

RAKTI ROCKS HEADQUARTERS

On a day of surprises, Gary Tanaka's 11-1 chance Rakti (GB) (Polish Precedent) provided the icing on the cake by powering to a two-length success over Carnival Dancer (GB) (Sadler's Wells) in yesterday's G1 Emirates Airlines Champion S. at Newmarket. The race's three biggest names failed to make the frame, with 11-4 Russian Rhythm (Kingmambo) finishing fifth, ahead of 9-4 favourite Alamshar (Ire) (Key of Luck) in sixth and Nayef (Gulch) back in eighth. Rakti's journey to the top has been a long and drawn out affair since besting subsequent G1 Canadian International winner Ballingarry (Ire) by 1 1/2 lengths in last year's G1 Derby Italiano. He was brought here by trainer Bruno Grizzetti 12 months ago, but refused to enter the stalls, returning to his trainer's home base in Italy to disappoint when 10th in the G1 Premio Roma in November. His owner's faith was not swayed by that effort and he duly sent the colt to Michael Jarvis in Newmarket for his four-year-old campaign. Cont. p2

THE LIFE OF BRIAN

Brian Boru (GB) (Sadler's Wells) makes his first foray across the Atlantic as the morning-line favorite in the G1 Canadian International today at Woodbine. The bay colt's biggest moments to date have come at Doncaster in England, where he captured the G1 Racing Post Trophy last year and followed up that conquest with the G1 St. Leger S. trophy Sept. 13. His connections, successful last year with Ballingarry (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), are confident the three-year-old is ready for a big effort. "Brian Boru is in tip-top form," said T. J. Comerford, assistant to trainer Aidan O'Brien. "He's had two days at the track, he loves it. Aidan likes this horse a lot. He's ready to run." The Irish invader will have to deal once again with Phoenix Reach (Ire) (Alhaarth {Ire}). The lightly raced sophomore broke his maiden July 3 and followed that up with a success in the G3 Gordon S. July 29 prior to finishing third in the St. Leger.

approaching the final quarter mile. His response was instantaneous and generous as he opened up a clear advantage entering the dip, which he maintained up the rising ground. "I was a bit worried beforehand that there wouldn't be the pace, but there was just enough to settle him," explained Robinson. "He's a very, very good horse--a machine." The winner of the G1 Premio Presidente della Repubblica back in Rome May 11, Rakti was second, beaten 2 1/2 lengths behind Nayef, in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot June 18, but was found to be lame thereafter and was making his first start since. "He suffered quite a serious injury at Royal Ascot," winning trainer Michael Jarvis explained. "We found a hairline crack of his left hind ankle and he was in his box for four weeks. There was a steady build-up, but he'd been working exceptionally well in the last few weeks--he's been picking up and flying. Philip [Robinson] said he'd win any race over a mile or a mile and a quarter, and I think this is probably his best trip. He's got little mileage on the clock this year and, although I haven't spoken to Mr. Tanaka yet, I would hope to go to Hong Kong with him [for the G1 Hong Kong Cup Dec. 14]."

Retirement Beckons for Nayef, Alamshar

Nayef (Gulch), hero of this event in 2001, heads to Nunnery Stud after finishing eighth. "He didn't pick up as we know he can and maybe it's the end of a long season," trainer Marcus Tregoning told sportinglife.com. The Aga Khan's Alamshar will now go to Japan to begin his breeding career. "C'est la vie," added trainer John Oxx. "He has been on the go all year without a break and that makes it tough for a three-year-old when you get to this stage of the season."

 Mummify outstayed his 17 rivals with a front-running display to give trainer Lee Freedman his fourth Caulfield Cup and 96th victory at the highest level. The winner of the G1 SAJC Derby last winter, the four-year-old gelding was third, beaten a head behind Pentastic (Aus) (Pentire {GB}) in the G2 Craiglee S. Sept. 6 in his second start off a layoff. The bay bounced back from that defeat to best Grey Song by a head in the Sept. 21 G1 Underwood S. at this track, but was subsequently 13th in the G2 Turnbull S. Oct. 4 and was coming into this off a runner-up finish to Lonhro (Aus) in the G1 Yalumba S. over this turf Oct. 11. "To lead like that was kind of 'plan B', but I did say to [jockey] Danny [Nikolic] 'don't be afraid to go wire to wire, he is fit, he is ready,'" the winning trainer commented. "The horse is a great stayer." The winner could go next in the 3200-meter G1 Melbourne Cup at Flemington Nov. 4. European invader In Time's Eye (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) may have found the ground too fast and finished 10th in the second-fastest Caulfield Cup in history.

Journeyman owner/breeder Paul Dixon's homebred Milk It Mick defied his title as the most exposed contender in this line-up to win his first Group 1. The bay came from last to first to get the better of Three Valleys in the final furlong. "I just had my head down and kept on pushing," commented jockey Darryll Holland, who picked up the mount after the withdrawal Wednesday of Lucky Story. "Jamie [trainer Osborne] said 'just ride him cold and he'll come home real good' and gee, he picked up. It was a great Dewhurst and what a ride to get." Milk it Mick was making his 12th outing of the season here. After two conditions scores on either side of a third to Pearl of Love (Ire) in the Listed Chesham S. at Royal Ascot June 18, he had gone close in a host of competitive stakes contests prior to finishing fifth behind Lucky Story in the G2 Champagne S. at Doncaster Sept. 12, but bounced back to beat Bayeux by a neck in the G3 Somerville Tattersall S. over course and distance Oct. 2. Milk it Mick graces the front cover of this year's Doncaster October Yearling Sales brochure, having realised just 14,000 guineas as a buy-back last year. "We bred him out of the first horse I ever bought," commented Dixon. "We bought him back for 14,000 when he was the world's most expensive Millkom at that time, and he keeps improving. He's put us on the map and I'd have been very happy to finish in the first four."

Just James provided jockey Pat Eddery with his first renewal of this race and a memorable victory for one of the legends of the turf as he nears his retirement. Beaten four lengths by the hot favorite Trade Fair (GB) (Zafonic) in the G3 Criterion S. over the July Course June 28, he readily reversed that form with a customary late rattle. That devastating turn of acceleration had been seen to its greatest effect when swooping from last to first in under a furlong to win a competitive handicap at this track last May. His only success in the interim had come in the G3 Jersey S. at Royal Ascot last June, but he had performed with credit this term when runner-up in the G2 Duke of York S. at York May 13 and fifth in the G1 Golden Jubilee S. back at the Royal meeting June 21. After his trouncing at the hands of Trade Fair at the July Course, he had returned there to be a disappointing 12th in the G1 July Cup July 10 before being freshened up for this contest. Held up in rear throughout the early stages of this contest, he was asked to quicken down the outside of the field and responded with a surge that took him past the floundering Trade Fair with 150 yards remaining. Despite veering left under pressure, he had enough to hold the late thrust of Nayyir and Jamie Spencer. "They went pretty quick and it suited this horse," Eddery commented. "He likes to come from off the pace and he really quickened up well." Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Cairns traveled stronger with every yard in a six-furlong Salisbury maiden on her debut Sept. 16 and rewarded connections' decision to take a considerable jump in class by adding this contest. Relishing the added distance of this, she settled towards the rear under Ted Durcan before unleashing a potent turn of acceleration when switched wide inside the final quarter. Cutting down the long-time leader Snow Goose with 100 yards remaining, she pulled clear up the rising ground. "We thought she was a decent filly but I was just worried it would be a step too far," trainer Mick Channon commented. "She worked very well with the filly [Majestic Desert] who went close to winning the Cheveley Park the other week, so I just gave her a bit more time." Durcan added, "They went hard which helped her and she relaxed in behind. The plan was to play it late and she's honest and ran all the way to the line."

Local hero False Promises had endured a pair of heartbreaking losses, by a nose and a head, respectively, July 12 and Aug. 9 at Arlington, but turned it around with a win going 12 furlongs over the same course Aug. 28. He made a successful follow-up in an 8 1/2-furlong allowance test Sept. 20 and was the fifth choice while making his first start in graded company. Jockey Carlos Marquez Jr. allowed his mount to settle near the back of the pack while saving ground and bided his time turning for home. The Florida-bred bay split horses and finished strongly to collar Megoman approaching the wire. There was some drama at the top of the stretch as pacesetter Blue Blood Boot (Storm Boot) ducked in and crashed through the rail. The three-year-old got up and appeared to be uninjured; no word was available on the condition of rider Larry Sterling Jr. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Emboldened by that victory, she stormed home to win the Marie DeBartolo Oaks Sept. 20 at Louisiana Downs and was the second choice in this 10-horse field. Dyna Da Dyna, comfortably placed in third while four wide, ranged up to take aim at longshot Mexican Moonlight turning for home. She gradually moved by her game rival to earn her first graded stakes victory while taking her career average to .500. "Winning the race in New York really got her confidence up," said winning pilot Pat Day. "She doesn't think she can get beat now. She was there all the way and kicked on nicely." After finishing third in a conditions event at Doncaster Sept. 12 and the Listed Foundation S. at Goodwood Sept. 24, he ran with great credit when fifth of 34 runners as the highweight in the Cambridgeshire H. at this track last time Oct. 4. Taken to the front in the early stages by Richard Hughes, he raced keenly before hanging right when headed passing halfway. Once corrected inside the final quarter, he challenged Pawn Broker and Dane O'Neill and battled gamely to pass that rival 100 yards remaining before asserting for a deserved first stakes score. Persian Punch opened Champions' Day in the finest possible fashion as he treated the crowd to a moment to savor with a last-gasp victory in this contest. Collecting his third renewal in the last four years, he broke through the million-pound barrier for lifetime earnings in the process. He had helped himself towards that landmark with a hard-fought success in the G2 Goodwood Cup July 31 and an easier score in the G2 Doncaster Cup Sept. 11. He disappointed in his latest effort when he was never able to get the vital early lead he enjoys in the G1 Prix du Cadran at Longchamp last time Oct. 5, fading to finish eighth. Sent into a clear advantage by Martin Dwyer, he bowled along in contented isolation here until tackled by Kasthari approaching the final quarter. Next to swoop were Millenary and Pat Eddery, who opened up a length in a matter of strides entering the dip. Not to be denied, Persian Punch gave his customary battle cry and pulled back Millenary with every stride, his last ground-devouring one securing the glorious triumph. "Every race seems to be better than the last," his emotional trainer David Elsworth commented. "It is a wonderful day. Today is also a very special day because he has won a million in prize money. That is not such a rare thing these days, but he has had to win 20 races to do it. It's Champions' Day and he is a champion, that's for sure."

Owned by Marlon Aronstam of South Africa, Dancal was a winner of the G3 Clairwood Christmas H. in that country in 2001 and was second in the G2 Golden Bracelet S. in her final start in the Southern Hemisphere last August. Sent to Dubai for the winter, the bay won one of her five starts, all on the sand tracks of the UAE, including a half-length victory over Darley's Northern Rock (Jpn) in the Listed Jebel Ali Mile Mar. 21. Transferred to the U.S. this summer, the Irish-bred was the nose winner of a Saratoga turf allowance Aug. 3 and was coming into this off an excellent runner-up finish to Wonder Again in the GIII Noble Damsel H. at Belmont Sept. 20. Sent to the front by jockey Javier Castellano, Dancal was allowed to set very comfortable fractions and, after three quarters in 1:13 4/5, had plenty left to hold off Madeira Mist for the easy victory. "I kind of waited to see if anyone wanted to go to the lead," the winning rider commented. "When no one really committed to it, I decided to send her on."

A daughter of Sunday Silence out of Japanese Horse of the Year Air Groove (Jpn) (Tony Bin {Ire}), Admire Groove bids for her first Japanese group win in the final leg of the country's filly Triple Crown. The three-year-old captured her first three starts, but could do no better than third in the Japanese 1000 Guineas in April, then was given a break after finishing seventh in the Japanese Oaks in May. She came back to take the Sept. 21 G2-JRA Rose S. "She has improved a lot mentally," trainer Mitsuru Hashida said. "I think she is a Grade 1 filly with lots of potential." She will try to thwart the triple bid of 1000 Guineas and Oaks heroine Still in Love. She would become only the second filly to accomplish the feat, following Mejiro Ramonu (Jpn) in 1986. Sidelined after her Classic victories, she was a disappointing fifth in the Rose. "In her last race, she was very excited and did not break well," said trainer Shoichi Matsumoto. "But it was a solid prep race and she is in good condition."

All carry 123 pounds, except Baie & Hi Dubai, 118.

The well-travelled Walzerkoenigin, a Group winner in France, Germany and Italy, split Breeders' Cup hopefuls Dimitrova and Heat Haze (GB) last out when second by a length in the GI Flower Bowl Invitational at Belmont Sept. 27. Baie adds Lasix in her first start for trainer Mark Frostad. The French-bred bay finished fourth, beaten two lengths, to Nebraska Tornado in the G1 Prix de Diane in June and was most recently fourth in the GI Garden City Breeders' Cup H. Sept. 7 at Belmont. The third time could be the charm for Volga, who missed by a neck in this contest as a three-year-old in 2001 and was third last year. Coming off a fifth in the GII WinStar Galaxy H. Oct. 5, the five-year-old has been transferred to the barn of Kiaran McLaughlin. Hi Dubai, a full sister to champion Fantastic Light, has not raced since finishing fourth to Russian Rhythm in the G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood Aug. 2. The three-year-old's preparations for this outing were interrupted with a bruised heel.

Aidan O'Brien has won this race the last two years with Sholokhov (Ire) and Spartacus (Ire) and saddles Moscow Ballet this time. He beat a subsequent winner in a conditions event on his debut at Tipperary Aug. 7 before beating all bar Snow Ridge (Ire) in the G2 Royal Lodge S. at Ascot last time Sept. 27. He had Top Seed back in seventh on that occasion and should confirm that form. Mark Johnston saddled Lend a Hand (GB) to win this in 1997 and Pearl of Love has arguably stronger credentials than that old stalwart, having already proved himself in group company. He beat Tycoon (Ire) in the Listed Chesham S. at Royal Ascot June 18 before powering away with the G2 Futurity S. at The Curragh Aug. 23. He may have gone too fast when third behind One Cool Cat in the G1 National S. back at that track Sept. 14, where Barbajuan was a further two lengths back in fourth. Barbajuan had previously beaten Dewhurst hero Milk it Mick (GB) in the G3 Solario S. at Sandown Aug. 30 and can complete a foreign white-wash. Of the home team, Golden Pivotal needs to step up on the form of his second to Cromo (GB) in the Listed Premio del Dado at this track last time Sept. 28 to provide Marco and Giuliano Fratini with their second renewal after Golden Glenstal (GB) in 1994. Mister Strong beat Flint Fly by three lengths in the Listed Premio Eupili at this track Sept. 14.

4	2	Warrsan (Ire)	Caerleon	C Brittain
5	5	Well Made (Ger)	Mondrian (Ger)	Blume

Gran Premio del Jockey Club-G1 cont.

Maktub, the lone Italian runner in the field, took the G2 Premio Carlo d'Alessio in Rome May 25 before finishing a distant third behind Leadership (GB) and Warrsan in the G1 Gran Premio di Milano June 22. He looked a stronger horse when emerging from a break to power away with the G3 Premio Federico Tesio at this track Oct. 4 and warrants respect. Warrsan emerged as a top-class performer this summer when winning the G2 Jockey Club S. at Newmarket May 2 and G1 Vodafone Coronation Cup at Epsom June 6. On the latter occasion he had Black Sam Bellamy back in third; that colt bids to reverse those placings and win back-to-back renewals of this contest. Michael Tabor's colorbearer proved he is as good as ever when finishing a half-length runner-up in the G1 Grosser Bugatti Preis at Baden-Baden Sept. 7. He ran with credit to finish sixth in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe Oct. 5, but may find this ground too fast. Ekraar, who was third in this 12 months ago, has always promised to win a race of this nature and warmed up for this year's renewal with a smooth score in the Listed Godolphin S. at Newmarket Oct. 3.

8	7	Vallee Enchantee (Ire)	Peintre Celebre	Lellouche	122
9	6	Touch of Land (Fr)	Lando (Ger)	Pantall	121

Fair Mix has to overcome a 175-day absence and a six-pound penalty as he bids to build on his success in the G1 Prix Ganay at this track Apr. 27. That was a dramatic improvement on his previous form and he faces tough opposition in this year's renewal. Kalabar was beaten a short neck by Look Honey when runner-up in the G2 Prix Eugene Adam at Maisons-Laffitte July 14 before winning the G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano at Deauville last time Aug. 15. Look Honey disappointed when fading into fifth in the G2 Prix Niel at this track last time Sept. 5, but this return to 10 furlongs should suit. Touch of Land was not disgraced when third behind subsequent G2 Prix Dollar winner Weightless (GB) in the G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange here Sept. 20 and has another chance to fulfil his early potential.

Andreas Schutz has won two of the last three renewals of this race and saddles Tarlac, who made an instant impression when scoring on his debut at this track Aug. 23. Peter Schiergen last won this in 1998 with Sumitas (Ger) and is represented by El Tiger, from the first crop of the stable's past champion Tiger Hill (Ire). El Tiger also looked promising when winning his only start at Bremen Sept. 12. Uwe Ostmann won this two years ago with Peppershot (Ger) and saddles his brother Pepperstorm, who is unbeaten in two starts at this track Aug. 23 and Dortmund Oct. 4.

BREEDERS' CUP BULLETIN

European Invasion...

F/M Turf hopeful Islington (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) became the first European runner to arrive in California when her flight touched down at midnight Friday night. The next wave of contenders was set to arrive Saturday evening, with Falbrav (Ire) (Fairy King), Oasis Dream (GB) (Green Desert), Refuse to Bend (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Relaxed Gesture (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) all on the same flight from England. The French-based fillies Bright Sky (Ire) (Wolfhound) and Six Perfections (Fr) (Celtic Swing {GB}) are scheduled to fly in this afternoon, as is the Ballydoyle squadron featuring High Chaparral (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), Hold That Tiger (Storm Cat) and Yesterday (Ire) (Sadler's Wells).

Perfectly Pleased...

Unbeaten in four starts on dirt this year, Perfect Drift (Dynaformer) continued his preparations for next week's GI Breeders' Cup Classic by completing five furlongs in 1:00 yesterday at Trackside Louisville. "He looked good going off and looked strong finishing," said trainer Murray Johnson. "He was just perfect." Johnson said that the four-year-old gelding would have a strong gallop Wednesday before boarding a plane bound for Los Angeles Thursday. "Everything looks good," Johnson continued. "His weight is good and his color is good. We've just got to have a good trip out there and then a good racing trip."

Tiger Ready to Roar...

Jockey Pat Day got acquainted with Juvenile hopeful Tiger Hunt (Kris S.) as the two-year-old completed a five-eighths breeze in 1:01, outworking older stablemate Quest Star (1:01.40). "[Tiger Hunt] is very professional and went about his business in a handy fashion," said Day. "He does everything on cue and I liked him."

Margins: 1 3/4, 4, NK. Odds: 1.50, 9.00, 8.80.

Music's Storm finished second in his first start for Todd Pletcher over this turf course Apr. 24, but went off form in two subsequent starts, running second in an off-the-turf sprint in the Belmont slop June 7 and 10th over the Belmont turf July 4. The Florida-bred got back on the beam with a 1/2-length allowance score on the Haskell undercard at Monmouth Aug. 3 and was most recently a solid third in a swiftly run seven-furlong turf allowance back at Belmont Sept. 17. Content to lay off an early speed duel, the dark bay raced four wide around the turn, took command approaching the eighth pole and edged clear.

GLOWING COLORS (f, 3, Grand Slam--Wheedle {SP}, by L'Enjoleur) took seven starts to break her maiden, finally joining the winners' club when dropping back to seven furlongs at Saratoga Aug. 14, but wasted no time putting them back-to-back. The $62,000 KEENOV weanling, making her first start for trainer Ronny Werner, pressed the pace, took control as they raced down the lane and pulled away late to best 69-1 Cozy Coed (Private School) by 6 1/4 lengths as a 5-1 chance. Lifetime Record: 8-2-2-3, $83,004.

EL PRADO ROB (c, 2, El Prado {Ire}--Jurisprudence, by Seeking the Gold), a $70,000 KEESEP yearling, graduated at Saratoga July 23, then ran fourth, 14 lengths behind Breeders' Cup Juvenile hopeful Cuvee, in the GI Saratoga Special Aug. 13. Stretched out to one mile in the GI Futurity S. at Belmont Sept. 14, he ran third, beaten 13 lengths behind the same rival. Let go at 7-2 here, he was positioned near the inside, edged closer on the far turn, angled out entering the stretch, bumped twice with second-place finisher 4-5 favorite Glittergem (Glitterman), then drove clear under mild encouragement to a 2 1/2-length decision. A claim of foul was disallowed. Lifetime Record: GISP, 5-2-0-1, $93,054. O-Robert V Lapenta. B-Mill Ridge Farm Ltd, Dr John A Chandler, C R McGaughey III & Jamm, Ltd (KY). T-Nicholas P Zito.

POYDRAS (f, 3, Smart Strike--Debra C. {SP}, by Deputy Minister) was freshened after finishing second in her second start at Churchill Downs July 6, then was runner-up again in her second outing after an eight-week break, missing by a length and a half in her latest at Turfway Park Sept. 20. Looking to get to the winner's circle as the 17-10 favorite here, the $100,000 FTKJUL yearling took over after a half in :45.28 and increased her advantage down the lane to take it by 6 3/4 lengths over Minny's Niece (Quiet American). Lifetime Record: 5-1-2-0, $47,885.

O-Glen Hill Farm. B-Thomas-Lakin-Kintz (KY). T-Thomas F Proctor.

AWESOME JOY (f, 2, Awesome Again--Copelan's Joy {MSW, $123,268}, by Copelan) faded badly to finish 10th in her Sept. 20 debut going six furlongs at Arlington Park and was adding Lasix trying two turns in her second start. After setting a moderate pace, the 13-1 shot was joined by 2-1 My Allegiance (Exploit) at the eighth pole and crossed the finish line 3/4 of a length behind that rival, but had been bumped in the final sixteenth and was awarded the victory by the stewards. My Allegiance was placed second. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $26,350.

Well Fancied came into this one riding a three race win streak, including the restricted Evan Shipman H. July 20 and the General Douglas Macarthur H. last out Sep. 5. Seeking his fourth straight victory here, he quickly took the lead, made the pace while under wraps, drew clear when asked, then dug in determinedly to hold on. "Everything went our way," winning trainer Richard Dutrow Jr. said. "We might be stretching him going a mile and an eighth with a lot of weight, but he came through. I think we are going to run him back in the Cigar Mile [GI $350,000, Sat. Nov 29]. He likes Aqueduct a lot and one turn is his game."

Lady Bi Bi put the memory of her only other stakes experience well behind her with a hard-fought victory in the Ticonderoga. A distant sixth in a division of the Yaddo H. for Empire-breds over the Saratoga turf Aug. 15, the chestnut bounced back to defeat state-bred entry-level allowance company by 1 1/4 lengths over this turf course Sept. 7 and made it two straight with a 2 3/4-length score Oct. 2. Double digits for the return to stakes company, the homebred rallied up into contention three wide on the final turn, swept to the front in upper stretch and held on to defeat a late challenge from Brandala. "She's just very good right now," commented winning trainer John Hertler. "She loves the grass. She's on a good roll. I'll probably bring her back in the Stallion Stakes [$100,000 Perfect Arc. S., one mile, turf, at Aqueduct Nov. 9]."

Margins: 4HF, HF, NO. Odds: 20.40, 33.25, 9.80.

Quiet Ruler scored in this race last year and came right back to take an Aqueduct allowance test the following month, but had not been to the winner's circle since. The chestnut was off the board in his next five starts, managed to finish second in a $100,000 optional claimer at Saratoga July 28, then was out of the money in three straight, finishing last in his two most recent starts. He showed little in his latest, finishing 10 1/2 lengths behind fellow Mohawk starter Quantum Merit (Hansel) in the Sept. 20 Ashley T. Cole H. over this course and distance. Overlooked in his title defense here, Quiet Ruler attended a pedestrian early pace set by his Cole conqueror, swept to the lead in the lane and proved much the best. Explaining the form reversal, trainer Russell Mueller said, "He bled in his last race, so we treated him a little different. He's a cool weather horse that likes soft ground...he's a nice horse who is pretty tough when he gets the right conditions." Quantum Merit tired to be eighth.

An open allowance winner in his final start at three last November, One N Three disappeared for 10 months after that effort, returning to be second by a head in a state-bred allowance at Finger Lakes Sept. 7. The dark bay shipped downstate for his next outing, finishing third against open company at Belmont Park Oct. 4, and was at double-digit odds taking on restricted stakes rivals here. Settled in sixth for the opening half mile, he closed stoutly, proving narrowly best in the final sixteenth. "I had to hustle him along for the first part of the race because the pace was going pretty quick," winning jockey Shaun Bridgmohan said. "But it worked out really well for him. Once I wheeled him out, he came with a really nice run."

The winner of the Maid of the Mist S. two years ago and second in this race last fall, Princess Dixie closed strongly to earn her second New York Showcase Day victory. The dark bay started the season with a second vs. open allowance compaby at Aqueduct in April, then scaled the ladder to take on top fillies in the May 17 GII Shuvee H. at Belmont Park and was not disgraced, finishing fourth to Wild Spirit (Chi) at 32-1. She took a break after taking the June 22 Mt. Vernon H., returning to be third in a one-mile allowance Sept. 5. Well back early here, she finished well on the far outside to catch She's Got the Beat at the wire. "When she is right, you can lead her over there and she really fires hard," trainer Jim Bond said. "She's class." The filly will make her next start in the Nov. 30 Montauk S. at the Big A. Her dam, Princess Halo (Halo), will be sold in foal to Buddha at the Keeneland November Sale.

Capeside Lady nearly went to her knees at the start, but recovered to post a game victory. The bay filly kicked off her career with an eye-catching score in a state-bred maiden test at Saratoga Aug. 7, but didn't handle the step up to graded-stakes competition for the GIII Sorority S. at Monmouth Park Aug. 30, tiring to finish eighth. She bounced back with a nine-length tally against restricted company in the Sept. 28 Joseph A. Gimma S. at Belmont. Odds-on to make it two in a row, she pulled it together after her rough break to race head and head through modest fractions. Capeside Lady was headed by longshot Schemer in the stretch, but battled back for an impressive win. "It was a gutsy, gutsy effort," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "I thought she was going down at the beginning, but luckily she got back up and [jockey John Velazquez] did a really great job just to stay up." The winner could come back in the GII Demoiselle S. at Aqueduct Nov. 29.

Friends Lake ran sixth in his debut at Saratoga July 25, but rebounded to break his maiden over that track going 6 1/2 furlongs last out Aug. 24. Stretching out, the chestnut colt raced close up, rallied on the turn, responded when roused and drew clear under urging. "He powered by those horses today," winning trainer John Kimmel said. "You look at the time of the race [1:36 1/5] and it was a serious time. The fillies ran in 1:41, that's a five second difference. This is a nice horse. Richie [Migliore] couldn't pull him up. We'll weigh the pros and cons, but the Remsen [GII at Aqueduct, Nov. 29] would certainly not be out of the question."

McDynamo took the GI Royal Chase for the Sport of Kings at Keeneland Apr. 25 in his first start of the season and had been waiting on the shelf since. He may have locked up the Eclipse Award with this win, however. The six-year-old gained command after six fences, widened at the 13th and won with something left. "He raced pretty keenly, keener than I would have liked," jockey Craig Thornton said. "It was a paceless race and far from the ideal set-up for me, but his class came through. In the end, it wasn't very difficult." The winner is now undefeated at Far Hills, and seven-for-nine over fences.

The bay came back after a 4 1/2-month layoff to finish fourth in the Aug. 23 GII Fourstardave H. and most recently was fifth in the Sept. 13 GIII Belmont Breeders' Cup H. Even-money to get back on track here, he tracked pacesetter Stanzaic from second, put a head in front at midstretch and outfinished Estio for the victory. "The race set up great for our horse," jockey Ramon Dominguez said. "He broke sharp and...I was happy with our position. French Charmer has been beaten just once this year, finishing fifth to Political Attack in the Mar. 9 GIII Canadian Turf H. at Gulfstream, but got back on track after that effort, winning an Apr. 10 allowance in Hallandale. The bay shipped north after that victory and added to his streak, taking a Monmouth Park allowance June 29 and the John D. Schapiro Breeders' Cup H. at Laurel Park Aug. 2. Returning to Florida as the 6-5 chalk, he was tucked in along the hedge while rating off the pace set by outsider Drink a Toast, snuck through inside the frontrunner in the stretch and opened enough daylight to hold off Lost Appeal to the wire. The winner will be pointed for the GII W.L. McKnight H. Dec. 27. The runner-up was caught in traffic soon after the start and was forced to check again at the top of the lane, but finished well once clear to be second.

Dr. Kathy broke her maiden at first asking in a $60,000 maiden claimer at Belmont July 20, then ran third beaten 10 lengths in an allowance at Saratoga Aug. 21. Stretched out to one mile while trying turf for the first time last out at Belmont Sept. 21, she ran fifth. In this one, she was well-placed, waited for room on the far turn, came out at the top of the stretch and drew clear to notch her first stakes score.

6th-MED, $22,000, Msw, 2yo, a1m70yd, 1:40 3/5, ft. SARATOGA JULES (c, 2, Jules--Stormy Dynasty {SP}, by Future Storm), a $150,000 OBSMAR two-year-old acquisition, finished ninth beaten 23 lengths traveling this distance at Monmouth Sept. 13. Sent off at 4-1

here, he dictated the early pace, was asked for run entering the stretch and responded gamely for a 2 1/2-length decision over part of the 3-5 favored entry Captain Flash (Deputy Commander). Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $13,500.

The Herc couldn't get close to GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile candidate Siphonizer in his first start, finishing seventh to that rival after showing brief speed at Del Mar Aug. 2. But he dropped down in class for his second start and improved sharply, finishing second against $50,000 maiden claimers Aug. 28, then trounced a similar field by 7 1/2 lengths at Santa Anita Oct. 9. Well backed taking on stakes foes off that effort, he fought it out with Voladero from start to finish before prevailing to take the photo. There was significant contact between the two down the lane, and the stewards looked into the stretch drive, but let the result stand.

Forty minutes after he had snatched the G2 Challenge S. on Just James (GB), the "granddad" Pat Eddery completed a Champions' Day double, winning this handicap for the first time on Landing Light. Using all his years of experience and guile, he dismissed the exodus to the centre of the track up the long straight, taking his mount to race alone hard against the stands' rail. Quickening to seize the advantage with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, he was driven out to draw clear of the chasing hordes. "It's taken me a long time to win this but this horse gave me a great ride and he traveled nicely," the jockey explained. "Nicky [Henderson] told me to cover him up and I was a little bit worried I had gone too early, but he stays well." Landing Light is better known for his jumps exploits, having finished fifth in last year's Champion Hurdle at Cheltenham. He had shown his versatility when winning a handicap at York May 14 and finishing runner-up in the Ascot H. at the Royal meeting June 18. Henderson paid tribute to the winning jockey, saying, "He's a legend and for us to find him a Cesarewitch is a bit special."
