THE PERFECT SCRIPT

The winner of the GIII Lake George S. at Saratoga July 28 and third in the Aug. 17 GII Lake Placid H. at the Spa, Film Maker (Dynaformer) proved equal to the task of Grade I company yesterday, surging to the front in the final lunge to best European invader Maiden

Tower (GB) (Groom Dancer) by a nose in the Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup at Keeneland. Never out of the top three in her seven previous turf tries, the homebred filly accounted for Ocean Drive (Belong to Me) by 2 1/2 lengths in the Lake George, but finished 3/4 of a length behind Sand Springs (Dynaformer) and Indy Five Hundred (A.P. Indy) in the Lake Placid. Settled in mid-pack, Film Maker advanced four wide into the stretch, bumped with Maiden Tower at the sixteenth pole and twice more in deep stretch, but managed to find the wire first. Casual Look (Red Ransom), the winner of the G1 Epsom Oaks earlier this year, raced with cover early and made a big late move to be a close third.

STAR QUALITY

Criquette Head-Maarek has kept up the family tradition of winning France's major races, and she is in the position to collect her fifth renewal of the G1 Prix de la Foret with Juddmonte Farm's Etoile Montante (Miswaki) at Longchamp today. Like the heroine of 12 months ago Dedication (Fr), Etoile Montante tested the waters in the one-mile G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches and finished third, then reverted to seven furlongs to beat the ill-fated State of Art (Fr) in the Listed Prix des Lilas at Compiègne May 26. The filly emerged from a summer break to finish a one-length runner-up to Porlezza (Fr) in the Prix Maurice de Gheest at Deauville Aug. 10, but warmed up for this by beating older horses in the Listed Prix du Pin over course and distance Sept. 20. No horse has won this twice since Moorestyle (GB) achieved the double in 1981, and 2001 hero Mount Abu (Ire) (Foxhound) has to prove he retains his ability. The six-year-old, winless in six starts since taking this event two years ago, makes his first appearance since finishing fourth in the G3 Ballycorus S. at Leopardstown June 11. British raiders have proved successful nine times since 1980 and the progressive Polar Ben (GB) (Polar Falcon) warrants respect. He delivered a potent turn of acceleration to beat With Reason and Tarjman (GB) in the G3 Park S. at Doncaster last time Sept. 11. Soft ground will help Capricho (Ire) (Lake Coniston {Ire}), who took the six-furlong G3 Holsten-Trophy at Hamburg July 5 before finishing a creditable fourth in the International H. over this trip at Ascot last time July 26.

Andrew and Lasca Bowcock, who had to endure a drawn-out court case in order to secure Beautiful Crown (Chief's Crown) for their Alanbridge Stud in the Hunter Valley, were rewarded for the efforts when the stallion was represented by two Group winners in Melbourne yesterday. Crown Princess (Aus) kicked off the double by taking the G3 Thoroughbred Club S. earlier in the day. She was followed by the lightly framed In Top Swing, who closed from third to take the lead in the stretch and kept on to the wire to best the rallying Face Value. "I got there a bit sooner than I wanted, but at the 50 metres, I knew I was home," winning jockey Noel Callow said. The heavy favorite, Exceed and Excel (Aus) (Danehill), who was nearly scratched due to a virus, set the pace, but faded late to be sixth.

 Settled at the back of the pack early, Lonhro was still eight lengths from the leaders with 1000 metres to race, but swept past the field at the top of the straight to win with his ears pricked. The winner of the G1 Caulfield Guineas two years ago, the coal-black entire pegged back the legendary Sunline (NZ) to take this event last season. He follows in the hoofsteps of the great Kingston Town (Aus), who captured the Yalumba in 1981-82. "He was born to race, this horse," jockey Darren Beadman said. "Everyone wanted to be up there early, but I did not want to get caught in the rush, so I waited patiently. He's a super horse." Unfortunately, Beadman will not be available to ride Lonhro in the G1 Cox Plate, as he was suspended until Oct. 25 for both-ering third-placed Defier as he circled the field.

South Australian invader Roman Arch took advantage of a clean trip, sprinting down the outside as several more fancied runners were bottled up inside to post the upset here. The five-year-old was coming off a fifth-place finish at Flemington Oct. 4, but was aided by a five-kilo shift in the weights and the slightly softer ground at Caulfield. Trainer Mick Whittle also credited the fact that his runner was stabled at the track for a week before the race. "He has been here with my wife, and not traveling from South Australia for the race has made the difference," Whittle said, adding, "I'm not stunned--the horse has a lot of ability." Nine-year-old Umrum, who has appeared at no less than seven straight Caulfield Guineas fixtures, set the pace and held well for third.

Stroll received another hedge-clipping ride from Jerry Bailey and powered away from his overmatched rivals to register his fifth straight victory. A six-length allowance winner over the Belmont turf course May 10, the attractive bay added a 2 3/4-length score in the Lamp-lighter S. at Monmouth Park July 5. The Claiborne homebred continued to dominate with a facile four-length score in the GII National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame H. at Saratoga Aug. 4 and most recently snuck through along the inside to pull clear and defeat GISW Kicken Kris by two solid lengths in the GII Jamaica H. at Belmont Park Sept. 21. A 1-9 chance through most of the wagering, Stroll was headstrong and difficult for jockey Jerry Bailey to control as he raced and was steadied in heavy traffic first time past the stands. Still very eager down the backside, Bailey guided the colt over towards the inside, took command leaving the three-eighths marker and kicked clear as much the best. "He was a little rank early, but he can be that way," the winning rider commented. "I had to let him run just enough to hold my spot and when I did that he thought I was asking him to run. I didn't have to ask him, all I had to do was open my hands and allow him to run." The winner will be freshened for a four-year-old campaign and will winter at Payson Park north of Miami. Never worse than second in his six previous turf starts, Kicken Kris followed a second as a 31-1 shot in the July 12 Virginia Derby with an upset score at 15-1 in the Aug. 16 GI Secretariat S. at Arlington Park. The bay was a well-backed 3-1 in the Sept. 21 GII Jamaica H., but had to settle for second behind Stroll; that rival picked up a fifth straight victory in yesterday's GIII Calder Derby. Playing the role of favorite for the first time in his career here, the Brushwood colorbearer shadowed 28-1 Carrier (Skip Away) through soft fractions and poked a head in front after 10 furlongs. He opened up daylight at midstretch, but just held on over the fast-closing Rowans Park. "He's a big strong horse that moves at the same speed the entire race," jockey Javier Castellano said. "He was looking around at the top of the stretch because he was by himself, but I got into him and he responded." As for what's next, trainer Michael Matz said, "Our plan was to give him six weeks off after this and then go on to the Hollywood Derby [10 furlongs, Nov. 30]." Click for the brisnet.com chart. For the video race replay, select: broadband or modem.

Best of the Rest, the winner of this race in 1999 and 2000, had to settle for the runner-up spot for the second straight year as Tour of the Cat posted a gate-to-wire score. Also successful in the seven-furlong GII Richter Scale Breeders' Cup H. at Gulfstream Park back in March, Tour of the Cat was off the board in two of his next three starts while sprinting, but stretched out to two turns for his most recent start and earned a front-running triumph in the off-the-turf GIII Miami Mile Breeders' Cup H. Sept. 1. The second choice to make it two in a row, the Florida-bred gelding was first out of the gate and led at every call, with Best of the Rest, making his first start since taking Gulfstream's GIII Skip Away H. in April, living up to his name. "He's awesome," winning jockey Abad Cabassa Jr. said. "They came to him, but he was still fresh and dug in." Added trainer Myra Mora, "He's been long for his last two races, partly because I at one point I thought the sprinters were a little stronger. I'm not sure if that's true now, but, fortunately, with him it doesn't matter because he can do both." The bay will be pointed for the nine-furlong Carl G. Rose Classic S. at Calder Nov. 15. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum's homebred ltnab has a curious blend of speed and stamina in her pedigree, but she showed that the combination works on what could be her final racecourse start. By speed-influencing stallion Green Desert, she also has inherited a lot of the staying power that saw her dam Midway Lady win an Epsom Oaks for Ben Hanbury. Tapped for acceleration when fifth behind Favourable Terms (GB) in the Listed Distaff S. over a mile at Sandown July 5, she improved for the step up to 10 furlongs when taking a handicap at this track last time July 26. Settled in mid-division by Richard Hills off the respectable early tempo here, she was asked to quicken approaching the turn into the short straight. Chorist had been committed by Kieren Fallon, but began to falter at the quarter-mile marker, leaving ltnab to hook up with Summitville and Frankie Dettori before asserting in the final 200 yards. Conditioner Ben Hanbury announced that he will "try and persuade" the winner's owner/breeder to keep her in training as a four-year-old.

Fantastic View took a seven-furlong maiden on his debut at this track July 25 before finishing 1 3/4 lengths behind the smart Punctilious (GB) when runner-up in a Salisbury conditions event Sept. 4. He picked up three pounds for winning the Listed Stardom S. at Goodwood eight days later, but defied that penalty to maintain his upward progression in this contest. Settled in a stalking fourth throughout the early stages by Pat Dobbs, he was always traveling easily and arrived at the head of affairs with quarter of a mile remaining. Sent into a clear lead from there, he was never in danger as Menokee stayed on to fill the runner's-up spot. "We bought him at the Tattersalls Breeze-Ups," conditioner Richard Hannon explained. "He travels very well in a race, but he does idle a bit when he gets to the front. We've got him in the G1 Gran Criterium [at Milan Oct. 19], and I'll have to have a word with Malih Albasti, but I would imagine that would be the end for him for the year." Majestic Missile defied a penalty and destroyed this field to suggest he can be a leading player in the championship sprints next term. Brought along steadily by William Haggas in the early part of his career, he demonstrated blistering speed to take a maiden at Kempton July 2 before beating Nights Cross in a conditions race at Chester nine days later. He had that rival back in second when winning the G3 Molecomb S. on a rain-softened surface at Goodwood July 31, but finished 2 1/2 lengths behind Balmont when sixth in the G2 Gimcrack S. over a furlong further at York last time Aug. 20. Breaking smartly from the gate, he was reined back by Kieren Fallon to stalk old foe Nights Cross, but was full of run inside the final quarter. Asked to quicken, he responded immediately, instantly opening up to settle the result in a few strides. "He's got a lot of talent, is a very fast horse and Kieren felt he went a bit early," Haggas said. "I ran him at York under a penalty because I wanted to know if he would stay the six, but I don't think he ran well and never looked like winning. Unfortunately he couldn't run in the G2 Flying Childers S. last time because he had a little setback at the wrong time. He's come back well." 11	10	Salselon (GB)	Salse	Ciciarelli	125
12	6	Zarewitsch (Ire)	Night Shift	Schiergen	125

Italian-trained horses have suffered a drought in this race since Jurado captured its inaugural running as a Group 1 contest in 1988. But that statistic may be cast to the rubbish bin as a strong home defence is assembled, headed by Le Vie dei Colori. The colt beat Prince Kirk by 2 1/2 lengths in the G2 Premio Parioli (Italian 2000 Guineas) at Rome Apr. 27. He bested that rival again last time out, finishing second as Prince Kirk settled for third in the Listed Premio del Piazzale at this track Sept. 21 and should confirm placings again. Last year's G2 Premio Ribot winner Altieri has been off the track since finishing third in the G1 Premio Presidente della Repubblica at Rome May 11, but has major claims on last year's form. Salselon took the G3 Prix Edmond Blanc at Saint-Cloud Mar. 29 before finishing runner-up in the G2 Premio Emilio Turati over course and distance May 18. He holds subsequent G3 Diomed S. winner Gateman on that form. Passing Glance has developed from a handicapper into a smart stakes performer, comprehensively beating Bear King and Zarewitsch in the G2 Oettingen-Rennen at Baden-Baden last time Sept. 2. Last year's hero Slickly (Fr) provided Godolphin with their third renewal of this contest since 1999, and Blatant may not have to improve on his fourth placing behind Falbrav (Ire) in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot last time Sept. 27 to take this.

All carry 126 pounds.

After Johan Cruyff (GB) opened his account in this race in 1996, Aidan O'Brien won six straight renewals, but had the streak broken 12 months ago, when Alamshar (Ire) ended his run with a head defeat of Brian Boru (GB). That winner was trained by John Oxx and the conditioners go head-to-head again here. Ballydoyle have a contingency of three, headed by smooth Tralee maiden winner Five Dynasties. The half to this year's G1 Irish Derby third Roosevelt (Ire) may have the edge over stable companions Mikado and Amalie Bay, both of whom needed their first runs before breaking their maidens. Oxx is represented by His Highness the Aga Khan's Azamour, who scored in convincing fashion in a seven-furlong Curragh maiden on his only start Sept. 14. He has questions to answer on pedigree over this mile, but will be helped by the prevalent lively conditions. Dermot Weld has not won this since 1995, but bids to end his drought with Relaxed Gesture. The Moyglare Stud color bearer looked a smart prospect when winning a Leopardstown maiden last time Aug. 17 and is another who will appreciate this fast surface.

Following a 7 3/4-length allowance victory versus males at Prairie Meadows Aug. 3, Lovethatlegend caught the eye of bloodstock agent Mark Reid, who ultimately brokered a deal which saw the Iowa-bred filly sold to Peter Karches for a reported $365,000. In her final start for her previous connections, the bay was a 5 1/2-length winner of the Aug. 30 Iowa Sorority S. The lone graded winner in the field is Einar Robsham's Feline Story, who took the GIII Sorority S. at Monmouth Aug. 30. The bay found the one-mile distance of the Sept. 14 GI Matron S. too tall of a task in her latest and will be well-suited by the cutback to a sprint. Undefeated Smokey Glacken has never been headed in her two trips to the post and the half sister to champion sprinter Smoke Glacken comes in off a 2 1/2-length score in the Forward Gal S. at Monmouth Sept. 21.

'Drift' Perfect in Classic Prep...

Stonecrest Farm's Perfect Drift (Dynaformer), a recently confirmed starter for the Breeders' Cup Classic, worked five furlongs yesterday morning at the Trackside Louisville training center in 1:01.20 beneath regular exercise rider Joe Deegan. The move was clocked in fractions of :13.60, :25.80, :38 and :49. The four-year-old gelding galloped out six panels in 1:13.60 and was still running strongly past the seven-furlong marker in 1:26.20. "If you set him alight, he'll set off real quick," Deegan explained. "If you set him off relaxed, he's got a great kick. It would be easy to get him stirred up and get him speed crazy, but if you get him relaxed and ask him for that punch, he's got an unbelievable turn of foot when you ask him." Trainer Murray Johnson revealed yesterday that Gary Stevens will have the mount in the Classic. Pat Day, who has ridden Perfect Drift in each of his last four starts, will honor a previous commitment to ride GI Travers S. winner Ten Most Wanted (Deputy Commander) in the $4-million race. Stevens, the winner of eight Breeders' Cup events, has never won the Classic, but was second aboard Bertrando the last time the Breeders' Cup visited the Oak Tree meeting in 1993.

Azeri Back on Track...

Reigning Horse of the Year Azeri (Jade Hunter), who had an 11-race winning streak snapped in the GII Lady's Secret Breeders' Cup H. Sept. 28, returned to the track yesterday at San Luis Rey Downs, drilling a sparkling half mile in :45 4/5, easily the best of 10 works at the distance. "I would have to say so," replied trainer Laura de Seroux when asked whether the five-year-old would defend her championship in the Breeders' Cup Distaff Oct. 25. "This was exactly what we were looking for. She worked great and she scoped clean afterwards." The chestnut filly was found to have bled slightly after her runner-up finish to Got Koko in the Lady's Secret.

Medaglia d'Oro Zips Seven Furlongs...

Medaglia d'Oro (El Prado {Ire}), one of the likely favorites for the Breeders' Cup Classic, tuned up yesterday morning with a strong seven-furlong drill in 1:25 at Hollywood Park. Jockey Jose Valdivia Jr. was aboard for the move. "They said he went great," trainer Bobby Frankel told The Blood-Horse from Keeneland, where he was saddling a pair of fillies in the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup. "Jose has worked him several times and said this was the best he's ever worked." Jerry Bailey has the call in the main event.

Cactus Sharp at Hawthorne...

Undefeated Cactus Ridge (Hennessy) worked a solid half mile yesterday morning at Hawthorne Race Course in :49 2/5, his first serious work since registering a front-running victory in the GIII Arlington-Washington Futurity Sept. 27. Jockey Eddie Martin, Jr., who rode the colt to his victory at Arlington, was in for the move. "Everything went great, it couldn't have gone any better," trainer Bret Calhoun said yesterday from his base at Louisiana Downs. "He started off at the half-mile pole and they got him five furlongs in 1:02 and change [1:02 4/5]. We really didn't want too much." Despite making his first trip to the Breeders' Cup, Calhoun is taking a very relaxed approach. "Really, I felt a lot more pressure going into the [Futurity] than this one," the conditioner explained. "There was a lot on the line. He had to run well if we were going to think about the Breeders' Cup. We think we have a legitimate chance of winning." Cactus Ridge is scheduled to have his final work next Saturday at Hawthorne. Martin has a return call in the Juvenile.

Beauty Halo won two of three starts as a three-year-old in Argentina, including the G3 Clasico Manuel J Guiraldes S. Purchased by WinStar Farm and brought to the States, the dark bay made an inauspicious debut, finishing sixth in a grassy Gulfstream allowance race in February. Switched to the main track, she wired a field going six furlongs over this track in mid-April and, after a lengthy absence, made it two straight using identical tactics. The Elliot Walden trainee set rapid fractions up the backstretch and dug in when challenged by Flaxen Flyer for the victory.

HELLO MATILDA (f, 3, Roar--Buck Peay, by Spend a Buck) didn't break her maiden until her sixth start, but has been unbeatable since. The bay earned her first win at Ellis Park Aug. 16 and added a front-running allowance victory at Turfway Park Sept. 13. Overlooked at 15-1 at the prestigious Keeneland meeting, she was fastest away from the gate and dashed through a half in :44.68. Two-and-a-half lengths in front at the eighth pole, she was all out to hold off the late surge of 9-5 Fabulous Brush (Cobra King) by a neck. Lifetime Record: 10-3-1-1, $77,896. O-J Langston. NATIONAL PRIDE (GB) (c, 3, Vettori {Ire}--Branston Express {GB}, by Bay Express {Ire}), a 26,000gns TATDEC weanling, kicked off his career overseas, running a close second in a Ripon maiden in July before winning by three lengths at Newcastle Sept. 8. Taking some respect at the windows as a 5-1 chance, the bay was bumped at the break, but recovered quickly to attend a modest early pace. He was up by two lengths by the time they reached the quarter pole and responded to the urging of jockey John Velezquez to win by 1 1/4 lengths. Lifetime Record: 3-2-1-0, $33,621. GREEDY EXECUTIVE (c, 2, Siphon {Brz}--Bird Cage, by Kris S.) showed some speed while racing wide in his debut at the Spa Aug. 4, but tired to finish a well-beaten sixth at six furlongs. Switched to the lawn and stretched to a mile in his latest, he again faded after attending the pace, faltering to be seventh. A 15-1 longshot in his return to the main track, he was sent to the fore by jockey Shane Sellers and pressed the lead with 4-5 chalk Maytown (Menifee) glued to his outside. Those two exchanged blows through a gritty stretch duel, with Greedy Executive asserting well late for the head victory. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $31,225. O/B-Marylou Whitney Stables (KY). DISCOVER THE GLORY (c, 3, Honour and Glory--Silver Discovery, by Mr. Prospector), a three-quarters brother to Silver Launch (Relaunch), MSP, $156,370, had been trying to clear the maiden hurdle for some time, most recently running a game second in a nine-furlong test at Saratoga Aug. 21. Returning from a bit of a breather, the crowd's 4-5 pick was confidently handled by jockey Jose Santos and raced five wide just off the pacesetters around the first turn. The bay made the lead three furlongs out, repelled a bid from Doc Robbins (Pulpit) and was full of run late to win by a widening four-length margin. Doc Robbins held for second. The victory provided Marylou Whitney and trainer Nick Zito an early double at Keeneland; stablemate Greedy Executive picked up the victory in the first. Lifetime Record: 11-1-5-1, $82,605.

Sir Oscar had done nothing wrong in four prior starts and didn't let his connections down as he completed the sweep of the Florida Stallion series. A compelling open-lengths maiden winner in May, the two-year-old then lodged consecutive victories in the Criterium S. July 5, the Dr. Fager S. Aug. 9 and the Affirmed S. Aug. 30. Sitting off the leaders in fourth, he put forth a strong bid coming down the lane and proved too much for the pacesetter Perpetual Peace, who was necked out of the place spot by the closing Tap Dancer. "I don't want to go west [for the Breeders' Cup]," said trainer Manuel Azpurua. "It's too far and too close. I think he can be any kind of horse and I just want him to have a chance to show it next year. I will consider the seven-eighths race on Florida Million Day [the Jack Price Juvenile Nov. 15]."

On the board in her first three starts, including a second-place finish behind French Village (Jules) in the Aug. 30 Susan's Girl S., Chatter Chatter exploded to win a one-mile Calder maiden test by 23 lengths Sept. 19. She proved the effort was no fluke here. The even-money chalk despite the presence of her Susan's Girl nemesis, the bay broke sharply and led every step of the way, powering to another devastating victory. "When I saw her get the lead, I knew they were never going to catch her," trainer Marty Wolfson said. "She demoralizes the other horses. She is so fast and efficient." Wolfson added that, while it has not yet been decided where the filly will run next, it will not be in the Breeders' Cup. French Village, trying a route for the first time, chased the winner for six furlongs, but tired down the lane and finished seventh.

Master William was stepping up after finishing fourth in a one-mile maiden test on the Woodbine turf July 8. A longshot facing stakes foes in his second start, the chestnut colt was next-to-last for the opening half mile, but moved to the middle of the pack after six furlongs. He lugged in during the stretch drive, but still managed to rally past speedster Silver Ticket for a narrow decision. "He did it pretty easy," jockey Patrick Husbands said. "I just made one sweeping run with him, left him alone and, when I asked him, he responded well."

Docent was unbeaten in his first four starts this season. The gray came back after a 5 1/2-month layoff to post a seven-length score in an optional claimer at Pimlico May 21 and followed that performance with wins in the June 7 Slipton Fell H. at Mountaineer Park and in a pair of state-bred stakes at Philly Park June 28 and July 26. The streak was broken with a third-place finish in the Aug. 9 West Virginia Governor's H. and a second-place effort vs. Pennsylvania-breds Aug. 30, but the consistent gelding got another started with a victory in the Sept. 20 Charles H. Hadry S. going nine furlongs at Pimlico. Odds-on to keep it going, he tracked Presidentialaffair off a moderate pace, then went to join the leader for the stretch drive, but was only able to get his nose in front in the final stride.

Capejinsky, a maiden winner going 5 1/2 furlongs in his third start over this track, stretched out to a mile for the Sept. 13 Whirling Ash S. and finished second over a sloppy strip. The second choice getting a fast track here, the dark bay was checked repeatedly while trapped behind horses for six furlongs, but squeezed through along the rail as they raced around the far turn. He took control at the top of the lane and pulled away late in a solid effort. "Every race, he seems to just get better and better and the distance helps a lot," trainer Mike Gorham said. As for what's next, he added, "We are not in a real hurry to run him back."

River Cruise cruised to a seven-length victory in the restricted Twixt S. over this track July 24, but had trouble handling a sloppy Philly Park surface and a tougher field in the Sept. 1 Pennsylvania Oaks and finished last of seven. Most recently a solid runner-up in the Gill Pucker Up S. at Arlington Sept. 13, she was favored in this softer spot. Well placed in midpack behind suicidal early fractions, Hail Hillary gained four wide on the turn, struck the front passing the eighth pole and held sway late.

Zak's Precocious closed to be second sprinting five furlongs in her bow in the slop Aug. 11, then romped by five lengths stretching to seven panels Sept. 14. The dark bay showed a nice turn of foot here, rallying from a mid-pack position to put herself within striking distance and moving gamely between rivals in the final eighth to get the win. "It's not normal to go from a maiden win straight into a stakes race, but we decided to skip the 'other than' condition and go on to the Festival of the Sun and join the party," said winning trainer Bill White.

Keeping his record spotless, heavily favored Wynn Dot Comma won this easily under a confident Jerry Bailey. Wynn Dot Comma came off a convincing maiden score at Tampa in April to win a Calder allowance contest July 27. Odds on in his stakes debut, he won the off-the-turf Herecomesmybaby S. Aug. 30. The chestnut sat off the pacesetter in second, took command after a half, opened up by four lengths turning for home and stayed on well to record his second stakes score. "Pretty simple," said jockey Jerry Bailey. "He's the kind of horse that puts you where you need to be. All you have to do is say 'when.'"

Shining Hawk was heavily favored to take this contest despite being a maiden and didn't disappoint his backers. The bay colt ran into trouble on the backstretch in his Sept. 10 debut over Belmont's sod, but made up a lot real estate to finish fourth. He completed the exacta in his next, a flat-mile event Sept. 25, and handicappers guessed that the two-year-old would take another step forward here. Shuffled to the back of the pack at the break, Shining Hawk ranged into contention up the backstretch, locked horns with Whatsmineisyours at the top of the lane and edged clear under a drive.

HELISSIO TO THE NATIONAL STUD Helissio (Fr) (Fairy King), who has been standing the Northern Hemisphere breeding season in Japan, is to stand at the National Stud in Newmarket for a two year-period beginning in 2004, it was announced yesterday. The winner of the 1996 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe is to be leased from Shadai Farm in Japan, which will be the new base of Falbrav (Ire) next year. Helissio, who registered five successes during his career, including the G1 Prix Lupin, G1 Prix Ganay and two renewals of the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud, is currently at Widden Stud in Australia. His son Helenus (Aus) took the G1 Caulfield Guineas and G1 Victoria Derby last year. He will arrive at his Newmarket home early in the New Year.

DAI JIN RETIRED WH Sport International have confirmed the retirement of Dai Jin (GB) (Peintre Celebre--Dawlah {GB}, by Shirley Heights {GB}). It looked unlikely that the colt would run again after sustaining a tendon injury when seventh in last Sunday's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp. Bred by Gestut Schlenderhan, three-year-old Dai Jin was the winner of four of his eight starts, including the G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg July 6 and G1 Credit Suisse Private Banking Pokal at Cologne Aug. 17. He earned €625,400 in prizemoney. Stud plans for the son of 1997 Arc hero Peintre Celebre out of Dawlah, a granddaughter of the GI Kentucky Oaks winner White Star Line, have yet to be announced.

NAYEF GIVES RIGHT SIGNALS

Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum's Nayef (Gulch) warmed up for Saturday's £400,000 G1 Emirates Airlines Champion S. by pleasing connections in a racecourse gallop yesterday morning. Off the track since finishing third in the G1 Juddmonte International S. at York Aug. 19, the five-year-old underwent his traditional pre-race workout with stable companion Ekraar (Red Ransom) on Lingfield's polytrack. "The surface was a little too deep for me to ask Nayef any questions, but Ekraar doesn't mind it on the slow side. He will head to Milan for the G1 Gran Premio del Jockey Club in a fortnight," Marcus Tregoning told PA Sport. "Nayef is absolutely fine and is as fit as I want him. The plan is to run him in the Champion, which will be his final start before he goes off to stud. He's had a nice little break and he's coming back fresh and well...I think he will run a very, very big race. I'm very happy with him--he looks a picture." Tregoning also revealed that Mubtaker (Silver Hawk), second in Sunday's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp, will not run again this term. He will be aimed at the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Nad Al Sheba at the Dubai World Cup meeting next March. "Mubtaker won't be going anywhere until next year. We are thinking about the Sheema Classic because the turf track in Dubai rides very well and I'm sure it will suit him," he explained. "We left it very late in deciding to run him in the Arc, but we were encouraged that there was a fresh strip of ground along the rail and he didn't let us down. He's had setbacks in each of the last two seasons, so we have to keep our fingers crossed for him, but he is all set to carry on as a seven-year-old and we are hoping it's just a matter of time before he picks up a Group 1."

SHOLOKHOV TO ETZEAN

Sholokhov (Ire) (Sadler's Wells--La Meilleure {Ire}, by Lord Gayle), Italy's champion two-year-old of 2001, has been retired to stand at Gestut Etzean. Formerly trained by Aidan O'Brien, he took the G1 Gran Criterium at Milan as a juvenile before finishing runner-up in last year's G1 Irish Derby at The Curragh and G1 Eclipse S at Sandown. Purchased by Gary Tanaka at the end of the season and sent to Michael Jarvis, he trailed in last of eight on his only start as a four-year-old, the G3 Gordon Richards S. at Sandown Apr. 26. Overall, he had two wins, three seconds and a third from 12 starts for earnings of $625,996. Bred by Jim Bolger, his dam is the stakes-winning La Meilleure from the immediate family of the 1979 G1 Haydock Sprint Cup and G1 Prix de l'Abbaye winner and successful sire Double Form (Ire). He is also from the family of the 1994 G1 Phoenix S. winner Eva Luna (Ire). A stud fee has yet to be announced.
