LIKE MOTHER, LIKE DAUGHTER...

Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum's Eswarah (GB) (Unfuwain) defied inexperience and a tough rival in Something Exciting (GB) (Halling) to record a half-length success in the G1 Vodafone Oaks at Epsom yesterday.

Eswarah J McHugh/Getty Images

In doing so, the 11-4 joint favorite wound back the clock to 1986, when her dam Midway Lady captured this prize for Ben Hanbury. It was Hanbury who handed the unraced Eswarah and words of encouragement to trainer Mick Jarvis upon his retirement at the end of last season. "Her mother was very good, but this filly is exceptional," Jarvis said. "All credit to Ben--I thank him enormously as he's been very helpful and told me she was good. When I said 'Listed good?' he said, 'Better than that.'" Oaks cont. p2

DESTINY ON THE DOWNS

A crowd of 120,000 is expected to descend on Epsom Downs today to witness the £1.25-million G1 Vodafone Derby. What draws them to the 226th renewal of the Classic? It is the presence of the Royal Ascot Racing Club's Motivator (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) and Godolphin's Dubawi (Ire) (Dubai Millennium {GB}). Their sires never got the chance to mix it on the track, but the historic venue will serve as the ultimate stage for their best sons to settle old scores. Lack of staying power may have been to blame for Dubai Millennium's sole defeat in this race in 1999, and similar doubts surround Dubawi. The colt put forth an electric display of speed in the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas at The Curragh May 21, but raised questions with his errant tendencies under pressure on that occasion, which were also evident when he finished a disappointing fifth in the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket Apr. 30 and in his G1 National S. victory at The Curragh in September. Despite the cons, there is no argument as to his class. "Dubawi is in very good form and has an excellent turn of foot...but the Derby is a tough race and he needs to stay," Saeed bin Suroor said yesterday. "Dubai Millennium did not stay in the Derby, but this one may. This is the first time over a mile and a half for him, but Frankie [Dettori] will keep him nice and relaxed, which will give Dubawi a chance to last the distance." Epsom Derby coverage cont. p2-3

SIX LINE UP IN THE ACORN

After posting three dominating wins at Oaklawn Park, Fox Hill Farm's Round Pond (Awesome Again) will face her biggest challenge in today's G1 Acorn S. at Belmont Park. She was forced to miss a start in the GII Black Eyed Susan S. after coming down with a minor illness and has been off since posting a victory in the GII Fantasy S. Apr. 15. "She's training better by the week," trainer John Servis said of his filly, who worked in :57 3/5 at Philly Park May 30. Cont. p4.

TALE OF THE CAT

High on the Horse...

Hanbury's high opinion was quickly justified when Eswarah opened her career with a pair of easy scores at Newbury this spring. She captured the May 13 Listed Swettenham Stud Fillies' S. and had a brilliant gallop in the lead-up to this race. Keen to keep her out of the inevitable early scrimmaging in the Oaks, jockey Richard Hills settled her widest of all in mid-pack off generous early fractions before asking her to close at the top of the straight. Eswarah took command approaching the quarter pole, but was tackled immediately by Something Exciting and Richard Quinn. Despite becoming unbalanced on the camber and flashing her tail for the whip, she quickened all the way to the line to become a Classic winner. "She had trained beautifully this spring and I thought she had the ability to win," Jarvis said. "My chief worry was inexperience, as she had never been in a fight and had a backhander. I was worried how she would react to that, as the whole family have been brilliant, but also had quirks, but she's proven herself a very good filly." For Hills, it was a plan simply executed. "I was conscious, with a filly who had run twice, to give her daylight early--I didn't want her to get bumped all the way round and get frightened," he explained. "Everything went to plan and it was just a case of when to pounce." Connections are considering sidestepping the G1 Irish Oaks at The Curragh July 17 in favor of a break before returning for the G1 Yorkshire Oaks at York Aug. 17. Something Ventured...

Something Exciting's trainer David Elsworth took defeat on the chin. "She ran a wonderful race and, tactically, Richard [Quinn] exploited everything as well as he could," he said. "When she joined the winner I thought she was going to go by, but she has been outstayed by a better filly on the day." Aidan O'Brien did not blame lack of stamina for the loss of co-favorite Virginia Waters (Kingmambo), who tired to be fourth. "I thought she ran a good race and stayed," he remarked.

Erin Go Bragh...

Aidan O'Brien, who has gone some way toward reviving the association of this Classic with his historic base, fields a quartet to improve on his tally of two winners since 2001. But Irish interest is not just confined to the O'Brien stable. Rookie conditioner David Wachman will saddle a live contender in Joseph Joyce's unbeaten Fracas (Ire) (In the Wings {GB}), who followed success in the G3 Sandown Classic Trial Apr. 22 with a hard-fought defeat of Alayan (Ire) in the G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial at Leopardstown May 8. Jockey Jamie Spencer believes he has the right credentials. "He probably didn't learn too much in his first two races as I didn't go through all the gears, but he really had to battle in his last race," he said. "He was still a little bit green, but you had to be impressed with the way his battling qualities came out."

Three Times Lucky?

John Dunlop has already won the Classic twice. This year, he saddles a duo in Neil Jones's Kong (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Mrs. Slade's Unfurled (Ire) (Unfuwain). The former beat Michael Tabor's Walk in the Park (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) by a neck in the G3 Lingfield Derby Trial May 7. "The ground at Lingfield when Kong won the Derby trial was quite firm," Dunlop explained. "He turned well, he came down the hill well and has got a lot of pluses--there are a lot of positive vibes for this horse." But Unfurled has more to prove after winning an inconclusive renewal of the Listed Predominate S. at Goodwood May 18. Jockey Ryan Moore makes his Derby debut on the colt and is looking forward to the challenge. "He's a nice horse, he's done nothing wrong and it looks like he's improving," he told PA Sport. "He'll stay, he'll handle the ground, he's quite a straightforward horse and hopefully he'll run a good race."

a daughter of champion Inside Information, looks to follow in her mother's footsteps, who took this race in 1994. The bay was sharp while winning her sophomore debut in a Belmont allowance May 11. "I think it was by far her best race," trainer Shug McGaughey said of her allowance tally. "It wasn't a stellar bunch, but there was a couple of older fillies in there and she moved way up, speed-figure wise [91 Beyer Speed Figure]." John Oxley's Seek a Star enters this heat riding a three-race winning streak, including the GIII La Troienne S. last time May 5. She makes her first start beyond 7 1/2 furlongs. "She's an extremely nice filly and Jorge Chavez gets along well with her," trainer John Ward said. "She has a sensitive mouth and she doesn't want anyone to handle her in the gate. We figured that out after she lost her first two starts. Since then, she's been unbeaten."

Yeats was denied his moment in the sun 12 months ago when injury ruled him out of the Derby, but he made his belated visit to Epsom Downs a memorable one when making all to gain handsome consolation. Easy winner of last year's G3 Ballysax S. and G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial before a muscle problem put him on the sidelines, he was not asked a serious question in testing conditions when runner-up to Cairdeas (Ire) in the G3 Mooresbridge S. on his return at The Curragh May 2. The colt showed the benefit for that experience to record a career-best here. Sent straight to the front by Kieren Fallon, he turned back back a challenge from Bandari (Ire) (Alhaarth {Ire}) on the downhill run to Tattenham Corner and stayed on determinedly as Alkaased staged a game late pursuit. "Aidan said let him bowl along and when Bandari forced it that made my mind up," Fallon explained. "He stayed to the line and stuck to it well, so he's obviously a very good horse." For Aidan O'Brien, it was a case of what might have been. "I probably overtrained him for the Derby last year, which could have brought on the problems," he admitted. "We started off with a different approach this year and let every race bring him on." She could manage only sixth in last year's G1 Epsom Oaks, but came back from a spell on the sidelines to win the Listed Severals S. over 10 furlongs at Newmarket in October. The four-year-old was the even-money favorite in his first appearance this season. Settled in rear by a confident Frankie Dettori off the moderate early pace, she swept by the long-time leader Secret History approaching the quarter pole before brushing aside Peeress with ease. "She'd been working superbly well and was very impressive," Racing Manager Simon Crisford commented. "Hopefully, she's a filly we can go to Group 1 races with some confidence. She will be aimed at the G2 Windsor Forest S. [at Royal Ascot at York June 15] and maybe the GI Beverly D. S. later on. She has the stamina for a mile and a quarter, so we have plenty of options." Alphabet Kisses posted a career high Beyer of 103 in last season's GI La Brea S. and appears to be the main speed here. She faded to finish fourth after cutting out the fractions in the Sunshine Millions Distaff Jan. 29, but rebounded nicely off the layoff to post a wire-to-wire score in this track's B. Thoughtful S. Apr. 24. She is unbeaten in four starts over this strip. Andujar has started to come around since shipping in from France in March, posting a maiden win over Santa's Anita's turf Apr. 7 and adding an allowance tally over track and trip last time Apr. 28. The bay makes her first start for trainer Doug O'Neill today.

Stars of tomorrow grabbing the spotlight today...

The brisnet.com 'Race of the Day' is the GI Acorn S. at Belmont.

For pps and a complete race analysis, click here.

A.P. Arrow Confirmed for Belmont...

A.P. Arrow (A.P. Indy), a maiden winner going 1 1/4-miles at Churchill Downs May 14, will make his next start in the GI Belmont S. June 12. Jerry Bailey has the mount. "In light of the horses that are lining up [for the Belmont] and his style, I think he fits the race good," trainer D. Wayne Lukas said. "He's kind of my Commendable [2000 Belmont S. winner]. I think he's got a high cruising speed and I think he'll stay forever." Prior to his maiden victory, A.P. Arrow finished ninth in the GI Santa Anita Derby Apr. 9.

Belmont Plans Scrapped?

Trainer Robbie Bailes is undecided if Scrappy T (Fit to Fight) will run in the Belmont after drilling five furlongs in :58.40 at Bowie Thursday, according to Daily Racing Form. "I keep pushing everybody back," he said. "I keep going back and forth. The main thing I'm concerned about is whether my horse is at the top of his game. If I don't believe we can win the race and the distance doesn't suit him, we'll look for something else. If he's physically ready to go and we're sure the mile and a half won't hurt him down the road, we'll give it a shot." Other options for the GI Preakness S. runner-up include the Colonial Turf Cup June 25 or the GII Dwyer S. July 4.

Ramsey to Enter a Maiden in the Belmont...

Ken Ramsey will enter the winless Nolan's Cat (Catienus) in the Belmont to try and gain recognition for his sire, according to Blood-Horse. The homebred was last seen finishing second behind fellow Belmont entrant A.P. Arrow in a maiden contest at Churchill. "I really don't think we have a shot of winning, but he's by our own sire, and I've got the mother, the brother, and the sister, and even if he can finish third it would really improve the family," Ramsey commented. "I'll probably get some flak for running a maiden in the Belmont, but I think it's worth the $20,000 to take a chance."

Oratory to Take a Pass...

Oratory (Pulpit), winner of last weekend's GII Peter Pan S., will not run in the Belmont, according to trainer Tom Albertrani. "The Belmont comes up quick, especially considering he ran such a big race in the Peter Pan," he said. "Hopefully, he keeps improving and there will be some nice races for him over the summer." The GI Travers S. Aug. 27 is the colt's primary objective.

ATTRACTION TO MISS YORK

Mark Johnston yesterday ruled the Duke of Roxburghe's Attraction (GB) (Efisio {GB}) out of the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot at York June 14. Last year's dual G1 1000 Guineas, G1 Coronation S. and G1 Sun Chariot S. heroine finished unplaced in the G1 Champions Mile at Sha Tin May 14. A statement on www.markjohnstonracing.com read, "It has been decided that Attraction will bypass the Queen Anne S. at the Royal Ascot meeting in favour of a campaign later in the summer. A minor sprain to her left-fore fetlock joint, sustained when racing in Hong Kong, is taking longer to resolve than had been anticipated and so, although she is sound and continuing in ridden exercise, it has been decided that she should have more time. All being well, she should reappear in the G1 Falmouth S. [at Newmarket July 5]."

Thoro-Graph Race of the Week
 Saturday, Hollywood, Milady BC H.-G2, 3yo/up, f/m 1 1/16m

Weight and ground loss are two variables undervalued by the public, and Thoro-Graph figures are adjusted for both. Five pounds of weight differential is worth one point on our scale, which in turn is worth about a length in sprints, and almost two in routes. Ground loss adds up as well—geometry dictates that every path off the rail on every turn is worth a length at the wire, barring unusual circumstances like a “dead” rail.

PP HORSE SIRE WT
1 Star Parade (Arg) Parade Marshal 115

Very good in an extended campaign at 4 and 5, getting down to a top Thoro-Graph figure of 1-1/4 on several occasions. She returned with a stinker, then two virtually identical efforts that look completely different due to ground loss—her rail skimming second in the Apple Blossom and wide trip fifth at Churchill (3w4w) both earned 3’s. Today she draws the rail, and gets a big pull in the weights from favorite Hollywood Story—enough weight so that a repeat of her last two is good enough to beat Hollywood Story’s historical best, before even looking at potential ground loss.

2 Santa Candida (Arg) Espaciado (Arg) 113

Won Graded stakes in Argentina by open lengths last year, and her only North American try came in a very fast race that was much better than it looked, and makes her borderline competitive here with very little improvement. Since that was her first start off a layoff and she had a little trouble early she could improve more than a little, which makes her live in here.

3 Siphon Honey Siphon (Brz) 112

Has a really unhealthy pattern. Ran big in her first start, tailed off for the next six months, finally came close to matching that figure, and disappeared for more than a year. In her third start of this campaign she finally got back to her top level, before bouncing last time. Given her history of being hurt by big efforts it’s likely she will tail off or go on the shelf again soon, and horses that run a low percentage of top efforts are generally shaky betting propositions—you better get a price.

4 House of Fortune Free House 116

On raw ability, the best filly in the race. At 2 and early 3 she ran GI figures, but her last serious effort came almost exactly a year ago, and she hasn’t come close to that level since—something is clearly wrong. The last two were mediocre, and which way she goes today could tell us whether she’ll ever come all the way back. It’s tough to bet on or against this one with confidence.

5 Alphabet Kisses Alphabet Soup 117

Has never been able to put two top efforts together, and in fact has gone months between tops up until now. Her last was one of those, so the questions are whether she’ll be able to put two together for the first time, and if so whether that will be good enough. To the first, maybe—she’s older and theoretically stronger than she was at 3. To the second, probably not—she would probably need a new top. Not impossible, but an underlay as one of the favorites.

6 Festival (Jpn) Assatis 113

Was in the right place at the right time over the winter when they took a graded stake off the grass, and won it with a slow figure. She’s never run fast enough to threaten here.

7 Andujar Quiet American 112

Tried dirt for the first time in her life last time, and ran the best figure she has run. That figure still leaves her at a couple of points (about 4 lengths) short of what she’ll need to be competitive here, and she’ll be over bet off the 10-length win.

8 Hollywood Story Wild Rush 121

Ran a big figure (2-1/2) to win the Starlet at 2, but took a long time to get back to that level. The good news is that her last three were all that good, the bad news is that she still hasn’t been able to improve on a 2yo top. The worse news is that with all the recent talk about there being no true handicaps, this filly got slammed in the weights, especially relative to Star Parade. She also has a post and running style that pretty much guarantees an outside trip, so overall she spots about 2 points (4 lengths) to a filly that has equal recent ability, and is better on her best.

Overview – Hollywood Story is vulnerable at a short price, with Star Parade the most likely winner. Santa Candida is the interesting longshot. For complete sheets, data and analysis for the ROTW, click here.

Jerry Brown formed Thoro-Graph in 1982 to service the needs of horsemen and professional handicappers. Since then, Thoro-Graph has been responsible for the purchase of Belmont winner and champion Victory Gallop, two-time Breeders’ Cup Mile winner Da Hoss, multiple track record setter and leading sire Distorted Humor, and 65 other horses that have gone on to win stakes for their clients. Thoro-Graph performance figures take into account weight, ground loss, effect of wind on the time of the race, and track speed. The lower the figure, the better the performance. Among Thoro-Graph’s innovations are Thoro-Patterns, the figure-based profiles, which enable horsemen and serious handicappers to accurately assess the tendencies of trainers in different situations, and sire’s and dam’s runners at different distances, over different surfaces, and at different ages. MILESTONE WIN FOR BAZE Jockey Russell Baze reached yet another milestone in his Hall of Fame career, riding his 9,000th winner aboard favored Queen of the Hunt in Thursday's eighth race at Golden Gate Fields. The 46-year-old reinsman now sets his sights on the record of Laffit Pincay Jr., who retired with 9,530 career victories. "Catching Laffit is obviously the next goal," he commented. "If we can do that, then I'd like to go for 10,000 [wins]. I'm just blessed with an occupation that I love to do. The main thing is being physically able to come out here and do it day after day." Longevity and durability have been hallmarks of his career. Baze, a 31-year veteran of the saddle, has been the leading rider at Northern California tracks no fewer than 59 times, including 26 championships at Golden Gate. He has led the nation in victories seven times and has registered over 400 winners in 11 of the past 13 years.

Stolen Prayer Fashion Bound:

Stolen Prayer (Songandaprayer), who became the first winner for her freshman sire with a 15-length victory at Calder Apr. 26, will go next in Belmont's Fashion S. June 9. "She's pretty special," trainer Eddie Plesa, Jr. said. "I've sold our interest [Plesa and his wife Laurie], but it worked out well since I got to keep her." The trainer added that he will start B.B. Best (Yes It's True) against the undefeated Lost in the Fog (Lost Soldier) in the GII Riva Ridge S. on the Belmont S. undercard. The Plesas co-bred Stolen Prayer with Bea Oxenberg and David Mellin. They sold their interest in the filly to another one of Plesa's clients, Marion Montanari.

Ridden by Jose Santos, she battled for early command and fought her way clear to post a two-length tally over 2-1 choice Dream Lady (Old Trieste). Lifetime Record: 4-2-0-0, $54,592. The 11-10 chalk in her first start against allowance company, the homebred filly tracked the pace from the outside, assumed control approaching the stretch and drew clear to defeat Token of Affection (Gold Token) by 2 1/2 lengths. 2nd Dam: Jeano, by Fappiano

3rd Dam: Basie, by In Reality

Folklore was the only member of the field with a prior start to her credit, and took advantage of that experience to register the first win for her freshman sire (by Cee's Tizzy). Sent off at odds of 5-1 in that May 18 debut over course and distance, the homebred filly raced close up early before weakening to be second, beaten 3 1/4 lengths. The slight second choice at 3-2 to go one better, the bay relaxed kindly behind dueling front-runners, tipped out three wide for the stretch run and pulled away nicely to defeat 3-2 favorite Truart (Yes It's True) by four lengths. SHORT CIRCUIT (c, 2, Lemon Drop Kid--La Sila, by Danzig) contested the pace in his May 19 debut, won by the promising Speed of Sound, but dropped back in the stretch to finish fourth of six. The $75,000 FTKOCT yearling and $250,000 FTFFEB juvenile may have had an excuse for that effort, as Lasix was being added for this start. Away alertly from the inside stall, the chestnut colt drew clear into the stretch and went on to win by three lengths, despite never changing leads in the final quarter mile. First-time starter Quarterflash (Tactical Cat) was clearly second best. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $27,950. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Matron Winner Can Make a Stylish Sophomore Debut:

Last season's GI Matron S. victress Sense of Style (Thunder Gulch) looks to make her seasonal debut a winning one versus four rivals in today's Revidere S. at Monmouth. The $800,000 KEESEP yearling purchase emerged from her ninth-place finish in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies S. Oct. 30 with a chipped ankle bone. "We have given her plenty of time to recover and she has come back well," Biancone said. "She doesn't have to win, for sure, but we expect her to run very well. We are happy with her." The conditioner had considered a start in this afternoon's GI Acorn S. in New York, but called an audible this week. "That was the plan for a long time," Biancone confirmed. "But she hasn't run in seven months and I felt it would be a little bit too presumptuous to put her against such tough fillies the first time this year. She's not ready for that. I would have had to be much tougher on her in her training. Instead, I decided to build her confidence in an easier race."

NO APPEAL FROM FRANKIE

Frankie Dettori will sit out the entire Royal Ascot meeting at York after deciding not to appeal a six-day suspension picked up on Thursday. Judged guilty of careless riding by the Haydock stewards after causing Fran Berry's mount Aversham (GB) to clip heels and fall in the closing handicap, Godolphin's number one rider has accepted the ban that will run June 13-18. "It was one of those freak accidents that sometimes happen," he said yesterday. "The horse in front was stopping quickly, so I just switched and didn't know Fran was behind me. It's a million-to-one chance, but I'm glad Fran and the horse are fine. A jockey and a horse are on the ground and somebody has to take the blame, so unfortunately its one of those things. Life doesn't stop at Royal Ascot and I'll be back." Godolphin confirmed they will use Kerrin McEvoy as their main jockey at the Royal meeting and the best available when they have more than one runner. Racing Manager Simon Crisford added, "Its very hard for him and our stable, too, as he's a great asset. He made a mistake--it wasn't intended, but he's guilty and thank God no one was hurt. He has so much experience he won't have a problem dealing with this setback."

Black Type Designators for North American Racing
A Graded Race is defined as a non-restricted race with added money or guaranteed purse value of $50,000 or more which has been run at least twice under similar conditions and on the same surface and has been assigned graded stakes status for the year contested by the American Graded Stakes Committee of the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association (TOBA) for the United States, or The Jockey Club of Canada for Canada.

Having bested Mystical Land (GB) and subsequent G1 Middle Park S. runner-up Rebuttal in that six-furlong contest, he performed with credit on his first try over seven furlongs when third in the G3 Greenham S. on his return Apr. 16 and was making his second start of the season here. Soon in front under Ryan Moore, he was kicked into a clear advantage after Tattenham Corner and it proved a decisive move, as he tired visibly in the closing stages.

Court Masterpiece, whose sole stakes success had come when beating Hurricane Alan (Ire) in the Listed Thoroughbred S. over course and distance in August 2003, enjoyed a rich vein of form last summer that was highlighted by success in the International H. at Ascot in July. He was fourth in the G2 Celebration Mile the following month before filling third spot in the G2 Park S. at Doncaster in September. The Gainsborough-bred caused consternation when beaten at 8-13 in his seasonal bow, a conditions event at Leicester last time May 23, but returned to his capable best to rout this field. Held up towards the rear early, he cruised on to the heels of the long-time leader Elliots World in the straight before quickening past that rival inside the final quarter mile. From there it was a procession and he was geared down 50 yards from the line to flaunt his superiority.

Following up on a disappointing fifth in the Listed Proverum Pramms Memorial at Jagersro May 12, the 8-1 chance raced with his customary enthusiasm in a stalking second early before making his move after Tattenham Corner. Grabbing the lead at the quarter pole, he was driven out to hold Realism (Fr) (Machiavelian) by 3/4 of a length. "He has got better and better, but we had to be patient while he grew as he's 17 hands," commented his conditioner Andrew Reid, who bred him at his Mill Hill stables in London. JOHAR TO SHUTTLE TO NEW ZEALAND Johar (Gone West--Windsharp, by Lear Fan), the dead-heat winner of the 2003 GI Breeders' Cup Turf, will shuttle to Highview Stud in New Zealand, which has secured the southern hemisphere breeding rights for a period of at least three years. Highview has partnered with a pair of New Zealand farms, Trelawney and Pencarrow Studs, to bring the six-year-old to New Zealand. "Johar is one of the most impressive individuals you could hope to see," said Highview's Brent Gillovic, who traveled to Kentucky last week to inspect the stallion. "He is extremely athletic and will really suit our New Zealand mares. Also the fact that his pedigree is completely free of Northern Dancer blood is, in my mind, just ideal for our industry and he will provide a perfect cross for not only Northern Dancer-line mares, but, with his pedigree, also those from the Sir Tristram line." The property of Richard Santulli and George Prussin's Jayeff B Stable, Johar is standing his first year at stud at Mill Ridge Farm near Lexington, Kentucky. He will stand in New Zealand for a fee of NZ$20,000 and will serve no more than 100 mares.
