ALL EYES ON FASIG-TIPTON

The Kentucky summer yearling season kicks off this morning in Lexington, but not at Keeneland, where this year's July sale was scrapped, owing to the Mare Reproductive Loss Syndrome of two years ago. Instead, buyers will converge upon the Newtown Paddocks for the Fasig-Tipton Kentucky Selected Yearling Sale beginning at 10 a.m. A total of 462 horses have been catalogued for the two-day sale featuring an outstanding collection of established and successful sires including Awesome Again, Belong to Me, Carson City, Dynaformer, Forest Wildcat, Gilded Time, Honour and Glory, Mr. Greeley, Red Ransom, Saint Ballado, Seattle Slew, Thunder Gulch and Unbridled's Song. The total number catalogued this year represents a near 14-percent decrease from the 536 in the 2002 catalogue, a number easily explained by the sales company. "It doesn't take rocket science to figure out what happened to the early foals," said Terence Collier, director of marketing for Fasig-Tipton, referring to MRLS. "Certainly if we had those January and February foals to draw from, the catalogue would reflect that."

New Sires Throw Out Today's First Pitch

Fasig-Tipton's "New Sire Showcase" comprises most of this morning's opening session, and thus nearly half of the yearlings on offer, and features offspring from the early crops of such sires as Anees, who passed away earlier this year, Breeders' Cup Classic winner Cat Thief, Chief Seattle, Deputy Commander, Distorted Humor, Forestry, Kentucky Derby hero Fusaichi Pegasus, Belmont winner Lemon Drop Kid, GISW More Than Ready, Stephen Got Even and Tale of the Cat. Two sons of the late Saint Ballado are also represented by their first crops of yearlings, Airdrie Stud's Yankee Victor and Straight Man. "This is an especially strong group of freshman sires," said Walt Robertson, president of Fasig-Tipton, who is unconcerned that there are a large number of horses by first-year stallions. "Well, you look at the books of mares that they are being bred to and it's easy to understand that they are represented by so many horses," he commented. "It's all about finding the right horse. If we have a catalogue of 500 horses and 100 of them are by freshman sires, that's fine. If 300 of them are [by freshman sires], that's fine too."

Norfields, whom the Thoroughbred Times ranked as the Number 1 seller of summer yearlings over the last 11 years by average racetrack earnings (over $200,000) – including 14.3% Stakes Winners – is selling a group of outstanding horses by private treaty. Recent graduates include Stonerside Stables' DESERT GOLD.

AZERI WHITNEY BOUND?

There is a possibility, albeit a slim one, that reigning Horse of the Year Azeri (Jade Hunter) will start in the Aug. 2 GI Whitney H. at Saratoga. Trainer Laura de Seroux said yesterday that Azeri will make her next start in either the Whitney, the Aug. 3 GII San Diego H. at Del Mar or the Aug. 10 GII Clement Hirsch, also at Del Mar. In preparation for the outing, the chestnut mare worked a bullet four furlongs at San Luis Rey Monday in :47. But one thing that has not changed is de Seroux's reluctance to take on males. Though de Seroux continues to dangle the possibilities that Azeri's next start will be against the boys, she said she hopes to head in another direction. "I would like to go to the Clement Hirsch and then the [Sept. 28 GII] Lady's Secret, just like we did last year," she said. "That way she will be fresh for the Breeders' Cup and I think that's important because it figures to be a tougher race this year than it was last year." De Seroux said a final decision will be made shortly after she confers with owner Michael Paulson. Describing Paulson's current mind set, de Seroux said: "We have a beautiful working relationship. All he's asked me to do is to keep an open mind about the possibility of racing versus the boys." De Seroux added that the Whitney will probably be scratched off her list if Medaglia D'oro and Mineshaft are among the starters. The trainer said that another possibility is that Azeri will take on males after the Breeders' Cup. "I'd be more inclined to do it after the Breeders' Cup," she said. "Let's say we're in a position to be named Horse of the Year, but need to do something more to get the title. Then, it might be more prudent to try males in a race like the [GII] Clark H. [at Churchill]"

FUNNY CIDE ON THE WORK TAB Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner Funny Cide (Distorted Humor) worked five furlongs in :58.69 at Belmont Park yesterday in preparation for the Aug. 3 GI Haskell Invitational at Monmouth Park. Trainer Barclay Tagg was pleased with the trial, which was the third fastest of 20 at the distance yesterday, but would have liked to see his charge breeze just a little bit slower. "He's doing great," Tagg said. "I would have preferred to see him work in :59 and change, but that's just him, that's the way he trains. He came out of it well--so far so good." The three-year-old became the 17th horse--and the fifth in the last seven years--to miss out on the Triple Crown when he finished third in the June 7 GI Belmont S., but Funny Cide has recuperated very well from the experience. "I thought he recovered from the Triple Crown very quickly," Tagg said. "He's feeling good and looking good." As for what's next, the Maryland-born horseman said, "He'll work three more times and then run in the Haskell, if the weights are OK." The weights for the Haskell will be released Friday.

TIPPLE TO TOPPLE PARIS? This past weekend's G1 Darley Irish Oaks heroine Vintage Tipple (Ire) (Entrepreneur {GB}) may have the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp Oct. 5 as her long-term target and could prep for that race in the G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown Sept. 6. Octogenarian conditioner Paddy Mullins, who enjoyed his first Classic success Sunday after almost a half-century as a trainer, indicated that she will only go to France if she exhibits signs of becoming a better traveller. The trainer's son and assistant Tom told Racing Post, "We will talk to the owner and let the dust settle before deciding on plans. The Irish Champion S. is definitely under consideration, but if we thought she was going to get better at traveling we would put her in the Arc. Whether she stays in training next year is a bit of an early question, but owner Pat O'Donovan buys fillies for breeding and sells his colts, so I could see her racing next season."

Optimism Prevails

Despite the devastating effects of the MRLS, officials at Fasig-Tipton expect positive results from the season's first yearling sale. "We're optimistic," said Fasig-Tipton President Walt Robertson, who added that he feels no real anxiety being the only game in town this month. "We try to never worry about what is going on anywhere else but here," he commented. "Do we feel any added pressure? I mean, there has always been pressure in years before. Were we as hopeful a week ago as we are now? That's hard to say, but now the buyers are here, their agents are here, and now if the principals show up, we'd be in good shape. We have a lot of serious good, strong horses." Added Marketing Director Terence Collier, "With another sale going on, there is always that distraction. I can tell you that the buyers are here and they are very focused. In the absence of Keeneland, it gives them a chance to arrive here earlier. In the end, it's all about the horses."

Lane's End Makes a Rare Appearance

This year's sale is bolstered even further by the presence of William S. Farish's Lane's End Farm, which has consigned 12 horses. Chief among the draft are hip 26, a Virginia-bred bay filly by Exploit out of a sister to MGSW Colonial Minstrel; and hip number 197, a Lil's Lad half brother to Grade III winner and track-record holder Mocha Express (Java Gold).

☆ HIP HAPPENINGS ☆

Hip 1 (c, Dixie Union--Infringe, by Irish River {Fr})

Consigned by Denali Stud, Agent IV
B-Matthew K Firestone (KY)

From the first crop of the 2000 GI Haskell Invitational hero, the dark bay colt is out of a mare who finished third in the GI Hollywood Starlet S. at two. She is the dam of eight foals to race, six of which are winners, including England's Rose (Nureyev), winner of the GIII Chapos Springs H. Infringe was purchased for $95,000 at the 2001 Keeneland November Sale carrying this colt.

Hip 13 (f, Lemon Drop Kid--Lyphard Gal, by Lyphard)

Bred and Consigned by Double D Farm Corp (OH)

The bay is a half sister to dual Grade I winner Heritage of Gold (Gold Legend) from the initial crop of the 1999 Belmont S. winner. "She's a very elegant filly, she's got a nice eye and she's very smart," commented Jevon Crumley, farm manager for Double D Farm Corp. "She seems like the kind of filly that will hold up and will get better with age. She's still very young and immature right now, but she's put together right. Everything's in the right spot." Lyphard Gal sold in foal to Unbridled's Song for $550,000 at last year's Keeneland November Sale. Double D Farm is also the breeder of MGISW Harlan's Holiday, who was sold as a yearling at Fasig-Tipton for $97,000.

Hip 37 (c, The Deputy {Ire}--Mythical Dancer, by Sovereign Dancer)

Consigned by Runnymede Farm Inc., agent
B-Runnymede Farm & Peter J Callahan (KY)

From the first crop of the 2000 GI Santa Anita Derby winner, the bay colt is out of a mare who has had five winners from as many foals to race. The Mar. 14 foal, consigned by Catesby W. Clay's Runnymede Farm, is a half brother to GSW & GISP Midnight Cry (Smart Strike).

Hip 38 (c, High Yield--My Turbulent Beau, by Beau's Eagle)

Consigned by Hopewell Farm, agent

B-Liberation Farms & Oratis Thoroughbreds (KY)

The March 4 foal is out of a half sister to GI Breeders' Cup Turf hero Prized (Kris S.) and is very closely related to Taylor Made stallion Exploit (Storm Cat). "It's a super family," said Rick Trontz, whose Hopewell Farm consigns the chestnut. "People like to buy colts that have stallion pedigrees. Horses like this could easily become stallions in Kentucky. He is a great physical, a good walker and a good mover. He stands over a lot of ground."

Hip 85 (c, Exploit--Slew Boyera, by Seattle Slew)

Consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, Agent XXXVII
B-F.J.F.M. LLC (KY)

Consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, the chestnut possesses one of the bigger updates in the catalogue, as his three-year-old half brother Awesome Time (Awesome Again) won the June 14 GIII Leonard Richards S. at Delaware Park. The April 16 foal is also a half brother to SW Born Twice (Bet Twice) and GISP Jess M. (Strawberry Road {Aus}) and hails from the female family of Argentinian horse of the year Mat-Boy (Arg). He is bred on a similar cross that produced MGSW Atlantic Ocean.

Hip 91 (f, War Chant--Starry Ice, by Ice Age)

Consigned by Three Chimneys Sales, agent
B-Heiligbrodt Racing Stable (KY).

Consigned by Three Chimneys, this is the lone offering in the sale by the winner of the 2000 GI Breeders' Cup Mile, who stands at the Midway nursery. The mare, winner of the GII Landaluce S. in 1996, is the dam of Forest Danger (Forestry), who sold for $900,000 from the consignment of Hoby and Layna Kight at this year's Fasig-Tipton February Sale in Florida. Starry Ice was purchased by Heiligbrodt Racing Stable at the 2001 Keeneland November Sale for $205,000 carrying this filly in utero.

What They're Saying At The Sales...

MIKE RYAN, bloodstock agent

"There are a lot of very good horses out there, very usable, sound and good looking racing prospects. I think the mood is good, I think it is going to be a competitive market for the athletic and sound individuals. There seems to be a very positive feeling out there. There are plenty of buyers and end users. I think the selection team have done an outstanding job and I think they are going to see a strong sale. It wouldn't surprise me if they went better than last year. There are lots of good things happening in racing. With slots, purses are going to rise and that makes it easier for some people to invest in horses."

JOHN STUART, Bluegrass Thoroughbred Services

"The mood is very upbeat and we've had just as many looks as last year. Today we had eight or nine trainers that haven't been here before. I'm thinking it's going to be a good sale, but the buyers that buy early are going to end up being the smart buyers, because I think the yearling market is going to become stronger and stronger as the year goes on. Our business here at the barn has been good and steady. It's been a busy last three days.

PETER BRADLEY, bloodstock agent

"There are plenty of good horses in here. They put together a solid catalogue. As usual, it's going to be hard to buy a top horse who vets. There are a lot less trainers here than I usually see, the pinhookers are out in droves. That's a good thing, because they bid on a lot of horses, they don't have a favorite sire or family--they just look for an athlete. I think it could be a polarized sale. The top 40 percent will sell very well and bottom 30 percent will struggle. I don't think there is the depth of buyers here to take the mid-level horses. I can see buybacks being up a bit and the upper end being strong."

HILL 'N' DALE HOPING SEVEN IS LUCKY

This morning's opening session could get off to a very fast start when hip 7, a striking colt from the first crop of 1999 Breeders' Cup Classic hero Cat Thief (Storm Cat) strides into the sales ring. The bay, consigned by John Sikura's Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency, has the pedigree to match his good looks. The Feb. 22 foal, bred by Carolin von Rosenberg in Florida, is out of the 11-year-old Deputy Minister mare Langara, herself a half sister to GSW She's Tops (Capote), who has produced MGISW Dixie Union (Dixieland Band), whose first yearlings also sell at Fasig-Tipton.

"We've never had a horse turn out like this," Hill 'n' Dale's Donato Lanni said of the already well-developed colt, who was shown over 130 times on Monday and several more times yesterday morning. "He has such a great mind, he never throws a fit. He's the type of horse you just fall in love with."

That love affair began across town a little over eight months ago. Consigned to last year's Keeneland November Sale by the FitzGerald/Keogh Agency LLC, the colt was purchased for $170,000 by a group called Canadian Club Partners. Lanni signed the ticket for the group, which he describes as a "bunch of friends and family in Canada and the U.S."

So, what was it that attracted Lanni's strong interest?

"He was a very immature colt," he explained, "but he had a lot of leg and just had a presence about him. He takes care of himself and does everything right. He is a very classy individual."

While ice and snow plagued Central Kentucky this past winter, Lanni's colt was quietly making progress beneath his winter coat. It wasn't until the spring, when the colt was brought in for sales prepping, that Lanni realized he could be sitting on a stack of dynamite. Cont. p. 5

"You know, over the winter, they get all big and fuzzy, but we brought him in and he looked great. They [Fasig-Tipton] wanted us to take him to Saratoga [Selected Yearling Sale Aug. 5-7], but we thought he was a really good fit for this sale. And if we didn't have to ship him and we could just keep him in Kentucky, we thought it was a better idea."

Lanni rolled the dice last November, spending a lot of chips on the colt. This morning he hopes the colt helps him make his point.

A Sale of Paramount Importance

Paramount Sales has the distinction of being one of just two consignors at the sale to include an offspring by Fusaichi Pegasus (Mr. Prospector). The Ashford stallion, winner of the 2000 Kentucky Derby, is the sire of hip number 224, a filly out of the excellent producing mare La Chaposa (Per) (Ups), making her a half sister to standout sprinters You and I (Kris S.) and Chaposa Springs (Baldski).

"She is a lovely filly who has made tremendous progress since her weanling year," Paramount's Pat Costello commented. "She has filled out greatly since last year."

Costello would know. Paramount Sales also consigned the filly, bred in Kentucky by W.A. Fabry, to last year's Keeneland November Sale, where she was good enough to attract a final bid of $410,000 from William C. Schettine.

Business has been brisk at the barn, according to Costello.

"We've been flat out busy," he commented. "There are a lot of buyers here and lots of people have stopped by to see her. She's a collector's item on pedigree and her looks and she should be popular. Hopefully she'll be one of the best fillies in the sale."

BOOK REVIEW

By Richard Morris

All Hat, the second novel from Canadian Brad Smith (One-Eyed Jacks) and recently published by Henry Holt, is set in the horse farms outside Toronto and features a portrayal of horse racing and breeding at both the high and low ends of the spectrum. The novel presents the reader with a cast of good old boys from the South (southern Canada, that is) who confront the human condition with country music, friendship and the aid of today's legal narcotics: alcohol, tobacco and caffeine.

The book's anti-hero, Ray Doakes, has just been released after a two-year stint in jail and, now free, has difficulty deciding what to do with his life, including whether to choose former girlfriend Etta or Chrissie, a hard-bitten female jockey based at Fort Erie. He goes to live with old family friend and horseman, Pete Culpepper, who has the eternal optimism present in horse owners and horseplayers in spite of adversity. The ends of Pete's rainbow are anchored at Fort Erie and Woodbine.

Adversity comes from the Stanton family, who has the region by the throat. Billionaire Earl Stanton directs an electronics company as well as a powerful racing stable. He and trainer Jackson Jones prepare their best horse, Jumping Jack Flash, for the Breeders' Cup Classic at Belmont. Trainer Jones and stable hand Paulie are the decent face of Stanton Stables. Offspring Sonny Stanton, with the assistance of developer Dan Rockwood, is the source of trouble for Ray, Pete, and most of the community. Sonny's ineptness weakens his effectiveness. Sonny's cousin Dean provides comic relief.

The other local power center is the Indian Casino that Native American Billy Coon and his "cousins" control. The Casino provides all forms of gambling, including future bets on the races at Greenwood, Fort Erie, and Woodbine.

For vengeance, Ray and Pete, with help from many of Sonny's enemies, plan an elaborate ringer scheme in the Stanton Stakes at Woodbine.

For centuries, prestigious writers have summoned God to the scene in order to arrange a proper ending, and the reader might accuse Brad Smith of doing the same. All Hat is not highbrow fare. It is, however, an interesting, well-constructed narrative that moves the reader swiftly along from introduction to denouement and conclusion. The racing enthusiast looking for light summer reading could do worse.

PREAKNESS HERO ALOMA'S RULER DEAD

Florida-bred Aloma's Ruler (Iron Ruler--Aloma, by Native Charger), who won the 1982 GI Preakness S. over Linkage, died June 21 at a farm about 50 miles North of Chicago, Illinois. The cause of the 24-year-old's death is still unconfirmed, although it is believed to be attributed to the infirmities of old age. Pensioned by Le Roy Bormet earlier this spring at B&B Farm, where he resided since 1996, Aloma's Ruler became the oldest living winner of the second jewel of the Triple Crown following the death of 1979 champion Spectacular Bid June 9. Purchased for $92,000 at Hialeah's juvenile sale in 1981, the dark bay, owned by Nathan Scherr and trained by John J. Lenzini Jr. during his racing career, also won the GII Withers, the Jersey Derby and finished second in the GI Haskell Invitational H., the Suburban H. and the Travers S. Aloma's Ruler, who retired in 1982 because recurring ankle problems, won seven of 13 lifetime starts while amassing $498,883 in earnings.

Summer Colony Bids for Del 'Cap Repeat:

Summer Colony (Summer Squall) will bid to become the fifth filly to win back-to-back renewals of the GII Delaware H. when the dark bay goes postward in the 1 1/4-mile contest Sunday. With a win in last year's GII La Canada S., Summer Colony became the only horse to finish in front of Horse of the Year Azeri when she won last year's La Canada. She also won last summer's GI Personal Ensign H. In two starts this year, the Mark Hennig trainee ran second in the GIII Pimlico Distaff before a three-length victory in the GII Molly Pitcher Breeders' Cup H. at Monmouth Park. Of the possible Del 'Cap repeat, Hennig said, "Anytime you win a big race, it is nice and it would be nice to win it for her sake, too. Anytime you can win any race twice it is a thrill. We just won back-to-back Princess Roneys at Calder with Gold Mover, so it was a thrill, plus the big pot on top of it makes it even more pleasurable." Summer Colony, who worked four furlongs at Belmont Park Monday in :49.16, is expected to ship to Delaware Park Sunday morning. Among her likely challengers Sunday is Take Charge Lady (Dehere), just a head behind Azeri in the GI Apple Blossom H. and second in the June 21 GI Ogden Phipps H. last time out. "She has never won that far before, but she is doing extremely well and I think she will perform well at that distance," commented trainer Ken McPeck. Also expected Sunday is Bobby Frankel's GII Shuvee H. winner Wild Spirit (Chi) (Hussonet) and GISW Mandy's Gold (Gilded Time).

MISS TASSY (f, 3, Sir Cat-Igmaar {Fr} {GSP-US, $133,130}, by Don Roberto) broke her maiden with a wire-to-wire victory in a main track sprint against $25,000 claimers last September, then tried the turf in a Calder allowance Oct. 7 and came away with another win. She didn't race again until May 30, when she was bumped, then eased in an off-the-turf allowance test at Calder. Sent off at 5-1 this time, the bay filly rallied three wide turning for home and outfinished favored Reima Rose (Montbrook) for a one-length tally. The half to What It Is (Parfaitement), SW, $137,040; and Not What I Do (Parfaitement), MSP, $185,956, pressed the early pace two wide, gained command leaving the turn and drew out under encouragement late to score 4 1/2 lengths over Candeelite (Afternoon Deelites). Unraced as a juvenile, Alnamara quickly made up for lost time by winning on her sophomore debut at Saint-Cloud Apr. 8 and followed up with another success at Longchamp May 8. She maintained her unbeaten record here, securing a first stakes win with a determined front-running display under leading rider Christophe Soumillon. The Belgian sent his mount to the front from the outset and the partnership maintained an uncontested lead into the home straight. The odds-on favourite came under pressure as her rivals closed at the quarter-mile marker, but she held enough in reserve inside the final furlong to comfortably account for the running-on Light Jig. Her dam, the winning Alharir, is a half sister to champion Sakhee (Bahri), hero of the 2001 G1 Arc de Triomphe. Bred by Shadwell, Alharir was sold as a three-year-old at the 1998 Tattersalls December Sale, where Eric Puerari acquired her for 125,000 guineas.

DBS APPOINT NEW AGENT

Doncaster Bloodstock Sales Ltd (DBS) have appointed Gianluca di Castelnuovo as their new Italian agent with immediate effect. He replaces Guido Berardelli, whose involvement in the Italian Yearling Sales presented the latter with a conflict of interest. Di Castelnuovo formerly worked for the large Italian shipping agents Tast Cavalli and also founded the Milan-based Racing Factory in 2001. Commenting on the appointment DBS Managing Director Henry Beeby said, "Gianluca will be a valuable addition to the DBS team and we have little doubt that his reputation for efficiency and honesty will attract increased number of Italian buyers to our Sales. We are sad to lose Guido who was a great success, but his increased involvement in the Italian Sales presented some insurmountable difficulties in the immediate future. However, Gianluca is a more than able replacement and we look forward to welcoming him and our many Italian clients to our Sales in the future."
