Ron Winchell's Cuvee (Carson City) avenged his loss to Limehouse (Grand Slam) in the GII Saratoga Special S. yesterday afternoon, breaking alertly and setting a swift pace of :21.28 and :44.51 en route to a comfortable 7 1/2-length triumph. The flashy chestnut had aired in his first two career starts, breaking his maiden by 6 1/4 lengths May 2 and adding an 8 1/4-length tally in the GIII Kentucky Breeders' Cup S. May 26. But he came back to earth in the GIII Bashford Manor S. July 6, enduring a rough trip before coming on for third behind Limehouse that day. "He was away cleanly and what a difference it made," said winning trainer Steve Asmussen. "He threw an ear forward and looked really relaxed. We'll think Futurity [GI, Belmont, 1m, Sept. 14]." Spendthrift Farm announced in late July that they had acquired a half-interest in Cuvee, who was produced by a half sister to Winchell homebred millionaire Olympio. Favored Pomeroy (Boundary), making his stakes debut, chased Cuvee throughout before settling for second.

HAWK'S FLIGHT OVER The talented Hawk Wing (Woodman--La Lorgnette, by Val de l'Orne {Fr}), who sustained a knee injury in the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot, has been officially retired from racing and will enter stud at Coolmore Stud in Ireland. A stud fee has not yet been determined. Bred in Kentucky by Hill 'n' Dale Farm, Hawk Wing was produced by Canadian champion La Lorgnette, heroine of the 1985 Queen's Plate. He sold for $225,000 as a weanling at Keeneland November and brought $300,000 the following year at Fasig-Tipton Saratoga. Carrying the colors of Mrs. John Magnier, the bay won three of four starts at two, his only loss coming to stablemate Rock of Gibraltar (Ire) in the G3 Railway S. He completed his two-year-old campaign with a record-setting win in the G1 Aga Khan Studs National S. Considered by trainer Aidan O'Brien to be capable of challenging for the Triple Crown, Hawk Wing came up a neck short in the G1 2000 Guineas to Rock of Gibraltar, then found another barnmate, High Chaparral (Ire), a little too tough over Epsom's 12 furlongs in the G1 Vodafone Derby, finishing second by two lengths. The handsome colt came back to post a stylish victory in the G1 Coral Eclipse S. before registering a pair of runner-up efforts in the G1 Irish Champion S. and the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. The year had taken its toll on him, however, and he wound up seventh in the G1 Breeders' Cup Classic on the dirt at Arlington in October. Hawk Wing seemed to deliver all of his potential in his 2003 bow when he crushed his rivals by 11 lengths in the G1 Juddmonte Lockinge S. at Newbury May 17, a performance that earned him a Timeform of 137. Sent off the 8-13 favorite in the June 17 Queen Anne, he never looked comfortable and wound up seventh to Dubai Destination. He was discovered to have suffered an injury to a ligament in his knee shortly after that race. Hawk Wing heads to the breeding shed with a record of five wins and five seconds in 12 career starts, with earnings of over $1.6 million. "He was an exceptionally natural horse," O'Brien told PA Sport. "He was a brilliant worker and a natural athlete. I always considered him to be brilliant, and he came up against Rock of Gibraltar and High Chaparral last year, who were two of the best horses in training."

Frankel Fleet Hit the Track:

A strong group of runners from the Bobby Frankel juggernaut hit Saratoga's main track Wednesday, including multiple Grade I stakes winners Sightseek (Distant View) and Aldebaran (Mr. Prospector). The former, who most recently won the GI Go for Wand H. by 11 1/2 lengths at Belmont July 27, completed a half mile in :49 4/5, while Met Mile and San Carlos victor Aldebaran worked five panels in 1:01 3/5. Also on the worktab were a pair of Juddmonte pupils: War Zone (Danzig), a multiple graded stakes winner, breezed six furlongs in 1:14 1/5; and Blue Boat (Gulch), an allowance winner at Saratoga July 23, was timed in :47 2/5 for a half mile. War Zone is nominated to the GI Fourstardave H. at Saratoga Aug. 23, while Blue Boat may make his graded stakes debut in the GI Saratoga Breeders' Cup Aug. 16.

First Work for Chapel Royal:

Undefeated Chapel Royal (Montbrook), in tandem with another Todd Pletcher trainee, unraced two-year-old Purge (Pulpit), worked Wednesday for the first time since taking the GI Sanford S. at Saratoga July 24. The pair negotiated five furlongs in :59 2/5, the fastest of 43 works over the main track. Purge was scheduled to make his career debut last Sunday, but those plans were scrapped when the race was cancelled due to unsafe track conditions. "They both worked really well," said Pletcher. "[Chapel Royal] was set back by the weather and we needed to get this work in." Chapel Royal is scheduled to make his next start in the GI Hopeful S. over the track Aug. 30. "He's such a smart colt and he's improved so much," added Pletcher. "That race [Hopeful] is a good fit for him."

Shug Sizes Up His Runners:

Trainer Shug McGaughey, recovering from a dislocated left shoulder, watched Saarland (Unbridled) and Yell (A.P. Indy) work over the Oklahoma track yesterday morning. Saarland, who covered three-eighths in :37 4/5, could go next in the GI Philip Iselin H. Aug. 23 at Monmouth. Runner-up in the Met Mile, he was most recently a close sixth in the GI Whitney H. after getting trapped on the rail. Yell hasn't visited the winner's circle since taking the GI Davona Dale S. over the winter at Gulfstream. She was fourth in the 12-furlong GI CCA Oaks last out, but will likely be looking to cut back in trip next time. "I think she is more suited to shorter distances like seven furlongs and a mile," McGaughey continued. "We looked at the Ballerina [GI, 7f, Aug. 24] and we're thinking about giving her a shot." McGaughey also trains the unbeaten three-year-old filly Alchemist (A.P. Indy), who won a second-level allowance at Saratoga July 25. The blaze-faced chestnut, the first foal of GISW Aldiza (Storm Cat), will make her stakes debut back at Belmont. "I think she can really develop into a nice horse for next year," McGaughey said.

Colonial Bay had cashed checks in seven of his previous eight trips to the post this season, finishing sixth to subsequent GSW Sharp Impact in an off-the-turf affair at Belmont June 8, third to Robbie's Rockin in an 11-furlong turf event June 27, but most recently registered a 3/4-length success over that same trip July 18. Part of an entry sent off as the second favorite, the bay stalked front-running Jackpot from second, pressed on by that rival approaching the final furlong and pulled clear. Blazing Fury (Dynaformer), favored at 9-10, raced within easy striking distance, but offered no rally and finished fourth.

On the sidelines until a fifth-place finish in her stateside debut in a $20,000 optional claiming event at Colonial Downs last time out July 14, the half to Banyumanik (Ger) (Perugino), Hwt Older Horse-Ger at 7-9.5f, MGSW-Ger & GSP-Fr, $164,357, was sent off the 7-2 second choice to try and reach the winner's circle for the first time in over two years. Steadied going into the first turn and forced to check on the far turn, the bay recovered well to moved within striking distance a furlong out and closed well to score by 2 1/2 lengths over Sky Cover (Sky Classic). Arabic Song returned to the winner's circle for the first time since last May in a bizarrely run race. Stakes-placed in France, the bay captured her first two U.S. starts before finding the likes of Dublino and Megahertz (GB) a bit too tough. Given a break following a fifth in the GI Del Mar Oaks last summer, she ran second and third, respectively, in a pair of one-mile allowance contests at Santa Anita over the winter, then returned at Hollywood June 25 to finish third in an allowance. Southern Oasis (Southern Halo) leaped into the air on the first turn, forcing favored Spring Star and Voz de Colegiala (Chi) (Sayaret) way out, but Arabic Song was able to tuck in and settle into stride. She angled out approaching the stretch, took aim at pacesetter Belleski and forged to the front late. Spring Star became rank after the incident on the first turn, but managed to hold off Reefs Sis (GB) (Muhtarram) to save third.

RACING MOURNS DEATH OF KELLY

Jumps jockey Kieran Kelly died on Tuesday evening from head injuries suffered in a fall at Kilbeggan on Friday evening. After being kicked in the head and rolled on by his mount, he had spent the weekend fighting for his life in Dublin's Beaumont Hospital, but the 25-year-old was pronounced dead at around 7:30 p.m. Racing at Gowran Park was abandoned on Tuesday night and a minute's silence was observed at all race meetings in Britain and Ireland yesterday as a mark of respect. Ex-jockey Charlie Swan led the tributes. "It's heartbreaking," he told PA Sport yesterday. "Kieran was a real gentleman who always sought my advice, wanting to see how he could improve. He was a very good rider and I am just devastated by what's happened." Kelly's career had reached a high when winning the Royal & SunAlliance Novices' Hurdle at the Cheltenham Festival in March on Hardy Eustace (Ire).

Hoh Buzzard had shown her mettle in handicap company, looking highly progressive when winning at Newmarket June 28 and Goodwood last time July 30. That day, she benefitted from an aggressive ride from the front under Kieren Fallon to gallop her rivals into the ground and Jamie Mackay took over where the champion jockey had left off to bounce her from the gate here. Challenged by Echoes in Eternity inside the final quarter, she pulled out more to turn down that challenge before holding off the closer Quiet Storm under a drive.
