TAKING THE "HIGH" ROAD TO LOUISVILLE

Trainer Nick Zito already boasts two Kentucky Derby wins, getting the roses with Go for Gin (1994) and Strike the Gold (1991). Can High Fly (Atticus) give him a third? The chestnut colt put himself at the head of the Triple Crown class of 2005 yesterday with a decisive 1 1/2-length triumph over fellow Zito trainee Noble Causeway (Giant's Causeway) in the 54th running of the GI Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park. The win also broke the Brooklyn-bred horseman's 0-for-16 streak in the race. "These horses both ran really huge," Zito said. "They both showed me a lot of courage. All the way down the lane, I was yelling, 'Show me your heart; show me your heart,' and they did. They both showed a lot of courage."

Better Luck This Time?

A year ago, Zito held the hottest hand during the run-up to the Kentucky Derby. Bedded down in his barn were Birdstone, Eurosilver and The Cliff's Edge, but that formidable trio proved no factor on the first Saturday in May. Eurosilver spent the afternoon in his stall, the victim of an untimely illness, while his stablemates struggled on the sloppy surface and were off the board. But things look rosier this spring. In addition to the one-two Florida Derby finishers, Zito has GIII Tampa Bay Derby hero Sun King (Charismatic), who will head to the Apr. 16 GI Bluegrass S.; and 15-length Gulfstream allowance winner Bellamy Road (Concerto), who goes for the Apr. 9 GI Wood Memorial. Florida Derby cont. p2

ANOTHER SETBACK FOR ROCKPORT HARBOR

Triple Crown hopeful Rockport Harbor (Unbridled's Song) suffered another setback yesterday at Oaklawn Park when trainer John Servis opted not to send the three-year-old to the track due to an undetermined ailment. The latest misfortune for the Fox Hill colt, who has battled foot bruises throughout the spring, throws into doubt his status for the GII Arkansas Derby Apr. 16. "I originally thought he had a fever, but John told me he did not," Fox Hill owner Rick Porter told The Blood-Horse. "They think he had a reaction to a build-up shot he had a couple days ago. John was just not happy with his attitude this morning and decided not to train him. His white count is good, too, so maybe it's not an infection as we first thought." Arkansas Derby contender Greater Good (Intidab) breezed an easy five panels yesterday at Oaklawn in 1:04.40, the 28th fastest of 34 works at the distance. The GIII Rebel S. winner worked in company with stablemate Copy My Notes (Souvenir Copy), who was timed in 1:05.20.

The "Live" Horse...

Live Oak homebred High Fly was sent off the 6-5 chalk off his win in the Mar. 5 GII Fountain of Youth S. He pressed B.B. Best (Yes It's True) through a half in :45.89 and six furlongs in a rapid 1:09.92. The crowd's choice grabbed a short lead at the eighth pole and held stablemate Noble Causeway at bay late. "It pretty much developed the way I thought it would," winning jockey Jerry Bailey said. "He was just as impressive as he was in the Fountain of Youth. I just let him run along the last 100 yards." Nick Zito was thrilled by the performances of both colts. "You know, a week ago [High Fly] had a slight temperature," he explained. "But all week there has been no humidity and that really helped. God takes care of me. And you can't give [Noble Causeway] enough credit, coming out of an allowance race and the only horse that can beat him is High Fly." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree or the video replay.

The Classic Question...

High Fly has now handled distances from six furlongs to a mile and an eighth. Can he get the extra furlong of the Kentucky Derby? "You've got to think positive," Bailey said. Zito believes both of his Florida Derby horses will be effective at the Classic route. "They can both go a mile and a quarter--no question," he said. Zito did not announce where Noble Causeway will show up next, but did say, "He's got a great future in the Kentucky Derby." With High Fly, he is leaning toward going into the first leg of the Triple Crown off five weeks rest. "He should just train for the Derby now," he said. "Maybe these are the horses that will show people that you can win the Derby off a five-week layoff."

Honey Ryder showed her ability to handle 12 furlongs when rallying from the back of the pack to be third in the Dec. 18 GII La Prevoyante H. She ran out of real estate when fourth in the Feb.

12 GIII Suwanee River H. at nine furlongs, but got the job done in her latest, closing to take the Mar. 6 GIII The Very One H. at 11 panels. The second choice to make it two in a row, the gray filly settled in fourth while saving ground through the opening mile. Honey Ryder eased around front-running Pretty Jane to take over at the eighth pole and held off a troubled Ellieonthemarch for the narrow score. "We talked about getting a distance with this filly when she was a two-year-old and a three-year-old...that she might eventually develop into a good distance horse," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "This was one of those rare situations where we turned out to be right." The runner-up stumbled at the break, was checked on the first turn, raced widest of all into the stretch and just missed. "Maybe she's a winner without all that," jockey Cornelio Velazquez said. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Switched to the turf at the end of 2004, the bay was fifth in his first try on the surface, the Nov. 20 GII Red Smith H. at Aqueduct. But he had been knocking on the door this season, finishing second by a neck in the Jan. 30 GIII Mac Diarmida H. and fourth, beaten just 3/4 of a length by Prince Arch, in the Mar. 6 GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. The second choice to make the grade here, the four-year-old kept last year's Pan Am winner Quest Star in his sights as he cruised along through soft splits. Navesink River went after the pacesetter as they raced down the lane and just got up. "He's always shown us he had the ability to get a distance of ground, although not necessarily on the turf," Pletcher said. "But once he showed us he could handle the turf, we wanted to keep him on it. Today is the first day we've been able to keep his mind completely on business. He's been a little bit unlucky recently, jumping tire tracks and things like that, but today he really showed what he's capable of." Eurosilver was part of a fleet of Nick Zito Classic contenders last spring after winning the GII Breeders' Futurity and narrowly losing the GIII Swale S., but an infection derailed his Derby hopes. He returned from a seven-month absence with a new trainer and was a distant runner-up in the Oct. 14 Perryville S. in his first start for Carl Nafzger. He ended 2004 with a fifth-place finish behind Saint Liam in the Nov. 26 GII Clark H. and returned this season to be fourth in a one-mile optional claimer Feb. 28. With blinkers added for this effort, the dark bay colt went right to the lead, setting fractions of :23.72, :47.21 and 1:10.95. He looked home free with a two-length advantage in upper stretch, but had to battle back when challenged by Twilight Road in the final strides for his first win since last February. "I think he's just come back to himself going two turns," Nafzger said of the winner. "He didn't stop in that first race back, he just didn't pick it up down the lane. Today he did. I think we've turned the corner with him now." Winning jockey Javier Castellano gave Nafzger recognition for Eurosilver's success. "[Nafzger] put blinkers on him and he did a great job," Castellano said. "He shot right out of the gate. With the blinkers on, he's a completely different horse." Twilight Road, the oldest horse in the field, battled gamely, but couldn't get by the winner late. "He ran a super race, the best race of his career," said Phil Teator, trainer of the runner-up. "When we came up on Eurosilver I thought we had it, but Eurosilver dug in."

The winner of the GIII Holy Bull S. and third in the GI Blue Grass S. at three, Offlee Wild was off the board in his next four stakes tries. He turned it around after moving to the barn of trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. last spring, however, winning a Belmont allowance in May and following up with a game head victory over Funny Cide in the June 19 GII Massachusetts H. The dark bay disappeared after that effort, going to the sidelines after undergoing surgery on his knee and ankle, but returned in the Feb. 19 John Campbell Breeders' Cup H. at Laurel Park and just missed, finishing a neck second to Coast Line (Boston Harbor).

Turning The Tables...

Offlee Wild was bet down to even-money to turn the tables in his second start back and did not disappoint.

A tracking third while skimming the rail through six furlongs in 1:12.64, the five-year-old strode to the front as they raced around the final bend and left his rivals in the dust, winning as much the best. Coast Line faded down the lane to be fifth. "In the last race, Coast Line was inside and had the lead and we were chasing all the way," Rick Dutrow said. "He was coming off a layoff in that race, too. He ran really good today. He was just awesome in the stretch." Looking ahead, the trainer added, "The Breeders' Cup Classic [at Belmont Park, Oct. 29] is a long-term goal. I think a race like the [GI Suburban H. at Belmont July 2] could fit him nicely, but I have to think about Saint Liam, too."

Purchased privately after running second by a neck in a Delaware allowance test last August, Supah Blitz looked worth any price after shipping west to win the Sept. 5 GII Del Mar H. by a nose. He came back to be third in the Oct. 2 GII Goodwood Breeders' Cup H., then returned to the east to take the Nov. 13 Carl G. Rose Classic H. at Calder. But fortunes faded for the five-year-old after his return to California. The Florida-bred ended 2004 with a fifth-place finish in the Dec. 11 GIII Native Diver H. Fifth again in his 2005 opener, the Jan. 29 Sunshine Millions Classic, he was let go at 41-1 in the Mar. 5 GI Santa Anita H. and ran to his odds, tiring to finish last in the 11-horse field. Adding blinkers this time, Supah Blitz stalked the pace off the heels of front-running Ender's Shadow as they galloped through a half in :47.19 and six furlongs in 1:10.86. The dark bay went up on even terms as they came out of the final bend and disposed of that rival at the top of the lane, drawing off late to win handily. Rosehill trainer Kim Moore, who will marry cricketer Mark Waugh in Sydney Sunday, enjoyed a sweet victory when problem-plagued stayer Mahtoum proved the 3200-meter trip was to his liking in Saturday's G1 Sydney Cup. Mahtoum overcame a troubled passage to power home from the rear and win the G3 Manion Cup over 2400 meters Mar. 12, but struggled under weight-for-age conditions when a late-finishing fifth in his latest start in the Mar. 19 G1 BMW. Mahtoum, carrying 5.5 kilograms less than he did last time, raced with the leaders throughout and prevailed in the final strides to score a determined win. "When he was racing in such a forward position, I was worried he wouldn't stay the trip," said a delighted Moore, who persevered with the lightly raced stayer after he suffered a broken pelvis and other career-threatening injuries. "With all the problems this horse has had it's a great feeling. I'm so proud of him." The minor placings were reversed after Darren Beadman, aboard County Tyrone, successfully protested against Shane Dye's mount Philosophe. Manawa King (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}) suffered a broken hind leg as the field entered the straight the first time and was pulled out of the race. Looking for back-to-back G1 Queen Elizabeth S. wins, the tall gelding stalked leader St. Reims (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}) early, but it was only a matter of time before he pounced and left the field in his wake, winning by 2 1/2 lengths. "He's a fantastic horse, he just gives his best every time, but for some reason he's never been considered among Australia's top horses. He is among the best I've trained," said trainer Gai Waterhouse. "She added, " He has been inoculated to go to Hong Kong for the Apr. 24 G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup, but I will make up my mind in 48 hours whether to press ahead with that." While Intergaze (Aus) took this race in 1997 and again in 1999, Grand Armee becomes the first horse since the Tommy Smith-trained Tulloch in 1961-62 to manage successive wins. Sydney's two-year-old racing reached a grand climax with Carry On Cutie lowering the colours of Fashions Afield here. Runner-up to Stratum (Aus) in the Mar. 19 G1 Golden Slipper S. and winner of the G1 AJC Sires' Produce S. last time out, the Gai Waterhouse-trained Fashions Afield carries the green-and-white colours of Vinery, but it's unlikely the Vinery team are too displeased with this result. Carry on Cutie becomes the first Group 1 winner for More Than Ready, who is slated to return to the Hunter Valley stud again this spring for the Southern Hemisphere breeding season. The winner had hinted at Group 1 ability. She began with a debut win at Canterbury Feb. 11, leapt straight into stakes company when she beat Media (Aus) by a long neck in the G3 Sweet Embrace S. Feb. 26 and again fought tenaciously when Media reversed the placings in the G2 Magic Night S. Mar. 12. Trainer Graeme Rogerson opted to remove her blinkers this time and Carry On Cutie was taken off the lead early, but sprinted to the front late, collaring Fashions Afield by 1 3/4 lengths, with front-running Media a further 2 1/4 lengths away third. "She's a great little filly," said Rogerson. "I took the blinkers off today and it was the intention to ride her with a bit of cover and look at the result." More Than Ready has 31 winners from 58 representatives in both hemispheres, but he is certainly making his mark in Australia with G1 Blue Diamond placegetter Perfectly Ready (Aus) as well as G2 Magic Night S. placegetter Blizzardly among his seven stakes winners. He has had seven individual winners from 22 representatives in Australia to date. Click for the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Shamekha, a A$70,000 Magic Millions graduate by the underrated sire Secret Savings, recorded back-to-back Group 1 wins here. The four-year-old lowered the colours of pin-up sprinters Fastnet Rock (Aus) and Alinghi (Aus) in last week's G1 T.J. Smith S. and returned to Randwick yesterday to add the G1 All Aged S. to her resume. "She was nothing short of devastating," said trainer Gai Waterhouse of the mare, who settled a dozen lengths away from tearaway leaders Regal Roller (Aus) (Regal Classic) and Falkirkj (NZ) (Tale of the Cat) before easily accelerating to win by three-quarters of a length from Only Words. Perennial place-getter Our Egyptian Raine was third. "They were smoking up front," said jockey Darren Beadman. "But this mare is very tractable and, once I showed her daylight, she was away." Shamekha won the 2004 G1 Coolmore Classic last autumn, but struggled during the Melbourne spring carnival. She was spelled in mid-November and returned for a first-up Group 1 win last week. This week's accomplishment:
 With wife Sarah owns Roses in May, who won the $6-million Dubai World Cup.

Birthplace: Artemus, KY

Birthdate: 11-3-35

Current Residence: Sunny Isles Beach, FL

Principal Businesses: Cellular phone service, real estate, radio station owner.

As a devoted handicapper, what's your most memorable score? A couple years ago at Saratoga, one of the last days of the meet, it was raining and the track came up sloppy. There was a two- or three-day carryover. I stayed in and handicapped that card, and wound up winning $721,000 on the Pick 6.

Favorite vacation spot? Saratoga, New York. That's one of the only tracks I'll get to every day whether I've got a horse running or not. I'm in my element up there. We also like the Carribean.

What stallion do you think is most underrated? I'd have to say my stallion, Catienus [who stands at Highcliff Farm in NY]. He had 19 individual winners last year, which was better than any freshman stallion. He'll be moved to Ramsey Farm in Kentucky in 2006. Roses in May, Kitten's Joy, Badge of Silver and Nothing to Lose may also stand there.

What were your impressions of Dubai? I had been there in 2001 and it's like night and day. The amount of construction is incredible--it's like crane city downtown. And Sheikh Mohammed has done a great job with Nad Al Sheba--it's a beautiful track.

What's the best gift Sarah has ever given you? Four children--three boys and a girl. I can't imagine anything better than that!

Roses in May stepped on your foot entering the winner's circle in Dubai. How's it feeling? You know, I've been around horses for a long time and before Saturday I'd only been injured once. Then, in front of the whole world, I get injured twice. First, Roses in May stepped on my pinkie toe when I was leading him into the winner's circle. Later, I had to crowd in because of all the people and I got caught by his bit on the eyebrow. Blood was running down my face--Sheikh Mohammed came running over with a handkerchief! He sent over his doctor later--I said 'No, no, I'm fine. Sometimes it takes blood, sweat and tears!' [laughing].

CONGRATULATIONS!

This is a rematch of the horses that fought out the finish of the G3 Prix Exbury at Saint-Cloud Mar. 10, with Samando bidding to confirm the form of her head victory over Lord du Sud. The winner of the G2 Prix de Royallieu at this track last October, Samando gets four pounds again from that rival here due to his penalty for beating Prospect Park (GB) and Cherry Mix (Fr) in the G2 Prix Hocquart at this venue last May. Pont d'Or and Levitski filled the third and fourth spot respectively in the Exbury and are weighted to reverse form with the winner, but may lack the scope of the two rivals that finished in front last time. Delfos, winner of the G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange over course and distance in September, makes his '05 debut.

RECORD BID FOR SILENT WITNESS Silent Witness (Aus) (El Moxie) will look to link his name to those of Citation and Cigar when he goes in search of his 16th consecutive victory in today's G1-HK Chairman's Sprint Prize at Sha Tin Racecourse. The five-year-old gelding's task was made slightly more difficult when he drew post position number 13 in a 14-horse field during Thursday's draw, but jockey Felix Coetzee, aboard for each of Silent Witness' wins, sees it as a minor obstacle. "I can see a bunch of them to his inside that he won't have any trouble crossing," Coetzee told South China Morning Post. "There is some speed on the inside, but I'm not too worried about it. The main thing, as far as I'm concerned, is that [trainer] Tony [Cruz] has the horse 100 percent right." Adding some intrigue to the 1200-meter event is the reappearance of former Horse of the Year Electronic Unicorn (Housebuster). Third in this event last year, the nine-year-old is making his first start in 10 months. Also in the field are Australian Group 1 winner Cape of Good Hope (GB) (Inchiner {GB}), runner-up to this champ in last year's running; and Scintillation (Aus) (Danehill), a close fourth in the G1 Hong Kong Mile and recent winner of the Hong Kong Classic Mile.

Long recognized as a horse with a lot of potential, Value Plus notched his first stakes win yesterday impressively. The big gray had last tasted victory in February of 2004 over this same strip, following that allowance win with a second in the GI Florida Derby. But he failed to hit the board in his next three and was shelved off a fourth in the June 26 GIII Jersey Shore Breeders' Cup S. In his 2005 debut, he entered the lane with the lead before falling 1 3/4 lengths adrift of Silver Wagon, and was offered a 3-1 chance to improve here. The long-striding colt was kept in the clear three wide while just off the pacesetters, forged to the lead in upper stretch and leveled out nicely on his way to the daylight victory. "This horse has shown signs of brilliance all along," said trainer Todd Pletcher. "Hopefully, he's learning to put it all together. That last race was probably a little better than it looked when he got beat by a Grade 1 winner. He's one of those horses that you have to let him find his own rhythm out there. We did kind of make a conscious decision to keep him out in the middle of the track today."

Back sprinting on the main track, the 2-1 shot battled heavily favored Anew (Awesome Again) down the lane. Anew, an impressive eight-length maiden winner two back, bumped The Cheetah's Tale at the sixteenth pole and inched clear to finish one length the best. Following an inquiry, the stewards disqualified Anew to second, giving The Cheetah's Tale his second lifetime win. Lifetime Record: 5-2-0-2, $22,390.

Jet Set Citi was a wire-to-wire 3 3/4-length debut winner at this track and trip Mar. 12. Favored against five foes here, the dark bay filly broke sharply and pressed the early pace. She was forced seven wide in the lane and was bumped by pacesetter Missile Bay at the sixteenth pole and outbattled that foe for a narrow score. "There is nothing as exciting as this," exclaimed Sam Huff, the Hall of Fame football star who bred and owns the filly. "This is like the Super Bowl and it's been a long time since I've been [to] one of them. I'm just so happy everybody here saw a great race today."

No Bull Bay fought off stablemate Inspiring down the lane and collected her second stakes success. Winner of the Nov. 21 Moccasin S. at Hollywood Park Nov. 21, she failed to see out the 8 1/2-furlong distance of the GI Hollywood Starlet Dec. 19, finishing fourth, but acquitted herself quite well with a strong runner-up effort to Sharp Lisa in the seven-furlong GII Santa Ynez S. Jan. 17. Switched to the lawn for her next, No Bull Baby ran an even fifth in the Mar. 6 La Habra S., but returned to her preferred surface here. The handsome bay was on the engine early, ripping through :21.26 and :43.79 fractions as Inspiring geared up her challenge nearing the quarter pole. It looked as if Inspiring poked a nose in front shortly thereafter, but No Bull Baby fought back and shook loose in the final panel. Leave Me Alone, undefeated over the main track before this, ran on to be second. "I didn't really expect myself to go to the lead," admitted winning jockey Victory Espinoza. "I broke so sharp I was right on top of the leaders, so I said, 'OK, I'm gone,' especially with the track being a little bit fast." Assistant John Daley, who handles Bob Baffert's string at Hollywood, added, "I thought she looked dynamite today. The other filly [Inspiring] ran big, too. She just needed a race." The previously unbeaten Inspiring was making her first start since winning the GIII Sorrento S. Aug. 7.

A maiden winner in his second outing, a Cal-bred special-weight test going six furlongs at Santa Anita Jan. 21, Thor's Echo stretched out to a mile and a sixteenth for his latest and was narrowly beaten. Sent off the 5-2 chalk in that race, the Feb. 27 Borderland Derby at Sunland Park, the chestnut had a three-length lead in the stretch, but tired late to be second behind Southern Africa. But, with his first route under his girth, the Triple Crown nominee set out to take them gate to wire this time. Southern Africa went after him after six furlongs and wrested a half-length advantage, but Thor's Echo had more in the tank, regaining the lead and edging away to take it by a length.

Cee's Irish capped a three-race winning streak with a nose victory in the Dec. 19 Corte Madera S. on the dirt at Golden Gate and a 3/4-length score in the Jan. 14 Blue Norther S. on the Santa Anita lawn. She tired to be fifth when switched back to the dirt for the Feb. 12 Gill Silverbulletday S. at Fair Grounds, but bounced back with a close second-place finish in the Mar. 12 China Doll S. on the grass at Santa Anita. Returning to the main track as the second choice in this lucrative event, the gray filly grabbed the lead soon after the start, was headed by Dayglogreen after six furlongs, but regained the advantage and drew clear. Coming off a Santa Anita maiden win Feb. 24, 4-5 favorite Pegasus Rose (Fusaichi Pegasus) pressed the pace, but couldn't mount a late rally and finished fifth.

The filly went missing off that one, but returned nine months later to prevail in the Feb. 26 Soviet Problem H. Stakes win number four took a serious effort, as the bay was forced to dig in gamely in the final panel to catch and pass Southern California shipper Puxa Saco.

GERMAN SIRE ACATENANGO DIES Top German sire and German Horse of the Year Acatenango (Ger) (Surumu {Ger}--Aggravate {GB}, by *Aggressor II) died from injuries sustained in a paddock accident at the Jacobs family's Gestut Fahrhof in Germany Saturday. The 23-year-old stallion was pensioned two years ago after suffering from failing fertility. The chestnut earned the distinction of winning 13 consecutive races, beginning with the 1985 German Derby, and later captured seven Group 1 victories, including the Preis von Baden-Baden (2X) and the G1 Prix du Jockey Club. Sent to Gestut Fahrhof in 1988, he ascended to the head of the ranks as a stallion, leading Germany's sire tables in 1993, '95, '97, and '99. German Horse of the Year Lando (Ger), who earned $3,438,727 during his racing career, recorded seven Group 1-wins in Germany, Italy and Hong Kong. Other Group 1 winners sires by Acatenango include Sabiango (Ger), Blue Canari (Fr), Borgia (Ger), Flamingo Road (Ger) and Fraulein (GB).

Stream of Gold was lightly raced last year, with a maiden score over a mile at Pontefract in August complemented by a decisive win in a seven-furlong Newmarket handicap on his final start in October. More was expected from the impeccably bred colt this year, as indicated by the confidence in the betting market before the off. As usual in this cavalry charge up the Town Moor straight, the field split into two groups, with Stream Of Gold settled in mid-division with the stands-side runners. Showing impressive acceleration to hit the front at the quarter pole, he was pushed out by Robert Winston to stride clear of New Seeker, who stayed on under Kevin Darley in the easy winner's slipstream. "It was expected and he picked up really well and was really professional," commented Winston, who was booked by conditioner Sir Michael Stoute following Kieren Fallon's move to Ballydoyle. "No matter what side I went he'd have won as he's a very nice horse. He'll go on soft ground and go on from this."

3rd Dam: Doubling Time, by Timeless Moment

Clear Impression finished second to subsequent G1 Cheveley Park S. second Suez (GB) on her only previous start at Goodwood last July and her return was eagerly awaited. Leaving the gate quickly, she was eased from her wide position onto the rail and into the lead after a furlong. Never headed, the 4-11 favorite needed only minimal encouragement to pull three lengths clear of Gennie Bond (GB) (Pivotal {GB}). She will now be aimed at the G3 Fred Darling S. at Newbury Apr. 16 before a tilt at the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket May 1. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, £9,954. O-The Sangster Family; B-Swettenham Stud; T-Peter Chapple-Hyam.

Kempton, 2.05, Mdn, £8,300, 2yo, 5fT, 1:06.00, gd/sf.

+ GLENMUIR (IRE) (c, 2, Josr Algarhoud {Ire}--Beryl {GB}, by Bering {GB}), sent off the 5-2 favorite, was settled in fourth tracking the leaders early on. Pushed along at halfway, he responded to Alan Munro's urgings to challenge on the outer with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and, avoiding the scrimmaging on the rail, quickened to beat Getbuzzin (GB) (Bold Edge {GB}) by 1 3/4 lengths. The winner was a 15,000gns TATDEC weanling and 16,000gns TATOCT yearling purchase. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £5,395. O-Glenmuir Partnership; B-Frank Dunne; T-Rod Millman.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races. Purses for Canadian races are in Canadian dollars.

Doncaster, 4.30, Mdn, £6,465, 2yo, 5fT, 1:01.22, gd. DUSTY CITY (IRE) (c, 2, City on a Hill--Christan {Ire}, by Al Hareb) was one of only two juveniles in the lineup with experience, having finished fourth at Musselburgh on Sunday. That proved invaluable as he was cramped for space on the rail after quarter of a mile, but the 4-1 chance regained his composure to quicken to the front in the final 100 yards and beat The History Man (Ire) (Titus Livius {Fr}) by 3/4 of a length. Dusty City, a 13,500gns TATDEC weanling and 4,500gns DONOCT yearling, is the first winner for his freshman sire (by Rahy). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £4,465.
