SAN FELIPE CAN PRODUCE A NEW LEADER

Trainer Ron Ellis may have lost his star three-year-old Declan's Moon due to a knee injury, but he has a nice one in reserve with Don't Get Mad (Stephen Got Even), who faces a stellar field in the GII San Felipe S. at Santa Anita today. A six-length maiden winner in the Churchill slop for trainer Paul McGee Nov. 2, the bay returned to add an allowance over that course Nov. 26. Freshened up off that effort and moved to Ellis' barn, the $350,000

OBSMAR juvenile made a sparkling three-year-old debut, finishing full of run to place second in the seven-furlong GII San Vicente S. behind Fusaichi Rock Star Feb. 13. He makes his first start around two turns with Tyler Baze in the irons. "I've got faith in him," the 22-year-old jockey said. "I expect him to run really big. There are a couple of speed horses in there, so I plan to let them knock each other off and pick them up at the finish." Click here for a replay of the San Vicente.

Coming into this heat a bit under the radar is Wilko (Awesome Again), who shocked the racing world when he defeated top sophomores Afleet Alex and Sun King in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile. He has only raced once since that day, finishing third, beaten only a length to Declan's Moon, in the GI Hollywood Futurity Dec. 18. Also making his three-year-old debut is beaten Juvenile favorite Roman Ruler (Fusaichi Pegasus).

ALEX VS. ROCKY: ROUND 1

Three-year-old heavyweights Afleet Alex (Northern Afleet) and Rockport Harbor (Unbridled's Song) will square off at Oaklawn today in the GIII Rebel S. The former began his career with four straight victories, including the GI Hopeful S. at Saratoga, before suffering his first defeat in the GI Champagne S. The bay closed out his two-year-old campaign with a bang-up second in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, and started off the new year with a sharp 2 3/4-length success in the six-furlong Mountain Valley S. at Oaklawn Mar. 5. The Tim Ritchey trainee earned a 106 Beyer Speed Figure in his latest effort, but has never posted a victory beyond seven furlongs. It seemed nothing could go wrong for Rockport Harbor last season, as the big gray colt crushed his rivals in a maiden and allowance at Philly Park and in Aqueduct's GIII Nashua S. The Fox Hill Farms colorbearer had to work much harder in the GII Remsen S., where he defeated Galloping Grocer by a neck, and has been riding on a rocky road since. The undefeated colt suffered a deep gash to his right hind leg in the Remsen and has been battling continuous foot problems since. He makes his long awaited sophomore debut here. Field, p2

SUN SHINING BRIGHT AT TAMPA BAY

Trainer Nick Zito has picked a very soft spot for leading Derby candidate Sun King (Charismatic) to try and post his first stakes victory in the GIII Tampa Bay Derby. A Belmont maiden winner going eight furlongs last September, the dark bay came back with creditable third-place finishes in the GI Champagne S. and the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. Given a vacation after the Juvenile, the $400,000 KEEJAN graduate shined brightly at Gulfstream, dominating an allowance field by 5 3/4 lengths Feb. 26. He has drawn the one hole with Edgar Prado aboard. "I'm fine with that," Zito said of the post. "You always want to be in the clear, but hopefully he'll have enough time to work himself out. He's a real good horse." Field, p2

Winner of the Cal Cup Mile in October, A to the Z gave Leroidesanimaux (Brz) all he could handle when second in the GI Citation H. Nov. 27. The chestnut just failed to run down Grade I winner Star Over the Bay in the Sunshine Millions Turf Jan. 29, missing by a half-length, but should be able to make amends here despite drawing post 10. Locally based runners are strongly represented in this contest. Honor in War has run second in his last two starts over this course, to America Alive in the Col. E. R. Bradley H. Jan. 15 and to G P Fleet in the Fair Grounds Breeders' Cup H. Feb. 26. Bobby Frankel, successful last week with Florida shippers High Limit and Badge of Silver, sends in Burning Sun this weekend. The regally bred bay hasn't been out since running a bang-up third--beaten a length--in the GIII Mac Diarmida H. at Gulfstream Jan. 30.

Galloping Grocer was the talk of the town last season, winning his first three starts with ease, then finishing second to Rockport Harbor in the GII Remsen S., but things haven't gone as smoothly this season. The chestnut disappointed with a fourth-place finish in his seasonal debut in the Whirlaway S. and has suffered his share of setbacks since, battling the cold New York weather and a foot bruise. Trainer Dominick Schettino remains confident in his gelding. "I thought he ran a real big race in the Whirlaway," Schettino commented. "It was his first start in 77 days and he was head and head through very fast fractions." Galloping Grocer has put in two solid workouts in preparation for the Gotham with jockey Mike Luzzi aboard. He went five furlongs in 1:00 3/5 Mar. 6, then breezed six furlongs in 1:12 4/5 Mar. 14. Luzzi will ride the Sleepy Hollow winner for the first time Saturday. "It seems like they got along well in the mornings," Schettino said. "Mike [Luzzi] got the horse to settle nicely and that's what I'm looking for in the Gotham."

SPANISH CHESTNUT TO TURFWAY Spanish

Chestnut (Horse Chestnut {SAf}) will run in the GII Lane's End S. at Turfway Mar. 26 instead of the GI Santa Anita Derby Apr. 9, according to Daily Racing Form. "He's the kind of horse who needs to run every three weeks," trainer Patrick Biancone told the publication. Winner of the GII San Rafael S. Jan. 15, the chestnut was most recently seen finishing third in the GII Santa Catalina S. Feb. 3. Biancone also said that Scipion (A.P. Indy) will start next in the Santa Anita Derby. "If he impresses me in that race, we'll go for the Kentucky Derby," he said. "If not, we will target the Belmont. I don't believe in going to the Derby unless you have a good chance. Too many horses don't survive it. They are never seen again on the track, or they never perform at the same level." Scipion finished sixth in last Saturday's GII Louisiana Derby.

PAT DAY TO UNDERGO HIP SURGERY Hall of Fame jockey Pat Day is scheduled to undergo hip surgery Mar. 30 in Vail, Colorado to repair a labral tear in his right hip. The procedure will likely prevent the 51-year-old from participating in this year's Kentucky Derby. Day has ridden in the last 21 Run for the Roses, the longest streak of consecutive rides in the history of the race. "The window they gave me was anywhere from four weeks to 12 weeks," he said. "Obviously if they get in there and discover something of significance, it's going to take longer. We're going to prepare for the worst and hope for the best." Day said he wasn't sure what caused the problem, but has endured pain and discomfort in the hip for several months.

LORD CARSON DIES Tommy Town Thoroughbreds stallion Lord Carson (Carson City--Bedgay's Lady, by Lord Gaylord) died of a head injury after covering a mare at the California operation Mar. 16. "He fell and hit his head after dismounting a mare," farm manager Mike Allen said. The 13-year-old is represented by seven stakes winners, including MGSW Windsor Castle. Owned and bred by David P. Reynolds, Lord Carson won 12 of 27 starts, with $654,741 in earnings. The highlight of his racing career came with a win over Honour and Glory in the 1996 GII Boojum H.

Cherokee Rap, second in the restricted Manila S. going a mile over this surface Nov. 4, captured an allowance at the same distance Nov. 27 before heading south for the winter. The Edward Evans homebred resurfaced Feb. 9 at Gulfstream with an allowance tally and was the favorite in this five-horse field. Breaking alertly, the bay kept tabs on pacesetter Rogue Agent, collared him in the stretch and pulled away in the final furlong. The 5-2 third choice, MGSW Snake Mountain (A.P. Winner of the GII Astarita S. at two, Spectacular Moon spent a year on the sidelines, returning to hit the board in a trio of allowance contests. She tried the GII Barbara Fritchie H. at Laurel Feb. 19, but faded to sixth after showing some speed. With blinkers added this time, the dark bay pressed the pace, took charge in the stretch and opened up to win by daylight.

Sent off as the 2-1 second choice to 4-5 chalk Blue Sunday (A. P Jet), the bay was part of a three-way battle for the lead down the backstretch. He hooked up with the favorite at the head of the lane and outbattled him to win by a head, with 9 1/2 lengths back to Cherokee Chief (Cherokee Run) in third. Additional Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Sale Scheduled:

With entries for its May sale far exceeding the number of stalls at the Timonium Fairgrounds in Maryland, Fasig-Tipton has scheduled an additional Midlantic Two-year-olds in Training and Horses of Racing Age Sale for Tuesday, June 28. An under-tack show will be held June 27. "The stable area at Timonium cannot accomodate the number of entries submitted for the May sale this year," Paget Bennett, sales coordinator for the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic office said. "We are adding the June date mainly for those horses and consignors which we would otherwise have to turn away. The last time we had two in-training sales at Timonium was in 2003, when the two-year-olds in the later sale averaged nearly $15,000."

Philly Park to Host SC Filly Residence Race:

Due to unexpected interest in the inaugural South Carolina Residency Race, that Philadelphia Park will also host a $40,000 stakes race for two-year-old fillies at 6 1/2 furlongs Nov. 5. The race for two-year-old colts and geldings will be carded on the same day. Each race will be open to juveniles who have spent 90 days in South Carolina and paid a nomination fee to the SC Thoroughbred and Owners and Breeders Association.

GIII Astarita S. winner Toll Taker prepped with a 1 3/4-length score in the Suncoast S. over track and trip Feb. 26, and trainer Tim Hills thought all systems were go for the Florida Oaks, but there was one thing he had overlooked. "I thought she was nominated, and we've been pointing her [for the race]," Hills said. "It turned out I hadn't nominated and I had to shell out $5,000 to get her in there." But that could be money well spent for the connections of the bay, who is the 2-1 favorite on the morning line. Toll Taker has won four of her last six starts. She lost her jockey during her 2004 finale, the Showtime Deb S. at Hawthorne in November, and lost all chance after hitting the gate at the start of her 2005 debut, the Feb. 5 GIII Old Hat S. at Gulfstream. But Hill is confident after the Suncoast score. "That race over the track could be very important," he said. "She's got that leg up."

Sent off the 4-1 favourite, the seven-year-old is trained by Tom Taaffe, who is the son of the legendary Arkle's jockey Pat. Always traveling smoothly under Barry Geraghty, the winner was sent to the head of affairs with a mighty leap at the third last fence. He was encouraged further forward by appreciative roars from the capacity crowd from there to outlast the tenacious Take The Stand (Ire) (Witness Box) by a comfortable five lengths. In winning steeplechasing's blue riband event, the bay took his jumps record to 10 wins and six places from 19 starts with earnings of £569,939 and was one of nine Irish-trained winners of the Festival's 24 races.
