MAKING WAVES

No owner-trainer-jockey combination had completed the 1000-2000 Guineas double since 1942, but Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor, Aidan O'Brien and Kieren Fallon fulfilled the dream when Virginia Waters (Kingmambo) powered away with yesterday's G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket. Bolstered by the success 24 hours earlier of stable companion Footstepsinthesand (GB), Fallon's confidence shone through as he reserved the 12-1 shot at the back of the bulky field throughout the early stages. When asked to close, she made effortless inroads into the lead of the 5-1 favorite Maids Causeway (Ire) (Giant's Causeway) and swept past at the eighth pole before pulling 2 1/2 lengths clear of that rival. "I don't think I've ever traveled so well in a Classic," Fallon said. "She traveled better than Russian Rhythm and the way she picked up and went away was amazing. She's a fabulous filly and is going from strength to strength." Cont.p2

ZITO RUNNERS FLEX MUSCLES

Trainer Nick Zito sent out three of his five Kentucky Derby hopefuls for their final major works before Saturday's Run for the Roses at Churchill Downs yesterday. Likely Derby favorite Bellamy Road (Concerto) worked five furlongs in 1:00.40, the fourth fastest of 58 at the distance. G1 Florida Derby runner-up Noble Causeway (Giant's Causeway) went the same distance in company in 1:00, third fastest on the day, while Florida Derby winner High Fly (Atticus), also breezing in company, completed his work in 1:00.40.

Exercise rider Maxine Correa was in the irons for all three works and Zito was particularly pleased with her work on Bellamy Road. "There has been a lot of talk about horses being in there that may not rate a little bit or do what he has to do, or maybe he won't be able to get the trip," Zito explained. "It was a good thing [Correa] worked him the way she did. You could see he was even all the way around, finished up good and he looked very relaxed doing it."

Noble Causeway worked in company with Laurel allowance winner Capac (Deputy Minister). "He's not Ghostzapper," Zito said of Capac. "So what happened was Capac obviously couldn't keep up with Noble Causeway, so maybe as far as the last part of that, I think that was good, too, because he might have gone a little too fast. On the other hand, we needed a little zip in him, because in the Derby, as we always say, these guys play for real and you've got to get a spot sometimes and [jockey] Gary [Stevens] is going to have to get to a spot, so that worked really well."

High Fly, who worked with the Live Oak's three-year-old maiden Last Samurai (Pulpit), also pleased Zito. "I think the main thing with him was, whoever that horse was [that dropped in at the eighth pole] may be a blessing because that last eighth, he really got himself going when he saw that horse." Cont. p2

Virginia Waters Takes 1000 Guineas (cont. from p1)

Virginia Waters showed promise when third in the G3 Park S. and second in the Listed Flame of Tara S. in the span of eight days at The Curragh in October, but it was only on her winning return in the G3 Leopardstown 1000 Guineas Trial S. Apr. 10 that she showed the requisite class for a tilt at this Classic. "It doesn't get any better than this," commented owner Michael Tabor. "It's a dream of ours and has worked to perfection. To win one Classic is unbelievable, but two is phenomenal." Of his second Classic winning trip of the weekend, jockey Kieren Fallon commented, "She relaxed and went to sleep at the back, but she changed gear running downhill and won really well." Fallon added, "She has a fabulous attitude for a filly and there must be a chance she will stay the Oaks distance. She has so much toe, but she is bred to get further and she was certainly not stopping out there."

Beaten Favorite Looks to Ireland

While the winner may be committed to a crack at the G1 Epsom Oaks June 3, Maids Causeway will stay at a mile, according to trainer Barry Hills. "She ran a great race but was beaten by a better horse," he said. "The winner has gone by and won in a stride or two and she could be very good, but we beat the rest fair and square. I'll consider the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas [at The Curragh May 22] and the G1 Coronation S. [at Royal Ascot June 17] now."

A Good-Looking Filly

"She's run a great race," conditioner Michael Jarvis said of third-place finisher Vista Bella (GB) (Diktat {GB}). "I was worried about the ground and I think that she showed her lack of racing experience today, getting left behind. But when she hit the rising ground she picked up well. The Curragh would suit her and she could be supplemented for the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas [May 22]."

G1 Toyota Blue Grass S. winner Bandini (Fusaichi Pegasus) and stablemate GII Lane's End S. winner Flower Alley (Distorted Humor) worked for trainer Todd Pletcher yesterday at Churchill Downs. Bandini, working in company with Grade I winner Lion Tamer (Will's Way), breezed five furlongs in 1:00.80 with jockey John Velazquez aboard. Lion Tamer was clocked in 1:00.20. "He's getting physically stronger and more mature mentally all the time," Pletcher said of Bandini. "He's a late foal [May] and he's by Fusaichi Pegasus, so we tried to follow the same map as his sire, in terms of when he made his first start and his schedule after that."

Melnyk Racing Stables' Flower Alley, wearing blinkers for the first time, breezed five furlongs in 1:00.60 in company with last year's champion three-year-old filly Ashado (Saint Ballado), who was clocked in 1:00.30. After his two Derby hopefuls worked, Pletcher said, "We wanted them to work between a minute and 1:01 and we got it. I was pleased that they both went well and seemed to handle the track just fine."

Also on the Work Tab

Bob and Beverly Lewis's Going Wild (Golden Missile) worked five furlongs at Churchill Sunday in a bullet :59.60 and galloped out six furlongs in 1:14. "He was full of himself this morning," commented trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "He was tough to pull up. It was great to see him get over this surface well once again." Lukas added that Jose Valdivia, Jr. will have the mount on Going Wild Saturday...Giacomo (Holy Bull), fourth in the G1 Santa Anita Derby, worked a bullet six furlongs in company at Hollywood Park yesterday in 1:11.80. "They went off a little keen," said trainer John Shirreffs. "But then settled and went steady the rest of the way. It was exactly what I wanted." ... Spanish Chestnut (Horse Chestnut {SAf}) breezed five furlongs at Churchill yesterday in 1:00.40. "He handled the track very well," said trainer Patrick Biancone. "And he recovered quickly from the work. I am very happy with the way he is coming into the race." Joe Bravo has the Derby mount. Triple Threats cont p7.

Alkaased has risen swiftly in class after winning the Old Newton Cup H. at Haydock and following up in the Listed Glorious S. at Goodwood last July. He got his first taste of top-class racing and performed with credit when going down by just a half-length to Mamool (Ire) in the G3 September S. on his last start at Kempton in September. Settled in the rear by a confident Jimmy Fortune throughout the early stages, he moved smoothly to join pacesetting Gamut with 2 1/2 furlongs remaining before settling the result in a matter of strides. Soon clear, he was kept up to his work in the closing stages as Gamut clung gamely to the runner-up spot. Collier Hill had to do it the hard way from the front here, but showed his customary toughness to record a career best. Since taking the Listed Braveheart S. at Hamilton last May, the gelding struggled to defy his rating in some of Britain's major staying handicaps before bouncing back to winning ways in the G3 Stockholm Cup at Taby in September. He made hay in the Dubai sun this spring and finished just two lengths behind Phoenix Reach (Ire) in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Nad al Sheba last time Mar. 26. Using that race-fitness to full effect, he set a moderate tempo throughout, but looked booked for second when headed by Simonas passing the quarter pole. He rallied gamely to regain the lead with 100 yards remaining and went on to assert for the narrow score.

After the withdrawal of last year's G1 Prix du Moulin winner Grey Lilas, it was Martillo who emerged on top again to successfully defend his title. Connections had hoped he would make the grade at the highest level after his exploits in this race last year, but he failed to land a blow when ninth in both the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot and Prix du Moulin de Longchamp either side of domestic glory in the G2 Berlin-Brandenburg-Trophy at Hoppegarten in July. He signed off by finishing runner-up in the G2 Premio Ribot at the Capanelle in November and sixth, beaten a length, in the G1 Hong Kong Mile at Sha Tin in December. He failed to fire on the dirt on his return in the G2 Godolphin Mile Mar. 26. Reserved in rear early by Stephane Pasquier, he challenged wide in the straight and accelerated to cut down Autumn Glory and Steve Drowne in the final 25 yards, as last year's G1 Prix Jacques le Marois hero Whipper closed late to fill the third spot. "There were some excuses for his run in Dubai and I am not surprised that he won today as he was in great condition," trainer Ralf Suerland commented. "We'll have to see where he goes next, but he could run in the G1 Queen Anne S. [at Royal Ascot at York June 14]." Drowne said of Autumn Glory, "He did everything right, he always tries his best and is a hardy horse. The ground dried out just a bit too much, he likes it when it's deeper as it blunts the others' speed." Click for Racing Post chart or brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

The chestnut filly settled off the pace as favored Inspiring set pressured fractions. Inspiring opened up on the field in upper stretch and appeared home free, but Short Route took dead aim on the long-time leader and reeled her in in the dying strides. Inspiring, winner of last year's GIII Sorrento S., returned from an eight-month layoff to run third in the Apr. 2 Santa Paula S. Favored to return to the winner's circle here, the filly grudgingly relinquished the lead late.

Tarfah has climbed through the ranks since finishing runner-up in a handicap in the soft going at Chester last August, rounding off her sophomore campaign with successes in the Listed Rosemary S. at Ascot the following month. Returning to rout her rivals in the Listed Snowdrop S. at Kempton Mar. 26, she faced her toughest test to date here and dug deep to record a career best in a pulsating finish. Stalking the free-wheeling Summitville against the stands' rail, she was penned in there as La Persiana delivered her challenge wide but muscled her way out and inhaled the long-time leader in the final strides. "She took her time to wear her down, but once she picked up was always going to get there," commented her rider Seb Sanders. "She's done nothing but improve and grow up as she was very nervous on her first two runs, but she's really tough and there's no reason why she shouldn't improve further." Tarfah will be aimed at the G2 Ridgewood Pearl S. at The Curragh May 21 and G2 Windsor Forest S. at Royal Ascot at York June 15. Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart.

Vadawina took her record to a perfect two-for-two to become the first high-profile winner amongst the Lagardere Family's acquisitions by His Highness the Aga Khan. Supplemented for this contest after taking her debut at this track by four lengths Apr. 13, she broke well and found herself in front before taking a lead after a furlong. Christophe Soumillon let out an inch of rein to ease her back to the front with 2 1/2 furlongs remaining and, despite drifting right in the closing stages, Vadawina had a cosy margin to spare over Montare. "She is a lovely filly and will run next in the G1 Prix Saint-Alary [at Longchamp May 22]."

Baila Salsa had won a conditions event at the San Siro on her seasonal debut Mar. 16 before finishing fourth in a similar event two weeks later. She found only Bond Deal too strong at this track when attempting to give weight to all in a handicap last time Apr. 17, but reversed those placings with a hard-fought success here. Stalking that rival throughout, she mastered the long-time leader before being instantly swamped by She Breeze on the outside passing the eighth pole. Showing tenacity in the drive to the line, she wrested the spoils in the final strides to record her first stakes success.

Fifth to King Kamehameha in last year's G1-Jpn Japanese Derby, Suzuka Mambo came off a 3 1/2-month absence to record his first group success in the G3-Jpn Asahi Challenge Cup in September. Sixth in the G1-Jpn Japanese St. Leger Oct. 24, the bay was sidelined following a runner-up effort in the Dec. 12 Naruo Kinen and returned to be third to Big Gold at Hanshin Apr. 9. Settled in midpack in the early stages of this marathon event, Suzuka Mambo commenced his bid turning for home, hit the front with 100 meters to run and edged clear. Makybe Diva (GB) (Desert King {Ire}) failed yet again to handle the firm footing and came home seventh, beaten just over four lengths as the 9-2 second choice in the wagering.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

OUIJA BOARD HELD UP Lord Derby's Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) has suffered a minor setback which has delayed her return to the track, it was revealed yesterday. Last year's dual Oaks and GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf winner had been training towards a tilt at the G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom June 3, but after the filly threw a splint, connections have changed direction. "It's nothing serious and she never took a lame step," her conditioner Ed Dunlop said. "She's back cantering now and fingers crossed, we'll start her off shortly but the Coronation Cup looks very unlikely. She may go to Ireland for the G1 Pretty Polly S. [at The Curragh June 25], but we have other options at Royal Ascot at York and all steps lead to America at the end of the season."

☆ CLASSIC CORNER ☆

NEXT FOOTSTEPS UNDECIDED Connections of Michael Tabor and Susan Magnier's G1 2000 Guineas hero Footstepsinthesand (GB) (Giant's Causeway) will wait to decide where their colt will run next. After the unbeaten colt bested Rebel Rebel (Ire) by 1 1/4 lengths in Saturday's mile Classic, trainer Aidan O'Brien described him as a "possible" for the G1 Epsom Derby June 4. However, jockey Kieren Fallon believes that the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas at The Curragh May 21 could suit the colt. "I know he ate up last night, which is a great sign," Fallon said yesterday. "He is bucking and kicking this morning and it took nothing out of him. He is a very tough horse--so was his sire Giant's Causeway and it's obviously rubbing off on this fellow. The track in the Irish Guineas would suit him better than Newmarket. It is an uphill finish and he gets the trip well. I am looking forward to it."

Northern Afleet Joins Battle Vs. Childhood Cancer

Northern Afleet (Afleet), the sire of Kentucky Derby candidate Afleet Alex, is joining the fight to cure childhood cancer. The Northern Afleet Syndicate and manager Taylor Made/WinStar Venture will donate the proceeds from a live auction of a 2006 no-guarantee season to the 12-year-old stallion to Alex's Lemonade Stand, a charity founded by Alexandra "Alex" Scott in 2004. Alex was diagnosed with neuroblastoma, an aggressive form of childhood cancer, two days before her first birthday. When she was four, she decided to raise money to find a cure for the disease and opened a lemonade stand. Word soon spread, and the donations poured in from around the world. Between the donations and the proceeds from the lemonade stand, Alex raised more than $1.6 million. Tragically, Alex lost her battle with cancer last year at the age of eight, but her Foundation carries on the work she started. Charles Zacney, co-owner of Afleet Alex, has already pledged a portion of the colt's earnings to Alex's Lemonade Stand. The live auction will take place Tuesday, May 3, at 10:30 a.m. on the Churchill Downs backstretch adjacent to the clocker's stand. Liz Scott, Alex's mother, will be in attendance, and will also set up a lemonade stand at Churchill's backstretch media center that morning. For more information on Alex's Foundation, go to www.alexslimonade.com.

Oaks Runners Hit the Track...

A pair of GI Kentucky Oaks hopefuls had their final works for Friday's Classic at Churchill yesterday. Longshot Memorette (Memo {Chi}), with jockey Joe Deegan in the saddle, went five furlongs in 1:01.80, while likely favorite Sis City (Slew City Slew) went the same distance in 1:02. Ignacio Correas, assistant to trainer Bill Currin, was pleased with Memorette's move. "She finished strong, so I am happy," Correas said. "She loves this track and gets a hold of it very well."

Margins: 2 3/4, 2 1/4, 2 3/4. Odds: 0.50, 5.00, 3.30.

Bohemian Lady posted a 6 1/2-length victory in the GIII Cicada S. at Aqueduct in March of 2004, but hadn't visited the winner's circle since. A close-up third in the GIII La Troienne S. at Churchill last April, the bay was off the board facing Grade I company in her next two starts and found herself on the sidelines. The Padua Stable colorbearer returned after nearly seven months on the shelf to be second in an optional claimer at Gulfstream Park Jan. 28 before running fourth in the Mar. 20 GIII Hurricane Bertie H. last time out. Odds-on to break her losing streak here, she set a pressured pace, then pulled away late under jockey Gary Stevens. Click here for the video.

SPRING HOUSE (c, 3, Chester House--Spring Star {Brz} {MGSW-Brz}, by Itajara {Brz}) ended an abbreviated juvenile campaign with a win in a maiden test at Ellis Park last August, and came back to be third in a Keeneland grass allowance Apr. 13. The 5-2 second choice to improve in his second start off the layoff, he closed from fourth off a pedestrian pace to take the lead in deep stretch, just getting the better of 31-1 Away to Boston (Boston Harbor) by a head. Lifetime Record: 4-2-0-1, $51,951.

OVERNIGHTSENSATION (f, 4, Bertrando--Magical Flash, by Miswaki), never worse than second in six prior starts, had been competing against Cal-bred company on the turf at Santa Anita. The bay filly was last seen winning an entry-level allowance test by three lengths Mar. 24. The 5-2 second choice taking on open company here, she went right to the lead under jockey Mike Smith and outgamed Dubaian Duel (GB) (Daggers Drawn) to the finish to earn a neck success. The winner is a 1/2 to Oysters (Prized), MSP, $224,050; Bright Magic (Prized), MSW, $212,393; and Hot War (In Excess {Ire}), SW, $165,130. Lifetime Record: 6-3-3-0, $114,820. 1st-CDX, $47,835, Msw, 3/up, f/m, 1m, 1:37 2/5, ft. WIND SURF (f, 3, Lil's Lad--Skirt the Wind, by Red Ransom), second in two starts at Fair Grounds this winter, took a short break before running a distant third going a mile and a sixteenth at Keeneland Apr. 9. Trying a one-turn mile this time, the bay tracked a solid pace and set her sights on front-running Coffee House (Storm Cat) as they raced down the lane. She collared that rival late before pulling away to a 4 3/4-length score as the 9-10 chalk. Lifetime Record: 4-1-2-1, $46,425.

Chowder's First took the nine-furlong New York Stallion S. by a neck at Saratoga last summer, then returned in the fall to win an open-company allowance going seven panels at Belmont Oct. 11. He ended the season with a sixth-place finish behind Spite the Devil in the Oct. 23 Empire Classic H. and was making his 2005 bow here. Facing just three rivals, he was allowed to settle well off the pace for six furlongs, but accelerated on the far turn, grabbed the lead at the eighth pole and was safely in front at the wire.

"[Trainer Phil Serpe] had this horse really ready to run," said winning jockey Joe Bravo. "He had his mind on running today. He came away from there nice, settled down and picked them up when it counted. I was just a passenger."

He returned to the main track to take a Gulfstream allowance by five lengths Feb. 2 and added a 5 1/2-length allowance score at that track Mar. 13. Looking to make it three in a row, the $150,000 FTSAUG yearling was rated off the pace, but swept wide around the final bend and finished well to win it by three lengths as the crowd's 3-5 favorite. FULLBRIDLED (c, 4, Unbridled's Song--Constantia, by Relaunch) was beaten a head in his turf debut at Hollywood Park last November. Freshened after that effort, he made his sophomore bow in a nine-furlong maiden test on the grass at Santa Anita Mar. 31 and prevailed by three lengths. The gray colt was sent off the 9-5 chalk to make it two-for-two on the year. On the pace from the start, he joined 3-1 Richebourg (Lear Fan) for the final drive, shook clear in the final sixteenth and edged away to a 1 1/4-length victory. Lifetime Record: 4-2-1-0, $68,240. SILVER WAND (f, 3, Silver Hawk--Darkwood {SP}, by Fit to Fight) was beaten soundly when racing on the dirt in her debut at Churchill Downs last June, but turned it around in her second start, winning a 5 1/2-furlong sprint on the Ellis Park lawn in July. The dark bay had not been out since. Off at 7-1 in her return, she tracked the leaders while racing on the outside down the backstretch and was between horses on the far turn. Jockey Garrett Gomez sent the filly to the rail as they straightened for home, but she eased out under left-handed urging and surged past the speedy Heavenly Lilly (Top Account) at the line to win it by a neck. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $46,170.

HOPE FOR (f, 4, Rahy--Margaret's Hope {SW, $118,073}, by Cormorant) closed to be second racing down the hill at Santa Anita in her Apr. 7 debut. Last early after missing the break, the even-money choice rallied five wide into the lane and closed determinedly to outfinish Thanks (Royal Anthem) by a neck. The winner, a $200,000 KEEJUL yearling, is a half sister to Let's Be Curious (Air Forbes Won, SW, $198,085), Freon (It's Freezing, SP, $164,574), Air Force M.D. (Air Forbes Won, SW, $169,407), Diamond Hope (Roar, MSP, $196,386) and Fudge Fatale (Roar, SW & GSP, $156,530). Fashionable impressed when running away with her division of the prestigious Wood Ditton S. over a mile at this track on her debut Apr. 13, where she dominated from the front. Keen to restrain his mount this time, Richard Hughes tucked her in behind the leaders early and, after a brief struggle, she duly settled to track the pace. Asked to quicken between rivals inside the final quarter, she seized the gap up the rail to lead at the eighth pole before asserting on the uphill climb.

Resplendent Glory had finished third behind Not Bene (GB) and yesterday's Newmarket scorer Crosspeace (Ire) in a Newmarket handicap Apr. 12 and was sent off the 3-1 joint favorite. Goodricke had been off the track since disappointing when down the field in the G2 Coventry S. at Royal Ascot last June and was allowed to start at odds of 11-1. While Resplendent Glory was caught up in a speed duel at the head of affairs, Goodricke was slowly away and worked his way into contention before unleashing a withering run to join him in the shade of the post.

CROSSPEACE (IRE) (c, 3, Cape Cross {Ire}--Announcing Peace {GB}, by Danehill), runner-up to the smart Nota Bene (GB) in a decent handicap here Apr. 12, had disappointed when out of the money in a similar event at Sandown 10 days later. He found himself in a pocket in mid-pack throughout the early stages here. Ridden at halfway, the 9-2 chance picked up impressively when extricated and reeled in Intoxicating (GB) (Mujahid) in the final strides to record a neck success. "He came out of the stalls awkwardly and was a little further back than I wanted to be," jockey Royston Ffrench explained. "He stayed on very well and stuck his head out, but he's a very laid-back horse and you couldn't tell how far he would go." FORT WOOD COLT FETCHES RECORD PRICE

A colt by standout South African sire Fort Wood brought a record bid of R3.3 million ($541,854) at the National Yearling Sales Friday night in Johannesburg. The bay colt, already named Wonder Lawn (SAf), is a son of Velvet Green (Brz) (Roy), herself a Group 1 winner in South Africa. Consigned by Wilgerbosdrift Stud, he was purchased by John Freedman, on behalf of Fieldspring Racing. "This top colt is arguably by the best sire we've seen in this country," Freedman told SA Horseracing.com. "We were very reluctant to go the extra. I am still shaking." The previous record for a yearling sold in South Africa was R2 million. A total of five horses made seven-figure price tags.

ELVSTROEM POSSIBLE FOR SINGAPORE The connections of Elvstroem (Aus) (Danehill) may send the colt to Singapore for the G1 Singapore Airlines International Cup May 15, the Singapore Turf Club reports. Following his wire-to-wire victory in the G1 Dubai Duty Free S. Mar. 26, the four-year-old was a disappointing ninth in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup Apr. 24 in Hong Kong. He was rumored to have struggled with the right-handed nature of the Sha Tin turf course and could appreciate the return to a counter-clockwise circuit. Elvstroem would be one of two Australian invaders for the $1.8-million event, as Mummify (Aus) (Jeune {GB}) is a likely starter for trainer Lee Freedman. Other top horses pointing for the second leg of the World Racing Championship include G1 Dubai Sheema Classic hero Phoenix Reach (Ire) (Alhaarth {Ire}); defending champion Epalo (Ger) (Lando {Ger}); and Star Over the Bay (Cozzene). Alexander Goldrun (Ire) (Gold Away {Ire}) is possible for the 2000-meter race.
