FLYIN HIGH TOWARDS THE FLORIDA DERBY

High Fly (Atticus), winner of the GII Fountain of Youth S. Mar. 5 (video), worked four furlongs in :48.40 at Gulfstream Tuesday and is back on track for a start in Saturday's GI Florida Derby after spiking a fever last Friday. "It was really good, I'm very happy," trainer Nick Zito said of the move. "He finished really good with the last quarter something like :23 or :23 1/5. He galloped out nice. It's a sigh of relief now. We've still got a couple of days. Let's hope he has a good couple of days and hopefully things will keep going our way."

Bandini's FL Derby Status up in the Air...

Fountain of Youth S. runner-up Bandini (Fusaichi Pegasus) is doubtful for the Florida Derby, according to trainer Todd Pletcher, reports Daily Racing Form. "He's not sick, but he's not 100 percent either," Pletcher told the Form. "I will make a final decision [Wednesday morning] on whether to work him or not. If he doesn't work, we won't enter." Pletcher wouldn't specify exactly what is wrong with his sophomore, but added, "He's going to be fine, but unfortunately the timing couldn't be much worse." Other options for Bandini include the GI Wood Memorial S. Apr. 9 or the GI Blue Grass S. Apr. 16. Closing Argument (Successful Appeal), winner of the Feb. 5 GIII Holy Bull S., has been suffering from a foot bruise and is also uncertain. "As we speak, he's 100 percent sound, but he did miss a couple of days of training this week with a bruised foot," trainer Kieran McLaughlin said on a teleconference yesterday. "We'll try to train him [Mar. 30] and if he does fabulous, there's a chance we might still enter. This incident is minor, but it's terrible timing for a $1-million race."

THE EASTER CHOICE

After posting bullish gains with unprecedented international interest a year ago, the atmosphere at the Inglis selling complex at Randwick was somewhat apprehensive leading into Easter 2005. Vendors at yesterday's opening session of the three-day auction need not have fretted, however, with boom stallion Redoute's Choice (Aus) seamlessly filling the void left by Danehill. A total of 15 of his yearlings averaged A$537,667, compared with an overall first-session average of $210,682 for 173 sold. The clearance rate was 77.9 percent with 173 sold from 222 offered. Family-owned Newhaven Park at Booroowa in southern NSW offered an especially fetching colt on behalf of longtime client Nick Curtis, Lot 149. Bidding, which began at A$1 million, ended when Sheikh Mohammed bin Khalifa al Maktoum secured the colt at A$1.8 million. The bay is from the unraced mare Saucy Nell (Aus) (Marauding {NZ}), a half sister to multiple Group 1 winner Encounter (Aus). Trainer Tim Martin, who will prepare the colt at Rosehill, believes that, ultimately, the topper will make his own reputation. "Sheikh Mohammed asked me what I thought was the best colt in the sale, we singled this one out, and went for it," Martin explained. "He can make his own page. This horse is faultless. I think he's a Slipper horse and that's why Sheikh Mohammed was keen to get him trained at Rosehill. I said, if you want to buy one to win the Slipper, buy this one." Martin pointed out that Slipper winner Stratum (Aus) (Redoute's Choice) was another who lacked an obviously appealing pedigree when purchased last January by trainer Paul Perry. "Stratum cost A$320,000, I really liked that colt, and the family had done nothing," Martin said. "The mare had thrown country winners. Redoute's Choice can upgrade a mare."

Score One for the Home Team...

Newhaven's John Kelly said the session-topping colt was a great result for an Australian consignor competing against global farms. "It means we are still hanging in there," Kelly said. "There's a lot of international participation now, so for an Australian farm to come to Easter and participate at this top level is fantastic." Of the million-dollar yearling, Kelly said, "He sold way, way past our expectations. I had always known he was an outstanding colt, but after he'd been in preparation for a week, when he was walking around the farm on the end of a lead, I knew he had a presence that I had never seen in a yearling before." Kelly estimates he has prepared some 1,000 yearlings for sale. "We've been selling at Easter since 1945 and this is our best result," he added.

An Exclusive Academy...

Royal Academy, the only active sire in Australasia with more than 100 stakes winners, was represented by a stunning colt offered by Jim Fleming's Tyreel Stud. The yearling brought a spectacular A$1.2-million result. Considered by the best judges to be among the first-session standouts on type, the colt is a half brother to Arrowfield's sire prospect Charge Forward (Aus) (Red Ransom) from South African Group 1 winner Sydney's Dream (Aus) (Bletchingly {Aus}). Damon Gabbedy's Belmont Bloodstock made the final bid on the colt, sold as lot 224, on behalf of owner Joe Throsby. Throsby's previous successes include Encosta de Lago (Aus). "We thought he would make somewhere around A$500,000, so we are obviously thrilled," said Tyreel Manager John Vincent. (Inglis Easter Sale cont.)

Redoute Redux...

Paul Perry, the trainer of Stratum (Aus) and Fastnet Rock (Aus), went to A$950,000 on behalf of undisclosed clients for Lot 81, a Redoute's Choice (Aus) colt who is a half brother to My Juliet (Aus), the dam of Group 1-placed Mnemosyne (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}). "He is bred the right way," commented Perry. "He's very athletic; a lovely, early coming two-year-old who is much like Stratum." Broadwater Farm's Craig Anderson revealed the farm had a A$300,000 reserve on the popular colt. "We put a realistic reserve on the horse, and we thought with the amount of interest in him, we would get a nice result, but not quite as nice as that."

King Charlemagne Off to Flying Start...

Sheikh Mohammed bin Khalifa al Maktoum's other purchase during yesterday's session was a A$525,000 half brother to multiple Group 1 winner Alinghi (Aus) from the first crop of French Group 1 winner King Charlemagne (Nureyev). The bay, sold as lot 58, was offered by Yarraman Park. Yarraman's Arthur Mitchell said it was an excellent result for the yearling's young sire. "It was a very good price, from the day he was born he was a lovely horse, not a typical Nureyev type, but a lovely strong horse with good colour and a great nature," said Mitchell.

Woodlands Stud Back...

The Ingham family's Woodlands Stud purchased just a handful of yearlings at Inglis Easter last year after an absence of several years from the buyer's box at the Newmarket sale ring, and ended up with two shining prospects in Domesday (Aus) (Red Ransom) and Mnemosyne (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}). Domesday, a A$420,000 purchase, has the G2 Silver Slipper and a G2 Todman S. placing, while Mnemosyne, a A$400,000 outlay, has three stakes placings, including a last-start second in the G1 AJC Sires' Produce S.

Thus emboldened, Woodlands purchased under its own banner at Tuesday's first session, spending A$3,020,000, and going to A$650,000 for Lot 157, a Redoute's Choice--Sharp Awakening (GB) (Selkirk) colt. Woodlands added six fillies by Encosta de Lago (Aus), Giant's Causeway, Anabaa and Fusaichi Pegasus to its tally, with seven yearlings bought at an average A$431,428.

Forecast for Fireworks...

Arrowfield's John Messara is quietly confident the best is yet to come with Lot 259, a leggy half brother to Makybe Diva (GB) to be offered during tonight's second session. "It's for the market to determine," Messara said. "But he has to be one of the top colts of the sale, on conformation and pedigree, doesn't he? There will be fireworks tomorrow." Regarding yesterday's topper, he said, "The Saucy Nell colt was a lovely individual, he looks a ready-made racehorse and I would not be surprised to see him at the early races next year. He is the sort people want to buy as a stallion prospect."

What They're Saying At The Sales...

Inglis Managing Director Reg Inglis

"Last year's sale set a very high standard, but we've seen today that several of these younger sires, such as Redoute's Choice, are more than capable of filling the void left by Danehill.

AFLEET ALEX SCOPES CLEAN

Afleet Alex (Northern Afleet), who came out of his sixth-place finish as the 3-5 choice in the Mar. 19 GII Rebel S. with a lung infection, scoped clean on Monday, according to Daily Racing Form.

Afleet Alex

“He was scoped after he galloped,” trainer Tim Ritchey told the publication. “There was no sign of any infection.” Ritchey’s first choice for Afleet Alex is the Apr. 16 GII Arkansas Derby, but has also nominated the colt to the GII Coolmore Lexington S. at

Keeneland Apr. 23 and the Derby Trial at Churchill Apr. 30. “I want to see how he gallops the next week, then I’ll reevaluate just where we are with him,” Ritchey added. “Obviously, I will have to do more with him than what I would have done if he would have gotten the race I wanted him to get in the Rebel.”

PAPI CHULLO WORKS FOR FL DERBY

Papi Chullo (Comeonmom), one of the more popular maidens on the Gulfstream backstretch, worked four furlongs in :49 3/5 over the Hallandale main oval Tuesday in preparation for a start in Saturday’s GI Florida Derby. “It was really just a high gallop,” owner Greg Norman said. “[Exercise rider] Tommy [Turner] said he finished up really well and that the whole work went very well. This was just some maintenance. We’re ready to go.” The sophomore is winless in four attempts, but has run in three stakes races, including the Mar. 5 GII Fountain of Youth S., where he finished fourth.

Drifting from an odds-on to 13-10 favorite in the betting for his debut under floodlights, he was tardy from the gate, but soon raced in touch with the pace on the outside before finding the necessary extra inside the final furlong to deny old stager Nhlavini.

FROM THE DESK OF...
Bill Oppenheim

SOPHOMORE SHUFFLE

In terms of cumulative progeny earnings to date, the top nine North American freshman sires of 2004 are still the top nine on the list of second-crop sires of 2005. There have been only two changes of position among them in the first three months of this year--Yes It's True has now taken a $1,100 lead over Successful Appeal for top spot, and Precise End, sent from New York to Japan to replace his own sire End Sweep, has moved up to seventh, knocking Dixie Union down a spot. But it also looks significant that, when you look at these sires' earnings in 2005 only (these are from Monday's bloodhorse.com list), only three of the cumulative top nine figure among this year's top 10: Yes It's True (first in 2005, now first overall); Fusaichi Pegasus (third so far in 2005, third last year, third overall); and Successful Appeal, last year's leading freshman sire, 10th so far in 2005, and now marginally trailing Yes It's True. The rest of last year's top nine rank between 11th so far this year (More Than Ready) and 39th (Monashee Mountain)--though in his case, and that of Giant's Causeway, the European season (where they were based in 2001 when their first crops were sired) is only just getting underway. Monashee Mountain had two winners in Europe on Monday, and has already had a winner at Santa Anita this winter.

Equally striking, and which would logically follow anyway, is that no fewer than 10 of the top 20 sophomore sires, based on 2005 progeny earnings alone, have significantly improved their rankings since the end of last year. You can clearly see this in the two columns marked '2004 Rank' and '2005 Rank'--and for the most part it tells you the runners from these sires' first crops have improved from two to three. Their promising 2005 performances haven't necessarily dramatically altered their overall, cumulative ranking to date (far left column), but it does illustrate dramatically who's been good so far this year.

None have improved more for the change from two to three than Vicar, who ranked just 31st on the Freshman Sire List, but is number two, behind only Yes It's True, in 2005 progeny earnings, and now ranks among the top 10 North American second-crop sires in cumulative progeny earnings. He's sired Vicarage, third in the GII Hutcheson S. and second in the GII Louisiana Derby; as well as R Lady Fly, winner of the $150,000 Florida Oaks at Tampa. Catienus, now the number-two ranking Storm Cat among his nine sons in the second-crop top 40, has improved from 16th to sixth, and now ranks 12th overall, just ahead of Yankee Victor, who has improved from 17th last year to fifth so far this year, moving him up to 13th cumulatively. One of three sons of Saint Ballado in the top 20, he's a couple of places behind Sweetsouthern saint (sire of six stakes horses so far) in the cumulative rankings, but looks as though he's siring plenty of quality. Two sons of A.P. Indy, Golden Missile (25th to 4th) and Stephen Got Even (26th to 9th) have made big forward moves in the first quarter of 2005, as have three more sons of Storm Cat: High Yield (27th to seventh); Cat Thief (34th to 15th); and the obscure, unraced Arkansas stallion, Storm and a Half (40th to 18th, five stakes horses). Also moving up the ladder are Intidab, a good sprinter by Phone Trick who is the sire of Greater Good; and the top grass horse Royal Anthem, a staying son of Theatrical who has moved up from 47th to 12th by virtue of Wannawinemall's third placing in the GIII El Camino Real Derby and Prince T.'s win in last weekend's Gentilly S. at Fair Grounds.

In Europe, the leading second-crop sire at Kempton, the centerpiece meeting of the opening weekend of the turf flat season in Britain, was Diktat. A top sprinter-miler by Warning (and thus another from the In Reality line, like Successful Appeal) out of a Sadler's Wells half-sister to top third-year sire Cape Cross, Diktat figured among the top 10 European freshman sires of 2004. His runners have shown plenty of promise while also suggesting they might improve this year. He had the winner of the Listed Masaka S., Vista Bella, on Saturday, then on Monday had the winner of a competitive seven-furlong maiden there. Cont.

That strikes me as a very big start for the first weekend of the new season, so I wouldn't be at all surprised to see Diktat rival his uncle, Cape Cross, as a positive sire influence. The Diktats look far rangier than many by Cape Cross, who seem more the compact, Green Desert/Danzig type; maybe, like some other relatives we've reviewed in the past couple of weeks, what they have most in common is 'class.' That may be indulging in a bit of idle speculation, but what is not idle speculation is that Diktat may be well on his way to making a big noise in 2005--especially if Kempton was anything to go by.

The Derby Trail...

Two-turn, black-type two-year-olds from their sires' first crops include, so far: Vicarage (by Vicar); Going Wild (Golden Missile); Gll San Felipe third Don't Get Mad (Stephen Get Even); Glll Risen Star second Real Dandy (Yankee Victor); Wannawinemall (Royal Anthem); and Glll Rebel S. winner Greater Good (Intidab). But, after last weekend's two major Derby preps, the waters look murkier than ever. This column will be on holiday for the next two weeks, and when we next appear, on Apr. 20, we should like the picture to be in considerably sharper focus, please. Mind you, it should be, since about all the major nine-furlong preps will be run by then. But, in the meantime, I would have to say Confusion reigns.

Dirt and first-time blinkers evidently worked the oracle in Dubai, as the Godolphin second-string Blues and Royals streaked away to a 12-length win in the G2 UAE Derby on the World Cup undercard. Andy Beyer estimates his 'fig' for the race at 110, certainly not lower than 108 (on a line through Marenostrom, who had run at Santa Anita). Naturally, this puts him in the Derby picture. So, with such an impressive nine-furlong figure, does Blues and Royals have the pedigree to get the 10th furlong? Not in a horse trailer. He might win the Kentucky Derby, but it won't be because of his pedigree. Honour and Glory may be a son of Relaunch, but nine furlongs is about as far as they want to go; and his female side is sprint, sprint, sprint. His second dam was the sprinter Blue Jean Baby, by Mr. Prospector out of the sprinter Jones Time Machine. She had a seriously moderate California pedigree, the chief distinction of which was that she was inbred 4x3x4 to Nasrullah. This family was famous, in the Eugene Klein years, for not staying an inch beyond seven furlongs. If Blues and Royals wins the Kentucky Derby, you can just throw the pedigree books away. Cont.

The weekend's other major prep, the GII Lane's End at Turfway, was won by Flower Alley, a son of Distorted Humor, and--ironically, in light of my column last week--a colt inbred to Mr. Prospector 'top and bottom' (out of a Lycius mare). The race was run in the mud, the Beyer was a 94, and the runner-up had been fifth in the Fountain of Youth, so, like most recent Lane's End winners, Flower Alley doesn't really figure yet as a major contender. Not to say he won't, but he'll need to improve a lot to trouble the judge at Churchill.

Freshman Sires...

The 'baby' races are just getting underway, so we know nothing, of course, but two Euros with their first winners are Kingsalsa (in France), and Coolmore's Mull of Kintyre. This horse has a big following--he's by Danzig out of a half-sister to Broad Brush, and he won the 1999 G2 Gimcrack S. The Racing Post yesterday quoted an Irish bookmaker who made him 5-2 favorite to sire the most individual winners in Britain and Ireland among freshman sires this year. So they're off and running: his first winner came in the 2.05 at Yarmouth on Monday. Better take that 5-2, it could get shorter!
