according to his conditioner. "He didn't stay as he has a lot of speed and in my opinion he is the best miler in Europe," Weld said yesterday. "He's top class and he'll have a chance to prove it later in the season, but he's having a break and we'll decide on his comeback in the coming weeks. The Breeders' Cup Mile at the end of the year is his target." Jockey Pat Smullen was philosophical about the colt's Derby disappointment. "It was one of those things," he said. "We had him peaked for the 2000 Guineas and he wasn't on song come Derby time. He'll be back and will win big races, I'm sure."
