A GIANT STEP

Michael Tabor and Susan Magnier's Footstepsinthesand (GB) (Giant's Causeway) displayed the natural enthusiasm that Aidan O'Brien had spoken of to get the new partnership with Kieren Fallon off to a flying start in yesterday's G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket. "He's one of the finest horses to sit on and he's just gone from strength to strength," Fallon commented. "He just gets excited for a stride or two, but he soon switched off completely and the way he accelerated away from the field proves that he was the best horse on the day by far."

FLIGHT OF FANCY

After several high-profile withdrawals, today's G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket has the most open feel in recent years, with Stonerside Stables' Karen's Caper (War Chant) just leading the betting on this cavalry charge. She came into the G3 Nell Gwyn S. with only a Lingfield polytrack success to her name, but came out the other side a legitimate Classic contender by beating Cape Columbine (GB) (Diktat {GB}) by 3/4 of a length at this venue Apr. 13. In a spring blighted by cold, wet weather, she may yet provide some light for trainer John Gosden, successful with Lahan (GB) in 2000. "It's not been a great spring for fillies and the Guineas comes a week early this year," he said. "A week at this time of year can make a big difference, but she won nicely last time and has improved in her coat. Although it's an open race I hope she can do it again."

MR T SHOWS NO PITY IN WITHERS

Scrappy T (Fit to Fight) had shown an affinity for an off track in the past and took advantage of underfoot conditons yesterday, outgaming Park Avenue Ball (Citidancer) for a one-length victory in the GIII Withers S. The dark bay gelding had never been worse than third in his previous eight trips to the post and was one of three horses in the Withers to emerge from the GI Wood Memorial S., won by likely Derby favorite Bellamy Road. Withers S. cont. p5

Overcoming Mother Nature...

It had been more a case of footsteps through the mire as Footstepsinthesand overcame testing ground in the G3 Killavullan S. at Leopardstown in October and the water-logged spring gallops at Ballydoyle. The 13-2 shot raced keenly here, but was trapped wide before relaxing when tagged on the back of the early pace. Allowed to stride to the front passing the quarter pole, he maintained a resolute gallop to put away a pair of 100-1 outsiders, Rebel Rebel (Ire) (Revoque {Ire}) and Kandidate (GB) (Kabool {GB}). "There's been a lot of hard work gone into this with the weather like it has been," Fallon said. "When he picked up I hoped I hadn't gone too soon, but it's a special win with the new job and new season." O'Brien paid tribute to his team's efforts with the colt, who debuted victoriously at Naas only eight days before his Leopardstown success. "It's great for everybody, who have put a lot of work into him over the winter and Kieren gave him a beautiful ride," he explained. "He's an unbelievably talented horse, but we'll have to talk and come up with another race for him." Simon Callaghan, son of Rebel Rebel's trainer Neville Callaghan, was delighted with the performance. "We always thought he was going to be a horse who would progress well," he told PA Sport. "He always runs as though he wants further, and a mile and a quarter would be within his compass, but a true-run mile suits him well."

Dip Spells Doom for Dubawi...

Dubawi (Ire) (Dubai Millennium {GB}), who was sent off the 11-8 favorite, traveled strongly behind the leading group, but became unbalanced and veered left entering the dip, finishing fifth. "He traveled like the winner and at the two-pole he was ready to go," jockey Frankie Dettori explained. "But he kept changing his legs and when he had to stretch going downhill, he absolutely hated the ground. It's a long year and I'm sure he's going to redeem himself."

Welcome Back...

As a result of the hostile climate so far this year, many will be having their first run back in this Classic, and Cheveley Park Stud's Shanghai Lily (Ire) (King's Best) is an intriguing seasonal debutante. She looked smart when winning a maiden and conditions event at Newbury in August and September, respectively, and her trainer Sir Michael Stoute won this race for the same connections in 2003 with Russian Rhythm. Like the Nell Gwyn, the G3 Fred Darling S. at Newbury Apr. 16 provided a blanket finish with the game Penkenna Princess (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) emerging in front. She had previously run Martin Schwartz's Maids Causeway (Ire) (Giant's Causeway) to a head in the G2 Rockfel S. at this track in October and, like that rival, lacks nothing in the courage department. Maids Causeway thrived on a busy juvenile campaign which also included successes in the G3 Sweet Solera S. here in August and runner-up finish in the G1 Fillies' Mile at Ascot in October. Her conditioner Barry Hills, who recorded his sole success back in 1978, believes her toughness will stand her in fine stead today. "She's tough and genuine and I doubt she'll be far away," he told the Racing Post. "In fact, I think she'll be right in there at the fight at the end." Godolphin won this in 1998 with Cape Verdi (Ire) and saddle the impressive UAE 1000 Guineas and UAE Oaks heroine Satin Kiss (Seeking the Gold) as well as Fen Shui (UAE) (Timber Country), who was disappointing on her last start when eighth in the Rockfel. Aidan O'Brien, who has yet to win this Classic, saddles Virginia Waters (Kingmambo), a filly who booked her ticket with a smooth success in the G3 Leopardstown 1000 Guineas Trial Apr. 10. Jockey Kieren Fallon was hoping for rain yesterday. "The ground might be too quick for her, otherwise I would be confident," he said. "She was very impressive in her trial and has gone from strength to strength--she has been doing really good work at home."

High Strike Zone came late and fast for his first graded-stakes success. A neck off the good sprinter Gold Storm in a stakes at Retama last July, the bay followed up with a pair of victories, including the Marshland H. at Delta Downs Oct. 30. He lost his next two, but rebounded with a win in the Delta Mile H. Mar. 3 and just missed by a half-length in the Gulf Coast Breeders' Cup Classic at Delta Apr. 2. Never too far from the front here, High Strike Zone rallied on the outside in the stretch, collared pacesetter Yessirgeneralsir (Patton) inside the eighth pole and finished up well to get the win. It's been a long road for the five-year-old, according to his trainer Amos Laborde. "Since his surgery he came back and became a racehorse," said the conditioner. "We operated on both of his knees in late 2003 as a three-year-old and it made a racehorse of him. Before that, he wasn't putting out like he is now. Now, he's as sound as can be. This is my first graded stakes win. This horse has been real good to me."

Scrappy T broke his maiden in career start number three at Delaware Park on Halloween then finished second in a course-and-distance allowance Nov. 10. Second by a neck over the inner track Dec. 15, the dark bay wired the Jan. 15 Count Fleet S. over a good surface, but came from a bit off the pace to finish third in the Whirlaway S. Feb. 12. In his most recent effort, the gelding was actually within a half-length of Bellamy Road up the backstretch of the GI Wood Memorial Apr. 9, but tailed off to finish third, beaten 18 1/4 lengths. Sent up to track pacesetting War Plan from second, Scrappy T overtook that foe approaching the quarter pole and held sway late for the win. "Everything went great," commented winning trainer Robert Bailes. "The only thing that worried me was that when he makes the lead early, he gets to looking around. His saddle slipped in the Wood, and that definitely cost him second. This is a nice colt and I think he's still learning. He's going to have to learn real quick, because we're on our way to Maryland for the [May 21 GI] Preakness." The top three betting choices occupied the last three spots. Survivalist (Danzig), the Wood runner-up, was fifth, about two lengths ahead of favored B. B. Best (Yes It's True). Second choice Proud Accolade (Yes It's True) never appeared comfortable over the sealed main track for a second consecutive race and finished last.

A Sovereign Award winner at two, Judiths Wild Rush captured the GIII Marine S. at three, but was off the board in his last two starts of the year. The gray colt was dropped in for a $50,000 tag in his 2005 debut, winning by seven lengths at Gulfstream Jan. 3, and found himself back in stakes competition. He was second in the off-the-turf Lure S. at Gulfstream Jan. 15, but didn't get his trip in the Super S. at Tampa two weeks later and finished sixth. The former champ ended his Florida stint with a pair of third-place efforts against optional claimers at Gulfstream Feb. 23 and Mar. 11, then returned to Canada and was second by a nose in the Apr. 16 Jacques Cartier S. Rated just off a swift pace here, Judiths Wild Rush launched his bid as they wheeled out of the turn and took over 70 yards from the wire before drawing clear. Trainer Reade Baker, who had been second in three of the first four stakes of the Woodbine meet, has only had the winner in his barn since December. "When I got the call telling me I was going to get him, it was like Christmas came early," Baker said. Mobil, the reigning champion older horse in Canada, closed well to be second in his first outing since October. A Bit o'Gold, the top three-year-old in Canada last year, had not been out in more than five months. He made a run at the top of the lane, but faltered late and had to settle for third.

Finery, who earned her first graded stakes victory over this course and distance on Halloween in the GIII

Athenia H., doubled her tally with this gritty effort. The Althea Richards homebred had captured her first two career starts at three before going close in her next six trips to the post. She cleared her next allowance condition with a win over a yielding Belmont course Oct. 17 and followed that up with her Athenia score. The Virginia-bred made her first start outside of New York in the GIII Cardinal H. Nov. 20 at Churchill Downs, but a wide trip and soft going conspired in her sixth-place finish in that contest and was freshened up over the winter. Finery used post two to her advantage here to secure a ground-saving spot in third as favored Changing World assumed her customary position on the front end. Angled out by Pablo Fragoso in the stretch, the lightly raced five-year-old took aim at Changing World and just got her neck in front in the shadow of the wire. "She's been a little slow to mature, but it seems she's come around now," said winning trainer Billy Turner. "I thought she would be ready off the layoff. She was training very well." Finery's never been beyond a mile and an eighth, but may be stretching out in the future. "In the back of my mind, I would like to run her in the GII Sheepshead Bay H. [GII, 11f, May 22], if she wants to go that far," Turner continued. "That's always a great race to win. I've been second tow or three times, but have never won it. She could also run in the Just a Game [GII, 1m, June 11]."

TDN ☆ Star of the Week ☆

Brought to you by FASIG-TIPTON

D.G. Van Clief Jr.

Horsephotos

This week's accomplishment:

Named Commissioner and Chief Executive Officer of the NTRA.

Birthdate: June 28, 1948

Birthplace: Charlottesville, VA

Residence: Meadow Farm, Nicholasville, KY

First horse racing memory?

Watching horses work at Oklahoma age 5. My parents rented a house on Fifth Avenue, one of those brick ranches which backs up to the training track. It was undoubtedly sales week and they were there with a consignment of horses.

If you had one day to expose a new person to the sport, how would you spend that day with them? Without a doubt, I would start on the backstretch in the early morning. It's magic. Going through those gates makes you feel like you're a member of a club.

What celebrity would you most like to see promoting our industry? This will show that I've been living in Kentucky for a long time, but Ashleigh Judd.

Should the Breeders' Cup be held in Europe once in a while?

While it would be very attractive and great fun to do, the fact of the matter is that should not happen until the European breeders are supporting the program at least close to the level that North American breeders are.

What are you most proud of not professionally, but personally? My children. (Son, Danny is 28; daughter, Helen, 27.)

Best non-racing vacation? In general terms over the year, any time I'm on a boat in the Gulfstream. Most recently, though, it would have been accepting an invitation to visit friends in Jackson Hole and finding out I wasn't too old to ski after 40 years.

What is your favorite sound? The sound of the crowd standing on the second floor of the grandstand at the old Gulfstream Park during the 1989 Breeders' Cup Classic stretch run.

Who is going to win American Idol? None of the guys, so Carrie Underwood or Vonzell Solomon.

If you weren't in racing, what would you be? Much wealthier.

CONGRATULATIONS!

from Fasig-Tipton's own Star of the Week: PRESIDENTIALAFFAIR, 7 1/2-length winner of the $150,000 Jim McKay Breeders' Cup H. at Pimlico 4/23. The MGSW of $600,970 is a Fasig Tipton Midlantic Graduate.

Congratulations to his connections.

The winner of the 2002 G3 Craven S. for trainer Sir Michael Stoute, King of Happiness failed to score in eight subsequent starts overseas, capping that portion of his career with a 10th in the Listed Sovereign S. in August 2003. Repatriated to his birth country the following spring, he won two of his first four starts in the U.S., but could not quite negotiate the jump into Grade I company, finishing fourth in the Shoemaker BC Mile over this turf May 31. The chestnut filled the same spot in the GI Eddie Read H. at Del Mar July 25, was third at odds-on in the Harry F. Brubaker H. Aug. 20 and was last seen when fifth, beaten two lengths, in the GII Kelso Breeders' Cup H. at Belmont Park Oct. 9. Sent up to track the moderate pace set by Mister Acpen (Chi) (Golden Voyager), King of Happiness assumed command outside that rival entering the far turn, responded gamely when asked for his best in the stretch and was just able to get his nose down on the line ahead of his favored stablemate.

It was business as usual as Westerner strolled to another effortless success on his eagerly-awaited return. The hero of two renewals of the G1 Prix du Cadran and G1 Prix Royal-Oak became synonymous with the ear plugs he wore when completing his metamorphosis into France's undisputed champion stayer, but those supplements have been dispensed with as he has matured. Traveling easily in rear off the tailor-made tempo set by his rabbit Poussin (Ire) (Alzao) in this contest, he was unperturbed when shuffled back to last with a half mile remaining and made smooth progress when switched wide. Coaxed to the front in the final 100 yards, he received one gentle flick of the persuader in the latter stages to account for Allez Olive. "I couldn't be more happy with that," commented his conditioner Elie Lellouche. "He won very nicely and will follow the same program of the G2 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier here [May 22] and G1 Ascot Gold Cup [at York June 16]." Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart.

Avonbridge found only the subsequent G1 July Cup winner Frizzante (GB) a short head too strong in this contest 12 months ago, but made amends to add to his stakes resume. He beat the smart Porlezza (Fr) in the G2 Prix du Gros-Chene at Chantilly last June before delivering a string of consistent efforts in top sprint company, including a fourth in the G1 Nunthorpe S. at York in August. On the sidelines since finishing fifth in the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye in October, he was kept to the rail chasing the suicidal early fractions. Responding to every call, his momentum carried him to the front with a furlong remaining and he pulled out extra when pressed by Ashdown Express on the uphill climb. "He's a nice horse and we've always thought he was up to this standard, but we thought his Group 2 penalty might make it hard for him," jockey Steve Drowne explained. Last year's hero Gamut heads a cast of evergreen past winners of this race returning for another bite of the cherry. He faces a sterner test this time under a penalty secured with a win in the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud last July. He found the fast ground too lively at Ascot when subsequently fourth in the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. before disappointing when fifth behind Warrsan in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden in September. That veteran, who beat the 2001 hero Millenary in this two years ago, had finished third in last season's renewal before collecting his second G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom in June. He put up one of his finest performances when finishing a head second to Refuse to Bend (Ire) in the G1 Eclipse S. the following month, but may have been past his best when unplaced in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, G1 Japan Cup and G1 Hong Kong Vase at the end of the year. His trainer Clive Brittain reports him more forward than 12 months ago. "He has got to give away his Group 1 penalty, but he is within two kilos of his racing weight at the moment," he told the Racing Post. "Last year the race would have brought him on, but this time he's had a long holiday and I don't think you could rule him out." Alkaased had Bandari back in third when runner-up to Mamool (Ire) in the G3 September S. at Kempton on his final start.

Whipper heads a star cast in a strong renewal of this contest, featuring some of the top European milers of last term. As the winner of the 2003 G1 Prix Morny, he entered his sophomore campaign with high expectations and was not disgraced when fifth in the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket last May. He returned from a break at Deauville in August to finish runner-up to Somnus (GB) in the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest and win the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois in the space of seven days, but disappointed when fifth in the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp in September and 10th in the G1 Breeders' Cup Mile at Lone Star Park the following month. He has to give weight to all, including the G1 Prix Jean Prat and G1 Grand Prix de Paris runner-up and G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein winner Cacique and his stable companion Grey Lilas. The latter proved one of the revelations of 2004 when finishing second in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches (French 1000 Guineas) at Longchamp in May and third in the G1 Prix de Diane (French Oaks) at Chantilly in June. She shed her bridesmaid tag when winning the Prix du Moulin before finding only the subsequent G1 Hong Kong Cup winner Alexander Goldrun (Ire) too strong in the G1 Prix de l'Opera at Longchamp on Arc day. Heading a strong supporting cast is Autumn Glory, who looked an improved performer when easily beating subsequent G2 Sandown Mile victor Hurricane Alan (Ire) in the Listed Doncaster Mile last time Mar. 31 and will relish this testing ground.

Simonas proved he stayed in winning the G2 Premio Carlo d'Alessio at the Capanelle in May and when fourth in both the G1 Rheinland-Pokal at this track in August and G1 Grosser Preis von Baden the following month. He exceeded himself when finishing the 1 ½-length runner-up to Sulamani (Ire) in the G1 Canadian International at Woodbine in October before disappointing when only 10th in the G1 Hong Kong Vase at Sha Tin on his final start in December. Collier Hill justified his connections' bold decision to run in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic by finishing third behind Phoenix Reach (Ire) at Nad al Sheba Mar. 26 and rates a threat, as does last year's G2 Hansa-Preis scorer Rotteck, who was also third in the G1 Deutschland Preis at Dusseldorf in July.

Roger Wilko...

G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile hero Wilko (Awesome Again) signaled his readiness for the "Run for the Roses" with a solid five-furlong move in :59.80 at Hollywood Park yesterday. It was the fifth-fastest of 66 works at the distance. "It was a good, strong work," trainer Craig Dollase said. "We caught him galloping out six furlongs in :11.80, so the last quarter was in :22 and change. He went really well."

The chestnut closed for third in his last start, the Apr. 9 G1 Santa Anita Derby. Jockey Frankie Dettori was in the saddle for that race, but Corey Nakatani will have the mount on Derby Day. Wilko will ship to Churchill Downs today.

Zito Postpones Derby Works...

Trainer Nick Zito yesterday postponed the final Derby workouts for three of his five starters. Bellamy Road (Concerto), High Fly (Atticus) and Noble Causeway (Giant's Causeway) were all scheduled to have their final preps for the first leg of the Triple Crown, but will now wait at least until today. "We will try again [Sunday]," Zito said. "Even if the weather gets bad, I can wait until Monday. Why take a chance?" The forecast for Louisville called for clouds Saturday night and a sunny day Sunday.

Blinkers for Flower Alley...

Flower Alley (Distorted Humor) will have blinkers on for his final workout prior to the Derby, and will wear them on the first Saturday in May. The Melnyk Racing Stables colorbearer, a distant second in the GII Arkansas Derby last time out, is scheduled to breeze today. "I think he needs [blinkers]," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "He needs focus. I would have liked to put blinkers on him after he won the Lane's End S. [GII, at Turfway in March], but I couldn't do it then." He added, "I just don't want to wake up the morning after the Derby saying, 'I wish I had put blinkers on.'"

DIVA FACES FULL FIELD IN TENNO SHO Dual G1 Melbourne Cup heroine Makybe Diva (GB) (Desert King {Ire}) stretches out to her favored two-mile distance for Sunday's G1-JRA Tenno Sho at Kyoto Racecourse. The first-ever foreign entry in the 131-year history of the race, she won the 2000-meter G1 Australia Cup Mar. 12 and tacked on a two-length victory in the G1 BMW Classic Mar. 19, but disappointed when just seventh in the Listed April S. at Nakayama Apr. 10. She might have found the going a touch too quick that afternoon and gets a chance at redemption today. The competition includes G2-JRA Kyoto Shimbun Hai winner Heart's Cry (Jpn) (Sunday Silence); Hishi Miracle (Jpn) (Soccer Boy {Jpn}), the 2003 Tenno Sho winner; and Silk Famous (Jpn) (Marvelous Sunday {Jpn}), third in last year's race.

ATTRACTION TO HONG KONG The first leg of the newly created Asian Mile Challenge received a boost when it was announced that the star filly miler Attraction (GB) (Efisio {GB}) will make her seasonal debut in the G1-HK Champions' Mile May 14. The winner of her first eight trips to the post, including the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot, the Mark Johnston trainee lost her next three, but put a halt to that skid with a narrow victory in the G1 Sun Chariot S. at Newmarket Oct. 2. She was originally being pointed for the G1 Lockinge S. at Newbury, but Johnston prefers faster ground for his filly and pointed out that the going at Newbury can be easy at this time of the year. Attraction will face undefeated Silent Witness (Aus) (El Moxie), who will be testing the 1600 meters for the first time in his career. Delzao (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) is also being pointed for the race, while Japan's NAR Horse of the Year Cosmo Bulk (Jpn) (Zagreb) will represent his country at Sha Tin. Don't Get Mad may have booked himself a ticket to the 131st Kentucky Derby with this stellar success.

Horsephotos

The bay colt was two-for-two last season, winning a pair of races at Churchill Downs, and showed promise when second in the Feb. 13 GII San Vicente S. in his sophomore bow. But he was a well-beaten third behind Consolidator in the Mar. 19 GII San Felipe S. and never lifted a hoof in his latest, finishing sixth in the Apr. 9 GI Santa Anita Derby. The second choice to get back on track here, he was two lengths last after a half in :45.15 and had passed just one horse after six furlongs in 1:10.59. Jockey

Gary Stevens steadied Don't Get Mad as they raced into the stretch, finally opting to swing out into the middle of the track, and the B. Wayne Hughes runner exploded, inhaling the five in front of him before opening up for an easy victory. "He gave me a big burst of speed and just ran by those horses," Stevens said.

Hughes also owns Derby hopeful Greeley's Galaxy, who would have to be supplemented to the first leg of Triple Crown and will only get into the race if the entries don't number more than 20. If Greeley's Galaxy is in, trainer Ron Ellis said he would run Don't Get Mad as well. "Hopefully both of them can get in," Ellis said. "This guy is a fresh horse, and I think it would be okay to bring him back in a week. We'll look for a rider for him. If only one of Mr. Hughes' horses gets in, I have a feeling it will be Greeley's Galaxy." Added Hughes, "The thought I'm keeping right now is running an entry. If both get in, Kent Desormeaux is the top choice to ride Greeley's Galaxy. As for Don't Get Mad, all I'll say is that Tyler Baze should keep an open date for next Saturday." Del Mar Show, who won six graded-stakes races in 2001 and 2002, had been competing in lesser company of late. The bay hadn't had his picture taken since last February in a Gulfstream allowance, and exited Bill Mott's barn following a close fourth in an allowance at the Meadowlands Oct. 1. He was off the board in his first four starts for trainer D. Wayne Lukas, most recently running a close eighth in the Gill Shakertown S. at Keeneland Apr. 16. Venturing outside of his Tampa base for the first time, Pirate King surprised this competitive bunch. The Florida-bred was a wide-margin winner of his first two outings last winter, but was sidelined following a fifth to GSW Weigelia in the Sophomore S. last April. He returned to the winner's circle in his second start off a nine-month break Feb. 11 before missing by just a neck in his turf bow Mar. 20 at Tampa. The bay scrimmaged for the lead while six wide, took charge on the turn and drew off under a hand ride.

A 9-1 shot with the return to Louisville, she settled in sixth early, closed some ground on the far turn and finished with a flourish on the far outside to take the three-way photo over Yes Beth (Deputy Commander) and Sagitta Ra (Run Softly). FIRST WORD (c, 3, Chester House--Harpia {GSW-US, $294,389}, by Danzig), off the board while trying turf in his career opener at Santa Anita Feb. 27, has improved with each start on the main track. Fourth going 6 1/2 furlongs in Arcadia Mar. 5, the Juddmonte homebred was second as the even-money chalk going a mile Apr. 1. The bay was adding blinkers for his first appearance outside Southern California. The 13-10 favorite, he had the lead as they hit the half-mile pole, turned back a bid from Chief Export (Chief Seattle) after six furlongs and stretched his advantage down the lane to break his maiden by 3 3/4 lengths. Keeneland Sets Attendance Record:

A total of 235,220 fans attended the 16-day spring meet at Keeneland, a record for the Lexington track. It surpassed the mark of 232,826 set during last year's 15-day stand. A single-day attendance record was also established when 33,621 race fans passed through the turnstiles for the Toyota Blue Grass program Apr. 16. The daily average attendance was 14,701, down 5 percent from last year's record of 15,522.

Lone Star Attendance Hits Milestone:

When Dan Schaap passed through the Lone Star Park turnstiles Saturday, he became the 10-millionth visitor since the racetrack opened in May 1996. Schaap received two lifetime admission passes to Lone Star, a lifetime parking pass and a $100 betting voucher.

WIN WITH BECK (c, 4, Personal Flag--Matter of Trust, by Leo Castelli) won three straight over the Aqueduct inner track, beating New York-breds Dec. 4 and Jan. 16 before taking an entry-level allowance over open company Feb. 19. The bay tired to be fifth after chasing the pace over this track and trip Mar. 19 and was 6-1 to improve off that performance. +FREEDOM ISNT FREE (c, 3, Fly So Free--Marquesa Lana {SW}, by Hadif) had worked well for his debut, but bettors were skeptical of trainer Dominic Galluscio's one-for-28 record with first-time starters and let him go at 11-1. The odds looked accurate as the colt got off to a rough start and trailed through a half in :45.56, and still didn't look far off as he weaved his way through traffic at the top of the stretch. But jockey Jose Santos guided to his mount to the rail inside the eighth pole and drove him past Heretic (Holy Bull) in the final yards for a half-length score. The winner was a $35,000 KEESEP yearling. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $24,600. O-Sweething Stable. B-Mary Ann Smith (KY). T-Dominic G Galluscio.

Funny Cide to Skip King's Point:

Champion Funny Cide (Distorted Humor), winner of the 2003 Kentucky Derby, will be scratched from today's King's Point H. at Aqueduct, trainer Barclay Tagg said yesterday. Tagg said the weight and the potential of an off track contributed to the decision to skip the race. "I'm not going to run him," Tagg said. "The combination of carrying a lot of weight [the gelding was the 127-pound heavyweight] and a wet track are very unappetizing. I'll probably just train him up to the Pimlico Special." The GI Pimlico Special will be run May 20.

Blood-Horse Publications will conduct its annual silent auction to benefit the March of Dimes' Thursday, May 5, from 4 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. at their offices located at 3101 Beaumont Centre Circle in Lexington. The event is free and is open to the public. Some of the items available for bidding include a Tempur-Pedic Classic Swedish mattress, six box seats at Churchill Downs for the live racing program of June 25, 2005, NTRA/ Breeders' Cup apparel and merchandise, a halter from Dubai World Cup hero Roses in May, an autographed copy of PEB: Stars of the Turf 50th anniversary collector's portfolio and a spa package from Spa Utopia.

KTTC to Auction off Derby Halters:

Kids to the Cup, a national not-for-profit organization which educates young racing fans, will auction off halters worn by this year's Kentucky Derby participants on eBay's auction website. The halters will be donated by John E's restaurant in Louisville and will be available for bidding beginning Monday, May 2 through Monday, May 9. The auction will be listed on www.ebay.com in its sports memorabilia section.

Aldora made great strides in 2003, when she won the Listed Dahlia S. at Newmarket and this race as well as the Listed Princess Elizabeth S. at Epsom before injury cut short her progression. Returning to finish seventh in the Listed Snowdrop S. at Kempton last time Mar. 26, she was settled towards the rear throughout the early stages of this contest and was temporarily short of room on the rail approaching the final quarter. When the gap came between the long-time leader Secret History and Majestic Desert, she seized the initiative and the lead at the eighth pole before stretching clear in the closing stages.

Rocamadour showed resolution from the front when winning the Listed Fielden S. at this track last time Apr. 14 and was able to dictate again here to defy a three-pound penalty. Taking full advantage of his rivals' reluctance to press the early pace, Frankie Dettori cruised at the head of affairs until winding his mount up approaching the quarter pole. From there he was always holding Daring Ransom, who stayed on up the hill after being outpaced at a crucial stage.

INDIAN TRAIL (GB) (g, 5, Indian Ridge {Ire}--Take Heart {GB}, by Electric {GB}), a 10-1 chance, was given a break after winning a handicap at Newbury July 17.

The five-year-old was reserved here behind the pace among the far side group during the early stages. Pushed along to close soon after halfway, he was driven out up the punishing climb to deny Baltic King (GB) (Danetime {Ire}) by a neck in the shades of the post. The winner was a 38,000gns TATOCT yearling purchase. Lifetime Record: 11-4-0-2, £50,296.

ELEGANT FASHION TO ZABEEL

Elegant Fashion (Aus) (Danewin {Aus}, winner of the 2003 Hong Kong Derby, has been booked to champion sire Zabeel (NZ) when she retires to the breeding shed later this year. "She is expected to arrive in New Zealand in three to four weeks' time so that she has plenty of time to acclimatize before she goes to Zabeel," Cambridge Stud General Manager Marcus Corban told Australian Associated Press. "It's another feather in Zabeel's cap to have a world-class mare of Elegant Fashion's standing coming to him. The chestnut daughter of Wily Trick (Clever Trick) was a three-time Group 2 winner and was second in the G1 AJC Australian Oaks before being exported to Hong Kong. In addition to her four victories there, Elegant Fashion was twice second in the G1 Hong Kong Cup and the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup.
