MISS TERRIBLE ROLLS TO LAS FLORES WIN

Miss Terrible (Arg) (Numerous) came into this event off of two prior American losses, but made amends yesterday with a come-from-behind victory in the GIII Las Flores H. at Santa Anita. Settled off a crisp early pace set by favorite Papa to Kinzie (Boston Harbor), the Bradley Ross-trainee was fanned three wide turning for home, but that didn't break her momentum and she fought her way to the front late to post a half-length victory over 6-1 shot Puxa Saco (Dehere). Papa to Kinzie faded to sixth. A winner seven Group 1 races in Argentina in 2002, the multiple champion was sent to trainer Bobby Frankel the following spring and finished fourth after setting the pace in her U. S. debut in the nine-furlong GI Gamely BC H. Switched to Wesley Ward's barn for her latest start, a Saratoga allowance Aug. 3, 2003, the bay came home sixth. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

SILENT WITNESS ONE FROM TYING NA RECORD

In yet another display of total domination, Silent Witness (Aus) (El Moxie) crept to within one victory of equaling Citation and Cigar's 16-win North American record, defeating a gallant Country Music (Aus) (Danzero {Aus}) in this second leg of the Champion Sprint Series at Sha Tin Sunday. In a near repeat of the G1 Bauhinia Sprint Trophy Jan. 23, the reigning Horse of the Year raced just off the pace and made the lead with 400 meters to race. Country Music, runner-up in the Bauhinia in his group bow, tried to make a race of it at the eighth pole, but Silent Witness repulsed that bid and accelerated under hand urging from Felix Coetzee. Next up for the champ is the final leg of the

CLASSICS HOPEFUL HARLINGTON INJURED

Harlington (Unbridled), who is out of three-year-old champion filly Serena's Song (Rahy), has been sidelined because of a wrenched ankle and will miss the Triple Crown, trainer Todd Pletcher said Sunday. The injury was discovered following a sixth-place finish in the GIII Risen Star S. at Fair Grounds Feb. 12. Pletcher indicated that the $2.8-million Keeneland September yearling purchase will be sent to a farm for 45 days. He is expected to be pointed toward the GI Travers S. during Saratoga's summer meeting. The dark bay is a winner of two of three lifetime starts, including his 2005 debut in a nine-furlong Gulfstream allowance Jan. 15.

Funny Cide to be Inducted into Garden of Champions:

Funny Cide (Distorted Humor), winner of the 2003 Kentucky Derby and Preakness S., will be inducted into Gulfstream Park's Garden of Champions Mar. 5. Currently in training and pointing toward the GIII Skip Away H. Apr. 2, the gelding will make an appearance during next Saturday's card for an on-track ceremony. The five-year-old, winner of last year's GI Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont, will be the 114th inductee into the Garden of Champions.

High Fly Works; Eyes Fountain of Youth:

Live Oak Plantation's High Fly (Atticus), who lost his unbeaten record when third in the Feb. 5 GIII Holy Bull S., is likely to make his debut for trainer Nick Zito in Saturday's GII Fountain of Youth S. at Gulfstream. The chestnut, who was being considered for the Mar. 19 GIII Gotham S. at Aqueduct, was on Palm Meadows' worktab Saturday, firing a bullet five-panel move in :59.50. Zito's stance on the Gotham--traditionally a one-turn mile--changed after Aqueduct officials said the inner-track meet might be extended because of poor weather--thus making the Gotham a two-turn race. "A one-turn mile would be ideal for my horse, but it doesn't look like he'd get that in New York," said Zito, who got High Fly from conditioner Bill White following the Holy Bull. "The main thing is getting these horses to these races and seeing what we've got. We'll see what he can do around two turns here. If he doesn't draw well, I don't want to set anything in stone, but it's time to see what he can do."

Making his 2005 debut, Dubleo, a hard-knocking winner of six of nine as a juvenile, picked up right where he left off last season with a gusty victory. The dark bay opened his stakes account on the main track at Colonial last July, winning the off-the-turf Chenery S., but showed that the sod was his preferred surface with consecutive wins in the Sept. 5 Continental Mile S. at Monmouth and Sept. 19 GII Summer S. at Woodbine. He set the pace and nearly hung on when runner-up by a neck in Keeneland's Bourbon County S. Oct. 29, then notched his second graded tally, shipping in to take the GIII Generous S. at Hollywood Nov. 27. Trying his eighth track in 10 starts--and going off the chalk for the seventh consecutive time--the Todd Pletcher trainee allowed Lord Robyn (Robyn Dancer) free rein while settle in second, overhauled that foe nearing the quarter pole and repulsed Tadreeb's bid late. Pletcher said the Mar. 26 GIII Palm Beach S. is likely Dubleo's next target. "If not that then we will look for something at Keeneland," he said. "He's doing so well on the grass. That's where we'll keep him."

Lilah returned from a 7 1/2-month layoff to take a non-winners of four lifetime at Calder by five lengths Dec. 16, but disappointed when dead-heating for fourth as the even-money choice against $75,000 optional claimers at this track Jan. 7. The dark bay bounced back to win a similar event by a half-length Feb. 17 and was the third choice in this field of seven. Lilah stalked the pace from second for the opening half mile, assumed command just outside the eighth pole and drew off to win under a hand ride.

SPARKLING HUMOR (f, 4, Distorted Humor--Sparkling Novel, by Manila) rebounded from a poor seventh-place showing in the Nov. 27 Frances A. Genter S. over Calder's lawn to just miss by a neck in the Dec. 30 London Lil S. at the same track. Facing this level going a half furlong farther in her most recent Jan. 30, she tired down the lane and wound up fifth, 2 1/2 lengths off the winner. Last of 12 after six furlongs, Sparkling Humor kicked into gear along the rail and finished with a flourish to win going away by two lengths as an 11-1 shot. Lovely R R (Carson City) was second, while favored Plume Rouge (Pivotal {GB}) checked in traffic and faded to be last. Lifetime Record: SP, 13-3-2-2, $85,280.

Amazing Buy was the recipient of a nice Norberto Arroyo, Jr. ride and took her third straight stakes event. The dark bay, third by six lengths in her bow at the Big A Dec. 12, was 10 lengths clear shedding her maiden on New Year's Day and wheeled right back to win the two-turn Busanda S. two weeks later. Shipped down to Laurel Park for the Feb. 12 Wide Country S., the Paraneck colorbearer made all the pace and just lasted by a nose on the wire. The crowd's choice returning to New York, Amazing Buy, who was equipped with blinkers for the first time, was quickest into stride and led the way through sensible fractions of :24 2/5, :49 and 1:13 4/5. Left with plenty in the tank, she kicked away by 3 1/2 lengths turning for home and was slowed to a gallop as she crossed the line a much-the-best victress. Winning trainer Jennifer Pedersen admitted the addition of the hood was a risky one, but decided to take the chance. "Everyone said you would be a laughing stock if you put the blinkers on after three wins and then she got beat," she said. "This filly was running well, but not running as well as she could be."

Sidelined off that effort, the Iowa-bred caught a sloppy inner track in her Jan. 6 return to action, was bumped at the start and finished last of six. The Better Man Can showed fellow statebreds who was boss when romping by 6 1/4 lengths in the Louisiana Futurity at Fair Grounds Dec. 26, then transposed that form into a determined neck victory in the open Tiffany Lass S. Jan. 15, her first foray beyond one turn. A solid fourth to Summerly in the GIII Silverbulletday S. Feb. 12, she returned to sprints here as the even-money pick. Sitting chilly as the leaders battled up front, The Better Man Can split foes turning the corner and powered away dominantly.

Settled well off the early pace as the 3-1 third choice, the $15,000 OBSAPR juvenile purchase angled out four wide turning for home, closed stoutly in the lane and inched clear in the final strides win by a half length over That Tat (Faltaat). A RISING TIDE

In 2004, no Sire standing in Kentucky had more Two-Year-Old winners than Stormy Atlantic.

Look for Two-Year-Olds by Storm Cat's Brilliantly-fast, Beautifully-bred son Stormy Atlantic at the upcoming Two-Year-Old Sales.

KRISTY BEETHOVEN (f, 4, Kris S.--Elissa Beethoven {GB}, by Royal Academy) needed six starts to win her maiden, but did so in style, scoring by 5 1/2 lengths at Churchill Downs Nov. 5. A wide third in her sophomore finale beneath the Twin Spires Nov. 21, the dark bay rallied from a double-digit deficit to take a first-level allowance going a mile Feb. 12. Back on just 15 days' rest, the half sister to Golden Sonata (Mr. Prospector, $288,798), a graded-stakes winner at this track, found herself better than a half-dozen lengths back after a half mile, showed a good turn of foot into the stretch and rallied past pacesetter Go Grace Go (Sefapiano) for a 1 1/2-length success at odds of 3-1. Lifetime Record: 9-3-1-2, $86,590.

TRUE TAILS (f, 3, Yes It's True--Cocktail, by Relaunch) took a Louisiana Downs maiden by open lengths in mid-October, then quickly added black type to her credentials with a convincing score in the Lone Star Juvenile Filly S. Oct. 28. She narrowly missed her second stakes win in a neck runner-up performance in a sloppy renewal of the Delta Belle S. at Delta Downs Nov. 20, then filled that spot again in the Dixie Belle S. over trip and track Jan. 29. Dropping back into the allowance ranks for this, the 3-5 pick got the half in :45 3/5 carrying a four-length advantage and cruised home stylishly under a hand ride, winning by 6 1/2 lengths. The victress was a $47,000 OBSAUG yearling and $90,000 TEXMAR two-year-old. Second choice Rugula (Bernstein) rounded out the exacta. Lifetime Record: SW, 6-3-2-1, $82,330.

3rd Dam: Carvinia (Fr), by *Diatome

Connections have their Derby candidate in the form of undefeated Rockport Harbor and might just be at Churchill Downs the day before the Run for the Roses with Round Pond. A $105,000 KEESEP yearling purchase, the bay was last away from the stalls and encountered some traffic in her Feb. 13 bow over course and distance, but still managed a solid third-place effort. Even-money to improve off the debut, the half sister to Tropical Wave (With Approval), SW-Jam rated kindly just off the pace, angled out to challenge three wide into the stretch and sprinted off to score by eight impressive lengths. Western Place (Out of Place) was best of the rest. The winner was produced by a half sister to multiple Group 1 winners Nasr El Arab, Pennekamp and Black Minnaloushe. SEA SIREN (f, 3, Stormy Atlantic--Spend It On Mom, by Spend a Buck) could finish no better than sixth in three tries going sprint distances over the main track, but had shown marked improvement with a stretchout and a switch in racing surfaces. The bay was coming into this effort off a pair of half-length runner-up efforts over the turf Jan. 16 and Feb. 6. A $47,000 OBSJAN and $70,000 CALAUG yearling and $100,000 BESMAR two-year-old purchase, the Florida-bred filly stalked the pace from second, took command approaching the stretch and motored home a 6 3/4-length winner in this off-the-turf event. Stonerun (Skip Away) was second. Lifetime Record: 6-1-2-0, $28,000.

In his most recent, coming against similar competition over course and distance, he rallied strongly to fill the place spot Jan. 16. Well-positioned in fourth sprinting down the hillside course here, he awaited room on the rail and punched on through once daylight appeared. Night Chapter, a Juddmonte Farms homebred making his U.S. bow, showed good foot late to rally for second.

The Big Question: Big 'Cap or World Cup?:

Supah Blitz (Mecke) will likely bypass a trip to Dubai and stay home to contest Saturday's GI Santa Anita H. instead, according to trainer Doug O'Neill Sunday. Fifth in his latest start in the Sunshine Millions Classic at Gulfstream Park Jan. 29, the five-year-old had previously been considered for the Mar. 26 G2 Godolphin Mile or the G1 Dubai World Cup at Nad al Sheba. Still on the fence concerning his charge's next start, trainer Marcelo Polanco indicated that he is "50-50" whether to send

Supah Blitz

MGISW Island Fashion (Petionville) to Dubai for the World Cup or to keep her home for Saturday's $1-million race. "She's been invited to the Dubai World Cup," confirmed Polanco. "It's something we have to discuss. It's a long way from here and the Santa Anita H. is right in my backyard." In 41 attempts, no filly or mare has ever won the Big 'Cap in 67 runnings of the race.

Flores Out for Two Months:

Alex Bisono, David Flores and Julio Garcia, who were involved in a spill during the eighth race at Santa Anita Saturday, have escaped serious injuries, although at least one of the riders, Flores, is expected to spend two months on the sidelines. "He dislocated his left elbow and they had to put it back in," confirmed Flores' agent Scotty McClellan. "There was a flake in the joint, so they had to do minor surgery to clean it out." The remaining two jockeys appeared to fare better than Flores. "[Bisono] did dodge a bullet, so to speak," said agent Vic Lipton. "He had no broken bones, all x-rays were negative and there was no internal bleeding, but he has some bruises and muscle soreness." Garcia reportedly suffered minor scrapes. Garcia's mount Glen Canyon and Indiaman, ridden by Bisono, were both subsequently euthanized.

Southern Africa showed some talent when fourth in consecutive starts at the graded stakes level last year, including the GI Hollywood Futurity Dec. 18. A lackluster seventh going a sixteenth longer in his 2005 debut in the Sham S. Feb. 5, the dark bay went off the 5-2 second choice while searching for his first stakes victory. Following a rough start, the colt found himself in tight quarters, but fought his way through midway on the second turn. Closing in the stretch, he drifted in late, but had enough left in reserve to record the win.

FALLON EXPLAINS DECISION Kieren Fallon has explained his decision to move from his position at Sir Michael Stoute's Freemason Lodge to join the Ballydoyle operation in an interview with British broadsheet The Times. "All week I felt great about the possibility of joining Coolmore, but on the other side, I didn't want to leave the job I had," the six-time British champion explained, adding, "The hardest part was ringing Sir Michael. He knew what was coming and told me he would have appreciated knowing far sooner. I didn't call because I wasn't sure what I was going to do. Overall, he was really good about it. He said we'd been a great team, which is true, and a very lucky team, which is also true. He wished me the best for the future. He is a brilliant trainer and we had so much success together; King's Best and Golan in the Guineas, Kris Kin and North Light in the Derby and those brilliant fillies, Islington and Russian Rhythm. For me, it was important to speak with Aidan. I have always admired his dedication and his talent for training horses. He is particularly enthusiastic about his current two-year-olds and I believe we're going to have a good year. John [Magnier], Michael [Tabor] and Derrick [Smith] left it up to me about where I wanted to be based, but I believe that to do the job at Ballydoyle as well as I want to do it, that means being around the place a lot and knowing the horses intimately."

SMITH OFFICIALLY PART OF TEAM COOLMORE

The release announcing the appointment of Kieren Fallon as first-call rider at Ballydoyle was significant not only for that reason, but also because it marked the first time that Derrick Smith was recognized as one of the principles of the syndicate. Smith has become a fixture on the American racing scene in the past couple of years as the co-owner, with Michael Tabor, of last year's GI Haskell Invitational H. hero and Kentucky Derby runner-up Lion Heart, MGSW & MGISP Chapel Royal and the good three-year-old filly of this season, Gill Old Hat S. winner Maddalena. With Tabor, he is also part of a pair of promising three-year-olds of this season, recent allowance winner Bandini and GII San Rafael S. hero Spanish Chestnut. Smith, like Tabor, has his roots in the bookmaking industry having worked for 20 years for Ladbrokes. A native of South London, Smith now lives on the island of Barbados near the Sandy Lane Hotel, in which he has shares along with Tabor and John Magnier. Smith's wife, Gay, won the 2003 Sandy Lane Barbados Gold Cup with Thady Quill (Ire), who will also participate in this year's event this coming Saturday.
