THE SKY'S THE LIMIT

High Limit (Maria's Mon), who dominated Delaware Park competition in two juvenile starts, took his game to the next level with a wire-to-wire win yesterday's GII Louisiana Derby at Fair Grounds. Sent off the 5-2 favorite in his first start since October, the bay colt went right to the lead and set moderate fractions of :23.56, :47.36 and 1:11.85. He sailed clear into the straight and wasn't threatened to the wire despite jumping tire tracks at the sixteenth pole and stopped the clock in 1:42.74 for the 1 1/16 miles, just missing the stakes record. "He seems to run for everybody," said winning trainer Bobby Frankel, who saddled High Limit for the first time yesterday. "Hopefully this race didn't take too much out of him." Next up? "Probably the [Apr. 9 GI] Wood or the [Apr. 16 GI] Blue Grass." Cont. p2

SWEET CATOMINE RETURNS

Juvenile Filly champion Sweet Catomine (Storm Cat) returns for the second start of her sophomore campaign in today's GI Santa Anita Oaks at Santa Anita and the race could be the launching pad for a tilt at the boys in the Apr. 9 GI Santa Anita Derby. The bay filly, who faces six rivals in the 1 1/16-miles Oaks, is riding a four-race win streak that started with the GI Del Mar Debutante last August and includes the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. In her sophomore bow, Sweet Catomine dominated the field in the Jan. 16 GIII Santa Ysabel S., but earned only an 88 Beyer. Trainer Julio Canani admitted the champion wasn't 100 percent for that effort, but after Sweet Catomine worked four furlongs Wednesday in :48, Canani said, "She's ready to go." Full field p6

SUMMERLY IN ANY SEASON

Summerly (Summer Squall) kept her 2005 unbeaten streak alive with an authoritative victory in yesterday's GII Fair Grounds Oaks. Repeating the theme of the day at Fair Grounds, the chestnut filly went right to the lead, set easy fractions, and never looked back in a 4 1/2-length win. "She was away well and had no pressure early and came home nicely," commented winning trainer Steve Asmussen. "When she was away cleanly, :24 and change, [we had] no excuses at any point. She was right where we wanted her to be." Race chart p3

BADGE OF COURAGE

Badge of Silver (Silver Deputy) battled to a neck win in his 2005 debut in the Jan. 8 GIII Hal's Hope H., and the dark bay was tough as nails again yesterday with a gritty front-running triumph in the GII New Orleans H. at Fair Grounds. Badge of Silver went toe-to-toe with Wanderin Boy (Seeking the Gold) and looked done at the top of the stretch, but the five-year-old dug in gamely and secured a one-length victory as the 4-5 favorite. Race chart p3

High Limit hadn't been headed in two open-length wins at Delaware last October for trainer Tony Dutrow. He was a 10 3/4-length debut winner racing six furlongs Oct. 4 and was a front-running 7 3/4-length victor at a mile Oct. 24. He was shipped west to the barn of Bobby Frankel, but a quarter crack derailed plans for a tilt at the GI Hollywood Futurity last December. The colt's third pacesetting victory was his biggest and gave Frankel his second Louisiana Derby win in three years, following Peace Rules's triumph in 2003. Ramon Dominguez, who has ridden High Limit in all three of his starts, was happy with the colt's effort. "He finished very strong," Dominguez said. "He gave as much as you asked him to. I was not surprised by his performance. He seems to be a very good horse."

Second and Third from Start to Finish

Vicarage (Vicar), third in the GII Hutcheson S., and Storm Surge (Storm Cat), third in the GIII Risen Star, chased the pacesetter while racing in second and third, respectively, and held those positions to the wire. "He was a little headstrong early, but he settled in nice down the backside," explained jockey John Velazquez on the 21-1 longshot runner-up. "He ran a good race. It was his first race around two turns and he showed he can hang with the distance." Jerry Bailey, riding Storm Surge for the first time, could only watch the winner. "He was in a good spot, a spot I was comfortable with," Bailey said of his trip. "I asked him to creep up closer before he turned for home, but that's as close as we got."

No Late Heroics for Scipion This Time

Scipion (A.P. Indy) resurfaced as a Kentucky Derby hopeful with a dramatic late-running victory in the Feb. 12 GIII Risen Star S., but he had no closing kick over a track where speed was holding all day. Last of nine early, the dark bay colt never offered a serious rally and finished sixth. "It was a great effort, but I was a long way back," said Scipion's jockey Gary Stevens. "He wasn't comfortable with the surface for whatever reason. I felt like I was on a completely different horse."

Tarlow, who began 2005 with a third-place effort in the Jan. 16 GII El Encino S., led from start to finish to win the Feb. 12 GII La Canada in her most recent trip to the post. Lightly regarded despite that victory, the dark bay filly veered out at the break, but recovered to set the early pace while pressed by Dream of Summer. She appeared to have a comfortable advantage in upper stretch, but was all out late to hold off Dream of Summer. "She's a hard fighter, let's put it that way," said winning rider Pat Valenzuela. "She broke a little awkward, broke out a little bit, but she still ran a great race, so I was very impressed." Favored Miss Loren, wide throughout, moved to the inside for the drive and finished well to get up for third. "It seems like nobody could make up any ground whatsoever," Jose Valdivia, aboard the beaten favorite, said. "I was hung out wide on the first turn and had to lose some ground. On the second turn, my filly dropped on over to the rail and she was game through the drive." Badge of Silver, a 10-length victor of the 2003 GIII Risen Star S., returned to the New Orleans track for a gutsy front-running win yesterday. After ending 2004 with a runner-up effort behind Lion Tamer in the Nov. 27 GI Cigar Mile H., Badge of Silver earned his first win under the tutelage of Bobby Frankel by a neck in the Jan. 8 GIII Hal's Hope H. last time out. Favored here, he battled through quick early fractions of :22.66, :45.55 and 1:10.15 and found another gear when challenged by Second of June and Pollard's Vision (Carson City) in upper stretch. "I really didn't want to go to the lead with [Wanderin Boy], but Bobby [Frankel] told me in the paddock to take advantage of the inside post and go, so I did that and he did everything else," said Jerry Bailey, who became the first jockey to win the New Orleans H. and Louisiana Derby in the same year. Frankel added, "At the quarter pole, I was saying, maybe I gave [Bailey] the wrong instructions. When we turned for home, I thought we were beat, to be honest with you. They came up to him and it looked like they got a head in front of him, then when Jerry asked him, he took off. He did the same thing in the Cigar Mile. He put it into another gear in the stretch." Limehouse, off the pace early, closed strongly to get up for second. "I was a little further back than I wanted, but with that pace my position was good," said Ramon Dominguez, aboard the runner-up. "When I asked him, he came running hard." Click for brisnet.com chart, the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree or video replay.

Summerly, a 14-length maiden winner at Keeneland last October, ended her juvenile campaign with a third-place effort behind Runway Model in the GII Golden Rod S. at Churchill in November. A 9 3/4-length winner of a Jan. 17 optional claimer, Summerly added the GIII Silverbulletday S. over this course and distance to her resume last time out Feb. 12. Under Jerry Bailey, Summerly was allowed to set leisurely fractions of :24.45, :49.04, 1:13.37 and 1:37.54 and pulled away down the stretch. "I was pleased with the way she broke and I didn't think I would get away with :49, but I was happy for every minute of it," Bailey said. Runway Model, winner of the GII Darley Alcibiades and third in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, was making her first start since winning the Golden Rod. Unhurried early, the filly couldn't muster a serious threat in the stretch and finished third. "I was really disappointed in a :49 fraction," said Runway Model's trainer Bernie Flint. "It's not that she couldn't have been beaten, we had a legitimate shot at her here, but the filly had too much left in her tank." Sir Shackleton, winner of the GIII Derby Trial S. and the GIII West Virginia Derby last year, concluded his three-year-old campaign with a fourth in the GII Indiana Derby Oct. 2. He made an eye-catching seasonal bow Feb. 3, blitzing a solid allowance field in a one-mile contest, and was the slight second choice here. With Javier Castellano in the irons, the chestnut came away well and was well-placed through a :44 2/5 opening half. Clock Stopper grabbed the lead turning for home, but Sir Shackleton was just winding up. He struck the front in midstretch and finished up well as favored Lion Tamer found his best stride too late. It was the fifth winner of the day for Castellano. "Early on he was between horses and I thought he didn't want to pass," the jockey explained. "I thought of trying to swing wide, but then he went." As for what's next, trainer Nick Zito said, "Now I'd like to take this horse to Keeneland for the Commonwealth Breeders' Cup [GII, Apr. 16], and then, hopefully, go on to the Met Mile [GI, Belmont, May 30] with him."

The bay came up 1 3/4 lengths short when fourth to Going Wild in the Sham S. Feb. 5 and was favored to get back to his winning ways here. Part of the early pace battle here, the Cal-bred shook loose turning for home and was never seriously threatened by his rivals.

Injustice captured three allowance contests last summer at her base of Louisiana Downs, but was given a break following a fourth-place finish in an off-the-turf contest there Oct. 7. She returned Dec. 18 at Sam Houston to take the Cy Fair H. and followed that up with a fourth to the streaking Souris in the American Beauty H. Jan. 22 here at Oaklawn. The four-year-old tried a mile for the first time in her latest Feb. 12 and wired the field in an optional claimer over this surface, her final start for trainer Jerry Hardin. Breaking from the rail in her first try for her new connections, the grey assumed command on the front end and set comfortable fractions. Colony Band had dead aim on her in the stretch, but Injustice kept digging in and got to the wire in time. "We bought her here at Oaklawn 2 1/2 weeks ago," explained winning trainer Wayne Catalano. "The morning I checked her out...a storm was coming up, but I went ahead and got on the filly. She went well and I suggested, 'do buy.'"

Primary Suspect closed out his three-year-old season with a sixth-place finish over a sloppy Aqueduct strip in the GIII Fall Highweight H. Nov. 28. The chestnut resurfaced at Gulfstream Jan. 20, capturing a 6 1/2-furlong allowance, but had to settle for second next out to Forest Danger in that colt's track-record setting performance at the Hallandale oval on Valentine's Day. Let go at a generous 7-2 here, the four-year-old cruised along in second as odds-on Shake You Down set fractions of :22.86 and :45.66. Primary Suspect collared the favorite in the stretch and pulled away late for his first stakes success. "This was a good spot for him," said winning trainer Mark Hennig. "Coming off that race against Forest Danger last time, he might have faced the best sprinter in the country that day. We didn't want to get in too tough a race and run back there in the Richter Scale." Hennig said there was a chance that Primary Suspect would appear next in the GI Carter H. Apr. 9 on the main track at Aqueduct. "We'll probably nominate him around and see what happens," he said.

Unbeaten Cream Donut Keith is given the best chance to upset champion Sweet Catomine. The dark bay filly romped to a 7 3/4-length debut win at Philly Park for trainer Danny Lopez. Purchased privately after that effort, Cream Donut Keith moved out west where she was a commanding five-length winner of a Feb. 3 Santa Anita optional claimer for new owner J Paul Reddam and trainer Doug O'Neill. She'll be stretching out for the first time here. "If she routes the way she sprints, she should be tough," O'Neill said.

Margins: 1, 3HF. Winner's Odds: 1.50.

Also Ran: Elvstroem (Aus), Mummify (Aus), Casual Pass (Aus), Niagara Falls (Aus).

Dual Melbourne Cup winner Makybe Diva eclipsed Northerly's course record of 1:59.46 when she clocked 1.58.73 winning her first weight-for-age event, the G1 Australian Cup. Niagara Falls led gamely until entering the straight while stablemate Winning Belle looked like causing an upset with a bold sprint for the post, until Makybe Diva's shadow loomed over her. Jockey Glen Boss, questioned at length by Racing Victoria stewards in a prolonged inquiry into his tactics aboard Makybe Diva when she was beaten a short head by Elvstroem in the G2 St. George S. Feb. 26, was aboard once again. "She was floating off the bridle the whole way," Boss commented. "The only time she was on the bridle was when I asked her to come back as she was going to get there way too soon." Makybe Diva will target the Tenno Sho over 3200 meters May 1 and trainer Lee Freedman still hopes to persuade owner Tony Santic on the merits of contesting the Arc de Triomphe. "This is nearly as good as the Melbourne Cup," said a jubilant Santic. "You saw what she did, and she is only going to get better. She's fantastic." Freedman said the plan was for Makybe Diva to settled at the rear and gradually make up ground. "I was happy to see her out the back, Glen Boss knows her so well, and when she peeled off and started to move I felt very confident. She is brilliant," said Freedman.

Jockey Damien Oliver rode a superb tactical race aboard wonder filly Alinghi to deny Fastnet Rock the third leg of Australia's Sprint Triple Crown. Fastnet Rock prevailed over Alinghi in the G1 Lightning S. Feb. 5 before adding the G1 Oakleigh Plate Feb. 26 to his cache, while trainer Lee Freedman sent Alinghi to South Australia where she scored a soft win in the newly upgraded and renamed G1 Robert Sangster S. In this one, Fastnet Rock settled in fourth position with Alinghi stalking him a further three lengths back. The brave colt sprinted late and dug deep under his impost as Alinghi rallied on the outside in a well-timed run to win by 1 1/4 lengths for her 10th win in 15 starts. Managing part-owner Corinne Slade said that, after proving herself against older horses and the colts, Alinghi would target the G1 Doncaster (1600 meters, Randwick, Mar. 28) before campaigning in North America. "She's just awesome, she always gives her best and we would not have expected anything less," Slade said. "The plan was for Ollie to let the others do the work up front, he just knows her so well."

Prominent owner-breeders Geoff and Beryl White rectified their absence in recent times from the winner's podium when homebred Eremein ended a series of placings winning the Dubai Rosehill Guineas. Eremein's jockey Corey Brown avoided a scrimmage in the home straight when he opted to go wide in the run to the post, scoring by a decisive margin of 1 1/2 lengths with Nevis emerging from the interference in time to grab second ahead of Outback Prince. Runner-up at his past three starts, including a last start second to Jymcarew in the Canterbury Guineas Feb. 26, Eremein will now target the G1 AJC Derby (2400 meters). Trainer Gai Waterhouse has won Australasia's premier mile event, the G1 Doncaster H., six times and has earmarked classy colt Al Maher, who is from the family of MG1SW and dominant sire Redoute's Choice, as the horse to provide her with a seventh Doncaster. Al Maher beat subsequent Cox Plate victor Savabeel and Rosehill Guineas placegetter Outback Prince in the G2 Gloaming S. last campaign and franked that form with a comprehensive victory here. Runner-up to Shania Dane first-up in the G2 Phar Lap S. Mar. 5, Waterhouse immediately sent Al Maher south despite reservations by his owner/breeder His Excellency Nasser Lootah. Al Maher settled in third and easily accelerated to win by 2 3/4 lengths from Danehill Express with Caulfield Guineas winner Econsul a short head away third. "His Excellency asked if it was really wise to head to Melbourne, but I said this was my long-term plan to win this race over 1600 meters before going to the Doncaster," said Waterhouse. "He's a truly magnificent horse and impeccably bred."

ANOTHER SETBACK FOR 'ROCKY' Undefeated sophomore Rockport Harbor (Unbridled's Song) has reaggravated his right hind foot that was injured in the GII Remsen S. at Aqueduct last November, trainer John Servis announced yesterday. "Right now, I don't consider this a big deal," Servis said. "It's like an ingrown toenail in human terms. But when I come in Sunday morning and there's no improvement, then I'll be upset. Right now though, I'm still confident that Rocky will make the [GII] Rebel [Mar. 19]." Servis is not sure how the injury occurred. "We're not sure how this happened," he admitted. "Rocky may have aggravated the injury in his work [Friday]. We applied a poultice pad called animalintex and we are hoping for the best."

ALL IS GOOD Greater Good (Intidab) turned in his final move for next Saturday's GII Rebel S. yesterday at Oaklawn, posting a bullet six furlongs in 1:13 2/5 under jockey John McKee. "I had told John to just sit tight behind the other horse [worked in company with stablemate Copy My Notes] until the turn for home," Holthus said. "Then let him run through the lane. John followed instructions perfectly. Now, we just want to see Greater Good do it the same way next Saturday." Greater Good was last seen posting an impressive victory in the Feb. 19 Southwest S.

SAN FELIPE TAKING SHAPE The GII San Felipe S. at Santa Anita Mar. 19 looks to have a solid line-up which includes the likes of Wilko (Awesome Again), hero of the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile; MGSW Roman Ruler (Fusaichi Pegasus) and Don't Get Mad (Stephen Got Even). Wilko, who missed some training time due to the inclement weather, went seven panels in 1:28 yesterday at Hollywood. "It could be a blessing in disguise," trainer Craig Dollase said. "I'm real happy with where we're at with him right now and I'm looking forward to his three-year-old debut." The lightly raced Don't Get Mad has moved to the head of trainer Ron Ellis' class due to stablemate Declan's Moon being sidelined with a knee injury. The bay, who came flying up the rail to be second in the GII San Vicente Feb. 13, sailed through a mile in 1:41 at Hollywood Friday. "Don't Get Mad went just like I wanted, and the time was good considering the track is deep here," Ellis said. "I had to get a two-turn work into him before the San Felipe...he galloped out a mile and an eighth in 1:54." Click here for the San Vicente replay. The San Felipe will be a litmus test for Golden Shine (Touch Gold), who romped by 7 1/2 lengths in his first attempt at a route Feb. 16 at Santa Anita. "It's a big step up, but what else are you going to do?" asked trainer David Hofmans. "If you're going to get in the game, you've got to know what you have, right? After the San Felipe we'll decide which direction we want to go." Click here for the replay of Golden Shine's last start.

riches that is Nick Zito's barn with this triumphant three-year-old bow. An $87,000 OBSAPR juvenile purchase, the dark bay was trained by Michael Dickinson in 2004, breaking his maiden by 7 1/2 lengths at Delaware before trumping Scipion in the GIII MGD Cradle S. at River

Downs Sept. 6. He made one more start at two, fading to finish seventh as the favorite in the GI Lane's End Breeders' Futurity Oct. 9. Turned over to Nick Zito after the New Year, Bellamy Road was sent postward as the 6-5 second choice to 4-5 Dearest Mon (Maria's Mon). The Florida-bred broke alertly, went to the lead and was pressed early by the favorite through a half in :45.77. Given the signal by Javier Castellano at the top of the stretch, the Kinsman colorbearer bid farewell as Dearest Mon backpedaled and strode home clear by 15 3/4 lengths under a hand ride. "Dickinson did a great job getting this horse fit," Zito said. "He only came to me two months ago, and I couldn't believe how fit he was. We expected him to run big, but not like this." Bellamy Road will now join stablemates such as High Fly and Sun King on the Triple Crown trail. "It will be hard with just two preps [for the Kentucky Derby], but things happen in life," Zito added. "I was asking someone before the race, 'Can a horse win the Wood Memorial [GI, Apr.9, AQU] off a race like this?' We'll see. That might be the right spot for him, no matter what." Click here for the video replay. Lifetime Record: GSW, 4-3-0-0, $161,400.

SAUVAGE (FR) (f, 4, Sri Pekan--Sans Prix {Fr}, by Caerleon) made her last start in France a winning one, taking the La Coupe de Pouliches S. May 26. Following that success, she could only manage a fifth-place finish in a Woodbine allowance Aug. 14 and was equally disappointing with a seventh-place finish in the Flaming Page S. Sept. 25. The bay ran seventh in her final start of the season at Woodbine in the River Memories S. Nov. 6, and returned at Gulfstream with an 11th-place finish versus allowance company Feb. 3. Given little chance at 37-1 here, she settled in seventh after being steadied on the first turn, was angled out for the stretch run and rallied to win by a neck over 3-1 Que Puntual (Arg) (Contested Bid). The winner is a half to Eyeq (Ire) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}), GSW-Ger & GSP-Nor. Lifetime Record: SW-Fr, 12-4-0-0, $71,684. O-William Diamant. B-Paul Nataf, Patrick Chedeville & Enrico Ciampi (FR). Warning Zone, a champion in her native South Africa, was acquired by Team Valor prior to her third in the G1 Triple Tiara S. last March in her final start for trainer Mike de Kock. Team Valor, the dark bay mare was wide into the first turn before settling off the pace. She forged into contention nearing the stretch and inched clear under urging. "I wanted to get in a nice position going into the first turn and see where I was," explained winning rider John Velazquez. "We got good position in the first turn and great position on the backside. In the last turn, she got in the running mood."

TDN ☆ Star of the Week ☆

Brought to you by

FASIG-TIPTON

Jay Bruncker

This week's accomplishment: Head of the partnership that bred, raised and, through consignor Bob Scanlon, sold the Tale of the Cat colt that brought a world record $5.2 million at Fasig-Tipton Calder last week.

Birthplace: Cynthiaiana, KY

Birthdate: 4-6-67

$5.2 million colt Horsephotos

Current Residence: Fayette Co., KY

Principal Business: Breeds and raises horses with his wife, Cammie, through their joint venture Grade I Bloodstock & Halcyon Farm.

How long have you been in the breeding business? Just about 12 years now.

Prior to the $5.2 million Tale of the Cat, what was your biggest sale? At public auction last September, we had a homebred Singspiel colt bring $300,000. We sold a mare privately for a good bit of money one time, but certainly not seven figures.

Who inspired you growing up? This is going to sound strange coming from a kid from Kentucky, but the U.S. Olympic Hockey Team that won the gold medal [in 1980]. I remember thinking how great that was and what a neat bunch of guys they were--the odds against doing what they did.

What stallions do you think are most underrated? I think Belong to Me is a little bit underrated. I happen to have a very nice foal by him right now and I'm considering going back to him this year. I think he's good value. I think another underrated stallion is Forest Wildcat. I wanted to try and breed to him, but I was a little too late this year.

What's playing on your CD player right now? Well, I'm in the car right now, so let's see...Kenny Chesney. I like all types of music, but country will be the first two presets on my radio.

What's your favorite vacation spot? I'd say Jackson, Wyoming, up in the mountains. My wife's family is there and I like to hunt and fish. And I love the mountain climbing in the summertime.

Best place to grab a burger in Kentucky? That would be the Midway Comer Store.

CONGRATULATIONS!

from Fasig-Tipton's Star of the Week DECLAN'S MOON. The undefeated Champion 2YO won his 3YO debut in the GII Santa Catalina S. and is now 5-for-5 with earnings of $627,300. He was a $125,000 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Sept. yearling.

New Records at FG for Louisiana Derby Day:

Saturday's Louisiana Derby Day card at Fair Grounds shattered all-sources handle records and the modern on-track handle record. Racing fans wagered $11,310,990 on the 11-race card, surpassing the previous high of $9,080,419 set five years ago. Other records to fall included all-sources handle for a single race--$2,972,213 on the Louisiana Derby--and the modern mark for on-track handle at $866,466. "Today was everything we could have possibly hoped for," said Fair Grounds president and general manager Randall Soth. "We had a terrific turnout, perfect weather and great human and equine talent for our on-track and simulcast customers to enjoy."

Baze Earns 1,000th Win:

Jockey Tyler Baze rode the 1,000th winner of his career Friday when he guided Mashiko to a five-length victory in the fifth race at Santa Anita Park. It was the 22-year-old's second win of the day and was his meet-leading 46th win. Since riding his first winner on Oct. 31, 1999 at the Oak Tree at Santa Anita meeting, Baze has consistently ranked among the leaders on the Southern California jockey circuit. He won the Eclipse Award as the country's best apprentice rider in 1990 and won his first major riding title at the 2004 Hollywood Park Spring/Summer meeting. "I'm glad to finally get it over with," Baze said Friday. "I've been riding five years and five months. It's been a lot of work. I want to thank God and the owners and trainers who have supported me."

He ended his 2004 campaign with successes in the Listed Prix Denisy here and Listed Prix du Grand Camp at Lyon Parilly in November and was sent off the even-money favorite to make a winning return. That looked unlikely as the long-time leader Staramix (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}) gave him the slip early in the straight, but the grey responded to Christophe Soumillon's driving to claim that rival in the final strides and score by a neck. "He will follow the same route as last year," explained trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre. "When the ground gets firmer in summer he'll have a break and come back for an autumn campaign."
