THREE COINS IN THE FOUNTAIN

Trainer Todd Pletcher may have found himself a third Kentucky Derby candidate when Coin Silver (Anees)

bounded clear to take the GII Coolmore Lexington S. at Keeneland as 3-5 Rockport Harbor (Unbridled's Song) faded in the lane. "Anytime a horse comes around this time of year, you've gotta love it," said Pletcher. "If he comes out of it well, we'll see if he can bounce back in two weeks." Pletcher already has GI Toyota Blue Grass S. hero Bandini and GII Lane's End S. victor Flower Alley pointing for the Run for the Roses in two weeks.

his four-year-old season today in the G1 Prix Ganay at Longchamp. Unbeaten at two with four victories including the G1 Criterium International, the Niarchos homebred had a delayed start in 2004, but added three more Group 1 wins to his credit, including the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe last October in his most recent outing. This slight drop in trip should present no problems, as he showed brilliant acceleration when winning the G1 Prix Jean Prat at Chantilly and G1 Grand Prix de Paris at this venue in last summer. Prix Ganay cont. p7

SILVER LINING Racing in the colors of Peachtree Stables, Coin Silver made one start at two, finishing fourth to stablemate Vicarage in a July 5 maiden at Belmont. He didn't see action for another seven months, returning to run second in a Feb. 5 contest at Gulfstream. Staying in Florida, the dark bay graduated next out in his first attempt at a route Mar. 5 and followed that up with a third in an Apr. 2 allowance. Dismissed at 13-1 here, Coin Silver was bumped at the start, but recovered to race in fifth. He edged closer heading into the far turn, rallied four wide at the top of the stretch and finished up smartly for his first stakes victory. "We got a little break with the wet track," Pletcher told espn2. "I felt good in the stretch. I would have liked to have seen him switch over sooner to his right lead. We'll look to go the Charismatic angle [completed the Lexington/Kentucky Derby double in 1999]."

Rocky Road Continues...

Rockport Harbor was caught wide on the first turn and never improved his position thereafter, tiring to finish a distant sixth of seven. The rangy grey pulled up awkwardly. "He didn't care for the mud at all," said jockey Stewart Elliott. "He was so exhausted that he almost collapsed after the race." The loss is the latest setback for the colt and his well-documented troubles this spring. "He seems fine," trainer John Servis told espn2. "That's the first thing I asked [jockey Stewart Elliott]. He said he never got hold of the track the whole way--they hadn't gone an eighth of a mile and he knew he was in trouble. It's unfortunate, but it happens." As for the future, Servis added, "I'll talk with [owner Rick Porter] and map out a plan. You haven't heard the last of him."

Pollard's Vision earned his first graded-stakes victory over this surface in the GII Illinois Derby last spring. He didn't fare as well in the GI Kentucky Derby four weeks later, but rebounded with a series of performances that established him as one of the most well-travelled members of his crop. The one-eyed colt won the GIII Leonard Richard S. at Delaware Park and the GIII Lone Star Derby; he also ran second in the GII Pennsylvania Derby, the GII Ohio Derby and the GIII West Virginia Derby, and was fifth in the GIII Indiana Derby. Freshened up following his Lone Star victory on the eve of the Breeders' Cup, the Edgewood Farm colorbearer ran second in the GIII Mineshaft H. in his Feb. 12 return, but could only manage fifth to Badge of Silver in the GII New Orleans H. a month later. Jockey John Velazquez kept Pollard's Vision in third as the favorite and Lord of the Game raced in tandem on the front end through fractions of :46 1/5 and 1:10 2/5. The four-year-old took to the outside in the stretch and, as Lord of the Game began to tire, engaged Badge of Silver. The odds-on chalk battled back gamely, but Pollard's Vision surged by for his fourth graded-stakes victory. "What can I say, it worked out perfectly," said Velazquez. "The two speed horses went after each other. Once I got him in the clear he started rolling. From then on it was all his." As for the favorite, "He ran alright," said trainer Bobby Frankel. "The second quarter was quick and that took a lot out of him. He had to miss some training last week, so he might have come up a little short." Castledale showed decent form as a two-year-old in Ireland, but came over to the U.S. at the end of the year and captured the GIII Generous S. at Hollywood. He made three starts at three, all on the dirt: after running sixth in the GII San Rafael last March, he upset Rock Hard Ten in the GI Santa Anita Derby, but was nowhere to be found in Louisville, finishing a distant 14th to Smarty Jones in the GI Kentucky Derby. The bay started off on the main track again this season, running fifth in both the GII San Fernando Breeders' Cup S. Jan. 15 and the GII Strub S. Feb. 5. Shifted to the grass for his latest, Castledale missed by a head in a one-mile allowance at Santa Anita on St. Patrick's Day and was the favorite in this test. Jockey Rene Douglas took Castledale in hand and kept him in fifth. The four-year-old split horses in the stretch and outfinished local Adreamisborn for the win.

The lightly raced Pleasant Home matched the achievement of her sister Country Hideaway, who captured this contest in 2001. After breaking her maiden second time out at Belmont July 5, the Phipps homebred didn't race again until Sept. 22, when she won an allowance over the same track. She ran third to Magical Illusion in an Oct. 24 allowance before getting another three-month break. Third going nine furlongs at Gulfstream Jan. 16, she cut back to a mile and came away a winner at even-money Mar. 27 at the Hallandale oval. The dark bay was well back in the early stages, but responded to Cornelio Velasquez's urging and came running in the stretch, putting away the dueling front-runners on her way to her first stakes victory. "I thought it was worth taking a shot," said winning trainer Shug McGaughey. "I'm tickled to death to see her win a stake. I think she will run further, and I would love to try her on the grass sometime."

Better Talk Now hadn't raced since December and was facing a distance far short of his ideal trip, but nothing stood in the way of a measured victory for the six-year-old. The bay landed the 12-furlong GI Sword Dancer at Saratoga in August and, after a fourth in the GI Man O'War S. Sept. 11, stunned champion Kitten's Joy in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Oct. 30. But his season came to an end with a disappointing sixth-place finish in the GI Hollywood Turf Cup Dec. 4, and he had been training at Fair Hill ahead of his 2005 debut. Tucked into a ground-saving position by Ramon Dominguez, Better Talk Now drew closer to the leaders approaching the stretch. He set sail for pacesetter Remind and forged ahead under a vigorous hand ride from Dominguez. "This couldn't have worked out any better," said winning trainer H. Graham Motion. "The plan is to run him back in the Dixie [GI, Pimlico, 5-21]."

Pickle got her nose down on the wire to post her first stakes success. The dark bay began her career in England for trainer Stuart Williams, for whom she captured three straight handicap races in the space of eight days last July. She failed to place in a pair of similar contests in the fall, and was sold to her current connections for 34,000gns at the Tattersalls Autumn Sale. In her state-side bow, Pickle captured an allowance at Bay Meadows Mar. 12, then missed by a neck when third in the Miss America H. over the same course Apr. 9. Never too far from the front, the British-bred rallied four wide in the stretch and looked home free, but had to dig in to deny a surging Makeup Artist in the shadow of the wire. "I knew I had some horse turning for home, but I was surprised Makeup Artist made such a valid run at me," winning rider Jon Court said. "I knew I was beaten a jump past the wire, even half a jump, but at the wire I felt very confident my filly had held on."

A four-time Group 1 winner in her native Chile, Isola Piu Bella kicked off her U.S. stand with a third-place finish behind Pampered Princess in the Jan. 23 Banshee Breeze S. at Gulfstream Park. She came back to beat that rival by 2 1/2 lengths in the Feb. 26 GIII Sabin H., but was no match for D'Wildcat Speed in the Mar. 26 GII Rampart H., running six lengths back in second. The bay shipped to Chicago in search of a second stateside stakes win and found it, closing from just off a moderate pace to take charge at the top of the stretch and holding off Rare Gift to give trainer Todd Pletcher his third graded stakes win in the space of 35 minutes. "I'll tell you what, she's a nice filly," said winning jockey John Velazquez. "She will do anything you want. The first time she ran here in this country, she ran a huge race after a year layoff, and then came back and repeated the race her next start. She was on cruising speed the whole time. Hurricane Alan, who has proved the model of consistency in a busy career, equalled a career-best performance here by repeating his victory of 12 months ago. Returning off placings in the Listed Winter Derby at Lingfield Mar. 19, Listed Doncaster Mile Mar. 31 and G3 Earl of Sefton S. at Newmarket Apr. 13, he prevailed in determined fashion to earn a tilt at the G1 Lockinge S. at Newbury May 14. He stalked Brunel from the bell until offering his bid at the quarter-mile marker. Brunel proved a valiant foe and would not surrender lightly, ensuring Pat Dobbs be at his forceful best inside the final furlong to ensure victory. "The blacksmith did a hell of a job to get him right," trainer Richard Hannon told PA Sport. "After his last race at Newmarket he developed a quarter crack in his inside off-foreleg and it looked very nasty. But he has had three runs this season and was pretty fit, so we took our chance." Weightless finished off the board in three group-race starts for Pascal Bary last season, but a deeper examination of his record would have revealed victory in both G2 Prix Dollar and G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange in 2003. However, Juddmonte Farms still consigned him to the Tattersalls Autumn Horses-In-Training Sale last October, where he realised 37,000 guineas soon after finishing fifth in the G3 Prix Andre Baboin S. Oct. 13. He raced keenly here in his first start for trainer Amanda Perrett here and was soon enjoying an uncontested lead. Kicked clear by Johnny Murtagh three furlongs out, he was comfortably on top inside the final quarter to hold Hazyview (GB) by 3 1/2 lengths at the wire. "He is a small horse, not over-big, but has been working nicely at home," Perrett told PA Sport. "We were going to run him at Newmarket last week, but decided against it. I don't have a clue where he will run next as we weren't sure how he would run today."

Grand Armee heads into this event having won four of his last five starts, his only defeat coming at the hands of dual G1 Melbourne Cup winner Makybe Diva (GB) in the G1 BMW S. over 2400 meters Mar. 19. The six-year-old gelding is clearly more effective at shorter distances and most recently successfully defended his title in the 2000-meter G1 Queen Elizabeth S. at Randwick Apr. 2. He has done little in the lead-up to the race to discourage his trainer. "Nothing's gone wrong and that's the main thing when you're away from home," Gai Waterhouse commented. Elegant Fashion finished runner-up in 2003 and 2004, but Hong Kong has a legitimate chance for the win in the form of Vengeance of Rain. The four-year-old needed six starts to get off the mark, but has won his last three, including a sharp 2 3/4-length victory in the G1-HK Hong Kong Derby going today's trip Mar. 19. He breaks from the three-hole under Anthony Delpech.

Elvstroem

"That's exactly the draw we wanted," the conditioner explained. "He can travel behind what ought to be a good pace and unleash his turn of foot." The Dubai World Cup program has produced two top candidates for today's race-- Elvstroem, wire-to-wire winner of the G1 Dubai Duty Free; and Phoenix Reach, victorious in the G1 Sheema Classic.

Voix du Nord was favorite for last term's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club when injury curtailed his season on the eve of that race last June. Successful in the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud in 2003, he beat subsequent Arc runner-up Cherry Mix in the G2 Prix Noailles here last April and added the G1 Prix Lupin over course and distance the following month, but hasn't raced since. He holds a serious chance if he can return to that level. The Prix du Jockey-Club, at Chantilly June 6, eventually went to Blue Canari. That colt has failed to fire in two subsequent starts, finishing off the board in the G2 Prix Niel at Longchamp Sept. 12 and the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe Oct. 3. Pride has proved adept at this level once before when finishing third in the G1 Prix Vermeille at Longchamp Sept. 12 and recovered from an unplaced Arc effort to win the G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris, at Longchamp Oct. 17, in her latest out.

Unbeaten Ramonti will be a warm order among the locals and is expected to start at short odds for the Alduino and Giuseppe Botti training combination. He was a hugely impressive five-length winner of the Listed Premio Daumier over course and distance Apr. 10 and sets the standard. Stable companion Scartozz (GB), no forlorn hope, also boasts a perfect record including a last-time win in the Listed Gardone at Milan Apr. 4. Roberto Brogi, who took this two years ago with Le Vie dei Colori (GB), is represented by Le Giare and Slapper this time. The former was awarded the G3 Premio Guido Berardelli on the disqualification of Bernard (Fr) last October, but was no match when finishing eight lengths behind Ramonti last time. Slapper won the Listed Premio Pisa Mar. 28, his second win at that level, and holds a place chance.

Helios Quercus moves up a level after winning the Listed Prix Omnium II on his return at Saint-Cloud Mar. 28. The G1 Criterium International hero faces stern opposition in this G1 Prix du Jockey-Club trial. Aidan O'Brien is represented by Falstaff, who finished fifth to stablemate Albert Hall (GB) in the G2 Beresford S. on his final juvenile start and was a last-out conditions winner at Tipperary 10 days ago. Unbeaten in three starts, Biens Nanti was successful in the Listed Prix de Courcelles over course and distance Apr. 3.

Divine Proportions sets a high standard, but Andre Fabre's Valima could prove up to the task. She comes back off a fine win in the Listed Prix Imprudence at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 5. Aidan O'Brien has supplemented Silk Scarlet, winner of the G2 Debutante S. at The Curragh Aug. 8 and a last-out seventh in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. back at the same track Sept. 5.

TDN ☆ Star of the Week ☆

Brought to you by  FASIG-TIPTON

Chuck Zacney

This week's accomplishment:

With partners Jennifer Reeves, Joe Lerro, Bob Brittingham and Joe Judge, owns GII Arkansas Derby winner Afleet Alex.

Birthplace: Philadelphia, PA

Birthdate: 6-4-1961

Residence: Upper Providence, PA

Coady Photography

Family: Wife Carol; daughters

Amanda, 19, and Casey, 9; and son Alex, 6.

Principal business: President and owner of the SIRRUS Group, a multi-million dollar medical billing company in Oreland, PA.

Greatest moment in racing: Winning the Arkansas Derby--what a thrill, especially after he finished last in the Rebel. Luckily we were able to find out it was due to a lung infection. There was a lot of satisfaction in coming back to win the Arkansas Derby.

Favorite moment in sports outside of racing: I went to the Super Bowl in Jacksonville with the Eagles. I am a season ticket holder, and the whole experience was really great. Obviously, the outcome wasn't what I hoped for, but it was great to see all the Eagles fans converge on Jacksonville and have a blast.

Last concert you attended: I went to see Bruce Springsteen at the Wachovia Center in Philadelphia a couple of years ago. He is my favorite. I was at a silent auction during the Super Bowl and I got an autographed guitar for $4,000. It's beautiful--it's red, white and blue and signed by Bruce. I have it hanging in my office.

Dom Perignon, a dry martini or whatever's on draft?

Whatever's on draft, definitely.

Favorite vacation spot: Disney World. It's great for the kids, but I am a big kid at heart. I have a lot of fun there.

Who was your idol growing up? My Uncle El--he spent a lot of time with me--we liked talking sports together.

Do you have any superstitions? My son Alex has to wear his lucky horse underwear--he didn't have them for the Breeders' Cup, we actually forgot them, but he had them for the Arkansas Derby and he'll be wearing them on Kentucky Derby day.

CONGRATULATIONS!

This trial for the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains is all about Andre Fabre, who has collected seven renewals since 1992. This time he relies on Terra Verde, who has recorded wins at Deauville Mar. 7 and Bordeaux le Bouscat Mar. 19. Criquelette Head-Maarek saddles G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere runner-up Early March, who bids to put a disappointing fifth in the Listed Prix Djebel at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 5 behind him. Cougar Cat has not raced since finishing second to stablemate Oratorio (Ire) in the G3 Anglesey S. at The Curragh July 18, but is Kieren Fallon's choice despite the nine-month absence.

G2 Queen's Silver Jubilee S. at Sha Tin. The five-year-old gelding looms a heavy favorite again this afternoon and served notice in his final pre-race workout, streaking 400 meters up the Sha Tin all-weather in :21.3 Friday morning. "[Trainer] Tony [Cruz] wanted him to have a solid workout and he's such a lazy horse these days you have to make him go to the line," jockey Felix Coetzee told South China Morning Post. "In terms of the time he ran and the way he did it, this was right up there with his best gallops. But even then, he pricked his ears and coasted at the end of it." Silent Witness, who won the G1 Chairman's Sprint Prize over 1200-meters Apr. 3, tries seven furlongs for the first time today and faces some horses proven at that distance and beyond. Set to test the champ are The Duke (Aus) (Danehill) and Scintillation (Aus) (Danehill), a close third and fourth, respectively, in the G1 Hong Kong Mile Dec. 12 as well as champion Electronic Unicorn (Housebuster).

HOLLYWOOD STEWARDS CLEAR WYGOD The stewards at Hollywood Park yesterday tossed out the California Horse Racing Board's Apr. 11 complaint against Sweet Catomine's owner Martin Wygod. After a three-hour hearing, the stewards determined that the evidence did not substantiate the charges that Wygod violated the rules of racing, or that his conduct was detrimental to the sport. Van driver Dean Kerkhoff, charged in a separate complaint, testified that he misidentified Sweet Catomine as a pony when taking her to an equine clinic after speaking with a farm manager, and never talked to Wygod. The hearing was expected to continue today, but Wygod attorney Richard Kendall asked that the case be dismissed yesterday, and his request was granted. "There was a rush to judgement here," Kendall said. "Now is the time to rectify that error in judgement by dismissing this complaint."

Tara's Touch won three of her last four starts in her native country, including the G1 Garden Province S. in July of 2003, and capped off her homestand with a victory in the G3 Southern Cross S. in November that year. Out of action for all of 2004, the bay returned to be second in the Jan. 15 Dr. A.B. Leggio Memorial H. going 5 1/2 furlongs on the Fair Grounds turf. She was sent off the 2-1 favorite in a two-turn allowance on the Gulfstream grass last time out Mar. 2, but was caught in traffic on the turn and ended up eighth. The second choice in her first try against U.S. stakes foes, Tara's Touch lacked early speed, but gained ground as they raced out of the turn, drove between horses at the sixteenth pole and was all out to get past Shaunavon at the wire. Silverfoot showed an affinity for yielding turf when taking the GIII Louisville H. at Churchill last May. He handled a soft turf once again when second in the July 4 GIII Stars and Stripes BC H. at Arlington Park, but was DQ'ed and placed fourth for causing interference in the stretch, then ended the abbreviated campaign with a lackluster fifth-place finish in the Aug. 14 GI Sword Dancer Invitational H. at Saratoga. Odds-on in his comeback attempt, the gray was last of five after a half, but made up ground on the far turn and dashed past his rivals down the lane to reward his backers.

The bay suffered through a rough trip in her stakes debut, the Nov. 6 Pocahontas S. at Churchill, and finished fifth, then took a vacation. She returned to be third in a Keeneland allowance Apr. 9 and was the 9-10 chalk to get it done in her second start of the season. Fifth early after getting buffeted at the break, the Hancock homebred drove between horses at the head of the stretch and proved much the best down the lane, galloping away to a 10 1/4-length victory. FAMILY BUSINESS (f, 4, Saint Ballado--Company Binness, by Seattle Dancer) was the 7-10 chalk despite the fact that she hadn't been to the winner's circle since taking a Churchill allowance race just four days shy of a year ago. The bay filly opened 2005 with a close-up second behind Shadow Cast in the Jan. 22 Truly Bound H. at Fair Grounds, but stumbled at the start of the Feb. 20 Chou Croute S. and could do no better than seventh. Favored with the drop back to the allowance ranks, she saved ground while sitting just behind the leaders, found room to rally up the rail in the stretch and drew clear to beat pacesetter Avimora (Mt. PALLADIO (c, 3, Lycius--Gioia, by Mari's Book) broke his maiden in his final start at two, taking a two-turn affair in the slop at Woodbine Nov. 28. The bay made his turf debut in his first start this term, but showed little, finishing 10th at Gulfstream Feb. 21. Sidelined after that performance, he was back as a 12-1 chance here. The Florida-bred was content to trail the field through the opening half after getting bumped at the break, angled wide at the top of the lane, then shifted back to the rail and finished well to get up for a half-length score over 10-1 Trick Lantern (Confide). Santa Anita President McDaniel Steps Downs:

Jack McDaniel, president of Los Angeles Turf Club Inc, which operates Santa Anita Park, resigned at the conclusion of the 2004-2005 Winter/Spring meeting after two years at the helm. According to Don Amos, chief operating officer of Magna Entertainment Corp, Ron Charles, who currently serves on the MEC's California operations, will step in on an interim basis. McDaniel will return to his entertainment facility company, Action Design and Production. "I enjoyed the opportunity to help spearhead the innovative entertainment strategies of MEC and its most important facility," said McDaniel.

Le Vie Dei Colori, winner of the G1 Premio Vittorio di Capua and G2 Premio Parioli in 2003, was transferred to the barn of Luca Cumani from that of countryman Roberto Brogi after winning the Listed Premio Natale Di Roma and placing fourth in the G1 Premio Presidente Della Repubblica last spring. His first start in England was a highly promising fourth behind Soviet Song (Ire) in the G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood in July, but he followed with a disappointing eighth in the G1 Prix du Moulin at Longchamp September before rebounding with a third-place finish in the G1 Prix de la Foret at that track in October. Making his seasonal debut here, he stalked the leaders in a share of third under Darryll Holland early. Showing a smart turn of foot to take the lead at the eighth pole, he was not hard pressed to keep Cape Fear (GB) at bay by a diminishing neck at the line. "We knew he was a bit big coming into this race and he'll come out of it and improve," said Cumani. "The [G1] Lockinge S. [at Newbury May 14] is next, and this will have put him right for it. Darryll [jockey Holland] said he traveled extremely well and hit the front very easily when he asked him. He's got a bit tired and idled in the end."
