MADCAP DAZZLES IN SHIRLEY JONES

Making her first start since suffering a non-displaced hairline fracture of the hip last spring while preparing for the GI Acorn S., Madcap Escapade (Hennessy) returned to the races in impressive style yesterday, taking Gulfstream's GII Shirley Jones H. by two lengths over Alix M (End Sweep). Last year's GI Ashland S. victress, who suffered her first career defeat when finishing third in the GI Kentucky Oaks last time Apr. 30, walked out of the starting gate yesterday, spotting the field several lengths, but quickly made it to the front and opened up a 3 1/2-length lead after a quarter in :22.65. Confidently ridden by Jerry Bailey, the four-year-old was well clear in the stretch and cruised home as a much-the-best winner while posting a new course record. "It's always good to get the first one out under our belt," said trainer Frank Brothers. "At the break, I wanted to throw up. She hasn't been a really good gate horse. We'll just enjoy this one and talk about what's next in a few days."

CATIVA STEALS BEAR FAN'S THUNDER

While all eyes were on even-money favorite MGSW Bear Fan (Pine Bluff) in yesterday's GII Barbara Fritchie H. at Laurel, it was the Richard Dutrow Jr.-trained Cativa (Sir Cat) who stole the show, posting her first stakes victory by 2 1/4 lengths over Sensibly Chic (Distorted Humor). Last year's GII Vagrancy H. winner Bear Fan settled for eighth after pressing the early pace. "She just didn't have it today," jockey John Velazquez said. "She just came out of a tough race [second in the Sunshine Millions F & M Turf Sprint Jan. 29] and didn't show up today." Cont, see p2.

LOOKING GOOD IN THE SOUTHWEST

Heavily favored Greater Good (Intidab) trailed the field after hopping at the start, but that didn't seem to matter in the short stretch at Oaklawn yesterday, where he rallied to post a 3/4-length victory over Munificence (Allen's Prospect) in the Southwest S. "I would have liked a better start and would have liked to have been closer when we came out of the first turn," winning rider John McKee commented. "I was urging him a little at that point so that we weren't too far behind. I had to use him at the half pole so that I was in contention by the quarter pole. He did all that easily and I was really pleased with his effort today." Cont, see p3.

Cativa was claimed for $55,000 back in September of 2003 and has certainly paid her way since, winning eight of 10 starts and never finishing worse than third. The Richard Dutrow Jr. trainee quickly reeled off three in a row at the Big A for her new barn, including an allowance tally Dec. 20. After finishing second by a neck over the inner strip Jan. 22, she regrouped with another allowance score Feb. 21, then finished third in a $65,000 optional claimer Mar. 24. Freshened up off that effort, she returned with a 2 3/4-length tally versus $75,000 claimers at Belmont May 27, then romped by 7 1/2 lengths over that course in an $65,000 optional claimer June 17. Placed on the shelf again off that win, she returned Jan. 20 at the Big A with a front-running score versus $85,000 optional claimers last time. Seeking her fourth straight here, she sat in second as Bear Fan led through a quarter in :23.06. Ridden by Edgar Prado, Cativa made it to the lead at the half-mile marker and drew off in the stretch to post a decisive victory.

License To Run reeled off three straight victories in his native Brazil last season, including a victory in the G1 Grande Premio Cruzeiro do Sul S. Apr. 18. Sent to the U.S. after finishing 16th in the G1 Grande Premio Sao Paulo S. May 16, he rallied to finish third in the G1 Hollywood Turf Cup Dec. 4. Last seen finishing fifth as the 4-5 chalk in the grassy GII San Marcos S. Jan. 22, the dark bay was backed as the choice in this off-the-turf event. Sent to the lead by Pat Valenzuela, he battled for early command, shook clear on the final turn and reported home to a lengthy victory. "I got lucky to pick up the mount and he ran a great race today," Valenzuela said. "I was confident that I would go to the front, I just didn't know if Continental Red was going to go with me or the other horse next to me [Californian]. We found ourselves ding-donging out there, but not too fast, we were pretty much walking. Around the three-eighths pole I asked him to pick it up and he picked it up really nicely."

Winner of last year's GII Silverbulletday S. on the main track here at Fair Grounds, Shadow Cast ran third in the GIII Valley View S. on the turf at Keeneland Oct. 23 before gearing up for another winter in New Orleans. The versatile Farish homebred proved a winner over this course Dec. 18 in the Pago Hop H. before moving to the dirt to annex the Truly Bound

H. Jan. 22. With Robby Albarado in the irons as usual, the chestnut was allowed to cruise along in fourth before being asked for more on the far turn. She rallied up the inside and pulled away in the final sixteenth for her second career graded-stakes victory. "Today she wanted to destroy the field," Albarado said. "She wanted to win big. It's so good to have that dirt/grass versatility. It truly is wonderful and with fillies, that distance tends to separate them. She sure responds well to this distance."

Greater Good earned his diploma in his second career start at Ellis Park last August, then added a victory in Turfway's GIII Kentucky Cup Juvenile S. Sept. 18. Backed at odds of 2-1 in his next start, he finished third, beaten seven lengths in the GIII Iroquois S. at Churchill Nov. 6. Brought back three weeks later for his juvenile finale in the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S., he didn't disappoint, rallying for a 1 3/4-length victory. Backed as the heavy choice for his sophomore debut, he trailed the field early after hopping at the start. Asked to quicken with a half mile remaining, the bay colt rallied five wide into the stretch and rallied strongly to run down the pacesetter Munificence. "This race was always in our plans," winning trainer Robert Holthus said. "We mapped out plans for him and have stayed with them, never missing a day. I am pleased that he made up all that ground, because it has been a speed track much of the day."

Narita Century had shown an affinity for this course in the past, taking the G2-JRA Kyoto Daishoten last year. Sent off the second choice to add this race to his resume, the bay settled in eighth in the early going, moved closer as they headed around the final bend and hit high gear when the field fanned wide for the stretch drive. Showing a strong late kick, he took over in the final furlong and edged clear. Longshot Tosho Knight finished well, but ran out of real estate.

Stepping up in grade this campaign, Court's In Session toppled Grand Arme'e at their first meeting in the Jan. 29 G2 Expressway S. But a tenacious Grand Arme'e turned the tables in the Feb. 12 G2 Apollo S. and front-running Court's In Session was again swamped by his arch rival yesterday. The powerful Grand Arme'e stalked the pace, snatched the lead at the 200-meter mark and confidently shook off all comers for his fourth Group 1 trophy. The winner may next clash with G1 C.F. Ultra-classy Hong Kong sprinter Cape Of Good Hope emerged from the larger-than-life shadow of nemesis Silent Witness (Aus) with this victory. Breaking a winning drought of two years, the seven-year-old gelding handled the tight Moonee Valley circuit to become the second Hong Kong-based horse to capture a Group 1 trophy abroad, following in the hoofsteps of Fairy King Prawn (Aus), who captured the Yasuda Kinen in Japan five years ago. "He really deserves this, he's a great old horse," said elated trainer David Oughton. "If not for Silent Witness, he would be labeled a champion. He's as game as they come and, although Silent Witness is just too good for us at the level weights at home, he has never broken this horse's heart. He just keeps trying." Cape of Good Hope shadowed pacesetter Spark Of Life early and rocketed away late to post to a comfortable win. He has been beaten by Silent Witness at his last two starts in Hong Kong, but is due to fly home Monday for a possible rematch with that foe in the Feb. 27 Centenary Sprint Cup. Looking ahead, Oughton confirmed he would aim the winner at the next two legs of the Global Sprint Challenge, the June 14 G2 King's Stand S. and June 18 G1 Golden Jubilee S., both at Royal Ascot. Third in the first race in the series, the Feb. 5 G1 Lightning S., Cape of Good Hope leads the Challenge series with 28 points.

GALLOPING GROCER BRUISES FOOT Triple Crown hopeful Galloping Grocer (A.P. Jet), a disappointing fourth in his three-year-old bow in the Whirlaway S. last weekend, has suffered a bruised right foot, reports Daily Racing Form. The injury, which occurred while the horse was training Thursday morning at Aqueduct, may preclude a scheduled start in the Mar. 5 GII Fountain of Youth S. at Gulfstream Park, said trainer Dominick Schettino.

Galloping Grocer
A Coglianese

Schettino added the bruise wasn't serious and that Galloping Grocer would likely miss three or four days of training. "He was sound this morning [Friday]," Schettino told the Form. "We'll give him a couple of extra days off as a precaution and then start back with him." Schettino named the Mar. 12 GII Louisiana Derby at Fair Grounds or the Mar. 19 GIII Gotham S. at Aqueduct as possible targets should his charge miss the Fountain of Youth.

Roses in May Posts First Work Since Donn:

Ken and Sarah Ramsey's Roses in May (Devil His Due) was back to work yesterday for the first time since being dueled into defeat by Saint Liam in the GI Donn S. at Gulfstream Feb. 5. The five-year-old earned the bullet at the Hallandale oval with a swift :59 1/5 breeze under Hall of Fame jockey Angel Cordero, Jr. "It was really good," said trainer Dale Romans. "I got him in :58 something. The important thing is he got each quarter a little bit faster and galloped out really well. It was time to speed him up. We didn't want to do too much going into his last race." Plans still call for Roses in May, second to Ghostzapper in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Classic, to ship to Dubai for the Mar. 26 G1 World Cup. In related news, connections of Saint Liam (Saint Ballado) are now rethinking their initial plan to send the five-year-old to Dubai. Mark Reid, racing manager for the horse's owners Mr. and Mrs. William Warren, Jr., told Daily Racing Form, "I'm not sure what we're going to do just yet, but if you asked me today what I thought, I'd say we're probably leaning against going to Dubai. [It's] a scorching test on the other side of the world. Right now, I think Saint Liam has a lot to accomplish over here."

B.B. Best Headed to Fountain of Youth:

B.B. Best (Yes It's True), winner of last year's Florida Stallion In Reality S., is being pointed for the GII Fountain of Youth S. at Gulfstream Mar. 5. "That's the plan right now," trainer Eddie Plesa, Jr. commented. "We'll probably give him one more work in about a week and then hope everything goes a little better for us in this next race." Off since finishing a troubled fourth in Gulfstream's Sunshine Millions Ocala Stud Dash Jan. 29, B.B. Best worked one mile Friday at Calder in 1:44.80.

SAINT STEPHEN (h, 5, Saint Ballado--Goulash {SW & GSP, $162,975}, by Mari's Book), the full brother to last year's champion three-year-old filly Ashado, MGISW, $2,870,440, ended an eight-race losing skein with a victory over the Meadowlands sod Oct. 22. He finished 10th, beaten four lengths, at the Big A Nov. 18 at this level and was returning from a three-month breather at 10-1 odds. The $400,000 FTKJUL yearling was never far back, swung wide for the drive and bounded away to win by 1 1/2 lengths in course-record time. It was the second consecutive day the track record was lowered. The 9-5 pick Ershaad (Kingmambo) rallied for the place spot, while the returning Tiger Hunt (Kris S.), in the hunt early, tired to be fifth. Lifetime Record: GSP, 14-3-4-3, $133,380.

YANKEE MON (c, 4, Maria's Mon--Sodeo Sodeo, by Seattle Slew), a $395,000 FTKJUL yearling purchase, won at first asking last February at Fair Grounds for previous trainer Ronny Werner. The chestnut ran third in a Churchill allowance Apr. 29, but was sidelined following a fifth under the Twin Spires June 3. He had been training smartly at Palm Meadows for new trainer Rick Dutrow in recent weeks. The 5-2 favorite raced with the pace while three wide, took charge in the stretch and extended his advantage to seven lengths under the wire. Lifetime Record: 4-2-0-1, $40,961. GRAT (f, 3, A.P. Indy--Likeable Style {GISW, $321,326}, by Nijinsky II), a $500,000 FTSAUG yearling, closed with a flourish to graduate in her second turf race, a Churchill maiden Nov. 7. The well-bred filly ran out of real estate and had to settle for fifth, beaten 2 1/2 lengths, going 1 1/16 miles over this course Jan. 23, but appreciated the added distance here as the 8-5 chalk. Taking her customary spot near the back of the back, she began to move on the far turn, but had to steady on the heels of a rival. Coming once again, she closed hard under a Jerry Bailey drive and just got up to deny Mountain Mambo (Mt. Livermore) by half a length. Lifetime Record: 6-2-1-0, $57,645.

Jessie and Stacy Longoria

Fusaichi Rock Star Benoit

This week's accomplishment:

Consigned $825,000 Fasig-Tipton Calder graduate, who won the GII San Vicente S. at Santa Anita last Sunday.

Birthplace: (Jessie) Beeville, Texas
(Stacy) Stillville, Illinois

Birthdate: (Jessie) 5-23-62
(Stacy) 1-14-63

Current Residence: Ocala, FL

Family: Married in 1990. Three children: Willow, 8; Chloe, 2; Isabella, 8 1/2 months.

Did you have any idea that Fusaichi Rock Star would turn into such a lucrative pinhook? (Jessie) One thing that I learned from Jimmy Gladwell, it's that when you're buying a yearling, if it's a good individual go by your gut. And I just loved the horse so I bought him [for $30,000 at OBSAUG]. After I worked the horse at home a few times, I called Fasig and said, 'This is a horse you're gonna want.' Even if they might not belong because of pedigree, Fasig will take 'em if they can run.

If you were to live somewhere other than Ocala, where would it be? (Jessie) Probably Texas, where I grew up. My dad still lives down there and I love to hunt. I bow hunt for white tail. The deer in Florida aren't as big as they are in Texas [laughs]. (Stacy) California. Just because of the perfect weather. I lived out there, at one point, and living on the coast with no screens on the windows even was wonderful.

Do you have any two-year-olds you're excited about? (Jessie) We've got three at Fasig Calder. We've got a Snuck In colt, hip 317, that's awesome. I think he'll get some attention.

Favorite meal: (Jessie) T-bone steak. (Stacy) [laughs] I'm almost embarrassed to say, but roast beef. I'm from the Midwest! Lasagna is close, but it can't beat mom's roast beef.

Favorite vacation spot: (Stacy) The Mediterranean. When I was there I got to ride on these bluffs over the water. I was in awe of everything. That was off the coast of Italy, in Sardinia.

CONGRATULATIONS!

from Fasig-Tipton's Star of the Week

FLOWER ALLEY (c, 3, Distorted Humor--Princess Olivia, by Lycius) outbattled his favored stablemate Wall Street (Fusaichi Pegasus) to the line for this impressive maiden breaker. The chestnut, a $50,000 KEENOV weanling and $165,000 KEESEP yearling, debuted at Calder Dec. 18, where he pressed the pace before tiring to be a well-beaten third. Off at 5-1 stretching from six panels to a mile, he broke alertly from post 10 and joined a wall of horses vying for the lead entering the far turn. It looked like fellow pace factor Wall Street had shaken loose two furlongs out, but Flower Alley rebid and gamely asserted by 3/4 lengths under the wire. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $21,660.

Let go at long odds, Distinctive Trick led every step of this contest for his first stakes victory. The dark bay, third in the Great White Way S. Nov. 7, missed by a nose in a state-bred allowance contest Jan. 14 before getting the job done in similar conditions Jan. 30. Jockey Stewart Elliott allowed his mount to roll along on the front end through honest fractions, and the pair braced themselves at the top of the stretch as several challenges materialized. The even-money favorite, maiden Attila's Storm (Forest Wildcat), yielded in deep stretch, and Distinctive Trick kept on going for his second straight success.

WIN WITH BECK (c, 4, Personal Flag--Matter of Trust, by Leo Castelli), a maiden winner on the sod at Belmont over the summer, managed only a third in his next four before winning a NW1X for state-breds by eight lengths on the dirt at Aqueduct Dec. 4. He knocked off his next condition for New York-breds Jan. 16 and was trying to keep his perfect record on the inner here as an 8-1 chance. Crowded at the break, he was last of eight after the opening half, but began to close with an inside move. Angled out for running room, the bay rallied determinedly to post the neck tally over Say Cousin Lenny (Smart Strike). Lifetime Record: 12-4-0-1, $116,980. O/B-Stewart Hoffman (NY). KING'S CHOICE (c, 3, K One King--Pollywilldoit, by Cobra King) improved off a non-threatening debut effort in November to be third in his route bow Dec. 31. The colt, a $21,000 KEEJAN and $40,000 FTKJUL yearling, brought a daylight lead into the stretch in his latest going a mile and a sixteenth Jan. 30, but couldn't hold on late and settled for second. Sufficiently tightened by those races, King's Choice relaxed off the leaders up the backstretch, then charged to the front in mid-stretch and edged away to prevail by 2 1/2 lengths. The 25-1 longshot Dance Quiet (Saint Ballado) nipped Fortunate Storm (Fortunate Prospect) for place honors. Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-1, $37,950.

$45,000 maiden claimers by 10 lengths in mid-October. He quickly ran through his allowance conditions at Aqueduct, taking a seven-furlong event Nov. 19, his two-turn bow Dec. 16 and an 8 1/2-furlong test by four lengths Jan. 7. Wading into stakes waters here, the gelding was quickest into stride under jockey John

Velazquez and set a half in :48.98 while being kept honest by a tough foe in Offlee Wild. It looked like the latter put a head in front in upper stretch, but Coast Line battled back for the well-earned victory. "He's just grown with every start," said Seth Benzal, an assistant to winning trainer Todd Pletcher. "I think we're testing his distance limitations going 1 1/8 miles, but like Johnny V. said, this horse is a fighter." Of Offlee Wild, who was making his first start since winning the GII Massachusetts H. last June, jockey Edgar Prado said, "I'm proud of this horse running so well off the long layoff."

From the barn of leading trainer Tony Cruz, he heads a field of 14 in the 2000-meter turf event. The six-year-old was an unlucky second to Alexander Goldrun (Ire) in the G1 Hong Kong Cup over course and distance Dec. 12, but atoned for that defeat with a 1 3/4-length victory over fellow Gold Cup hopeful Ain't Here (Aus) (Dehere) in the Jan. 16 Stewards' Cup. He faces Perfect Partner (Aus) (Quest for Fame {GB}), who was favored in the 1600-meter Stewards' Cup, but dropped his rider at the gate and ran off, necessitating a late scratch. Runner-up to Firebreak (GB) in the Dec. 12 G1 Hong Kong Mile, he blew out a quarter mile in :21.30 Thursday in company with stablemate Bullish Luck.
