THE LUCK OF THE IRISH

Irishman Dermot Weld, who brought Pine Dance to Arlington Park to win the 2000 edition of the GII American Derby, returned to Chicago with Evolving Tactics (Ire) (Machiavellian) for this year's running and got the job done once again. Evolving Tactics, a Triple Crown nominee, had just one previous victory to his credit, breaking his maiden in his third start at Cork in April. The Moyglare

Stud homebred jumped right into the Classics off that effort, but could do no better than ninth in the May 24 G1 Irish 2000 Guineas at The Curragh. He had been out just once since, running third in the Listed Hampton Court S. at Royal Ascot June 19, but Weld said yesterday, "I think Evolving Tactics is better than Pine Dance." The colt certainly looked the part in his state-side debut. He tracked Gato Gato Gato (Sir Cat) through pedestrian fractions of :25.11, :51.08, 1:17.16 and 1:41.48, drove to the front in the stretch and staved off the late bid of Californian (GB) (Zafonic) for a neck victory. American Derby cont. p2

THAT'S THE SPIRIT

Could Wild Spirit (Chi) (Hussonet) be the best distaffer in the country? Hall of Fame trainer Bobby Frankel thinks that could be the case after saddling the filly to a dominant six-length victory in yesterday's GII Delaware H. "She's a very good filly," Frankel said. "She has showed that in the morning and now she's doing it in the afternoon. I think she is as good as any female horse in the country. The two races she has won here have been awesome." A three-time Group 1 winner in her native country, Wild Spirit made her U.S. bow in the GII Shuvee H. at Belmont Park May 17 and easily defeated Smok'n Frolic by 3 1/2 lengths as a 10-1 outsider. She was sent off the 4-5 chalk at Delaware Park and did not let the crowd down. Never far from the lead, she shadowed front-running Take Charge Lady (Dehere) to the far turn, then strode past the pacesetter and galloped clear, widening on her rivals even after jockey Jerry Bailey dropped his whip at the eight pole. And all this as a filly just barely turned four. Delaware H. cont. p2

Winning Tactics...

The connections of Evolving Tactics were not sure how the race would play out, but, as it turned out, it all worked according to plan. "We were a little bit worried beforehand that there was going to be no pace, but it went perfectly," winning jockey Pat Smullen said. "I delivered my challenge as soon as we straightened up in the stretch and he went away and won quite well. This horse has got a good turn of foot. We used that to our advantage and got away from the second horse and held on to win." Smullen believes there is room for improvement in the colt. "He's a bit immature," he said. "He's still a baby and, being in front, he was looking around at the stands, but he'll be better."

Future Plans...

Pine Dance followed his American Derby victory with an eighth-place finish in the GI Secretariat S. Weld will try to better that result with Evolving Tactics. "The plan would be to bring him back for the Secretariat [GI, Aug. 16]," the trainer said, adding, "I'll probably bring Dimitrova [winner of the American Oaks] for the Beverly D., and see if we can find one for the Million." Runner-up Californian is also expected back for the Secretariat. Delaware H. cont.

Pace Makes the Race...

Jerry Bailey sensed the pace was slow, with Take Charge Lady dawdling through a half in :49.41, six furlongs in 1:13.95 and a mile in 1:38.50, and kept the leader in his sights. That might have made the difference in the result. "I knew by the time we went by the wire the first time that we were going pretty slow," Bailey said. "I knew that, as soon as I had the opportunity, I was going to go ahead and force the issue. I shot her through a gap and it was pretty much all over after that."

Summer Colony Comes Up Empty...

Defending Delaware H. champ Summer Colony (Summer Squall), coming off an easy win in the GII Molly Pitcher Breeders' Cup H., was sent off the 5-2 second choice. Under restraint while rating off the early pace, she had nothing left for the finish and ended up a well-beaten sixth.

Odds: 11.90, 2.30, 2.00. Also Ran: Asong for Billy, Nazirali (Ire), Stormin' Heaven, Tifonica (Arg), Night Patrol. Scratched: Nates Colony.

Puerto Banus had posted a win vs. optional claimers May 24 and a second in a money allowance June 22 in his two previous tries over the Hollywood turf, both at a mile and a quarter, but was let go at double-digit odds trying graded-stakes foes at a mile and a half here. Allowed to settle off the pace as jockey Julie Krone sent Night Patrol (Storm Boot) out to a long lead through moderate fractions, the chestnut colt came with a three-wide bid on the final bend. He angled even wider as Cagney drove to the front in the stretch and finished full of run to catch the Brazilian-bred in the shadow of the wire. "The speed helped today," winning jockey Victor Espinoza said. "There was more pace than the last time he ran. That's what he likes--to come from off the pace and make a strong, long run the last eighth of a mile." Added trainer Kristin Mulhall, a week away from her 21st birthday, "I knew he would be off the pace, and I was worried that he was going to get stuck down inside. But Victor did a good job of getting him to the outside--he rode him great. He asked at the eight time." Favored Continental Red, up close early, was one-paced late and had to settle for third. The well-traveled Strut The Stage, who had won half of his previous eight starts at Woodbine, ended his 2002 campaign with a victory in the GII Sky Classic H. at the Canadian course Oct. 27. The five-year-old had been out just once since, closing to be second to Perfect Soul in the June 15 GII King Edward Breeders' Cup H. Stretching out off that nine-furlong affair, the chestnut settled in fourth as longshot Angel On the Wing took them along through moderate fractions. Perfect Soul, a tracking second early, took over at the eighth pole, but this time Strut The Stage had enough ground to run him down, gaining the lead inside the sixteenth pole and drawing clear. "I had [Perfect Soul] measured, but I knew we were going to have a horse race," winning jockey Todd Kabel said. "He's just a tremendous little horse. He's small, but he has a heavy engine in there. He's all racehorse." Added owner Tammy Samuel-Balaz, "We're thrilled. I think he ran a fantastic race and Todd did a great job." Maryland-bred Foufa's Warrior's first attempt in graded-stakes competition saw him run second at 33-1 to Ten Most Wanted in the GII Illinois Derby Apr. 5. His connections opted to skip the Kentucky version, but he did make his next start at Churchill Downs, finishing third to Senor Swinger in the GIII Crown Royal American Turf S. May 2. Seventh to Funny Cide in the GI Preakness S. two weeks later, Foufa's Warrior met up with Senor Swinger again and finished fifth in the GIII Jefferson Cup S. June 7. Jockey Ramon Dominguez allowed his mount to settle into stride near the back of the pack here, then asked him to pick it up heading into the far turn. Fanned four wide at the top of the stretch, the chestnut wore down Remind to gain command in the final strides and set a new course record. Favored Lismore Knight loomed a threat in midstretch, but gave way late. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Successful in a Class 2 handicap at Cologne June 15 and third last time in a Class 1 handicap at Hamburg June 26, Picotee made his first attempt at group company a winning one with this game effort. The eventual winner raced in a stalking second behind Corriolanus for much of the contest and made his main challenge at the top of the straight. The pacesetter proved nothing if not game by maintaining his prominent role for most of the stretch run, but Picotee's momentum carried him to the front with 100 yards remaining. The six-year-old had to dig further nearing the line to withstand the late surge of Caluna by a neck. The race lost some of its lustre beforehand when British raider Leo's Luckyman (Woodman) was scratched as the field assembled at the start, but that did not lessen the delight for trainer Andreas Bolte, who was also recording his first group victory.

Queen's Plate hero Wando waltzed home over this sticky surface, giving him the first two legs of the Canadian Triple Crown. Second to MGSW Lismore Knight in the GII Summer S. on grass last September, Wando was a very impressive winner of the GII Grey Breeders' Cup S. Oct. 6, but had a wide trip when 12th in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Oct. 26 and was freshened up in preparation for his three-year-old campaign. After missing by a neck in his seasonal bow Mar. 30, the handsome chestnut has been unstoppable, winning the six-furlong Woodstock S. Apr. 19 before wiring the field in the Gill Marine S. going a mile and a sixteenth May 17. His Queen's Plate was a tour de force as he assumed command early and never looked back, winning by nine lengths over talented stablemate Mobil while earning a 111 Beyer Speed Figure in that June 22 contest. There were no rivals of that caliber in this field, and Gustav Schickedanz's homebred took the lead entering the first turn and cruised along with his ears pricked while under a tight hold from jockey Patrick Husbands. Husbands asked Wando for a bit more at the top of the stretch and the three-year-old responded, lengthening his stride while winning with consummate ease. The Aug. 9 Breeders' S., contested over 12 furlongs on turf at Woodbine, is the final leg of the Triple Crown, which carries a C$500,00 bonus to the winner. Six three-year-olds have captured all three races, most recently Peteski in 1993. The other winners are Dance Smartly, Izvestia, With Approval, Canebora and New Providence. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

The traditional low turnout for this contest has been boosted by an upgrade to Group 2 status for the first time and Team Godolphin will use this as Sights On Gold's platform for better things to come. Winner of the Listed Kilternan S. for the combination of Moyglare Stud Farm and trainer Dermot Weld last year, he was acquired by Godolphin for his four-year-old campaign and was second behind Ipi Tombe (Zim) on his debut for the operation at Nad Al Sheba Mar. 8. He then finished sixth to same rival in the G1 Dubai Duty Free at the same track three weeks later, a race which heralded the end of his Arabian adventure. A first group win came in the G3 Brigadier Gerard S. at Sandown May 27, at the expense of Parasol (Ire), and he is confidently expected to secure this prize. Royal Stamp, a lightly raced individual, has solid place claims based on a gutsy second to stablemate Ikhtyar (Ire) in the Listed Gala S. at Sandown July 4.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

HOLLYWOOD CHANGES FESTIVAL RACES The distances for the GI Hollywood Derby and the GI Matriarch S., the highlights of Hollywood's Turf Festival, will be changed this fall. The 64th running of the Hollywood Derby will be run at a mile and a quarter, a furlong farther than in years past, while the Matriarch will be shortened an eighth to a flat mile. Explaining the distance changes, Racing Secretary Martin Panza said, "The Derby had a nine-horse field in 2002 and had to be spruced up. We think it's a better fit to the calendar at a mile and a quarter, especially from a European standpoint. The added distance worked for the American Oaks, and the richer purse should get people's attention." The purse for the Hollywood Derby has been boosted from $500,000 to $600,000. Regarding the Matriarch, Panza said, "We only had six horses last year, but we think this adjustment will change that because there are no [Grade I] mile [turf] races for fillies and mares in America, a very prominent distance in Europe. It really helps horses that can't get a mile and a quarter [the distance of the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf] and horses that don't want to run against the boys in the Breeders' Cup Mile." Both races will be run Nov. 30 this year. The purse for the GII Citation H., set for Nov. 29, has been reduced $100,000 to $400,000. There will also be a new nomination process, which eliminates sustaining payments for all three races. Nominations for the trio of turf stakes will close Aug. 15.

Well Fancied, the crowd's choice, rolled along on the front end to win this feature by daylight. Fourth to Shake You Down in the Gill Bold Ruler H. May 10, the bay ran into another GSW in True Direction when second in a May 24 allowance, but hit his best stride June 13 with a wire-to-wire victory over a sloppy track. He had never gone a route, but the five-year-old broke alertly, assumed his customary position in front and never looked back as he cruised round the track. "All he had to do was prove he could get the distance," said winning trainer Richard Dutrow, Jr. "It looks like we have some options now [in terms of distance]. I don't think I'm going to take him to Saratoga. I freshened him up last summer and that worked." Millionaire Gander (Cormorant) ran sixth as the 3-1 second choice.

Wage a Penny graduated by a nose going a half furlong shorter over Pimlico's main track June 7 and made the move up to allowance company in style last time when she destroyed seven rivals by 9 1/4 lengths over course and trip June 29. The heavily backed choice to remain unbeaten over the Colonial sod, the bay jumped out to an early advantage, steadily increased her lead throughout and was never threatened as she drew off to score by daylight.

Apr. 5. She bounced back to take the Alywow S. on turf May 31 and was bet down to 1-2 in her return to the main track here. Stalking the pace while three wide, the Stronach colorbearer had her hands full with Nicely Nasty (Defrere) in the stretch, but shook free of her late for a 2 1/2-length tally.
