MOTIVE AND OPPORTUNITY

He had most of the 100,000-strong crowd, all 230 of his owners and trainer Michael Bell behind him, but Royal Ascot Racing Club's Motivator (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) needed little assistance to turn the 226th G1 Vodafone Derby into a procession at Epsom yesterday. The 3-1 favorite coped flawlessly with the Epsom circus, moving with grace in a perfect stalking third throughout the early stages. After a text book descent to Tattenham Corner, he eased alongside Hattan (Ire) (Halling) with 2½ furlongs remaining before sprinting to an imperious five-length victory from Walk in the Park (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), whose rattle from rear provided his sire with the exacta. "This is what all the dreams are about," commented John Warren, who purchased Motivator for 75,000 guineas for the syndicate at the Tattersalls October Yearling Sales. Epsom Derby cont. p2

ON GOLDEN POND

The field included Grade I winner Splendid Blended (Unbridled's Song) and GI Kentucky Oaks runner-up In the Gold (Golden Missile), but the Belmont faithful made Round Pond (Awesome Again) the slight choice for yesterday's GI Acorn S., and she didn't let 'em down. The bay filly settled in third as Splendid Blended was pressured through a half in :44.75 and six furlongs in 1:09.62. She was fourth as the frontrunners surrendered to In the Gold in the lane, but hit her best stride in the final furlong, driving to a 1 1/2-length score. Smuggler (Unbridled) outgamed In the Gold for second. "Turning for home, it looked like [jockey Stewart Elliott] was sitting still on her, but I couldn't really tell because there were horses in front of her," winning trainer John Servis said. "When he eased her out, I knew he had horse." Acorn cont. p5 Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

EXCLUSIVE CLUB

Unbeaten Hurricane Run (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) takes on G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains hero Shamardal (Giant's Causeway) in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly this afternoon. The French Classic has been shortened from a mile and a half to a mile and five-sixteenths for this year's running, a move that could favor Shamardal. Said trainer Saeed bin Suroor, "I think it is good that the French Derby has been reduced in distance--it will suit horses who stay a mile and have a chance of staying a mile and a quarter, but who would find it hard to last a mile and a half." French Derby cont. p3-4

A Study in Perfection...

Motivator had not faced a challenge in his three previous starts, which included the G1 Racing Post Trophy at Doncaster last October and the G2 Dante S. at York on his return May 12, but still faced doubts about temperament, stamina and ability to handle the unique track at Epsom. But the bay colt proved more than up to the task, galloping to an easy win as the crowd cheered him home. "You go out and look for a horse of this calibre and we've done it," John Warren remarked. "He was always cruising and at no moment was there any anxiety. He's overcome all the fears we had about his temperament and was amazing in the build-up." For the Club members--packed like sardines into the famed circle--and for trainer Michael Bell and groom James Cronin, this was a first, but jockey Johnny Murtagh had been there twice before on Sinndar (Ire) and High Chaparral (Ire). Murtagh described Motivator as "very high class" afterwards. "It was easier than the others," he explained. "We didn't go that fast early and he was always traveling brilliantly. When I let him go and gave him a smack at the two marker, he just took off and it all went quiet. He quickened up very well and put the race beyond doubt very quickly. I had a peek over a half furlong down and I couldn't believe how far I was in front. I didn't really do much on him in the Dante and he didn't have a hard race, but has improved a hundred percent today. The way he behaved after the race, I think he'll improve again and there's more to come." Bell revealed that he will attempt the English-Irish Derby double at The Curragh June 26. "He's always looked like a champion at home and he's proved himself a champion today," he said. "He won like we hoped he would and the next stage is Ireland, then we'll review it." Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Motivator and Johnny Murtagh

No Walk in the Park...

Jockey Alan Munro, revisiting the slopes he conquered on Generous (Ire) in 1991, was playing second fiddle on the fast-finishing Walk in the Park this time. "He's a fired-up horse and is aggressive, but doesn't get overly warm and I don't think it negates his performance," he remarked. "I had a rough trip early and was forced to sit in rear, but was able to cut the corner and get a really good kick up the inside in the straight. He's got great acceleration and, in any other Derby, I'd have won, but that thing just got loose and I knew I could never catch him." As for G1 Irish 2000 Guineas hero Dubawi, he failed to stay the trip and had to settle for third. "A mile to a mile and a quarter, that's the best distance for him," trainer Saeed bin Suroor said. The colt will be pointed for the G1 St James's Palace S. going a mile at Royal Ascot at York June 14.

First Time Lucky...

The great Sadler's Wells had to wait until his 13th crop before he got his first G1 Derby winner. His son Montjeu (Ire) did not have to be so patient. No less than three of the 14 starters in this year's English Derby were from the first crop by the Coolmore stallion. Motivator and Walk in the Park did daddy proud, finishing first and second. Montjeu, from the 11th crop by Sadler's Wells, could have given his sire that first Epsom Classic, but skipped the 1999 edition of the race as connections opted to go for the French and Irish Derby double. The bay got the job done, and capped his championship campaign with a victory in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. It was Galileo (Ire) who put the name of Sadler's Wells in Epsom's history books, taking the Derby in 2001 and doubling up in the G1 Irish Derby at The Curragh. Just one year later, Sadler's Wells son High Chaparral (Ire) captured the two Classics. Motivator will be the heavy favorite to carry on the family tradition, and the Classic aspirations of Montjeu's first crop don't stop there. The nine-year-old has three representatives in today's G1 Prix du Jockey Club, including 7-4 chalk Hurricane Run (Ire).

Hurricane Force...

Andre Fabre has one G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby) to his name, thanks to Peintre Celebre, but there will be raised eyebrows if Gestut Ammerland's Hurricane Run (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) does not add to the portfolio in today's renewal at Chantilly. Clearly best on his first two starts at Longchamp in October and on his sophomore bow Apr. 15, he set the Bois de Boulogne alight when powering away with the G2 Prix Hocquart last time May 9. But it won't be a walk-over. Godolphin bids for their first victory in this Classic with Shamardal (Giant's Causeway), whose presence alone will help justify France Galop's decision to cut the French Derby trip to 1 5/16 miles. Graced with the title of champion juvenile in the World Rankings, thanks to his performance from the front in both the G2 Vintage S. at Goodwood in July and the G1 Dewhurst S. at Newmarket in October, Shamardal lost his unbeaten tag when flopping on the Nad al Sheba dirt in the G2 UAE Derby Mar. 26. Back on turf for the May 15 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2000 Guineas), he rekindled the flame to best Indesatchel (Ire) and Gharir (Ire) (Machiavellian). "Shamardal has been working very well since he won the French Guineas," Saeed bin Suroor said. "He's really doing well at the moment. Since he came back from Dubai, he's been a much better horse and is happier on the grass gallop in Newmarket. This will be a new distance for him, but he has the class and is a dual Group 1 winner."

Bon Chance...

Ecurie Bader's Vatori (Fr) (Vettori {Ire}) finished third in the G3 Prix des Chenes at Longchamp in September before winning the G3 Prix Thomas Bryon at Saint-Cloud the following month. He had excuses when fourth in the Listed Prix Omnium on his return at that venue Mar. 28 and put that effort behind him when taking the G2 Prix Greffulhe back there last time May 16. Aidan O'Brien, who has also yet to win this Classic, saddles Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's Scorpion (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) and Falstaff (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}). While the latter was a creditable third to Motivator (GB) in the G2 Dante S. at York May 12, Scorpion looked to have a bright future when winning on debut at Leopardstown May 8 and was unlucky to be beaten a short head in the G3 Gallinule S. at The Curragh two weeks later. Jean-Louis Bouchard's G3 Prix de Conde winner Musketier (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}) needs to improve on his fourth in the Prix Greffulhe. He is in the right hands, as Pascal Bary has won this race five times since 1994.

Round Pond Horsephotos

The bay, from the jockey and trainer who brought you Smarty Jones, galloped to an eight-length maiden score Feb. 27, then tried two turns and was 5 3/4 lengths on top at the finish of the Mar. 20 Honeybee S. The Fox Hill Farm colorbearer made it three in a row with a 4 1/2-length victory in the Apr. 15 GII Fantasy S., and was deemed worthy of favoritism in her first start outside the great state of Arkansas. Tucked in behind horses through torrid opening fractions, she was on the rail as they turned for home, but jockey Stewart Elliott steered her to the outside in the stretch and Round Pond came running, taking over late before edging clear. "She got covered up by horses and that might have been the best thing that could have happened," Elliott said. "She really settled in there. It worked out perfectly." Added trainer John Servis, "She's got talent and that's what it takes. You've got to have ability to get this kind of race won." As for what's next, he said, "We'll see how she comes out of this and go from there."

Brought to you by FASIG-TIPTON

Frank Lyons

This week's accomplishment: TVG analyst Frank Lyons is co-owner of Monday's GI Shoemaker BC Mile winner Castledale (Ire).

Birthplace: Dublin, Ireland

Current Residence: Los Angeles

Family: Married Jodi in 2002.

Has Castledale's win sunk in yet?

I'd say it keeps re-setting in.

How many times have you watched the video? Probably 50.

If you had the opportunity, would you bungee jump? No. I would jump out of an airplane. (With a parachute?) Depending on how my year had gone.

What's playing on your CD player right now? U2...How to Dismantle an Atomic Bomb.

Drink of choice: Red wine.

Where would you like to go that you haven't been yet?

To heaven.

Have you ever sung karaoke in a bar in front of people? Yes.

Was it good?: No. But I thought it was at the time. I sang "We Are the Champions" after Castledale had won the Santa Anita Derby.

Is there a tape? No chance--then you'd see me jumping out of an airplane with no parachute.

What would you be doing if you weren't in horse racing? You know I've never even thought about it. I wouldn't even know where to begin.

How many times have you heard about fellow TVG personality Ken Rudolph's winning Derby pick? You know, not enough.

Have you ever seen Bob Baedaker and CNN's Wolf Blitzer

together? I told him I would never ever repeat what I had seen that night.

What do you miss about being a trainer? Just being around the horses in the morning and the afternoon at feed time.

What is your favorite vacation spot? There are a few. I would say in Ireland or Italy. I've always been very much at home at The Curragh. And there is a place in Italy called Cinque Terre which is five cities down by the Mediterranean that has a hiking area that is one of my favorite places in the world.

CONGRATULATIONS!

She was unable to win in five starts in France, but Andujar has blossomed since shipping to the States. The bay was a close-up second after a rough trip in her U.S. debut going down the hill at Santa Anita Mar. 9 and came back to break her maiden over that course Apr. 7. Making her main-track bow in an entry-level allowance over this track and trip Apr. 28, she won her second straight with a powerful performance that saw her hit the wire 10 1/2 lengths to the good. The four-year-old was let go at 7-1 in her stakes debut, but made the bettors pay for their lack of confidence. Andujar went right to the front, dashed off very fast fractions and had enough in reserve to leave her rivals gasping as she pulled away to an impressive victory.

Que Puntual overcame a troubled trip to collect her initial stakes success here. The five-year-old, twice placed in Group 1 competition in Argentina, won her American debut in a grassy Calder NW2X last December. Fourth against Gulfstream rivals Feb. 3, she came within a neck of victory when second at that track Mar. 12. Putting in all together in her latest, Que Puntual blitzed a field of 10 by 7 1/2 lengths at Keeneland Apr. 16 and was the chalk this time moving into stakes company. Racing along in mid-pack up the backstretch, she lost some ground when she was forced to check abruptly, causing her to bump a few others, but re-bid smartly and outfinished a game Ambitious Cat for the win. Two claims of foul against the winner were disallowed. "Thank God I didn't see what happened," said trainer Angel Penna Jr. "She was close enough, and all of a sudden she dropped back and I did not see why. After [watching] the replay, it makes me feel a lot better. I think it was an even better race. Now I have to make a plan for her." six-year-old made her 17th start at the distance yesterday and won for the 10th time, cruising past an ultra-game Shaconage late. Delta Princess kicked off the new year with a second in the Marshua's River S. at Gulfstream Jan. 9, then closed strongly to capture the 8 1/2-furlong Endeavor S. at Tampa Feb. 26. She found only Intercontinental (GB) too strong in the Gill Jenny Wiley S. at Keeneland Apr. 17 and, with no one of that caliber here, was sent off the 8-5 pick. Content to caboose the field as Erhu and Shaconage battled through three-quarters in 1:12 2/5, Delta Princess came eight wide into the lane and motored past 'em all to win going away. Hazyview booked his ticket to last year's G1 Epsom Derby with wins in the Listed Newmarket S. and Listed Fairway S. at Newmarket, but failed to see out the mile and a half and ran eighth in the Classic. He was third behind Valixir (Ire) in the G2 Prix Eugene Adam in July before disappointing when sixth in the G1 Secretariat S. at Arlington the following month. Fifth in the G3 Earl of Sefton S. on his return at Newmarket Apr. 13, he improved to be second in the G3 Gordon Richards S. at Sandown 10 days later before filling third spot with a visor fitted as the highweight in a May 7 handicap at Newmarket. Benefitting from that headgear again here, he was committed early by Darryll Holland before being challenged on the front end by Brunel at the top of the straight. Headed between the three- and two-furlong markers, he regained the lead before opening it up in the closing stages. "He ran too far in the Derby--a mile or mile and an eighth is his optimum trip," said trainer Neville Callaghan. "He's a very decent horse and has always had a big heart--with the visor he's just that little bit sharper." Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart.

Shawanda finished runner-up on her debut at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 1 before going one better in a conditions event at this track four weeks later. She took the Listed Prix de la Seine at Longchamp last time May 15 and made light work of this rise in class. Setting a moderate pace under Christophe Soumillon early, she was asked to increase the pressure from the top of the straight and readily drew clear to secure an easy success. "She's a consistent filly who has never stopped improving," commented trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre. "She's won well again today and the G2 Prix de Malleret [at Saint-Cloud 26] is an option, although we have not ruled out the G1 Prix de Diane [French Oaks at Chantilly June 12]."

Silent Witness takes his show on the road, as he tackles Japan's best milers in his first overseas venture. The reigning Horse of the Year in Hong Kong, the five-year-old gelding had his 17-race winning streak snapped by Bullish Luck in the G1 Champions Mile, the first leg of the Asian Mile Challenge. Silent Witness, who lost 40 pounds on the trip to Japan, faces a difficult task this afternoon over a course historically unkind to front-runners. Hat Trick, one of six representatives for his sire in the race, took back-to-back Group 3 events over course and distance in January, but was last seen finishing ninth behind Lohengrin in the G2 Yomiuri Milers Cup Apr. 16. All carry 128 pounds, except Dance in the Mood and Sweep Tosho, 124.

All carry 128 pounds.

Andreas Schutz has dominated this Classic, which was upgraded to Group 1 status in 2001, collecting the last three renewals. He saddles a duo headed by the unexposed Indigo Girl, who has just a debut score at Cologne Apr. 3. She faces a clutch of proven performers including Gonbarda, who beat North Queen in the Listed Jean Harzheim-Rennen at Cologne Apr. 23 before disappointing when only fourth behind Iota in the G3 Schwarzgold-Rennen back at that track last time May 16. Iota was enjoying only her second start on that occasion and impressed with the way she mastered Wurfscheibe and last year's G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud heroine Paita (GB). Of the also-rans in that trial, Nouvelle Noblesse deserves another chance to recapture the form of her success in the G3 Premio Dormello at the San Siro in October.

An evenly matched group have gathered for this test for three-year-old fillies. Three Degrees ran out of real estate when a nose runner-up in the May 8 GIII Senorita S. at Hollywood and will appreciate the added panel here. She fired a five-furlong bullet over Hollywood's sod May 29 and gets the services of jockey Gary Stevens for the first time. The Bobby Frankel-trained Louvain began her career in Europe, placing in a pair of Listed races last summer before crossing the pond. She rallied to win her U.S. bow in the Nov. 26 GIII Miesque S. over this same lawn, then was put away for the winter. A series of five- and six-furlong moves says she'll be fit. Another Old World filly, Tivadare, deserves a long look. The French-bred miss opened her 2005 season with an allowance win in March in her native country, then shared the spoils in a dead-heat stakes victory at Toulouse last out May 3. Purchased shortly thereafter by Little Red Feather Racing--of Singletary fame--she arrived in the States May 27 and has acclimated nicely, according to trainer Don Chatlos, Jr.

Voix du Nord, who was cut down in his prime by injury last May, continues on the road back. Having won the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud in November 2003, he returned to beat subsequent Arc runner-up Cherry Mix (Fr) by three lengths in the G2 Prix Noailles at Longchamp in April before besting the ill-fated Millemix (Fr) by a nose in a memorable running of the G1 Prix Lupin there the following month. A fracture denied him the chance to justify favoritism in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby) here 12 months ago, but he shaped with promise when fifth, before being promoted to fourth, behind Bago (Fr) over an inadequate trip in the G1 Prix Ganay on his comeback at that track last time Apr. 24. Cairdeas has always been held in high regard, and began to show why when winning the Listed Trigo S. at Leopardstown in October. He returned to finish second, before being demoted to third, in the Listed Alleged S. in desperate conditions at The Curragh Apr. 3. He then beat subsequent G1 Coronation Cup winner Yeats (Ire) by six lengths in the G3 Mooresbridge S. at that course last time May 2.

All carry 123 pounds bar Anna Monda, 128.

Andre Fabre, who has won this seven times since 1988, saddles Mirabilis. The filly has enjoyed a progressive profile since running down the field on only her third start in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac in October. She finished runner-up to Stella Blue in the G3 Prix Miesque in November, and has had two easy scores at this track this term, taking a conditions event Apr. 29 and the Listed Prix d'Angerville May 18. She will need to have improved to reverse form with Stella Blue, who finished third in the Listed Prix Imprudence Apr. 5 and will relish stepping back up to a mile. Anna Monda and Toupie bring Classic form to the mix, with the former an impressive four-length winner of the G2 Henkel-Rennen May 8 and the latter second to Divine Proportions in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches May 15.

☆ TRIPLE THREATS ☆

Scrappy to Pass on Belmont...

The GI Belmont S. lost some of its luster after it was announced that Scrappy T (Fit to Fight), runner-up in the GI Preakness S., will not compete in the June 11 event. The Belmont would have been a rematch between the three-year-old gelding and Afleet Alex, who won the Preakness despite nearly going down after Scrappy T bore out turning for home. Explaining the decision to skip the third leg of the Triple Crown, trainer Robbie Bailes told The Blood-Horse, "We talked it over and the mile and a half at Belmont is not the best place for him. He's going to give it his best if you put him in the water swimming. But you have to think about the management of his racing career when he is five, six, or seven." Bailes said Scrappy T would go to Virginia's Colonial Downs to train and has been nominated to a pair of grass stakes at the track, the $500,000 Colonial Turf Cup June 25 and the $750,000, GIII Virginia Derby July 16. Scrappy T has never raced on the lawn.

Afleet Alex Arrives at Belmont...

Afleet Alex (Northern Afleet), who has been stabled at Pimlico since his dramatic victory in the May 21 GI Preakness S., arrived at Belmont Park yesterday afternoon. "The trip was fine," said Roque Romero, assistant to trainer Tim Ritchey. "We had very little traffic. He seems to handle everything OK. He has a lot of energy." The colt is scheduled to jog this morning.

Zito Could Saddle Trio in "Test of the Champion"...

Trainer Nick Zito said yesterday that he may send out three horses for the final leg in the Triple Crown. In addition to Andromeda's Hero (Fusaichi Pegasus) and Pinpoint (Peaks and Valleys), Zito is also considering Indy Storm (A.P. Indy) for the race. The colt, who won an allowance race on the Preakness undercard last time out, worked in company with Andromeda's Hero on the Oklahoma training track at Saratoga yesterday. The two were clocked going seven furlongs in 1:30. "[Indy Storm] is very fit and he's doing well," Zito said. "Hopefully, a mile and a half will suit him. He's got a great female line and I think he'll run all day. I think we'll have a chance." The Brooklyn native was off the board with all five of his starters in the GI Kentucky Derby.

SWEET CATOMINE IN FOAL TO A.P. INDY

Making the transition from racemare to broodmare, last year's two-year-old filly champ Sweet Catomine (Storm Cat) has been pronounced in foal to leading sire A.P. Indy, according to The Blood-Horse. The sophomore was retired this spring amid a storm of controversy. Sweet Catomine is the first foal out Sweet Life, by Kris S., a stakes winner who was also Grade I stakes placed. Sweet Catomine is boarded at Mill Ridge Farm in Kentucky.

HALF OURS SHELVED WITH FRACTURE Promising two-year-old colt Half Ours (Unbridled's Song) has suffered a hairline fracture to his right hind cannon bone and will be sidelined, reports Daily Racing Form.

The Todd Pletcher charge, working toward a possible tilt in the June 10 Gill Flash S., had breezed four furlongs at Belmont in :48 3/5 last Sunday, but didn't come out of the work well. Subsequent X-rays revealed the fracture. On Tuesday, the undefeated colt had two screws inserted into the cannon bone to stabilize the injury. Pletcher told the Form that Half Ours could possibly return to the track this fall. The colt began his career with a dominating 10 3/4-length victory at Keeneland in mid-April and went on to take the May 7 Three Chimney Juvenile S. by 4 1/4 lengths. Half Ours, a $625,000 KEESEP yearling, is owned by Aaron and Marie Jones and Barry K. Schwartz.

BAIL SET FOR TANAKA According to published reports, bail has been set at a total $11 million for Thoroughbred owner Gary Tanaka. Tanaka and Alberto Vilar, his partner in Amerindo Investment Advisors Inc., have been charged with fraud in connection with the alleged misappropriation of at least $5 million of a client's money. According to Dow Jones Newswires and the L.A. Times, the 61-year-old Tanaka, a resident of London, was ordered to surrender his passport, post a $10 million recognizance bond and pay $1 million in personal cash during a hearing in a New York federal court Friday. He has also been sentenced to home detention and will remain at his son's residence. The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has filed a complaint regarding the case. The New York Times reports that Lily Cates, the widow of 505 Farms' owner Marshall Naify, was the victim of the alleged fraud.

A RECORD DAY FOR EDDIE CASTRO Jockey Eddie Castro set a U.S. record at Calder yesterday, winning with nine of his 11 mounts. It is the only time that an American jockey has won nine races on a single card. According to the American Racing Manual, the late Chris Antley won nine races on Oct. 31, 1987, but picked up four of those victories during the afternoon at Aqueduct and added five more that night at the Meadowlands. Castro broke the previous Calder mark of six winners in one day in race 11, then came back to take races 12 and 13 as well. "When I'm riding these kinds of horses, I just try to take advantage and make the most of it, but it takes some luck to win this many," the 20-year-old Panamanian said. The Eclipse Award-winning apprentice of 2003, Castro has three Calder riding titles to his credit and is currently leading the standings at the South Florida track.

Lady Libby Negative for Strangles:

It was confirmed Friday that Lady Libby, the mare suspected of having strangles at Belmont Park last week, has tested negative for the bacterial disease. Officials at Cornell University, where the five-year-old had shipped to, had a different bacterial infection that produced symptoms similar to those caused by strangles. "Lady Libby had abscessed and had been treated with antibiotics, which made detection difficult," said Dr. Celeste Kunz, NYRA's chief examining veterinarian. "She had actually gone downhill considerably after she was sent to Cornell, but she was doing much better [Friday]. It was determined that she had a condition that was serious to her, but it was definitely not strangles." Dr. Kunz added that every horse in Belmont's Barn 60, where Lady Libby was stabled, had tested negative for strangles. Those horses will now be permitted to train during regular hours.

Impeccably bred Bayou Breeze was second in two of her first three trips to the post before breaking through with a five-length maiden victory in the Aqueduct mud Mar. 23. Allowed to dictate slow fractions in an Apr. 13 allowance test at the Big A, the splashy chestnut held on to win by a length and was coming into this off a second-place finish to yesterday's GI Acorn S. runner-up Smuggler in a one-mile allowance test at Belmont May 11. Bayou Breeze forced the pace outside of Smokestack and that duo was joined by Sense of Style, who was guided to the outside by Joe Bravo for the run up the backstretch. Dance With Ravens Heads Plate Trial:

Sam-Son Farm's Dance With Ravens (A.P. Indy) looks to maintain his perfect record on the main track in this afternoon's Plate Trial S. at Woodbine, the prelude to the June 26 Queen's Plate. Second in the GII Summer S. over the local grass course last September, the bay closed out the year with a half-length victory in the GII Grey Breeders' Cup S. Oct. 11. In two starts this year, he was third in a Keeneland turf allowance Apr. 23 before bouncing back to defeat Atanas (Megas Vukefalos) in a May 7 allowance at this track. Dance With Ravens is a son of champion Dance Smartly (Danzig), winner of the 1991 Canadian Triple Crown and the dam of two subsequent Queen's Plate winners, Scatter the Gold (2000) and Dancethruthedawn ('01).

Starkay made a quick turnaround to register her first career stakes victory. Runner-up in a listed stakes last November in her native country, the bay made a pair of starts down the hill at Santa Anita, finishing fourth Mar. 12 before improving to third Apr. 9 Switched to this track and trip for her last two, she went wire-to-wire to win by two May 5 and was coming off a half-length success just last Sunday. The second choice in the wagering was rated off the pace this time before being asked turning for home. She drew alongside Fun'ngames Toknite leaving the eighth pole and was able to hold off fellow Kiwi-bred Navaja for the win.

IRISH BID IN BALANCE FOR ESWARAH

Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum's G1 Epsom Oaks heroine Eswarah (GB) (Unfuwain) was reported as "absolutely fine" by trainer Michael Jarvis yesterday, who revealed that no decision had been made for her next target. Following her half-length defeat of Something Exciting (GB) in Friday's G1 Vodafone Oaks at Epsom, her owner-breeder suggested that she may enjoy a break before a tilt at the G1 Yorkshire Oaks at York Aug. 17. However, connections have yet to rule out the G1 Irish Oaks at The Curragh July 17. "She almost ate all her feed last night and was absolutely fine this morning," Jarvis said yesterday. "She was led out this morning for a pick of grass and is in good spirit." Sheikh Hamdan's Racing Manager Angus Gold told PA Sport, "The Irish Oaks is the obvious possibility, but Sheikh Hamdan will give it careful thought about where she goes next. He did make the point yesterday that she had had three races in seven weeks and Sheikh Hamdan is not someone who likes to over-race his horses. She seems to still be going up and we would like to keep her fresh for the second half of the season."

BA Foxtrot scored on debut at Leicester Apr. 23 before beating Waterways (Ire) in a conditions race on testing ground at The Curragh May 2. He suffered his first reversal at the hands of that rival when runner-up in the Listed Marble Hill S. three weeks later, but bounced back with a stunning display of raw speed on this furious downhill dash. Smartly away, he was best placed in the first three early and took command at the quarter pole before rushing clear for an emphatic success. "He's a smashing little professional," trainer Mick Channon commented. "We'll have to look at the Royal Ascot at York now."

ENFORCER (GB) (c, 3, Efisio {GB}--Tarneem, by Zilzal) took a Goodwood handicap May 18 before finishing third behind Home Affairs (GB) and Notability (Ire) in a more competitive race at Haydock three days later. Settled in last off the fast early fractions, the 27,000gns TATDEC weanling snaked his way through the field on the inner in the straight before being angled out for his run at the eighth pole. Despite bumping Kerashan (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}) there, the 5-1 chance quickly asserted to beat that rival by a comfortable two-length margin, surviving a subsequent inquiry. "He's got one hell of a turn of foot and will head to the Britannia H. or Listed Hampton Court S. [at Royal Ascot at York June 16] next," commented trainer Willie Muir.
