BREEDERS RAISE OVER $3.5M FOR RED CROSS

The international auction for nominations to the stallions standing at Coolmore Stud's operations in the U.S., Ireland and Australia concluded Tuesday evening and raised a total of over $2.2 million to assist the International Red Cross in its work with the survivors of the tsunami disaster. The fund was increased to more than $3.5 million through a donation from an anonymous friend of Coolmore. The auction came to a close with a rally of bids for the nomination to Sadler's Wells. Khalid Abdullah's Juddmonte Farms had the final say at €300,000, while underbidders Mr. and Mrs. Gary Middlebrook kindly donated €50,000 to the fund. "We would like to express our sincere thanks to the very many people who placed bids in the auction, regardless of the winning outcome," a spokesperson for Coolmore said. "Every bid helped to increase the final total. We hope this contribution will help people to begin to rebuild their lives in some small way. We are very aware that many of the bidders have also made private donations to various organizations doing excellent work in Southeast Asia and we are moved that breeders worldwide reacted so generously to support this very worthy cause." The spokesperson added, "We would also like to thank the racing press, and in particular the Racing Post, the Thoroughbred Daily News and the European Bloodstock News for keeping everyone up to date and encouraging people in the industry to support the initiative." A complete list of the final bids is at the end of the Headline News.

PLAY MISTY FOR ME AT KEENELAND

The Gulf Coast Farm of Lance Robinson and partners continued their spending spree yesterday at Keeneland, going to $500,000 for the seven-year-old mare Misty Sixes (Summer Squall). Consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, agent, the Virginia-bred mare is a daughter of Grade III winner Double Sixes (Gone West), winner at the races of over $270,000. Misty Sixes is also a half sister to Broadway View (Broad Brush), who took last November's Commonwealth Turf S. at Churchill Downs. Despite not making the races until her four-year-old season, Misty Sixes quickly became an accomplished racemare. Claimed for $40,000 at the end of her four-year-old season, she went on to win four stakes races, missed by narrow margins in another three added-money events and placed third in the 2004 GII Delaware H. "She's a great physical," Robinson commented. "She's a big, scopey, real athletic-looking mare. She didn't race early and she raced until she was a late age, but she's a real good physical. Her pedigree seems to be growing."

Castleton Lyons Lands Winter's Quest...

After missing out on the two seven-figure mares to sell during the first two days of the sale, Dr. Tony Ryan's Castleton Lyons was the winning bidder at $410,000 yesterday on hip 972, the five-year-old mare Winter's Quest (Coronado's Quest). Consigned by Meg Levy's Bluewater Sales LLC, the chestnut mare is a half sister to Sharp Lisa (Dixieland Band), who lost the GII Darley Alcibiades S. in the final jump and was a good second to Splendid Blended in the GI Hollywood Starlet S. "She was a beautiful mare and we got very lucky with the update," Levy commented. "The market's been so strong for broodmare prospects. If you have something that's big and pretty, has an active family, good broodmare sire and an update, those mares are bringing a lot of money. Very similar to what we saw in November." Levy admitted that the final price was a pleasant surprise. "We didn't predict that she was going to be there. We definitely thought that she would bring good money, but that was a very nice price for a very nice mare." Sold as a broodmare prospect only, Winter's Quest will be bred this year to Toccet, who stands his first season at stud this spring for $15,000 at Castleton Lyons.

Houston...There's No Problem Here...

Hip 1127, the solid racemare Jetinto Houston (Houston), was knocked down for $375,000 to the bid of Kildare Investments of William de Burgh and George Harris. The six-year-old mare was consigned by Craig and Holly Bendoroff's Denali Stud on behalf of Team Valor. "We bought the mare privately from [trainer] Pico Perdomo," explained Team Valor's Barry Irwin. "She went 1:07 3/5 up [in Northern California] and I don't think you'll see a better-looking filly. Normally we would breed her, but she's so good looking, I wanted people to see how good she looked as a race horse. I think we got a very, very good price for her." A four-time winner of over $279,000, Jetinto Houston won the Irish O'Brien S. for California-breds and was third in the GIII Desert Stormer H. She has already been booked to and sold with a season to leading 2004 freshman sire Successful Appeal.

Pure Gold for Dilger...

Hip 823, a colt from the first crop of Vinery stallion Pure Prize (Storm Cat--Heavenly Prize, by Seeking the Gold), brought a final bid of $200,000 to rank as yesterday's top yearling. The Mar. 14 foal was consigned by Dromoland Farm Inc. and was purchased by Cherokee Equine International, LLC, represented at the sale by bloodstock agent Tom Ryan. "He was just an outstanding physical, he's what I would call a beauty," he commented. "You have to give a stallion like Pure Prize a chance and you should never underestimate a stallion son of Storm Cat. He could be the next sire sensation." The youngster's dam, the 19-year-old Halo mare Nueces Strip, was purchased carrying this foal in utero by Clover Hill for just $5,500 at last year's January sale.

SANTA YSABEL, SAN MIGUEL RESCHEDULED

Santa Anita's $100,000 GIII Santa Ysabel S. and $100,000 San Miguel S., both of which were cancelled last weekend because of torrential rain, have been rescheduled for Sunday and Monday, respectively. Expected juvenile filly champion Sweet Catomine (Storm Cat), who was scratched out of the Santa Ysabel even before racing was called off Sunday, will again be entered in the mile-and-a-sixteenth event, according to trainer Julio Canani. The San Miguel had drawn a small but solid field of five, including Seize the Day (Montbrook), who finished third to Declan's Moon in the GIII Hollywood Preview. Santa Anita is holding special holiday racing Monday, Martin Luther King, Jr. day.

What They're Saying At The Sales...

Geoffrey Russell, Keeneland director of sales

"Things are rolling on nicely. It's a little bit down on gross [for the session], but nothing dramatically. Session three last year was a very strong session, because it contained some Thoroughbred Corp. horses and those horses were in day one and day two this year. To be that close in gross is a reflection of the strength of this market. People are still hungry and we keep hearing from buyers that it's hard to find what they're looking for. Good foals by young sires, regardless of pedigree, as long as they're good individuals, are selling at a premium. It's been great to have a group like Gulf Coast, great to have Lance here. They've been strong every day, both as a buyer and an underbidder."

John Stuart, Bluegrass Thoroughbred Services

"I think the market is a continuation of what we saw in November. Young racemares are in higher demand than we thought they would be. There's a great market for the good yearlings. It's been surprisingly strong overall for breeding stock which is selling for a larger increase than the yearlings have. The breeding of horses is really not that profitable right now, so you wouldn't expect things to go up. The market's strong."

RINGSIDE... with Alan Carasso

GULF COAST LEAVING ITS MARK

There has been no more voracious buyer at Keeneland this week than Gulf Coast Farm, headed by Lance Robinson. Through yesterday's third day of bidding at the January Horses of All Ages Sale, the team has bought 19 horses for gross receipts of $3.41 million. The group was equally hungry at last year's November sale, acquiring 20 mares for $4.6 million. Gulf Coast now boasts a broodmare band of about 75, which are boarded at Taylor Made Farm and Viking Stud.

Robinson, a resident of Spanish Fork, Utah, has his roots in the rodeo business and was an accomplished performer. But it was a religious calling which first brought him to the Bluegrass.

"I was raised on a dairy farm and came on a mission for the Mormon church back here and kind of got involved in buying a few horses," he explained. "Win a little money at the rodeo, buy a mare or two. That's the long and the short of it."

Robinson is a long-time associate of Jerry Bailey, best known as a yearling-to-two-year-old pinhooker and consignor at major two-year-old auctions. Bailey is a partner in Gulf Coast, along with business manager Jeff Collatt. So, what has led to their commitment to the Keeneland sales?

"We think it's time for us to grow," Robinson said. "We think the market is going in the right direction and we'd like to participate while it's doing that. Every business gets to a point where you need to either stop or expand and we're probably at that expansion point. We think it's a good time right now in the horse business and we want to be involved in a lot of different areas."

"We think there is a certain niche in the market that there's a lot of room to play in, so that's what we're doing," he continued. "We're probably not going to buy mares for $1 million or $2 million. We're pinhookers by nature and that's the range we're going to be in. We kind of think we're working-class horsepeople and that's kind of where we want to stay in."

Indeed, yesterday's purchase of Misty Sixes represented the most expensive mare Gulf Coast has signed for.

Robinson stated that their intent is to return all of the horses they are buying to future auctions.

"We might pinhook weanlings or two-year-olds or whatever," he commented. "We'd rather sell a lot of yearlings and then regroup at the yearling sales and buy a specific horse to go to the two-year-old sales. We might even pinhook mares. In this sale, we've bought a lot of broodmare prospects and depending on how we feel next summer, we might roll a few back in November."

Robinson indicated that part of his motivation to bid aggressively at the sale is his confidence in the bustling market and his belief that the market is accelerating.

"We're banking on it [that the market will continue to rise]. We're counting on it," he said.

What They're Saying At The Sales...

Marilyn Seltzer, buyer

"The market is very strong for the quality. Horses are very hard to get. The economy is good, everyone is looking for a good quality family. I wasn't able to buy in the price range I've wanted. We have a brand new stallion [Greatness] we are promoting. We want to buy him good quality, but it's very difficult in this market."

Tom Bozarth, Arch Bloodstock

"It's been kind of hard to buy good horses. The good horses that come through here are hard to get. They bring a lot of money. We bought eight mares and a yearling so far. We've been working at it. We bought some mares for a stallion down in Florida [Sarava]...[owner] Gary Drake has bought some nice mares to breed to him. I think we did well for that, but we're trying to find a nice mare and they're hard to find. You might think that they're worth x number of dollars, but they're bringing more than that...2x or 3x. That's been the biggest problem."

VALENZUELA RECEIVES '05 LICENSE Jockey Pat Valenzuela, suspended for most of 2004, has reached a settlement with the California Horse Racing Board and will receive a conditional license effective today through Dec. 31. Valenzuela, who has been suspended multiple times for drug violations, has not ridden since last summer when he allegedly failed to provide stewards with a hair follicle for testing. Under terms of the conditional license, the jockey will be required to submit to drug and or alcohol testing and will be held to minimum hair lengths for testing. "As they will be competing against him, the other jockeys are entitled to know how we came to this point and what procedures will be in place," CHRB Executive Director Ingrid Fermin said after the ruling. "This is not just about Valenzuela. This is about all of the riders. I want to have open communications with all of the jockeys in order to address their concerns."

Commentator Comes out of Hal's Hope with Fracture: Tracy Farmer's Commentator (Distorted Humor), seventh in Saturday's GIII Hal's Hope H. at Gulfstream,

emerged from the race with a small fracture to his left shin, according to Daily Racing Form. The four-year-old gelding went off the 5-2 second choice to eventual winner Badge of Silver (Silver Deputy), but tired badly after setting the pace. "On Sunday he was fine, but Monday morning he was not so fine," Zito told DRF. "We took a routine X-ray and discovered a little line on his left shin, so we had digital X-rays taken. We won't have the results until Wednesday or Thursday." Zito said the injury would not be career threatening. "He'll let us know if this is an injury that will simply require time to heal or if it's big enough to put in a screw. Either way, it's nothing serious. He'll be fine."

Hopelessly Devoted Dies After Collapsing in Stakes:

Multiple stakes winner Hopelessly Devoted (Storm Creek--Silver Treego, by Silver Buck), who collapsed just past the wire in Sunday's Marshua's River S. at Gulfstream, died shortly after the race, reports Daily Racing Form. An autopsy determined the four-year-old went into cardiac arrest caused by heat exhaustion. Hopelessly Devoted's death was a particularly tough blow for trainer Sandra Slivka, who had claimed the filly for $25,000 in her first start as a two-year-old at Calder. "She was not only a very good horse, but she was like a member of the family," Slivka explained to DRF. "I rubbed her myself, and Omar [Londono, her husband] was the only rider to get on her in the morning." Owned by Olaf Kroneman's Liberty Stable, she won six of 16 lifetime starts for earnings of $499,385.

NYRA Suspends Clerks:

The New York Racing Association yesterday announced the suspensions of clerk of scales Mario Sclafani and assistant clerk of scales Braulio Baeza with pay until further notice. The suspensions are part of an ongoing investigation and follows a raid last month of the scales room by law enforcement officials. The investigation began when information developed by the special oversight committee of the NYRA Board of Trustees was provided to the Attorney General's Office. "Our policy remains to cooperate fully with all government and law enforcement agencies to protect our customers and the integrity of Thoroughbred racing," said NYRA president and CEO Charles Hayward.

3--Wheaton's Aly, 118, h, 6, Wheaton--Miss Aly Pie, by Horatius.

Margins: 6, HD, 4. Odds: 2.55, 6.80, 6.70.

A winner in a seven-furlong Belmont allowance last May, Houston's Prayer finished out of the money in two subsequent starts over the summer. Off for over four months, the chestnut returned with a close-up second in his latest start under similar conditions Dec. 8. Settled in a tracking fourth early, he took over on the turn and galloped off to score by daylight.

3rd-AQU, $42,000, Msw, 3yo, f, a1m70yd, 1:45 1/5, my. MONEY HELPS (f, 3, Coronado's Quest--Deputy Sue {MSW, $231,226}, by Silver Deputy) finished second by a nose in a mile maiden here Nov. 11 before coming home a well-beaten seventh when thrown to the wolves in her latest in the nine-furlong GII Demoiselle S. Nov. 27. On the engine early, the bay opened up by 2 1/2 lengths with a furlong left to run and remained tough late, scoring by 3/4 of a length over Bayou Breeze (A.P. Indy). Lifetime Record: 7-1-3-0, $55,045. O/B-John D Gunther (KY). T-Kiaran P McLaughlin.

9th-AQU, $42,000, Msw, (S), 3yo, f, a1m70yd, 1:48 3/5, my.

CRITICAL CHANT (f, 3, War Chant--Critical Crew, by Dr. Blum), eighth going a mile against state-bred foes on the Belmont turf Sept. 24, mounted a mild rally to finish fourth in her latest while trying six panels here Dec. 17. Sent off at 5-1 odds for her debut going long on the main, the half to Critical Eye (Dynaformer), MGISW, $1,060,984 and Personable Pete (Personal Flag), MSP, $244,648, stalked the early pace, gained command after three quarters, drew off to a solid advantage a furlong from home and had enough left in reserve to hand Hudson Valley (Peaks and Valleys) a two-length defeat. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, $27,370. O/B/T-Scott M Schwartz (NY).

'04 Purses Up 3.42 Percent:

According to figures released yesterday by the National Thoroughbred Racing Association and Equibase Company LLC, total purses in the United States and Canada in 2004 rose 3.42 percent over 2003. "Thoroughbred Economic Indicators" also reported slight declines in number of race days and pari-mutuel handle. "The increase in purses is good news for horse owners and breeders," commented NTRA Commissioner and CEO D.G. Van Clief, Jr. "Although it demonstrates the growing importance of alternative gaming within the pari-mutuel sector, where three of the four racetracks with significant average daily purse increases in 2004-- Charles Town, Finger Lakes and Evangeline Downs-- feature alternative gaming." Wagering on U.S. races fell 0.58 percent in 2004 to $15,091,778,827. With 6,423 race days in 2004, purses totaled $1,088,071,865.

Action This Day to San Fernando; Rock Hard Ten Skips:

Trainer Richard Mandella worked 2003 juvenile champion Action This Day (Kris S.) at Santa Anita yesterday in preparation for Saturday's GII San Fernando Breeders' Cup H. The four-year-old, who returned from an eight-month absence to be ninth in a grassy Santa Anita allowance Dec. 26, zipped a bullet three furlongs in :34.20. Another Mandella runner, GI Malibu S. seventh-place finisher Minister Eric (Old Trieste), is also set to run in the San Fernando, the second leg of the Strub Series. Mandella said that the winner of the Malibu, Rock Hard Ten (Kris S.), would pass the San Fernando and instead race in the finale of the series, the GII Strub S. Feb. 5.

House of Fortune Works For Sunshine Millions Distaff:

Tightening the screws for the $500,000 Jan. 29 Sunshine Millions Distaff at Santa Anita, House of Fortune (Free House) breezed six panels at the Arcadia oval in 1:13. It was the fastest of seven moves at the distance. "She went every eighth in :12," said trainer Ron McAnally. "Gary [Stevens] just gave me the OK sign after the work. It won't be any problem bringing her up to the race on works." House of Fortune is unraced since running seventh to Azeri in the GI Spinster S. at Keeneland in October. Another Distaff hopeful, Yearly Report (General Meeting), is "doing well" after missing the GI La Brea S. with a minor ankle ailment, according to conditioner Bob Baffert.

Yesterday's Results:

7th-SAX, $56,056, Alw, NW1X, 4yo/up, 1m, 1:35 1/5, ft.

TREVITE (g, 4, Bertrando--Trivita, by Theatrical {Ire}), who didn't make his first start until a fourth-place effort at Hollywood in July, was a 3 1/2-length maiden winner sprinting 6 1/2 furlongs here Oct. 17, but was third as the 6-5 favorite when stretching out to 1 1/16 miles last time out Nov. 27 at Hollywood. Favored at 3-5 in this five-horse field, the bay gelding pressed the pace before pulling clear when asked in upper stretch to win by 3 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: 4-2-0-1, $61,860. DAKOTA HAS ROYAL AIM

The newly turned three-year-old Blue Dakota (Ire) (Namid {GB}) has pleased his conditioner Jeremy Nosedo over the winter, but likely won't see the race-course until June. Winner of the 2004 G3 Norfolk S., he will bid to follow up his Royal Ascot exploits this term when the meeting is switched to York, where the G2 King's Stand S. June 14 will be his main target. "At the moment, Blue Dakota's early season objective is the King's Stand and he will probably go to York without a previous race," Nosedo commented. "Physically, he's done particularly well for his break and we are more than hopeful that he will turn into a top-class sprinter over five furlongs." The bay colt captured four of five outings last season.

KAVANAGH HAILS INCREASES

Horse Racing Ireland's Chief Executive Brian Kavanagh yesterday spoke of the domestic racing scene's continued growth following vital increases in 2004. With Tote betting up, increased sponsorship and significant growth in racehorse ownership, the overall position of Irish racing's ruling body was positive, despite attendance levels falling just short of the 2003 record figure. "We knew that 2004 would be a very competitive marketplace, particularly with the Olympics and Euro 2004," Kavanagh said. "In that climate, I am delighted to see the continuing dynamism in Irish racing, with most of the key indicators showing satisfactory increases. We remain confident that the underlying demand for racing is strong and we expect to see further growth in 2005."

ENTREPRENEUR HEADING TO RUSSIA

Entrepreneur (GB) (Sadler's Wells) has been sold to stand at Russia's historic Voskhod Stud, according to Racing Post. The deal for the 11-year-old stallion was brokered by James Wigan of London Thoroughbred Services. "Entrepreneur is the most exciting horse they've ever had in Russia, certainly the best stallion," Wigan told Racing Post. Over the past year, Wigan has assisted in the purchase of broodmares for Russian clients. "We've bought a number of classy mares here and in the U.S. over the last few years. At the moment they're remaining here in Britain until we can integrate new stallions with them. You don't buy top-class mares unless you have a top-class stallion to breed them to, and now in Entrepreneur we have that." Winner of the 1997 G1 2000 Guineas, Entrepreneur started his stud career in Ireland, where he sired G1 Irish Oaks heroine Vintage Tipple (Ire) and Damson (Ire), who defeated colts in last season's G1 Phoenix S. Entrepreneur had been standing in Japan since 2002. He is the third son of Sadler's Wells in the last week to have been relocated to Russia, following his brethren The Great Gatsby (Ire) and Hatha Anna (Ire).

LION HUNTER FILLY TOPS MM FINALE

The ill-fated stallion Lion Hunter (Aus) continued to be popular at the final session of the Conrad Jupiters Magic Millions Yearling Sale, siring the day's highest priced filly at A$130,000. The daughter of Glimmers (Aus) (Success Express), offered by the Moran family's Noble Park Stud, was purchased by Queensland trainer Ron Maund, who rated the filly the nicest by Lion Hunter he had ever seen. "She was close to perfect," Maund said. "She has everything I look for in a filly, although I didn't think I'd have to go that high to buy her." Queensland's sire ranks, for so long second fiddle to the Hunter Valley, suffered a blow when the Lion Hunter was humanely destroyed at age 11 last February after fracturing a hind pastern. The son of Danehill's fee leapt from A$5,000 to A$15,000, and Oaklands Stud had planned to shuttle the G1 AJC Galaxy victor to Japan. A champion first-crop sire of horses such as Group 1 winner Lovely Jubly (Aus), he is still making his presence felt, with 13 sold at Magic Millions Select at an average of A$84,000. The second part of the sale ended with 317 horses sold at an aggregate A$7,879,500 and average A$24,856. David Chester, managing director of Magic Millions, termed the sale a resounding success. "We are delighted to have turned over yet more record results in 2005," he said. "Buyers and vendors alike are realizing that this sale in January is now one of the most important in the world."
