PERFECTION AT LAST

Six Perfections (Fr) (Celtic Swing {GB}) finally got her moment in the sun as she led home a one-two for the finish Niarchos family, beating Domedriver (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) by a short neck in a thrilling renewal of the G1 Prix du Haras de Fresnay-le-Buffard-Jacques le Marois at Deauville yesterday. Supplied with the ample early pace she requires by Fomalhaut (Spinning World), the 4-1 second choice was able to transmit her energy to the business end of the race and swooped to conquer under Thierry Thulliez with 250 yards remaining. Pressed by her stable companion under Kieren Fallon in the drive to the line, she found extra to gain the big-race success she deserved. Six Perfections was rated the highweight juvenile filly in the 2002 International Classifications after winning the G1 Prix Marcel

DAI JIN STORMS TO POKAL WIN

Dai Jin (GB) (Peintre Celebre) unleashed a dramatic turn of acceleration to brush aside Next Desert (Ire) (Desert Style {Ire}) and provide conditioner Andreas Schutz with a one-two in yesterday's prestigious G1 Credit Suisse Private Banking-Pokal in Cologne. Despite the general opinion in Europe suggesting that the sophomores had it to do against their elders, the tide turned with the resounding success of Alamshar (Ire) in the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at the end of July. The portents were strong when Ransom o'War bested his elders in the G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis at the beginning of this month and now Dai Jin has furthered the claims of the Classic generation. It was Ransom o' War who felt the sting of Dai Jin's speed in the G1 Deutsches Derby last time July 6. Meeting contrasting conditions to the testing ones prevalent that day, he was settled in last place yesterday by Olivier Peslier off the solid early fractions set by Warrsan (Ire) (Caerleon). He needed reminders before the turn into the straight, but responded to challenge wide as Next Desert dived up the inner under Andrasch Starke. Quickening emphatically to head that rival with 1½ furlongs remaining, Dai Jin was pushed out with hands and heels to assert from there. The winner will be aimed at the Oct. 5 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. Next Desert will run in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden Sept. 7. Six Perfections Comes Home First... (cont. from p. 1)

Six Perfections (Fr) (Celtic Swing {GB}) started favorite for the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket May 4, but found Russian Rhythm 1½ lengths too strong after a troubled trip. Luck was not on her side again when a short-head runner-up to Yesterday (Ire) in the Irish equivalent at The Curragh May 25, after which she was rested. She shaped with promise off an unsuitably steady early pace when finishing a neck runner-up to Bright Sky (Ire) in the G2 Prix d'Astarte at Deauville last time Aug. 3. "Six Perfections has always been a lovely filly and everybody knows how unlucky she has been not to win at least one Classic," conditioner Pascal Bary said after the filly's victory in yesterday's G1 Prix du Haras de Fresnay-le-Buffard-Jacques le Marois. "Maybe some doubted her, but she has put things in place and silenced them. She really deserved that and got a perfect run and a perfect ride." Of Domedriver, he added, "He is a tough little horse and has run a great race on a track he loves." Bary will keep the duo apart until Santa Anita, he revealed. "Six Perfections might pass on the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp [Sept. 7] and we might take Domedriver there if the owners agree. They will probably both go for the GI Breeders' Cup Mile [Oct. 25]." Dubai Destination (Kingmambo), sent off the even-money favorite, threatened briefly inside the final quarter before staying on into fifth. He was declared for tomorrow's G1 Juddmonte International S. at York, but connections may opt to sidestep that test now. "That was a very disappointing run," Godolphin's racing manager Simon Crisford said. "He was plenty fit enough, but not the same horse as the one who won the G1 Queen Anne S. We will have to look him over before deciding where to go next." Click for the Racing Post chart or the brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Sand Springs began her sophomore campaign with a string of three-straight victories at Churchill Downs, culminating with a three-length triumph in the June 14 GIII Regret S. She set the pace and held on gamely to finish second in the competitive American Oaks at Hollywood Park July 5 last time out. Favored to return to the winner's circle here, the dark bay filly jumped out to the early lead. She enjoyed a six-length advantage after half while setting fractions of :23.26 and :46.41. Her lead narrowed to two lengths in upper stretch and the filly was all out nearing the wire to hold off Indy Five Hundred. "She was ready to run today, probably a little too ready to run," commented winning trainer Tony Reinstedler. "She was very prompt early and you really can't try to grab her or rate her too much. She's just that type of filly. I think the :46 half mile softened her up a little bit, but she did run a good race." Winning jockey Mark Guidry added, "I knew she was going fast, but I didn't want to grab her and have her fight me. She's a gutsy filly. She got tired inside the eighth pole, but she never gave up." Reinstedler said the Sept. 7 GI Garden City Breeders' Cup at Belmont Park would likely be next for Sand Springs. Perfect Moon sold for $4,700 as a yearling and could have been claimed for $40,000 from his maiden win at Hollywood Park May 14, but after a second-place finish in the June 21 Haggin S., the bay colt proved himself a force to be reckoned with in the two-year-old division with a 2 1/2-length victory in the July 19 GIII Hollywood Juvenile Championship. Third choice in this field of 10 juveniles, Perfect Moon stalked the pace while racing three wide down the backstretch. Still wide, the colt forged to the front in deep stretch and outfinished Capitano despite drifting out late. "He ran a great race," winning jockey Pat Valenzuela said of Perfect Moon. "[Trainer] Mel [Stute] is amazing. He keeps getting these cheap horses and doing wonders with them. Imagine what he'd do if he got one of those million-dollar horses." Stute added, "Today, at the head of the stretch, the three horse [Siphonizer (Siphon {Brz})] was making a move and my wife [co-owner Annabelle Stute] groaned, but I told her I knew the horse would have something left; which he did. I do think the farther he goes the better he's going to be. He's improved really well over the past couple of months." The 9-5 favorite Siphonizer, a maiden winner at Del Mar Aug. 2, was blocked along the rail to midstretch and had no late rally, finishing fifth. "I couldn't get clear," his jockey Julie Krone explained. "If I had, I think I might have been right there." Disturbingthepeace capped a three-race graded stakes win streak with a narrow score in last year's GII Pat O'Brien H., but was winless in six starts since. The bay five-year-old was most recently sixth in the July 26 GII Bing Crosby Breeders' Cup H., another race he won last season. The veteran sprinter, four for six at this distance, battled for the lead before taking a slim lead leaving the backstretch. Disturbingthepeace continued to extend his advantage into the stretch and safely held off the late rally of Rushin' to Altar. "This looks more like the horse we were running last year," commented winning trainer Darrell Vienna. "This race is almost a carbon copy of some of those other races, where he hooks horses and comes away from them. He had two other cooks with him in the kitchen, but they bailed on him." Bluesthestandard (American Standard), the 3-2 favorite, dueled for the early lead but tired to seventh. "He was laying good," said jockey Alex Solis, who rode the beaten favorite. "He was feeling good. And at the quarter pole, he just quit." Click for the brisnet.com chart, the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree or the video race replay.

Volga, fifth in the 2001 Breeders' Cup F/M Turf, counted a runner-up finish in the GII New York H. and a third-place effort in the GI E P Taylor among her six 2002 starts, but the Irish-bred mare had not raced since finishing seventh in the Dec. 7 GIII My Charmer H. at Calder. Allowed to settle near the back of the pack early, Volga was faced with a wall of horses nearing the lane and swept to the outside for the stretch run. She closed powerfully to take the lead in deep stretch and won going away. "She was tons the best," said winning rider Joe Bravo. "Once I turned the filly loose, she just exploded past all the other fillies. She's a real classy horse." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Refuse to Bend capped a highly successful afternoon for conditioner Dermot Weld and jockey Pat Smullen as he made light work of this comeback. Despite connections' earlier belief that he would make into a middle-distance performer, the Moyglare homebred blotted his otherwise perfect record when 13th in the G1 Epsom Derby last time June 7. That sub-par performance prompted Weld to return to the mile over which he had excelled when winning the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket May 3. Although he was joined by stable companion Military Option (Red Ransom) in this race, he showed his wellbeing by breaking better than that one from the gate. Reined back by Smullen to take a lead from the rabbit, Refuse to Bend traveled strongly before being allowed to run on at the top of the straight. Quickening to settle the result in a few strides, he powered clear inside the final quarter as Latino Magic stayed on his wake. "He was a few kilos up on his Newmarket Guineas weight," Weld commented. "The long-term objective is the GI Breeders' Cup Mile [at Santa Anita Oct. 25]. I was delighted with the ground which was safe for him and he hopped off it. He will either go for the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp [Sept. 7] or the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. [at Ascot Sept. 27] before the Breeders' Cup." Click for the racingspost.co.uk chart.

STEVENS STILL HOSPITALIZED Hall of Fame jockey Gary Stevens remained hospitalized yesterday, a day after a frightening spill at the finish of the GI Arlington Million. Stevens suffered a collapsed lung, but no broken bones when he fell from his mount Storming Home, who veered sharply at the finish of the Million. According to his agent Eddie Goldstone, Stevens remains in the critical care unit of Northwest Community Hospital in Arlington Heights, IL. He hopes to be released Wednesday and currently plans to ride unbeaten Candy Ride in Sunday's GI Pacific Classic.

ROUND TABLE ON WAGERING SECURITY The National Thoroughbred Racing Association Wagering Technology Working Group and Giuliani Partners LLC issued recommendations for improved security of the pari-mutuel wagering system in the United States at yesterday's 51st annual Jockey Club Round Table Conference on Matters Pertaining to Racing, held at the Gideon Putnam Hotel in Saratoga Springs, NY. The group suggested three new security measures: creation of a national office of wagering security; establishment of a uniform, minimum security standard for all entities in the wagering system; and enhancement of the technology infrastructure of the wagering system to enable incorporation of additional cyber-security measures. The Wagering Technology Working Group was assembled last fall in response to the Breeders' Cup Pick Six scandal. The group retained Giuliani Partners, headed by former New York City Mayor Rudy Giuliani, as well as the Technology and Security Risk Services practices of Ernst and Young. "The National Thoroughbred Racing Association and the entire horseracing community are committed to protecting one of America's most popular sports and entertainment activities," Giuliani told the Round Table conference. "Horseracing fans can be confident that the actions outlined at today's conference will enhance the integrity of electronic wagering systems." During the conference, the WTWG recapped its ongoing examination of other Pick Six and Pick Four wagers placed in 2002. After reviewing more than 1,100 wagers, the working group and Giuliani Partners have found no evidence of further fraud. Of the steps already implemented by the industry and those outlined yesterday, Giuliani commented, "They are a foundation for comprehensive, long-term improvement and the industry is to be commended for moving so quickly and so substantively."

HARLAN'S HOLIDAY LIKELY RETIRED Multiple Grade I winner Harlan's Holiday (Harlan--Christmas in Aiken, by Affirmed) was injured while running eighth in Saturday's GI Saratoga Breeders' Cup H. and will likely be retired, according to trainer Todd Pletcher. "He's torn his medial suspensory branch in his right hind," Pletcher explained. "There's some heat and inflammation. He's not lame on the leg. Basically, what [jockey] Johnny [Velazquez] said was as soon as he went to his right lead down the backside, he came off the bridle and felt like something was amiss at that point. When we got him back here and got the bandages off, we could see right away there was some filling in that area. We're going to give it a few days and then ultrasound it. That will determine more about his future." During his sophomore campaign last year, Harlan's Holiday won the GI Florida Derby, GI Toyota Blue Grass S. and GIII Pennsylvania Derby. This season, the bay won the GI Donn H. and was second in both the GI Hollywood Gold Cup and the G1 Dubai World Cup. On the board in 16 of 22 starts, Harlan's Holiday won nine races and earned $3,632,664.

DOMEDRIVER TO LANWADES Last year's GI Breeders' Cup Mile winner Domedriver (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}--Napoli {GB}, by Baillamont) will retire to Kirsten Rausing's Lanwades Stud at the end of his 2003 campaign, it was announced yesterday. After the five-year-old's short-neck defeat by stable companion Six Perfections (Fr) in the G1 Prix du Haras de Fresnay-le-Buffard-Jacques le Marois at Deauville, the Niarchos family homebred was reported to be on course for the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp Sept. 7 and a repeat bid in the Breeders' Cup Mile at Santa Anita Oct. 25. However, he is due to stand at the Newmarket venue at the close of the season. "Whatever happens from now until the end of the year, we have decided that Domedriver will be retired at the end of the season," Alan Cooper, racing manager to the Niarchos family, commented yesterday. "He will stand in England next year at Kirsten Rausing's Lanwades Stud alongside Hernando."

Voodoo ended 2002 with an 11 1/4-length allowance score at the Big A Nov. 29, but returned in the GIII Aqueduct H. Jan. 18 with a well-beaten fifth-place finish. He was then put on the shelf until the July 4 GII Tom Fool H. at Belmont last time out and ran fifth, 8 3/4 lengths behind Aldebaran. Made the lukewarm favorite in this one, the chestnut pressed the pace while racing from the outside, dueled with Here's Zealous throughout the stretch and gamely prevailed after a long drive.

HARVEY GIRL (f, 3, Dynaformer--With Gratitude {MSP, $166,839}, by Plugged Nickle) ran second in her only previous start this year going a mile at Gulfstream Park Feb. 7 and the crowd sent her off the lukewarm 5-1 third choice to get off the mark this time. Forced to steady on the first turn, the $75,000 KEE OCT yearling was unhurried through six furlongs, finally launched her bid approaching the home stretch and closed strongly late to get up for a half-length win over 8-1 shot Spring Season (Seeking the Gold) with 6-1 chance Red Zinger (Red Ransom) back in third. Melvin Calvert Passes Away:

Veteran horseman Melvin "Sunshine" Calvert passed away Wednesday at the HCR Manor Care nursing home in Plantation, Florida. He was 93. The Tennessee native rode his first winner at Washington Park in 1932 and finished third aboard Darby Dieppe in the 1945 Kentucky Derby--his only mount in the Run for the Roses. A longtime trainer for Frances Genter, Calvert trained Rough 'n' Tumble, In Reality and My Dear Girl. He retired from training in 1982.

Peter Shannon Dies:

Peter Shannon, a fixture among New Jersey owners for more than 25 years, died Saturday morning after a long illness. A resident of Avon-by-the-Sea, Shannon was CEO and CFO of Linde-Griffith Construction Company of Newark. From 1980 through 1985, the Navy veteran started more horses and won more races than any other owner in New Jersey history. "He was a terrific friend and a terrific father," said John Forbes, who trained for Shannon for 22 years. "He not only had a great love for racing, but a tremendous respect for it. Everyone here will miss him." Among the stakes winners to run in Shannon's colors are 1987 Oceanport H. winner Sovereign Song and 1995 Lady's Secret and Personal Ensign S. winner Quaker Bonnet. In 2000, he was honored by Monmouth Park with the Virgil "Buddy" Raines Distinguished Achievement Award, which honors horsemen who have demonstrated a continuing commitment to the sport of Thoroughbred racing as an owner or trainer, and whose conduct has been exemplary for professionalism, integrity and service to the sport. Shannon is survived by his wife of 37 years, Susan, their three children and nine grandchildren. Respects may be paid Aug. 19 from 9 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. at the Ascension Church in Bradley Beach. A Catholic Mass will follow at 11 a.m. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in his memory to the Cannizzaro/Shannon scholarship fund, which Shannon founded to help college applicants pursue their academic dreams. The address is 152 Passaic Street, Newark, NJ 07104.

 Seeking the Ring faced the wolves in only her third lifetime start, the GI Selene S. at Woodbine May 19, and still managed to finish a respectable fourth behind Too Late Now. A neck back in second to that foe next time in the nine-furlong Labatt Woodbine Oaks over that track June 8, the bay came back July 1 to score with ease in the Bison City S. at Fort Erie. Most recently, the filly finished a dull seventh in her turf debut in Woodbine's 10-furlong Wonder Where S. Aug. 4, but that didn't deter the crowd, who sent the homebred off as the hot favorite. On top early, the sophomore held a narrow lead all the way around and held on for the win.

Zietory started the year with a handicap score at Newbury May 17 before finishing sixth and runner-up in two similar events at Newmarket May 24 and July 8. Settled in a stalking role by jockey Thierry Jarnet throughout the early stages of this contest, she was short of room as Gonfilia was committed by Frankie Dettori in the straight. Once in the clear, she quickened to cut down that rival in the final stride. According to trainer Paul Cole, "We thought she was up to this class, but she had to prove it and she quickened well. Now we will step her up again."

BIG GUNS SET FOR CHAMPIONS' DAY

Officials at Newmarket racecourse were looking forward to a star-studded Champions' Day Oct. 18 as the £400,000 G1 Emirates Airline Champion S. attracted an entry of 77 and £230,000 G1 Darley Dewhurst S. a total of 113 at yesterday's stage. Among the sophomore contingent engaged in the 10-furlong Champion S. are the 2000 Guineas and 1000 Guineas winners Refuse to Bend (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Russian Rhythm (Kingmambo), G1 Epsom Derby winner Kris Kin (Kris S.) and G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. winner Alamshar (Ire) (Key of Luck). Nayef (Gulch), who took the race two years ago, this year's G1 Eclipse S. winner Falbrav (Ire) (Fairy King), last year's Epsom and Irish Derby and G1 Breeders' Cup Turf winner High Chaparral (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and G1 Dubai World Cup scorer Moon Ballad (Ire) (Singspiel {Ire}) head a strong entry from the older generation. Lisa Hancock, managing director of Newmarket Racecourses, said yesterday, "We could have hardly hoped for a better entry for the 2003 Emirates Airline Dubai Champion S., and the race promises to form a memorable highlight of Champions' Day on Saturday, October 18."

Not all former racehorses can go on to second careers.

Londonnetdotcom had remained winless since breaking her maiden at Kempton last July, but had endured a busy campaign with aplomb. Despite her frequent visits to the racecourse, she showed she retained her enthusiasm when fourth behind the smart Tantina in the Listed Oak Tree S. at Goodwood last time Aug. 1. Taken to the front in the early stages by jockey Steve Drowne, she was challenged by Hector's Girl (GB) (Hector Protector) mid-race, but maintained her composure to hold her advantage. Headed briefly by Sheppard's Watch at the furlong marker, she battled in game fashion to regain the lead soon after and draw away for a deserved first stakes score.

Off here as the well-supported 2-5 favourite, Fyodor set a modest pace from the outset before being pushed along at the top of the straight. Asked for his best approaching the final furlong, he kept on well in the closing stages to defeat Local Poet (GB) (Robellino) by two lengths. The victor, a 55,000gns TATDEC weanling purchase, represents the 24th winner for his leading freshman sire (by Nureyev). Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-1, £11,479.

Under the burden of a penalty on his seasonal debut, Vinnie Roe gave 17 pounds and first run to Carpanetto, but came out on top in a thrilling finish. The Dermot Weld-trained five-year-old has taken everything his pioneering conditioner has thrown at him and come back for more, winning the 2001 G1 Prix Royal-Oak (French St Leger), the last two renewals of the G1 Irish St Leger and finishing fourth as the highweight in the G1 Melbourne Cup at Flemington in November. Racing keenly in the hands of Pat Smullen after his subsequent 285-day absence from the track in these early stages, he soon settled in a stalking fourth as jockey Mick Kinane attempted to steady the pace from the front. As Carpanetto led the sprint in the short straight, Vinnie Roe appeared held, but his momentum carried him to the front in the final stride. According to Weld, "He will go for the G1 Irish St Leger again [at The Curragh Sept. 13] and then we'll take it from there. He could go for the G1 Prix Royal-Oak [French St Leger at Longchamp Oct. 26] or G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe [at Longchamp Oct. 5]."
