FULTON LEAVES WEARING A BROAD SMILE

After buying four horses over the first two days of the sale, Sunland Park Racetrack owner Stan Fulton took home an additional four lots during last night's final session of the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Yearling Sales in Saratoga Springs, New York. Bloodstock advisor Tim McMurry, bidding on Fulton's behalf, saw off Buzz Chace to secure the evening's top-priced offering in hip 156, a colt by Storm Cat out of GSW & GISP Broad Smile (Broad Brush). Consigned to the sale by Taylor Made on behalf of ClassicStar LLC, the dark bay was knocked down for a final bid of $1.2 million. "We liked him. What else can I say? We liked him," Fulton commented. Added Taylor Made's Mark Taylor, "He was a beautiful colt. He is by the best stallion in the world, he's out of a tremendous racemare, but any time you get seven figures you've got to be elated. I thought he would go for somewhere between a million and a million five." Fulton, who also accounted for the Fasig-Tipton July sales-topping colt by Fusaichi Pegasus--La Chaposa (Per) has been very active in sales pavilions over the past few seasons and has begun to expand his operation with a focus on well-pedigreed colts. Fulton was also the winning bidder on a pair of $550,000 colts. Hip 147 is by the late Seattle Slew out of the Distinctive Pro mare Bad Pussycat, whose first five foals are by Holy Bull, including the very fast Bam Bam Bull. Hip 181 is by Cozzene out of Devine (Seattle Slew), a full sister to MGISW Lakeway and from the family of Saratoga Six. So, can we expect all three to line up in a future maiden special weight event on the Texas/New Mexico border. "Probably not," Fulton said with a chuckle.

You can also pick up a copy of the TDN today at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Preferred Yearling Sale.

A Star Consignment...

David Plummer's ClassicStar enjoyed a very productive Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale as a consignor, highlighted by yesterday's $1.2-million Storm Cat colt. The operation turned in an eye-opening performance during Tuesday's first session, selling three yearlings for a total of $1.6 million, nearly 10 percent of the gross. With the able assistance of Taylor Made Sales Agency as their agent, ClassicStar also successfully sold a colt by Giant's Causeway for $400,000, an A.P. Indy filly for $500,000 and a Fusaichi Pegasus filly for $700,000. "We were very happy," Plummer admitted. "Not only did we sell those three [Tuesday night], we also had the fourth that we didn't sell, but we have the mare, La Gueriere [dam of Tuesday night's $750,000 Unbridled's Song colt]. So our four mares did really well." Plummer bought La Gueriere from last year's Wimborne Farm dispersal for $610,000. While Tuesday night's A.P. Indy filly, out of Grade I winner Likeable Style, was bought in utero for $925,000 at the 2001 Keeneland November sale, ClassicStar bred the Giant's Causeway colt from MGSW Irish Linnet. "We have 70 to 80 mares and we breed them to leading stallions and sell them when they become yearlings," Plummer explained. A 30-year veteran of the horse business, Plummer has been raising and breeding Thoroughbreds for the past 13 years.

Banner Sale for Bluewater...

Bluewater Sales is one of many consignors who reaped the benefits of the strong market at Saratoga, selling nine head for $3,180,000. Last night's three-horse draft was headlined by the Seattle Slew colt purchased by Stan Fulton. "I thought he could have brought a little more money, being from the last crop, but we were real happy," said Bluewater's Meg Levy. "Any time you sell a horse for a couple hundred thousand dollars or a half million dollars, you have to be happy." Levy must be grinning from ear to ear. Overall, three of her nine horses sold for over half a million dollars, topped by hip 109, the $675,000 Forest Wildcat half brother to Soto. "It's the best sale I've attended in the past five years. I think the realism of the consignors has kept the RNAs down. We've been very happy with the way our horses have sold. The Forest Wildcat was a little higher than we expected. There is a lot of Storm Cat in that horse. You can tell that there was a lot of action on that horse and we had the right people on it, but you really never know what they are going to bring until two people go head to head."

Unbridled Continues To Leave His Mark...

The popularity of Kentucky Derby and Breeders' Cup Classic hero Unbridled at the Saratoga Sale was unmistakable as the three offerings from his final crop of yearlings sold for a combined $3.56 million, led by Wednesday's $2.7-million sales topper. His bay filly, consigned to last night's final session by Lane's End, was purchased by Mike Ryan, as agent, for $585,000. The Jan. 30 foal is out of the 19-year-old mare Hangin On a Star (Vice Regent), who was ironically purchased out of the 2001 Keeneland November Sale for $585,000 carrying this filly in utero. She is a three-parts sister to Comet Shine (Fappiano), a Canadian champion and multiple stakes winner. "She has an outstanding pedigree and outstanding looks and she has a lot of potential, both on the racetrack and as a broodmare. To me it was a no-brainer," said Ryan.

Fasig Officials Smiling Broadly, Too...

While the sale failed to scale the heights of 2001, officials at Fasig-Tipton were overjoyed with the end result, which showed remarkable strength in every statistical category. For the identical number of horses through the ring, this year's sale posted a robust 36.8-percent jump in gross receipts, a 24.5-percent leap in the average and a 33.3-percent hike in the median. Perhaps most important of all, the company reported sales on nearly four of every five horses, resulting in a 25-percent decrease in the buyback rate. "This was a very strong horse sale," boasted Fasig-Tipton President Walt Robertson. "I think we can safely say that from hip number one through hip number 217 we have never had as consistent and strong a group of yearlings as we had here this year. Our selection team did a great job in finding the right horses for the right buyers. I will attribute it most to the quality of the horses, plain and simple. There may be other factors out there right now, the game is good, but I think the change from last year to this year is due mostly to the quality of the horses; the better pedigrees and the better physicals. We had a similar sale to this sale a couple of years ago and we hope we have this type of sale every year. I've seen the sale up and I've seen it down and I like up better."

Ryan Burning Candle At Both Ends...

Bloodstock agent Mike Ryan has had an exhilarating three-day run at Fasig-Tipton, both as a buyer and a seller. Not only did he team with fellow Irishmen Gerry Dilger and Robbie Lyons on the profitable sale of the colt by Unbridled's Song--La Gueriere (Lord at War {Arg}), which brought $750,000 during Tuesday night's opening session, but he was also the winning bidder on several well-bred horses which he purchased on behalf of several different clients. Ryan has been impressed by the sale. "I think [the sale] has been very solid," he commented. "I don't think we're seeing the crazy prices of years gone by, but I think it's been a honest sale. The sellers seem to have come here prepared to accept the prices people are willing to pay for horses. They're turning horses into money, which is exactly what everyone is after." Ryan has an excellent record where it comes to selecting horses, having picked out such solid performers as Eclipse Award winner Caressing, the outstanding European sophomore filly Russian

Mike Ryan Horsephotos

Rhythm and GSW Scrimshaw, to name just a few. He spends most of his money in the mid 100s, but has recently taken on a new client, who is willing to play at the upper levels. Ryan signed tickets on four horses over $400,000, including hip 63, a High Yield--Profit System (Copelan) colt he bought Wednesday night for $525,000. He was also the underbidder on the $1.4 million Unbridled's Song colt out of Silken Cat. "It's exciting," the Kentucky-based Ryan admitted. "I've had some success dealing with a more limited budget, but I've never had anyone step up to the plate to be able to play at the higher level."

Hail to the Chief...

In a year highlighted by an exciting group of up-and-coming stallions, Chief Seattle (Seattle Slew--Skatingonthinice, by Alleged) has been making headlines of his own. Although the six-year-old hasn't been posting monster numbers like Kentucky Derby hero Fusaichi Pegasus or the 'Iron Horse' Giant's Causeway, he has been drawing solid support from a well-respected cast of buyers, including Godolphin representative John Ferguson. Ferguson purchased the sole offering of the Spendthrift stallion for $200,000 during Wednesday's session. According to Bill Betz, who manages the stallion for Darley, Chief Seattle has proven "very popular since he came to stud" and "is the highest-rated son of Seattle Slew since A.P. Indy." Showing great precocity as a juvenile when he placed in both the GI Champagne S. and the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, Chief Seattle has shown the ability to stamp his offspring, according to Betz. "The response to his offspring have been very good," he said. "It is a testament to the stock he is getting. His babies have good knees, heart girth and stand over a fair amount of ground. When people saw his foals, they were very enthusiastic about the horse." An added dimension to the horse is a deep turf influence in his female line, giving his connections high hopes for the stallion's future. "His female family has produced a lot of runners that have raced in Europe and most of the group horses in his pedigree performed well on the grass," said Betz. With a pair of fillies selling for $210,000 (out of Aspenelle, purchased by prominent California owner B. Wayne Hughes), and $170,000 (out of De Sister, bought by Sabine Stable) at Fasig-Tipton's July sale, Betz is hopeful that the stallion will enter his fourth season and have an even better season than his third. "The first indicator whether a horse will do well as a stallion is the quality of his offspring," said Betz. "The market response has been strong and he has become even more popular in his third season at stud, which is usually when a stallion may slow down until his babies hit the track."

Quiet at the Top?...

During the first two days of the Fasig-Tipton sale, a prominent name seemed to be missing from the sale's tickets. Hall of Fame trainer D. Wayne Lukas, who came into the sale saying he had money to spend, had not signed a ticket in the first two days of the three-day auction in Saratoga. "I've been an underbidder on a number of horses, a couple of high ones," Lukas said. But Lukas was not been completely shut out of the bidding. "I'm not signing, my clients are signing," he explained. "What I've done in the last few years, because of tax implications, you sometimes leave yourself a little bit vulnerable. I think it's important that if somebody bids 'x' amount of dollars on a horse, he puts his name on the sheet. I'm behind the scenes coaching a little bit, but I'll stay on the sidelines unless the owner asks me to." Explaining his attraction to certain stallions, he said, "We like to support our stallions, the horses that we trained, but we are not locked in. I was just speaking to Aaron Jones...I love the Forestrys, for example. They are running very well for me. I bought a couple last year, so I told him, I would buy a Forestry every time if I liked it every time." Of the deep class of young stallions, Lukas said, "You get a feel for what you like and for what you don't like. You sometimes get some that surprise you and some that disappoint you on the new sires, but overall, they are OK."

Sunny Skies For Seitz'...

Good things come in small packages. Just ask the Seitz family, whose Brookdale Farm had a successful sale, both as a consignor and as a stallion operation. Despite bringing just two horses to Saratoga, each sold very well. Hip 60, a Forest Wildcat (Storm Cat) full brother to stakes performers Forest Heiress, Forest Heir and Wildcat Heir, brought $475,000 from John Ferguson, while hip 98, a Silver Deputy filly from the family of Breeders' Cup Sprint winner Very Subtle, was hammered down for the same price to the bid of Eugene Melnyk. Forest Wildcat, who stood in 2001 for $25,000 at Brookdale Farm and $60,000 this year, had four horses sell for gross receipts of $1,420,000, an average of $355,000.

The filly is herself a half sister to Unbridled Beauty (Unbridled's Song), a $750,000 Saratoga sales graduate who was second in this year's Astarita S. at Belmont Park for Bob & Beverly Lewis.

ClassicStar celebrated yet another sales success when this 3/4 brother to stakes-placed Echevarria (Awesome Again) fetched $500,000. Taylor Made also consigned the mare to the 2002 Keeneland January Sale, where she sold to David Plummer's group for $425,000 carrying this foal.

Hip 197, c, Yankee Victor--Far Away Kisses, by Farma Way

 Purchased by Klaravich Stables
 B-Glen Ridge Farm (Fl)
The dark bay colt was the lone representative in the sale from the first crop of the Saint Ballado stallion and sold well at $400,000. The Feb. 23 foal, a half brother to SW & GSP Secret Lover (Friendly Lover), previously sold as a weanling for $320,000 at last year's Keeneland November Sale.

What They're Saying At The Sales...

John Fulton, bloodstock agent

"I thought it was a good sale. It was a healthy sale. We made a some buys here that we felt very comfortable with. We paid right about where we thought we'd have to. Good individuals. They've done a great job of putting together good stock. They keep bringing us back. Fasig Tipton has done a good job of putting together a good catalog. I think the individuals were better this year. I think they've done a good job of continuing to improve their individuals and that makes me want to come back to this sale."

Tom Van Meter, Eaton Sales, consignor of hip 214

"Bob Baker and Mr. Mack, they raced Grand Slam, they raced the sire. They bought that horse from us. We sold Grand Slam. Grand Slam has just become the most phenomenal sire in the world today. The rising star of sires. [About the price] I thought he might kick on little a bit. I thought he could bring $750,000, but the market was a little tight tonight. It was a little tougher. But that was good money and we're tickled that he's going to such a great home."

Meg Levy, Bluewater Sales, who will also consign 85 horses to the Keeneland September Sale

"If this is an indication of the way the American horse market is going, I have good expectations. The secret is being realistic with your expectations and understanding where the market is. Because I think there is a ceiling to the market. [Wednesday's] horses that went over a million dollars, that is kind of hard to predict. For the most part, it has been a very steady market. The RNA rates...to be down to these levels, it's great. Last year, we were excited to have a 30 percent RNA rate at any given sale. But I think it has good things to say about the market. maybe the new tax deal has helped."

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

RED RANSOM TO DALHAM HALL Darley has announced that Red Ransom (Roberto) will relocate to their Dalham Hall Stud in Newmarket, England for the 2004 breeding season for a fee of £35,000, Oct. 1 terms. The 16-year-old stallion had stood his entire career at Vinery Kentucky. He is represented by five stakes winners in Europe thus far in 2003, headed by G1 Epsom Oaks heroine Casual Look. "Red Ransom has proved himself to be an exceptional stallion," said Darley's John Ferguson. "He's sired a Breeders' Cup winner, a European Horse of the Year, Royal Ascot juveniles and, of course, an Epsom Oaks winner. He's having a spectacular season with two Group 1 winners, his stock love the turf, and we're thrilled to be able to offer him to European breeders." Bred by Paul Mellon in Virginia, Red Ransom set a track record in winning his debut at Saratoga as a two-year-old, but was limited to just two more career starts and entered the breeding shed in 1991. He has been represented by Eclipse Award winner Perfect Sting and top European miler Intikhab. Vinery is retaining its majority interest in the stallion and will jointly manage his career. "Since his early successes with the likes of Sri Pekan and Intikhab, Red Ransom has been rightly popular with European breeders and with owners who race in Europe," said Bates Newton, Vinery's general manager. "We remain absolutely committed to him. He's been a good friend to Vinery, but we're delighted he has this opportunity to move to Darley. The strong books of mares he's covered in the last few seasons mean he's assured an even more successful future."

Off-the-Turf Distance Change:

New York Racing Association Racing Secretary/ Handicapper Mike Lakow has announced that, beginning Aug. 13, races carded for older horses at one mile on the turf will be run at seven furlongs if forced to be contested on the main track. "I am hoping that this holds more horses in the race," said Lakow. "A lot of these horses running at a mile are stretching-out sprinters. Most of them would rather run one turn instead of stretching out to a mile and an eighth going two turns." Grass races for two-year-olds, typically run at 1 1/16 miles, will continue to be contested at seven furlongs if switched to the main track.

Born in Argentina with an All American pedigree, Bauhauser captured the G3 Clasico Carlos Menditeguy before being purchased by U.S. interests. The grey returned from a nine-month break to run second going three-quarters in a Churchill allowance July 2 and was sent off as the second choice in this five-horse field. In second through the opening half, she took charge turning for home, then turned back a late challenge from odds-on Slews Final Answer in deep stretch.

despite hailing from Todd Pletcher's shedrow with a solid work tab. She got off to a sluggish start, but John Velazquez asked her to come through a tight spot on the rail heading into the turn and the dark bay responded willingly. She opened up in midstretch and cruised home 3 3/4 lengths clear of 20-1 Audrey Hep (Crafty Prospector), who nipped even-money Gone for Christmas (Gone West) at the wire for second. The winner, a $200,000 FTSAUG yearling purchase, is out of mare closely related to champion sprinter Housebuster (Mt. Livermore). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $27,000.

Jockey Gunn Paralyzed:

Jockey Remi Gunn sustained severe spinal damage in a spill in Wednesday's fourth race at Ellis Park and is paralyzed from the waist down, according to Daily Racing Form. The 43-year-old jockey had been riding Betty Sue when her mount appeared to clip heels and then fell, throwing her rider to the ground. A trailing rival, She's Got It, couldn't avoid the fallen pair and also went down, tossing jockey Greta Kuntzweiler. She's Got It appeared to roll on Gunn. Both jockeys were taken to a hospital; Kuntzweiler was diagnosed with a separated right shoulder. Gunn, a single mother of three children, had won 12 races from 262 career mounts. Her primary source of income in recent years had come from a boarding and training farm she owns in Citron, Florida. "We're all saddened by this," jockey Jon Court told DRF. "Remi is facing some very serious spiritual and emotional issues."

One D In, One D Out of the D:

Dublino (Lear Fan), who most recently dead-heated for second in the GI John C. Mabee H. at Del Mar July 26, has been added to the list of starters for the GI Beverly D. S. at Arlington Aug. 16. After originally indicating that the four-year-old filly would pass the race, trainer Laura de Seroux has had a change of heart. "I had thought she might need a little break, but it still looks like she's going forward," the conditioner told Daily Racing Form. "I really feel that the divisional championship is wide open. I looked at the race and realized we couldn't afford to wait here in the stall." The news comes on the heels of the announcement that Moyglare Stud Farm's Dimitrova (Swain {Ire}) will not be making the trans-oceanic trip. The winner of the American Oaks last month at Hollywood, the three-year-old filly could be rerouted for the GI Garden City Breeders' Cup H. versus her peers at Belmont Park Sept. 7.

WHAT A GREY DAY

Newmarket racecourse's innovative greys-only race, a six-furlong handicap at the track Aug. 16, has attracted a positive response from trainers and owners alike. Almost 20 trainers have indicated that they are likely to enter their greys in the £10,000-added SportingOdds.com Grey Horse Handicap, with many already saying that theirs will definitely run in the contest for three-year-olds and upwards. "We are thrilled that trainers and owners are getting behind this unique race and we are looking forward to the tremendous spectacle of grey horses scorching across the turf on the day," said Lisa Hancock, managing director of Newmarket Racecourses.
