ARTIE CAN MAKE HIS MARK

Artie Schiller (El Prado {Ire}), one of the top sophomore turfers last year, makes his long awaited seasonal debut in today's GII Maker's Mark Mile S. at Keeneland. The bay rattled off three straight victories last spring, including the GIII Hill Prince S. at Belmont, but had that streak come to an end when second to champion turf horse Kitten's Joy in the GIII Virginia Derby. He quickly got back on track after that loss, notching wins in the GII Hall of Fame H. and the GII Jamaica H. The $67,000 KESEF yearling purchase was backed as the 7-2 choice in his final start of 2004 in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile Turf Oct. 30, but could only manage a 12th-place finish after suffering a troubled trip. "We wanted to start out in this mile race to see what route to take the rest of the year, whether that's keeping him in races at about a mile or stretching out to longer races," trainer Jimmy Jerkens told Daily Racing Form. "Hopefully this race will give us a good idea." Good Reward (Storm Cat) enjoyed the biggest win of his career in the GI Hollywood Derby last November, but finished fourth and third behind Artie Schiller in the Hill Prince and the Hall of Fame. He was last seen finishing fourth behind Rock Hard Ten in the GII Strub S. on the main track Feb. 5.

SHARPENING UP FOR THE OAKS

After getting scratched from last Saturday's GI Ashland S. due to a foot bruise, Sharp Lisa (Dixieland Band) heads the featured GII Fantasy S. at Oaklawn today. The chestnut finished second, beaten a head in last season's GII Darley Alcibiades S. at Keeneland, then finished sixth in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Oct. 30. She closed out her juvenile campaign with a runner-up effort in the GI Hollywood Starlet S. Dec. 19, but came out on top in the GII Santa Ynez S. in her sophomore debut Jan. 17. She was last seen winning the GI Las Virgenes S. Feb. 12 (Click for the video race replay). "This is definitely a big step to the Oaks," trainer Doug O'Neill told Daily Racing Form. "I think her not being a real huge filly, maintaining fitness is a little bit easier as opposed to a big heavy horse." According to DRF, undefeated filly Yankee Penny (Quiet American) is likely to be scratched after entrapping her epiglottis when galloping Wednesday. Trainer George Weaver told the publication that she is scheduled to have throat surgery next Tuesday. Round Pond (Awesome Again), who hails from the same connections as Rockport Harbor, seeks her third straight victory over the course after notching the Honeybee S. last out Mar. 20.

Trainer Nick Zito has plenty of Derby contenders in his barn, but can now throw an Oaks hopeful in the mix, after In the Gold's victory here. After breaking her maiden last September at Belmont, she ran a solid third in the GII Alcibiades S. at Keeneland Oct. 8. She couldn't duplicate that performance in the GII Golden Rod S. Nov. 27, where she finished fifth, but rebounded to notch a Gulfstream allowance in her sophomore debut Jan. 13. Beaten 16 lengths in a runner-up effort to Sis City in the GII Davona Dale S. Feb. 5, the $250,000 FTSAUG yearling purchase just missed by a nose in her most recent effort in the GII Bonnie Miss S. Mar. 5. Backed as the choice while cutting back in distance, she trailed the field early, rallied four wide on the turn for home and drew clear in deep stretch to post the victory. "I knew there was a lot of speed in the race and Nick didn't want me to rush her," winning rider Rafael Bejarano said. "I just waited and she sure finished in the stretch. This is a nice filly. She has a great late kick. I would love to ride her in the Oaks."

Switched to the turf for his next four starts, he won a $30,000 claimer at Louisiana July 22, then an allowance over that course Aug. 8. Trying stakes competition in his next two attempts, he finished sixth in the Kentucky Cup Turf Dash S. Sept. 25 and fourth in the Total Rewards S. Oct. 31. Freshened up off that effort, he returned off the layoff to fire a 110 Beyer over the Oaklawn main track in a 7 3/4-length victory versus allowance company Mar. 11. Backed as the co-choice here, he was sent right to the lead, set :21.96, :44.57 and :56.42 fractions and reported home a clear-cut winner.

Records Fall at Newmarket...

The two-day Tattersalls' Breeze-Up Sale at Newmarket concluded yesterday with solid across-the-board gains, including new records for gross, average and median. Sheikh Rashid Al Maktoum purchased the event's top lot last night, paying 270,000gns for a Red Ransom half brother to Grade II winner Talloires (Tremolino). The colt, selling as Lot 147, had been unsold for $110,000 at Keeneland September and was consigned by Jamie Railton yesterday. A

Lot 147 tattersalls.com

trainer for the colt, on whom Shunsuke Yoshida of Japan's Northern Farm was underbidder, will be finalised in the next few days. Railton also sold the night's second top lot, Perfect Order (Red Ransom), a filly who realised $75,000 as a yearling at Keeneland. She made 200,000gns this time around when owner John Livock outbid Sheikh Rashid. "She is going to Neville Callaghan, with whom I've had horses for many years," said Livock. "Neville's son Simon watched her in the breeze and really liked her." Sales officials were clearly pleased with the lively trade. "In 2004, this sale produced sensational figures," Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony said. "Going in to this week, we felt that [it] would be a hard act to follow, but the vendors presented us with a catalogue widely regarded as the strongest ever assembled for a European breeze-up sale, and have been rewarded with a sale which has broken records across the board. Although trade was selective at times, there have been more six figure lots than ever before at this sale, with 19 at 100,000gns or more, four breaking 200,000gns and the Swain (Ire) filly out of Robust from Mocklershill Stables equalling last year's European breeze-up record price for a filly of 240,000 guineas. In a muddling 2000 Guineas trial which produced a blanket finish, it was Harry Dobson's Democratic Deficit who slipped into the winner's enclosure after yesterday's G3 Craven S. at Newmarket. The sole Irish challenger stayed clear of the scrimmaging as he swooped from last to first to outpoint the fast-finishing Rob Roy by a head. In three forays at The Curragh last term, he took the G2 Railway S. before failing to give four pounds to Oratorio (Ire) in the G2 Futurity S. and filled the fourth spot behind Dubawi (Ire) in the G1 National S. Returning here after a fifth in the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere at Longchamp in October, he was shuffled back to last as the runners crowded the stands' rail and bunched off the steady pace set by Kandidate. He was taken wide for his run by Kevin Manning, headed the long-time leader with 150 yards remaining and the post came in time as the runner-up delivered his late flourish. "It wasn't an overly strong-run race and everybody was watching everybody else," Manning explained. "He was very fresh and a little bit free early, but past halfway they stepped on it and he arrived on the outside with a sweep, and then got a bit tired in the last 50 yards." Sir Michael Stoute expressed himself delighted with Rob Roy, who will return for the G1 2000 Guineas Apr. 30.

GALAXY ON THE OUTSIDE LOOKING IN

B. Wayne Hughes' colorbearer Greeley's Galaxy (Mr. Greeley), a 9 1/2 length winner in last weekend's GII Illinois Derby, will be supplemented to the Kentucky Derby. "I would only pay if I can get in," Hughes commented. "You can't just pay $200,000 and be in even though we have enough graded earnings [$300,000 from Illinois Derby]. The horses already nominated have preference so our chances of getting in are probably 50-50 or less. We'll have to wait until the draw, but it doesn't look good."

Saratoga County Given Some Time Off:

Saratoga County (Valid Expectations) has recently returned to New York after his victory in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen Mar. 26 and will be pointed for this year's GI Breeders' Cup Sprint. "At this point we feel like we'd like to put him in a position where he can retire to stud at the end of the year and the only thing to do is try to aim for the Breeders' Cup," trainer George Weaver told Daily Racing Form. Weaver added that the Aug. 13 GI A.G. Vanderbilt H. and the Oct. 1 GI Vosburgh S. are other targets for Saratoga County after a well-deserved vacation.

Nick Jemas Dead at 86:

Former jockey and Jockey's Guild Executive Director Nick Jemas died Thursday at the age of 86. After riding for 20 years, he became the Eastern Manager for the Jockey's Guild and in 1967 was named executive director of that organization, a post he held until his retirement in 1986. Respects may be paid Sunday from 7-9 p.m. at the Saint Thomas Greek Orthodox Church in Cherry Hill, NJ. Funeral services will be held Monday at noon. In lieu of flowers, the Jemas family has asked for donations to the St. Thomas Greek Orthodox Church Home for the Aged.

Beverly Howard Services Friday:

Beverly Howard, the wife of jockey agent Joe Rosen, died last Sunday at the age of 52, according to Daily Racing Form. A viewing will be held at the Anderson and Campell Funeral Home on Main Street in Toms River, NJ from 2-4 p.m. and 7-9 p.m. today.

Eddie Martin Acquires Marablu Farm:

Eddie Martin, principal owner of Martin Stables South, has reached an agreement to purchase Marablu Farm in Reddick, FL, from Doug Henderson. Martin Stables stallions Spanish Steps and Conscience Clear will now stand at the former Marablu property. Martin, 47, is a native of Indiana and has been a thoroughbred owner and breeder for over 25 years.

"The Works" Returns to TVG:

TVG's "The Works: Derby 2005," will begin Apr. 30 and will continue through May 5. The series of six half-hour shows will air at 11:30 a.m. (ET) and will be replayed at 9 a.m. from Saturday through Wednesday and at 8:30 p.m. Thursday. "The Works" will also be shown twice daily on Fox Sports Net 2 beginning Apr. 30 and ending May 5. Hosted from Churchill Downs by Todd Schrupp, with analysts Frank Lyons and Tom Amoss and reporters Jill Byrne and Jeff Lifson, "The Works" will offer same-day coverage of morning workouts of horses expected to compete in the May 7 Kentucky Derby and May 6 Kentucky Oaks, as well as interviews with owners, trainers and jockeys. This will be the sixth year TVG has provided coverage of Derby-week works.

Thoroughbred Community Unites for MCF:

Through the generous efforts of several leaders in the Thoroughbred industry, the University of Kentucky's Markey Cancer Foundation will hold the first annual Markey Golf Classic Wednesday, June 15, at the University Club of Kentucky. Spearheading the event, which is expected to raise over $350,000 to promote cancer research and treatment at the Center, are three prominent members of the MCF Board, including Lane's End Farm's Bill Farish, Jr., Sally Humphrey of Shawnee Farm and Antony Beck of Gainesway Farm. "The Thoroughbred community is proud to be associated with such a special event," Farish Jr. commented. "This tournament allows us to give back to Kentucky by supporting the cancer care and research conducted at UK Markey Cancer Center. The Thoroughbred community has championed Markey from the beginning and we will continue that tradition." Over 20 farms and industry leaders have pledged their support to the outing. In addition to the three farms already mentioned, flight sponsors also include Mt. Brilliant Farm, Overbrook Farm, Darley Stud and Coolmore. Hole sponsors include Keeneland, Alex Boone, Fasig-Tipton, Eaton Sales, Taylor Made Farm, Walmac Farm and the Turner Foundation. Trebek, Creston Parties to Lawsuit:

Alex Trebek, the host of TV's "Jeopardy" and owner of Creston Farms in Creston, California, is being sued in connection with the alleged disappearance of a broodmare from his farm, Reuters reported yesterday. The charges, filed in San Luis Obispo Superior Court, claim that the defendants "sold, traded, gifted or otherwise disposed" of the mare, named Be Be Trando. The unraced three-year-old was reportedly sent to Creston Farms Jan. 21 to be bred to Iron Cat. Representatives of the farm allegedly contacted the owner of the mare, Marion Warner, Feb. 24 to advise her that the mare would be bred the next day. Warner received a call six days later from the farm manager, who said the mare had been sick during the night and was euthanized. The suit also claims that the veterinarian who supposedly put down the horse had not euthanized any horses at Creston on that day or anytime during the previous week.

BREEZING ON TO SAINT-CLOUD Hot on the heels of the Breeze-Up Sales at Doncaster and Newmarket, Goffs France will stage their equivalent today at Saint-Cloud racecourse. While the sale's flagship performer remains the 2002 G1 Prix Saint-Alary heroine Marotta (Fr), there has been a recent spate of graduates making their mark in stakes company, including last year's G3 Prix de Meautry winner Star Valley (Fr) and G3 Scandinavian Open Championship victor Crocodile Dundee (Ire). Of the 130 two-year-olds catalogued in this year's sale, preeminent stallions Anabaa, Grand Lodge, Highest Honor (Fr), Marju (Ire), Montjeu (Ire), Orpen, Peintre Celebre, Royal Applause (GB), Singspiel (Ire) and Zafonic are represented, as well as the freshmen Agnes World, Black Minnaloushe, Fantastic Light, King Charlemagne, Mull of Kintyre and Observatory. Mocklershill Stud, who sold the top lot 12 months ago, provide a solid draft this time including hip 41, a Peintre Celebre filly out of a half-sister to the 1994 G1 Epsom Derby winner Erhaab. They also offer hip 102, an Anabaa colt out of a sister to the G3 Park Hill S. winner Discreet Brief (Ire) from the family of Kahyasi (Ire). Haras de la Perrigne consign hip 47, a Fasliyev colt from the family of last year's G1 Hong Kong Vase winner Alexander Goldrun (Ire) and G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains runner-up Medecis (GB). Hip 43 is Friarstown Stud's In the Wings (GB) half-sister to the stakes-placed Tahtheeb (Ire), while Grove Stud's hip 89, a Namid (GB) colt from the family of Summoner (GB) and Compton Admiral (GB), should not lack speed. Selling starts at 2 p.m. after the morning breezes, which take place over 3 1/2 furlongs. Catalogue and updates can be viewed on www.goffs.fr

TAAKEED (GB) (c, 3, Mark of Esteem {Ire}--Walimu {Ire}, by Top Ville {Ire}) had finished off the board in both previous starts, including a last-out fifth at Pontefract Mar. 29, and was let go at 9-1 for this. Settled in a stalking third until sent to the front approaching the final furlong, the homebred was pushed clear in the latter stages to best Love Angel (Woodman) by an easy eight lengths. Taakeed is a full brother to 1000 Guineas heroine Ameerat (GB), G1SW-GB, $290,082; and a half brother to Walmooch (GB) (In the Wings {GB}), MSP-HK, $242,975. Lifetime Record: 3-1-0-0, £3,478. APACHE HOGAN (FR) (c, 3, Indian Lodge {Ire}--Lisheba, by Alysheba), €40,000 DEAAUG yearling, was sixth in his sole juvenile start at Deauville in December and improved to place second in his most recent out at Angers Mar. 21. Here, the 11-5 second choice disputed the fractions with King Foraday (Fr) (Vettori {Ire}) until seizing the initiative approaching the home turn and he gradually eased clear, under an eager Thierry Jarnet, to defeat Smatch (Fr) (Smadoun {Fr}) by four lengths. Lifetime Record: 3 starts, 1 win, 1 place, €14,700.

PHI (c, 3, Rahy--Salchow, by Nijinsky II) was a last-out sixth at Fontainebleau Mar. 29 and went postward as a 19-5 chance for this third sophomore run. Leading off a smart break, he rallied gamely under strong driving when headed in the short stretch and regained the lead in the final strides to deny Moldovan (Fr) (Dolpour {Ire}) by a neck. A half brother to Way of Light (Woodman), Hwt. 2yo Colt-Fr, G1SW-Fr, $254,508, the Niarchos homebred is a grandson of the exceptional broodmare Coup de Folie (Halo). AUSTRALASIA

SAVABEEL TO STAND AT WAIKATO STUD Cox Plate winning Savabeel (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}--Savannah Success {Aus}, by Success Express) has been retired from racing and will stand at Waikato Stud in Matamata at a fee of A$35,000 this spring. The Chittick family's Waikato Stud has purchased a controlling interest in the three-year-old in a deal that values the colt at A$10 million. Savabeel, a A$400,000 yearling purchase, won three of 13 starts, including the G1 Spring Champion S. over 2000 meters and the Cox Plate three weeks later. He was also second to Plastered (Aus) in the G1 VRC Derby and retires with earnings of A$2.7 million. "On one hand he has succeeded at the very highest level in Australia and on the other he is by New Zealand's champion stallion from a New Zealand Oaks winner," Waikato Manager Mark Chittick said. "He is everything you look for in a stallion, and there was a fair bit of hot competition to secure him over the last few days. The importance of having control of a horse like this cannot be overstated, and the upside or profits he may generate will come mainly to the local industry and not off-shore parties." Savabeel's dam, Savannah Success, won the G1 NZ Oaks and G1 Ansett Australia S.

PACKER MAY CONTEST BETFAIR DECISION

Larger-than-life media proprietor Kerry Packer has instructed lawyers to investigate whether Australian racing authorities are contravening the Trade Practices Act by refusing to allow UK-based betting exchange Betfair a license to operate. The feud has spilled over onto the front pages of Australia's major daily newspapers as Packer has instructed law firm Gilbert & Tobin to investigate whether elements of the racing industry have possibly conspired to prevent Betfair from conducting business in Australia. Betfair has proposed to spend more than $50 million in infrastructure and a Southern Hemisphere headquarters in Tasmania if the Tasmanian Government gives it the green light to operate from that state.

ALEXANDER GOLDRUN OUT OF QE II CUP

Alexander Goldrun (Ire) (Gold Away {Ire}), who became the first filly to win the G1 Hong Kong Cup last December, has been removed from consideration from the G1 Audemars Piguet Queen Elizabeth II Cup Apr. 24. The bay filly, who also won last year's G1 Prix de l'Opera, was most recently sixth, beaten four lengths by Elvstroem (Aus) in the G1 Dubai Duty Free S. Mar. 26, but has not progressed to the satisfaction of trainer Jim Bolger. The conditioner confirmed that the filly's main target for 2005 will be a defense of her Hong Kong Cup title in December. Elegant Fashion (Aus) (Danewin {Aus}) will replace Alexander Goldrun in the Cup. The six-year-old mare, trained by David Hayes, has finished runner-up in each of the past two runnings of the $1.8-million event.
