FIRST WORK OF THE YEAR FOR 'ALEX'

GISW Afleet Alex (Northern Afleet) posted his first work of the year Wednesday and he did it in style, breezing a half mile in :47 before galloping out five panels in :59 3/5. The four-furlong breeze was the second fastest move at the distance and his gallop-out time was faster than 34 horses who were actually scheduled to work five-eighths. Jockey Jeremy Rose was in the irons. "Alex didn't do any more than he ever does," said trainer Tim Ritchey. "He had lots of miles under him, since we got to Oaklawn, so he was ready to roll. We just let him use his natural speed. He's a fast horse." Last year's GI Hopeful S. winner, who has been on the sidelines since a second-place finish in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Lone Star Oct. 30, is expected to make his return in the Mar. 19 GIII Rebel S. before a tilt at the GII Arkansas Derby.

BEAR FAN TRIES TO REBOUND IN FRITCHIE

Bear Fan (Pine Bluff) leads a field of 10 into Saturday's GII Barbara Fritchie H. at Laurel, spotting her rivals between three and 10 pounds. The dark bay established herself as one of the best sprinters in the country--of either sex--early last year with a four-race winning skein that culminated in a track-record-equaling performance in the GII Vagrancy H. at Belmont in June. But she was upset by Ema Boveri (Chi) in the GII Princess Rooney H. in July and went to the sidelines. Sent off the odds-on pick in her return, the Jan. 29 Sunshine Millions F&M Sprint at Gulfstream, she finished a tired second and will try to regroup here. A blazing five-furlong move in :59 flat--the best of 48 at the distance--at trainer Wesley Ward's East Coast base at Palm Meadows Feb. 13 says that she's fit and ready going into the Barbara Fritchie, a race she won last year.

CALVIN BOREL JOINS 4000 CLUB Jockey Calvin Borel became the 45th jockey in North America to ride 4,000 winners when he guided Jet Angel to victory in the third race at Oaklawn Park. "Coming to the wire, I thought I had the other horse, but I was glad to see the wire," Borel said following a winner's circle celebration. "I just want to thank my father, my mother [Oaklawn placing judge Debbie Borel], my brother [trainer Cecil Borel], my fiancé Elisa, and the great guys I ride with every day." Borel, born in St. Martinsville, Louisiana in 1966, earned his first victory in 1983. He has since taken riding titles at seven different racetracks, including Churchill Downs, Ellis Park and Oaklawn. Borel captured the 1993 Arkansas Derby with longshot Rockamundo, and won the 1991 Super Derby with Free Spirit's Joy. The 38-year-old reinsman has also taken the GI Oaklawn H. once and the GI Apple Blossom H. twice. Willie Martinez, one of Borel's fellow riders, said, "Calvin is a credit to the game. It's a pleasure to ride him."

★ GULFSTREAM ★

'Dreaming' of the Sabin:

Trainer Shug McGaughey said that Daydreaming (A.P. Indy) is on track for her seasonal debut in the Gill Sabin H. at Gulfstream Feb. 26. The Phipps homebred, who concluded her 2004 campaign with wins in the Oct. 1 Gill Indiana Breeders' Cup Oaks and Nov. 26 GII Top Flight H., breezed an easy five furlongs in 1:04 3/5 Monday at Gulfstream in preparation.

A Coglianese

"She worked good the other day," said the Hall of Famer. "I'll work her again this weekend to keep her on schedule for the [Sabin]."

Little Money Down Pointed Toward Forward Gal:

Little Money Down (West Acre), who took her record to two-for-three Sunday with a smart half-length tally in a Gulfstream allowance, will likely target the Mar. 5 GII Stonerside Forward Gal S. The timing of the race was key to the decision, according to trainer John Ward. "I really want to thank [Racing Secretary] Dave Bailey for writing that allowance race Sunday," said Ward. "We really needed to get caught up with the other [Kentucky] Oaks fillies and that race helped. It's only 20 day between races, but we needed to get in line with how the races are going to progress." Fifth in her debut at Aqueduct in mid-November before breaking her maiden at that oval a month later, Little Money Down won Sunday's six-furlong event in 1:09 3/5.

Friends of New York Releases Survey Results, Plans:

A survey released yesterday by Friends of New York, the newly formed organization headed by former National Thoroughbred Racing Association commissioner Tim Smith, revealed that most New Yorkers value and support the state's Thoroughbred industry and favor expanded gaming at Thoroughbred racing facilities as a way to generate additional revenue for the state. The survey, released at a news conference held Wednesday near Albany, indicated that New Yorkers who had an opinion on the subject view horseracing favorably by a 63 to 37 percent margin. Support was even stronger for racing when those polled were provided with information about jobs, farms and economic impact. "Overall, we believe this initial survey provides a good road map for the communications and advocacy phase of our efforts," said Smith. "Part of our challenge is to do a better job telling the public about the importance of racing and breeding to the state's economy and lifestyle." Friends of New York, in conjunction with the New York Thoroughbred Breeders, Inc. and the New York Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association, respectively, announced it would undertake studies with each organization to study the economic impact of Thoroughbred racing in New York.

Several Southern California runners have worked this week with an eye on the Mar. 5 GI Santa Anita H., including veteran Truly a Judge (Judge T C), who breezed four panels in :47.40 Tuesday at Santa Anita. Trainer David Bernstein confirmed the Big 'Cap was the probable target for the seven-year-old Truly a Judge, victor of the GIII San Gabriel H. on New Year's Day before finishing second to Lundy's Liability (Brz) in the GII San Antonio H. Feb. 6. "That's our plan if the weather doesn't alter it," he said. Conditioner Richard Mandella's Congrats (A.P. Indy) was also on the worktab Tuesday, getting four furlongs in :49.60, along with Imperialism (Langfuhr), who worked the same distance in :49.40. Sunshine Millions Classic winner Musique Toujours (Musique d'Enfer) breezed five panels Monday in a minute flat. "He's going to come back and work on the weekend," stated his trainer John Sadler. "If he continues to work well, we'll continue to look at [the race]." The likely favorite for the Big 'Cap will be GII Strub S. winner Rock Hard Ten (Kris S.).
