IT'S MAY DAY IN THE DESERT

Owner Ken Ramsey has never met a challenge he didn't embrace, so the idea of running for $6 million halfway around the globe was a no-brainer. That confidence paid off yesterday as even-money favorite

Roses In May A Watkins

Roses In May (Devil His Due) charged home an easy winner for America in the G1 Dubai World Cup at Nad al Sheba Racecourse. It all went according to plan. "I feel like I have climbed a mountain tonight," Ramsey said. "We knew our horse had so much stamina that if they wanted to run with him early they were not going to last." Added winning trainer Dale Romans, "I hope I can bring him back here next year. I love this nation."

IT'S GOOD TO BE THE KING

Lovingly referred to at home as 'Elvis', Elvstroem (Aus) (Danehill) inherited the lead and made every pole a winning one, taking the G1 Dubai Duty Free S. from Whilly (Ire) (Sri Pekan). The four-year-old becomes the first Australian horse to win in Dubai, taking a race in which the legendary Sunline (NZ) was a bang-up third for Australasia in 2001. "I always had a lot of horse beneath me," said winning rider Nash Rawiller. "It's a tremendous thrill." Cont. p3

ROAD WARRIOR

He brings his 'A' game wherever he travels. Saratoga County (Valid Expectations) had streaked through three straight wins in Kentucky, Florida and Maryland, then took to the skies and made it four in a row in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen at Nad al Sheba yesterday.

FREQUENT FLYER LANDS THE SHEEMA

Making his 11th career start and racing over his 10th different racing surface, Phoenix Reach (Ire) (Alhaarth {Ire}) overcame a slow pace, rallying from the back of the pack to notch yesterday's G1 Dubai Sheema Classic. The winner of the G1 Canadian International S. in North America at three, he was making his first start since taking the G1 Hong Kong Vase Dec. 12.

FLOWER R-ALLEYS TO LANE'S END SCORE

Eugene and Laura Melnyk's Flower Alley (Distorted Humor) negotiated the jump from maidens to stakes competition with aplomb, overcoming trouble at the head of the lane before closing with a rush to win the $500,000 GII Lane's End S. at Turfway Park. Cont. p5

Everything's Coming Up Roses....

A $115,000 OBS April Two-Year-Olds In Training Sale graduate, Roses In May won two of his first four career starts, including a 10 1/2-length success in a Belmont allowance Aug. 17, but was sixth of nine in the GII Jerome H. before being sidelined. The dark bay colt returned to action stylishly, winning by 12 at Keeneland Apr. 17 and by five at Churchill May 21 prior to a 1 1/2-length victory over Perfect Drift in the GIII Prairie Meadows Cornhusker Breeders' Cup H. July 3. He got the better of that rival by a nose in a memorable renewal of Saratoga's GI Whitney H. Aug. 7 and added a four-length tally in the GII Kentucky Cup Classic Sept. 18 prior to filling the runner-up spot behind Ghostzapper in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic. In his 2005 debut, Roses In May duelled with Saint Liam in the GI Donn H. Feb. 5, weakening in the final stages to be a clear-cut second. "Hopefully he will move forward off this and he will be ready for Dubai," said trainer Dale Romans following the Gulfstream effort.

Prepped and Primed to Roll...

Drawn two from the outside, Roses In May was not especially sharp into stride and was trapped out three and four wide while tracking the pace through the opening stages. Always traveling smoothly, the five-year-old eased by Yard-Arm (SAf) (Western Winter) to take command passing the halfway point and turned into the long Nad al Sheba straight confidently in front. Choctaw Nation (Louis Quatorze) made headway at the quarter pole and loomed a momentary threat, but Roses In May always had his measure, drawing off as Dynever (Dynaformer) rallied from behind to finish runner-up. He nearly doubled his career earnings in the process.

The Aftermath...

"He didn't break extremely well, so I couldn't make the lead right away," said winning jockey John Velazquez. "I hope this is the first of many," he quipped. Velazquez is now two-for-four aboard Roses In May, having taken over for Edgar Prado for the Kentucky Cup. Trainer Dale Romans knew going in that he had the king of the hill. "I thought the only way we could get beat was if we had some bad luck," he explained. "I wanted to take the race to them. I knew he had the stamina and that no one else could catch him." Said Christophe Clement, trainer of runner-up Dynever, "He ran a great race. I wish he would have won, but the winner was a better horse and I am delighted with the way he ran." Victor Espinoza, who rode Choctaw Nation to his third-place finish, commented, "He got a little tired over the last sixteenth of a mile. I thought he was going to get second."

Devil Getting His Just Due...

Roses In May is the final foal produced from Tell a Secret, herself a multiple graded-stakes placed performer who won nine races and over $288,000. Margaux Farm privately purchased the mare, who produced a filly to the cover of Captain Bodgit in 1999 before being bred to Devil His Due the following year. "We have had some success breeding older mares and she fit our program," said Steve Johnson, co-owner of Margaux Farm. Roses In May was less than one month old when the mare died in early 2000. Yesterday's victory in the World Cup puts Devil His Due atop the list of leading sires, but he is hardly a one-hit wonder. "He has really not been appreciated for what he can do," Johnson commented. "He's just been a real solid performer." The 16-year-old stallion was represented by 10 individual stakes winners in 2004, including the good two-year-old Devils Disciple, and ended the year 17th on the list of leading sires.

One of the most popular and versatile gallopers in his native Australia, Elvstroem defeated Makybe Diva (GB) by a nose to win last year's G1 Caulfield Cup Oct. 16, but was eighth as the favorite in the Oct. 30 G1 Cox Plate and fourth to the supermare in her successful G1 Melbourne Cup defense Nov. 2. The bay resurfaced to win the G1 C.F. Orr S. over 1400 meters Feb. 12 and beat Makybe Diva by a nose in the G2 St. George S. two weeks later, but was most recently fourth to that foe in the 2000-meter G1 Australia Cup Mar. 12.

Equally effective on or off the pace, Elvstroem found himself on the lead despite breaking from the outside and jockey Nash Rawiller dropped the anchor, nursing the colt through a half mile in :51.94 and six furlongs in 1:16.60 on the good-to-firm going. From there, it was a 600-meter sprint to the wire, a distance covered by the winner in just under 34 seconds en route to a handy score. "[It's a] great feeling to come all this way and have a win," commented winning trainer Tony Vasil. "It was a 17 1/2-hour trip and he lost a bit of weight, but he has been here a week and has slowly picked up."

This may not be the last overseas venture for Elvstroem. "We could look at the [G1] Lockinge S. in May and then perhaps Royal Ascot. We'll take each race as it comes," Vasil continued.

The winner of the GIII Gotham S. last March, Saratoga County was off the board in his next six starts, then was twice second in allowance company. The bay turned a corner in the fall, however, cruising to a 5 1/4-length allowance tally at Churchill in November. He made it two in a row in the Jan. 8 GIII Mr. Prospector H. at Gulfstream and extended the streak with a game nose decision in the Feb. 21 GII General George H. at Laurel. Looking to keep it going on the international stage, the four-year-old broke from the inside and grabbed the lead from the group on the far side of the track as they sped down the six-furlong straight at Nad al Sheba. Saratoga County drifted in about 400 meters from the wire while under a right-handed drive, starting a chain reaction that ultimately caused Pico Central (Spend a Buck) to take up for a step. Jockey Alex Solis, aboard Pico Central, claimed foul, but the stewards found no reason for a disqualification. "Right at the quarter pole, the horses came in on me," Solis told TVG. "[The stewards] agreed that it cost me a placement, but the rules are a little different here in Dubai." Still, Solis admitted, "I wasn't going to win it. I was disappointed--he didn't seem to handle the track."

Phoenix Reach capped an excellent three-year-old campaign with a 3/4-length victory in the GI Canadian International S., but struggled for the better part of last year. The bay was sixth in the G1 Prince of Wales' S. at Royal Ascot in June and in the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud July 4 prior to being sidelined with a virus off a 10th in the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. July 24. He showed some signs of life when sixth in the G1 Japan Cup Nov. 28 and came full circle with his G1 Hong Kong Vase score Dec. 12. Settled in the rear by Martin Dwyer, Phoenix Reach gained ground with 400 meters to race, overtook Razkalla inside the final furlong and edged clear. "I am over the moon," the winning rider commented. "It was a great experience to come here and compete on the world stage." The winner is likely to start in the G1 Audemars Piguet QE II Cup at Sha Tin Apr. 24.

Most of the pre-race attention had been centered on champion Shamardal (Giant's Causeway), but his stablemate Blues and Royals emerged from the dark and turned this contest into a procession. Tabbed as a TDN "Rising Star" following his debut win at York June 12, the handsome colt missed by a neck in a conditions race at Newbury July 17. He had just one more outing--Aug. 11 at Sandown--but dwelt at the start and wound up a distant fourth as the favorite. A grandson of the swift juvenile Blue Jean Baby and making his first start on the dirt, Blues and Royals broke from the rail and travelled smoothly in fourth while Shamardal pulled his way to the front. As they approached the stretch, Blues and Royals put his head in front on the inside and the race was over in a matter of strides as the bay switched gears and cruised to the wire all alone.

Purchased privately earlier this week by Sheikh Rashid, Grand Emporium paid an immediate return on that investment, winning the Godolphin Mile as the solid favorite. A dual Group 1 winner in his native country, the bay gelding took Round 1 of the G3 Maktoum Challenge over track and trip Jan. 20, but was fourth to Jack Sullivan in Round 2 of the Challenge going nine panels Feb. 10 and second to that foe in the Listed Burj Nahaar at this trip Mar. 5. Posted three wide stalking the early pace of America's Tsigane, Grand Emporium advanced into the stretch, collared the front runner and edged away. Godolphin's Qais, a half brother to multiple champion Lammtarra, chased gamely from the inside and outstayed Tsigane for the place spot. "Everything went very smoothly," winning jockey Weichong Marwing explained. "We thought he had a very good chance in this race."

Flower Alley faded to finish third after pressing the early pace in his Calder debut going six furlongs Dec. 18. Freshened up off that effort, the chestnut returned with a game 3/4-length maiden victory going one mile at Gulfstream Feb. 19. Even with a solid set of drills at Palm Meadows since, including a six-furlong bullet in 1:11 4/5 and a five-furlong move in 1:01 Mar. 20, he was sent off as the second longest shot on the board here. Ridden by Jorge Chavez, he was allowed to settle while 2-1 favorite Spanish Chestnut (Horse Chestnut {SAf}) cut out :23.00 and :46.68 splits. Sent to the outside for the turn for home, he began to hit his best stride as Mr Sword took over from the early pacesetter. Beginning to tire after feeling the effects of his strong middle move, Mr Sword fell apart late and Flower Alley and Wild Desert moved in tandem to pick up the pieces. El Commandante monster D'Wildcat Speed won 14 of her 15 starts while racing in Puerto Rico, including seven stakes. She looks a force to be reckoned with on the mainland as well. After an inauspicious fifth-place finish in her Gulfstream debut, the 2004 Hurricane

Bertie S., the chestnut improved to be second in the Apr. 4 Banshee Breeze S., but disappeared after that effort. She cruised to an 8 1/4-length score in her return, the Nov. 25 Pocahontas S. at Calder, ended the year with a second in Calder stakes company Dec. 13 and made her graded-stakes debut in her first start of 2005, the Feb. 19 Gil Shirley

Jones H. Off at 19-1 that afternoon, she was no match for Madcap Escapade, but belied her odds with a respectable third-place performance. D'Wildcat Speed was sent off the second choice with the stretch-out off that seven-furlong test and showed her appreciation for the added distance, battling Pampered Princess through six furlongs in 1:10.58 before opening up on the field to win handily. "We brought her here because she'd already accomplished everything she could do in Puerto Rico," trainer Bill White said. "I think, after the way she ran today, we can start...to plan a campaign for her on a national scale." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Bank Audit was haltered for $65,000 after finishing third on the Belmont turf last July. She finished off the board in her first two tries under new colors, but came back after a seven-week break to beat $35,000 claimers by nine lengths on the Big A main track Nov. 6. The dark bay added an allowance score Dec. 5 and made it three in a row in the Jan. 1 Interborough H. She had to settle for second in the Feb. 5 Correction H., but returned to the winner's circle after an optional claimer Mar. 9 and was the third choice with the jump into graded company. Jockey Richie Migliore settled the Virginia-bred in the middle of the pack through quick splits. Three lengths off the lead as they raced into the turn, she came into the stretch on the heels of the leaders and finished well to win going away. "She's kind of a funny filly," said trainer Frank LaBocchetta Jr. "She's hard to get in gear, but when she does get going, she's a grinder." The winner goes next in the GIII Bed o'Roses Breeders' Cup H. at Aqueduct Apr. 23. Cativa (Sir Cat), the even-money chalk, stalked the pace from the inside early, but faded late to be fifth. "I definitely don't think she liked being down inside," jockey Edgar Prado said. "I could tell she wasn't comfortable at all." While the G1 Golden Slipper winner Stratum (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) struggled in the heavy going, the ultra-professional Fashions Afield amply demonstrated her tenacity here. Rocketing to the lead from her wide barrier, Fashions Afield was shuffled back and out wide when other runners crossed her, but jockey Dan Beasley kept his cool and took control again rounding the home corner to win comfortably. "She gave me a great ride, she was in control and it was just too easy," reported Beasley. The little filly debuted victoriously at Canterbury Jan. 28, led all the way to win at Randwick on Feb. 12 and stepped up in grade to land the G2 Reisling S. from Mnemosyne (Aus) on Mar. 5. Her unbeaten record came to an end with a determined effort when a length second in the Slipper last Saturday. "This is a top, top filly," said winning trainer Gai Waterhouse. "This win today was even more courageous than her second in the Slipper. She's professional down to her tippy toes." The bay will now target the 1600-meter G1 Champagne S. at Randwick Apr. 2.

It was meant to be a two-horse race between Fastnet Rock (Aus) and Alinghi (Aus), but with typical aplomb, trainer Gai Waterhouse changed the script, recording her 2000th winner when 25-1 chance Shamekha denied Fastnet Rock in this newly upgraded contest, named in honor of Waterhouse's father. "I gave her a tremendous chance, I set her for this race," said Waterhouse, admitting she'd considered scratching the mare when a deluge hit Randwick, but missed the deadline by five minutes. "This is so special, absolutely special. To win the race named after dad, it means everything to me." Shamekha won the G1 Coolmore Classic last autumn, but had not won a race in seven appearances since. Making her first appearance since November, she settled behind leader Our Quivira (Spinning World) who seemed to have an unassailable lead until jockey Darren Beadman forged to the lead with Fastnet Rock challenging down the outside. The four-year-old fought hard to get the victory.

DAMON THAYER

This week's accomplishment:

Drafted a new tax plan in Kentucky which will use taxes from stud fees to fund a breeders' award program. "It's good for Kentucky, and anything that helps Kentucky helps the entire country, in terms of racing."

Birthdate: Sept. 16, 1967

Current Residence: Georgetown, Ky

Principal Occupation: Vice President, Breeders' Cup/NTRA, Kentucky State Senator, 17th District

Education: 1989 graduate of Michigan State University

If you could change one thing about racing, what would it be?

As a member of the Kentucky Equine Drug Council, I would like to see all racing states adopt a uniform race-day drug policy to provide a level playing field across the country.

Favorite racetrack? Keeneland. It's on the national registry of historic places. It's a very special place. In the middle of the long Kentucky winter, you really start longing for opening day.

If you could name a stakes race, what would it be? I know he already has some stakes named after him, but I would like to see Spectacular Bid have a Grade I race named after him. He is my favorite horse and, I believe, the greatest racehorse of my lifetime.

If you could have dinner with one historical figure, who would it be and why? Theodore Roosevelt. He was one of the most accomplished men our country has produced. He was a great president and had a wide array of interests.

What was your first car? Cheverolet Chevelle. It had a hole in the passenger floor and I almost lost my best friend when we were driving to school one day.

What's your favorite vacation spot? Michigan. I was born and raised there. It's a great place in the summer, but I'm glad I'm not living there in the winter anymore.

What's playing on your CD player right now? Billy Joel's Greatest Hits.

What's your favorite television show? Survivor. It's a great way to study human nature under pressure.

Eremein, who captured the G1 Rosehill Guineas in his last start Mar. 12, skipped over this rain-soaked surface to capture the final two legs of the triple crown. Positioned among the leaders from the start, the rangy chestnut made his move at the 300-meter pole and shaded a fast-finishing Stella Grande (Aus) at the line. "I had him travelling really well," said winning rider Corey Brown. "I thought I might have taken off a bit early, but he dug deep. He's very tough, this horse." Eremein missed by a short neck to Jymcarew (Danzero {Aus}) in the G1 Canterbury Guineas Feb. 26 before collecting the Rosehill Guineas. "With an ounce of luck he might have won all three," said winning trainer Allan Denham. Eremein, who survived a serious bout of colic last September, is raced by Sydney owner-breeders Geoff and Beryl White, who have enjoyed success with G1 horses including Marscay (Aus) and Filante (NZ), trained by Allan's father Jack Denham. Eremein may target the 3200-meter G1 Melbourne Cup later this year.

Star Over the Bay has won four of his six starts since getting claimed for $80,000 at Hollywood last May. Beaten a neck in his first start for his new connections, the Dallas Turf Cup H., the front-running gray then reeled off victories in the GII Sunset H., GII Del Mar H. and GI Clement L. Hirsch H. before tiring to be eighth in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf. Freshened after that experience, he made his return in the Jan. 29 Sunshine Millions Turf. Meteor Storm is back to defend his San Luis Rey title. The six-year-old followed last year's success in this race with wins in the GII San Juan Capistrano H. and the GI Manhattan H., but went to the sidelines after finishing seventh in the GI United Nations H. He came back after an eight-month layoff to be fourth in the Mar. 5 GI Frank J. Kilroe Mile H. and will appreciate the added distance here. "He's really a solid mile-and-a-half horse because he's so ratable and he's got a super kick," trainer Wally Dollase said.

Godolphin Derby Plans Take Some Shape...

The results of yesterday's G2 UAE Derby provided a measure of clarity to the near-term plans for its three-year-old team. Blues and Royals (Honour and Glory), who teamed with jockey Kerrin McEvoy to upset the 1800-meter event, looks the lone certain entry for the Boys in Blue for the GI Kentucky Derby May 7. He was to be supplemented to the Triple Crown prior to yesterday's late nomination deadline. "He is a very useful horse and will not have another run before the Kentucky Derby," Godolphin Racing Manager Simon Crisford confirmed. "He clearly likes that surface and was very willing. It was a much improved effort compared to how he ran on turf last year." The future is somewhat less certain for Shamardal (Giant's Causeway), who started a hot favorite in yesterday's race, but raced too keenly and faded to ninth. "We are not making any plans yet for Shamardal-he raced too fresh," Crisford explained. "We cannot accurately judge him on what he did tonight because he got very tired. Whether he is still on an American program or whether we take him back to Europe depends." Crisford also reported that Parole Board (Dynaformer), third in the UAE Derby, will join Godolphin immediately. The Maryland-bred colt, also not an original Triple Crown nominee, is a possible Godolphin runner in the Run for the Roses May 7.

They also have their dad's stellar looks...

NOBLE CAUSEWAY WORKS FOR FLA DERBY

Noble Causeway (Giant's Causeway), an impressive Gulfstream allowance winner Mar. 5 (video replay), worked five furlongs in 1:01 at Palm Meadows yesterday in preparation for next Saturday's GI Florida Derby. "He looked good, didn't he?" said trainer Nick Zito shortly after the drill. A $1.15-million KEESEP yearling purchase, Noble Causeway began his three-year-old campaign with a second-place finish behind GII Fountain of Youth S. runner-up Bandini Jan. 6, before adding a Gulfstream maiden Feb. 5. Zito's other big gun, High Fly (Atticus), continues to recover after spiking a slight temperature Friday. "I'll probably work High Fly Monday or Tuesday at Gulfstream," Zito said. The Live Oak colorbearer was last seen winning the Fountain of Youth. He remains on target for the Florida Derby.

TAX CONSIDERATIONS (f, 3, Yes It's True--Safety Deposit, by Deposit Ticket) debuted with a fifth in the Fashion S. back in June and didn't start again until October. After a pair of unplaced efforts in maiden special weight company, the Florida-bred dropped in for a $75,000 tag and graduated Dec. 2 at Aqueduct. She tried $45,000 claimers two months later and came away with a 7 1/4-length victory, and most recently ran fourth in the Dearly Precious S. Feb. 21. Prominently positioned from the start, the 5-1 shot headed Lil's Honor (Double Honor) in the stretch and prevailed in a thriller to win by a nose. She was a $170,000 OBSAUG yearling buy. Tampa Closes Gates to Shippers:

Due to the strangles outbreak at Palm Meadows, it was announced yesterday that only horses from Hillsborough, Pinellas and Pasco Counties will be allowed to ship into Tampa Bay Downs. Shippers from outside those neighboring counties will be banned through Saturday, Apr. 2. "We evaluated the situation this morning after conferencing with the Miami area tracks and van companies," said Tampa Bay Downs Vice President and General Manager Peter Berube. "Strangles can be a very serious situation and our goal is to protect the populations in both the Tampa and Ocala areas." There have not been any reported cases of strangles at Tampa, but the track will institute precautionary measures for the gate crew, horse identifier, test barn crew and valets. The situation will be reevaluated Mar. 31.

This race had been all but conceded to 2-5 Proud Accolade (Yes It's True), but the favorite never looked comfortable over the sticky surface and the Turfway fans were treated to a huge upset as local boy Cat Shaker earned his first stakes win. A maiden winner at Mountaineer in November, the dark bay placed third via disqualification in the Turfway Park Prevue S. Jan. 8 and also ran third in the WEBN S. 5. Both of those races were won by the ill-fated Snack. Cat Shaker most recently ran fifth to Magna Graduate and Pavo in the John Battaglia Memorial S. Mar. 5 and wasn't given much of a shot here. Well back in the early stages, the Craig Callis trainee turned for home full of run, headed pacesetter Daddy Joe in midstretch and fought hard to get the better of that rival. She did not appear at two, but Vista Bella made an immediate impact when taking a Lingfield maiden on the polytrack Feb. 16 and was well supported to adapt to the turf here. Keen throughout the early stages, she took a while to find top gear in the straight before responding to Philip Robinson's urgings to wear down Borthwick Girl and Joint Aspiration in the final strides in a thrilling opener to the British season. Needing all of this mile to make his presence felt, he produced a sustained run from midpack to collar Capable Guest and Sam Hitchcott in the final strides. SLEDMERE (FR) (c, 3, Dansili {GB}--Elacata {Ger} {GSW-Fr & MGSP-Ger}, by Acatenango {Ger}), successful on his debut over a mile at Bordeaux last September, was fourth when going an extra 3/16ths at the same track in his only other outing Nov. 14. Settled off the pace in fourth for the most part, the 3-5 pick was shuffled back to sixth on the turn yet made smooth progress on the bridle to challenge once straightened for home. Accelerating in good style to take the lead at the eighth pole, he held enough in reserve in the closing stages to safely hold the late rally of Heliodor (Fr) (Dolphin Street {Fr}) by a neck. The winner was a €28,000 DEAAUG yearling and a €34,000 GOFAPR two-year-old purchase. Lifetime Record: 3 starts, 2 wins, 1 place, €19,100.

SURGERY FOR OLIVER

Leading Australian jockey Damien Oliver underwent surgery Friday at Royal Melbourne Hospital to repair damage to two cracked vertebrae in his neck. The 31-year-old rider sustained the injuries in a fall at Moonee Valley Thursday night. Oliver's mount Twenty to Life (Aus) appeared to clip the heels of the eventual winner Don't Stop (Aus) and ploughed into the turf near the 100-metre mark in the Nightmarch H. at Moonee Valley. Jockey Darren Gauci's mount Sanireka (Aus) then crashed over the top of Oliver, with Racing Victoria stewards to conclude an inquiry when Oliver is able to attend. He is expected to take at least three months to recover from multiple injuries. The two-time Melbourne Cup winner may not ride until the spring carnival later this year. Oliver's brother Jason died in a Perth barrier-trial accident in 2002, while his father Ray lost his life in a race fall in Western Australia in 1975.

APPRENTICE DIES

New Zealand apprentice jockey Sam McRae has died as a result of injuries received in a fall at Riverton yesterday. He was 16 years old. McRae, who had ridden in 26 races, suffered fatal injuries when he was partially dislodged from his mount Queen's Evidence (NZ) and dragged for 900 meters in a 1400-meter maiden handicap. McRae's death follows that of two Australian jockeys, Adrian Ledger and Gavin Lisk who died within 48 hours of each last weekend.
