DALAKHANI GOES FOR THE DOUBLE

French Derby winner Dalakhani (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}) has beaten everyone on his side of the water. Now he travels across the Channel to take on the best in his native land, facing nine rivals in the G1 Budweiser Irish Derby at The Curragh this afternoon. Imperious throughout his career, the steel grey has yet to unleash the full arsenal of his talent, but there was a glimpse of his capabilities last time when he quickened clear of Super Celebre (Fr) to win the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby) at Chantilly June 1. France's sophomore champion elect had beaten that rival comfortably without his jockey seeking recourse to the whip in the G1 Prix Lupin at Longchamp May 11 and was barely tested when winning the G2 Prix Greffulhe at that track Apr. 20. Victorious in the G1 Criterium International as a juvenile at Saint-Cloud in November, the half-brother to Daylami (Ire) bids for his fourth victory at the highest level in this contest. Fellow Aga Khan colorbearer Alamshar (Ire) (Key of Luck)'s participation had been put in doubt by a back problem, but was yesterday reported likely to run. Trainer John Oxx said, "There has been a big improvement and he was able to canter this morning following plenty of work by the physiotherapist and the chiropractor." Irish Derby cont. p2

MANPOWER A STAR AMONG ESTRELLAS

Sent off the third choice in a field of five, Manpower (Arg) (Southern Halo) powered away to win the G1 Gran Premio Estrellas Classic by seven lengths at Hipodromo San Isidro near Buenos Aires, Argentina. The dark bay colt earned his first group victory in last September's G2 Colonel Miguel F. Martinez, but was sidelined off that effort and was coming into the Classic off a fourth-place finish behind Genereux (Arg) (French Deputy) in the G1 Premio 25 de Mayo. In other highlights on the program, Asset (Arg) (Salt Lake) won for the fifth consecutive time, charging home a six-length winner of the G1 Junior Sprint, and Emergente II (Arg) (Salt Lake) took his record to three wins from four start with a victory by disqualification in the G1 Juvenile. Estrellas charts, p4-5.

TELLING TALES IN MOTHER GOOSE

Trainer Bobby Frankel continued his Midas touch in the nation's big races by sending out the Amerman Racing Stables' new acquisition Spoken Fur (Notebook) to a sharp victory in the GI Mother Goose S. yesterday at Belmont. After hitting the board in three of her first four career starts for trainer Austin Smith, the grey filly broke through with a 6 1/4-length maiden win Apr. 6 at Keeneland going seven furlongs, then promptly won over the same distance in a Churchill allowance Apr. 30. She handled her elders going a mile under the Twin Spires May 21, an effort which put her on bloodstock agent Mark Reid's short list. Jockey Jerry Bailey settled the Florida-bred into fourth as Roar Emotion (Roar) took the lead, then got the jump on favored Yell (A.P. Indy) turning for home. Spoken Fur quickly shifted gears, opening up by as many as eight lengths, and won by daylight. "I've got good owners who come up with the money [to buy horses]," said Frankel. "She's worth a lot more now than what we bought her for. I'll talk to Jerry about [the GI CCA Oaks] and see what he thinks about the [12-furlong] distance." The CCA Oaks is the second leg of NYRA's Triple Tiara.

☆ IRISH DERBY ☆

Can Dalakhani Be Stopped?

Four Chantilly Classic heroes have followed up in this since 1982, but high-profile horses like Suave Dancer, Hernando (Fr), Celtic Swing (GB) and Holding Court (GB) have all been beaten here. Ballydoyle's The Great Gatsby (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) bids to emulate St Jovite, who was the last runner-up in the Epsom Derby to go one better in this contest. He may be the pick of the six from the stable responsible for a three of the last six winners of this Classic, including a remarkable one-two-three 12 months ago.

He has a short head verdict over Alamshar (Ire) (Key of Luck) on the form of the Epsom Classic, where Brian Boru (GB) (Sadler's Wells) disappointed in 16th. Alamshar had previously beaten The Great Gatsby and a penalised Brian Boru in the G2 Derrinstown Derby Trial at Leopardstown May 11, but may struggle to contain the vastly improved The Great Gatsby if the ground continues to soften. Trainer John Oxx said, "Hopefully the forecast for rain later on Sunday is accurate and we don't get it before the Derby." Brian Boru beat Powerscourt (GB) (Sadler's Wells) and The Great Gatsby in the G1 Racing Post Trophy at Doncaster Oct. 26 and can be forgiven his one below-par career effort over the unique Epsom track.

The last time jockey Gary Stevens teamed up with Summer Colony, the two combined to hand Horse of the Year Azeri the only defeat of her stellar career. There were no champions to beat yesterday, but the dynamic duo got the job done once again, cruising to victory as the odds-on choice. The dark bay mare was allowed to trail her three rivals as they raced around the first turn and down the backstretch, with Stevens waiting patiently to ask for some gas. He hit the accelerator on the final bend and Summer Colony responded, taking the lead at the top of the lane and drawing clear late. The race didn't start out the way Stevens expected, but the end result went according to plan. "I was going to put her on the lead, but the other horses were sent away from the gate and I was going to have to ride her to get her up head and head with the leaders," the Hall of Fame rider said. "So I just let her put herself where she wanted to be. She's a typical woman--she wants to dictate things." Apparently, Summer Colony knew what she was doing. "It worked out well," Stevens said. "We got to the outside right away and she does her best running from outside. We had no trouble after that. She was confident and I rode her with confidence." Summer Colony will make her next start in the GII Delaware H. July 20.

Voodoo Dancer overcame a trotting-horse pace to post her first victory since winning the GII Palomar H. at Del Mar Sept. 8. The blaze-faced bay, heroine of the GIII Locust Grove H. a year ago, missed by a nose to Tates Creek in the GII Diana H. at Saratoga last July before heading to Southern California for her next three starts. Following her Palomar victory, she ran second to divisional champion Golden Apples (Ire) in the GI Yellow Ribbon S. Oct. 5, then came up a neck short to Tates Creek (again) in the GII Las Palmas H. Nov. 3. She made her five-year-old bow in the GIII Beaugay H. May 3 at Aqueduct, running third to Delta Princess and Wonder Again, and came out to California for a guaranteed firm turf course. The third choice looked slightly uncomfortable in the opening half as Damaschino (Aus) (Last Tycoon {Ire}) put up fractions of :26.05 and :50.49, but settled into stride on the backstretch. Favored Dublino struck first turning for home, with Voodoo Dancer at her flank. The New York invader finally got the best of the chalk in the final strides for her sixth career graded stakes victory. "I wasn't too worried about the slow pace," said winning rider Corey Nakatani. "[Trainer Christophe Clement] told me to just ride her with patience and to try to make sure she got the mile and a quarter."

 Lismore Knight may be based in New York, but his biggest career moments have taken place on the road.
 After breaking his maiden by nine lengths in his debut over the Belmont lawn last July, the bay ran fifth in the off-the-turf Continental Mile S. at Monmouth, but bounced back to take Woodbine's GII Summer S. Sept.
 8. He had a wide trip when fourth in the Hopemont S.
 at Keeneland Oct. 25 before concluding his two-year-old campaign with a runner-up effort to Peace Rules in the GII Generous S. at Hollywood Nov. 30. Given some time off, he returned victoriously in a Belmont allowance May 17 and was favored in this spot. Jockey Rene Douglas tucked him into a groundsaving position in the early stages, but was caught looking for room at the top of the stretch. He angled the handsome colt to the outside and got an instant response, catching pacesetter Remind in the final strides. Owner J. J. Pletcher indicated that Lismore Knight could return to Arlington for July 20 GII American Derby.

*Zee Zee Top finished second, but was disqualified and placed third.

Hanami was widely considered to have been unlucky when fifth behind Russian Rhythm in the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket May 4, and she may have been unsuited by the step up to a mile and a half when racing prominently before fading to finish sixth in the G1 Epsom Oaks June 6. Ridden by the 2003 season's success story Christophe Soumillon in this contest, she was settled in mid-division off the even early tempo and took the no-nonsense route down the outer in the straight as Zee Zee Top was hemmed in on the rails. Quickening to hit the front with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, she was strongly challenged by Zee Zee Top and Brett Doyle inside the final eighth, but showed grit to maintain her steadily decreasing advantage all the way to the line. Conditioner James Toller commented, "Being by Hernando, you would imagine she would get further than this 10 furlongs. But I'm not sure if she stays a mile and a half because she won as a two-year-old and had the pace to run fifth to Russian Rhythm in the 1000 Guineas...after getting into trouble in running. We could come back here for the G1 Irish Oaks [July 13] if she recovers quickly. She goes on any ground bar firm." Snippets was promoted to second by the stewards, who found Zee Zee Top guilty of causing interference inside the final quarter. She may run in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks at York Aug. 20.

From out of Africa comes Ipi Tombe, who transferred her form successfully to this hemisphere with a measured victory against her four rivals in the GIII Locust Grove. The Zimbabwean-bred left her native land for neighboring South Africa during her three-year-old season, capping her five-race-campaign there with a victory against older males in the G1 Durban July Cup H. July 6. Team Valor and WinStar Farm acquired a majority interest in the bay and sent her to Dubai, where she sparkled in her three races. After impressive victories in the Listed Al Fahidi Fort Feb. 6 and the G3 Jebel Hatta Mar. 8, Ipi Tombe showed her stuff on Dubai World Cup day, setting a course record in winning the $2-million G1 Dubai Duty Free Mar. 29 in her final start for Michael De Kock. She went postward as the odds-on choice here and hesitated a bit at the start, but quickly recovered to race eagerly in third. After skimming the hedge in the early stages, she came through between rivals turning for home and was given the bare minimum of urging by Pat Day to post a narrow success. "Knowing the gears that this filly has, I looked around and nobody else was coming," Day explained. "I dropped my hands on her and she kind of backed up to them coming to the wire. She had done what was necessary to get the job done. There are plenty of dances to dance. We want to conserve some energy for later on." Ipi Tombe's next start will come in the GI Diana H. at Saratoga July 26.

Heckle laughed at his rivals with a front-running triumph. The dark grey had dashed home by 12 1/2 lengths over a muddy track in a Keeneland baby race Apr. 18, an effort which saw him bet down to 1-2 in the Three Chimneys Juvenile S. on the Kentucky Derby undercard. But after bumping the gate at the start that day, Heckle wound up fourth behind stablemate Limehouse, who was scratched out of this event. The second choice in his return to action off the eight-week hiatus, he broke alertly from post six and quickly held a clear lead. Jockey John Velasquez threw a cross at the two-year-old at the top of the stretch and Heckle responded the right way, opening up immediately on his challengers. "Any time you can win open lengths over a field like that, it's pretty impressive," said winning trainer Todd Pletcher, who also trains the unbeaten GSW Chapel Royal. "He's obviously very fast and he was the fastest of the fast today. It's great when you have Chapel Royal in the barn and Heckle over here winning the Tremont. Right now the plan is for Chapel Royal to run in the Sanford [GII, 7-24] and Heckle is a possibility." Heckle's victory made him the second graded stakes winner for his dam Bid Me Adieu (Spectacular Bid), whose son Spectacular Tide won the 12-furlong GI Sword Dancer Invitational H.

Trade Fair started his career by chasing home the smart Almushahar in a hot Newmarket maiden last August before demolishing a field at Newbury the following month. Connections believed inexperience got the better of the giant colt when he was third in the G1 Dewhurst S. at Newmarket in October and he was forced to miss the early-season Classics due to a minor setback, but he showed he was ready to live up to his promise when beating subsequent G3 Jersey S. winner Membership in the Listed King Charles II S. at the Rowley Mile last time May 31. Here he scorched the turf on Newmarket's July course to outclass his rivals and turn this seemingly competitive affair into a procession under Richard Hughes. Breaking well, he stalked the early pacesetter Atavus (GB) (Distant Relative {Ire}) before being asked to quicken inside the final quarter. Seizing the advantage with 300 yards remaining, he produced an electric turn of acceleration to power clear of Just James up the rising ground. "He's a very talented horse," Hughes said. "The ground was a bit loose out there and he wasn't in love with it early on, but he quickened up like a good horse. He hacked down nicely and I was delighted with that because in the past it was a battle all the time with him."

Orientor held the late thrust of Country Reel to capture a belated first career stakes win. Despite a ninth in the G2 Duke of York S. at York May 13 and a 12th in the G1 Golden Jubilee S. at Royal Ascot last time June 21, the sprint veteran had been performing better than his finishing position suggests. Driven along in sixth throughout the early stages of this contest by Kieren Fallon, he chased the leaders hard before getting to the front with 250 yards remaining. Strongly challenged by Country Reel and Jamie Spencer and the fast-closing Danger Over in the closing stages, he had enough to hold on in a desperate finale. Orientor may now wait for the G1 Haydock Sprint Cup Sept. 6.

Maharib was runner-up behind Arundel in a 10-furlong maiden at this track Apr. 6, but has made strides in subsequently winning a Navan maiden Apr. 26 and Listed Martin Molony S. over a mile and a half at Limerick June 7. Stepped up in trip again, he traveled smoothly in third under Pat Smullen before quickening on command with quarter of a mile remaining. Hitting the front 300 yards from the finish, he stayed on in determined fashion when tackled by Arundel and Mick Kinane in the closing stages. "There is plenty more to come from this horse," Smullen commented. "I rode him to get the trip, but he saw it out well." Conditioner Dermot Weld stated that the G1 St Leger at Doncaster Sept. 13 is on the agenda for the colt.

The Takarazuka Kinen, which was opened to foreign-trained horses in 1997, was designated an international Group 1 race in 2001. While the race failed to attract any overseas runners this year, the 17-horse field does include Agnes Digital, Japan's champion older horse of 2001. The six-year-old Kentucky-bred is coming off a narrow victory in the June 8 G1 Yasuda Kinen. Also in the field is Japanese Derby winner Neo Universe and last year's G1 Japan Cup Dirt winner Eagle Cafe, who ran fourth behind Agnes Digital in the Yasuda Kinen.

Sulamani and Ange Gabriel go head-to-head again in a fascinating renewal of this contest. Arguably France's best three-year-old and older horse, respectively, in 2002, they did not meet until the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Nad al Sheba Mar. 29. While Ange Gabriel looked the likely winner in deep stretch that day, Sulamani unleashed a startling late rattle to cut down his rival and win by 3/4 of a length. That home win provided an instant return for Godolphin, who purchased the colt from the Niarchos Family at the end of his sophomore campaign, which included a highly impressive 1 1/2-length defeat of Act One (GB) in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly in June and a runner-up placing behind Marienbard (Ire) in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp in October after suffering a troubled trip. Ange Gabriel's rise to prominence has been less meteoric, but no less marked. After causing an upset when beating Polish Summer by two lengths in this contest 12 months ago, the grey took the G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris under a harsh penalty, then beat Aquarelliste (Fr) in the G1 Hong Kong Vase at Sha Tin in December. He encountered the fast surface he relishes on that occasion and again when winning the G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly in comfortable fashion last time June 8. With ground conditions again in his favour, he will be giving no quarter to Sulamani, who may lack the sharp edge of his foe. But Godolphin may scratch Sulamani if the ground is considered too fast. Racing manager Simon Crisford explained, "We do not want to risk him on ground that is too quick for him, so we will be delaying the decision until the last possible moment. But the horse is going well and we are happy with him. Obviously, he has some major races coming up such as the King George and the Breeders' Cup." Trainer Saeed bin Suroor added, "Sulamani needs a race, as he has not run since winning the Dubai Sheema Classic in March, but he has the class to run a big race on Sunday."

All carry 121 pounds.

Sweet Folly sidestepped the G1 Prix de Diane Hermes (French Oaks), but can start to make up for lost time in this contest. After finding Humouresque (GB) too strong in both the Listed Prix Rose de Mai Mar. 20 and G3 Prix Penelope Apr. 8, she made it third time lucky at this venue when winning the G3 Prix Cleopatre May 12. Arvada, who was third behind Fidelite (Ire) in the G1 Prix Saint-Alary at Longchamp May 18, was disappointing when ninth in the Prix de Diane at Chantilly June 8, but gets an ideal chance to banish that memory. High Praise is another on a recovery mission, having trailed in 12th in the G1 Epsom Oaks June 6. She has pretensions on her defeat of Welcome Millenium (Fr) in the G3 Prix des Reservoirs at Deauville last October. Approach, who suffered a fractured pelvis last term, returned to take the Listed Lord Weinstock Memorial S. at Newbury June 12 and hails from a stable more than capable of snatching French stakes events.

Aidan O'Brien usually reserves one of his best for this contest, which has become steeped in Ballydoyle folklore. While Dr. Vincent O'Brien farmed this race with the likes of Nijinsky and El Gran Senor, his successor has won five of the last six renewals with such future Group 1 winners as Hold That Tiger, Rock of Gibraltar (Ire) and King of Kings (Ire). His duo this year is headed by Antonius Pius, who took a Gowran Park maiden May 14 in facile fashion. He is assisted by the speedy Devil Moon, who steps up in trip after winning a Tipperary maiden last time Apr. 16. Dermot Weld was the man who interrupted O'Brien's run when saddling Camargo (Ire) to win in 1998 and he provides the main threat in Steel Light. After beating Wathab and Il Pirata in a maiden at this track Apr. 27, he finished third behind Newton (Ire) in the Listed Marble Hill S. here May 24. He will be suited by this step up in trip and the likely sounder surface.

Well Made was runner-up to Simoun (Ire) in this contest 12 months ago and is a force to be reckoned with in the mud. He relished the soft ground when taking the G1 Preis von Europa at Cologne in September, but was fourth behind Aolus on his return in the G2 Gerling-Preis at that track May 4. That rival was following up on his defeat of Epalo in the G3 Grosser Preis der Bremer Wirtschaft Apr. 6 and is going from strength to strength at four. Epalo subsequently beat Salve Regina (Ger), Next Desert (Ire) and Liquido in the G2 Grosser Mercedes-Benz-Preis at Baden-Baden June 1 and has major claims if reproducing that effort. The forecast good ground should suit him. Another interesting candidate is the sole sophomore White Rose, who receives upwards of 20 pounds from her rivals. She followed a runner-up placing in the G2 Henkel-Rennen (German 1000 Guineas) at Dusseldorf May 11 by filling the same spot in the G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) at Mulheim June 8.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

MORLUC MAY BE BACK Morluc (Housebuster), who injured his left front ankle in the G1 Golden Jubilee S. at Royal Ascot last Saturday, could make it back to the races, according to trainer Randy Morse. "My gut feeling is that I think he'll be okay," said the conditioner. "He's tough. This horse has overcome a lot worse things than this." Dr. Kevin Dunlavy performed an ultrasound on the seven-year-old's ankle and informed Morse that Morluc had apparently hyperextended ligaments and that there was no evidence of any bone fracture. Morluc had been battling for the lead with eventual winner Choisir (Aus) in the Golden Jubilee when he sustained the injury. The Kentucky-based sprinter has earned over $1 million while compiling a record of 40-11-9-5. "I know one guy who's going to be awfully happy is the owner [Mike Cloonan]," Morse added. "He was mad at himself for taking him over there and blaming himself, but you can't think that way. [Morluc] could have done that galloping or anything."

Blame it on him if his rivals' collective self esteem is damaged, as Bossanova turned the first leg of the Big Apple Triple into an absolute procession, winning with consummate ease. The four-length winner of a Santa Anita maiden Dec. 22, the dark bay was a distant fifth to the fleet Omega Code in the Jan. 12 GIII San Miguel S. before getting a breather. He resurfaced to be a good third to the classy Posse in the GIII Lafayette S. at Keeneland Apr. 6 and was beaten just a neck by the subsequent GIII Riva Ridge BC winner in the May 10 Matt Winn S. at Churchill Downs, his final start for trainer Chris Paasch. Fastest into stride, the son of Pine Bluff set an easy pace in hand and danced clear to win under a hand ride. "He was super today," said Jim Bond, who has taken over the training of Bossanova. "I haven't decided about keeping him in the Big Apple Triple races. The [seven-furlong GI] King's Bishop S. [at Saratoga Aug. 23] is a possibility."

The winner of the Northern Dancer S. for Maryland-breds at Laurel last November, Aggadan started his 2003 campaign with an allowance score on the Aqueduct inner track on Valentine's Day, then was fourth in a pair on the main track at the Big A. He raced against $100,000 claimers in his latest and came home a 3/4-length winner at Belmont June 5. Looking to run his record at this track to four-for-five (with one second), the chestnut stumbled at the start, but recovered quickly to race with the leaders early. He took over in the stretch and held on for the narrow victory. Odds-on El Gran Papa rallied from last to just miss.

The $200,000 KEESEP yearling had just one start to his credit this term, a 13th-place finish over the Nad al Sheba sand Jan. 24. Sent off the 8-5 favorite in his return, the half to Miss Doolittle (Storm Cat), GSP, sat just off 84-1 Lunar Mon (Maria's Mon) for the opening six furlongs before putting that rival away for a two-length success. SOLAR MAN (c, 3, Deputy Commander--Solar Display, by Diesis {GB}), a $165,000 KEENOV weanling purchase, got the job done this time. Sidelined following an unplaced effort on the main track at Saratoga last summer, the bay ran third in his Feb. 6 return over the Gulfstream lawn despite getting knocked sideways at the start. He disappointed as the 2-1 favorite in a one-mile test on the turf at Aqueduct May 4, however, and was let go at 9-1 this time. Content to race back in eighth in the early stages, Solar Man was guided to the outside turning for home by Mike Luzzi and finished up strongly, getting to the wire 3/4 of a length in front of Private Scandal (Not for Love). HURRICANE DEVIN (c, 3, Dayjur--Burning Wells, by Damascus) had shown very little in three starts versus fellow New York-breds over the main track, finishing seventh and sixth on the Aqueduct inner Feb. 2 and Feb. 22, respectively, and was last seen when seventh with blinkers added in the Big A mud Mar. 21. Shedding the shades and trying the turf for the first time, the dark bay was allowed to dictate moderate fractions on the front end, expanded his advantage to lead by 5 1/2 lengths at the eighth pole and saw that lead whittled down to 1 1/2 lengths at the wire. Eagle Lake finished off the board in her first two starts this year, but turned it around with an allowance win on the Lone Star turf Apr. 10. She came back to be second in an off-the-grass test May 2, then wired the field in her most recent outing, the May 26 GIII WinStar Distaff H. Odds-on to make it two in a row, she once again went right to the front and never looked back, drawing off late for the popular score.

Bien Nicole drew the far outside in this affair, but was still sent off the odds-on choice and had no trouble overcoming her post. The chestnut mare opened 2003 with a win in the Mar. 15 GIII Oaklawn Breeders' Cup S., but could do no better than sixth behind Azeri in the Apr. 5 GI Apple Blossom H. She rebounded to take an off-the-turf allowance at Lone Star May 2, but disappointed in the May 26 GIII WinStar Distaff H., finishing sixth as the 2-1 chalk. Given another chance by the bettors, the five-year-old vied for the lead early and edged clear late to get back on track.

Danthebluegrassman, an impressive 5 3/4-length winner versus this company June 8 off a seven-month layoff, made it two in row with a victory against this small field of four. Last year's GIII Golden Gate Derby winner pressed the pace while racing in hand, inched to the front in the upper stretch and responded to energetic hand urging by Pat Day to prevail.

 Hennie's Song won her debut in a maiden claimer at Gulfstream Apr. 4 and has now rattled off four wins in a row at Delaware since, including a victory last out in the Go For Wand S. May 31. Facing only four rivals in this one, the bay filly broke sharply, set the pace and was ridden out to a comfortable victory. "I was very impressed," said winning trainer Steve Klesaris. "I thought she was stepping up against a better grade. There was not a horse in this who did not have credentials. The manner in which she won was very impressive." The winner will get her next test in the $500,000 GIII Delaware Oaks July 19.

 Maple Syrple made a mockery of her May 25 maiden field, waltzing home an eight-length winner and was the prohibitive chalk to remain undefeated in her stakes bow. Bumped at the start, the dark bay pressed the early pace from the outside, surged to the front turning for home and drew off as much the best.

For All Who Dream took a group of maidens gate to wire May 11, but was soundly defeated in her most recent effort, finishing some nine lengths second to Prohibido Olividar in an allowance in the local slop June 11. Let go at double digits and adding Lasix for the class hike, the Florida-bred filly stalked the fast fractions set by favored Usual Manner, came to that rival approaching the eighth pole and sprinted clear. "She had a really sharp break," jockey Rosemary Homeister Jr. said. "Coming to the quarter pole, I hit my filly underhanded and she took off. The last 70 yards I just stood up on her because I had so much horse left. When I looked back nobody was coming."

She benefited from the full Kieren Fallon treatment here to record her second stakes success in a pulsating finish. Keen in the early stages, she was trapped out wide of the bunching pack and had to arrive from that compromising position at the top of the straight. Quickening to the front with 500 yards remaining, she was strongly challenged by Monturani and Darryll Holland, but pulled clear as they battled out the finish to complete an afternoon stakes double for her rider.

Pearl Grey sidestepped Royal Ascot to come here and that decision was rewarded with a fine display of speed from the petite filly. Third on her debut in a Goodwood maiden May 22, she stepped up on that to win a less competitive event at Nottingham June 4. Held up in mid-division by Frankie Dettori, she quickened down the outer to grab the lead at the furlong marker and surged clear of Voile. Pearl Grey, who was completing a stakes double on the day for her owner/trainer/jockey combination, may now head back to the July Course for the G2 Cherry Hinton S. July 8.

HAWK FLYER (c, 3, Silver Hawk--Dawn's Curtsey {GISW, $364,062}, by Far North), second on his only other start at York June 14, was positioned in a tracking third until coming under pressure with a half mile to race. The even-money market choice was ridden to challenge at the quarter-mile marker, quickened to the lead at the distance and ran on strongly in the closing stages to beat Mephisto (Ire) (Machiavellian) by 1 1/2 lengths. The winner, a $275,000 KEESEP yearling, is a 1/2 to Triumph At Dawn (Alydar), SW & GISP, $193,729. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, £7,942.

THREE VALLEYS TO PHOENIX

Roger Charlton yesterday confirmed that last Tuesday's impressive G3 Coventry S. winner Three Valleys (Diesis {GB}) will reappear in the G1 Phoenix S. at The Curragh Aug. 10. "That is the plan and he deserves to take his chance at the highest level," the Beckhampton trainer said. "His performance was outstanding and the time was exceptional and, although I won't over-race him this year, he's got to have a chance to win a Group 1. If we miss there we'll go to Deauville [for the G1 Prix Morny Aug. 31]."
